About Mike Berticelli: Head coach Mike Berticelli (Maine '73) enters his third season at the helm of the Irish program and has posted a 17-18-5 (.488) mark. In his 16-year career, he has an overall record of 207-72-28 (.720) and has garnered coach-of-the-year honors in nine different seasons, including national Division III honors in 1982. Berticelli led North Carolina-Greensboro to the national crown in 1982 and 1983.

Irish in the Polls: Notre Dame is at the No. 20 spot in the Soccer America preseason poll. ND opponents in the poll include Indiana (#5), UCLA (#4) and Duke (#13).

No other Midwestern Collegiate Conference member was represented in the top 20.

Irish Open Home Schedule and MCC Play

NO. 20 IRISH FACE LOYOLA — The Notre Dame men's soccer team, ranked 20th in Soccer America, will travel to Halas Field in Chicago to take on Midwestern Collegiate Conference rival Loyola on Sept. 9 to open conference play. The game is a rematch of last year's lone regular season conference loss for the Irish.

The Irish open their 1992 home season against Illinois-Chicago at Alumni Field on Sept. 11. Kick-off is set for 7:30.

"It is important to get into the win column," said head coach Mike Berticelli. "Our young kids are starting to play very well together and everyone is healthy."

AGAINST UCLA — The young Irish squad could not muster a goal in a 1-0 loss to UCLA last Saturday in the adidas MetLife Classic at Bloomington, Ind., but the play of the Irish defense drew praise from Berticelli.

"I thought our defense played very well," said Berticelli, citing the play of seniors Kevin Pendergast (Simsbury, Conn.) and Mario Tricoci (Palatine, Ill.). "We just need to put the ball in the net."

AGAINST DUKE — In their second match of the weekend against a top 20 foe, Notre Dame fell to 13th-ranked Duke 2-1 in a game that Berticelli looked on as a great learning experience.

"I thought our freshmen really grew up tonight," said Berticelli. "Bill Lanza (Dumfries, Va.) showed what he is capable of doing every game. Our guys are only going to get better with time."

The Irish started six sophomores and two freshmen against the Blue Devils.

CONGRATULATIONS TO — Bill Lanza and Mario Tricoci, who both received all-tournament honors in the adidas MetLife Classic. Lanza made his first collegiate start against Duke on Sunday night.

DEION PENDERGAST — Kevin Pendergast did the double duty of place-kicking and playing soccer for the University of Notre Dame this past weekend (Sept. 5), which is a somewhat normal split these days with so many soccer style kickers.

But Pendergast, a senior academically with one year of football eligibility remaining, played both for the football team in their 42-7 win over Northwestern and then for the soccer team in its game against UCLA on the same day. The true test of stamina? The Simsbury, Conn. native not only played for both squads on the same day, he played for both teams on away trips.

After booting an extra point and kicking off after one of the Irish scores at Soldier Field in Chicago, he skipped town, boarded a single-engine plane from Miggs Field to Bloomington, Ind., and started for the No. 20 Irish soccer team in their match against fourth-ranked UCLA in the adidas MetLife Classic.

"It was good to have Kevin run into the locker room and say 'I'm ready to go'" said third-year Irish soccer coach Mike Berticelli. "He came from one big event at Soldier Field and never missed a beat on the soccer field. I give him credit for keeping focused."

Football hype has followed Pendergast since he booted three extra-points and a field goal in Notre Dame's 39-28 win over Florida in the Sugar Bowl. He has scored 60 career points for the soccer team and has twice led the team in scoring. But in 1992, he

Early season tests loom for young men's soccer team

By JASON KELLY

Sports Writer

Last year, the Notre Dame men's soccer team proved that it could play with the nation's best teams.

This year, Soccer America agrees.

For the first time ever, the Irish enter a campaign ranked among the nation's elite. But third-year coach Mike Berticelli doesn't put much faith in his team's 20th ranking.

"I think of it like my math classes in high school," he said. "I knew I had an A at the beginning of the year, but after a few tests I knew where I really stood. We're concerned with where we are at the end of the season, not at the beginning."

His team will face its share of tests this season, beginning next Saturday with an exhibition game against national powerhouse Indiana at the Golden Boot Classic.

The following weekend the Irish will face another trial by fire against perennial powers UCLA and Duke in the Adidas Met Life Classic in Bloomington.

"You have to play the best schedule possible," Berticelli said. "Playing good teams is the only way to get better, and it will show us where we stand early in the season."

With a roster full of freshmen and sophomores, those early-season tests appear even more formidable, but with nine starters and seventeen lettermen returning, the Irish are more experienced than their age shows.

Senior captain Mario Tricoci leads the list of starters returning from last year's 13-5-2 team. Also returning is sophomore goalkeeper Bert Bader, 1991's MCC Newcomer of the Year. Sophomore Jean Joseph, who led the Irish with 11 goals last year, will be the key to what could be an explosive offense. Classmate Tim Oates is another proven performer up front and highly-touted freshman Bill Lanza is expected to see a lot of time at forward.

In the midfield, the talent is almost overflowing. Sophomores Tont Richardson, Jason Fox and Ray Prado and junior Mike Palmer return and freshmen Shawn Bryden, Eric Ferguson, Ben Ketchum and Josh Landman will also compete for playing time.

"All these guys will see a lot of playing time, because the midfield is where most of our depth is," Berticelli said. Most of the freshmen will probably see some quality playing time this season.

For the second straight season, Berticelli has attracted one of the nation's best group of freshmen. Lanza, last year's Virginia Gatorade Player of the Year, is considered the cream of the crop, but each of the seven recruits could make an impact.

"We're young, but that is the basis of our program right now," Berticelli explained. "Young players offer a lot of positives to the team, they have the ability and they are also very enthusiastic."

Irish soccer fans are very enthusiastic about the 1992 season.
