

SOLAR MAKES A PAWS-ITIVE IMPACT

MARGARET PACE PARK

1745 North Bayshore Drive, Miami

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY

A dog park is a popular part of this park, which is one of Miami's iconic waterfront spaces. It was named in honor of Margaret Pace, who was a founder of the Miami Garden Club. Her legacy lives on through the solar trees and solar canopy at her namesake park, which provide shade during hot summers and clean energy that benefits the community.

FROM OUR COMMUNITY:

“I run through Margaret Pace Park regularly, and am really impressed by the solar technology enhancements the FPL SolarNow program has made to my neighborhood’s green space. The solar trees and the solar canopy are stunning, and I love how they add sculptural interest to the natural environment while subtly conveying the message of sustainability.”
