

The Apostle's Journal

Missing God -Missing Life

TSL

A large portion of your lifetime is consumed with Me drawing you out of your flesh, causing so much of Me to not be present in You.

Your flesh lures you to chase after empty desires. I want to fill your emptiness with my nature. I want to prevent you from missing Me and the life I have come to give you.

I want your Life to be influenced by My Plans, My Thoughts, and My Purpose. So much of Me is not in you. There is so much of me hidden inside of you. As a child adopted into a new family is unaware of their birth-rights; so are you unacquainted with the benefits of life that belong to you.

Learn who I am. My ways and thoughts are not like yours. Your ways and thoughts will miss me and miss life. As you surrender to me and empty your flesh; you will find Me and My Spirit will give you Life.

JANUARY 1st

Day one

Focus

Colossians 3:2

Thus saith the Lord:

I am the source of your Life. Everything that you need comes from Me and there is no end to the source of Life found in Me. The aim of your affections should be set towards Me. If you seek Me, you will find Me.

There are many affections and aspirations competing for your focus to prevent you from having access to true Life. These distractions are set and limited to what is on the earth. They interfere with the unlimited access to Life I make available to you.

JANUARY 2nd

Day two

Seek

Matthew 6:33

Thus saith the Lord:

Set a goal to worship Me within this day. Worship comes from the intent of the heart. Determine that you will set your heart towards Me. Pursue Me in worship.

Chase after My presence. Do not allow your heart and mind to be content until you fully come into My presence.

JANUARY 3rd

Day three

Spoiled

Exodus 12:36

Thus saith the Lord:

My chosen, and My elect lived in the custody of their oppressors for more than 400 years. And I, the Lord God, in one single evening, spoiled their oppressor and delivered the oppressed from their bondage. I alone led them out by the power of my hand, even in the plain sight of their enemy.

There are times when you feel as if you are living in the custody of overwhelming challenges. You feel restricted by your finances and vulnerable to the circumstances that surround you. In captivity access to the privileges that belong to you appear out of reach or removed.

Know that I have prepared the day for your deliverance even as the day I prepared for My chosen and elect. There is a set time that I will spoil the opposition that stands strong against you. Surely the day will come when I deliver you and move you forward!

JANUARY 4th

Day four

Release

John 8:32

Thus saith the Lord:

You must be released from the unhealthy opinions you have about yourself. Your opinions trap you into containment, preventing you from having confidence to move forward.

You must purpose in your heart to hold only to what is true and release everything untrue. You have been held back with un-truth. Truth has the power to release you to walk in the fullness of life.

I release you from your past prisons. From your prisons of guilt, I release you! From your prison of failure, I release you! From your prison of hopelessness, fear, and depression, I release you! I release you to be free!

JANUARY 5th

Day five

Be whole – healthy, unhurt, entire, free of wound or injury

Matthew 9:22-23

Thus saith the Lord:

Your faith in God's power makes you whole. He is found in your brokenness. The moment you recognize Him, His presence makes you whole.

Amidst the noise and distractions of others, His voice brings relief and comfort. His words of assurance free you from every wound and injury.

God can see when you are hurt and broken. He hears you cry out to Him. Faith in Him will make you whole.

JANUARY 6th

Day six

Offering – to give freely

Genesis 4:3

Thus saith the Lord:

Life is an offering. Fully embrace life as a gift from the life-giver. It is a gift you have freely received. Everyone who receives the gift must put it to the best use.

God has freely given life to you; in due time, you should surrender an offering of your free will in return unto Him.

The highest offering you can give is surrendering your whole life to Him.

JANUARY 7th

Day seven

Rest – pause, desist

Matthew 11:28

Thus saith the Lord:

Come to Me for rest, to pause and desist from all activity that draws you away from Me. Relax your mind and body to allow your spirit to concentrate on the rest giver.

Join yourself to Me without resistance. Rest will relieve you from the labor of life. The burden residing upon your mind and thoughts will be lifted and I will give rest unto your soul.

JANUARY 8th

Day eight

Common – (koinos) shared by all

Jude 1:3

Thus saith the Lord:

Salvation is the common factor that equalizes all people. Your sin carries no greater weight than another. Salvation is shared equally among all.

Common faith and salvation make everyone equally reliant upon God's grace. Contend and fight to hold fast to your faith, trusting in God's salvation work.

Common salvation equalizes all people without regard to past sins and gives equal access to the reward of eternal life.

JANUARY 9th

Day nine

Turn – to cause change effecting desired end

Job 42:10

Thus saith the Lord:

Your confinement can become your exodus to freedom. I have power to nullify pending perils with a narrative that rewrites your outcome. I will turn your disaster to work for the plan I have designed for your life.

When the worst is expected, I will bring forth the best. Transforming outcomes brings out the unexpected when circumstances limit your expectations.

I will turn the direction of any outcome that moves against My favor towards you. My word is the final determination of your outcome.

JANUARY 10th

Day ten

Voice – tone, inflection, distinct sound

John 10:3-5

Thus saith the Lord:

Listen for the distinct sound of My voice. The tone should be familiar yet separate from all the voices demanding our attention.

The inflection of My voice will speak directly into our spirit. The inner calling that captures your senses and affirms My presence.

I know my sheep. I am your shepherd. I call you by name to secure your trust in My words and follow Me.

I am the shepherd, you know, and you are My sheep. My sheep will not follow the unknown voice of the stranger.

JANUARY 11th

Day eleven

Testimony – witness, record of truth

Exodus 16:33-34/ Revelation 12:11

Thus saith the Lord:

You are the testimony of the Lord. As the manna was set apart as a memorial to remind God's people of His provision, your life is a memorial of provisions that God alone has delivered.

As God kept and preserved the manna for generations to come, your testimony will remind future generations of God's ability to provide.

