4. Provision for guidance and counselling facilities in schools Teachers in general should be trained to attend to adolescent (gender) related issues, conduct of adolescent education programmes and special activities that promote gender equality and sensitivity.
5. Programmes for empowerment of girls Camps on sensitization of girls on health and sanitation issues, karate/ selfdefense training of girl students should be conducted at regular intervals. Programmes like folk dance, nukkad natak, poster competitions, quiz, debate and exhibition can also be conducted to foster gender equality.
6. Complaint / Suggestion box should be provided in each school so that students can make written complaints. Any complaint of sexual abuse, whether received through the drop box or otherwise needs to be acted upon immediately.
7. Provision for CCTV cameras should be made in school premises at all strategic places along with the warning.
8. Monitoring and Identification. Close monitoring of academic performance and psychological behavior particularly in cases of sudden decline in performance, lack of interest, depression and aloofness should be noticed to give proper counselling to the children. Informal conversations with the students by way of discussions with peers and planned observations in hostels, classrooms and playground can also be helpful.
9. Toll Free number and child helpline may be provided and made known and displayed on notice board along with names of teachers designated to handle such cases. Centralized Child helpline number 1098 must be popularized and displayed at prominent places in the schools.
