The Koret International School for Jewish Peoplehood
The Museum of the Jewish People at Beit Hatfutsot

The story of the Jewish people is a story of constant renewal. The Museum of the Jewish People at Beit Hatfutsot, aims to weave the unique stories of Jewish individuals into the greater ongoing story of the Jewish people. The Koret International School for Jewish Peoplehood at the Museum of the Jewish People at Beit Hatfutsot promotes an informed and active sense of belonging to the Jewish people, drawing on awareness and identification with the Jewish collective, based on common denominators: historical memory, Jewish values, Jewish culture and creativity, Hebrew and other Jewish languages, a multifaceted connection to Israel and a Jewish way of life.

1

My Family Story

This meaningful and fun Jewish heritage program involves 20,000 Jewish youth from 28 countries around the globe. Students research their roots and use their creative skills to design original, artistic installations that capture the essence of their family history. Top entries are selected for display in an international exhibition, with the winners receiving a free plane ticket to Israel to participate in the opening.

2

The Jewish Lens @ Beit Hatfutsot

An interactive experience that challenges teens to explore their Jewish identity through the power of photography. In partnership with renowned photographer Zion Ozeri, teens worldwide submit photographs that capture the theme of "my connection to the Jewish People." The winning photographs are featured in a dedicated exhibition at Beit Hatfutsot - The Museum of the Jewish People.

3

G2G: Generation to Generation

A dynamic program that brings together younger and older generations through high tech and personal narratives. Engaging in mutual learning, students and older adults use apps to share life stories and upload them to the Beit Hatfutsot worldwide story collection. This program can enhance existing intergenerational programming or create new opportunities.

Treasuring Communities

Treasuring Communities invites history teachers and students in Jewish schools to delve into the story of their community and discover, research, document and write entries about their communities, together with a team of experts. The relevant entries will be uploaded to the renewed Beit Hatfutsot databases and become part of the online Museum of the Jewish People.

5

Capsule Exhibits

Beit Hatfutsot offers Jewish organizations a selection of curated, ready-made photo exhibits. The exhibits are offered at no cost, with the intention of sharing Beit Hatfutsot's vast collection of thousands of images depicting Jewish history, heritage, and communal life across the globe. The selection of Capsule Exhibits includes Israel's 70th Anniversary, Vintage Jewish Fashion, Jewish Sport, Roots of the Startup Nation, and more, provided together with educational materials.

6

What Makes a Hero?

The Jewish Super-Heroes workshop inspires young people with epic stories of great Jewish leaders, while presenting Jewish values in a fresh, accessible and exciting way. Students learn that Jewish heroes teach us Jewish ways of life; providing us with practical knowledge, motivation and a Jewish approach to achievements, struggles, thinking and doing, in a way that is relevant to every person at any time. This educational kit is based on the exhibition "Heroes – Trailblazers of the Jewish People".

7

Museum To Go

Museum to Go is an educational kit that incorporates images from the Beit Hatfutsot collection and encourages discussion and engagement using the pillars of Jewish peoplehood. Replicas of Beit Hatfutsot's best collections are re-formatted into an interactive educational mobile museum kit, to be discussed and appreciated by the community.

8

Tour the Jewish World

The Museum of the Jewish People at Beit Hatfutsot invites groups around the world to join us on an innovative and groundbreaking virtual tour of one of our central galleries, all within the span of one class period. In the online live session, your group will be able to tour the museum in Tel Aviv with a museum educator from the comfort of a smartphone or computer. Students will be able to explore the Jewish world, and participate in a fascinating and interactive tour of our "Hallelujah! Assemble, Pray, Study – Synagogues Past and Present" gallery.