A testimony is a witness to the record of truth. You are a witness that God and His word are true.

Declare your testimony against overwhelming circumstances. Your testimony gives you the power to overcome opposition.

JANUARY 12th

Day twelve

Provision – to see ahead in advance of need

Philippians 4:19

Thus saith the Lord:

God makes provision in advance of your needs. The garden, filled with provisional fruit trees, was planted in Eden before Adam became its first resident.

The earth dried and regenerated with plant life before Noah and his family returned to the world devastated by the flood waters.

Every probable need will be provided in advance because God knows in advance everything you will need. God's provision is not limited or measured by your need but according to His rich reserve set apart in His eternal kingdom.

JANUARY 13th

Day thirteen

*Believe – [Be]to exist / [lieve] *OE (lefan) to allow; i.e. natural assent; Greek (pistis); reliance- i.e. Hebrew idiom- to go to the right hand (natural assent; default; as in without thought)

John 3:16

Thus saith the Lord:

Your purpose to exist is to Believe in Me. When you believe in Me, you exist. Belief is a state of “being” that acknowledges how we exist; it is not a religious declaration.

You exist to “lieve”, which means to naturally live life in an assent towards your Creator. You “Be – lieve” because you are God reliant.

He is your creator. It is unnatural to not rely upon your creator.

Without thought, as a right-handed person uses that hand to function, you are God-reliant; created with a default to depend upon God to function in life.

JANUARY 14th

Day fourteen

New Creature –(kainos) fresh formation

II Corinthians 5:17

Thus saith the Lord:

You are preserved and re-created anew in Christ. You are a fresh formation shaped by God’s hand.

Your former life is decomposing, losing its shape and value. As it passes away, your life environment is becoming new.

You are a new creature with a second breath of life. Daily renewing the spiritual breath that gives you access to new life.

JANUARY 15th

Day fifteen

Son

Psalm 2:7-8

Thus saith the Lord:

God has said, "You are my son; I have begotten you". You come from me, and you exist because of me, saith the Lord.

Whatever my sons ask of me will be given to them. If they ask, I will give them the place and status of the heathen. The control and influence over them will be broken into pieces.

This day, you are my begotten, and on this day, I declare that you are my son.

JANUARY 16th

Day sixteen

Distribute – measured portion

I Corinthians 7:17

Thus saith the Lord:

Every new day comes with a measured portion of life and blessing. I have distributed the measure assigned to you for this day.

Like manna, daily bread cannot be carried into the next day. Make full use of your portion today and trust My hand for tomorrow's provision.

Provision for the days to come is not determined by the portion distributed today.

JANUARY 17th

Day seventeen

Hand – open hand to determine power, direction, and outcome

Deuteronomy 11:2

Thus saith the Lord:

The hand of the Lord is open unto you. You have witnessed the greatness of the Lord's mighty hand and His stretched-out arm that goes before you.

The hand of the Lord sets direction and determines destiny. God's hand holds the outcome for all the issues of life.

The hand of the LORD is upon you and with you. Trust His hand that goes before you.

JANUARY 18th

Day eighteen

Thoughts toward us – God thoughts

Jeremiah 29:11

Thus saith the Lord:

I know the thoughts I have concerning you. Knowing what is best for you resides in the center of My thoughts toward you.

My plans for your life are founded upon peace to keep you safe, content, and away from the adversity of evil.

My final thoughts will determine the outcome of all things. The end results will bring hope and meet every intended expectation.

JANUARY 19th

Day nineteen

Division – make separate by force

Romans 16:17

Thus saith the Lord:

Don't let anything separate you from your vision. Don't allow anyone to force you into a vision that does not belong to you.

Keep your vision so you can focus and keep focused on your vision. Without vision, you will perish, casting off all restraints.

JANUARY 20th

Day twenty

Prevent – anticipation before something else

Psalms 18:18-19

Thus saith the Lord:

In anticipation, I have prevented the unseen dangers and looming calamity from destroying you.

I have restrained enemies who hoped to harm you, anticipating their schemes and plans against you.

You were advanced ahead of potential obstacles assigned to hinder your future. I have anticipated every threat aimed at the plans set aside for your life.

The word of the Lord goes forth in advance to prepare the way before you and deliver you into a large open place for His pleasure so you will prevail against all opposition.

JANUARY 21st

Day twenty-one

The Sheep of His pasture

Psalm 100:3

Thus saith the Lord:

*The Lord is your God and creator. He made you and knows you.
The shepherd of creation provides a pasture of rest, and provision for His sheep.
I am your shepherd, saith the Lord, and you are my sheep.*

The Lord is your Shepherd, and the sheep are His people. You belong to the Shepherd, and the Shepherd belongs to you. The pasture of rest belongs to the sheep. Here, you will find Me, saith the Lord, ready to attend to your daily needs.

Know Me, and find Me. I look for you in the pasture, waiting for you to find Me.

JANUARY 22nd

Day twenty-two

Life is more

Matthew 6:25

Thus saith the Lord:

*Life in this world will compel you to chase and pursue material merchandise.
The demand for external gratification diminishes the appeal for eternal satisfaction.
Maintaining pace for the pursuit of food, clothing, and ambition lead away from discovering lasting intrinsic values.*

The words of the Messiah challenge the choice to chase lesser values in life. He illuminated life to be more than meat and raiment.

*The valuation of life is not the sum total of our possessions or lack thereof.
A person needs more than a meal and a change of clothing.*

*You are more because you are made by God to be more. He has given you more;
therefore, your Life is much more.*

JANUARY 23rd

Day twenty-three

God always with us

Psalm 46:1 /Haggai 2:4

Thus saith the Lord:

The innermost desire in you craves something that will last forever. You often settle for something less in the interim, hoping the reward in the moment will make you feel content.

