It does not take long for a conversation about the highest levels of success in the basketball world to turn to the name Krzyzewski. In 41 seasons at Duke, Mike Krzyzewski - a Naismith Hall of Fame coach, five-time national champion and 12-time Final Four participant - has built a dynasty that few programs in the history of the game can match.

No coach in Division I men's basketball history has won more games than Coach K's 1,187.

Announcing his retirement in June ahead of his 42nd season at Duke, and 47th overall as a head coach at both Duke and Army West Point, Krzyzewski owns an 1,187-364 record as a head coach, including a 1,114-304 mark at Duke.

The numbers that illustrate Coach K's career are simply staggering:

- Five national championships (1991, 1992, 2001, 2010, 2015)
- Six gold medals as head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team
- Nine National Players of the Year (11 honors)
- Six National Defensive Players of the Year (nine honors)
- 10 consecutive top-10 AP poll finishes (1997-06)
- 12 National Coach of the Year honors (eight seasons)
- 12 Final Four appearances (tied for most in NCAA history)
- 12 ACC regular season championships
- 15 ACC Tournament championships (most in league history)
- 28 NBA Lottery picks (most in Draft history)
- 35 NCAA Tournament bids (most by one coach)
- 37 All-America selections (51 honors)
- 67 ACC Tournament wins (most in league history)
- 68 NBA Draft selections, including 42 first-round picks
- 97 NCAA Tournament wins (most in NCAA history)
- 127 weeks ranked No. 1 in the AP poll (most by a coach in poll history)
- 524 ACC wins (most in league history)
- 568 weeks ranked in the top 10 of the AP poll (most by a coach in poll history)
- 671 weeks ranked in the AP poll (most by a coach in poll history)
- 1,114 victories at Duke (most in NCAA history at one school)
- 1,187 career wins (most in NCAA history)

Coach K became the Division I men's career wins leader on Nov. 15, 2011, at Madison Square Garden, moving past his former coach Bob Knight with his 903rd victory. His historic 1,000th career victory came against St. John's at The World's Most Famous Arena on Jan. 25, 2015, as he became the first Division I men's basketball coach to achieve a four-figure win total.

Krzyzewski's 1,114 victories at Duke are an NCAA record by a coach at one school. With 1,114 of the Blue Devils' 2,231 all-time victories, Coach K has presided over nearly half (49.6 percent) of the men's basketball wins in Duke history.

Krzyzewski has won a league-record 524 ACC games (regular season and tournament), passing former North Carolina head coach Dean Smith (422) on Feb. 4, 2015. He has also won an ACC-record 194 conference road games.

Coach K's five national championships are the second-most in NCAA history. Krzyzewski and former Connecticut coach Jim Calhoun are the only coaches in NCAA history to win national championships in three different decades.

Coach K has led the Blue Devils into the NCAA Tournament 35 times - more than any other coach in history. His streak of guiding Duke to 24 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 1996 to 2019 ranked as the longest streak in NCAA history, surpassing Dean Smith's 23 consecutive appearances from 1975 to 1997.

Krzyzewski holds NCAA Tournament records for games coached (127) and wins (97) while ranking second all-time and leading active coaches with a .764 NCAA Tournament winning percentage (min. 20 games). He has reached the Sweet 16 on 25 occasions, six more than any other coach in NCAA history, and has advanced to the Elite Eight 16 times.

Of the 1,419 games Krzyzewski has coached at Duke, 1,258 - 88.5 percent - have been as a ranked team. The Blue Devils are 1,024-234 (.814) as a ranked team under Coach K.

Coach K has taken top-ranked Duke teams into games on 255 occasions and compiled a 219-36 (.859) record as the AP's No. 1 team, ranking first in poll history in both number of games and wins as coach of a top-ranked squad.

Krzyzewski has tutored 68 NBA Draft picks during his time at Duke, including a total of 42 first-round selections that leads all active coaches. Duke has had at least one player taken in 34 of the 41 NBA Drafts during the Krzyzewski Era.

Since the inception of the NBA Draft Lottery in 1985, Coach K and Duke have produced 28 lottery picks - a draft-record total for both a school and a coach.

Through the 2020-21 season, Coach K's former Duke players have accumulated more than $2.5 billion in NBA contracts. Lottery selections who played for Krzyzewski at Duke have combined to earn more than $2 billion in contracts, an average of nearly $70 million per individual.

