

The live sheep trade is cruel and inhumane. It should be stopped immediately .

Far better to humanely slaughter the animals in Australia , freeze the meat and export it at a price to make it competitive overseas. %he frozen product could also be subsidised by the government and donated to third world countries suffering famine and extreme poverty.