Q7. Please select which EU wine geographical indication (GI) your submission is against

Prosecco

Q8. Grounds of objectionA submission against one or more of the wine GIs must be based on at least one of the four grounds of objection.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the common name for the relevant good, including as a type or style of wine.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the name of a grape variety, plant variety, or an animal breed.

Q9. Please provide further details, based on the grounds of objection for each GI. (If submission based on existing trade mark please provide trade mark number. If submission based on unregistered trade mark please provide evidence of use on Australia).

Prosecco is a well known variety grape that has been imported into Australia and many other countries around the world. The international wine industry understands this and so does the many thousands of wine lovers and consumers. The bid by Italy seems to invoke a non tariff barrier attempt to give them marketing power they have no claim for in terms of GI originality. It would be beneficial to view their arguments to making this claim to better respond.

Q10. Would you like to make a second selection of EU wine geographical indications (GI)?