In your relationships with others, you require them to fill in the gaps that riddle your emotions and expectations. It is not unusual to want the good moments to become never-ending and then used to replace unwanted bad memories and experiences.

You will search for what you yearn for until the longing and looking become overwhelming. The alluring fulfillment felt in the temporal moments of pleasure will only last until it ends. Left longing for what cannot be found, you risk overlooking that which has always been present.

The assurance I offer is my presence in every moment and that in every moment, I will be present. God is with you; He is a very present help in the time of trouble.

JANUARY 24th

Day twenty-four

Chase after life

Matthew 7:14

Thus saith the Lord:

You are a creature of attraction and drawn to chase after them. Changing your traveling direction to pursue available new attractions, willing to hurdle obstacles to obtain them.

Your love for life should attract you to the life-giver, and your love for God should cause you to chase after life.

The path to life is narrow because God's way is tapered toward His plan for your life. The gateway that leads to His path is straight, avoiding all of the unnecessary angles of life.

Love God and chase after life, love life and chase after God.

JANUARY 25th

Day twenty-five

God is here

Hebrews 13:5-6

Thus saith the Lord:

God's presence is found in every moment. Every moment is an opportunity to discover His presence. He is always present and never absent. You will find Him when you seek His presence.

He is here for you, always protecting you. He is here with you, always present in you. He is here, active in every moment of life that surrounds us.

God is here, He has never left.

JANUARY 26th

Day twenty-six

Get Life

John 10:10

Thus saith the Lord:

You were born to have life. God came into our world to give you the life you were born to have. He came to give you access to life in excessive, superior volume.

Our experience or environment does not limit life that comes from God. We have full access to all the life God desires to give.

You were born to get the life God intended you to have. Get life; it's what you were born to do.

JANUARY 27th
Day twenty-seven

Choose Life

Deuteronomy 30:19

Thus saith the Lord:

Life is a choice that you must make every day. Every new day brings with it a choice to choose life.

Daily, you make a choice between life and death. You advised and admonished to choose life. The choice is not circumstantial. You do not choose life because everything is going well; you make the life choice because that choice is always better than the alternative.

Make a choice. Don't let circumstances choose for you.

JANUARY 28th
Day twenty-eight

Life choices – Life changes

Philippians 1:22

Thus saith the Lord:

Every life choice produces life changes. You must make new choices if you want to see change in certain areas of your life. The ingredients of our choices produce the end results of our life production.

Most choices you will make directly impact you; other choices you make will benefit others around you.

JANUARY 29th
Day twenty-nine

Options and Opportunities

I Corinthians 16:9 / Hebrews 11:13-15

Thus saith the Lord:

Options are opportunities waiting to happen. Options are presented with choices that will yield unseen life opportunities.

Every choice is a doorstep to other options, and every option is a doorway to new opportunities.

At the brink of each decision, you must look for all available options that offer access to the best opportunities.

JANUARY 30th
Day thirty

What's next?

Ecclesiastes 3:1

Thus saith the Lord:

Every new opportunity begins with the next option. Use your option to create your next opportunity.

Don't miss your opportunity to live by casting away the life options you have left.

JANUARY 31st
Day thirty-one

Let yourself out

Isaiah 22:22

Thus saith the Lord:

The same key you used to lock yourself into a situation can also be used to let yourself out.

You hold the key that will hold you back or move you forward.

FEBRUARY 1st

Day thirty-two

Truth the great commodity

John 8:32

Thus saith the Lord:

Truth will become the greatest and most sought-after commodity of modern man. Time will be repositioned as secondary to the truth.

Man must make the best use of time to understand and preserve truth, ensuring his liberty to make the right choices in the environment where he lives.

The truth will become the only remaining path to freedom.

FEBRUARY 2nd

Day thirty-three

Words that speak life

Proverbs 18:21

Thus saith the Lord:

I have given you words that produce the power of life and death. Fill your mouth with words that speak life.

The fruit of your lips becomes the garden where you will live. Your garden will flourish if your words are filled with life.

FEBRUARY 3rd

Day thirty-four

Perspective

Colossians 3:1

Thus saith the Lord:

Perspective is your viewpoint of life. You will see whatever you perceive. Your perspective changes when your point of view changes.

When you view life from the lower deck, your perspective cannot rise above the level from which it is viewed. If you want a higher view, you must raise your viewpoint.

Perspective is limited only to the level of the viewer.

FEBRUARY 4th

Day thirty-five

Guaranteed Life

I John 2:25/ II Peter 1:3

Thus saith the Lord:

I have the only guaranteed plan for life. Eternal life is My guaranteed promise. My guarantee includes everything needed that pertains to life. When life issues arise, bring them to me, I am the guarantor. Trust in Me for all life repairs and restoration.

FEBRUARY 5th

Day thirty-six

God's plan always turns in the right direction

Genesis 24:48

Thus saith the Lord:

There are no wrong turns when you follow My plan; each step turns in the right direction. The turns directed by My plan steer away from wrong turns and faulty decisions.

The head bowed in reverence and worship demonstrates surrender to My plan. Servants who follow will find the right way. My plan rewards all who follow the right way.

FEBRUARY 6th

Day thirty-seven

Never turn away from God's face

Genesis 32:30

Thus saith the Lord:

The place where My name is spoken, and My presence is revealed is sacred. The countenance of My face will draw you into My presence.

Life is preserved in the glory of My presence. Do not turn away from the glory of My presence. In the glory of My presence, you will have life.

FEBRUARY 7th

Day thirty-eight

Direction determines destination

Proverbs 3:6

Thus saith the Lord:

Directions for living come from the one who gives life. Seek Me for direction to navigate every path.

In every direction of life, acknowledge My presence. The direction you receive from Me will determine your destination.