Under Coach K's watch, Duke has produced multiple All-ACC Academic selections in 12 of the last 13 years. The 2015 NCAA championship team featured a program-high five All-ACC Academic honorees. Quin Snyder, Amile Jefferson and Grayson Allen are the only players in Duke history to earn All-ACC Academic honors four times. Jefferson, a three-time captain, departed the university in 2017 with both bachelor's and master's degrees.

Krzyzewski has had six players collect a total of nine CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, headlined by two-time first-team honorees Battier (2000, 2001) and Mason Plumlee (2012, 2013). Allen became the sixth in 2016 when he garnered second-team accolades.

Fittingly, Coach K has earned nearly every award imaginable. The crown jewel of that haul, however, came in 2001 when he was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

Since his enshrinement in Springfield, Mass., Krzyzewski has also been inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame (2009), the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame (2010) and the Duke Athletics Hall of Fame (2011).

While establishing Duke as one of college basketball's dynastic programs, Krzyzewski simultaneously spent more than a decade as one of the architects of the revitalization of USA Basketball. During his tenure at the helm of the program, the U.S. National Team amassed an extraordinary 88-1 record and claimed gold medals at the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, 2008 Beijing Olympics, 2010 FIBA World Championship, 2012 London Olympics, 2014 FIBA World Cup and 2016 Rio Olympics, as well as a bronze medal at the 2006 FIBA World Championship.

Coach K was 24-0 in the Olympics as head coach of the USMNT and his time at the helm ended with the team in the midst of a National Team-record 76-game winning streak that began in 2006.

Sustained success under Coach K has resulted in coaching opportunities for several of his former players, as well as his former assistant coaches from both Duke and Army. More than 25 of Coach K's former players or assistants are currently either coaching or working in front office roles across professional and college basketball.

The Coaching Tree

Ten of Coach K's former players or staff are currently Division I head coaches: Tommy Amaker (Harvard), Kenneth Blakeney (Howard), Mike Brey (Notre Dame), Jeff Capel (Pittsburgh), Chris Collins (Northwestern), Johnny Dawkins (Central Florida), Bobby Hurley (Arizona State), Nate James (Austin Peay), Greg Paulus (Niagara) and Mike Schrage (Elon). James assumed the Austin Peay position following the 2020-21 season.

Quin Snyder is currently the head coach of the NBA's Utah Jazz, headlining a long list of former players, staff and managers that are connected to the NBA. That list also includes Grant Hill as part-owner of the Atlanta Hawks, Elton Brand as general manager of the Philadelphia 76ers, Trajan Langdon as general manager of the New Orleans Pelicans and Shane Battier as vice president of analytics and development for the Miami Heat.

Krzyzewski has shown a firm commitment to taking care of his own, having at least three former Duke captains on his staff every season since 1996-97. The Blue Devils have won three NCAA titles, 12 ACC Tournament championships and eight ACC regular season crowns during that time.

The 2020-21 staff of Jon Scheyer, Chris Carrawell and Nolan Smith all held the captain role during their playing careers at Duke.

Giving Back

Krzyzewski has been diligently committed to public service, both locally and nationally, throughout his coaching career. He is currently serving on boards for, while also assuming vital roles with, the Duke Children's Hospital, the Jimmy V Foundation for Cancer Research, the NABC Foundation, the CEO Roundtable on Cancer and the Emily Krzyzewski Center.

Coach K's philanthropic activities also include the establishment and funding of the Emily Krzyzewski Center, a community center in Durham named in honor of his late mother. The Center's mission is to inspire economically disadvantaged students to dream big, act with character and purpose, strive for academic excellence and reach their highest potential as future citizen leaders.

In May 2018, Coach K and his wife Mickie announced their single-largest philanthropic gift, a $3 million donation to the Emily K Center to kick start a $15 million fundraising campaign for the Durham-based Center. That campaign concluded on December 31, 2020 and raised $18.85 million to exceed the goal.

Duke overcomes Louisville and Cardinals student section in hard-fought win

By Brendan Marks, The Athletic (Jan. 29, 2022)

The Athletic

FOR DUKE'S COMPLETE CLIPS FILE, CLICK HERE

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – God bless the cleanup workers sent to Section 111 inside the KFC Yum! Center on Saturday. For all the empty Miller Lite cans scattered courtside, the crushed popcorn kernels sprinkled down every staircase, it is undeniably Section 111 – Louisville's student section – that requires the most scrubbing and sanitation.

