YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

A NOTE ON RANKINGS

The numbers in front of the opponent indicate Notre Dame's rankings in the Associated Press poll and WBCA/USA Today poll at the time of the game. The numbers following the opponent indicate the opponent's ranking in both polls. The first number (or only one listed) is the AP poll ranking. The 1988-89 season was the first year of the WBCA/USA Today poll. NR indicates the team was not ranked in the top 25 at game time.

INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS

Through the years, the University of Notre Dame women's basketball program not only has achieved success during the college season, but also has seen its players and coaches reach similar heights on the international stage while representing both the United States and Canada.

All told, the Fighting Irish have seen 30 players who have successfully competed in domestic and/or international competition (with either USA or Canada Basketball), with the players having won 53 medals (including 41 golds, led by four Olympic gold medalists — Ruth Riley, Skylar Diggins, Jewell Loyd and Jackie Young). After winning the 2022 WNBA Finals with the Las Vegas Aces, Young became just the second player in Irish history to win a national championship, a WNBA championship and an Olympic gold medal.

At least one Notre Dame player (either an alumnus, current player or incoming freshman) has played for a USA or Canada Basketball team at an international tournament for the last 16 years (2008-2023).

Hannah Hidalgo is keeping the tradition going this year, as the incoming freshman made the USA Basketball U19 National Team. She will compete for Team USA in the FIBA U19 Women's World Cup from July 15-23. Current head coach Niele Ivey served as a court coach at the event's training camp in Colorado, Springs. It was her first USA Basketball appointment.

Among the current Irish, Sonia Citron and Maddy Westbeld have competed abroad for their county while associated with Notre Dame. Citron won a gold medal at the FIBA U19 World Cup, and Westbeld played for the 3x3 U23 Nations League Team in 2022.

Sam Brunelle and Anaya Peoples each won gold, while Abby Prohaska achieved bronze at the 2016 FIBA U17 World Championships. Brunelle won gold three times: the 2018 Youth Olympic Games, 2018 FIBA U17 World Cup and the 2017 FIBA Americas U16 Championship. Meanwhile Peoples won the 2018 FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

On Sept. 30, 2018, Jewell Loyd won a gold medal the FIBA World Cup with the USA National Team, becoming the first USA player to win both a five-on-five World Cup and 3x3 World Cup (2014) gold medal.

In August of 2017, Ogunbowale and the U23 USA squad travelled to Tokyo and won the Four Nations Tournament, defeating host Japan, Australia and Canada in a three-game round-robin tournament.

Natalie Achonwa became the first Irish to be a two-time Olympian, appearing for Team Canada in Rio in 2016 and London in 2012. She led Canada to a quarterfinals appearance. in 2016 and also reached the quarters at the 2012 London games. In 2009, Achonwa made history as the youngest player selected to the Canadian Senior National Team when she was just 16 years old.

The summer of 2015 was particularly busy for Notre Dame on the international front, led by Achonwa ('14), who nabbed a pair of gold medals with Team Canada at the Pan Am Games and FIBA Americas Championship. Ogunbowale (3x3 National Championships) also earned a gold medals with USA Basketball at the FIBA 3x3 World Championships, while Marquez (Pan Am Games) added a silver medal to her collection.

In 2014, Jewell Loyd earned two gold medals in 3x3 play with the USA Basketball 3x3 National Team at the national championships in Colorado Springs, as well as the FIBA 3x3 World Championships in Moscow, Russia.

That same summer, Turner earned her fifth career USA Basketball gold medal (first since signing to attend Notre Dame) as a starter and captain with the 2014 USA U18 Americas Championship Team. One of Turner's teammates on that squad was current Fighting Irish freshman guard Marina Mabrey (who declared her intention to enroll at Notre Dame later that year).

Skylar Diggins ('13) and Kayla McBride ('14) were members of the 2014-16 USA Basketball player pool and were among 16 finalists for the 2014 USA World Championship Team. They were the first Irish players to suit up with the USA Senior Women's National Team since Riley's 2004 Olympic appearance, and McBride, who joined the player pool prior to her senior season (2013-14), became the first active Notre Dame player to train with the USA Senior Women's National Team.

Along with Achonwa's Olympic debut in the summer of 2012, Michaela Mabrey laid the foundation for her college career by leading the USA U18 National Team to the gold medal at the 2012 FIBA Americas U18 Championship in Puerto Rico. Mabrey was joined on that team by Marquez, giving the Fighting Irish another tie to international championship gold.

