EDMONTON, Alberta, September 13, 2023. Today, Flair Airlines, Canada's leading low-fare airline, announced new service to Cancun International Airport from Calgary International Airport. The route will offer even more affordable sun getaway options to Calgarians, just in time for winter.

Beginning December 17, Flair will fly between Calgary International Airport and Cancun International Airport three times weekly.

“We know Cancun is loved by Calgarians, and we can get there more affordably than anyone else in the market. This means more money in the pockets of Calgarians as they soak up the Mexican sun,” said Garth Lund, Chief Commercial Officer, Flair Airlines. “This marks the ninth city that Flair is linking to Cancun, and we’ve seen strong demand across our network for this exciting destination. We’re confident this offer will be popular in the cold winter months as Canadians look to escape the ice and snow.”

One-way fares to Cancun from Calgary, including taxes and fees, begin at $129 CAD. There are limited seats and availability for the fares. Flights are now available for booking at <https://www.flyflair.com>.
