Sumon and Saba are the students of class five of a primary school. They are little doctors of their school. They were selected by the students of their school. Every year in April and October, 5 to 12 years old children have to take de-worming medicine. At the same time all the family members also have to take the same medicine. To ensure all the students are there on the exact date, Sumon and Saba go to all the classes. They help to give the de-worming medicine to students. They make sure to use pure drinking water when taking medicine. They tell the students to take the medicine after a good meal. They fill up the information form of which classes have had the medicine. They also take the weight and height of each student in every year. They keep all the data on a class form. Sumon and Saba are always ready to give the primary treatment to any student, if necessary. They have a first aid box in their school. Read the following text and answer the questions 1, 2 and 3 below.

Naima and Masuk were twins. They were in Class Five. Naima loved to play badminton and Masuk loved to play football. They were also very good students at school. Their parents, Naeem Hasan and Mina Begum, loved them very much. Naima and Masuk often played with their parents when they had free time. Their home was always full of happiness! One day, a special box arrived. It was from their close relative, Mr. Rakib, who lived in Italy. There was a black tablet inside the box. When they turned it on, the screen showed many bright colours. 'Wow!' They were both surprised. At first, the tablet was so much fun. They played video games after finishing their study. And soon, the tablet became more exciting than playing outside. 'Naima! Masuk!' their friend Rana called from the gate. 'Let's play!' 'Not now!' Naima replied. Her eyes were stuck to a YouTube video. Masuk was also watching the video with his sister. The twins slowly started to change. Often they became grumpy and got angry. 'Time for dinner!' their mom called one evening. 'Just five more minutes, Ma!' Masuk shouted. His voice was sharp and annoying. Mother noticed it and took the tablet away. Then, Masuk started to cry. 'You're so unfair!' he screamed.
