What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you do well, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addendum. See the Table of Contents for the Location of the State Specific Addendum.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

- 1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and multi-unit operator agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by arbitration in Delaware. Out-of-state arbitration may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Delaware than in your own state.
- 2. Financial Condition. The Franchisor's financial condition as reflected in its financial statements (see Item 21) calls into question the Franchisor's financial ability to provide services and support to you.
- 3. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in the termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. If so, check the “State Specific Addendum” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

- 4. Unopened Franchises. The Franchisor has signed a significant number of Franchise Agreements (18) with franchisees who have not yet opened their outlets. If other franchisees are experiencing delays in opening their outlets, you may also experience delays in opening your own outlet.

Your competition may be local, independent businesses or may be part of a regional or national chain or franchise. Demand for the services you offer may be dependent on the local and national economic conditions and their effect on the public's discretionary spending.

REGULATIONS SPECIFIC TO THE INDUSTRY

State, Local, or Federal laws require you to obtain various licenses and/or permits for the operation of your Blo Blow Dry Bar franchise. Each state may differ in licensing and permit requirements for the services you will offer and may have regulations relating to individual license requirements for your employees. You must research the requirements that apply to your specific territory, and to operate your Blo Blow Dry Bar franchise in full compliance with all State, Local and/or Federal laws that apply to your business.

In the state of California, you may need to get a license from the State Board of Barbering and Cosmetology (Division 3, Chapter 10 of the California Business and Professions Code).

You must also comply with employment, workers' compensation, insurance, corporate, taxing and other laws and regulations. Among the licenses and permits you may need are zoning or land use approvals, sales and use tax permits, special tax stamps, fire department permits, health permits, alarm permits, county occupational permits, retail sales licenses and wastewater discharge permits. There may be other laws, rules or regulations that affect your bar, including minimum wage and labor laws along with ADA, OSHA and EPA considerations. You must comply with all

ITEM 5
INITIAL FEES

FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

Initial Franchise Fee

The initial franchise fee is $45,000. You will pay this fee in a lump sum to us when you sign the Franchise Agreement and is fully earned by us. The initial franchise fee is imposed uniformly on all franchisees, and it is not refundable. The initial franchise fee is payment, in part, for expenses incurred by us in furnishing assistance and services to you as set forth in the Franchise Agreement and for costs incurred by us, including general sales and marketing expenses, training, legal, accounting and other professional fees.

If you are a qualified United States Veteran, then we will discount the initial franchise fee by 10% (currently, $4,500 for your first franchise).

Training

Prior to opening you will attend 2 to 3 days of training at our headquarters, and you are responsible for your costs to attend this training. We estimate these costs will be between $1,197 and $1,756. This is not refundable.

Trainers will conduct staff training at your location prior to opening (we refer to this as “Blo U”), including franchise partner training and software training. You must pay the trainers’ expenses including travel, lodging and per diem. We estimate these costs will be between $10,419 and $16,067. This is not refundable.

Grand Opening Advertising

You must, unless we designate otherwise, pay to us an amount ranging from $12,500 to $15,000, as we designate, for grand opening advertising and marketing (the “Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure”) for your Franchised Business. You must pay us the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure on the date we designate, which date will be after you sign your Franchise Agreement, but before the grand opening campaign commences (which is typically about two months before you are scheduled to open). We use the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure to pay marketing and advertising service providers and for other grand opening marketing-related expenditures. We have the right to retain an administrative fee of up to 15% of the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure.

The Grand Opening Advertising campaign will generally begin approximately two months before the scheduled opening date and continue for approximately three months following the opening of Franchised Business. The Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure is non-refundable. You are not permitted to use any advertising materials, including grand opening advertising materials, unless you have submitted the materials first to us for our review and approval, and you have received our written approval of the materials. If we do not respond within 15 days of your submission, the materials are deemed disapproved.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

In the event that we sell you an area to be developed containing multiple Franchised Businesses, we will charge a multi-unit developer fee that is based on the number of Franchised Businesses that you commit to open within your Exclusive Area. The multi-unit developer fee is equal to 100% of the initial franchise fee for each Franchised Business to be developed under the Multi-Unit Development Agreement. You will pay this total amount in a lump sum when you sign the Multi-Unit Development Agreement, and it is not refundable under any circumstances, regardless of whether you open any Franchised Business in the Exclusive Area.

For the first Franchised Business to be developed, the initial franchise fee is $45,000. For the second Franchised Business to be developed, the initial franchise fee is $30,000. For the third and any additional Franchised Businesses to be developed, the initial franchise fee is $15,000. Only multi-unit developers signing a Multi-Unit Development Agreement with us are eligible for these reduced fees.

For example, if you commit to developing two Franchised Businesses within the Exclusive Area, your multi-unit developer fee is $75,000 calculated as follows: $45,000 plus $30,000. If you wish to develop more than two Franchised Businesses, the multi-unit developer fee will increase by $15,000 for each additional Franchised Business you commit to develop.

You will sign a Franchise Agreement for each Franchise Agreement you agree to develop as part of your Multi-Unit Development Agreement. It is expected that you will sign the Franchise Agreement for your first Franchised Business at the same time the Multi-Unit Development Agreement is signed. For each Franchised Business developed after the first one, you will sign the Franchise Agreement when you sign a lease or purchase agreement for the Franchised Business. You may not open any of your Franchised Businesses unless and until a fully executed Franchise Agreement is in place for that Franchised Business.

There are no other payments to or purchases from us or our affiliates that you are required to make before your Franchised Business opens.

NOTES:

1. “Gross Sales” means the aggregate of all revenue from the sale of products, gift cards, barter or exchange, complimentary services and services from all sources in connection with the Franchised Business whether for check, cash, credit or otherwise, including all proceeds from any business interruption insurance, but excluding all refunds made in good faith, any sales and equivalent taxes that you collect and pay to any governmental taxing authority, and the value of any allowance issued or granted to any of your customers that you credit in full or partial satisfaction of the price of any products and services offered by the Franchised Business.

If you do not report on the Gross Sales, we may debit your account for 120% of the last Royalty and Advertising Fund Contribution that we debited. If the Royalty and Advertising Fund Contribution we debit are less than the Royalty and Advertising Fund Contribution you actually owe us, once we have been able to determine your true and correct Gross Sales, we will debit your account for the balance on the day we specify. If the Royalty and Advertising Fund Contribution we debit are greater than the Royalty and Advertising Fund Contribution you actually owe us, we will credit the excess against the amount we otherwise would debit from your account during the following month.

You must use the commercial billing service, and the computer program associated with this service, as we designate, to process payments from customers and other payments and fees. You must allow the commercial billing service to allow us the unrestricted right to access and review all of your records and reports related to your Franchised Business operations, including, without limitation, all Gross Sales information and financial reports. If we require, you must send us monthly, signed Gross Sales reports (“Monthly Reports”) within 15 days of the conclusion of each month for the Gross Sales generated in the immediately preceding month. The Monthly Reports must set forth your monthly Gross Sales generated during the previous month, and any other information we may require. We may change the form and content of the Monthly Reports periodically. The royalty must be paid on a monthly basis (unless we specify otherwise), via EFT, through which we automatically deduct all payments owed to us under the Franchise Agreement, and any other agreement between you and us, from your bank account. Upon written notice to you, we may designate another method of payment through which you must pay one or more recurring fees to us or our designee. Additionally, we reserve the right to require you to pay the Royalty Fee, Ad Fund Contribution, Brand Maintenance Fee, Technology Fee and any other recurring fee on a different recurring basis, including on a weekly, bi-monthly or other recurring basis, effective on notice to you.

If any state imposes a sales or other tax on the Royalty fees, then we have the right to collect this tax from you.

2. If you are selling your Franchised Business and the purchaser is an individual or company that has previously been referred to us by a franchise broker or is otherwise current in our franchise sales process, then you must pay the applicable franchise broker fees (or any other applicable fees) if the sale to that individual/company is completed as a condition to our approving the sale and transfer.

3. Blo Blow Dry Bar Corporate may charge the selling franchisee a fee currently set at $10,000 for resale services. This fee is subject to the following conditions:

Written Agreement: Blo must enter into a written agreement with the selling franchisee to clearly outline the scope of your services and the fee. A copy of this agreement will be saved by the franchisor, and a copy will be provided to the franchisee.

Approval of the Buyer: Potential buyers must align with the requirements and standards for all new franchisees entering our franchise system set forth in the Franchise Disclosure Document and the Franchise Agreement. Any potential buyer must be approved by franchisor before the sale/transfer can be finalized.

Compliance with System Standards: The franchise being sold must adhere to the brand's operational standards, procedures, and brand guidelines to ensure consistency across the franchise system.

Non-Interference with Obligations: Franchisor assistance or consulting to a selling franchisee must not interfere with selling franchisees existing obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

No Guarantee of Approval: Payment of the fee does not guarantee that we will approve the transfer of the proposed buyer.

The franchisor reserves the right to review and approve any agreements, documents, or communications related to the transaction to ensure compliance with our franchise system's policies. This provision is designed to facilitate the smooth transfer of franchise businesses.

4. If we terminate your Franchise Agreement for cause, you agree to pay us within 15 days after the effective date of termination liquidated damages equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees you paid or owed to us during the 12 months of operation preceding the effective date of termination multiplied by (a) 24 (being the number of months in two full years), or (b) the number of months remaining in the Agreement had it not been terminated, whichever is higher.
5. We may use an independent service to conduct a "secret shopper" quality control and evaluation program. You must participate in this program, and we may require that you pay the then-current charges imposed by the evaluation service (as we direct, either directly to the evaluation service provider or to us as a reimbursement).

NOTES

1. Franchise Fee. The Franchise Fee is described in greater detail in Item 5 of this Disclosure Document.

2. Real Estate/Rent. You must lease or otherwise provide a suitable facility for the operation of the Franchised Business. Typically, a Blo Blow Dry Bar will be located within a mall, plaza or free-standing location and should have approximately 700 to 1,000 square feet of space. Lease costs will vary based upon the square footage leased, the cost per square foot and the required maintenance costs.

If you choose to purchase real estate for your Franchised Business, we cannot estimate how this would increase your initial investment. Our estimates assume that you will lease an existing building and build it up to our specifications.

3. Security Deposits. We assume you will have to pay your landlord a security deposit equal to one month’s rent in advance but in some instances may be higher. If you are a new customer of your local utilities, you will generally have to pay deposits in connection with services such as electricity, telephone, gas and water. The amount of deposit will vary depending upon the policies of the local utilities.

4. Drawings and Permits. The range in the chart provides an estimate of the costs and expense you will incur in connection with securing drawings and permits for the build-out and construction of the premises for Franchised Business with one of our approved Architectural design firms.

5. Leasehold Improvements. The facility must be renovated according to our standards and specifications. This estimate is based on our experience in renovating/constructing a Blo Blow Dry Bar Business. The costs are approximate estimates and will vary according to locality. The estimate is for the total construction/renovation cost of a Franchised Business, excluding the cost of building permits which may vary due to wide variations in building and site conditions. The estimate also excludes financing costs, which may vary widely based on factors like the type of loan, the size and location of the Franchised Business and your creditworthiness. Building construction and renovation costs vary greatly from region to region depending on material, labor costs, union or non-union practices, your ability to negotiate with the landlord, and other variables. You will incur costs to bring the property into conformity with the System. These costs vary in each individual situation based on the physical condition of the property, equipment, signage, and items already present on the property. The signage requirements and costs will vary based upon the size and location of the Franchised Business, local zoning requirements and local wage rates for installation, among other things. Our estimate includes a tenant improvement allowance of $26,000 - $78,000 that was negotiated with the landlord. We reserve the right to require you to use our designated vendor for construction management services.

6. Furniture, Fixtures & Equipment. You must purchase décor items, and our proprietary millwork, styling chairs, hair washing stations and chairs, and reception furniture for use in the salon.
7. Computer System and Software. You must purchase a computer system with the peripheral equipment and software that we require. On-site computer training will be supplied by the software provider at your expense. The computer system is described in Item 11. The current cost to set up and maintain your Blo Blow Dry Bar email account is $5 per month.
8. Insurance. You must purchase the type and amount of insurance specified in Section 15 of the Franchise Agreement in addition to any other insurance that may be required by applicable law, any lender or your landlord.
9. Bar Supplies. Will include office and reception supplies, storage and organizational items as well as styling items such as combs, brushes and hot tools.
10. Initial Inventory. You must carry an inventory from our approved suppliers which may include hair care products, styling tools, accessories, make-up and other designated inventory items.
11. Training. Prior to opening you will attend 2 to 3 days of training at our headquarters, and you are responsible for your costs to attend this training. Trainers will attend at your location prior to opening to conduct staff training, franchisee training and software training. We reserve the right to conduct training entirely remotely, which may include the use of video-conferencing technologies (e.g., Zoom) and other currently existing and/or future developed technology platforms and programs. You must pay the trainers' expenses including travel, accommodations and per diem plus the Blo U trainer's salary.
12. Grand Opening Promotions, Advertising and Events. You must conduct a grand opening advertising campaign two months prior to opening and for the first three months of operation. You must, unless we designate otherwise, pay to us the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure (ranging from $12,500 to $15,000, as we designate). We may require you to pay a portion of the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure directly to designated vendors. We collect the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure and pay service providers directly for grand opening advertising and marketing-related purposes. We have the right to retain an administrative fee of up to 15% of the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure. You must also purchase certain collateral items, including promotional items, menus, bags and other printed materials used in the operation and promotion of your Franchised Business. As of our last fiscal year end, we require you to participate on Yelp in the Beauty & Spas section and you must pay us $28 per month (unless we designate otherwise) for this service. We remit payment directly to Yelp. We reserve the right to modify the payment structure for Yelp services effective on notice to you.

13. Licenses and Permits. Local government agencies typically charge fees for occupancy permits, operating licenses and sales tax licenses, among other things. Your actual costs may vary based on the requirements of local government agencies. State licenses for barbering and/or cosmetology typically range from $25 to $80 annually.
14. Legal & Accounting. We strongly recommend that you engage an attorney or accountant to assist you in your review of this offering and to advise you as to laws, rules and regulations applicable to the development and operation of your Franchised Business. You will need to employ or engage an attorney, an accountant and other consultants to assist you in establishing your Franchised Business. These fees may vary from location to location depending upon the prevailing rates of local attorneys, accountants and consultants.
15. Additional Funds. We recommend that you have a minimum amount of working capital available to cover operating expenses, including employees' salaries, for the first three months that the Franchised Business is open. However, we cannot guarantee that our recommendation will be sufficient. Additional working capital may be required if sales are low or operating costs are high.
16. Total. In compiling this chart, we relied on our and our Parent's combined industry experience and experience in operating Blo Blow Dry Bars. The amounts shown are estimates only and may vary for many reasons including the size of the facility you lease, the capabilities of your management team, where you locate your Franchised Business and your business experience and acumen. The amounts showing do not include shipping, tariffs, or taxes where applicable. The costs outlined in this Item 7 are not intended to be a forecast of the actual cost to you or to any particular franchisee.

