The 2026 Notre Dame Football History and Records Book is a production of Fighting Irish Media and the Notre Dame Athletic Communications staff. The book is compiled and edited by Alan Wasielewski.

A very special thanks to Cappy Gagnon for his help with the all-time roster updates and historical research. There is no one that has a better knowledge of the early years of Notre Dame Football than Cappy and we thank him for his continued research and communication with former Irish players.

CREDENTIAL APPLICATIONS

For credential access to Notre Dame Football practices and Notre Dame Football home games, visit FightingIrish.com/credentials.

CREDENTIAL APPLICATION GUIDELINES

- An assignment editor or similar position in your media organization should fill out the application.
- Notre Dame does not credential freelance photographers for home football games. Only nationally recognized wire services or photographers assigned to cover the game for media outlets approved for credentials will be considered.
- All credentials for print, video and photo media are issued on the basis of circulation and are under the full discretion of the Notre Dame Athletics Communications office.
- Notre Dame only credentials radio stations who are part of the Notre Dame Football Radio Network. Non-originating radio stations will not be considered (visiting radio outlets will be cross-referenced with visiting athletic communication personnel for access decisions and will be decided on a case-by-case basis).
- New media outlets who request credential access will be considered on a case-by-case basis, focused on your content covering college football and your editorial practices. Those who distribute their content strictly via social media or only produce podcasts will not be considered.
- Credential requests for Notre Dame football home games are due by 5 p.m. ET the Tuesday of each game week.
- Credential access for away games are controlled by the opposing team's athletic communications team.
- Media outlets covering visiting teams at Notre Dame Stadium requests will be cross-referenced with the participating team's communications team before approval.
- Before starting a credential application, please ensure you have information for all requested attendees from your media outlet (full name, contact information – which includes up-to-date email and mobile phone number). Do not start an application before you have all of this information available. We ask that each outlet apply once for all of the requested attendees whenever possible.
- All parking passes will be distributed digitally (via the phone number you supply when you apply for credentials). Please note that outlets attending the Shamrock Series game at Lambeau Field will be limited to one parking pass per outlet.
- This link should also be utilized by visiting NFL scouts.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

- Media members are not permitted to directly contact student-athletes, coaches or support staff to arrange interviews.
- This policy becomes active when any new student-athlete to the roster arrives on campus (for example, in January as an early-enrollees or in June as summer workouts begin). This policy then continues from that point throughout the entirety of their Notre Dame career.
- Interview requests for student-athletes on a weekly basis or for any other feature ideas (including print media, podcasts and video interviews) must be submitted to Katy Lonergan (klonerg2@nd.edu). The in-season deadline for weekly Tuesday interviews is 12 p.m. ET the Sunday before the proposed interview.
- All media members will be provided with access to game notes on Monday of game week at FightingIrish.com/ndfbmedia and they also will be distributed via our email distribution list.
- Contact Alan Wasielewski (awasiele@nd.edu) if you need to be added to the distribution list.
- All Notre Dame football information is available at FightingIrish.com/pressbox, which provides access to game notes, student-athlete and coaching staff headshots, updated season statistics, interview session video archives and more.

NOTRE DAME SINGLE-GAME INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

SACK RECORDS UPDATE

The NCAA did not accept quarterback sacks as an official statistic until 2000. Therefore, Notre Dame's official sack records that require compilation (season and career) will be reflected for student-athletes that competed at Notre Dame from 2000-current. These official record holders will be indicated at the top of each of the following record listings.

Recent game play-by-play research has allowed the Notre Dame Football Record Book to expand its sack records to include all defensive players from 1973 through the current season.

SACK RECORDS UPDATE

The NCAA did not accept quarterback sacks as an official statistic until 2000. Therefore, Notre Dame's official sack records that require compilation (season and career) will be reflected for student-athletes that competed at Notre Dame from 2000–current. These official record holders will be indicated at the top of each of the following record listings.

Recent game play-by-play research has allowed the Notre Dame Football Record Book to expand its sack records to include all defensive players from 1973 through the current season.

SACK RECORDS UPDATE

The NCAA did not accept quarterback sacks as an official statistic until 2000. Therefore, Notre Dame's official sack records that require compilation (season and career) will be reflected for student-athletes that competed at Notre Dame from 2000-current. These official record holders will be indicated at the top of each of the following record listings.

Recent game play-by-play research has allowed the Notre Dame Football Record Book to expand its sack records to include all defensive players from 1973 through the current season.

Consensus national championship seasons in bold.

The coaches poll 'CP' was switched from United Press International to USA Today in 1991.

SUPER SEASONS

In 136 seasons of football beginning in 1887, Notre Dame has had 113 winning years, only 14 seasons with a losing record and only six others with a .500 mark.

The Fighting Irish have had 12 unbeaten, untied seasons, 10 others in which they were unbeaten but suffered one or more ties — and 30 seasons in which only a single loss spoiled an unbeaten record.

Below is a compilation of Notre Dame's outstanding seasons in its football history:

THE HEISMAN TROPHY

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy award in 1935, Angelo Bertelli (1943), John Lujack (1947), Leon Hart (1949), John Lattner (1953), Paul Hornung (1956), John Huarte (1964) and Tim Brown (1987) have stamped their names as recipients of college football's highest honor.

Notre Dame also has had a player finish among the top five in the Heisman voting in 27 of the 91 years the award has been presented. In addition to the seven recipients, the Irish have had four players finish second (Bertelli in '41, Joe Theismann in '70, Raghbir Ismail in '90 and Manti Te'o in '12), seven finish third (Bill Shakespeare in '35, Lujack in '46, Nick Eddy in '66, Terry Hanratty in '68, Ken MacAfee in '77, Brady Quinn in '06 and Jeremiah Love in '25), five finish fourth (Creighton Miller in '43, Ralph Guglielmi in '54, Tom Clements in '74, Tony Rice in '89 and Quinn in '05) and seven finish fifth (Bob Williams in '49, Lattner in '52, Hornung in '55, Jack Snow in '64, Ross Browner in '77, Vagas Ferguson in '79 and Reggie Brooks in '92).

