Grounded The Skyhawks

Notre Dame's home opener this season was a historic one. The Irish cruised to a 123-40 victory over Stonehill, posting the largest home margin of victory in program history (83). It was also the second-most points scored in program history along with the most FGM (51). Notre Dame had five runs of 10-0 or more, the first such streak since 2023. Finally, zero of the opponent's players scored in double-figures, the first such time since Purdue in December 2023.

Six Irish scored in double-figures, led by 27 points and 10 steals from Hidalgo. She now has seven career games with 20+ and 10+, the most of anyone this century.

Macy continued her impressive start, posting 24 points and grabbing eight rebounds with six assists.

Freshman Jacy Abii posted a one-of-one stat line in the win, with 17 points, 14 rebounds, seven assists, six steals and four blocks. She is the only player this year with a game of 10-10-4-4-4.

Finally, in addition to the double-doubles from Hidalgo and Abii, Hardy had 17 points and 11 boards while going 8-11 from the floor.

Win In Rome

The Irish opened the 2026-27 season with an unpredecented contest.

On Nov. 1, the Irish bested Villanova in Rome at the Eternal City Tip-Off, 99-75. Hannah Hidalgo led the way with 32 points, seven rebounds and eight assists, while Leah Macy showed out with 27 points and 14 rebounds. Macy is one of two Irish players this century to post a 27/14 showing, joining All-American Brianna Turner. Madison St. Rose was the third-leading scorer, finishing with 17 points and a 4-7 showing from deep.

It was a coming out party for freshmen Abii and Lewis, too. Abii had eight boards and 10 points in just over 21 minutes of play, while Lewis knocked down three triples and stuffed the stat sheet with 11 points, four rebounds, four assists and a steal.

In addition to a game that featured two of last year's NCAA Tournament teams, the teams were joined in Rome by their male counterparts and spent Thursday through Saturday of the week exploring Rome and taking in the culture. The women visited the Colosseum, had a team dinner at Piazza Navona, and even took a cooking class.

The trip was a full-circle moment for Irish star Hannah Hidalgo, as the three-time All-American started her college career in Paris in 2023, dropping a freshman program record of 31 points and beginning one of the most historic careers in the history of Notre Dame's famed program.

Built For The Big Stage

By the time ND reaches ACC play, the Irish will be battle-tested. Notre Dame plays seven non-conference contests against teams that made last year's NCAA Tournament — Villanova, Southern, West Virginia, Vanderbilt, UConn, Southern Cal and South Carolina. Four of those advanced to the Sweet 16 or farther.

Ivy League --> Ivey League

Princeton transfer Madison St. Rose is poised to make a huge impact for Notre Dame this season. In addition to three-level scoring capabilities, the Old Bridge, NJ native brings experience and poise to a young Irish team. Princeton was 75-17 in games St. Rose played, made the NCAA Tournament all four years, and made the Second Round in 2023.

A proven scorer, St. Rose has been in double-figures in 63 of 93 career games (67.7 percent) and has posted 15 games with 20+ points. She has also posted 21 career games with zero turnovers and shot a career-best 47.9 percent from the floor as a senior.

"We are thrilled to welcome Maddie to our Notre Dame women's basketball family!" Ivey said in April. "Maddie strengthens our backcourt with her experience, three-level scoring ability and leadership. She brings size, defense and versatility on the wing, plus a high basketball IQ that fits perfectly with everything that makes Notre Dame special."

Also of note, St. Rose was an AAU teammate of Hidalgo's in high school. Hidalgo was part of the reason St. Rose chose to spend her fifth year with the Irish.

Paint By Numbers

Notre Dame went to the transfer portal to bolster its paint presence, and Anaya Hardy is the perfect fit.

In just 11.4 minutes per game as a sophomore, Hardy averaged a staggering 17.1 points, 14.8 rebounds and 7.5 offensive rebounds per 40 minutes. She had three double-doubles and five games with 8+ points and 8+ rebounds. Additionally, Hardy led the Cardinals with a 66.7 success rate from the floor.

Complete: Hannah Hidalgo

No one is doing it like Hannah Hidalgo.

After another record-breaking campaign last year, Hidalgo was named Naismith Defensive Player of the Year and won the Nancy Lieberman Award, given to the nation's best point guard. She joined Skylar Diggins as the only Irish player to earn the latter honor (2012 and 2013).

