

To the Prime Minister

As a modern country and society it saddens me that Australia is still involved with the live sheep trade. It is a cruel and inhumane practice and only continues for economic profit. How can we call ourselves a civilised society whilst we engage and support such barbaric practices?

The phase-out must begin and end as soon as possible. Every delay means more sheep subjected to inexcusable suffering – from the daily stresses of sea transport to fully conscious slaughter in importing countries. The phase-out must be legislated and commenced in this term of parliament. And that it begins and ends as soon as possible.

I voted for labor at the last election and one of those reasons was the phase out of the live sheep trade.

Kind regards

Scott and Vicki Kay

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]