FEBRUARY 8th

Day thirty-nine

The Measure of Life

Luke 12:15

Thus saith the Lord:

Life cannot be measured by a collection of material assets and possessions. They are limited in value. The collection of offerings cannot be transferred to the world to come.

Be aware of excessive greed and want. Everything demanded does not deliver everything desired.

The summation of life is not determined by the sum total of a value that can be numerically calculated.

FEBRUARY 9th

Day forty

Gathering Life

John 4:36

Thus saith the Lord:

Find and gather everything it takes to live. Recover the pieces of life lost to disappointment, anger, or carelessness.

Gather all the aromas and experiences with the ingredients of life; avoid adding elements that cannot enhance its flavor.

Life is not one thing; it is a mixture of blended, layered ingredients. Keep stirring everything in the mix and allow the layers and blended flavors to finish their course.

FEBRUARY 10th

Day forty-one

Make room for Life

Romans 5:17

Thus saith the Lord:

The offense of sin interferes with your access to life. I offer grace to give you full access to life. Grace removes the limits and restraints of sin.

My offering requires you to make room to receive it. The limits are set only by limited expectations. Grace removes limits and offers favor and access to unlimited life.

FEBRUARY 11th

Day forty-two

Boundless Love

Ephesians 3:18

Thus saith the Lord:

Be rooted and grounded to comprehend My love for you. My love extends past your natural understanding.

My love is boundless in nature and responds to your requests far above what I am asked to do and far beyond what you think can be done.

My infinite love and miraculous power are at work within the finite dimensions of your life.

FEBRUARY 12th

Day forty-three

We faint not

II Corinthians 4:16

Thus saith the Lord:

I refill and refresh the weary and the empty. I renew the breath of life that restores the inner man to reach full operating capacity.

The outward man will perish daily, but the inner man will get stronger each day, I will not let you faint.

FEBRUARY 13th

Day forty-four

Yesterday expired

Psalm 118:24

Thus saith the Lord:

Every thought from yesterday expired the new day I have given you. Today will be filled with new choices not hinged to an expired day.

This is the day for fresh new thoughts. This is the day to pursue My plan for you.

Rejoice and be glad because this is the day I have made for you.

FEBRUARY 14th

Day forty-five

Life Changes

James 1:17, Hebrew 13:5-6

Thus saith the Lord:

*Life is a progression of changes. Change in life is inevitable.
I am God, and it is certain that I will not change.*

*Change is the evidence of growth. For growth to happen, change must happen.
I am the same today, yesterday, and will remain the same forever.*

*The unknown, uncertainty and unforeseeable outcomes are all results of change.
I am with you. I am constant; I am always present, never absent, to sustain you when life changes.*

I will never leave you or forsake you... I am your helper do not fear.

FEBRUARY 15th

Day forty-six

Shaping our thoughts

Proverbs 23:7 / Philippians 4:8

Thus saith the Lord:

*Changing the shape of your thoughts will change the shape of your life.
As you think, you shape the identity of who you are.*

*Changing how you think begins with changing what you think.
Think on the things that are true; truth comes from me.*

What you think matters, and it matters what you think.

FEBRUARY 16th

Day forty-seven

Empower Change

Job 14:14

Thus saith the Lord:

Change is transformation and sets you apart to break free from following the pattern of others.

*Adversities follow change, and change follows adverse conflicts.
Each new adversity is a signal of transformation.*

Change of direction directed by Me is a course correction to keep you aligned with My path. Changing directions to modify a course of your own is not an option.

Embrace the power to change what you can, and trust God's wisdom to accept what cannot be changed.

FEBRUARY 17th

Day forty-eight

Good treasure

Matthew 12:35

Thus saith the Lord:

Every thought is a deposit into your heart. The heart can be filled with treasure of good or it can become of storage vault of evil.

Good or evil treasures come forth from the heart. Everything that enters, good or evil must be granted passage to exit.

Good treasures come out because good deposits go in.

FEBRUARY 18th

Day forty-nine

Brokenness

Psalm 34:18

Thus saith the Lord:

I want to be near you when you are broken. When you are left with pieces of a shattered expectation, I want you near Me.

Brokenness reveals the contents of the heart. When you are broken, I reveal the volume of My love.

FEBRUARY 19th

Day fifty

The Right Mind

Mark 5:15

Thus saith the Lord:

The right mind conquers wrong thinking. Wrong thinking is an obstacle to the right mind.

Clothe your mind with My word. Settle yourself in my presence to shield your thoughts from the exposure of outside negative elements.

Defeating the battle in your thinking begins with surrendering your mind to my Word. Conquering the battle in your mind changes your life.

FEBRUARY 20th

Day fifty-one

Good Success

Joshua 1:8

Thus saith the Lord:

The battle with your thoughts prevents you from embracing options for life. Past failures have made you cautious about responding to new opportunities for success.

My words are in your mouth, and they will not depart. Recite and repeat My words day and night. Watch and observe My words, to do all that I have spoken unto you.

I will make your way prosperous, and you shall have good success.

FEBRUARY 21st

Day fifty-two

Potential Treasure

II Corinthians 4:7

Thus saith the Lord:

My word will fill the empty gaps and spaces in your life. Empty spaces are potential opportunities to infuse purpose.

Beneath the surface of unused potential exists an unused treasure. My treasure is hidden in your clay vessel.

The treasure revealed through your life is a witness of My glory, allowing others to witness the immense power of God working through you.

FEBRUARY 22nd

Day fifty-three

Expect more

Ephesians 3:20

Thus saith the Lord:

My presence can be found in unexpected places. When you least expect me, I am present. I am with you in every challenge and present in every storm.

When you expect less, My plans for you always measure for more. When you believe the problem is too great, I have proved that it is less dire in comparison to My ability and power.