YOUR ESTIMATED INITIAL INVESTMENT – MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPER

Type of Expenditure	Amount	Method of Payment	When Due	To whom payment is to be made
Multi-Unit Developer Fee (1)	$75,000	Lump Sum	When Multi-Unit Development Agreement is signed	Us
Vehicle (3 months) (2)	$2,100	As incurred	As arranged	Third Parties
Other Expenditures for first Bar (3)	$263,500 to $357,620	As Disclosed in First Table

Type of Expenditure	Amount	Method of Payment	When Due	To whom payment is to be made
Total	$340,600 to $434,720	In addition to the Multi-Unit Development Fee, you will incur initial investment expenses for the development and opening of each Salon you are obligated to open under the multi-unit development schedule. The current estimated initial investment range for the development of a Salon is disclosed in the above tables and is subject to adjustment and increase in the future.

1. The multi-unit developer fee is calculated as $45,000 for the first Franchised Business you commit to develop, plus $30,000 for the second Franchised Business, plus $15,000 for each additional Franchised Business you commit to develop. Our estimate assumes you will develop two Franchised Businesses ($45,000 plus $30,000 equals $75,000).
2. The approximate cost for a vehicle to view potential sites, oversee the buildouts, supervise multiple locations, etc. will be $2,100 for 3 months.
3. The estimated initial investment for each Franchised Business you must develop under the multi-unit development agreement is subject to change for future Salons, based on our then-current offer at the time and the costs associated with the types of expenditures listed in the first table presented in this Item 7. As stated in the table, the estimate included only covers the multi-unit developer fee and the estimated initial investment for the first Franchised Business you are required to open under the multi-unit development agreement. You will incur initial investment expenses for each Franchised Business you are obligated to open under the multi-unit development agreement, and that initial investment estimate may increase in the future.

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Except as indicated below, you do not need to purchase or lease any goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory or real estate relating to the establishment or operation of the Franchised Business from us or our designees.

Generally

The Franchise Agreement includes restrictions on (a) the types of products and services you are permitted to offer in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business, and (b) the sources of products, services, inventory, equipment and other items. We may require you to buy some or all products, services and items from us, our affiliates, and/or our designated suppliers. We may change our designations, including our lists of approved and designated sources of supply, at any time on notice to you. We may, in certain instances, permit you to select a vendor or supplier for certain goods or services, but in such an event, the goods or services you purchase must comply with specifications that we establish. We may communicate these obligations to you in any way we determine, including through the Manual (as defined below) or other written communications.

You must operate your Franchised Business in strict conformance with the Franchise Agreement and our methods, standards, and specifications which we prescribe in our confidential operating manual and various other confidential manuals and writings, any or all of which may be in electronic format (collectively the “Manual”). We have the unrestricted right to change the Manual over time. You are expected to review and comply with all such changes at your sole cost and expense. The Manual may include, among other provisions, service specifications, pricing requirements (to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law), minimum advertised pricing requirements, branding (including design, layout, décor, appearance, lighting and cleanliness standards and specifications), standards of customer service, safety, cleanliness, maintenance, remodeling, replacement of outdated, obsolete or worn out equipment, signage specifications, graphics and artwork specifications and standards, dress and uniform requirements, environmental care, consistency, training services, brand image, advertising, and promotion among other subjects and areas. We may require you to participate in in-house certification, videos and instruction that you must use in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business.

You may only offer approved services and products (“Approved Services and Products”) at your Franchised Business. You are not permitted to offer or sell any other services, products, classes or items in connection with the operation of your Franchised Business. We may provide you with a list of the Approved Services and Products upon signing your Franchise Agreement or in the Manual. All Approved Services and Products must meet our standards and specifications. To: (i) better assure the quality of the Approved Services and Products; (ii) assure the supply of the Approved Services and Products; and/or (iii) enable us, in our sole discretion to take advantage of marketplace efficiencies, we have the right to require you to purchase any and all items from us, our affiliates, and/or other suppliers or distributors approved or designated by us. Your purchase or lease of goods or services as required is an essential element of your compliance with the Franchise Agreement and the Manual, and your failure to do so will be a breach of the Franchise Agreement and may result in your loss of material benefits, including the termination of the Franchise Agreement. We may also develop certain equipment, products, marketing services and items which you must purchase from us and/or our affiliates and use and/ or offer for sale, as applicable, at or in connection with the operation of your Center.

We may formulate and modify our standards and specifications for products and services at any time as we deem appropriate, including based upon the collective experience of our franchisees and our principals. Our standards and specifications are described in the Franchise Agreement, the Manual, and/or other written documents. We have the right, under the Franchise Agreement, to change the standards and specifications applicable to operation of the Franchised Business, including standards and specifications for services, suppliers, products, inventory, signs, furnishings, supplies, fixtures and equipment by written notice to you or through changes in the Manual. You may incur an increased cost to comply with these changes at your own expense; however, no change will materially alter your fundamental rights under the Franchise Agreement. We will notify you of any change to our standards and specifications by way of written amendments to the Manual or otherwise in writing.

Specifications

Without limiting the foregoing, you must build out, furnish and equip the Franchised Business according to our standards and specifications as described in our Manual. Many of the products, supplies and services needed in connection with establishing your Franchised Business, such as stylist chairs, fixtures, décor, paper goods and retail products inventory, computer hardware and software and signs, must meet our specifications for appearance, quality, performance and functionality, among other things. We reserve the right to require you to purchase any or all of these items from designated or approved suppliers (which may include us and/or our affiliates). As of our last fiscal year end, our millwork (which includes the styling bar, reception desk and retail display units) and styling chairs, which are proprietary to us, may only be purchased from approved suppliers. We list the specifications for these items and services in the Manual or in other written or electronic communications provided to you. We formulate and modify our specifications for products, supplies and services based upon our and our Parent's industry knowledge and our experience in developing and operating Blo Blow Dry Bars.

Approved Suppliers

As of our last fiscal year end, you must purchase the following products, supplies and services from our designated or approved suppliers: millwork, stylist chairs, fixtures, décor, signage, paper goods, retail products, hair-care inventory, make-up products, computer hardware and software, salon account management tools and software services, candidate recruitment management services, accounting software, local advertising services (e.g. Yelp), and Booker marketing suite software and services. As of our last fiscal year end, we require you to use ADP for your first year of operations for certain designated payroll and other human resource management services. We reserve the right to modify this requirement and to designate a different vendor for such services, effective on notice to you. We will provide you with a list of required purchases and designated suppliers in our Manual and/or other written or electronic communications. We anticipate that the required purchases and designated suppliers may change over time. Other than as disclosed in this Item, as of our last fiscal year end, neither we nor our affiliates are currently an approved supplier for any item. As of our last fiscal year end, other than the franchisor entity, none of our officers has an ownership interest in any Approved Supplier.

You may request our approval of an alternate supplier or vendor for items or services that require supplier approval, however we are not obligated to review or consider any such request. If we elect to consider your request, we may require you to send us the information and samples that we designate or request, including items and/or information we deem appropriate to determine whether an item or service complies with our standards and specifications, and/or whether the proposed supplier meets our criteria. You must reimburse us for all of our reasonable expenses in connection with determining whether we will approve an item, service or supplier (currently estimated at $500 per request). If we do not communicate our approval or disapproval of the alternate item, service or supplier, as applicable, within 60 days, your request will be considered disapproved. Our approval process may focus on, among other criteria, the supplier's dependability, general reputation and ability to provide sufficient quantity of products or services, the products' or services' prices and quality, arrangements we already have in place with other designated or approved suppliers, and/or impact on the system. We are not required to approve or authorize any additional products, items or suppliers. We grant and revoke approval of suppliers through notice to our suppliers and franchisees.

Right to Derive Revenue and Material Consideration

We and our affiliates reserve the right to derive revenue and to receive consideration, including monetary payments and other benefits, from franchisees for goods or services that we and/or our affiliates sell or lease to them, and also from vendors who sell or lease products and/or services to our franchisees. During our fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, we derived $331,552 in revenue, or 9.4% of our total revenue of $3,532,319 on account of our franchisees' required purchases. We and our affiliates reserve the right to derive revenue from the sale and/or lease of any and all goods, products, items and/or services to franchisees without restriction. We and our affiliates may impose mark-ups on any and all purchases and leases from us or our affiliates.

As of our last fiscal year end, some approved suppliers and/or distributors of hair care products, make-up products, store fixtures, merchant processor services, payroll and human resource management services, printing services pay us a percentage (currently ranging from 3% to 10% of purchases by franchisees). These amounts are subject to change (including increase) at any time in the future.

Except as disclosed in this Item 8, as of our last fiscal year end, we do not currently have any third-party vendors or suppliers that pay us a rebate or any other consideration in connection with required franchisee purchases, but we reserve the right to collect these types of rebates or other consideration at any time in the future without restriction. We and our affiliates also reserve the right to receive compensation from suppliers for creating or maintaining purchasing relationships. If we and/or our affiliates receive these rebates and/or payments, there will be no restriction on our and/or our affiliate's use of these monies. We have negotiated price discounts on items you are required to purchase from designated vendors, although we are not contractually required to do so. We reserve the right to enter into and to modify vendor arrangements at any time and are not under any obligation to ensure future discounts on any item. Except as expressly disclosed in this Item, as of the last fiscal year end, we have not negotiated any purchase agreements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees, but we reserve the right to do so at any time in the future.

As of our last fiscal year end, none of our officers currently have any interest in an approved supplier (other than the franchisor entity).

Miscellaneous

We may negotiate group rates, including price terms, for the purchase of equipment, inventory and supplies necessary for the operation of the Franchised Business. Presently, there are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives that you must join. We may receive rebates, discounts or other financial benefits from Approved Suppliers, or any other suppliers based on our franchisees' purchase of goods or services. If we receive rebates or other payments, there are no restrictions on our use of those funds.

We estimate that approximately between 25% and 30% of your expenditures in establishing your Franchised Business will be for goods and services that must be purchased from an Approved Supplier or in accordance with our standards and specifications. We estimate that approximately between 90% and 95% of your expenditure on an ongoing basis will be for goods and services that must be purchased from an Approved Supplier, or in accordance with our standards and specifications.

We do not provide or withhold material benefits to you (such as renewal rights or the right to open additional Blo Blow Dry Bars) based on whether or not you purchase through the sources we designate or approve; however, purchases of unapproved products or from unapproved suppliers in violation of the Franchise Agreement will entitle us to terminate the Franchise Agreement.

INSURANCE

In addition to the purchases or leases described above, you must obtain and maintain, at your own expense, the insurance coverage that we periodically require; our insurance requirements will be contained in the Manual. We may regulate the types, amounts, terms and conditions of insurance coverage required for your Franchised Business and standards for underwriters of policies providing required insurance coverage; our protection and rights under the policies as an additional named insured; required or impermissible insurance contract provisions; assignment of policy rights to us; periodic verification of insurance coverage that must be furnished to us; our right to obtain insurance coverage at your expense if you fail to obtain required coverage; our right to defend claims; and similar matters relating to insured and uninsured claims.

You currently must maintain the following insurance coverages: (1) commercial general liability with limits of not less than $1,000,000; (2) professional liability with limits of not less than $1,000,000; (3) business interruption insurance; (4) contents coverage, including tenant's improvements value, at replacement cost; (5) sewer back-up insurance; (6) workers' compensation, employer's liability and other insurance required by applicable state laws; and (7) any other insurance that may be required according to the terms of the lease for the premises or as may be required by us in the future. Unless we designate otherwise, there is no designated premises endorsement or limitation to the location of the Franchised Business physical address permitted. You must maintain all required policies in force during the entire term of the Franchise Agreement and any renewal terms. We may periodically increase or decrease the amounts of coverage required under these insurance policies and require different or additional kinds of insurance at any time to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards, or other relevant changes in circumstances. Each insurance policy must name us (and, if we request, our directors, employees or shareholders) as additional insureds, include a waiver of subrogation in our favor, be primary and non-contributory and must provide us with 30 days' advance written notice of any material modification, cancellation or expiration of the policy. We require that you carry a bond in the amount of $25,000 to cover the prepaid liabilities that accrue from the sale of among other things, Gift Cards, Series and Memberships. We may periodically increase or decrease the amount of bond coverage required at any time to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, or other relevant changes in circumstances.

PROMOTION, ADVERTISING AND BRAND MAINTENANCE

Advertising Fund

We established a System-wide Advertising Fund, and you must contribute to the Advertising Fund an amount equal to the greater of 2% of Gross Sales or $250 per month. (Franchise Agreement – Section 11.3). We will administer the Advertising Fund as follows:

1. We will control the creative concepts and the materials and media to be used, and we will determine the placement and allocation of advertisements. We may use print, television, radio, Internet or other media for advertisements and promotions. We will not be obligated to spend any amount on advertising in any franchisee's area that will benefit directly or in proportion to their contribution from the placement of advertising by the Advertising Fund.

2. We may use your contributions to meet any cost of, or reimburse us for our cost of, producing, maintaining, administering and directing consumer advertising, public relations and the brand's digital presence (including the cost of developing, supporting and/or administering mobile applications; preparing and conducting television, radio, digital marketing/internet, magazine, direct mail and newspaper advertising campaigns and other public relations activities; developing and/or hosting an Internet website or similar activities; employing advertising agencies to assist therein; providing promotional brochures; conducting market research; attending franchise and industry conventions; salaries and compensation for employees performing marketing and promotional related duties or functions, and providing other marketing materials to franchisees). We may conduct all advertising and public relations in-house, or we may use a national or regional advertising or public relations agency. We will maintain your contributions in a separate account from our funds and we will not use them for any of our general operating expenses, except we may use Advertising Fund Contributions for administrative costs and fees of up to 15% of Advertising Fund Contributions, in addition to salaries and overhead related to the administration of the Advertising Fund. We will not use Advertising Fund Contributions principally for the purpose of soliciting franchise sales, however, we may include statements about the availability of information regarding the franchise opportunity and the purchase of a franchise in any advertising, promotional or other items produced, circulated and/or distributed using Advertising Fund Contributions. Vendors and suppliers may, if we permit, contribute to the Advertising Fund.

3. We expect to use all contributions in the fiscal year they are made, but any monies remaining in the Advertising Fund at the end of any year will carry over to the next year. We will use any interest or other earnings of the Advertising Fund before using current contributions. We intend for the Advertising Fund to be perpetual, but we have the right to terminate it if necessary. We will not terminate the Advertising Fund until all contributions and earnings have been used for advertising and promotional purposes or have been returned to our franchisees on a pro rata basis. For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024, 19 % was spent on Martech Platforms, 18 % on Photography and Video, 15% on Recruitment, 10% on Paid Media, 10 % for Administration Fee, 7 % on Email Marketing, 6% on PR, 8 % on Influencer Marketing, 4 % on Training Videos and 3 % Miscellaneous.

4. All Blo Blow Dry Bars owned by us or our affiliates will make similar contributions to the Advertising Fund as required of franchisees.

5. We will have an unaudited statement of the Advertising Fund prepared each year and we will provide you with a copy within a reasonable time after the statement's issuance if you request a copy on or before March 31st of the following year. You will not be entitled to receive the statement if you fail to submit the written request to us in a timely manner. We may require that the annual accounting be audited by an independently certified public accountant at the expense of the Advertising Fund.

