

Submitted by: Deb Drew

Other

With regard to the so-called 'Independent Medical Examination' process. 1. A public and transparent list of so-called Independent Medical Examiners which includes unfavourable reports of any sort associated with these individuals. 2. That they do not see more than perhaps two or three injured workers per week. This means their primary source of income is NOT insurance company derived from providing biased and inaccurate reports about Workcover 'clients' that suit insurance company criteria.