

Submitted by: Jason Murray

Duties of care

businesses/PCBU should have a duty of care to protect the public from injury or incident, i.e if a car is traveling on a road in proximity to a golf course and a golf ball strikes a passing car there should be control measures in place to protect the public, this would be the same as if a dropped object fell from a construction site and caused an injury or incident to the public.