6. The Advertising Fund is not a trust, and we assume no fiduciary duty in administering the Advertising Fund.

Brand Maintenance Fee

In addition to the Advertising Fund, you must pay to us a monthly Brand Maintenance Fee in the amount we designate (currently $150 per month). The Brand Maintenance Fee currently covers Graphic Design Services, Best Practice Coaching, Website and Booking App Maintenance.

Local Advertising

You must conduct advertising, promotions and public relations in the local area surrounding the Franchised Business each month, and you must spend the greater of $1,500 or 1% of Gross Sales each month on your local advertising. Your obligation to spend the monthly Local Advertising Expenditure begins after your Grand Opening Advertising campaign, in the fourth month of operations. After the expiration of the 12-month anniversary of the opening date, we may, in our discretion and on a location-by-location basis, lower the expenditure requirement to $1,000 or such lower amount as we designate. You will pay for your ads and promotions directly to your local advertising suppliers. You must comply with our brand marketing guidelines and specifications. We reserve the right to designate mandated suppliers for local marketing and advertising services (including online and social media marketing service providers). You must spend at least $1,000 per month with our currently approved Digital Marketing provider Eulerity for the 12 months following your Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure and $750 per month on Eulerity thereafter. We reserve the right to require you to pay the Local Advertising Expenditure directly to us or our affiliate, in which event we and/or our affiliate will expend the Local Advertising Expenditure amount for advertising, promotions and public relations in the local area surrounding the Franchised Business. You must submit any and all materials incorporating any of the Marks to us for review and approval prior to use or circulation. Within 30 days of our request, you must give us an accounting of your advertising activities, including verification copies of the ads and receipts or proof of expenditure. (Franchise Agreement – Section 11.2). You must also prominently display franchise brochures and other materials that we provide, at our cost, in your location to solicit prospective franchisees. Unless we designate otherwise, you must participate on Yelp in the Beauty & Spas section, currently $28 per month (payable to us).

Any advertising that has not been furnished by us or that we have not approved within the preceding 12 months must be submitted to us for our review. We will have 15 days after our receipt of the materials to advise you whether they are approved or not. If we do not provide you with oral or written approval within this 15-day period, the materials are deemed not approved. Any advertising or promotional materials you provide to us for our review will become our property, and there will be no restriction on our use or distribution of these materials. The approval process described in this paragraph also applies to proposed advertising to be used by an advertising cooperative. We may require you to include certain language in your advertising, such as “franchises available” and our website address and telephone number.

Cooperative Advertising

Although we are not obliged to do so, we may create an advertising cooperative for the benefit of all Blo Blow Dry Bars located within a particular region, or we may approve of an advertising cooperative formed by our franchisees within a particular region. You must participate in any advertising cooperative established in your region. The members of the cooperative will determine the amount and frequency of contributions you must make to the cooperative. If we form the cooperative, we will determine the amount and frequency of contributions you must make to the cooperative. Any amounts you contribute to an advertising cooperative will count toward your local advertising requirement, but if the amount you contribute to a cooperative is less than the amount you must spend on local advertising, you must still spend the difference locally. We will have the authority to create, change, merge or dissolve any advertising cooperative.

Any Blo Blow Dry Bars owned and operated by us, or our affiliates will participate in advertising cooperatives on the same basis as our franchisees, and will have the same voting rights as franchisees. In no event will anyone franchisee (or any group of commonly controlled franchisees) have more than 25% of the total vote on any cooperative matter.

Grand Opening Advertising

Unless we designate otherwise, you must pay the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure (ranging from $12,500 to $15,000, as we designate) to us to promote the initial opening of the Franchised Business. We may require you to pay a portion of the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure directly to designated suppliers. The Grand Opening Advertising campaign typically begins two months before your scheduled opening date and continues for typically three months following the opening date. We or our designee will expend such amount on local advertisements, marketing and promotion of the initial opening of the Franchised Business as we determine appropriate in our sole and absolute discretion. We may also retain an administrative fee of up to 15% of the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure. The Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure is not refundable under any circumstances.

ADVISORY COUNCILS

We have formed advisory councils to work with us to improve various aspects of the System, including advertising campaigns, new products and services, and other matters. Its members are made up of franchisees and our representatives. The franchisee representatives may be chosen by us or elected by other franchisees. The advisory councils will act in an advisory capacity only and will not have decision making authority. We will have the power to form, merge, change or dissolve any advisory council, on our discretion.

WEBSITE / EXTRANET

Websites (as defined below) are considered as “advertising” under the Franchise Agreement and are subject (among other things) to our review and prior written approval before they may be used (as described above). As used in the Franchise Agreement, the term “Website” means an interactive electronic document contained in a network of computers linked by communications software, that you operate or authorize others to operate and that refers to your Franchised Business, the Marks, us, or the System. The term Website includes Internet and World Wide Web home pages.

In connection with any Website, the Franchise Agreement provides that you may not establish a website, nor may you offer, promote, or sell any products or services, or make any use of Marks, through the Internet without our prior written approval, which we do not have to provide. As a condition to grant any consent, we will have the right to establish any requirement that we deem appropriate, including a requirement that your only presence on the Internet will be through one or more web pages that we establish on our Website.

We will have the right to establish a website or other electronic system providing private and secure communication (e.g., an extranet) between us, our franchisees, and other people and entities that we decide are appropriate. If we require, you must establish and maintain access to the extranet in the manner we designate. Additionally, we may periodically prepare agreements and policies concerning the use of the extranet that you must acknowledge and/or sign.

You must not establish or maintain a separate website, splash page, profile or other presence on the Internet, or otherwise advertise on the Internet or any other public computer network in connection with the Franchised Business, including on Facebook, TikTok, Snapchat, Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube or any other social media and/or networking site (“Social Media Site”) unless we expressly authorize you to do so, and if authorized, in strict accordance with our designated rules, guidelines, specifications, policies and procedures (our “Social Media Policies and Procedures”), which we may change, revoke or otherwise modify at any time on notice to you. As of our last fiscal year end, as more specifically set forth in our Manual, we permit you to use certain Social Media Sites provided that you strictly comply with the Social Media Policies and Procedures. Except as expressly authorized by us in writing, you may not establish or maintain any social media sites and/or mobile or internet-based applications (or any comparable future developed technology). You are responsible for ensuring that your directors, coaches, managers and employees comply with the guidelines and procedures. We have the right to modify our Social Media Policies and Procedures, our policies governing media and Internet usage at any time in writing, whether in the Manual or otherwise. You must comply with all modifications.

COMPUTER/POINT-OF SALE SYSTEM

You must purchase an Apple Macintosh computer and use the Booker web-based salon management software program and the hardware for your Point-of-Sale System. You must purchase and use the software programs we designate. We may also require you to use mobile applications we designate, which may include proprietary mobile apps and / or mobile apps created or designed for the System. You may purchase the computer from any authorized dealer. Your computer system and the software required provide you with the following functions: point of sale, appointment book, inventory management and staff reporting. The current estimated maintenance cost is $88 per month, payable monthly, quarterly or annually as required by the approved supplier. We estimate that the computer hardware will initially cost approximately $2,000.

The current cost to set up and maintain your Blo Blow Dry Bar email account is $5 per month (which fee is subject to increase effective on notice to you), which you are currently required to pay to us (and we remit payment to the vendor). Ongoing technical support will be provided to you by our approved supplier, unless we designate otherwise. As of our last fiscal year end, you will be invoiced by the approved supplier at the rates negotiated by us. This process is subject to modification in the future, as we may designate in our sole discretion.

You must purchase ongoing technical support and maintenance for your computer equipment. You must maintain, at all times during your Franchise Agreement, an on-site maintenance contract. You must also always have a high-speed internet connection for your computer system. Neither we nor any affiliates of ours will provide you with any maintenance, updates or upgrades for your computer system or software.

You must update or upgrade computer hardware and software as we deem necessary or appropriate. There are no contractual limitations on either our right to require you to obtain updates and/or upgrades, or the cost of any updates and/or upgrades. As disclosed above, you must use all the software we designate, which may include proprietary software that we develop or which is developed for us, and software allowing us independent access to your financial statements and benchmarking data. We have the right to independently access all information you collect or compile at any time without first notifying you. You must make sure that we have electronic access to your computer system at all times, at your expense. (Franchise Agreement – Section 5)

SITE SELECTION

If you have a potential site for the Franchised Business, you may propose the location for our consideration. If you do not have a proposed site, you must find one within the “Designated Area” specified in your Franchise Agreement. You will not receive any territorial rights or protection in the Designated Area. You will have 90 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement to provide us with the information, we require to evaluate your proposed site. We will notify you within 10 days after we receive all the required information about whether the site is approved. If we do not provide our specific approval of the site, it is deemed not approved. If we do not approve your site, we will provide you with an additional 30 days to find another location. If you are still unable to secure an accepted site within the additional 30 days, we have the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement and keep the initial franchise fee. We will furnish you with our general site selection criteria, but it is entirely your responsibility to locate and obtain a site that meets our standards and criteria and that is acceptable to us. (Franchise Agreement – Sections 2.3 and 5.1)

The general site selection and evaluation criteria which we consider in approving your site includes the condition of the premises, demographics and population density of the surrounding area, proximity to other Blo Blow Dry Bars, lease or purchase requirements, visibility, ease of access, available parking and overall suitability. You may not relocate the Franchised Business without our consent.

TYPICAL LENGTH OF TIME BEFORE OPENING

We estimate that the typical length of time between the signing of the Franchise Agreement and the opening of a Blo Blow Dry Bar is six to nine months, but you must open your Franchised Business and be operational not later than 12 months after signing the Franchise Agreement or we may terminate your Franchise Agreement. Factors that may affect your beginning operations include ability to secure permits, zoning and local ordinances, weather conditions and delays in installation of equipment and fixtures. (Franchise Agreement – Section 5.3)

TRAINING

You must attend and complete to our satisfaction our designated initial training program, which we reserve the right to change at any time. We may conduct all or any portion of the initial training program remotely, including through currently existing or future developed technology platforms. The total length of this training is estimated to range from 10-12 weeks.

The first portion of initial training is at our Head Office, lasts for approximately 2 to 3 days, and consists of orientation and training. You are responsible for your travel lodging, meals and accommodation expenses which we estimate will range from $1,197 to $1,756. As stated above, we reserve the right to conduct the Head Office training remotely through any virtual technology platform we designate.

After completion of the Head Office portion of the training, you will receive remote brand and operations training in the weeks prior to opening. The training program covers the business and administrative aspects of the operation of a Blo Blow Dry Bar. Training will be facilitated by one or more Franchise Business Coaches (each an FBC) and a member of our marketing team under the supervision of our VP of Marketing and will take the form of weekly calls and on-line training sessions. As of our last fiscal year end the final sessions will be conducted onsite prior to opening.

Onsite training is conducted at your location just prior to opening, is 5 to 6 days long and will cost approximately $1,980 to $3,740 depending on travel costs for the trainer including accommodations and per diem.

You and your manager must attend the training and complete it to our satisfaction. If you fail to complete our initial training program to our satisfaction, we have the right to terminate your Franchise Agreement and keep the initial franchise fee.

Blo U is the onsite training program for your stylists and is conducted at your location prior to opening. It is 6 days long and will cost approximately $7,242 and $10,380 depending on travel. It includes the trainer’s salary, flight, accommodation and per diem.

If you require additional on-site assistance, you must pay our then-current training fees, in addition to per diem fee (currently, $80) for each of our representatives, and you must reimburse our representatives’ expenses, including travel and accommodation.

The instructional materials we use in our initial training program include our Manual and any other information that we believe is beneficial to our franchisees and their employees in the initial training program. As of our last fiscal year end, our initial training program consists of:

We reserve the right to change the initial training program at any time. As of our last fiscal year end, our initial training program is overseen by Shauna Stalker and Kim Wolfe. We also reserve the right to periodically name additional trainers and/or to draw upon the experience of the staff members from our Affiliate’s Blo Blow Dry Bars and/or Franchised Businesses to assist in providing training. There are no limits on our right to assign a substitute to provide training. The minimum experience of the instructors in the field that is relevant to the subject taught and our operations is from 4 to 20 years.

We may periodically require that previously trained and experienced franchisees, their managers, and/or employees attend refresher-training programs. Attendance at these programs will be at your sole expense, which may include a reasonable fee for the training program. (Franchise Agreement – Section 8.5) We may also conduct an annual meeting or convention of our franchisees, which may include discussions relating to changes to the System, new offerings and refresher training. If we choose to hold an annual meeting or convention, attendance will be mandatory for you (or if you are a legal entity, your owner responsible for Franchised Business operations). The current non-refundable fee for the annual meeting is $400 to $500 for each person from your Franchised Business attending the meeting (which fee is due and payable on the date we designate), and you must also pay all of the expenses your attendees incur while at the annual meeting, including travel, lodging, meals, wages and benefits. The fee for the annual meeting is due to Franchisor whether or not you attend the annual meeting.

During the twelve-month period following the date on which you open the Franchised Business, we may require that you participate in our designated “first-year coaching program” at your sole cost and expense. We may also provide additional training sessions to you and/or your employees at your Franchised Business. You will pay our then-current per diem fee for each trainer we send to you, and you must pay our On-Site Coaching Visit Fees and reimburse our expenses for sending the trainer(s) to you.

CONFIDENTIAL OPERATIONS MANUAL

The Table of Contents of the Manual, along with estimated number of pages devoted to each section, is included as Exhibit F to this Disclosure Document. Our Manual is currently provided in electronic format. The Manual includes approximately 40 pages total.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

You must operate your Franchise at a location that we approve, and you may not relocate without our written approval. We will grant you a Protected Territory. Your Protected Territory will be included in your Franchise Agreement and may be described in terms of specific boundaries (such as streets or town lines) or be depicted on a map. The minimum size of the Protected Territory shall be 3 blocks surrounding the location for urban areas and a one-mile radius for suburban areas. The size of your Protected Territory will be determined by us once your location is selected.

Except as otherwise disclosed in this Item, if you are in full compliance with the Franchise Agreement during its term, we will not establish, or license others to establish, Blo Blow Dry Bars or competing businesses within your Protected Territory. However, we retain the right to sell Blo Proprietary Products anywhere, including within your Protected Territory, such as through our Website and mail order, and you will not earn a portion of any of the revenue generated from our sales of these Proprietary Products, even if the Proprietary Products are delivered to a customer within your Protected Territory.

Due to the nature of the hair care business, you may provide services and/or sell products to customers who live anywhere but who choose to use your Franchised Business. Your Protected Territory is an area within which we will not grant another franchise or open a company-owned Blo Blow Dry Bar and is the area in which you will concentrate your advertising activities. You are not permitted to market, advertise or promote the Franchised Business outside of your Protected Territory unless you receive our prior written approval, which we may grant, revoke or withhold in our sole and absolute discretion. This Protected Territory may change periodically as the market and demographics change.

