

Unit comes patient ready and includes:

FEATURES:

- Color touchscreen display.
- Automatic “sleep” mode to conserve battery while maintaining privacy.
- View patient status with a single touch.
- Two channels of real-time waveforms.
- Up to five screen formats.
- Screen orientation choice for easy clinical assessment.
- Flexible monitoring of parameters.
- Disposable or rechargeable batteries.
- Battery status displayed on device and the Philips Patient Information Center.

The IntelliVue MX40 patient wearable monitor gives you technology, intelligent design, and innovative features you expect from Philips in a device light enough and small enough to be comfortably worn by ambulatory patients.

- Lead cables