MILLION DOLLAR BACON

Four slices of our signature hardwood smoked bacon glazed with brown sugar, black pepper, cayenne and a maple syrup drizzle.

ENTRÉES

HARISSA CHICKEN HASH

Red harissa, fresh red bell peppers, house-roasted onions, all-natural chicken breast, Monterey Jack and fresh, seasoned potatoes. Topped with two cage-free eggs cooked any style, lemon-dressed arugula, Feta cheese, lime crema and fresh herbs.

Harissa is a North African chile pepper paste that combines spices, aromatics and olive oil to create a smoky flavor with a mild heat.

SHRIMP & CHORIZO BENEDICT

Sautéed jumbo Cajun shrimp and two savory chorizo patties atop toasted ciabatta and topped with two poached cage-free eggs, Vera Cruz sauce and fresh herbs. Served with lemon-dressed organic mixed greens.

HAWAIIAN FRENCH TOAST

Thick-cut, custard-dipped challah bread griddled and topped with caramelized pineapple, coconut whipped cream, caramel toffee sauce and spiced gingerbread cookie crumbles and lightly dusted with powdered cinnamon sugar.

BIG WORLD, BIG FLAVOR

Everyone has a favorite seasoning or condiment in their fridge or pantry. Sometimes it's controversial, other times it's geographical. Regional preferences are unique and sometimes the distinct taste can leave others scratching their heads. But we think it's pretty cool when awesome flavors, like North Africa's harissa, travel the globe and become more universally popular. If you haven't experienced harissa yet, allow us to paint you a picture. The most basic recipe calls for only chiles, salt and olive oil, but there is often garlic, cumin and coriander involved. Yes, the main ingredient is hot chiles but don't let that fool you, harissa is all about adding balance to a dish. It's just enough heat to punch up the other flavors without overpowering them. It's a way to excite your palate and leave you craving another bite. And if you're more of a "prove it" type of person, you'll be happy to know our new seasonal Harissa Chicken Hash is ready for the task. Get ready to stamp your flavor passport!