Since 1982, when the Heisman Trophy officially started inviting finalists, Notre Dame has produced five (Tim Brown ('87), Tony Rice ('89), Raghbir Ismail ('90), Brady Quinn ('06), Manti Te'o ('12) and Jeremiah Love ('25).

The iconic bronze Heisman Trophy award was sculpted by Frank Eliscu, with the help of Notre Dame "Four Horseman" Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

Frank Leahy's switch to the T-formation starting in 1942 made a star of Bertelli and helped him win the Heisman Trophy as a senior despite playing in only six of Notre Dame's 10 games. Bertelli's Irish career began as a single-wing tailback in 1941 as his 1,027 passing yards (and a .569 completion percentage that led the nation) propelled his team to a 9-0-1 record. As a junior, he switched to quarterback in the T and ended up throwing for another 1,039 yards and 10 touchdowns. In a 27-10 win over Stanford that year, he threw four touchdown passes and completed a record 10 straight passes. Runner-up to Minnesota's Bruce Smith for the Heisman as a sophomore and sixth as a junior behind winner Frank Sinkwich of Georgia, Bertelli's play enabled Notre Dame to average 43.5 points in its first six games in '43 before the Marine Corps called him into service. Still, he threw 10 scoring passes in those six contests and helped Notre Dame claim the national title despite a final-game loss to Great Lakes while Bertelli was in boot camp. He played three seasons with Los Angeles and Chicago in the All-America Football Conference before a knee injury ended his career. Bertelli ran a beverage distributorship in Clifton, New Jersey. He joined the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1972. Bertelli died on June 26, 1999.

8. Bill Swiacki, Columbia (61)

Lujack took over at quarterback for Notre Dame as a sophomore in 1943 when Angelo Bertelli joined the Marines – and he ended up helping the Irish to three national titles and establishing a reputation as one of the great T-formation signal callers in college football history. In his initial start, versus Army in '43, he threw for two scores, ran for another and intercepted a pass in a 26-0 victory. He spent nearly three years of his life in the Navy but returned in time to earn consensus All-America honors as a junior and senior on Notre Dame teams in 1946 and '47 that did not lose a game. No slouch as a runner (he also played half-back as a sophomore), Lujack also punted – and probably made his greatest individual play on defense. He preserved a scoreless tie in '46 between the second-ranked Irish and top-ranked Army by making a touchdown-saving tackle of Cadet fullback Doc Blanchard from his defensive back position. As a junior, he finished third in the Heisman voting behind Army's Glenn Davis. As a senior, he earned the Associated Press Male Athlete of the Year award. Lujack played four years with the Chicago Bears, leading the team in scoring each year, tying a record with eight interceptions as a rookie, throwing for a record 468 yards in one game in '49 and playing in the NFL Pro Bowl his last two seasons. An Irish backfield coach for two years following his retirement in '52, Lujack then ran an automobile dealership in Davenport, Iowa, until he retired in 1988. He was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1960. Lujack has made several donations to the University to establish an academic scholarship endowment.

Hart and Larry Kelley of Yale (the '36 winner) rank as the only linemen ever to win the Heisman Trophy. Joining Irish teammate and tackle Jim Martin as the last of the two-way players with the advent of two-platoon football, Hart gained a reputation as an outstanding blocker and superb rusher on defense in addition to his estimable pass-catching skills. A four-time letter-winner, Hart never played on the losing side during his years in a Notre Dame uniform as the Irish went 36-0-2 and claimed three national championships. He became a three-time first-team All-American and a consensus choice as a junior and senior. In 1949 he was voted the Associated Press Male Athlete of the Year, outpointing such famous names as Jackie Robinson and Sam Snead. He also received the Maxwell Award as top collegiate player in 1949. A mechanical engineering major, Hart called defensive signals and often played fullback as a senior to confuse defenses. He went on to play eight seasons with the Detroit Lions, helping the team to three NFL titles and earning All-Pro honors on both offense and defense in 1951. Moving to Birmingham, Mich., Hart headed up a variety of business enterprises, including the manufacture of tire-balancing equipment. He was elected to the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1973. Hart's son Kevin played for the Irish from 1977-79 and his grandson, Brendan, also played for the Irish from 2000-02. Leon Hart died on Sept. 24, 2002.

8. J.D. Roberts, Oklahoma (108)
9. Lamar McHan, Arkansas (78)

Lattner claimed the Heisman Trophy in 1953 during his senior year — in the second-closest Heisman balloting in history — despite the fact he didn't lead the Irish in rushing, passing, receiving or scoring. A jack of all trades who barely nosed out Minnesota's Paul Giel for the award, Lattner benefitted from helping Leahy's final Notre Dame team to a 9-0-1 record that earned the Irish national title recognition from all selectors but the two wire services (they named unbeaten Maryland). He received the Maxwell Award as the top collegiate player as both a junior and senior and finished fifth in the Heisman voting as a junior behind Oklahoma's Billy Vessels. A consensus All-American as both a junior and senior on offense and defense, he made his mark by running, catching and punting the football, while also returning punts and kickoffs and intercepting 13 career passes. He established a record for all-purpose yards from rushing, receiving and runbacks — a mark that stood until Vagas Ferguson broke it in 1979. He finished with 321 kickoff return yards on only eight returns (two for touchdowns) as a senior. Lattner played one year with the Pittsburgh Steelers before entering the service and suffering a career-ending knee injury in a military game. A former restaurant owner in Chicago and executive for a business forms company, Lattner was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1979. Lattner passed away on Feb. 13, 2016.