At the 2012 U17 World Championship in Amsterdam, Netherlands, Lindsay Allen and Turner combined to lead the Americans to a 9-0 record and the gold medal.

As it turns out, Notre Dame is no stranger to international success on the U17 level, as Loyd helped USA Basketball to the title at the inaugural FIBA U17 World Championship in 2010 in Toulouse, France.

Diggins wrapped the summer of 2012 in historic fashion, earning her fifth USA Basketball gold medal, pacing the United States to the gold at the inaugural 3x3 World Championships in Athens, Greece.

A year earlier, Diggins teamed up with fellow Notre Dame All-Americans Natalie Novosel and Devereaux Peters to become the first Fighting Irish trio to win gold medals for the same USA Basketball team in the same tournament, helping the U.S. to a 6-0 record and the 2011 World University Games title in Shenzhen, China.

Diggins averaged 12.3 ppg., while also leading all tournament players in assists (4.8 apg.) and ranking among the top 10 at the event in steals (third with team-high 3.3 spg.) and field-goal percentage (10th at .475). In fact, Diggins narrowly missed breaking two longstanding USA Basketball World University Games records, with her 20 steals ranking third all-time behind the 21 thefts collected in 1987 by Alisa Scott and Women's Basketball Hall of Famer/1988 Wade Trophy recipient Teresa Weatherspoon. Diggins' 29 assists also are third-most by a USA Basketball player at the World University Games, one off the record shared by Kamie Ethridge (1985) and Suzie McConnell (1987).

Peters also had an impressive showing at the World University Games as the leading American scorer off the bench (and fourth overall) with 10.0 points per game. She also was fourth on the team in rebounding (5.3 rpg.), and ranked among the top 10 in the entire tournament in field-goal percentage (fifth at .560, second-best on team) and blocked shots (ninth with team-high 1.0 bpg.).

Novosel was one of the "glue" players for the United States, starting all six games in her international debut and doing a bit of everything, winding up with 4.5 points, 3.3 rebounds and 1.6 steals per game, the latter total ranking fourth on the team.

Led by the Notre Dame trio, the United States set new USA Basketball World University Games records for scoring margin (+45.0 points per game) and average rebounds per game (56.5 rpg.). The Americans also posted their second-best scoring average ever at the World University Games, and best in 20 years (97.8 points per game; the record is 105.0 ppg. by the 1991 squad that included Hall of Famers Lisa Leslie, Dawn Staley and Ruthie Bolton), as well as their second-best defensive scoring average at the tournament, and best in 38 years (52.8 ppg.; the record is 48.0 ppg. set by the inaugural 1973 team).

Like Mabrey, McBride earned a place on the United States U18 National Team back in 2010, a squad that took home the gold medal at the FIBA U18 Americas Championship in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Owens made her mark as both an assistant coach and head coach in the USA Basketball program from 2006-09, helping the United States win four gold medals in as many international tournaments under her tutelage. The Chicago native coached twice at the FIBA U18 Americas Championship, striking gold as an assistant in 2006 and a head coach in 2008, and twice at the FIBA U19 World Championships, winning titles as an assistant in 2007 and head coach in 2009. During her four successful head-coaching runs with USA Basketball, Owens also had the opportunity to work with Diggins, adding an even greater Golden Dome glitter to the Americans' championship medals.

Other representatives of the Notre Dame women's basketball program to compete on the world stage include: Melissa Lechlitner ('10), who struck gold with the 2007 Women's U19 World Championship Team (making Lechlitner the first South Bend-area female to earn a gold medal in international basketball competition and paving the way for Diggins' gold rush), Megan Duffy ('06), who claimed a gold medal as a co-captain and starter for the 2005 USA World University Games Team, and Riley ('01), who made prior USA Basketball appearances in 1998 and 1999 before her historic Olympic gold medal in 2004, which made her one of just nine women's basketball players in history to win an NCAA title, a WNBA championship and an Olympic gold medal. Two other former Fighting Irish All-Americans — Katryna Gaither ('97) (two teams, two medals) and Cunningham ('97) (four teams, three medals) — also have suited up for Team USA since 1996.

In earlier years, Notre Dame also had several players compete at the U.S. Olympic Festival during its existence from 1978-95 — Trena Keys (1982-83 for North Team), Heidi Bunek (1985-86 for North Team), Karen Robinson (1987 and 1989 for East Team) and Kristin Knapp (1991 for West Team). Both Bunek and Robinson earned silver and bronze medals in their two appearances, while Knapp took home a bronze in her only visit.
