part of team growth. I always say that how you handle those bumps is how you become a team."

The Irish return to the field Sept. 3 taking on Oregon State during a tournament at Indiana with one goal in the forefront of their minds. 'Staying in the Spotlight.' The '03 edition of the Fighting Irish followed their motto 'Making History,' and the '04 team will be challenged to do the same.

"Some years will be very special, but every year has to be special," Clark says.

"Our motto is, 'Staying in the Spotlight.' I love this stage of it. You need to find that little bit of improvement that is going to take the team a bit further. Can we step up? Can we stay in the spotlight? I think we can do it."

Dalby Leads U-20s To Historic Run At FIFA World Youth Championship

Junior midfielder Greg Dalby captained the U.S. Under-20 team during solid showing at the 2005 FIFA World Youth Championship this past summer. The U.S. won Group D, which was referred to as the 'Group of Death' entering play, with an undefeated 2-0-1 record. The highlight of the tournament occurred in the first match as the U.S. defeated eventual champion Argentina 1-0. That would be Argentina's only loss during its seven-game stretch. A disappointing 3-1 loss to Italy in the Round of 16 brought an end to the run for the U.S.

Despite the loss, the U.S. still had a historic performance at the tournament. Back-to-back-to-back shutouts versus Argentina (1-0), Germany (0-0) and Egypt (1-0) in the tournament's toughest group marks one of the greatest national team accomplishments in U.S. soccer history. The U.S. became just the 12th team in the tournament's 28-year history to manage that feat.

Dalby was one of 10 college players on the Under-20 team, which also featured a formidable mix of professional and high school standouts. One name easily recognizable to all soccer fans was DC United's Freddy Adu, but the Under-20 team also featured Eddie Gaven (N.J. Metrostars), Jonathan Spector (Manchester United) and attacking players Jacob Peterson (Indiana) and Lee Nguyen (the lone high school player out of Texas).

"It was a great experience," said Dalby following the tournament. "All of the preparation leading up to it plus the qualifying and doing the runs before the tournament in Los Angeles, it was such a great experience. To be with guys like that for that long and play with players like that was awesome."
