

I voted for Labor at the last election and their proposal to end live sheep export was one of the reasons I voted for them.

This phase out must begin now, live sheep export needs to end asap. It is a cruel trade that damages our reputation as a compassionate nation. We should take New Zealand's lead on this and act now.

Farmers must be supported by the government to help them transition.

Sincerely,

A black rectangular box redacting the signature of the sender.