7. John Brodie, Stanford (281)
8. Jim Parker, Ohio State (248)
9. Kenny Ploen, Iowa (150)
10. Jon Arnett, USC (128)

An outstanding all-around athlete who played quarterback, left halfback, fullback and safety, Hornung remains the only player from a losing team (Notre Dame finished 2-8 in '56) ever to win the Heisman Trophy. As a sophomore, Hornung served as the backup fullback and also averaged 6.1 points per contest while earning a basketball monogram. As a junior, he finished fourth nationally in total offense with 1,215 yards and fifth in the Heisman voting behind Ohio State's Hopalong Cassidy. Hornung ran for one score, threw for another and intercepted two passes in a victory over fourth-ranked Navy - and then brought the Irish from behind against Iowa with a TD pass and game-winning field goal in the final minutes. In a loss to USC, he threw and ran for 354 yards, an NCAA high that year. As a senior, he ranked second nationally in total offense (1,337 yards), accounted for more than half the Irish scoring-and converted 67 times on either third or fourth down as a junior and senior combined. A bonus pick of the Green Bay Packers, he led the NFL in scoring in 1959, '60 and '61. He retired after the '66 season, as physical problems kept him from joining New Orleans as an expansion pick. Hornung joined the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1986. Hornung passed away on November 13, 2020.

2. Jerry Rhome, Tulsa (952)

4. Bob Timberlake, Michigan (361)
5. Jack Snow, Notre Dame (187)

7. Craig Morton, California (181)
8. Steve DeLong, Tennessee (176)
9. Cosmo Iacavazzi, Princeton (165)
10. Brian Piccolo, Wake Forest (124)

Huarte's Heisman Trophy victory ranks as one of the biggest upsets in the history of the award considering he missed much of his sophomore season due to injury and didn't even play enough as a junior to win a monogram. Behind the aerial efforts of Huarte and fellow Californian Jack Snow (he caught 60 passes that year for 1,114 yards and a record nine touchdowns), Ara Parseghian in his first year turned Notre Dame from a 2-7 team in '63 into a 9-1 squad that came within minutes of the national title. Huarte threw for 270 yards in the '64 opening-game upset of Wisconsin - including TD tosses of 61 and 42 yards to Snow - and ended up finishing the year ranked third nationally in total offense (2,069 yards). He set 12 Irish records that year, and also earned back of the year and player of the year honors from United Press International. A second-round draft pick of the New York Jets, Huarte played sparingly in the pro ranks for eight years with Boston, Philadelphia, Minnesota, Kansas City and Chicago - prior to retiring from the World Football League Memphis entry in 1975. Huarte was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2005.

Brown burst onto the scene as a junior with a scintillating season-ending performance in a come-from-behind upset of USC, then used back-to-back punt returns for touchdowns in an early-season '87 game against Michigan State to cement his Heisman bid. Listed as a flanker, Brown utilized his ability as a pass receiver, rusher out of a full-house backfield and punt and kickoff returner to rank third nationally in all-purpose yardage as a junior (176.5 per game) and sixth as a senior (167.9). He finished his junior campaign with 254 all-purpose yards in the 38-37 win at USC (including a 56-yard punt return that set up the winning field goal), then returned punts for 66 and 71 yards for a pair of touchdowns in an early romp over eventual Big Ten and Rose Bowl champion Michigan State. Brown finished his career as Notre Dame's all-time leader in pass reception yards (2493) while also returning six kicks for touchdowns (three punts, three kickoffs). Despite constant double and triple coverage as a senior, he earned a reputation as the most dangerous player in college football. Brown was a first-round pick of the Los Angeles Raiders (sixth player chosen overall) in the '88 NFL draft. He was selected to play in the NFL Pro Bowl following the seasons of 1988, '91, '93, '94, '95, '96 and '97, '99, 2000, 2001 and 2002. He also played in his first Super Bowl in 2003. The original "Mr. Raider" signed a one-day contract with Oakland to retire as a Raider in July 2005. Brown was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend in 2009 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2015.

ALL-AMERICANS

Ever since quarterback Gus Dorais became Notre Dame's initial first-team All-America pick in 1913, Irish players have been honored as first-team All-America by at least one recognized selector on 201 occasions.

The NCAA recognizes members of a consensus All-America team each season —with 110 of those selections having worn a Notre Dame uniform.

The NCAA also recognizes first-team All-Americans chosen on a unanimous basis. Notre Dame has had 37 unanimous choices, which ranks third among FBS institutions.

1925 ROSE BOWL

Notre Dame 27, Stanford 10 January 1, 1925

The first bowl game in Notre Dame football history, Knute Rockne led his team across the country with the famed Four Horsemen backfield to take on Pop Warner's Stanford squad led by Ernie Nevers. The game also marked Notre Dame's first trip to the West Coast, which would become a yearly tradition with the creation of the Southern Cal and Stanford football series.

Stanford turned the ball over eight times, which led directly to three Notre Dame touchdowns. Notre Dame's Elmer Layden scored three times, including a 70-yard interception return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

The victory earned Notre Dame its first consensus National Championship and the first of five national titles they would claim in bowl-game victories.

1970 COTTON BOWL

Texas 21, Notre Dame 17 January 1, 1970

Notre Dame returned to the post-season bowl scene for the first time in 45 years to take on defending national champion Texas. The Irish jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the contest, highlighted by a 54-yard touchdown pass from Joe Theismann to Tom Gatewood. Texas answered with two long scoring drives to take a 14-10 advantage with 10 minutes remaining.

Theismann drove the Irish 80 yards to take a 17-14 lead, but Texas answered with a 76-yard drive of their own, scoring on third down with just 68 seconds left.

The victory provided Texas its second consensus national title. The Irish jumped up in the final polls after the hard-fought battle, ending the season ranked fifth in the Associated Press ranking.

1971 COTTON BOWL

Notre Dame 24, Texas 11 January 1, 1971

The Irish and Longhorns met in a rematch of the 1970 Cotton Bowl with Texas looking for yet another national title. Notre Dame's lone loss of the season was a rain-soaked regular-season finale at Southern Cal on Thanksgiving weekend.

