Q8. Grounds of objectionA submission against one or more of the wine GIs must be based on at least one of the four grounds of objection.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the common name for the relevant good, including as a type or style of wine.

The EU GI name is used in Australia as the name of a grape variety, plant variety, or an animal breed.

The EU GI name is identical to, or likely to cause confusion with, an unregistered trade mark that has acquired rights through use in good faith in Australia. *

Q9. Please provide further details, based on the grounds of objection for each GI. (If submission based on existing trade mark please provide trade mark number. If submission based on unregistered trade mark please provide evidence of use on Australia).

I consider a wine appellation based on geographic region in Europe to be a valid reason for not using that appellation in Australia, eg Champagne, Bordeaux, Rhine Reisling etc. However, when the appellation is based on a grape variety that appellation should be available to any producer/grower of that variety wherever in the world they are based.
