

Marie-Eve Ferland

Holder of an MBA in business administration and management as well as a bachelor's degree in law, Marie-Eve Ferland has nearly 15 years of experience as a lawyer specializing in business law. She specializes in corporate finance and mergers and acquisitions. She also practices in corporate and commercial law, business reorganization and securities law.

Before joining Delegatus in January 2024, Marie-Eve practiced as a lawyer in commercial and corporate law at the firm Stikeman Elliott from 2008 to 2015. Subsequently, she founded and co-directed the boutique firm Mile Wright from 2015 to 2021 then was a partner at Novalex from 2021 to 2024. In addition to her professional commitment, she generously devotes her time by sitting on numerous boards of directors, including that of FitSpirit, where she has held the position of secretary since 2013.

Marie-Eve stands out due to her acute business sense, broad experience in strategic transactions, her impeccable work ethic and her numerous professional involvements. She assists her clients on a daily basis with the planning and roll-out of strategic operations and provides them guidance on maximizing the protection of their rights and investments. Marie-Eve also assists her clients in the negotiation, drafting and execution of various commercial agreements.