After an initial Texas field goal, Notre Dame ripped off 21 straight points and completely shut down the Longhorn wishbone attack. Texas would end up committing six turnovers in the game (five fumbles, one interception).

The victory ended a 30-game win streak for Texas and allowed Nebraska, ranked third entering the post season, to claim the national title with a 17-12 win over fifth-ranked LSU in the Orange Bowl. The Cornhuskers received 39 of 52 first-place votes, while Notre Dame received eight, Texas three and Arizona State two.

1973 ORANGE BOWL

Nebraska 40, Notre Dame 6 January 1, 1973

The first Orange Bowl appearance for Notre Dame was the third consecutive Orange Bowl for defending national champion Nebraska. The Cornhuskers rushed for 300 yards in the contest, led by Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers four touchdowns (three rushing, one receiving).

The Nebraska victory vaulted the Huskers to fourth in the final AP poll, while Notre Dame dropped to 14th.

1973 SUGAR BOWL

Notre Dame 24, Alabama 23 December 31, 1973

The first Sugar Bowl appearance for Notre Dame also marked the first meeting with Alabama on the gridiron. The historic clash developed into one of the most legendary college football post season games ever played. Before a 25.3 Nielson-rated audience, proving to be one of the most watched college football games ever, the Irish bested the Crimson Tide in dramatic fashion to claim the program's ninth Consensus National Championship.

Al Hunter's 93-yard kick return touchdown provided the Irish a 14-7 lead in the second quarter, followed by the teams trading touchdown drives in the third quarter. Alabama took a 23-21 lead on a trick play, but missed the point-after-touchdown which allowed Notre Dame to take a 24-23 lead on a Bob Thomas field goal with 4:26 remaining in the game.

Late in the game, Notre Dame found itself pinned on its own one-yard line with time running down and unwilling to punt the ball away and possibly give Alabama a short field for a game-winning drive. Irish head coach Ara Parseghian called a pass on third-and-long, with Tom Clements dropping back into his own end zone and connecting with seldom-used backup tight end Robin Weber for a first down that provided Notre Dame the ability to run out the clock.

Notre Dame finished first in the final AP poll with 33 of 60 first-place votes, followed by Oklahoma with 16 first-place nods and Ohio State with 11.

1975 ORANGE BOWL

Notre Dame 13, Alabama 11 January 1, 1975

In Ara Parseghian's last game as Notre Dame's head coach, the Irish knocked off No. 2 Alabama to spoil the 11-0 Crimson Tide's bid for a national title. The Irish entered the game 9-2 with losses to Purdue and Southern Cal, but took advantage of an early Alabama turnover to take a 7-0 lead. Notre Dame pushed the lead to 13-3 at halftime after a 17-play, 77-yard scoring drive.

Alabama closed the gap to two points with a touchdown and successful two-point conversion. The Crimson Tide was driving for a possible victory but Reggie Barnett intercepted a pass to seal the final victory of the Parseghian Era.

Notre Dame finished sixth in the final AP poll, with Alabama slipping down to fifth.

1976 GATOR BOWL

Notre Dame 20, Penn State 9 December 27, 1976

Notre Dame scored 20-straight points to earn its first non-January 1st bowl game victory, led by 102 yards rushing from Al Hunter. The third consecutive post-season victory for Notre Dame, it provided second-year head coach Dan Devine an 9-3 record and a final AP ranking of 12th. Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions ended the season 7-5.

1978 COTTON BOWL

Notre Dame 38, Texas 10 January 2, 1978

Notre Dame took down the final undefeated team in college football and dramatically vaulted itself to the 10th consensus national title in program history. An unrelenting defense forced five Longhorn turnovers that directly led to five Irish touchdowns and the Notre Dame backfield of Jerome Heavens and Vagas Ferguson both rushed for over 100 yards.

All of the bowl matchups on January 1 played out perfectly for the Irish to claim the national title. Fourth-ranked Michigan was upset by Washington and quarterback Warren Moon. Future Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz's Arkansas squad shocked No. 2 Oklahoma 31-6 in the Orange Bowl. There were five teams with 11-1 records at the end of the season, but Notre Dame's impressive victory over Texas earned the Irish an AP title. The final voted ended at 37 1/3 for Notre Dame, 19 1/3 for Alabama and 5 1/3 for Arkansas.

1979 COTTON BOWL

Notre Dame 35, Houston 34 January 1, 1979

There are several legendary comeback victories in the Notre Dame football history books, but the 23-point rally during the coldest Cotton Bowl on record might be the greatest of all those efforts. Led by an ailing Joe Montana, who had to sip chicken soup at halftime to raise his body temperature, Notre Dame scored 23 unanswered points to shock Houston in the final seconds. A Montana to Kris Haines touchdown pass with no time on the clock tied the game, then Joe Unis' PAT (which he had to kick twice due to a false start penalty) earned the victory.

The Irish, who would finish the season with a 9-3 record, claimed a ranking of seventh in the final AP poll of 1978.

1981 SUGAR BOWL

Georgia 17, Notre Dame 10 January 1, 1981

Notre Dame handed Georgia two short fields with turnovers early in the game and the Bulldogs responded with two Herschel Walker touchdown runs. Georgia claimed its first national championship with the victory with Walker rushing 36 times for 150 yards.

Notre Dame finished the year 9-2-1 and ranked ninth in the final AP poll.

1983 LIBERTY BOWL

Notre Dame 19, Boston College 18 December 29, 1983

An up-and-down year for Gerry Faust and the Irish (who won five consecutive games, then lost the last three regular-season contests) ended with the first bowl appearance of the Faust era in Memphis, Tennessee.

The Eagles were led by future Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie, the Irish by tailback Allen Pinkett. A series of missed PATs by both teams led to the unusual score. Pinkett's two first half touchdown runs and a Blair Kiel to Alvin Miller scoring toss gave the Irish a 19-12 advantage at the half.