Expect more of My presence and even more of My ability and power.

FEBRUARY 23rd

Day fifty-four

Pace driven faithfulness

Hebrews 10:23

Thus saith the Lord:

When discontent and dissatisfied, you are vulnerable to taste and chase after whatever comes across your inherent path.

The chase resulting from an abrupt change in direction is not the same as following or chasing after Me. Taste does not set the pace.

Discipline sets the pace for those who follow Me. A disciplined pace is not subject to taste or satisfaction, it is driven only by faithfulness.

FEBRUARY 24th

Day fifty-five

Chasing the wind

Ecclesiastes 5:16

Thus saith the Lord:

The world is filled with empty, exhaustive lures promoting promises that will be fulfilled. Chasing winds to replace empty dreams is an endless, exhausting labor.

The wind blows aimlessly in all directions to the furthest corners of the world. The chase will drive you out of My presence and away from your assigned path.

Do not chase the wind; it is unattainable. You cannot detain something that cannot be apprehended.

FEBRUARY 25th

Day fifty-six

Seek Me and Find Me

Matthew 7:7

Thus saith the Lord:

Seek -chase after Me, and you will find Me. If you don't chase, you will not find Me.

Knock -persistent pursuit of My presence. If you knock persistently, I will open the door of My presence.

I give when you ask Me, when you chase, and when you persistently pursue My presence.

FEBRUARY 26th

You are from Me

Genesis 1:26

Thus saith the Lord:

I will teach you how to grow. All new life begins with a kindred seed, "a seed after its kind".

The lesser light of creation was made from the kindred seed of the greater light; the water creatures were spawned from the kindred seed of water, and the land creatures and plants came forth from the ground.

Your life comes from Me. My life spirit resides in you. You are the seed after My kind. Made in My image and likeness.

You are from Me.

FEBRUARY 27th

Day fifty-eight

Don't Unplug

IJohn 2:24

Thus saith the Lord:

Unplugging from the present moment to avoid facing reality is not a solution. When you unplug, you become more vulnerable to temptations that offer short-term escape.

Short-term exits always end with regrets, never resolving your issue or satisfying your greater need. Don't unplug.

Your access to My presence is constant. Stay plugged into the source of life that flows from Me to you every day.

My voice you have heard from the beginning is where your source of life begins. The words you have heard must remain in you so you can continue to live in Me.

FEBRUARY 28th

Day fifty-nine

Fight to Stay Connected

ICorinthians 6:17

Thus saith the Lord:

When you disconnect from Me, the line of relationship is broken. The succession between us is interrupted, hindering the life that constantly flows from Me to you.

Stay joined and connected to My Spirit. In My Spirit we are one. The battle against interruptions and interference is fought daily.

Win the day. Fight the daily battle and stay connected. Win the next fight. Don't waste time on a lost fight.

Fight to win. The fight is not over until you win.

March 1st

Day Sixty

Abide in the Vine

John 15:5

Thus saith the Lord:

The branch is an extension of life that flows from the vine. If you abide live your life through Me you will flourish with fruit.

Abide in Me and I will abide in you.

March 2nd

Day sixty-one

Trust in God

Isaiah 50:7

Trust becomes the foundation of your faith when you realize that there are no options available to you.

March 3rd

Day sixty-two

God said “yes”

Isaiah 50:7

Thus saith the Lord:

Yes, you will complete the work that I have assigned to you. Yes, the completed work will honor Me and be used to establish My kingdom on earth.

Yes, this is your assignment, and it cannot be passed on to someone else.

Yes, the model and pattern will help others to understand how to build.

March 4th

Day Sixty-three

You are God's work

Philippians 1:6

Each day, you take steps toward the finished line, the righteous steps I ordained to finish the work I began.

March 7th

Day Sixty-six

Hear and remember my Commandment

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

Thus saith the Lord:

Hear me, I am the Lord your God. I alone am one. I am the only true God.

Love me alone (only) with all your heart, soul, and might. Let this commandment rest upon your heart daily.

This commandment shall you teach to the children in your house every day when you sit, walk, rest, and arise.

This commandment will you remember and bind to your hands, eyes, and to the entry of your homestead.

March 8th

Day Sixty-seven

Do it “I am with you”

I Chronicles 28:20

*The believer's rest is My rest. You will enter to rest from work permanently.
No work is required or possible in eternity.*

March 11th
Day Seventy

Count the cost

Luke 14:28

Thus saith the Lord:

Ministry work requires accountability. You must evaluate everything that is required before you begin the work.

Acknowledge what it will cost to complete the work before you begin. A sufficient measure of determination is required to build and finish.

Count the cost first and use everything you count to finish what you are assigned to build.

March 12th

Day Seventy-one

Finish the course

Acts 20:24

Thus saith the Lord:

You are a testimony of Me as you walk the course of life. Affliction and pressure to adjust your course will come. Do not give in.

Bonds that impede and impact spiritual ability will restrict what you can accomplish. Do not give up.

Barriers will be raised to stand against you. Opposition will arise to overtake you. Do not give ground.

Do not let any of these things move you, and with joy, finish the course.

March 13th

Day Seventy-two

Fight to finish

II Timothy 4:7

Thus saith the Lord:

To finish the course, you will have to fight. To keep the faith, you will have to fight. Fighting with faith to finish is how you will finish the course.

The faith course is a fight to the finish. Fighting to finish is a good fight. The fight is not over until you are finished.

Fight good. Fight to finish. Fight to keep the faith.

March 14th

Day Seventy-three

Everything is Working

Romans 8:28

Thus saith the Lord:

Everything is working and I am working in everything.

All things work together.

All things are working for good, the end of everything working is good because you love Me.

You are called according to My purpose and all things that are working I have called good.

Everything is working and I am working in everything.

All things work together.

