Q8. Grounds of objectionA submission against one or more of the wine GIs must be based on at least one of the four grounds of objection.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the common name for the relevant good, including as a type or style of wine.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the name of a grape variety, plant variety, or an animal breed.

Q9. Please provide further details, based on the grounds of objection for each GI. (If submission based on existing trade mark please provide trade mark number. If submission based on unregistered trade mark please provide evidence of use on Australia).

Australian wine companies produce Prosecco from the Prosecco grape, which is the traditional meaning of the word Prosecco. The EU trying to restrict the name to EU wine companies, which is nothing more than an attempt to create a monopoly for EU companies and will greatly harm hard working Australian wine producers. As an Australian wine consumer, Australia should fight maintain its competitive industries and support domestic and export sales of great Australian products. The EU should focus on improving the quality of its Prosecco and compete with Australian wine producers on a fair and equitable basis.