Boston College had the ball late in the game looking to take the lead, but the Irish defense held the Eagles on downs to secure the victory. The Irish remained unranked at the end of the year, while BC slipped from 12th entering bowl season to 20th in the final AP poll.

1984 ALOHA BOWL

SMU 27, Notre Dame 20 December 29, 1984

An Aloha-Bowl record crowd of 41,777 saw an Irish rally fall short in the game's final minutes. SMU built a 14-0 lead and Notre Dame responded with 10 points before a Mustang field goal provided them a 17-10 lead at the break.

Allen Pinkett would rush 24 times for 136 yards in the contest, but an SMU two-yard scoring run with six minutes left was too much for the Irish to overcome.

SMU would finish the season 10-2 and ranked 19th, while Notre Dame fell to 7-5 and unranked in the final AP poll.

1988 COTTON BOWL

Texas A&M 35, Notre Dame 10 January 1, 1988

Led by Heisman Trophy winning flanker Tim Brown, Notre Dame began the year 8-1 with victories over No. 9 Michigan, No. 17 Michigan State and No. 10 Alabama. A close loss at Penn State and a shut out set back at No. 2 Miami FL to end the season sent the Irish to the Cotton Bowl to face No. 8 Texas A&M.

While the final score indicates that the Aggies had control of the entire contest, two key turnovers in the first half by the Irish provided Texas A&M with their momentum. Led by Brown, Notre Dame scored on the first drive and held a 10-3 advantage in the second quarter. Notre Dame threw an interception in the end zone, which Texas A&M took advantage of to tie the game. On the next Irish possession, a fumble provided the Aggies with a short field and a successful two-point conversion gave Texas A&M a lead they would not relinquish.

A&M would finish 10th in the final rankings, while the Associated Press slotted the Irish at 17th after an 8-4 season.

1989 FIESTA BOWL

Notre Dame 34, West Virginia 21 January 2, 1989

The 11th Consensus National Championship was earned in Notre Dame's first Fiesta Bowl appearance. Both teams entered the game undefeated, with the Mountaineers ranked third behind Miami FL (who the Irish had defeated earlier in the regular season).

The Notre Dame pass rush had an immediate impact on the game, as WVU's quarterback Major Harris separated his shoulder on a hit early in the game. The Irish built a 10-0 lead with a field goal and a one-yard plunge from South Bend native Anthony Johnson. Tony Rice would connect with Raghib 'Rocket' Ismail for a 29-yard touchdown in the second quarter to provide a 23-6 lead for the Irish at halftime.

West Virginia would cut the lead to 26-13 in the third quarter, but Rice's jump-pass touchdown toss to Frank Jacobs in the fourth quarter sealed the victory for Notre Dame.

Notre Dame earned 58 1/2 of the 60 Associated Press final first-place votes to claim the national championship. West Virginia fell to fifth in the final poll.

1990 ORANGE BOWL

Notre Dame 21, Colorado 6 January 1, 1990

The Irish entered the post season of the 1989 season off their only loss in 23 games, 27-10 at Miami FL. Notre Dame matched up with top-ranked and undefeated Colorado.

A scoreless first half was forgotten in the third quarter, as the Irish built a 14-0 lead behind an Anthony Johnson two-yard run and a 35-yard scamper by Rocket Ismail.

Colorado answered with a Darian Hagan 39-yard run, but Johnson's second touchdown of the day, a seven-yard run, sealed the victory for Notre Dame.

The final AP poll of the season awarded the national title to Miami FL, by virtue of their head-to-head victory over Notre Dame. Both teams finished the season with one loss, the Hurricanes earning 38 first-place votes with the Irish at 19.

This precedent of awarding the national title to the winner of a head-to-head match up would be set aside at the end of the 1993 season.

1991 ORANGE BOWL

Colorado 10, Notre Dame 9 January 1, 1991

A rematch of the 1990 Orange Bowl, top-ranked Colorado just edged Notre Dame in a defensive battle with a controversial ending.

The one-point victory was decided on Notre Dame's lone touchdown of the game, when Craig Henrich's streak of 73 consecutive extra points ended on a blocked kick.

With 43 seconds remaining, Colorado punted the ball to one of the most dangerous kick returner in college football history, Heisman Trophy runner-up Rocket Ismail, who returned the kick for a stunning 92-yard scoring play. A borderline clipping penalty was called, however, and Colorado would claim a share of the 1990 national title with the one-point victory.

There were four teams in the running for the national title, which included two-loss teams Miami FL and Notre Dame. Colorado's win earned them the AP title, while Georgia Tech's 49-21 victory over No. 19 Nebraska earned them the UPI coaches title. The deciding vote in the UPI final poll was cast by Nebraska's Tom Osbourne.

1992 SUGAR BOWL

Notre Dame 39, Florida 28 January 1, 1992

Known today as the 'Cheerios Bowl,' Notre Dame shocked Florida with three rushing touchdowns from Jerome Bettis over a three-minute span in the fourth quarter to defeat the third-ranked Gators in one of Lou Holtz's finest coaching performances.

Motivated by a New Orleans waiter who teases Holtz with the statement "the difference between Notre Dame and Cheerios is that Cheerios belongs in a bowl" the Irish overcame four turnovers and 511 yards of offense from Florida to secure the win.

Notre Dame moved up from 18th to No. 13 in the final AP poll while Florida fell to seventh.

1993 COTTON BOWL

Notre Dame 28, Texas A&M 3 January 1, 1993

Notre Dame entered the contest ranked fifth in the country to face an undefeated Texas A&M team whose relatively weak schedule left them ranked fourth behind undefeated Miami FL, unblemished Alabama and one-loss Florida State.

The Irish offensive backfield of Jerome Bettis and Reggie Brooks — dubbed 'Thunder and Lightning' — dominated the Aggies with 290 rushing yards. Notre Dame at one point ran the ball 34 consecutive times in the second half while Texas A&M could manage just a single field goal against the Irish defense.

