Retired winemaker and vineyard owner

Q6. Entity type

Individual

Q7. Please select which EU wine geographical indication (GI) your submission is against

Prosecco

Q8. Grounds of objectionA submission against one or more of the wine GIs must be based on at least one of the four grounds of objection.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the name of a grape variety, plant variety, or an animal breed.

Q9. Please provide further details, based on the grounds of objection for each GI. (If submission based on existing trade mark please provide trade mark number. If submission based on unregistered trade mark please provide evidence of use on Australia).

The name Prosecco is a known grape variety name, just as is Shiraz, Fiano, Sangiovese, Barber, Chardonnay etc. Prosecco is not a registered GI region such as Champagne, Bordeaux, Coonawarra, King Valley, etc and cannot be claimed as a GI when it is an internationally known name of a grape variety. On these grounds the name Process cannot be registered as a GI. Similarly, animal breeds such as Merino, Charollaise, Waygu, French Poodle, Alsation, German Short haired Pointer, etc cannot be ascribed a GI.

Q10. Would you like to make a second selection of EU wine geographical indications (GI)?

Q28. OtherAny other information on the impacts EU GIs may have on Australian businesses or industry.

The case for the GI recognition of Prosecco has no relation to the use of the names Tokay or Sherry which were accepted regional GI names and which resulted in the generic use of these names as identifiers of a style to be discontinued in favour of either the grape variety name, or a new name such as A pera.