March 15th

Day Seventy-four

Perfect in every Good Work

Hebrews 13:21

I will complete you and finish every good work in you. Every good work in you is pleasing in My sight.

March 16th

Day Seventy-five

Fruitful Work

Colossians 1:10

Thus saith the Lord:

The fruitful path is the appropriate place for you to walk. Where you walk should result in a fruitful place.

It pleases Me when you are fruitful and abundant in every good work. You grow and increase in knowledge when you are fruitful.

Be fruitful in every good work and walk in the path that leads to good fruit.

March 17th

Day Seventy-six

Established Work

James 4:8

Thus saith the Lord:

I will draw you near to affirm and establish My good work in you.

I will draw you close to comfort and settle your heart.

March 18th

Day Seventy-seven

Find the moment

II Corinthians 4:17

Thus saith the Lord:

You can only live in the moment you are in now. You are frustrated while trying to live in a moment that has yet to arrive.

You must focus and respond to the moment that is present. You cannot respond to a future moment, and you cannot reside in the moments that have passed.

Find and live in the moment that is present it is the only moment that matters now.

March 19th

Day Seventy-eight

Trees have hope

Job 14:7

Thus saith the Lord:

Trees with broken, detached branches instinctively remain standing in their place in the hope of what the next season of their life will yield.

The discarded branches are but one chapter in the story of their existence; with certainty, they have hope for the new stems that will sprout and become strong branches.

Your broken dreams and detached accomplishments are a single chapter in your life story. Find your hope in the small stems of life that are signs of your new season that lies ahead.

The work that God has begun in you has not come to an end.

March 20th

Day Seventy-nine

Proof of faith

Hebrews 11:1

Thus saith the Lord:

Faith is the substance of what you hope for, reflecting the evidence and title deed of things not yet seen.

The substance of faith is hope. Without hope, there is no proof of faith. You hope not for what you can see, but for the outcome of things in life, you cannot see.

Hope is what you see and believe when reality declares that there is nothing to see. The evidence of faith is not visible until you begin to have hope.

Hope is your proof of Faith.

March 21st

Day Eighty

Partakers of Hope

ICorinthians 9:10

Thus saith the Lord:

Hope is the non-visible aid to the farmer plowing and sowing, hoping the seeds buried deep in the ground will eventually transform into glorious fruit.

Hope is the companion to ending the planting season, which requires more hope that the yield from the harvest will be sufficient.

The hope cycle resolves with the expectation that the one who plants the seed and works the harvest will be a partaker of everything hope yields.

For your sake, no doubt, this is written to encourage you to have hope from the beginning to the end.

March 22nd
Day Eighty-one

Do Not Move

Colossians 1:23

Thus saith the Lord:

Continue – Do not move. Stay grounded – Do not move. Settle yourself – Do not move.

*I am with you – Do not move. I will not leave or forsake you – Do not move.
I am your hope, the hope of the gospel, – Do not move away from Me.*

Moving from your hope in the gospel is moving away from your trust and confidence in Me. – Do not move.

March 23rd
Day Eighty-two

In Him We Live

Acts 17:28

March 24th
Day Eighty-three

Walk before me

Genesis 17:1

Thus saith the Lord:

I am the Lord your God. Many avenues are set before you. Walk (before) turned towards Me and be thou perfect.

*There are roads and avenues you have not yet seen. Trust the path I set before.
I will be with you even unto the end of the road.*

March 25th

Day Eighty-four

Losing for the sake of finding

Matthew 10:39

Thus saith the Lord:

To find life, you must have something to lose. To find life, you must lose and surrender your life to Me.

The fragments of life you choose to withhold limit the life you can receive from Me. When you find real life, losing life fragments is less complicated.

Letting go of life limits makes room for more life. For the sake of finding life, let go and make room for more.

March 26th

Day Eighty-five

Counted Loss

Philippians 3:7-8

Thus saith the Lord:

Learn how to count loss, the exchange for what you give up compared to what you gain.

Every loss that grants you access to My kingdom is your gain. Your loss is gain for Christ.

Every gain that gives Me more access to your life is offset by the loss of access the god of this world has to your life. Your loss is gain for Christ.

Material gains accumulated in this world have an assigned value, but that value will not transfer into the world to come. What is considered a loss in this world is a gain in the world to come.

Count the loss. Your loss is gain for Christ.

March 27th
Day Eighty-six

Victory of Life

Acts 27:22

Thus saith the Lord:

In life, there will be a series of wins and losses. But the victory of life will not be lost.

Be of good cheer and stay hopeful when you experience the loss of loved ones, achievements, or possessions. You will not lose the victory of life.

Your life is precious to Me. I will guard and protect you with My life to give you the victory of eternal life.

March 28th
Day Eighty-seven

Count them Happy

James 5:11

Thus saith the Lord:

Endure the challenges of life with the patience of Job and I will count you happy. In the lesson of Job, you can see the end results of My work in your life.

My compassion brings a favorable end to what would be an unhappy ending. The tenderness of My mercy rewards those who faithfully endure until the end. In the end, you will be counted among those who are Happy.

March 29th
Day Eighty-eight

This is a Test

Romans 14:22

Thus saith the Lord:

Do not condemn yourself while going through the trials of life. Each trial is a test. You are not tested because you are condemned. The trial is a test of your faith.

Be Happy, because your faith will endure the test. Have faith in Me, I allow the test because I know your faith will endure.

March 30th
Day Eighty-nine

Your Testimony will Translate You

Hebrews 11:5

Thus saith the Lord:

The testimony of your faith pleases Me. I am pleased by those who choose to walk with Me in faith.

Enoch walked with Me every day of his life. I am here to walk with you every day you choose the path of faith.