Notre Dame's victory moved them to fourth in the final AP poll, behind Miami FL, Florida State and Alabama, who defeated the Hurricanes to win the national title.

1994 COTTON BOWL

Notre Dame 24, Texas A&M 21 January 1, 1994

It was another bowl game rematch for the Irish, facing Texas A&M yet again in the Cotton Bowl. The Irish were coming off their lone set back of the season, a last-second loss to Boston College in the final game of the regular season after defeating No. 1 Florida State the week before.

The bowl committee decided to forgo a rematch between the Irish and Seminoles, instead matching Florida State up with Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.

Notre Dame struck first with a 19-yard Kevin McDougal run, but Texas A&M came back to take a 14-7 lead at halftime. The teams traded touchdowns back-and-forth in the third quarter to enter the final 15 minutes tied. A Kevin Pendergast 31-yard field goal proved to be the game winner for the Irish with 2:22 left. Lee Becton led all rushers in the game with 138 of Notre Dame's 206 rushing yards, his seventh-straight 100-yard rushing performance.

The bowl games fell Notre Dame's way to earn a share of the national title, with No. 3 West Virginia losing in the Sugar Bowl and Florida State just edging by No. 2 Nebraska 18-16. The precedent from the 1989 season (awarding the head-to-head victor of a No. 1 vs. No. 2 decision) was reversed this season, however, and Florida State received 46 first-place votes to claim the national title (Notre Dame finished second with 12 first-place votes).

1995 FIESTA BOWL

Colorado 41, Notre Dame 24 January 2, 1995

The final year of the College Football Bowl Coalition, an agreement between the SEC, Big 8, SWC, ACC, Big East and Notre Dame, found a 6-4-1 Irish team facing fourth-ranked and 10-1 Colorado in the Fiesta Bowl.

Led by Heisman Trophy winning running back Rashaan Salaam, Colorado built a 31-10 lead at halftime to finish the year 11-1 and third in the final AP ranking. The Irish remained unranked after the loss.

1996 ORANGE BOWL

Florida State 31, Notre Dame 26 January 1, 1996

In 1995 the Bowl Coalition gave way to the Bowl Alliance which matched up No. 6 Notre Dame against No. 8 Florida State in the final Orange Bowl game played at the original Orange Bowl Stadium. The Irish entered the contest without their starting quarterback, Ron Powlus, and their leading rusher, Randy Kinder.

Back-up quarterback Thomas Krug and outstanding wide out Derrick Mayes helped the Irish build a 12-point lead in the fourth quarter before a furious Seminole rally ripped off 17-straight points to earn the victory.

1997 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

LSU 27, Notre Dame 9 December 28, 1997

The first season of the Bob Davie era at Notre Dame ended with a rematch against LSU in the Independence Bowl. The Irish had earned their signature victory of the year with a 24-6 over No. 11 LSU on November 15 and entered the bowl game with a 7-5 mark. LSU was ranked 15th with an 8-3 record.

Notre Dame's defense earned it a 6-3 lead at halftime but LSU's Rondell Mealey took over the contest, rushing 34 times for 222 yards and two fourth-quarter touchdowns.

LSU ended up 13th in the final AP ranking of the season while the Irish remained unranked.

1999 GATOR BOWL

Georgia Tech 35, Notre Dame 28 January 1, 1999

The 1998 season saw the Fighting Irish run off eight consecutive wins after starting the season 1-1 and rise to as high as 10th in the country, before an injury to starting quarterback Jarious Jackson on a ill-fated intentional safety in the final home game of the regular season led to a season-ending shut out loss at Southern Cal.

Jackson returned for the bowl game match up with Georgia Tech and faced a 21-7 deficit at halftime. A Jackson rushing touchdown and Autry Denson scoring scamper pulled the Irish to within one after a blocked PAT. The Yellow Jackets answered with a long touchdown pass, but Notre Dame came right back with an 88-yard drive and two-point conversion to tie the game with just under 12 minutes left.

Georgia Tech's Dez White caught his second long touchdown pass with 7:56 left and Notre Dame's final three possessions failed to advance past their own 28-yard line.

2001 FIESTA BOWL

Oregon State 41, Notre Dame 9 January 1, 2001

Oregon State utilized a 29-point third quarter, keyed by two Notre Dame turnovers, to transform a 12-3 halftime advantage into a rout.

The Beavers finished the season fourth in the final AP ranking, with the Irish ending up at 15th.

2003 GATOR BOWL

NC State 28, Notre Dame 6 January 1, 2003

The first season of the Tyrone Willingham era ended in Jacksonville with a loss to Philip Rivers-led NC State. Notre Dame struck first in the game, but the Wolfpack scored three touchdowns in the second quarter to take control of the contest.

NC State rose up the ranks to 12th in the final AP poll of the season, while the Irish (who entered the game 11th) fell to 17th in the final ranking.

2004 INSIGHT BOWL

Oregon State 38, Notre Dame 21 December 28, 2004

Notre Dame accepted a bid to the 2004 Insight Bowl and then dismissed head coach Tyrone Willingham two days later. Defensive coordinator Kent Baer served as an interim coach for the bowl game.

The Irish were able to cut the lead to 10 points twice in the contest, but OSU's Derek Anderson tossed four touchdown passes and the Irish finished the season 6-6 and unranked.

2006 FIESTA BOWL

Ohio State 34, Notre Dame 20 January 2, 2006

The first year of the Charlie Weis era ended in a battle between fifth-ranked Notre Dame and fourth-ranked Ohio State in Sun Devil Stadium.

Notre Dame scored first on a Darius Walker run and Ohio State answered each Irish score with a long scoring play of their own, eventually putting up touchdowns on a 56-yard reception, 68-yard reverse and an 85-yard catch.

With five minutes left in the game, Walker scored his third rushing touchdown to bring the Irish within one score at 27-20. On third and five with time running out, Ohio State scored an insurance touchdown on another big play — a 60-yard run — to seal the victory.

