Coach Clarence (Jake) Kline

Clarence J. (Jake) Kline, professor of mathematics at the University of Notre Dame, is finishing his 24th season as head coach of baseball at Notre Dame

Jake was named head baseball coach at Notre Dame in 1934 to succeed the late George F. Keogan, who wished to devote his full time to basketball coaching. Kline won baseball monograms at Notre Dame in 1915, 1916 and 1917, playing third base and hitting well over 300 all three seasons. He was the captain of the 1917 team which won 10 games and lost four.

The high point of Kline's collegiate playing career was reached in 1916 when he hit three home runs to lead the Irish to a 14 to 6 victory over the University of Michigan. A fourth drive landed foul by inches or he would have had another homer.

Coach Kline has enjoyed outstanding success in his 24 seasons as head baseball coach at Notre Dame. His Irish nines have won 267 games, lost 191, and tied three. This is the third time in eight years, the Irish under Kline have participated in the N.C.A.A. baseball tournament. In 1949, they won the championship of District 4 (the middle west), and then lost to Wake Forest, champions of District 3. (Wake Forest was eventually beaten in the tourney finals.) A year ago, in 1956, the Klinemen met Minnesota in the first round of District 4 competition and lost two of three games. (Minnesota went on to the national title.)

JAMES GIBBONS, Assistant Coach

Jim Gibbons, a pitcher-outfielder on the Irish baseball teams from 1950-53, and a guard on the Notre Dame basketball teams of the same era, is serving his first year as assistant baseball and basketball coach at his alma mater.
