

RESILIENCE

Who should attend?

District & school leaders, teachers, counselors, school psychologists, early childhood educators, child care providers, community-based leaders & partners who support SEL in districts and schools

May 11th and 25th, 2021
5:00-6:30PM on Zoom

REGISTER:

<http://slocoe.k12oms.org/2535-201660>

No cost due to grant funding provided by FEMA/DHCS

The first 50 people from SLO County to register and attend both sessions will receive a free copy of Building Resilience in Students Impacted by Adverse Childhood Experiences: A Whole-Staff Approach, co-authored by Ricky Robertson.

San Luis Obispo County Office of Education Educational Support Services

TRAUMA-INFORMED PRACTICES THAT SUPPORT SOCIAL- EMOTIONAL LEARNING

BUILDING RESILIENCE DURING CHALLENGING TIMES

In this virtual workshop presented by Ricky Robertson, participants will learn how to:

- build resilience for students and staff impacted by trauma
- develop a relationship-based approach to teaching and learning
- practice adult self-care by recognizing and addressing compassion fatigue and how to bridge that focus to students
- support equity through a student-centered discipline approach

Ricky Robertson

Ricky Robertson has had the privilege to work with students from pre-K to 12th grade who have persevered in the face of adverse experiences and trauma. Drawing from experience as a teacher and Behavior Intervention Specialist, Ricky coaches educators in developing a relationship-based approach to teaching and learning that inspires transformation through compassion, humor, deep listening, and "real talk."

For more information about content, contact:

Melanie Crawford | Director, Continuous Improvement & Support | (805) 782-7262 | mcrawford@slocoe.org

For more information about registration, contact:

Danielle Mitchell | Administrative Assistant II | (805) 782-7298 | dmitchell@slocoe.org