Hidalgo was also named ACC Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight year, becoming the first player in conference history to earn both awards in back-to-back seasons. She is the 11th player to earn multiple POTY nods, and she is the second player to win DPOTY three times.

In additon to leading the ACC in scoring (25.3) and the nation in steals (5.6), she was a walking stat sheet stuffer, posting 6.9 rebounds and 5.2 assists per contest. She is the only men's or women's college basketball player to average 25-5-5-5 this century.

Against ranked opponents, Hidalgo posted 24.2 points, 7.5 rebounds, 4.1 assists and 4.9 steals per game, showing she can show up against anyone on any night.

Hidalgo's ability to play offense and defense at such a high level is what sets her apart from the rest of the nation. She now holds the NCAA single-season steals record (202).

Hidalgo etched her name in the record books twice in February, too. She scored her 2000th career point in the win over Miami, becoming the fastest player in Notre Dame and ACC history to reach the mark. The previous records were held by Notre Dame's Beth Morgan (109) and Florida State's Ta'Niya Latson/Clemson's Barbara Kennedy (89). Hidalgo also broke Skylar Diggins career steals record (381) that Diggins set over the course of 150 games. Hidalgo did it in just 86 contests.

Further, Hidalgo was named ACC Player of the Week seven times last season. No other ACC player earned the honor more than once last year, and she is the first player in conference history to earn seven POTW nods in one season.

She has earned ACC Player of the Week 13 times in her career, the third-most in the history of the conference trailing only Duke's Alana Beard (18) and Virginia Tech's Elizabeth Kitley (14).

On the national level, Hidalgo was named one of the USBWA National Players of the Week three times.

Also of note, Hidalgo recorded her 500th rebound and 400th steal this year, joining an elite club. With 2000 points, 500 rebounds, 400 assists and 400 steals, Hidalgo is now one of four major conference players this century to record those marks (Alana Beard/Duke, Shernise Johnson/ Miami and Armintie Price/Ole Miss). She is the first to do it prior to the completion of her junior season.

She also reached 700 points, 150 steals, 150 assists and 150 rebounds last season, just the second instance of that happening since the turn of the century. The other instance? Hidalgo in 2023-24.

Further, Hidalgo has now played 103 career collegiate games and has scored in double-figures in all 103, which is the Notre Dame record for consecutive games with 10+ points previously held by Notre Dame Ring of Honor member Katryna Gaither. It is the longest active streak in the nation.

Also last season, Hidalgo had 10 games with 30+ points. A player has amassed 5+ 30-point games just three times in program history, and Hidalgo has two of those three occurances.

- Hidalgo (2025-26): 10
- Ogunbowale (2018-19): 7
- Hidalgo (2023-24): 5

To add some other records to the list, this time to the NCAA record book. Against Vanderbilt, Hidalgo broke the NCAA single-season steals record and became the first player in NCAA D-1 basketball history (men's or women's) to reach 200 steals in one season.

On Nov. 12, Hidalgo made D-1 history with 16 steals in an 85-58 win over Akron. She also passed Ruth Riley and Jewell Loyd for most points in a game in program history, dropping 44 on the Zips.

Hidalgo is the only player in the history of the NBA, WNBA and college basketball to record a game with 40+ points and 16 steals.

ELITE

For the first time since 2019 and first under Ivey, the Irish made the Elite Eight last year. To get there, Notre Dame posted its second consecutive upset, downing second-seeded Vanderbilt, 67-64 behind another Hidalgo masterpiece. The junior had 31 points, 11 rebounds, 10 steals and seven assists, joining Caitlin Clark as the only two players with 30-point triple-doubles in the NCAA Tournament.

During the game, Hidalgo became the NCAA single-season steals leader (202). There have been three performances of 20 points, eight boards and eight steals in the NCAA Tournament this century. All three were Hidalgo last year.

Finally, the contest was Notre Dame's eighth straight win over the SEC in the NCAA Tournament, the second longest streak against the SEC in Tournament history.

574 --> 202

After a successful Irish career, Cassandre Prosper is on to the WNBA. On April 13, the 6-3 wing was selected No. 19 overall by the Washington Mystics in the 2026 WNBA Draft.

Prosper is the 24th player in Notre Dame history to be drafted, and the third to be drafted by Washington. She is the fourth WNBA draft selection under Karen and Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach Niele Ivey, joining Sonia Citron (Mystics), Liatu King (Los Angeles Sparks) and Maddy Westbeld (Chicago Sky). All four of these players finsihed their respective seasons on a WNBA roster.

