FAST BREAK

■ Freshman guard Tajianna Roberts continues to be a consistent scoring presence for the Cardinals. She scored 18 of her team-high 19 points in the second half of the Cards win over Clemson on Thursday. She leads the team in scoring with 13.4 points per game and has a team-best 23 double-digit scoring games this year. That is the most double-digit scoring games of any ACC freshman this season and five more than the second-best.

■ Senior guard Jayda Curry has been streaking in the last five games for the Cardinals. She is averaging 18.6 points per game and 5.0 rebounds per game over her last five games. Curry tallied 15 points and tied a career high with 10 rebounds for her first double-double with the Cards in the win over Clemson. On the season, she leads the ACC and ranks seventh nationally with a 92.4 free throw percentage. The Louisville program record for free throw percentage in a single season is 92.1 (116-126) by Kristin Mattox during the 1995-96 season.

■ With the win over Clemson on Thursday, the Cardinals clinched their 15th-straight 20 win season. It is the fifth-longest active streak in the country and the 17th time in head coach Jeff Walz's 18 seasons that the Cardinals have won 20 games or more. Prior to Walz's arrival in Louisville, the program had only 10 20-win seasons in its previous 32 year history.

■ Graduate forward Olivia Cochran tied the program record for most career games played against Clemson. She has played 162 career games and is tied with Mykasa Robinson for the program record. In the win over the Tigers, Cochran tallied her second-consecutive double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds. She leads the team with five double-doubles this season.

■ Head coach Jeff Walz (485-143) is the winningest coach in program history; directing the Cards to 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, including 12 Sweet 16's, eight Elite Eight's, four trips to the Final Four (2009, 2013, 2018, 2022) and two appearances in the national title game (2009, 2013). Prior to his arrival, the Cardinals had never reached a Sweet 16 and only had four tournament wins in 11 appearances.

The Cards kept the game close with a strong second quarter, but despite shooting 44 percent from three and forcing the Fighting Irish to commit 23 turnovers, Notre Dame's season high, the game got away from them in the second half and they struggled to contain the Irish, who remain unbeaten since November. HEAD COACH JEFF WALZ

Head coach Jeff Walz, in his 18th season as a head coach, has compiled a 485-143 record as the Cardinals' leader. Walz and the Cardinals boast quite an astounding resumé that includes 12 trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, eight trips to the Elite Eight, four trips to the final four and two trips to the national title game. Overall, he has compiled a 40-15 record in NCAA Tournament games and ranks 10th all-time and fifth among active coaches with a 72.7 NCAA Tournament winning percentage. All of this for a program that had just four NCAA Tournament wins and had never reached a Sweet 16 prior to Walz being named head coach.

Walz is the all-time winningest coach in program history and averages 27.4 victories per season. He directed Louisville to a program-record 36 victories in 2017-18 en route to being named ACC Coach of the Year, 34 victories in 2008-09, 33 wins in 2013-14, 32 wins in 2018-19 and 29 wins in 2021-22.

Walz has been with the Cardinals for 18 seasons and is tied for 17th for the longest active streak at the same school. Among the power conferences, Walz is sixth behind Geno Auriemma (40 years, UConn), Bill Fennelly (30 years, Iowa State), Jose Fernandez (25 years, USF), Brenda Frese (23 years, Maryland) and Jim Flanery (23 years, Creighton).

The Cardinals have reached 20 wins 14 consecutive times and they have won at least 20 games in 16 of Walz's 17 full seasons. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice, and UofL had just 10 20-win seasons in its 32 previous years.

Walz led Louisville to four consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021, and over that four-year span, the Cardinals went a combined 122-15, which marked the fewest losses and best winning percentage over a four-year period in program history.

From 2016-2021, he coached the ACC Player of the Year in five of six seasons as Myisha Hines-Allen won the award in 2016, Asia Durr in 2018 and 2019, and Dana Evans in 2020 and 2021. He also coached Angel McCoughtry to Big East Player of the Year honors in 2007.

After being hired as the Cardinals' head coach on March 27, 2007, the Bluegrass State native used little time to make a splash. His first year featured the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 and it culminated with Louisville earning the No. 12 ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. For his efforts, Walz was named the WBCA Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking the reins at Louisville, Walz spent five seasons at Maryland, including his final season as the associate head coach in 2006-07. The season prior, he helped lead the Terrapins to a school-record 34 wins and the program's first national title.

Walz has four children: daughter Kaeley, son Jacob, and daughters Lola and Lucy. He married the former Lauren Lueders in September of 2012, and the couple resides in Louisville.