Except as otherwise expressly set forth below, you may sell our Proprietary Products and related merchandise to retail customers and prospective retail customers at the Franchised Business location only. Your customers may travel from outside of your Protected Territory to your Franchised Business for services. Additionally, subject to the restrictions on your ability to advertise or market outside of your Protected Territory, we currently authorize you to provide “Blo On The Go” services to customers who request that you provide authorized services at their designated location, which may be outside of your Protected Territory. We reserve the right to modify the “Blo On The Go” program and to require you to comply with our designated practices, policies and procedures, which we may specify in the Manual or other written communications. We reserve the right to discontinue the “Blo On The Go” program at any time on notice to you. You may not engage in any promotional activities or sell products or similar products or services, whether directly or indirectly, through or on the Internet, the World Wide Web, or any other similar proprietary or common carrier electronic delivery system (collectively, the “Electronic Media”); through catalogs or other mail order devices sent or directed to customers or prospective customers located anywhere; or by telecopy or other telephonic or electronic communications, including toll-free numbers, directed to or received from customers or prospective customers located anywhere. While you may place advertisements in printed media and on television and radio that are targeted to customers and prospective customers located within your Protected Territory, you will not be deemed to be in violation of the Franchise Agreement if those advertisements, because of the natural circulation of the printed media or reach of television and radio, are viewed by prospective customers outside of your Protected Territory. You have no options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises. You may not sell our Proprietary Products to any business or other customer at wholesale.

We and our affiliates may sell products under the Proprietary Marks within and outside your Protected Territory through any method of distribution other than a dedicated Blo Blow Dry Bar, including sales through channels of distribution such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing sales (together, “alternative distribution channels”). You may not use alternative distribution channels to make sales anywhere and you will not receive any compensation for our sales through alternative distribution channels.

We have not yet established other franchises or company-owned outlets or another distribution channel selling or leasing similar products or services under a different trademark, however we reserve the right to do so in the future. We describe earlier in this Item 12 what we may do anywhere and at any time.

Except for the Blo Blow Dry Bars operated by us, neither we nor any parent or affiliate has established, or presently intends to establish, other franchised or company-owned units which sell our Proprietary Products or services under a different trade name or trademark, but we reserve the right to do so in the future, without first obtaining your consent.

There are no minimum sales goals, market penetration or other criteria you must meet to maintain your rights to the Protected Territory.

Rights We Retain: We and/or our affiliates may, in our discretion, and without granting any rights to you,

- a) solicit prospective franchisees and grant franchises or other rights to operate Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises through national or regional advertising, trade shows or conventions or through e-commerce or similar means;
- b) grant franchises for Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises and to own and operate Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises ourselves or through affiliates at locations outside of your Protected Territory;
- c) sell, solicit, recruit and provide services for any franchised business not defined as a Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchise;
- d) sell and provide the services and Proprietary Products authorized for sale by Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises under the Marks or other trade names, trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols through alternative distribution channels, as described above;
- e) solicit prospective franchisees for, and own and operate, businesses of any other kind or nature, anywhere; and
- f) acquire, be acquired by, merge or affiliate with, or engage in any transaction with other businesses (whether or not those businesses are competitive), including competing franchise systems with locations operating in your Protected Territory, we and/or our licensees have the right to operate the business under the Marks in the Protected Territory without affording any rights to you or providing any compensation to you.

You will not receive exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

Special Venues

We reserve the right to establish and operate, and/or to license others to establish and operate, Franchised Businesses in “Special Venues”, including Special Venues located in your Protected Territory. The term “Special Venues” means non-traditional venues such as resorts, military bases, airports, casinos and entertainment venues.

MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

You may (if you qualify) develop and operate a number of Franchised Businesses within a specified area (the “Development Area”). We and you will agree on the Development Area, and it will be described in the Multi-Unit Development Agreement before signing it. The Development Area will be defined in terms of municipal or county boundaries but may be defined as a specified trade area within a municipality. The actual size of the Development Area will vary depending upon the availability of contiguous markets, our long-range development plans, your financial and operational resources, population, and market conditions. In each case, the territory guidelines for single franchise locations will prevail for each location developed as per your Multi-Unit Development Agreement. We and you will negotiate the number of Franchised Businesses you must develop to keep your development rights and the dates by which you must develop them. We and you then will complete the schedule in the Multi-Unit Development Agreement before signing it. Subject to your rights under Franchise Agreements then in effect, we may, after the Multi-Unit Development Agreement expires or is terminated, establish, or allow others to establish, Franchised Businesses within the Development Area. While the Multi-Unit Development Agreement is in effect, we (and our affiliates) will not establish, or allow other franchise owners to establish, Franchised Businesses to be located within the Development Area. There are no other restrictions on us. You may not develop or operate Franchised Businesses outside the Development Area. We may terminate the Multi-Unit Development Agreement if you do not satisfy your development obligations when required.

Except as described above, continuation of your territorial exclusivity does not depend on your achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other contingency, and we may not alter your Exclusive Area.

To maintain your rights under the multi-unit development agreement there must be open and in operation the cumulative number of Bars set forth on the Development Schedule by the dates set forth in the Development Schedule.

TRADEMARKS

We grant our franchisees the right to operate businesses under the name “Blo Blow Dry Bar,” which is the principal Mark used to identify our System of operation. You may also use any other current or future Mark to operate your Franchised Business that we designate in writing, including the logo on the front of this Disclosure Document and the trademarks listed below. By “Marks” we mean the trade names, trademarks, service marks and logos used to identify Blo Blow Dry Bars. Our affiliate, Blo Ontario, has registered the following marks on the Principal Register of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”), and has granted us a license to use and sublicense to use the Marks:

Mark	Registration Number	Registration Date	Register
Blo (and design) 	3,738,531	1/19/2010	Principal
BLO BLOW DRY BAR (standard character mark)	4,159,959	6/19/2012	Principal

Mark	Registration Number	Registration Date	Register
Blo Blow Dry Bar  (logo)	4,996,639	7/12/2016	Principal

We have filed all the affidavits and intend to renew our registrations for the Marks when they become due. We have renewed our registration for the Blo (and design mark)

There are currently no effective material determinations of the PTO, trademark trial and appeal board, the trademark administrator of this state or any court; pending infringement, opposition or cancellation; or pending material litigation involving the Marks.

To our knowledge, there are no infringing or prior superior uses actually known to us that could materially affect the use of the Marks in this state or any other state in which a Blo Blow Dry Bar may be located. There are no agreements currently in effect which significantly limit our rights to use or license the use of the Marks in any manner material to the franchise.

You will not receive any rights to the Marks other than the nonexclusive right to use them in the operation of your Franchised Business. You may only use the Marks in accordance with our standards, operating procedures and specifications. Any unauthorized use of the Marks by you is a breach of your Agreement and an infringement of our rights in the Marks. You may not contest the validity or ownership of the Marks, including any Marks that we license to you after you sign your Agreement. You may not assist any other person in contesting the validity or ownership of the Marks.

You must immediately notify us of any apparent infringement of, or challenge to your use of, any Mark, or any claim by any person of any rights in any Marks, and you may not communicate with any person other than us and our counsel regarding any infringements, challenges or claims unless you are legally required to do so, however, you may communicate with your own counsel at your own expense. We may take whatever action we deem appropriate in these situations, and we have exclusive control over any settlement or proceeding concerning any Mark. You must take any action that, in the opinion of our counsel, may be advisable to protect and maintain our interests in any proceeding or to otherwise protect and maintain our interests in the Marks.

We can require you to modify or discontinue the use of any Mark and to use other trademarks or service marks. We will not be required to reimburse you for modifying or discontinuing the use of a Mark or for substituting another trademark or service mark for a discontinued Mark. We are not obligated to reimburse you for any loss of goodwill associated with a modified or discontinued Mark.

We will reimburse you for all of your expenses reasonably incurred in any legal proceeding disputing your authorized use of any Mark, but only if you notify us of the proceeding in a timely manner and you have complied with our directions with regard to the proceeding. We have the right to control the defense and settlement of any proceeding. Our reimbursement does not include your expenses for removing signage or discontinuing your use of any Mark. Our reimbursement also does not apply to any disputes where we challenge your use of a Mark, or if your use of the Mark is not in compliance with your Franchise Agreement. Our reimbursement does not apply to the legal fees you incur in seeking separate, independent legal counsel.

You must use the Marks as the sole trade identification of the Franchised Business, but you may not use any Mark or part of any Mark as part of your corporate name in any modified form. You may not use any Mark in connection with the sale of any unauthorized products or services, or in any other manner that we do not authorize in writing. You must obtain a fictitious or assumed name registration if required by your state or local law.

You must notify us if you apply for your own trademark or service mark registrations. You must not register or seek to register as a trademark or service mark, either with the PTO or any state or foreign country, any of the Marks or a trademark or service mark that is confusingly similar to any of our Marks.

You may not establish, create or operate an Internet site or website using any domain name containing the words “Blo Blow Dry Bar” or any variation thereof without our prior written consent. You may not use the Marks as part of any advertisement on the Internet without our permission.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

No patents nor pending patents are material to the franchise. We own the copyrights in the Manual, marketing materials and other copyrightable items that are part of the System. While we claim copyrights in these and similar items, we have not registered these copyrights with the United States Registrar of Copyrights and need not do so to protect them. You may use these items only as we specify while operating the Franchised Business and you must stop using them if we direct you to do so.

To our knowledge, there are currently no effective determinations of the U.S. Copyright Office or any court regarding the copyrighted materials. Our right to use or license copyrighted items is not materially limited by any agreement or known infringing use.

We have developed certain Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information, including certain trade secrets, methods of business management, sales and promotion techniques, and know-how, knowledge of, and experience in, operating a Blo Blow Dry Bar. We will provide our Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information to you during training, in the Manual and as a result of the assistance we will furnish you during the term of the franchise. You may only use the Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information for the purpose of operating your Franchised Business. You may only divulge Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information to employees who must have access to it in order to operate the Franchised Business. You must enforce the confidentiality provisions as to your employees.

Certain individuals with access to Trade Secrets or other Confidential Information, including your shareholders (and members of their immediate families and households), officers, directors, partners, members, if you are a corporation, limited liability company or other business entity, and your managers, executives, employees and staff may be required to sign nondisclosure and non-competition agreements in a form we specify.

All ideas, concepts, techniques or materials concerning the Franchised Business, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be deemed our sole and exclusive property and a part of the System that we may choose to adopt and/or disclose to other franchisees. Likewise, we will disclose to you the concepts and developments of other franchisees that we make part of the System. You must also assist us in obtaining intellectual property rights in any concept or development if requested.

ITEM 15
OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL
OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISED BUSINESS

FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

The Franchised Business must always be under the direct full-time supervision of the owner or a designated manager who has completed our initial training program to our satisfaction and who has been approved by us. While you may hire a manager to operate your Franchised Business, you must still be directly involved in the daily operation of your Franchised Business. If you are a corporate entity, the principals of the entity must be actively involved in the daily operation of the Franchised Business. You must keep us informed of the identity of your current designated manager. Your designated manager does not need to have an ownership interest in you.

As described in Item 14, your owners (and members of their immediate families and households), officers, directors, partners, members, managers, executives, employees and staff, and other individuals having access to Trade Secrets or other Confidential Information may be required to sign nondisclosure and non-competition agreements in a form we specify (Exhibit B to the Franchise Agreement). We will be a third-party beneficiary with the independent right to enforce the agreements.

If you are a business entity, anyone who owns a 5% or greater interest in the entity must personally guarantee the performance of all of your obligations under your Agreement and agree to be personally liable for your breach of the Agreement by signing the Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations (Exhibit C to the Franchise Agreement).

Franchisee's spouse is not required to guarantee performance.

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must offer the services and products we periodically specify, in strict accordance with our standards and specifications. You may not sell any services or products that we have not authorized and you must discontinue offering any services, products or programs that we may, in our sole discretion, disapprove of in writing at any time.

We may periodically change required or authorized services, products or programs. There are no limits on our right to do so. If we modify the System, you may have to add or replace equipment, signs and fixtures, and you may have to make improvements or modifications as necessary to maintain uniformity with our current standards and specifications.

On a case-by-case basis, we may allow you or other Blo Blow Dry Bar franchisees to offer certain additional services, products or programs that are not otherwise part of the System. We will decide which franchisees can offer additional services based on test marketing, the franchisee’s qualifications and operational history, differences in regional or local markets and other factors. If we allow these deviations, we do not have to grant you a similar variance or other special accommodation.

We may designate the minimum and/or maximum prices that you may charge, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. There are no restrictions or conditions imposed by us that limit access to customers.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC’s Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the disclosure document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

HISTORICAL FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATION

The financial performance information provided in this Item 19 must be read in conjunction with the notes set forth immediately following the table below, the disclosures set forth in this FDD, and the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement. Written substantiation for this financial performance representation will be made available to you upon reasonable request.

As of our last fiscal year end, there were 100 Franchised Bars in operation. The historical financial performance information contained in this Item 19 reflects certain performance information for the 87 Franchised Bars that were open for at least one full year as of December 31, 2024 (the “Item 19 Bars”), during the period January 1, 2024, through December 31, 2024 (the “Reporting Period”). Thirteen (13) Franchised Bars were excluded from this Item 19 financial performance representation because they were not open for the entire Reporting Period.

Table 1 reflects the Total Gross Sales for the Item 19 Bars for the Reporting Period, the Average Gross Sales for the Item 19 Bars for the Reporting Period, and a breakdown of Total Gross Sales and Average Gross Sales for each of the four (4) quartiles of Item 19 Bars for the Reporting Period.

2. Table 2 reflects the following historical financial performance information for the Item 19 Bars for the Reporting Period:

a. Total Number of Members;
b. Average Number of Members;
c. Average Number of Members broken down by quartile. Each of the four quartiles consists of 21-22 Bars.

d. The highest Member figure attained in computing each average, the lowest Member figure attained in computing each average, the median for each data set, and the number and percentage of Bars included in each quartile representation that attained or surpassed the stated average; and the number and percentage of Bars included in each quartile representation that fell below the stated average.

GENERAL NOTES APPLICABLE TO ALL TABLES:

1. The Gross Sales figures represent revenue from the sale of services and the sale of retail items during the Reporting Period, as reported to us by the Item 19 Bars through the reporting system software.

2. The Number of Members represents the total number of members, as reported to us by the Item 19 Bars, through our reporting system software.

3. Average means the sum of all data points in a set, divided by the number of data points in that set.

4. Median means the data point that is in the center of all data points used to calculate the average. That number is found by examining the total number of data points and finding the middle number in that set. In the event the number of data points is an odd number, the median will be the center number. If the dataset contains an even number of data points, the median is reached by taking the two numbers in the middle, adding them together, and dividing them by two.

5. Gross Sales means the aggregate of all revenue from the sale of products, gift cards, barter or exchange, complimentary services and services from all sources in connection with the Franchised Business, but excluding all refunds made in good faith, any sales and equivalent taxes that Franchisees collect and pay to any governmental taxing authority, and the value of any allowance issued or granted to any of the Franchisee's customers that are credited in full or partial satisfaction of the price of any products and services offered by the Franchised Business.

6. Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Some stores have earned these amounts. Your individual results may vary. There is no assurance you'll earn as much.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. does not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Corey Wilde at 1867 Yonge Street, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario, M4S 1Y5 and (416) 630-6280, the Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

EXHIBIT B TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

STATE SPECIFIC ADDENDUM

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT AND FRANCHISE AGREEMENT REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

1. California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement or Multi-Unit Development Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the law, the law will control.
2. The Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Development Agreement provide for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under Federal Bankruptcy Law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).
3. The Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Development Agreement contain covenants not to compete which extend beyond the termination of the agreements. These provisions may not be enforceable under California law.
4. Section 31125 of the California Corporation Code requires the franchisor to provide you with a disclosure document before asking you to agree to a material modification of an existing franchise.
5. Neither the franchisor, any person or franchise broker in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 79a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.
6. The franchise agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in Delaware with the costs being borne by the franchisee and franchisor. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5 Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California. Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5 relating to forum selection clauses restricting venue outside the state of California or arbitration may be preempted by the Federal Arbitration Act. Section 20040.5 may still apply to any provision relating to judicial proceedings. A binding arbitration provision may not be enforceable under generally applicable contract defenses, such as fraud, duress, or unconscionability.
7. The Franchise Agreement and Area Development Agreement require application of the laws of Delaware. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
8. You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporation Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).
9. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

10. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5 Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
11. The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.
12. OUR WEBSITE, www.blomedry.com, HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION at www.dfpi.ca.gov.
13. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
14. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations and you are open for business. For California franchisees who sign a development agreement, the payment of the development and initial fees attributable to a specific unit in your development schedule is deferred until that unit is open.
15. For franchisees operating outlets located in California, the California Franchise Investment Law and the California Franchise Relations Act will apply regardless of the choice of law or dispute resolution venue stated elsewhere. Any language in the Franchise Agreement or any amendment thereto or any agreement to the contrary is superseded by this condition.

The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.

16. Section 24 of the Franchise Agreement is hereby deleted.

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND MULTI-UNIT DISCLOSURE
DOCUMENT REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

1. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. The Department has determined that we, the franchisor, have not demonstrated we are adequately capitalized and/or that we must rely on franchise fees to fund our operations. The Commissioner has imposed a fee deferral condition, which requires that we defer the collection of all initial fees from California franchisees until we have completed all of our pre-opening obligations, and you are open for business. ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

The Illinois Attorney General requires that certain provisions contained in franchise documents be amended to be consistent with Illinois law, including the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, 815 ILCS §§ 705/1 et seq. (1987) (the “Act”).

(a) Illinois law governs the Franchise Agreement(s).

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

DISCLOSURE REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchises.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than thirty (30) days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than five (5) years, and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least six (6) months' advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) Failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, franchisee has the right to request an escrow arrangement.

ADDENDUM TO THE BLO BLOW DRY BAR INC.
DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND MULTI-UNIT
DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

This addendum to the Disclosure Document, Franchise Agreement and Multi-Unit Development Agreement effectively amends and revises said documents as follows:

1. Item 17(c) of the Disclosure Document and Article 4 of the Franchise Agreement are hereby amended to indicate that a franchisee shall not be required to sign a general release.

2. Covenants not to compete are generally considered unenforceable in the State of North Dakota, in accordance with Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. Item 17(r) of the Disclosure Document, Article 17 of the Franchise Agreement and Article IV of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement are amended accordingly.

3. Item 6 and Item 17(i) of the Disclosure Document, Article 23 of the Franchise Agreement requires the franchisee to consent to termination or liquidated damages. Since the Commissioner has determined this to be unfair, unjust and inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, these provisions are hereby deleted in each place they appear in the Disclosure Document and Franchise Agreement used in North Dakota.

4. Item 17(u) of the Disclosure Document, Article 23 of the Franchise Agreement and Article VII of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement are amended to provide that arbitration shall be held at a site that is agreeable to all parties.

5. Item 17(v) of the Disclosure Document and the provisions of Article 23 of the Franchise Agreement and Article VII of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement which require jurisdiction of courts in the State of Delaware are deleted.

6. Item 17(w) of the Disclosure Document, Article 23 of the Franchise Agreement and Article VII of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement are amended to indicate that the agreements are to be construed according to the laws of the State of North Dakota.

7. Apart from civil liability as set forth in Section 51-19-12 N.D.C.C., which is limited to violations of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law (registration and fraud), the liability of the franchisor to a franchisee is based largely on contract law. Despite the fact that those provisions are not contained in the franchise investment law, those provisions contain substantive rights intended to be afforded to North Dakota residents. Therefore, North Dakota franchisees will not be required to waive their rights under North Dakota law.

8. The provisions of Article 23 of the Franchise Agreement and Article VIII of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement which require a franchisee to consent to (1) a waiver of trial by jury and (2) a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages are contrary to Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law and are hereby deleted.

9. The provisions of Article 23 of the Franchise Agreement and Article 8 of the Multi-Unit Development Agreement which require a franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims are hereby amended to state that the statute of limitations under North Dakota law applies.

10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders
Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary
Ontario, Canada

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary, which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2024, and the related consolidated statements of income and retained earnings and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2024, and the results of its income and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary, and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

(See independent auditor's report.)

1. ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. ("Blo"), a Delaware corporation, was incorporated for the purposes of offering Blo Blow Dry Bar franchises. Blo grants franchises to qualified individuals and businesses in conjunction with the service mark "Blo Blow Dry Bar" and certain associated logos (collectively referred to as the "Marks"). The Marks are owned by an affiliate, Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc., a Canadian Corporation, which has licensed them to Blo in order to sublicense them to franchisees and development agents.

Blo Blow Dry Bar franchisees are full-service blow dry businesses having a distinct interior and exterior design and offering for sale to the public hair styling, cleansing products and accessories.

During the year ended March 31, 2017, Blo formed a subsidiary BBDB, LLC ("BBDB"). BBDB is wholly-owned by Blo and was formed to manage and operate franchise locations in the United States. During the year ended December 31, 2024, BBDB was operating two locations in Denver, Colorado and Salt Lake City, Utah.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Consolidation - The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Blo and its wholly-owned subsidiary BBDB (collectively "the Company"). All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Basis of Accounting - The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash - The Company maintains its cash in demand deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

Accounts Receivable - Accounts receivable is stated at the amount the Company expects to collect from balances outstanding at year end. Management closely monitors outstanding balances and writes off amounts they consider to be uncollectible. During the year ended December 31, 2024, management believed $36,916 was uncollectible and recorded bad debt expense for that amount. The Company uses the direct write-off method for bad debts which approximates the reserve method.

Revenue Recognition - In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASU 2014-09"), which requires the Organization to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. ASU 2014-09 establishes Accounting Standards Codification Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). ASC 606 replaces most of the previous revenue recognition guidance under GAAP, including all industry specific guidance. The Organization adopted ASC 606 effective January 1, 2019. ASC 606 requires following a five-step process to recognize revenue: 1) identify the contract with the customer, 2) identify the performance obligations, 3) determine the transaction price, 4) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations and 5) recognize revenue when the performance obligations are satisfied.

Franchising operations - In connection with its franchising operations, the Company receives initial franchise fees, royalties, and other ongoing fees.

Franchise fees, which are typically received prior to completion of the revenue recognition process, are initially recorded as unearned revenue. Initial franchise fees, which are non-refundable, are recognized as income when substantially all services to be performed by the Company and conditions relating to the sale of the franchise have been performed or satisfied, which generally occurs when the franchised outlet commences operations. At December 31, 2024, unearned revenue related to franchising operations totaled $900,966. Remaining deferred revenue of $124,159 is related to deposits/payments received from sponsors and franchisees in 2024 for the annual franchisee meeting scheduled for February 2025.

The following services are typically provided by the Company prior to the opening of a franchised location:

- Approval of all site selections to be developed.
- Provision of concept drawings for outlets to be developed.
- Assistance in establishing building design specifications, reviewing construction compliance and equipping the outlet.
- Provision of appropriate menus to coordinate with the Company design and location to be developed.
- Provision of management training for the new franchisee and selected staff.
- Assistance with the initial operations.

The following is a summary of the franchise opening and closing for the Company for the year ended December 31, 2024:

Franchised outlets operating at the beginning of the year	90
New franchised outlets opened during the year	14
Franchised outlets closed during the year	(3)
Franchised outlets operating at the end of the year	101

The Company recognizes franchise royalties on a monthly basis, which are generally based upon a percentage of sales made by the Company's franchisees, when they are earned and deemed collectible.

Income Taxes - The Company adheres to Financial Accounting Standards Board Codification No. 810-10, which prescribes a recognition threshold and a measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The amount recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company determined it had no uncertain tax positions that would materially be affected by this standard.

BLO BLOW DRY BAR INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes (continued) - Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

The Company is no longer subject to federal and state tax examination by taxing authorities for all returns filed, for the years ending December 31, 2021 and prior.

Leases - The Company adopted ASC 842, Leases, effective January 1, 2022, as required for private companies. This standard requires lessees to recognize a right-of-use (ROU) asset, representing the right to use an underlying asset, and a corresponding lease liability, representing the obligation to make lease payments, on the balance sheet. Lease expenses are recognized in a manner consistent with the previous guidance under ASC 840.

The Company applied the modified retrospective approach for adoption and utilized the package of practical expedients available under ASC 842. The practical expedients allowed the Company to retain historical lease classifications, forgo reassessment of embedded leases, and carry forward prior conclusions related to lease identification. Additionally, the Company elected the short-term lease exemption, which excludes leases with terms of 12 months or less from recognition on the balance sheet.

Based on the Company's evaluation of contractual agreements in place at the time of adoption and as of December 31, 2024, there was no impact of this guidance on the financial statements.

Advertising Fund - Under the franchise agreements the franchisees are required to pay the Company a percentage of their revenue towards advertising. Money collected by the Company and not yet spent on advertising was $253 as of December 31, 2024. The liability is included in other current liabilities on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Gift Certificates - Gift certificates sold by the Company within two preceding calendar years are recorded as a liability until the gift card is used at a franchisee location. Gift cards outstanding longer than two preceding calendar years are recognized as revenue and included in other, net on the accompanying statement of income and retained earnings. As of December 31, 2024, there were $154,577 in gift certificates sold but not yet redeemed. The liability is included in other current liabilities on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Use of Estimates - Management is required to make certain estimates and assumptions in order to prepare consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Such estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. The Company's most significant estimates relate to the determination of allowances for uncollectible advances. The estimation process requires assumptions to be made about future events and conditions, and as such, is inherently subjective and uncertain. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

State	51,000

Deferred Tax Liabilities:
Federal	$ 188,500
State	47,100

4. FRANCHISE AGREEMENTS

As individual franchises are sold, the Company generally provides certain services for the franchisee, including assistance in site selection, training personnel, implementation of an accounting system, and the design of a quality control program.

Prior to July 2015, the Company's franchisees operated under 5-year agreements and had the option to renew for an additional 5-year period. Subsequent to July 2015, there are 5-year agreements still in place, but all new agreements are 10 years in length with options to renew for an additional 10-year period. Pursuant to the agreements, each franchisee is required to pay an initial franchise fee, in addition to monthly royalties based on a percentage of gross sales, as defined. Upon execution of a franchise agreement, the franchisee is assigned a primary area of responsibility for one or more locations. The Company shall not establish or authorize any other person or entity, other than the franchisee, to establish a "Blo Blow Dry Bar" location in the primary area of responsibility during the term of the franchise agreement.

5. DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS

The Company also offers qualified applicants the opportunity to become a Development Agent within a defined non-exclusive, geographical area. The Development Agent is responsible for soliciting and advertising for new franchises on behalf of Blo. The Development Agent is also responsible for developing and assisting franchisees who are operating within their area and utilizing Blo's business systems, formats, methods, specifications, standard operating procedures, operating assistance and Marks. The Development Agent must own at least one Blo Blow Dry Bar within their Development Area. The Development Agent will receive a portion of the franchise fee for franchises in their Development Area, as well as a portion of the monthly royalties as defined by their agreement.

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Blo pays administrative, consulting, and royalty fees to affiliates for services performed on the Company's behalf and for use of their Marks. These fees amounted to $1,500,000 for the year ended December 31, 2024.

The Company has advanced funds to related parties. These advances are non-interest bearing with no formal repayment terms. The related parties include Blo Blow Dry Bar Holdings Inc., Lashkind Franchise, Inc., MYNC Beauty, Inc., Shine Products, Inc., Lash Appeal LLC, which are entities related through common ownership.

7. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent Events - The Company has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between January 1, 2025 and March 31, 2025, which is the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the consolidated financial statements.

(See independent auditor's report.)

1. ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. ("Blo"), a Delaware corporation, was incorporated for the purposes of offering Blo Blow Dry Bar franchises. Blo grants franchises to qualified individuals and businesses in conjunction with the service mark "Blo Blow Dry Bar" and certain associated logos (collectively referred to as the "Marks"). The Marks are owned by an affiliate, Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc., a Canadian Corporation, which has licensed them to Blo in order to sublicense them to franchises and development agents.

Blo Blow Dry Bar franchises are full-service blow dry businesses having a distinct interior and exterior design and offering for sale to the public hair styling, cleansing products and accessories.

During the year ended March 31, 2017, Blo formed a subsidiary BBDB, LLC ("BBDB"). BBDB is wholly-owned by Blo and was formed to manage and operate franchise locations in the United States. At December 31, 2023, BBDB was operating one location in Denver, Colorado.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Consolidation - The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Blo and its wholly-owned subsidiary BBDB (collectively "the Company"). All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Basis of Accounting - The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash - The Company maintains its cash in demand deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk.

Accounts Receivable - The Company grants credit to customers based upon credit appraisals and does not require collateral. The Company uses the reserve method to account for uncollectible accounts receivable and reviews its accounts on a monthly basis. Allowances for potential credit losses are determined based on historical experience, evaluation of the composition of accounts receivable and expected credit trends. When an account is deemed uncollectible, the Company charges operations. During the year ended December 31, 2023, an account was deemed uncollectible and accordingly, $38,253 was charged as a bad debt expense.

Revenue Recognition - In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASU 2014-09"), which requires the Organization to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. ASU 2014-09 establishes Accounting Standards Codification Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). ASC 606 replaces most of the previous revenue recognition guidance under GAAP, including all industry specific guidance. The Organization adopted ASC 606 effective January 1, 2019. ASC 606 requires following a five-step process to recognize revenue: 1) identify the contract with the customer, 2) identify the performance obligations, 3) determine the transaction price, 4) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations and 5) recognize revenue when the performance obligations are satisfied.

Franchising operations - In connection with its franchising operations, the Company receives initial franchise fees, royalties, and other ongoing fees.

Franchise fees, which are typically received prior to completion of the revenue recognition process, are initially recorded as unearned revenue. Initial franchise fees, which are non-refundable, are recognized as income when substantially all services to be performed by the Company and conditions relating to the sale of the franchise have been performed or satisfied, which generally occurs when the franchised outlet commences operations. At December 31, 2023, unearned revenue related to franchising operations totaled $890,966. Remaining deferred revenue of $73,166 is related to deposits/payments received from sponsors and franchisees in 2023 for the annual franchisee meeting scheduled for February 2024.