Poison Ivey

When Ivey took over the program from HOFer Muffet McGraw, she wanted to put her own spin on it. Mission accomplished.

In the 6+ seasons since she took over, Notre Dame, UConn, South Carolina, LSU and Iowa are the only teams in the nation to average over 76 ppg, shoot 34+ percent from deep and 46+ percent from the floor.

Also in the Ivey Era, Notre Dame leads the ACC with 77.2 ppg, 16.2 apg, 2030 steals and a FG% of 46.4. The 77.2 ppg is 11th nationally in that span as well.

Finally, Ivey recorded her 100th career win with a victory over Virginia on Dec. 29, 2024. In doing so, she became the fastest coach in program history to reach the milestone and is now the fastest coach in ACC history to reach 100 wins to begin a head coaching career. With this year's trip to the Sweet 16, she is the first coach in the last 30 years to make the Sweet 16 in his/her first five NCAAT appearances.

One of the finest point guards ever to wear the Notre Dame uniform, Niele Ivey (first name pronounced knee-elle) was announced as the fourth Karen & Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach on April 22, 2020, just mere minutes after Muffet McGraw stepped down.

Ivey's list of accolades since Year 1 is lengthy, including being the fastest coach in program history to reach 100 wins and the fastest ACC coach to reach 100 wins to start a head coaching career. She also won the 2024 ACC Tournament, was the 2023 ACC Coach of the Year, and led her team to at least a share of the ACC regular season title in 2023 and 2025. Ivey has posted five consecutive Sweet 16 appearances, becoming the first coach in the last 30 years to make the Sweet 16 in each of his/her first five NCAAT appearances. Irish guard Hannah Hidalgo is two-time ACC Player and three-time Defensive Player of the Year, and the guard is the reigning Naismith Defensive Player of the Year and the Nancy Lieberman Point Guard of the Year Award winner.

Since taking over the program, Notre Dame, UConn, South Carolina and Iowa are the only teams to average 76+ ppg while shooting 46 percent from the floor and 34 percent from deep. Notre Dame leads the ACC in points/game, assists/game, total steals and field goal percentage during her tenure.

As an assistant, the Irish went 386-55 (.875) during Ivey's time patrolling the sidelines. Notre Dame's decade of dominance (2010-19) had Ivey's handprints all over it – no other program had produced more trips to the national title game (six), and the Irish posted the third-most wins in that span as well (339).

Ivey is the common link to all nine of the program's Final Four appearances, two as a player and seven as an assistant coach, logging a combined 21 years on Notre Dame's campus (16 as a coach and five as a player).

That decade also consisted of 14 conference championships (eight regular-season plus six tournament titles split between the BIG EAST and ACC), seven Final Fours and a 2018 national championship.

Prior to taking over the top position at her alma mater, Ivey expanded her basketball prowess when she stepped away from Notre Dame to accept an assistant coaching position with the Memphis Grizzlies for the 2019-20 season. Ivey proved to be a true trailblazer, becoming the ninth active female coach in the NBA.

Over that year, Ivey helped develop a young team, with a new coaching staff, into a playoff contender. Ivey worked with several different position groups with the Grizzlies, but primarily with standout guards Jarien Jackson and Ja Morant, as the latter won 2020 NBA Rookie of the Year honors.

Ivey originally joined the Fighting Irish women's basketball coaching staff in May 2007 (she added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2012 and was promoted to associate head coach in the summer of 2015). She spent 12 seasons under Coach McGraw.

Over her last eight years as an assistant, Notre Dame ranked in the top-12 in field goal percentage (led the country in 2013-14 season), scoring offense and assists. In fact, Notre Dame's offense over its back- to-back title game runs in 2018 and 2019 was one for the record books. The 2018 championship squad ranked in the top five in all the aforementioned categories. Meanwhile, the 2019 Irish took home the statistical championship for top-scoring offense in the country, averaging a program-record 88.6 points per game. In addition, they broke the program record for assists (804) while finishing second in shooting percentage (50.8 percent). The stat that is the icing on the cake to all of this — the 2019 starting five of Ogunbowale, Mabrey, Shepard, Turner and Young went down as the most prolific scoring fivesome in the history of NCAA Division I basketball (men's or women's), amassing an astonishing 10,230 combined career points.

In addition to her achievements in player development, Ivey emerged as a rising star on the recruiting trail, with a sharp eye for young talent. In fact, she helped Notre Dame attract top-12 incoming classes in nine of her last 10 years.