Your faith in Me will translate the position of your life. Faith will transport you from defeat to victory and cause you not to see or suffer outcomes intended for you to experience. Your testimony of faith will translate you.

March 31st
Day Ninety

Instant Prayer

Romans 12:12

Thus saith the Lord:

Rejoice in your hope in Me. Remain patient, waiting for Me in tribulation. In all matters and under all circumstances, continue in instant prayer to Me.

Fight to bring your body into subjection and submission to My Spirit.*

Oh Give thanks unto the Lord for He is good.

APRIL 6th

Day Ninety-six

Access by My Name

Ephesians 3:15

Thus saith the Lord:

The whole family in Heaven and upon Earth is named by Me.

They exist because of My name and My word that give them life.

By My name, you have access to the riches of My glory; By My name you are strengthened with power and might in your inner man.

Your name is written in Heaven because, by My name, you have access to everlasting life.

APRIL 7th

Day Ninety-seven

God's glory revealed in you

Romans 8:17-18

Thus saith the Lord:

The glory of My Presence is poured into your life. The weight of My glory is heavier than the burdens and afflictions you are required to bare.

The account for your suffering cannot equally compare to the measure of My glory poured into your life. The weight of your pain, hardships, and disappointments is not greater than the glory that is revealed within you.

You are drawn into My presence (glory) in the moments of your afflictions; My presence and My glory outweigh the moment of your affliction. You suffer as the Son of God suffered so that you may be glorified together with Him.

Find your balance, where you should walk and keep your place.

APRIL 10th
Day One Hundred

Enlarge (Expand)

Isaiah 54:2

APRIL 11th
Day One Hundred One

All the days

Matthew 28:20

Thus saith the Lord:

I am with all the days (Always).

All the days set before you, the first day to the last day – I am with you.

All the days of your assigned purpose – I am with you.

All the days you that will bring you joy and those that will bring sorrow – I am with you.

I am with you all the days and all day long I am here– with you until the end.

APRIL 12th

Day One Hundred Two

Made Upright

Proverbs 2:21

Thus saith the Lord:

Naturally, you were not born Upright- generally born headfirst, – upside down to prevent entanglement.

After exiting the womb, you were turned upside-right to determine the presence of all working body parts. Once all parts were accounted for and confirmed, your body was covered for protection.

Spiritually you are not born Upright- generally born first in the flesh, – upside down and prone to entanglement.

Born Again, your life is renewed and turned upside-right to restore spiritual parts to their proper working order, after which I covered you with arms of My protection.

The Upright shall dwell in the land I have made for them and the perfect shall remain in it.

seen by the eyes or heard by the ears of men – Get Wisdom.*

With all your effort and ability, seek to obtain wisdom first and get an understanding.

APRIL 15th

Day One Hundred Five

Captain of Your Salvation

Hebrews 2:10

A captain is a person who has dominion and control. A captive is under the dominion and control of a ruling authority.

I AM the Captain of your Salvation. I have the power to give life to you.

You can only have one captain; one head, only one authority can have complete dominion over you.

If you are not subject to the Captain of Salvation, you are listed as a Prisoner of War – a captive who is taken into custody by the enemy of salvation.

Confirm your status, affirm your allegiance, and honor the Salvation of your Captain.

APRIL 16th

Day One Hundred Six

Plans and Preparation

Proverbs 16:1

Thus saith the Lord:

The plans of your heart are formed in your mind without My advisement or counsel. The answer to your plans comes from My Tongue – My Expression and from My Words, – My Counsel.

I have prepared and arranged the outcome for your life. The final word and decree from My mouth determine all outcomes – My Mouth declares the end from the beginning and – My Mouth has the final word spoken.

APRIL 17th

Day One Hundred Seven

Final Verdict

Proverbs 16:33

Thus saith the Lord:

The disposition of every matter belongs to Me. I cast the stone (lot) that will determine the end of every matter.

The lot cast into the lap of divine decision cannot be overturned or overruled. The verdict is permanent and final.

The lot I have determined for you will be tested and contested, but it cannot be prevented.

The disposition set for your path in life will face opposition, but your destiny is inevitable.

The end of every matter that concerns you in this life is in My hand.

APRIL 18th
Day One Hundred Eight

Inset

Romans 9:20

Thus saith the Lord:

An “inset” is a place where something small flows into something larger. Your plans and ideas should be conceived and constructed to flow into my larger plan, which frames your life.

My plan for your life begins with preparing you to fit into the shape of My plan. Shaping your life makes you ready for My plan.

The inset is your life shaped to fit into My Plan. Your shape is defined by the larger purpose I have ordained for your life.

The frame and form of a larger life plan for you and the shape of our life are the work of My Hand.

APRIL 19th
Day One Hundred Nine

Guide Line

Psalms 119:105

Thus saith the Lord:

*A Guide is a person or resource that provides instructions and directions.
A Line is a continuous path in the same direction that never ends.*

I am a Guide-Line to you.

I am your resource for instruction and guidance, providing support with everything you may need. I am the constant, continuous path in life that never ends.

The guideline is a lamp unto your feet and light unto your path. My Word allows you to see your way as the path is illuminated with light.

APRIL 20th

Day One Hundred Ten

Seek and Understand

Proverbs 28:5,11,25

Thus saith the Lord:

True understanding comes when you search for and strive to find Me in all things. Your natural understanding is limited. When you try to understand and interpret matters without Me, it prolongs the presence of unresolved issues in your life.

The rich man is wise in his own conceit, but the poor search until they find Me. The proud heart stirs up contention, but if you trust in Me, I will make you fat; anoint you with understanding.

APRIL 21st

Day One Hundred Eleven

Self Praise

Proverbs 27:21

Thus saith the Lord:

The fining pot for silver reveals impurities as they are removed. Gold is placed in the furnace to refine imperfections, leaving behind its inherent purity and value.