The following services are typically provided by the Company prior to the opening of a franchised location:

- Approval of all site selections to be developed.
- Provision of concept drawings for outlets to be developed.
- Assistance in establishing building design specifications, reviewing construction compliance and equipping the outlet.
- Provision of appropriate menus to coordinate with the Company design and location to be developed.
- Provision of management training for the new franchisee and selected staff.
- Assistance with the initial operations.

The following is a summary of the franchise opening and closing for the Company for the year ended December 31, 2023:

	2023
Franchised outlets operating at the beginning of the year	81
New franchised outlets opened during the year	11
Franchised outlets closed during the year	(2)
Franchised outlets operating at the end of the year	90

The Company recognizes franchise royalties on a monthly basis, which are generally based upon a percentage of sales made by the Company's franchisees, when they are earned and deemed collectible.

Income Taxes - The Company adheres to Financial Accounting Standards Board Codification No. 810-10, which prescribes a recognition threshold and a measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The amount recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company determined it had no uncertain tax positions that would materially be affected by this standard.

BLO BLOW DRY BAR INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes (continued) - Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

The Company is no longer subject to federal and state tax examination by taxing authorities for all returns filed, for the years ending December 31, 2019 and prior.

Leases - In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) (“ASU 2016-02”), along with various amendments since. Collectively, “ASC 842.” This standard requires lessees to record leases on their balance sheets but recognize the expenses on their income statements in a manner similar to current practice. This lease guidance states that a lessee would recognize a lease liability for the obligation to make lease payments and a right-of-use asset for the right to use the underlying asset for the lease term.

The Company adopted the new standard on January 1, 2022, as required for private companies, and applied the modified retrospective approach along with the package of transition practical expedients. The Company also elected the short-term lease exemption and does not recognize leases with terms less than one year on the balance sheet. The modified retrospective application is applied to the current year and there is no prior period impact of the adoption. Based on the Company’s evaluation of contractual agreements in place as of January 1, 2022, there was no impact of this guidance on the financial statements. This evaluation remains consistent as of December 31, 2023.

Advertising Fund - Under the franchise agreements the franchisees are required to pay the Company a percentage of their revenue towards advertising. Money collected by the Company and not yet spent on advertising was $67,446 as of December 31, 2023. The liability is included in other current liabilities on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Gift Certificates - Gift certificates sold by the Company are recorded as a liability until the gift card is used at a franchisee location. As of December 31, 2023, there were $272,518 in gift certificates sold but not yet redeemed. The liability is included in other current liabilities on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Use of Estimates - Management is required to make certain estimates and assumptions in order to prepare consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Such estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. The Company's most significant estimates relate to the determination of allowances for uncollectible advances. The estimation process requires assumptions to be made about future events and conditions, and as such, is inherently subjective and uncertain. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events - The Company has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between January 1, 2024 and March 18, 2024 which is the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the consolidated financial statements.

3. INCOME TAXES

The provision for income taxes consisted of the following for the year ended December 31:

	2023
Current:
Federal	$ -
State	-
	<hr/>
Deferred:
Federal	$ 99,000
State	21,000
	<hr/>
	120,000
Provision for income taxes	$ 120,000

The provision for income taxes differs from the amount of income tax determined by applying statutory rates to pretax income primarily due to certain non-taxable income and non-deductible expenses. Amounts for deferred tax assets are as follows at December 31, 2023:

Deferred Tax Assets:
Federal	$ 15,400
State	4,000
	<hr/>
	$ 19,400

4. FRANCHISE AGREEMENTS

As individual franchises are sold, the Company generally provides certain services for the franchisee, including assistance in site selection, training personnel, implementation of an accounting system, and the design of a quality control program.

Prior to July 2015, the Company's franchisees operated under 5-year agreements and had the option to renew for an additional 5-year period. Subsequent to July 2015, there are 5-year agreements still in place, but all new agreements are 10 years in length with options to renew for an additional 10-year period. Pursuant to the agreements, each franchisee is required to pay an initial franchise fee, in addition to monthly royalties based on a percentage of gross sales, as defined. Upon execution of a franchise agreement, the franchisee is assigned a primary area of responsibility for one or more locations. The Company shall not establish or authorize any other person or entity, other than the franchisee, to establish a "Blo Blow Dry Bar" location in the primary area of responsibility during the term of the franchise agreement.

5. DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS

The Company also offers qualified applicants the opportunity to become a Development Agent within a defined non-exclusive, geographical area. The Development Agent is responsible for soliciting and advertising for new franchises on behalf of Blo. The Development Agent is also responsible for developing and assisting franchisees who are operating within their area and utilizing Blo's business systems, formats, methods, specifications, standard operating procedures, operating assistance and Marks. The Development Agent must own at least one Blo Blow Dry Bar within their Development Area. The Development Agent will receive a portion of the franchise fee for franchises in their Development Area, as well as a portion of the monthly royalties as defined by their agreement.

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Blo pays administrative, consulting, and royalty fees to affiliates for services performed on the Company's behalf and for use of their Marks. These fees amounted to $1,500,000 for the year ended December 31, 2023.

The Company has advanced funds to related parties. These advances are non-interest bearing with no formal repayment terms. The related parties include Blo Blow Dry Bar Holdings Inc., Lashkind Franchise, Inc., MYNC Beauty, Inc., and Shine Products, Inc, which are entities related through common ownership.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary
Ontario, Canada

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary, which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2022, and the related consolidated statements of income and retained earnings and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2022, and the results of its income and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary, and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. and Subsidiary's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Income Taxes - The Company adheres to Financial Accounting Standards Board Codification No. 810-10, which prescribes a recognition threshold and a measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The amount recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company determined it had no uncertain tax positions that would materially be affected by this standard.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences attributable to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

The Company is no longer subject to federal and state tax examination by taxing authorities for all returns filed, for the years ending December 31, 2018 and prior.

Leases - In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) (“ASU 2016-02”), along with various amendments since. Collectively, “ASC 842.” This standard requires lessees to record leases on their balance sheets but recognize the expenses on their income statements in a manner similar to current practice. This lease guidance states that a lessee would recognize a lease liability for the obligation to make lease payments and a right-of-use asset for the right to use the underlying asset for the lease term.

The Company adopted the new standard on January 1, 2022, as required for private companies, and applied the modified retrospective approach along with the package of transition practical expedients. The Company also elected the short-term lease exemption and does not recognize leases with terms less than one year on the balance sheet. The modified retrospective application is applied to the current year and there is no prior period impact of the adoption. Based on the Company’s evaluation of contractual agreements in place as of January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022, there was no impact of this guidance on the financial statements.

Advertising Fund - Under the franchise agreements the franchisees are required to pay the Company a percentage of their revenue towards advertising. 2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Use of Estimates - Management is required to make certain estimates and assumptions in order to prepare consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Such estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. The Company's most significant estimates relate to the determination of allowances for uncollectible advances. The estimation process requires assumptions to be made about future events and conditions, and as such, is inherently subjective and uncertain. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events - The Company has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between January 1, 2023 and February 28, 2023 which is the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the consolidated financial statements.

3. INCOME TAXES

The benefit from income taxes consisted of the following for the year ended December 31:

	2022
Current:
Federal	$ -
State	-
	<hr/>
Deferred:
Federal	$ 58,000
State	17,400
	<hr/>
	77,400
Benefit from income taxes	$ 77,400

The provision for income taxes differs from the amount of income tax determined by applying statutory rates to pretax income primarily due to certain non-taxable income and non-deductible expenses. Amounts for deferred tax assets are as follows at December 31, 2022:

Deferred Tax Assets:
Federal	$ 104,500
State	34,900

We shall be entitled to require that nothing contained in any lease or purchase agreement is contradictory to, or likely to interfere with, our rights or your duties under this Agreement. You shall take all actions reasonably necessary to maintain the lease, if any, of the Approved Location while this Agreement is in effect. Any default for which the lease may be terminated shall also be deemed a default here under and the time to cure the same shall expire when the lease is terminated. We have the right to require that the lease for the Approved Location be collaterally assigned by you to us, pursuant to the terms of our standard collateral assignment of lease in the form attached hereto as Exhibit E, to secure performance by you of your obligation under this Agreement. Our approval of a lease shall be conditioned upon inclusion of the terms in the lease acceptable to us and, at our option, the lease shall contain such provisions as we may reasonably require, including:

5.2.1 a provision reserving to us the right, at our election, to receive an assignment of the leasehold interest upon termination or expiration of the Franchise;

5.2.2 a provision expressly permitting the lessor of the premises to provide us all sales and other information lessor may have obtained or received relating to the operation of the Franchised Business, as we may request;

Therefore, during the term of this Agreement, neither you nor any holder of a legal or beneficial interest in you (or any member of their immediate families and households), nor any officer, director, executive, or manager of yours, either directly or indirectly, for themselves, or through, on behalf of or in conjunction with any person, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other business entity, shall:

We shall be a third-party beneficiary with the right to enforce covenants contained in such agreements.

7.5 Reasonableness of Restrictions

You acknowledge that the restrictive covenants contained in this Section are essential elements of this Agreement and that without their inclusion, we would not have entered into this Agreement. You acknowledge that each of the terms set forth herein, including the restrictive covenants, is fair and reasonable and is reasonably required for the protection of us, the Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information, the System and the Marks and you waive any right to challenge these restrictions as being overly broad, unreasonable or otherwise unenforceable. If, however, a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any such restriction is unreasonable or unenforceable, then you shall submit to the reduction of any such activity, time period or geographic restriction necessary to enable the court to enforce such restrictions to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. It is the desire and intent of the parties that the provisions of this Agreement shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in any jurisdiction where enforcement is sought.

We may require you to pay a portion of the Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure directly to vendors we designate. The Grand Opening Advertising campaign will generally begin approximately two (2) months before the scheduled opening date and continue for approximately three (3) months following the opening of the Franchised Business. The Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure is non-refundable. You are not permitted to use any advertising materials, including grand opening materials, unless you have submitted the materials first to us for our review and approval, and you have received written approval. If we do not respond within fifteen (15) days of your submission, the materials are deemed disapproved. After the expiration of the 12-month anniversary of the opening date, we may, in our discretion, lower the Local Advertising expenditure requirement to $1,000 or such other lower amount as we designate. You must spend at least $1,000 per month with our currently approved Digital Marketing provider Eulerity for the 12 months following your Grand Opening Advertising Expenditure and $750 per month on Eulerity thereafter. Within thirty (30) days of a request from us, you shall provide us with evidence of your Local Advertising expenditures, including verification copies of the advertising, receipts of expenditures, and any other information that we may require. We reserve the right to require you to pay the Local Advertising Expenditure directly to us or our affiliate, in which event we and/or our affiliate will expend the Local Advertising Expenditure amount for advertising, promotions and public relations in the local area surrounding the Franchised Business.

11.2.2 All advertising must be completely ethical and not misleading, must be conducted professionally and must conform to our standards. Any advertising that has not been furnished by us or that we have not approved within the preceding twelve (12) months must be submitted to us for our review. We will have fifteen (15) days after our receipt of the materials to advise you whether they are approved or not. If we do not provide you with oral or written approval within these fifteen (15) days, the materials are deemed not approved. Any advertising or promotional materials you provide to us for our review will become our property, and there will be no restriction on our use or dissemination of these materials. We reserve the right to require you to include certain language in your advertising, including, but not limited to, "Franchises Available", our Website address and our telephone number.

11.2.3 You shall prominently display at the Franchised Business any franchise brochures that we provide, at our cost, including brochures related to the franchise opportunity offered by us.

11.2.4 You are not permitted to market, advertise or promote the Franchised Business outside of the Protected Territory unless you receive our prior written approval, which we may grant, revoke or withhold in our sole and absolute discretion.

11.3 Advertising Fund

We have established the Advertising Fund, as defined in Section 3.3. The Advertising Fund shall be maintained and administered by us or our designee as follows:

11.3.1 We shall oversee all marketing programs, with sole control over the creative concepts, materials and media used in such programs, and the placement and allocation thereof. We do not guarantee that any particular franchisee will benefit directly or pro rata from expenditures by the Advertising Fund. The program(s) may be local, regional or System-wide.

11.3.2 Your Advertising Fund Contributions may be used to meet the costs of, or reimburse us for our costs of, producing, maintaining, administering and directing consumer advertising (including, without limitation, the cost of developing, supporting and/or administering mobile applications; preparing and conducting television, radio, Internet, magazine, newspaper, and direct mail advertising campaigns and other advertising and public relations activities; developing and/or hosting an Internet web page or site and similar activities; employing advertising agencies to assist therein; providing promotional brochures; conducting market research; attending franchise conventions and industry conventions; salaries and compensation for employees performing marketing and promotional related duties or functions and providing other marketing materials to franchisees). We may conduct all advertising and public relations in-house, or we may use a national or regional advertising or public relations agency. All Advertising Fund Contributions shall be maintained in a separate account from our monies and shall not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except we may use Advertising Fund Contributions for administrative costs and fees of up to 15% of Advertising Fund Contributions, in addition to salaries and overhead related to the administration of the Advertising Fund, and reasonable costs and expenses, if any, that we may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration of the Advertising Fund.

11.3.3 We shall endeavor to spend all Advertising Fund Contributions on marketing programs and promotions during our fiscal year within which such contributions are made. If excess amounts remain in any Advertising Fund at the end of such a fiscal year, then such amounts shall carry forward to the next fiscal year.

11.3.4 Although we intend the Advertising Fund, if established, to be of perpetual duration, we have the right to terminate the Advertising Fund at any time. The Advertising Fund shall not be terminated, however, until all Advertising Fund Contributions have been expended for advertising and promotional purposes or returned to you, other franchisees and company or Affiliate-owned units on a pro rata basis based on total Advertising Fund Contributions made in the aggregate by each contributor.

11.3.5 While we will not use Advertising Fund contributions principally for the purpose of soliciting franchise sales, we may include statements about the availability of information regarding the franchise opportunity and the purchase of a franchise in any advertising, promotional or other items produced, circulated and/or distributed using Advertising Fund Contributions. Each Blo Blow Dry Bar operated by us or our Affiliates shall make Advertising Fund Contributions at the same rate as franchisees. Vendors and suppliers may, if we permit, contribute to the Advertising Fund.

11.3.6 An unaudited statement of the Advertising Fund shall be prepared annually, and we will provide you with a copy within a reasonable time after the statement's issuance if you request a copy on or before March 31st of the following year. You will not be entitled to receive the statement if you fail to submit the written request to us in a timely manner. We may require that the annual accounting be audited by an independently certified public accountant at the expense of the Advertising Fund.

11.3.7 You acknowledge that the Advertising Fund is not a trust and we assume no fiduciary duty in administering the Advertising Fund.

