Q8. Grounds of objectionA submission against one or more of the wine GIs must be based on at least one of the four grounds of objection.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the name of a grape variety, plant variety, or an animal breed.

Q9. Please provide further details, based on the grounds of objection for each GI. (If submission based on existing trade mark please provide trade mark number. If submission based on unregistered trade mark please provide evidence of use on Australia).

Our organization planted Prosecco aware that it was a grape variety from Northern Italy. We have invested in planting, winemaking and marketing Prosecco. We have established the variety as an important part of our portfolio of wines. This could be largely lost if we have to prevent the use of the Prosecco name in Australia. We are also very concerned that by agreeing to stop using the name Prosecco there will be a precedent set whereby the EU will be successful in claiming that other grape varieties such as Sangiovese and Fiano represent a GI and should not be used in Australia. The loss for our company would increase many times over. We would also loose export markets as increasingly these varieties are sort after and we are unable to supply the demand.