What's more, Ivey displayed brilliant prowess when it came to scouting and in-game strategy. In her last six years as an assistant, she was directly responsible for creating the game plans that led to victories over Duke (12 times), Tennessee (8 times), Florida State (7 times), Connecticut (5 times), Maryland (three times), Louisville (8 times), Syracuse (7 times), UCLA (three times), Baylor (twice), Texas A&M (3 times) and South Carolina, among many others.

Most notable players under Ivey's tutelage as an assistant: Arike Ogunbowale, Jewell Loyd and Skylar Diggins. Ogunbowale was a two-time All-American, two-time Ann Meyers Drysdale Award finalist and the 2018 Final Four MVP after her famous Ice Twice. Ogunbowale graduated as the program's all-time leading scorer.

Ivey helped mold Loyd into one of the country's top players from 2012-15. Loyd finished with 1,909 points and a 17.0 career points-per-game average. Loyd's best performances came against Top 25 teams, in which she averaged 22.8 points, 6.5 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game.

Under Ivey's guidance, Skylar Diggins made a seamless transition from shooting guard to point guard during her final three seasons, emerging as one of the nation's elite players to become one of just three two-time recipients of the Lieberman Award and a two-time consensus first-team All-America and BIG EAST Player of the Year selection. Diggins graduated in 2013 as the holder (or co-holder) of no fewer than 32 game, season or career records at Notre Dame, and ranks among the top five on an astounding 105 of the program's game, season or career charts.

As for her playing days, Ivey sat out most of her freshman season at Notre Dame (1996-97 Final Four campaign) after suffering a season-ending knee injury five games in. However, she was awarded a fifth year of eligibility in 2000-01 and made the most of it, earning third-team AP All-America honors, the first Fighting Irish point guard to be so recognized. She also was the recipient of the 2001 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award and was a finalist for the 2001 Lieberman Award. Ivey made the 2001 NCAA Women's Final Four All-Tournament Team after averaging 16.5 points and 5.5 steals per game as the Irish defeated UConn and Purdue to win their first national title.

All told, Notre Dame went 109-22 (.832) during Ivey's last four seasons, reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 three times (1998, 2000, 2001) and rolling up a (then) school-record 34 wins in 2000-01. The Fighting Irish also won a share of their first BIG EAST regular-season championship in 2000-01 and were ranked in the top 10 of either or both the Associated Press and WBCA/USA Today polls for all but two weeks during her final three campaigns. While at Notre Dame, Ivey was a three-time all-BIG EAST selection (1999-2001), collecting first-team honors in 2001, and was tapped as the BIG EAST Player of the Week five times. She also led the Fighting Irish in steals in each of her final four seasons (1997-98 to 2000-01) and was the team's assist leader in her last three years, setting school records with 95 steals in 1999-2000 (since topped by Diggins) and 247 assists in 2000-01, along with a school-standard 2.67 assist/turnover ratio the latter season.

Ivey went on to play five seasons in the WNBA, beginning with her selection by the Indiana Fever in the second round (17th overall pick) of the 2001 WNBA Draft. She spent four seasons with the Fever, helping them to the first playoff berth in franchise history in 2002. Ivey signed with the Detroit Shock as a restricted free agent in 2005, and subsequently was acquired by the Phoenix Mercury later that season.

A native of St. Louis, Ivey graduated from Notre Dame's College of Arts and Letters in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in history.

ASSISTANT COACHES

CAROL OWENS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

@GoIrishCoachO

@GoIrishCoachO

Alma Mater: Northern Illinois '90
27th Year at Notre Dame

One of the nation's premier post coaches, Carol Owens finished her 26th year at Notre Dame and her 17th as associate head coach for the Fighting Irish in 25-26, having originally been elevated to that position by Muffet McGraw prior to the 2002-03 season (holding that role through the 2004-05 campaign), and then again in the summer of 2012.

Throughout her tenure at Notre Dame, Owens has focused on working with the Irish post players, while also assisting with the program's nationally-ranked recruiting efforts. She has been a part of two national championship teams while in South Bend.

Owens was named the 2019 WBCA Division I Assistant Coach of the Year along with being inducted into the inaugural STEP UP Assistant Coach Hall of Fame. In 2014, she was chosen as the inaugural recipient of the A Step Up Assistant Coach of the Year Award. In 2001, she was named one of the top five assistant coaches in the country by Women's Basketball Journal, and in 2011, CollegeInsider.com named her as one of the top 15 active assistants in the nation.