11.4 Cooperative Advertising

We have the right, but not the obligation, to create a Cooperative Advertising program for the benefit of Franchised Businesses located within a particular region, or we may approve of such a Cooperative formed by franchisees within a particular region. If a Cooperative is formed for an area that includes the Protected Territory, then you shall participate in and contribute to the Cooperative. We will determine the amount and frequency of contributions that its members must make to the Cooperative, and how this money is spent. Any amount that you contribute to a Cooperative will count toward your Local Advertising requirement described in Section 11.2 above; however, if the amount you contribute to a Cooperative is less than the amount you are required to expend on Local Advertising, you must nevertheless spend the difference locally. We will retain the authority to create, change, merge or dissolve any advertising cooperative.

11.5 Website

Accordingly, you shall provide or offer for use at the Franchised Business only those products, supplies, signs, equipment and other items and services that we from time to time approve (and that are not thereafter disapproved) and that comply with our specifications and quality standards. If required by us, any such items or services shall be purchased only from Approved Suppliers that we designate or approve (which might include, or be limited to, us or an Affiliate). You must carry an inventory of designated items and products which you must purchase from our approved and designated suppliers, which items and/or products may include hair care products, styling tools, accessories, make-up and other designated inventory items. You shall not offer for sale, sell or provide through the Franchised Business or from the Approved Location any products or services that we have not approved, and you shall not use any unapproved products, styling tools, make-up or inventory items in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business.

13.1.4 We have the right to designate certain programs, products and/or services not otherwise authorized for general use as part of the System to be offered locally or regionally based upon such factors as we determine including, but not limited to, franchisee qualifications, test marketing and regional or local differences. We have the right to give our consent to one (1) or more franchisees to provide certain products or services not authorized for general use as part of the System. Such consent will be based upon the factors set forth in Section 10.3 and shall not create any rights in you to provide the same products or services.

13.1.5 We may authorize you, as we determine appropriate in our sole and absolute discretion, to offer additional and/or ancillary approved services which are in addition to and different from the services you are required to offer in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business (e.g., hair extension services) (the "Ancillary Services") in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business. 16.1.9 You fail to maintain the Franchised Business under the primary supervision of a General Manager during the one hundred eighty (180) days following the death or incapacity of you or any holder of a legal or beneficial interest in you pursuant to Section 18.6;

16.1.10 You submit to us on two (2) or more separate occasions at any time during the term of the Franchise any reports or other data, information or supporting records that understate any Royalty Fee or any other fees owed to us by two percent (2%) or more for any accounting period and you are unable to demonstrate that such understatements resulted from inadvertent error;

16.1.11 You, or any of your partners, if you are a partnership, or any of your officers, directors, shareholders, or members, if you are a corporation or limited liability company, shall become insolvent or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by you or such a petition is filed against and not opposed by you; if you are adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver or other custodian for you or your business or assets is filed and consented to by you; if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of your assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law should be instituted by or against you; if a final judgment remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless supersedeas bond is filed); if you are dissolved; if execution is levied against your business or property; if suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the premises or equipment is instituted against you and not dismissed within thirty (30) days; or if the real or personal property of the Franchised Business shall be sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal, or constable.

16.1.12 You misuse or make any unauthorized use of any of the Marks or commit any other act that can reasonably be expected to impair the goodwill associated with any of the Marks;

16.1.13 You fail on two (2) or more separate occasions within any period of twelve (12) consecutive months to submit reports or other information or supporting records when due, to pay any Royalty Fee, Advertising Fund Contribution, amounts due for purchases from us and/or any Affiliate, or other payment when due to us and/or any Affiliate, whether or not such failures to comply are corrected after notice thereof is delivered to you;

16.1.14 You, after receiving notice of violation, continue to violate any health or safety law, ordinance or regulation, or operate the Franchised Business in a manner that presents a health or safety hazard to clients, employees or the public after having received notice of such health or safety hazards from us or any governmental authority;

16.1.15 You fail to comply with any applicable law or regulation within ten (10) days after being given notice of non-compliance or fail to comply with all applicable laws and ordinances relating to the Franchised Business, including Anti-Terrorism Laws, or if your or any of your owners' assets, property, or interests are blocked under any law, ordinance, or regulation relating to terrorist activities, or you or any of your owners otherwise violate any such law, ordinance, or regulation;

16.1.16 You repeatedly breach this Agreement or repeatedly fail to comply with mandatory specifications, customer service standards or operating procedures prescribed in the Manual, whether or not previous breaches or failures are cured;

16.1.17 You default under any other agreement between us (or any Affiliate) and you, such that we or our Affiliate, as the case may be, have the right to terminate such agreement or such agreement automatically terminates; or 16.1.18 You engage in any activity exclusively reserved to us.

16.2 Termination by Us – Opportunity to Cure

Except as otherwise provided in Section 16.1, we have the right to terminate this Agreement for the following breaches and defaults by giving notice of such termination stating the nature of the default; provided, however, that you may avoid termination by curing such default or failure (or by providing proof acceptable to us that you have made all reasonable efforts to cure such default or failure and shall continue to make all reasonable efforts to cure until a cure is effected if such default or failure cannot reasonably be cured before the effective date of the termination) within the specified period:

16.2.1 within five (5) days of receiving notice of your failure to pay any amount due to us; or 16.2.2 within thirty (30) days of receiving notice of any other default by you under this Agreement or upon your failure to substantially comply with any mandatory specification, standard or operating procedure prescribed in the Manual or otherwise prescribed in writing.

16.3 Reinstatement and Extension

If provisions of this Agreement provide for periods of notice less than those required by applicable law, or provide for termination, cancellation or non-renewal other than in accordance with applicable law, we may reinstate or extend the term of this Agreement for the purpose of complying with applicable law by submitting a written notice to you without waiving any of our rights under this Agreement.

16.4 Our Right to Discontinue Services to You

If we deliver to you a notice of termination pursuant to this Article 16, then in addition to our other remedies, we have the right to suspend our performance of any of our obligations under this Agreement including, without limitation, the sale or supply of any services or products for which we are or an Affiliate is an Approved Supplier to you, until such time as you correct the breach.

16.5 Cross Defaults, Non-Exclusive Remedies, etc.

Any default by you (or any person/company affiliated with you) under this Agreement may be regarded as a default under any other agreement between us (or any of our Affiliates) and you (or any of your Affiliates). Any default by you (or any person/company affiliated with you) under any other agreement, including, but not limited to, any lease and/or sublease, between us (or any of our Affiliates) and you (or any person/company affiliated with you), and any default by you (or any person/company affiliated with you) under any obligation to us (or any of our Affiliates) may be regarded as a default under this Agreement. Any default by you (or any person/company affiliated with you) under any lease, sublease, loan agreement, security interest or otherwise, whether with us, any of our Affiliates and/or any third party may be regarded as a default under this Agreement and/or any other agreement between us (or any of our Affiliates) and you (or any of your Affiliates).

In each of the foregoing cases, we (and any of our Affiliates) will have all remedies allowed at law, including termination of your rights (and/or those of any person/company affiliated with you) and our (and/or our Affiliates') obligations. No right or remedy which we may have (including termination) is exclusive of any other right or remedy provided under law or equity, and we may pursue any rights and/or remedies available.

16.6 Peer Compliance Committee

We may establish a Peer Compliance Committee (the “PCC”) to review certain claims you or we may make against each other. If we establish the PCC, and we believe you have violated any of your obligations under this Agreement, we may submit that claim to the PCC. If the PCC determines a breach occurred, the PCC may levy a fine against you of up to Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250). If you do not timely cure the default, or breach the provision again, the next fine can be up to Five Hundred Dollars ($500). All funds collected by the PCC will be donated to charity.

ARTICLE 17 RIGHTS AND DUTIES UPON EXPIRATION OR TERMINATION

17.1 Actions to be Taken

Except as otherwise provided herein, upon termination or expiration of the Franchise, this Agreement and all rights granted hereunder to you shall terminate and you shall:

17.1.1 immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold yourself out as a present or former franchisee of ours;

17.1.2 cease to use the Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information, the System, the Trade Dress (including proprietary millwork) and the Marks including, without limitation, all signs, slogans, symbols, logos, advertising materials, stationery, forms and any other items that display or are associated with the Marks. You acknowledge and agree that you are not permitted to use or to sell the proprietary millwork or other Trade Dress items;

17.1.3 upon demand by us, immediately assign (or, if an assignment is prohibited, sublease for the full remaining term, and on the same terms and conditions as your lease) your interest in the lease then in effect for the Approved Location to us and you shall furnish us with evidence satisfactory to us of compliance with this obligation within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement, and we have the right to pay rent and other expenses directly to the party to whom such payment is ultimately due;

17.1.4 take such action as may be necessary to cancel or assign to us, at our option, any assumed name or equivalent registration filed with state, city or county authorities that contains the name “Blo Blow Dry Bar” or any other Marks, and you shall furnish us with evidence satisfactory to us of compliance with this obligation within thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement;

17.1.5 pay all sums owing to us and any Affiliate, which may include, but not be limited to, all pre-paid obligations incurred through the purchase of gift cards, and or loyalty programs, damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, unpaid Royalty Fees, amounts owed for the purchase of products, and any other amounts due to us or any Affiliates;

17.1.6 pay to us all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, incurred by us subsequent to the termination or expiration of the Franchise in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement;

17.1.7 immediately return to us the Manual, Trade Secrets and all other Confidential Information including records, files, instructions, brochures, agreements, disclosure statements and any and all other materials provided by us to you relating to the operation of the Franchised Business (all of which are acknowledged to be our property);

17.1.8 assign all telephone listings and numbers for the Franchised Business to us and shall notify the telephone company and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of your right to use any telephone numbers or facsimile numbers associated with the Marks in any regular, classified or other telephone directory listing and shall authorize transfer of same to us or at our direction; and 17.1.9 comply with all other provisions of this Agreement applicable following termination or expiration.

17.2 Post-Termination Covenant Not to Compete

You acknowledge that the restrictive covenants contained in this Section and in Article 7 are fair and reasonable and are justifiably required for purposes including, but not limited to, (i) to protect our Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information; (ii) to induce us to grant a Franchise to you; and (iii) to protect us against our costs in training you and your officers, directors, executives, professional staff and General Managers.

You waive any right to challenge these restrictions as being overly broad, unreasonable or otherwise unenforceable. If, however, a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any such restriction is unreasonable or unenforceable, then you shall submit to the reduction of any such activity, time period or geographic restriction necessary to enable the court to enforce such restrictions to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. It is the desire and intent of the parties that the provisions of this Agreement shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in any jurisdiction where enforcement is sought.

Except as otherwise approved in writing by us, neither you, nor any holder of a legal or beneficial interest in you, nor any officer, director, executive, manager or member of the professional staff of yours, shall, for a period of two (2) years after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of termination, either directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of or in conjunction with, any person, persons, partnership, corporation, limited liability company or other business entity:

17.2.1 own an interest in, managing, operate or provide services to any Competitive Business located or operating (a) within a twenty-five (25) mile radius of the Approved Location (or within the Protected Territory, if greater), or (b) within a twenty-five (25) mile radius of the location of any other Franchised Business in existence at the time of termination or expiration; or

17.2.2 solicit or otherwise attempt to induce or influence any employee or other business associate of ours to terminate or modify his, her or its business relationship with us or to compete against us.

In furtherance of this Section, we have the right to require certain individuals to execute standard form nondisclosure or non-competition agreements the same as or similar to the standard form Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement attached as Exhibit B.

17.3 Relief for Breaches of Confidentiality, Non-Solicitation and Non-Competition

You acknowledge that an actual or threatened violation of the covenants contained in Article 7 of this Agreement will cause us immediate and irreparable harm, damage and injury that cannot be fully compensated for by an award of damages or other remedies at law. Accordingly, we shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to an injunction from any court of competent jurisdiction restraining any further violation by you of this Agreement, and such right to an injunction shall be cumulative and in addition to, and not in limitation of, any other rights and remedies that we may have at law or in equity.

17.4 Unfair Competition

If you operate any other business, you shall not use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of the Marks, either in connection with such other business or the promotion thereof, that is likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception, or that is likely to dilute our or the owner's rights in the Marks. You shall not utilize any designation of origin, description or representation that falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with us. This Section is not intended as an approval of your right to operate other businesses and in no way is it intended to contradict Section 17.1 or 17.2.

17.5 De-Identification of Approved Location

If we elect not to receive an assignment or sublease of the Approved Location, you shall make such modifications or alterations to the Approved Location (including changing telephone and facsimile numbers) immediately upon termination or expiration of this Agreement as may be necessary to prevent any association between us or the System and any business subsequently operated by you or others at the Approved Location.

You should make such specific additional changes to the Approved Location as we may reasonably request for that purpose including, without limitation, removal of all our proprietary millwork, physical and structural features identifying or distinctive to the System. If you fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of this Section, we have the right to enter upon the Approved Location for the purpose of making or causing such changes to be made as may be required, at your expense, which expense you shall pay upon demand.

17.6 Our Option to Purchase Certain Business Assets

We have the right (but not the duty), for a period of thirty (30) days after termination or expiration of this Agreement, to purchase any or all assets of the Franchised Business including leasehold improvements, equipment, supplies and other inventory. The purchase price shall be equal to the assets' book value, excluding any goodwill. If we elect to exercise this option to purchase, we have the right to set off all amounts due from you under this Agreement, if any, against the purchase price.

17.7 Survival of Certain Provisions

All obligations of us and you that expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding their expiration or termination and until satisfied or by their nature expire.

17.8 Liquidated Damages

Upon termination of this Agreement according to its terms and conditions, you agree to pay to us within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of this Agreement's termination, in addition to the amounts owed hereunder, liquidated damages equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees you paid or owed to us during the twelve (12) months of operation preceding the effective date of termination multiplied by (a) twenty-four (24) (being the number of months in two (2) full years), or (b) the number of months remaining in the Agreement had it not been terminated, whichever is higher.

The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that it would be impracticable to determine precisely the damages we would incur from this Agreement's termination and the loss of cash flow from Royalty Fees due to, among other things, the complications of determining what costs, if any, we might have saved and how much the Royalty Fees would have grown over what would have been this Agreement's remaining term. The parties hereto consider these liquidated damages provision to be a reasonable, good faith pre-estimate of those damages.

The liquidated damages provision only covers our damages from the loss of cash flow from the Royalty Fees. It does not cover any other damages, including damages to our reputation with the public and landlords and damages arising from a violation of any provision of this Agreement other than the Royalty Fee section. You and each of your owners agree that the liquidated damages provision does not give us an adequate remedy at law for any default under, or for the enforcement of, any provision of this Agreement other than the Royalty Fee section.

ARTICLE 18 TRANSFERABILITY OF INTEREST

18.1 Transfer by Us

This Agreement and all rights and duties hereunder are fully transferable in whole or in part by us and such rights will inure to the benefit of any person or entity to whom transferred; provided, however, that with respect to any assignment resulting in the subsequent performance by the assignee of our functions, the assignee shall assume our obligations hereunder and we shall thereafter have no liability for the performance of any obligations contained in this Agreement subject to applicable state law and our right of first refusal pursuant to Article 19.

