

The International Colorectal Disease Symposium

Joint with the Annual Meeting of the
Israel Society of Colon and Rectal Surgery

February 25-28, 2020 David Citadel Hotel, Jerusalem, Israel

Scientific Program - Pre-Conference Day

The Russian Association of Coloproctology Session at the International Colorectal Disease Symposium February 25, 2020

08:30-10:00	Session 1 Prof. Yury Shelygin, Dr. Badma Bashankaev
08:30-08:40	opening
08:40-09:00	Multicentre randomized controlled trial of D3 vs D2 lymph node dissection for colon cancer: short-term outcomes of first 100 enrolled patients. COLD trial. Petrov A.S.
09:00-09:20	Early Rectal Cancer: Pitfalls and Solution. Rybakov E.G.
09:20-09:40	Diagnostic Difficulties and Recent Options for Treatment of MutYH-associated Polyposis. Pikunov D.Yu.
09:40-10:00	Laparoscopic right hemicolectomy with intracorporeal anastomosis, results of the first 100 cases. Chernikovskiy I.L.
10:00-10:30	Break, Refreshments

The International Colorectal Disease Symposium

Joint with the Annual Meeting of the
Israel Society of Colon and Rectal Surgery

February 25-28, 2020 David Citadel Hotel, Jerusalem, Israel

- 10:30-12:10 Session 2
Moderators: Prof. Alexey Karachun, Dr. Marat Khaikin
- 10:30-10:50 Chronic Anal Fissure: From Sphincterotomy to Sphincter Preservation.
Zharkov E.E.
- 10:50-11:10 Does the Type of Anastomosis Play Role for Stricture Prevention in Crohn's Disease?
Vardanyan A.V.
- 11:10-11:30 Tailored approach to primary resectable rectal cancer.
Mamedli Z.Z.
- 11:30-11:50 Preventive or Curative Elective Resection for Diverticular Disease?
Moskalev A.I.
- 11:50-12:10 Defining unresectability in colorectal liver metastases. Does minimally invasive approach change the game.
Kanner D.Yu.