

FRANCK LADEGAILLERIE

ASSYSTEM GROUP

A graduate of Grenoble Business School, Franck LADEGAILLERIE began his career in the automobiles international department of Peugeot, in charge of the development of the brand in the eastern Europe and CIS countries, before joining ABB Group in the field of maintenance developing outsourcing maintenance services in the industrial sector (pulp & paper, automotive, beverage and aeronautics).

Franck, then moved to marketing & communication for Cospirit Group, in charge of developing media consulting services for the retail sector in Europe (Carrefour, Auchan, Leroy Merlin), before being appointed as Sales Director for the sportswear brand Sun Valley in charge of sales development in North America and Japan as well as for the retail brands Intersport, Decathlon and Sport 2000.

In 2005, Franck joined Assystem as Key Account Manager for large automotive and energy accounts such as Renault and Framatome. He then moved to Dubai in 2013 to develop international engineering activities in the Middle East, South East Asia and eastern countries including Russia as well as in Turkey.

Early 2018, Franck was appointed Managing Director of MPH, the manpower supply subsidiary of Assystem which is headquartered in Dubai.