Owens has had the magic touch when it comes to developing elite post players over the years, with no fewer than seven of her pupils (Natalie Achonwa, Jacqueline Batteast, Katryna Gaither, Ruth Riley, Devereaux Peters, Jessica Shepard and Brianna Turner) earning a combined 34 All-America honors during their college careers.

Between her coaching runs at Notre Dame, Owens spent five seasons (2005-10) as head coach at her alma mater, Northern Illinois University. Owens originally came to Notre Dame in 1995 following two seasons as an assistant at Michigan, where she began her coaching career after enjoying a three-year professional playing stint in Japan, Spain and Italy.

As a standout player at Northern Illinois from 1985-90, Owens compiled a very impressive resume. A two-time Kodak (now WBCA) Coaches' All-District IV Team selection (1989 and 1990), Owens scored 2,102 points and averaged 18.0 points per game over four campaigns, covering 117 games. She also captained the Huskies for four seasons and, in her final collegiate campaign (1989-90), she guided NIU to the best record in school history (26-5), as the Huskies went undefeated in North Star Conference play (12-0) and earned the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament bid.

Owens finished her NIU career with 13 school records, most notably standing as Northern Illinois' all-time leader in scoring, blocked shots, free throws made, free throw attempts and field-goal percentage scoring games. In addition, she was the first player (male or female) in school history to score 2,000 points and grab 1,000 rebounds.

A native of Chicago, Owens received her bachelor of arts degree in communications in 1990. She was selected by the faculty of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences to serve as Commencement Marshal of her graduating class and was named Northern Illinois' Outstanding Woman. In addition, Owens was the recipient of the Student Leadership Award.

CHAREL ALLEN

ASSISTANT COACH

@ndcoachcharel

@ndcoachcharel

Alma Mater: Notre Dame '08
Fifth Year at Notre Dame

This past year was Allen's fourth season as an assistant coach at Notre Dame. She has been critical in developing three-time All-American, 2026 Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year, two-time ACC Player of the Year and three-time Defensive Player of the Year Hannah Hidalgo, serving as her position coach and helping lead her to break decades-old records. This year, the junior broke the ACC single-season scoring record and the NCAA single-season steals record while leading the nation with 5.6 steals per game. She also became the first men's or women's college player this century to average 25-5-5-5.

Allen also served as the position coach for Cassandre Prosper, helping lead the senior to the best year of her career while being named to the All-ACC Second Team and earning the conference's Most Improved award. Prosper was drafted by the Mystics in the 2026 WNBA Draft with the No. 19 overall pick.

Allen was a two-time All-American, two-time First Team All-Big East selection and served as team captain over her final two seasons at Notre Dame. Allen averaged team bests 17.0 points and 6.2 rebounds as a junior then led the Irish to a Sweet 16 berth during her senior year, scoring a career-high 35 points in a second-round overtime win over Oklahoma – which still stands tied for the second-best Irish scoring performance in the NCAA Tournament.

She was the first player in school history to amass 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 200 assists and 200 steals in her career. In fact, she still ranks 18th on the all-time scoring list with 1,566 career points.

Allen was selected in the third round of the 2008 WNBA Draft by the Sacramento Monarchs, helping the team advance to the 2008 WNBA Playoffs.

In 2009, Allen made the leap overseas and played professionally in Bulgaria for eight seasons. She was a five-time Bulgarian League champion in addition to being named a four-time All-Bulgarian League First Team selection, with Player of the Year honors in 2014.

In the summer of 2017, Allen made the shift to the coaching ranks and joined the staff at Cal State Fullerton. She was then promoted to associate head coach in May of 2021. In her first year, Allen saw her shooting guard Hannah Thompson average 12.4 points per game and convert 72 three-pointers. A year later, freshman Amiee Book went on to win the Big West Sixth Player of the Year.

In January 2025, Allen was announced as part of the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League Hall of Fame Class of 2025. She helped lead her high school, Monessen, to a 100-19 record and the 2004 WPIAL and PIAA Class 1A girls' basketball championships. She was named Associated Press Pennsylvania Class 1A Player of the Year in 2003 and 2004 and averaged 26.1 points, 8.1 rebounds, 5.4 assists, and 5.1 steals per game for the Greyhounds as a senior.

