

Meline Eolmezian-Soulie

Meline is a French-citizen and active member of the French Business Group since she arrived in the UAE more than 9 years ago. She has worked during 15+ years in the security industry, with various Business Development, Sales & Marketing management roles in France and in the UAE, including 12 years for Thales, a flagship French Defence & Security company.

Since 2016, she has decided to make a significant career move by joining the world's leading events' organizer Reed Exhibitions to take over and develop the National & Cyber Security Portfolio Direction for the Middle East region. She is now leading two major events in UAE (ISNR Abu Dhabi) and in KSA (SNSR Expo), developing close collaboration and partnership with key national & cyber security government authorities but also private sector.

She is a recognised strategic and business leader in her field, and believes on trusted long-term relationships, ethical attitude and reliable behaviour, aiming to give to a positive perception of French expertise and working methods combined with an Armenian oriental cultural touch, towards the Emirati community.

She has joined FBG Board in 2016 and has actively offered her support, creativity and enthusiasm, particularly regarding events and business value, which are two essential pillars of the Chamber of Commerce.

Meline owns a Master in National Security & Defense from Paris 2 Pantheon Assas University and is an Alumni of Science Po Lille (European & International Affairs).

She is married with 2 kids and lives in Abu Dhabi.