Ohio State remained at No. 4 in the final rankings, while the Irish slipped to ninth with a final record of 9-3.

2007 SUGAR BOWL

LSU 41, Notre Dame 14 January 3, 2007

Winning eight of their final nine games, No. 11 Notre Dame earned a spot in the Sugar Bowl against No. 4 LSU. The 2007 Sugar Bowl game was a notable one, as it was the first Sugar Bowl held back in the New Orleans Superdome after the Hurricane Katrina disaster moved the 2006 edition to the Georgia Dome.

The game was close at halftime, with LSU holding a 21-14 advantage, but the Tigers would end up scoring 20 unanswered points in the second half to earn the victory. LSU moved up to third in the final AP poll, while the Irish fell to 17th.

2008 HAWAII BOWL

Notre Dame 49, Hawai'i 21 December 24, 2008

Notre Dame ended its nine-game bowl losing streak and the 2008 season with an complete effort in a run away victory over Hawaii. With head coach Charlie Weis calling plays from the coaches booth due to a knee injury, Jimmy Clausen enjoyed a record-setting day under enter. Clausen would finish the game connecting on 22 of 26 passes for 405 yards and five touchdowns. Golden Tate caught three of those scoring passes from 69, 18 and 40 yards out.

2010 SUN BOWL

Notre Dame 33, Miami (Fla.) 17 December 31, 2010

Brian Kelly became the first Notre Dame head coach to win a bowl game in his first season, recovering from a 1-3 start to the year to cap the year with four straight victories over Utah, Army, Southern Cal and Miami FL.

Tommy Rees threw for 201 yards and two touchdowns to Michael Floyd and future perennial all-pro safety Harrison Smith picked off a Notre Dame record-tying three passes.

2011 CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

Florida State 18, Notre Dame 14 December 29, 2011

Notre Dame entered the game unranked and Florida State, who had entered the season with national championship hopes, was 25th in the AP poll. The Irish built a 14-0 lead, scoring the only touchdown of the first half on a Zeke Motta fumble return and the first score of the second half on a Michael Floyd touchdown reception.

Floyd was injured on the scoring play, however, and the Irish would fail to advance the ball in the end zone again. FSU rallied for 18 straight points and Notre Dame's final scoring chance with under three minutes remaining in the game was intercepted in the end zone, allowing the Seminoles to run out the clock.

FSU moved up two spots to 23rd in the final AP ranking of the season.

2013 BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Alabama 42, Notre Dame 14 January 7, 2013

Notre Dame's return to a national championship-level game, ranked number one in the nation with a 12-0 record, ran into a post-season veteran Alabama team that took immediate control of the game and never relented.

Alabama was a unanimous selection for the national title after the victory, while the Irish ended up fourth in the final AP ranking.

2013 PINSTRIPE BOWL

Notre Dame 29, Rutgers 16 December 28, 2013

Notre Dame returned to Yankee Stadium, after playing the first football game in the new venue for a Shamrock Series matchup with Army in 2010, to cap the 2013 season.

In his final game as a quarterback for Notre Dame, Tommy Rees threw for 319 yards and no interceptions, while Kyle Brindza connected on five of six field goals in the contest.

Notre Dame (9-4) moved up from 25th to 20th in the final AP ranking of the year.

2014 MUSIC CITY BOWL

Notre Dame 31, LSU 28 December 30, 2014

Decimated by injuries late in the season, Notre Dame would lose five of their last six regular season games to take a 7-5 record against 8-4 LSU in Nashville.

In a game full of strange moments (a unsuccessful LSU fake field goal just before halftime, a key blocked field goal by Notre Dame in the fourth quarter) and dominating performances (LSU's Leonard Fournette would rush for 144 yards on just 11 carries) Notre Dame made the key plays when it needed them at the end of the contest.

Notre Dame took possession of the ball with 5:41 remaining in the game and drove 71 yards in 14 plays to set up Kyle Brindza for a game-winning 32-yard field goal as time expired.

2016 FIESTA BOWL

Ohio State 44, Notre Dame 28 January 1, 2016

After two two-point losses on the road during the regular season and entering the final weekend with an outside shot at a College Football Playoff spot, Notre Dame returned to the Fiesta Bowl for a rematch of the 2006 season against Ohio State. The Irish were 10-2 and No. 8 entering the game, while the Buckeyes finished the year 11-1 and ranked seventh.

OSU's Ezekiel Elliott rushed for 149 yards and four touchdowns against an Irish defense that lost All-American and Butkus Award-winning linebacker Jaylon Smith to a devastating knee injury in the first quarter.

Will Fuller's 81-yard touchdown reception cut the Ohio State lead to 10 with 11 minutes left, but that was the last of the scoring in the game for the Irish as the Buckeyes rolled up 494 total yards of offense. Ohio State finished the year ranked fourth in the AP poll, while the Irish slipped down to 11th.

2018 CITRUS BOWL

Notre Dame 21, LSU 17 January 1, 2018

Forever to be known as the 'Miles Boykin' game, Notre Dame and LSU battled through a fourth quarter where the lead changed hands four times before Boykin's one-handed catch and run provided a game-winning 55-yard reception with under two minutes remaining. That pass was thrown by Ian Book, who began the game switching back-and-forth with starting quarterback Brandon Wimbush before finishing 14 of 19 for 164 yards and two touchdowns.

The Irish rose to 11th in the final AP ranking, while the Tigers finished the year ranked 18th.

2018 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE COTTON BOWL

Clemson 30, Notre Dame 3 December 29, 2018

Two undefeated teams would meet in the first College Football Playoff berth in the history of Notre Dame football. Notre Dame was 12-0 and faced ACC Champion Clemson (13-0) in Arlington, Texas, at AT&T Stadium.

