Come for consciousness, stay for bliss

“There is nothing like hearing and seeing the Maharishi Vedic Pandits in person. I was blown away by the palpable bliss in the air, both at the Pandit and the Guest campuses, and felt rejuvenated and enlivened after every recitation. Come for the consciousness, stay for the bliss!” – M D, Canada

The best gift

“Bliss simply pervades this place! I felt restored and transformed from the inside out. Going to the Brahmasthan was the best gift I have ever given myself.” – CG, Canada

Most powerful experience ever

“To be there, in the midst of 1,331 Pandits chanting the Veda – is the most powerful experience ever. There are no words to describe it: one needs to experience it. If you haven’t gone to the Brahmasthan yet, plan to go in the next season. If you have gone, consider going again – it just gets better and better.” – H F-G, Canada
