

I am a born and bred Australian and I am ashamed of a country that would allow such animal cruelty. This practice is not essential and should be stopped immediately. Please support us.