

POST GAME NOTES

FINAL SCORE
No. 3/3/5 Notre Dame 41, Boston College 7

TEAM NOTES

- Notre Dame captains WR Jordan Faison, S Adon Shuler, QB CJ Carr and LB Drayk Bowen represented the Irish for the coin toss
- Notre Dame won the toss and deferred its choice to the second half. Notre Dame kicked off and defended the south endzone
- Attendance — 77,622 - which marks the 25th consecutive sellout and 30 of the last 32 home games coached by Dick Corbett Head Football Coach Marcus Freeman at Notre Dame
- Today marked the 29th meeting between Notre Dame and Boston College. The Irish now lead the series 20-9
- Notre Dame improves to 10-5 all-time in home games against the Eagles
- The Irish have now won eleven consecutive games against Boston College, dating back to 2009. That ties the Irish's run over Purdue (11 straight since 2008) for the second-longest active win streak against a single opponent, behind only Army (16 straight since 1965).
- The teams play for the Frank Leahy Memorial Bowl, a crystal trophy presented by the Notre Dame Club of Boston. The base of the trophy is inscribed with results dating back to the series' inception in 1975
- The trophy is named after Hall of Fame Coach Frank Leahy, who served as the head coach at Boston College from 1939-40 and Notre Dame from 1941-43 and again from 1946-53
- The Irish are now 24-4 against current ACC opponents under Freeman
- Freeman improves to 16-2 in the month of November, including 13 straight November wins since Nov. 4, 2023 at Clemson. He is 8-0 at Notre Dame Stadium in November
- Notre Dame is now 539-133-13 at home all-time

NOTABLE

- On Notre Dame's first offensive play, WR Jordan Faison caught an out route for four yards. With the catch, Faison now has a catch in 31 consecutive games, the second longest streak by an Irish receiver since 1998, just one short of TJ Jones (32)
- In the first quarter, QB CJ Carr rolled out right and found WR Micah Gilbert for a 26-yard touchdown reception. It marked the 46th career touchdown pass for Carr, tying DeShone Kizer for sixth all-time in program history, before passing Kizer with a touchdown pass to Faison in the third quarter. It was the eighth multi-touchdown game this season for Carr
- Midway through the second quarter, running back Nolan James Jr. powered his way into the end zone from 10 yards out, extending Notre Dame's lead to 14-0. With the score, James Jr. has now found the end zone in all 10 games this season—tying Creighton Miller and Autry Denson for the eighth-longest consecutive touchdown streak in program history.

- Late in the first half, DL Boubacar Traore went right by the offensive tackle for a strip sack, which was recovered in the endzone by LB Jaylen Sneed. It was the 34th non-offensive touchdown for Notre Dame since 2021, the most in the FBS. It also marked the fifth sack and third forced fumble of the season for Traore, both team-highs this season.
- RB Jonaz Walton tallied 141 rushing yards on 16 carries, averaging 9.4 yards per carry. He moved into fifth place on the program's all-time true freshman rushing list, passing both Allen Pinkett and Randy Kinder today. It was the third game with 100 or more rushing yards in a game this season for Walton, who came into the game with the fourth-most rushing yards by a true freshman running back in the FBS this season.

Rank	Player	Yards	Season
1	Josh Adams	835	2015
2	Darius Walker	786	2004
3	Jerome Heavens	756	1975
4	Autry Denson	695	1995
5	Jonaz Walton	655	2026
6	Randy Kinder	537	1993
7	Allen Pinkett	532	1982

- Notre Dame's defense held Boston College to 136 total yards—the fewest allowed to the Eagles in 29 all-time meetings and the lowest single-game total by a Power Four opponent since Washington managed just 124 yards in 2008

CAREER HIGHS

- WR Jordan Faison - 28 yard rush

FIRSTS

- WR Bubba Frazier - career tackle, reception