Three of Notre Dame's top defensive players had to leave the game due to injury at some point in the contest and Clemson's 20-point second quarter proved to be insurmountable for the Irish.

Notre Dame finished the year ranked fifth by the AP, while Clemson moved on to defeat Alabama in the CFP Championship game to earn the national title.

2019 CAMPING WORLD BOWL

Notre Dame 33, Iowa State 9 December 28, 2019

A late-October loss at Michigan upended Notre Dame's playoff chances and the Irish, with a 10-2 record and No. 14 ranking, were selected for the Camping World Bowl in Orlando, Florida, to face unranked Iowa State out of the Big 12.

Notre Dame would finish the season with 11 total wins in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1988-89.

The Irish led 20-6 at halftime behind two field goals, a touchdown catch by Chase Claypool and a touchdown run. Tony Jones Jr. opened the second half with an 84-yard touchdown run on Notre Dame's first offensive play and the Irish never looked back.

The Irish would finish the season ranked 11th in the final AP poll.

2020 CFP SEMIFINAL AT THE ROSE BOWL GAME

Alabama 31, Notre Dame 14 January 1, 2021

The 2020 season saw the COVID-19 global pandemic affect the college football season, forcing some conferences to cancel contests and delay the start of their seasons. Notre Dame joined the ACC for one season in 2020, finishing the year 9-0 with a signature victory over top-ranked Clemson at home to claim the conference's regular-season title.

A loss to Clemson in the ACC Championship game left the Irish at 10-1 and they earned their second CFP berth in three seasons, taking on top-ranked Alabama in the Rose Bowl (held at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas due to pandemic restrictions).

The Crimson Tide scored the first 14 points of the game and Notre Dame briefly answered with a Kyren Williams touchdown run, but Alabama would post the next three touchdowns of the contest to secure the victory.

Alabama would move on to defeat Clemson in the CFP Championship game, while the Irish would finish the season ranked fifth in the final AP poll.

2022 FIESTA BOWL

Oklahoma State 37, Notre Dame 35 January 1, 2022

The first game under head coach Marcus Freeman turned into an offensive show as Jack Coan threw for 509 yards and a record-tying five touchdowns, helping the Irish build a 28-14 halftime lead. Oklahoma State rallied back with 23 unanswered points before Coan's fifth touchdown toss with a minute left cut the lead to two, but the Irish would not get the ball back.

After the game, Notre Dame fell from No. 5 to No. 9 in the final AP ranking, while Oklahoma State moved up from No. 9 to No. 7.

2022 GATOR BOWL

Notre Dame 45, South Carolina 38 December 30, 2022

Tyler Buchner was named the MVP of the game, throwing for 274 yards and three touchdowns, while also rushing for 61 yards and two scores.

Notre Dame moved up to 18th in the final AP poll after the victory, with South Carolina fell to 8-5 and finished the year unranked.

2023 SUN BOWL

Notre Dame 40, Oregon State 8 December 29, 2022

The third meeting between the Fighting Irish and Beavers, all bowl games, would prove to be Notre Dame's first victory in the series.

Running up 448 yards of offense compared to just 197 for Oregon State (who also managed just two rushing yards in the entire game), Steve Angeli tossed three touchdown passes — one to game MVP wide receiver Jordan Faison (five catches, 115 yards).

Notre Dame finished the season 10-3 and ranked 14th in the final AP poll.

2024 - 2025 CFP FIRST ROUND

Notre Dame 27, Indiana 17

December 20, 2024

The first on-campus College Football Playoff contest was fittingly hosted by Notre Dame on a cold but clear Friday evening. Propelled by an electrifying 98-yard touchdown run (the first touchdown scored of the expanded 12-team playoff) by Jeremiah Love, Notre Dame defeated in-state foe Indiana to advance to the CFP Quarterfinal.

2024 - 2025 CFP QUARTERFINAL - SUGAR BOWL

Notre Dame 23, Georgia 10

January 2, 2025

Originally scheduled for January 1, the game was delayed by the terrorist attack in the French Quarter of New Orleans early in the morning of January 1. Once the venue was secured, the teams met the following day in the early afternoon and the Irish defense stifled Georgia's offense throughout the game.

Two transfer players played key roles, as RJ Oben's strip sack set up a Notre Dame touchdown before halftime and Jayden Harrison returned the second half opening kickoff to give the defense plenty of cushion to keep the Bulldogs at heel.

2024 - 2025 CFP SEMIFINAL - ORANGE BOWL

Notre Dame 27, Penn State 24

January 9, 2025

An 'Instant Classic' in every sense of the term, Notre Dame rallied twice in the game and scored 17 points in the fourth quarter to earn a spot in the CFP Championship game. There were legendary plays from across the Irish roster — Jeremiah Love put the Irish ahead early in the fourth quarter with one of the toughest two-yard touchdown runs in program history and after Penn State took the lead, freshman Jaden Greathouse caught a 54-yard pass from Riley Leonard to tie the game at 24-24 with 4:38 left. Christian Gray would then intercept a pass on the Nittany Lions next drive to set up Mitch Jeter's 41-yard game-winning field goal in the final seconds.

2024 - 2025 CFP CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Ohio State 34, Notre Dame 23

January 20, 2025

The first championship game of the expanded 12-team playoff started off with one of the most impressive drives of the season by the Fighting Irish, marching 71 yards in 18 plays capped by a Riley Leonard one-yard touchdown run.

Undeterred by the opening salvo, the Buckeyes ripped off four straight touchdowns and a field goal to build a 31-7 lead to lead those to wonder if this game would end in a rout. Notre Dame had other plans, two touchdown passes to Jaden Greathouse in the second half from Riley Leonard tightened the game up and cut the Buckeye lead to eight points with under two minutes remaining.

A clutch third-down reception by Ohio State set up an insurance touchdown with just :26 remaining and the longest season in Notre Dame history at 16 games came to an end.

Ohio State finished as the nation's top-ranked team, while Notre Dame claimed second in both major polls.