Good.

Because, frankly, the concrete steps leading from the court to the concourse haven't been this well-trafficked in quite some time. And, at the risk of agitating a fan base already quite furious these days: Have they deserved to be? Staggering as it sounds, the Cardinals haven't won an NCAA Tournament game since the 2016-17 season (!!), when a certain Hall of Famer was still stalking these sidelines. (That fellow is doing just fine at Iona now, thank you very much – and the pages of passport stamps to Greece aren't anything to scoff at, either.) Yes, that ignores the COVID-19-canceled, not-to-be 2020 event, where UL likely would've been a top-four seed ... but them's the breaks everywhere else, too.

Now, could Chris Mack have used that notch in his belt? Clearly. If that's there, after all, maybe this week he and Louisville don't come to an amicable parting of ways, the athletic department agreeing to pay Mack $4.8 million not to coach the Cards anymore. (Mack will rebound, surely, and coach again in the future, but for the time being ... well, doing zilch and having $133,000 a month hit your bank account ain't too bad.) So, c'est la vie. It is what is. And with Duke coming to town, any pity party for this still-proud program was promptly shut down. Mike Pegues, you're in (again).

Oh, and by the way, Coach? Yeah, your first game after this tumultuous, trying week is ... checks notes against No. 9 Duke and Mike Krzyzewski, coaching his final contest in Derby City. Good luck with all that!

Credit where credit is due, though. A week ago, the last time UL took to Denny Crum Court, the Cards were booed off the hardwood by a crowd 16,000 strong. On Saturday? Well, Duke always draws a crowd – it being Krzyzewski's 42nd and final season coaching hasn't hurt attendance, either – but this was more than that. This was a fan base fired up, fervently searching for something to grab on to: hopefully a win, but at least a fight.

Even with the referees interrupting a few “chippy” conversations, they sure as hell got one.

“It was what we expected,” Krzyzewski said after Duke's eventual 74-65 win. “Just a tight, tough game.”

At first, apparently only the Blue Devils were aware any battle was ongoing. In racing out to a 23-7 first-half lead, Duke looked as dominant as it had in perhaps any four-minute stretch this season. (Pegues, probably wisely, didn't even wait until the first media timeout to huddle his team, after a 12-2 start by the Blue Devils.) “A lot of teams would've laid down against Duke,” Pegues said. “We got down big early, and our guys fought back.”

This is true. It would've been easy for Louisville, or any team, to stare at the Blue Devils' starting five – even absent freshman Trevor Keels, who missed his third game with a lower leg injury – see four first-round NBA draft picks, and decide to pack it in. Not Louisville, though. Instead, the Cards went right back at Duke's 7-foot center Mark Williams, whose length and shot-blocking savvy dictated the game's opening minutes, and forced him to pick up two fouls. To the bench Williams went, with 7:31 until halftime. And seemingly as he did ... well, what do you know? There's Section 111, screaming and hollering, more emotion in this one moment than seemingly UL's entire season combined.

With Williams out of the lineup, the Cards weren't as disincorporated to drive inside and suddenly found a rhythm of sorts on runners and short jumpers. Despite that early 16-point hole, bit by bit, UL clawed its way back into the contest, eventually coming within two with 28 seconds left in the first half. A late travel by Malik Williams, though, gave Duke one final half-court possession with 0.6 seconds left on the clock – which was just enough time for A.J. Griffin, Duke's stud sharpshooter, to drain a falling-away 3-pointer that pushed the margin back to five. It was shocking that Griffin could even get a shot off with so little time left, but, well, there's a reason the play was designed to go to him. “He's our best shooter,” Krzyzewski said with a grin. “He's one of the purest shooters in the country.”

That five-point cushion, though, was never going to last. And here, again, some semblance of credit should go to Section 111, whose nonstop heckling woke up the entirety of the Yum! Center. Right out of intermission, on Louisville's first offensive possession, the Cards again went right back at Williams – he spent the final seven minutes of the first half saddled on Duke's bench – and got him called for a third foul. And right about at this point, Section 111 snapped.

