Q8. Grounds of objectionA submission against one or more of the wine GIs must be based on at least one of the four grounds of objection.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the name of a grape variety, plant variety, or an animal breed.

Q9. Please provide further details, based on the grounds of objection for each GI. (If submission based on existing trade mark please provide trade mark number. If submission based on unregistered trade mark please provide evidence of use on Australia).

Recently concluded research by Professor of Law Mark Davison and his team at the Faculty of Law at Monash University and the Macquarie Law School, Macquarie University has established that the term was used to describe a grape variety as early as the 1700s. The report also shows the lack of evidence produced the Italian Government and the EU when the Prosecco name was changed to 'Glera' in 2009.
