is both a producer and contract bottler of Sparkling Wines. We have contract made Prosecco for a variety of growers and Vignerons since 2014 and produced our own Prosecco since 2018. The market for these products has been established by the growers, Vignerons and ourselves by producing quality products from Prosecco grapes. In our own experience we purchase the fruit and complete the remainder of the winemaking ourselves. The grower has always identified the fruit as Prosecco on all LIP documentation. Although our own production is relatively small sales over this period would be in the vicinity of . In addition our contract production revenue would equate to approximately . If we were to be prohibited from using the grape variety to identify this product, a large portion of this revenue would be in jeopardy. By extension, as a niche producer, if this was extended to other grape varieties such as Chardonnay or Pinot Noir this would impact almost of our total production.
