CSUN Men's Basketball officially opens its 64th season this week on the road. The Matadors kick off the regular season against USC on Tuesday night at 6 p.m. on the Pac-12 Network before hitting the road once more on Saturday afternoon to face Notre Dame at noon on the ACC Network Extra. Ghizal Hasan and Alan Zinsmeister will be on the call in audio broadcasts at GoMatadors.com/Radio.

Under interim head coach Trent Johnson, the Matadors return eight returners with only one letterwinner, Darius Brown II, starting more than 10 games last season. CSUN though have added eight newcomers to the program including five Division I transfers. While fielding a relatively new team, Johnson has assembled a roster that has nine players with four or more years of experience in college. Six student-athletes also have competed in 50 or more games at the Division I level while three are graduate students.

WE ARE CSUN

We are now "CSUN" (See-Sun) and request that CSUN be used to refer to the school and its Division I athletic programs. Please do not refer to the school as "Cal State Northridge," "CS Northridge," "CSU Northridge," "CS North" or "Northridge." Both the men's and women's programs are the "Matadors" and there is no need to add "Lady" before any women's athletic program.

Brendan Harrick was one of four players last season to play in all 22 games as he averaged 4.0 points and connected on 20 3-point shots. Entering his second season, Atin Wright played in 21 games as a true freshman in 2020-21 where he registered 4.7 points per game. Another sophomore, Fidelis Okereke, started seven of 21 games a season ago, averaging 3.8 points and 3.7 rebounds to go with a team-high 16 blocks. Graduate students Miles Brookins (4.4 PPG in eight games) and Lance Coleman II (13.9 PPG and 3.8 RPG in eight games) missed most of the Big West Conference season last year.

CSUN has added experience with five Division I transfers joining the ranks this season. A 6-3 guard from Carbondale, Ill, Darius Beane has played in 78 career games with Southern Illinois and Northern Illinois. This past season, Beane averaged 9.7 points and 4.5 rebounds for NIU. Onyi Eyisi brings size with his 6-9 frame as the Nigerian native played in 67 games at Fordham, averaging 4.4 points and 4.1 rebounds. Hailing from Oakland, Elijah Hardy has lettered at Washington and most recently Portland State where he averaged 7.1 points in 2020-21. A 6-6 graduate student, Christian Gray spent three seasons at Fresno State and would register 5.3 points and 3.0 rebounds a year ago. Rounding out the transfers, 6-6 forward Miles James played in 32 total games in two years with East Carolina.

Johnson enters his first season at CSUN and his 18th overall as a Division I head coach. Over his extensive career, Johnson has led three programs to the NCAA Tournament while he guided Nevada and Stanford to the Sweet 16 rounds. Johnson has also been named Coach of the Year in the WAC (2002-03), Pac-10 (2007-08) and SEC (2008-09).

The Matadors lost eight letterwinners in the offseason including Big West Newcomer of the Year and All-Big West First Team selection TJ Starks. Last season, Starks led the Big West in scoring at 21.7 points per game, which ranked sixth-best in the nation. He also topped the league in field goals made (156) and free throws made (84). Alex Merkviladze, Amound Anderson and Festus Ndumanya are also among the letterwinners that departed in the offseason.

CSUN makes its eighth trip to USC this week and its first since 2015. The Trojans are 7-1 all-time against CSUN and have won the last three in the series. In the teams' last game in 2015, the Trojans prevailed 96-61. The Matadors picked up their only win over USC on Nov. 20, 2005 in overtime, 81-75. Mike Efeverberha scored 20 points in the Matadors' OT victory. CSUN has not defeated a Pac-12 Conference team since beating Utah in Dec. 2012.

Notre Dame and CSUN will face off for just the second time in men's basketball. The Fighting Irish won the only meeting on Jan. 31, 1994 by a 76-58 decision in South Bend. The Matadors have played three games against ACC opponents in their history, going 0-3 in those contests. CSUN also faced Virginia Tech in 2010 and Louisville in 2014.

INTERIM HEAD COACH TRENT JOHNSON

First Season • Boise State, 1986 • 276-265 Overall Division I Record

Trent Johnson was named CSUN's Interim Head Men's Basketball Coach on July 20, 2021. Johnson will lead the Matadors on an interim basis during the 2021-22 season.

Johnson owns a 276-265 career record with winning tenures at three of his previous coaching stops. He has been named coach of the year in all three conferences in which he has coached: the Western Athletic Conference (2002-03), Pac-10 (2007-08) and Southeastern Conference (2008-09).

Johnson has led three programs to the NCAA Tournament including two to the NCAA Sweet 16. His teams have made five total NCAA Tournament and three NIT appearances over his career.

Throughout his career, Johnson has a long history of supporting student welfare and achievement. He will bring that focus to the student-athletes at CSUN to ensure their continued success both on and off the court this season.

Johnson is no stranger to the West Coast, having led the Stanford basketball program from 2004-2008, compiling a record of 80-48. He led the Cardinal to three NCAA Tournament appearances (2004-05, 2006-07, 2007-08) and one NIT appearance (2005-06). Johnson was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year following the 2007-08 season that saw the Cardinal finish 28-8 while advancing to the Sweet 16. In his four seasons on the Farm, where he previously worked as an assistant coach from 1996-99, he became the only head coach in program history to guide the Cardinal to the postseason in each of his first four seasons.

He also led Nevada to similar heights in his first head coaching assignment. Johnson revitalized the Wolfpack program during his five-year tenure from 1999-2004. During the 2003-04 season, he led Nevada to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history as the Wolf Pack tied a school record with 25 wins. Nevada tied for a share of the WAC regular-season crown for the first time in school history and captured the WAC Tournament Championship.

Johnson spent four seasons as head coach at both LSU and then TCU. In his first season in Baton Rouge in 2008-09, he guided LSU to a 27-8 overall record and the SEC regular-season championship. His Tiger squad produced the third-most victories in a season in program history. Johnson remained at LSU through 2011-12, when the Tigers posted an 18-15 overall record and an NIT first-round appearance, before he departed for TCU.

Johnson returned to the Bay Area in 2019 where he spent two seasons as Deputy Analyst & Director of Player Development at California (2019-21). He has also served as a collegiate assistant coach at Utah (1986-89), Washington (1989-92), Rice (1992-96), Stanford (1996-99) and Louisville (2017-18).

Johnson formerly served on the National Association of Basketball Coaches Board of Directors and was inducted into the Nevada Hall of Fame in 2013.

He graduated from Franklin High School in Seattle and played collegiate basketball at Boise State (1974-78), where he ranked among the school's career leaders with 1,115 points and 702 rebounds. As a sophomore, Johnson helped lead the Broncos to the Big Sky Tournament championship title and an NCAA Tournament berth. He would earn All-Big Sky honors as a senior. Following his collegiate career, Johnson played professionally for the Washington Lumberjacks of the Western Basketball League. He returned to Boise State after his playing days to complete his degree in physical education in 1986.

Johnson's File

-Enters 34th season as a coach at the Division I level and 18th as a head coach

-Named Coach of the Year in three different leagues, which includes the Western Athletic Conference in 2003, Pac-10 Conference in 2008 and Southeastern Conference in 2009.

-Led three programs to the NCAA Tournament as a head coach and reached the postseason eight times

-Earned five total trips to the NCAA Tournament as a head coach, highlighted by Sweet 16 runs with Nevada (2004) and Stanford (2008).

-Led Nevada to the WAC regular-season and tournament titles in 2004 and LSU to the SEC regular-season championship in 2009.