Louisville's student section unfurled a massive flag, one that stretched at least 15 rows up in the stands, with a fitting message affixed to its top: VILLE'NS. Which, in coming from behind to make Duke uncomfortable, was exactly the role this raucous bunch wanted to be in. Frankly, if we're doing a proper postmortem, this is about the time and vibe that would come back to bite the cleaning crews later. Beer didn't just froth out of plastic cups as rows of fans bounced in their seats; it went full-on flying, spilling down the concrete steps all the way to the retractable bleachers. Like a little waterfall, if you will, only one that congealed near the court in a heap of Corona Light and slushed ice.

“After everything they've gone through, to be here today and support our guys, even when we were down – and we've been down the entire season,” Pegues said, “I am so grateful to our fans. I genuinely mean that.”

Unfortunately for Pegues, and Louisville's program, cheering alone doesn't cut it on the court. So though the Cards were multiple times able to bring things back to level in the second half – twice, in fact, including at 60 with 8:28 left to play – not once did Duke cede its game-long lead. And really, that 60-point tie was the last time the game was even.

Williams had just checked back in at that point, and for the rest of the contest, he more than made up for any time lost, finishing with an eventual 14 points, 11 rebounds (five of them offensive) and two blocked shots, both of which came thereafter. Between him and Paolo Banchero (six offensive rebounds), Duke absolutely dominated on the glass late, snuffing out Louisville's layups along with its hope; Duke's 20 offensive rebounds Saturday were a season-best. Then, as was the case with Jeremy Roach and Joey Baker earlier this week against Clemson, the Blue Devils needed a hero to step up offensively.

Come on down, Mr. Griffin.

Griffin absolutely banged two 3s on back-to-back possessions, both from similar spots on the left side of the arc, to give Duke an eight-point cushion. Asked what he was thinking during that sequence, Griffin didn't have any gratuitous breakdown to offer, but rather an insight into his never-say-die demeanor. “That sequence right there, you're just really not even thinking about it,” Griffin said. “Just letting it fly and having the confidence (to do so) from my coaches and teammates. ... Just playing basketball.”

Only for Griffin, that means something else than most normal people. Because most normal people, in a high-pressure situation such as that, don't have their hearts go steady, their blood turn to ice. Most people aren't capable of leading Duke to its second true road win of the season, with Section 111 shouting in the background, with a perfect form, base and everything else. Most people can't shoot 5 of 5 from 3-point land – in fact, no other Duke freshman has ever shot 100 percent from deep in a game with at least five attempts – and especially not in a high-major college game in a place like the Yum! Center. As Griffin is increasingly proving, though, he is not normal; after Saturday, he's officially shooting 50 percent from 3 this season, even with 64 total attempts, the third most on the team.

And for Duke, that's the best thing possible.

“He's not a rising good player; he's a rising star,” Krzyzewski said. “All our guys realize that.”

After Saturday, the whole world should. Griffin's two 3s in that moment – he ultimately tied his career high with 22 points, to go along with four rebounds, two steals and no turnovers – pushed Duke well on its way to a 12-0 run, which put the game right out of reach. Eventually, the horn blared and the battle was over. Duke won, again, helping solidify its status as the ACC's best.

But Section 111 would not go quietly into that good night.

After postgame handshakes finished, a matter of procedure as much as anything, Duke's coaches and players made their way for the tunnel that would take them back to the visiting locker room. Where they had to walk right past? Section 111, of course. And as they did, Louisville fans hurled insults and boos and the best they could come up with right in the Blue Devils' faces.

Banchero, the recipient of some rowdy chants, at first ducked his head and smirked as he heard their screams. You could almost see the thought process playing out in his head: Do I dignify these people with a response? Answer: yes. Only, not a verbal one; Banchero picked up his head, looked dead into the eyes of someone in the crowd – and faked like a crying baby, a smug smile spread wide across his face.

Seconds later, Wendell Moore – another target of plenty of hate, who even poked the bear late in the game by coming over to the student section and saying, “Y'all are watching ME!” – also exited, waving widely goodbye as he did. Theo John followed suit, after his several almost-tussles with Louisville's Sydney Curry. Last, but certainly not least, went Williams, who offered a simple peace sign as his parting gift.

And poof – like that Duke was gone: disappeared down the tunnel and off for its flight out of the Cardinals nest.