2026-27 Notre Dame Women's Basketball

CARLOS KNOX

ASSISTANT COACH

@coach_carlos_knox

@CoachCarlosKnox

Alma Mater: IUPUI '98
Fourth Year at Notre Dame

Knox joined the Irish as the new player development program director on June 12, 2023 and had an immensely successful first three seasons in South Bend. He was promoted to an assistant coach in the summer of 2025.

Individually, he primarily worked with Irish forward Maddy Westbeld, who posted her best season on the court to date in 2023-24. Westbeld averaged 14.4 points and 8.7 rebounds per game, and she was named to the All-ACC Second Team. With 297 total rebounds, Westbeld's 2023-24 season on the boards ranks eighth in program history, and her 940 career rebounds rank seventh. Knox's role in Westbeld's life was arguably even bigger off the court, as he augmented her work ethic and leadership skills. She was ultimately the No. 16 overall pick in the 2025 WNBA Draft, heading to the Chicago Sky.

Last year, Knox was also the position coach for Pittsburgh transfer Liatu King. Ultimately the No. 28 overall pick in the 2025 WNBA Draft (Los Angeles Sparks), King averaged 10.4 rebounds per game last year, a Notre Dame record previously held by WNBA veteran Jessica Shepard. She also notched 342 total boards, fith in program history for a single season.

King ranked in the top 35 nationally in three major categories — field goal percentage (56.3 — 25th), rebounds per game (10.4 — 17th) and double-doubles (14 — 31st). She was named to the All-ACC Second Team.

Prior to coming to Notre Dame, Knox spent nearly a decade working with the Indiana Fever as an interim head coach, assistant coach and player development coach. During his tenure in Indianapolis, Knox helped lead the team to eight consecutive WNBA playoff appearances and was a 2012 WNBA champion. He helped with everything from scouting to rehabilitation training to practice preparation. He has worked with many notable players, including former Irish guard Skylar Diggins, four-time Olympic gold medalist Tamika Catchings and five-time WNBA All-Star Katie Douglas.

Knox has also had stints as an assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati (2020-21), University of North Texas (2017-20) and San Diego State University (2010-11). Finally, Knox spent time from 2015-16 as the director of training at the Jonathan Byrd Grand Park Fieldhouse, Indiana's state-of-the-art basketball facility.

The former point guard had a lengthy and decorated career as a collegiate player after attending high school outside of Dayton, Ohio. While earning a degree in communications from IUPUI from 1994-98, he was a two-time NCAA scoring champion, NCAA All-American and NCAA Player of the Year. His jersey has been retired at IUPUI, and the team became a Division I program just after his graduation due in part to Knox's contributions. He was inducted into the IUPUI Hall of Fame in 2004.

Knox went on to play for the Indiana Pacers from 1998-99 and played overseas in Croatia, Germany, Venezuela and Italy. He has also served as a head coach in the International Basketball League, Continental Basketball Association and American Basketball Association.

JARED NEWSON

ASSISTANT COACH & PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

@traincoachjared

@traincoachjared

Alma Mater: UT Martin '06
First Year at Notre Dame

Newson was named an assistant coach and head of player development for Notre Dame women's basketball on June 5, 2026. Newson joined the Irish with a wealth of experience under his belt, including most recently serving as director of basketball for Unrivaled's Phantom BC, a group that made the 2026 Unrivaled Championship.

"I am thrilled to welcome Jared to our Notre Dame family and coaching staff," Karen and Kevin Keyes Family Head Women's Basketball Coach Niele Ivey said. "He brings a wealth of experience, a strong work ethic and a proven ability to develop talent. Jared is detail-oriented and knowledgeable, and he is a perfect fit for our staff. Excited to have him on board — welcome, Jared!"

A native of Belleville, Illinois, Newson spent more than a decade playing professional basketball primarily in Europe; he played in Germany, Poland, Finland, France, Australia and Puerto Rico. Between overseas stints, Newson played in the NBA D-League (now known as the NBA G-League) as a player for the Sioux Falls Skyforce and Bakersfield Jam in 2009-10, appearing in 46 total games. He attended Dallas Mavericks training camp in 2007 as well.

Newson played undergraduate basketball at the University of Tennessee at Martin, and he was inducted into their Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014. He was a two-time All-Ohio Valley Conference performer — including a spot on the OVC's First Team in 2005-06 when his 18.8 points per game ranked second in the conference.

After three seasons at UT Martin, Newson left the program as the third all-time leading scorer with 1,347 points. He still ranks in the top 10 in program history in several career statistical categories, including field goals made (452), free throws made (378), rebounds (535) and steals (128).