Flaws and weaknesses in your nature emerge to the surface when you begin to celebrate your achievements. The truth about your ability becomes clear when your accomplishments in life reflect My strength and grace, empowering you to succeed.

Like the fining pot for silver and the furnace for gold, Self-boasting brings forth the truth about the support system and foundation that sustains you. True self-reflection reveals your inability to make life work without Me.

A man's praise ultimately exposes his weakness.

APRIL 22nd

Day One Hundred Twelve

Words of the fool

Psalm 14:1

Thus saith the Lord:

The fool says in their heart, "There is no God." The words of the fool draw breath from the orifice into which God breathes life.

The fool is unaware of the necessity for God to even proclaim that God does not exist. Every word spoken is a testimony of His presence.

Don't waste your breath like the fool. Your words are My testimony when they are spoken. Let the words of your mouth honor Me with every breath.

APRIL 23rd
Day One Hundred Thirteen

Peace

John 14:27

Thus saith the Lord:

APRIL 24th

All the plans I have for you are not immediately visible or revealed. My Plan progresses over time in small steps and degrees. It is not all revealed at once.

You know My plans in part, and some parts are unknown. In time, the unknown and unseen will become known.

You will know what you need to know and learn to trust Me for all that is unknown.

APRIL 25th
Day One Hundred Fifteen

Conversation

Proverbs 7:24

Thus saith the Lord:

My word and My voice converse with you daily. Hearing My voice gives you access to life.

My conversation is directed toward you. Here My voice. Listen to My words. Let your heart attend unto the words of My mouth.

APRIL 26th
Day One Hundred Sixteen

Journey

Exodus 40:38

Thus saith the Lord:

Every day is a journey. Every sunrise and sunset measures a segment of time in the journey.

The sun tracks across the open sky as a watchman tracking the steps of your journey. The results of every decision you make are on view before Me.

The journey is measured by time, events, and outcome. The journey does not end until you come out from the other end.

APRIL 27th
Day One Hundred Seventeen

Enduring Grief

I Peter 2:19

Thus saith the Lord:

Your ability to endure distress and sorrow requires turning your consciousness towards Me. Be aware of my presence; You are not alone in your suffering.

Your suffering is not a judgment of what you deserve. Suffering is attached to the conditions of life.

Find a reference to express your thankfulness. Be grateful for the grace that continues to favor you with life. Be thankful for the blessings received from My hand. Grief has a timestamp to end.

Endure grief until it ends with your mind turned toward Me.

APRIL 28th

Day One Hundred Eighteen

Confirmation

Isaiah 35:3

Thus saith the Lord:

Loss causes you to lose strength. I am present to confirm you, to make you firm and return you to strength. My presence gives strength to your weakness.

I am present to validate your value to Me despite the loss that makes you vulnerable to doubt your ability and identity.

Confirmation makes you firm, returns your strength, and validates your value. I will strengthen the weakness of your hands and the feebleness of your knees and cause them to recover.

APRIL 29th

Day One Hundred Nineteen

Prepared Table

Psalms 23:5

Thus saith the Lord:

I have prepared a table for you. You will spread out in the place of your opposition. Prepared in advance, the table has everything needed; there is nothing missing.

In the place of your opposition, I make a provision for you. You have a place, and opposition cannot prevent you.

Your enemies are present, but they cannot prevail. Opposition stands against you, but it cannot alter your destination. Your table is prepared.

APRIL 30th

Day One Hundred Twenty

Anointing the Head

Psalms 23:5-6

Thus saith the Lord:

Upon your head, I pour the perfumed oil of anointing, that it may flow into every part of your life. The oil of blessing poured beyond its natural measure to demonstrate My favor that rests upon you.

You will dwell in My presence and sit down quietly before Me forever.

MAY 1st

Day One Hundred Twenty-One

The Weak Voice

Joel 3:10

Thus saith the Lord:

Find your voice in times of weakness. Do not allow the loss of strength to make you silent. In times of weakness, call My Name. I will answer when you call.

Your weakness has a voice; do not be silent. The weak voice must speak and be heard. Find your strength with your voice.

Let the weak say I am strong. Transform your life tools to fight your opposition. The voice that declares their strength shall find their strength in Me.

MAY 2nd

Day One Hundred Twenty-Two

Compassion for the Faint

Matthew 9:36

Thus saith the Lord:

My compassion is poured out upon the faint and weary. I will care for you and restore you to health with loving kindness.

My compassion is poured upon the faint, and the weary receive it now as I pour it out.

MAY 3rd

Day One Hundred Twenty-Three

Double Comfort

Isaiah 40:1

Comfort ye, comfort you are mine, saith your God

MAY 4th

MAY 6th

Day One Hundred Twenty-six

Seems Right

Proverbs 14:12

Thus saith the Lord:

One way is right and there is a way that seems right. The way that is right is the right way. The way that seems right is never right.

The right way is always determined by its destination. The path we travel is not defined by how it begins. The way it ends always reveals the truth.

Unto all who overcome by the power of My redemption, I write upon them My new name.

MAY 8th

Day One Hundred Twenty-eight

The Powerful Hand of Redemption

I am the powerful hand of redemption.

MAY 9th

Day One Hundred Twenty-nine

What the Redeemed Say

Psalms 107:2

MAY 11th

Day One Hundred Thirty-one

Shelter for You

Psalms 61:3

Thus saith the Lord:

I have been a shelter for you in times when you were unaware. I have covered you from the downpour, exposing you only to small droplets of disappointment.

I have overshadowed you to prevent the penetration of problems, hoping to disturb your peace.

I have been a strong tower to shelter you from the enemy that seeks to destroy you.

For you, I am your shelter in the times of storms.

MAY 12th

Day One Hundred Thirty-two

I will remember
