The EU GI name is used in Australia as the name of a grape variety, plant variety, or an animal breed.

As has been shown, the attempt to change the name of prosecco to glera is nothing but a disgraceful attempt to cynically short circuit and defeat Australian examples in markets. As appalling as that is on its own - and it really must be opposed by all levels of government - if they succeed, the ramifications are massive. What next? We could lose names to a great many of our products which are currently exported.
