Q9. Please provide further details, based on the grounds of objection for each GI. (If submission based on existing trade mark please provide trade mark number. If submission based on unregistered trade mark please provide evidence of use on Australia).	The Italians changed the Prosecco variety to Glera in 2009 and then claimed GI status for the word Prosecco based around a village that has never produced any Prosecco of any volume or quality. This is a dangerous precedent to be set that could open the door for any number of existing varieties of anything to be changed and then protected as a GI. It has to be refused GI status or risk it being the thin edge of the wedge!