18.2 Transfer by You to a Third Party

Your rights and duties as set forth in this Agreement, and the Franchise herein granted, are personal to you (or your owners), and we have entered into this Agreement in reliance upon your personal or collective skill and financial ability. Accordingly, neither you nor any holder of a legal or beneficial interest in you may sell, assign, convey, give away, pledge, mortgage, sublicense or otherwise transfer, whether by operation of law or otherwise, any interest in this Agreement, the Franchise granted hereby, the Approved Location used in operating the Franchised Business, its assets or any part or all of the ownership interest in you without our prior written approval; provided that transfer by and between legal or beneficial owners shall be permissible and shall not require our consent. Any purported transfer without such approval shall be null and void and shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. If you are in compliance with this Agreement, our consent to such transfer shall be conditioned upon the satisfaction of the following requirements:

18.2.1 you have complied with the requirements set forth in Article 19;

18.2.2 all obligations owed to us, and all other outstanding obligations relating to the Franchised Business, are fully paid and satisfied;

18.2.3 you (and any transferring owners, if you are a business entity) have executed a general release of any and all claims against us, including our officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, partners, owners and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities including, without limitation, claims arising under federal, state or local laws, rules or ordinances, and any other matters incident to the termination of this Agreement or to the transfer of your interest herein or to the transfer of your ownership of all or any part of the Franchise;

18.2.4 the prospective transferee has satisfied us that it meets our management, business and financial standards, and otherwise possesses the character and capabilities, including business reputation and credit rating, as we may require to demonstrate ability to conduct the Franchised Business and prospective transferee/assignee has satisfied our training requirements;

18.2.5 the transferee and, if we require, all persons owning any interest in the transferee, have at our option, executed the then-current Franchise Agreement for new franchisees, which may be substantially different from this Agreement, including different Royalty Fee and Advertising Fund Contribution rates and other material provisions, of this Agreement. If a new franchise agreement is executed, we have the right to limit its term to the remaining term of this Agreement;

18.2.6 the transferee has executed a general release of any and all claims against us and our officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, partners, owners and employees, in their corporate and individual capacities, with respect to any representations regarding the Franchise or the business conducted pursuant thereto or any other matter that may have been made to the transferee by you;

18.2.7 you have provided us with a complete copy of all contracts and agreements and related documentation between you and the prospective transferee relating to the intended sale or transfer of the Franchise;

18.2.8 you have paid to us, together with your request for approval of the transfer, a transfer fee equal to fifty percent (50%) of our then-current Franchise Fee, plus any applicable broker or commission fees;

18.2.9 unless a new Franchise Agreement is signed, the transferee, or all holders of a legal or beneficial interest in the transferee, has agreed to be personally bound jointly and severally by all provisions of this Agreement for the remainder of its term;

18.2.10 you have agreed to be bound to the obligations of the new franchise agreement and to guarantee full performance thereof by the transferee, if required by us;

18.2.11 the transferee has obtained all necessary consents and approvals by third parties (such as the lessor of the Approved Location) and all applicable federal, state and local laws, rules, ordinances and requirements applicable to the transfer have been complied with or satisfied;

18.2.12 you have, and if you are an entity, all of the holders of a legal and beneficial interest in you have, executed and delivered to us a confidentiality and non-competition agreement in a form the same as or similar to the standard form Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement attached as Exhibit B;

18.2.13 the transferee agrees that its General Manager shall complete, to our reasonable satisfaction, a training program in substance similar to the initial training described in Section 8.1 prior to assuming the management of the day-to-day operation of the Franchised Business;

18.2.14 the transferee has, at our request, remodeled, refurbished, redecorated and/or modernized the Franchised Business to meet our then-current image for all Franchised Businesses; and

18.2.15 the transferee, if required by us, has executed a Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no transfer from a transferee to a third party shall be permitted during the first year of this Agreement.

Our consent to a transfer of any interest in this Agreement, or of any ownership interest in the Franchised Business, shall not constitute a waiver of any claims we may have against the transferor or the transferee, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of our right to demand compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

18.3 Transfer to a Controlled Entity

If you wish to transfer this Agreement or any interest herein to a corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity (“Controlled Entity”), which Controlled Entity was formed for the convenience of your ownership of the Franchise, financial planning, tax or other convenience, our consent to such transfer shall be conditioned upon the satisfaction of the following requirements subject to applicable state law:

18.3.1 the Controlled Entity is newly organized, and its charter provides that its activities are confined exclusively to the operation of the Franchised Business;

18.3.2 you or all holders of a legal or beneficial interest in your own all of the equity and voting power of the outstanding stock or other capital interest in the Controlled Entity;

18.3.3 all of your obligations to us or any Affiliate are fully paid and satisfied; provided, however, that if the transfer pursuant to this Section 18.3 occurs prior to the expiration of six (6) months following the Effective Date of this Agreement, neither you nor the Controlled Entity shall be required to pay a transfer fee as required pursuant to Section 18.2. If the transfer pursuant to this Section 18.3 occurs after the six (6) month anniversary of the Effective Date, you must pay us a transfer fee of $1,500 at the time you submit your request for approval of the transfer;

18.3.4 the Controlled Entity has entered into a written agreement with us expressly assuming the obligations of this Agreement and all other agreements relating to the operation of the Franchised Business. If the consent of any other party to any such other agreement is required, you have obtained such written consent and provided the same to us prior to our consent;

18.3.5 all holders of a legal or beneficial interest in the Controlled Entity have entered into an agreement with us jointly and severally guaranteeing the full payment of the Controlled Entity’s obligations to us and the performance by the Controlled Entity of all the obligations of this Agreement;

18.3.6 each stock certificate or other ownership interest certificate of the Controlled Entity has conspicuously endorsed upon the face thereof a statement in a form satisfactory to us that it is held subject to, and that further assignment or transfer thereof is subject to, all restrictions imposed upon transfers and assignments by this Agreement;

18.3.7 copies of the Controlled Entity’s articles of incorporation, bylaws, operating agreement, and other governing regulations or documents, including resolutions of the board of directors authorizing entry into this Agreement, have been promptly furnished to us. Any amendment to any such documents shall also be furnished to us immediately upon adoption; and

18.3.8 the Franchise may be transferred to a Controlled Entity without payment of a transfer fee one (1) time only during the six (6) month period following the Effective Date.

The term of the transferred franchise shall be the unexpired term of this Agreement, including all renewal rights, subject to any and all conditions applicable to such renewal rights.

Our consent to a transfer of any interest in this Agreement, or of any ownership interest in the Franchised Business, shall not constitute a waiver of any claims we may have against the transferor or the transferee, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of our right to demand compliance with the terms of this Agreement.

18.4 Minority Interest Transfer Fee. If you are a legal entity and you request consent to bring on a minority owner (less than 15%) in the legal entity after signing the Franchise Agreement you must pay to us the “Minority Owner Transfer Fee” of $750, which fee is due and payable to us when you submit your request for approval. Note, if your change in ownership results in a change in control of the franchisee entity, we may charge you the full Transfer Fee.

18.5 Our Disclosure to Transferee

We have the right, without liability of any kind or nature whatsoever to you, to make available for inspection by any intended transferee of yours all or any part of our records relating to this Agreement, the Franchised Business or to the history of the relationship of the parties hereto. You hereby specifically consent to such disclosure by us and shall release and hold us harmless from and against any claim, loss or injury resulting from an inspection of our records relating to the Franchised Business by an intended transferee identified by you.

18.6 For-Sale Advertising

You shall not, without our prior written consent, place in, on or upon the location of the Franchised Business, or in any communication media, any form of advertising relating to the sale of the Franchised Business or the rights granted hereunder.

18.7 Transfer by Death or Incapacity

Upon your death or incapacity (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction), if you are an individual, or upon the death or incapacity of any holder of at least a twenty-five percent (25%) legal or beneficial interest in you, the appropriate representative of such person (whether administrator, personal representative or trustee) will, within a reasonable time not exceeding one hundred eighty (180) days following such event, transfer such individual’s interest in the Franchised Business or in you to a third party approved by us, which may be one or more individuals who would succeed to such interest under will or under the laws of intestacy. Such transfers, including transfers by will or inheritance, shall be subject to the conditions for assignments and transfers contained in this Agreement. During such one hundred eighty (180) day period, the Franchised Business must remain at all times under the primary management of a General Manager who otherwise meets our management qualifications.

18.8 Securities Offering

All materials required for a public offering by federal or state law shall be submitted to us for a limited review as discussed below prior to being filed with any governmental agency; and any materials (including any private placement memoranda) to be used in any exempt offering or private placement shall be submitted to us for such review prior to their use. No offering (public or private) by you shall imply (by use of the Marks or otherwise) that we are participating in an underwriting, issuance or offering of securities of you or us, and our review of any offering materials shall be limited solely to the subject of the relationship between you and us. We may, at our option, require your offering materials to contain a written statement prescribed by us concerning the limitations described in the preceding sentence. You, your Controlling Principals and the other participants in the offer must fully indemnify us, and our officers, directors, shareholders, partners, agents, representatives, independent contractors, servants and employees, in connection with the offering. For each proposed public or private offering, you shall reimburse us for our reasonable costs and expenses associated with reviewing the proposed offering, including, without limitation, legal and accounting fees.

ARTICLE 19 RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

19.1 Submission of Offer

If you, or any of your owners, propose to sell the Franchised Business (or any of its assets outside of the normal course of business), any ownership interest in you or any ownership interest in the Franchise granted hereunder, you shall obtain and deliver a bona fide, executed written offer or proposal to purchase, along with all pertinent documents including any contract or due diligence materials, to us. The offer must apply only to an approved sale of the assets or interests listed above and may not include any other property or rights of you or any of your owners.

19.2 Our Right to Purchase

We shall, for sixty (60) days from the date of delivery of all such documents, have the right, exercised by written notice to you, to purchase the assets or interest offered for the price and on the same terms and conditions contained in such offer communicated to you. We have the right to substitute cash for the fair market value of any form of payment proposed in such an offer. Our credit shall be deemed at least equal to the credit of any proposed buyer. After providing notice to you of our intent to exercise this right of first refusal, we shall have up to one hundred twenty (120) days to close the purchase. We shall be entitled to receive from you all customary representations and warranties given by you as the seller of the assets or such ownership interest or, at our election, such representations and warranties contained in the proposal.

19.3 Non-Exercise of Right of First Refusal

If we do not exercise this right of first refusal within sixty (60) days, the offer or proposal may be accepted by you or any of your owners, subject to our prior written approval as required by Section 18.2. Should the sale fail to close within one hundred twenty (120) days after the offer is delivered to us, or if the terms of the offer change, our right of first refusal shall renew and be implemented in accordance with this Section.

ARTICLE 20 YOUR BENEFICIAL OWNERS

You represent, and we enter into this Agreement in reliance upon such representation, that the individuals identified in Exhibit D attached hereto are holders of a legal or beneficial interest in you.

ARTICLE 21 RELATIONSHIP AND INDEMNIFICATION

21.1 Relationship

This Agreement is purely a contractual relationship between the parties and does not appoint or make you an agent, legal representative, joint ventures, partner, employee, servant or independent contractor of ours for any purpose whatsoever. You may not represent or imply to third parties that you are an agent of ours, and you are in no way authorized to make any contract, agreement, warranty or representation on our behalf, or to create any obligation, express or implied, on our behalf. During the term of this Agreement, and any extension or renewal hereof, you shall hold yourself out to the public only as a franchisee and an independent owner of the Franchised Business operating the Franchised Business pursuant to a franchise from us. You shall take such affirmative action as we designate and as may be necessary to do so including, without limitation, exhibiting a notice of that fact in a conspicuous place on the Approved Location and on all forms, stationery or other written materials, the content of which we have the right to specify. Under no circumstances shall we be liable for any act, omission, contract, debt or any other obligation of yours. We shall in no way be responsible for any injuries to persons or property resulting from the operation of the Franchised Business. Any third-party contractors and vendors retained by you to convert or construct the premises are independent contractors of yours alone.

No employee of yours shall be deemed to be an employee of ours for any purpose whatsoever, and nothing in any aspect of the System or the Marks in any way shifts any employee or employment-related responsibility from you to us. You alone shall be responsible for hiring, firing, training, setting hours for and supervising all employees.

It is the intention of the parties to this Agreement that we shall not be deemed a joint employer with you for any reason. If we incur any cost or loss of damages as a result of any actions or omissions of you or your employees, including any that relates to any party making a finding of any joint employer status, you will fully indemnify us for any such loss.

21.2 Standard of Care

This Agreement does not establish a fiduciary relationship between the parties. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement with respect to certain issues, whenever this Agreement requires you to obtain our written consent or permits you to take any action or refrain from taking any action, we are free to act in our own self-interest without any obligation to act reasonably, to consider the impact on you or to act subject to any other standard of care limiting our right, except as may be provided by statute or regulation.

21.3 Indemnification

You shall hold harmless and indemnify us, any Affiliate, all holders of a legal or beneficial interest in us and all officers, directors, executives, managers, members, partners, owners, employees, agents, successors and assigns (collectively “Franchisor Indemnitees”) from and against all losses, damages, fines, costs, expenses or liability (including attorneys’ fees and all other costs of litigation) incurred in connection with any action, suit, demand, claim, investigation or proceeding, or any settlement thereof, that arises from or is based upon your (a) ownership or operation of the Franchised Business; (b) violation, breach or asserted violation or breach of any federal, state or local law, regulation or rule; (c) breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or provision of this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us (or an Affiliate); (d) defamation of us or the System; (e) acts, errors or omissions committed or incurred in connection with the Franchised Business, including any negligent or intentional acts; (f) infringement, violation or alleged infringement or violation of any Mark, patent or copyright or any misuse of the Trade Secrets or Confidential Information; or (g) infringement, violation or alleged infringement or violation of any patent, trademark or copyright or other rights controlled by third parties.

21.4 Right to Retain Counsel

We shall give you immediate notice of any action, suit, demand, claim, claim, investigation or proceeding that may give rise to a claim for indemnification by a Franchisor Indemnitee. We have the right to retain counsel of our own choosing in connection with any such action, suit, demand, claim, investigation or proceeding. In order to protect persons, property, our reputation or the goodwill of others, we have the right to, at any time without notice, take such remedial or corrective actions as we deem expedient with respect to any action, suit, demand, claim, investigation or proceeding if, in our sole judgment, there are grounds to believe any of the acts or circumstances listed above have occurred. You shall cooperate with us in our handling of any such action, suit, demand, claim, investigation or proceeding. If our exercise of our rights under this Section causes any of your insurers to refuse to pay a third-party claim, all causes of action and legal remedies you might have against such insurer shall automatically be assigned to us without the need for any further action on either party's part. Under no circumstances shall we be required or obligated to seek coverage from third parties or otherwise mitigate losses in order to maintain a claim against you. The failure to pursue such a remedy or mitigate such loss shall in no way reduce the amounts recoverable by us from you.

21.5 Indemnification for Use of Marks

We agree to indemnify and hold you harmless for all damages and expenses you may incur in any trademark infringement proceeding disputing your authorized use of any Mark under this Agreement; provided you have timely notified us of the proceeding and comply with our directions in responding to the proceeding. At our option, we may defend and control the defense of any proceeding relating to any Mark; provided we may not settle any such dispute without your prior written consent unless, in connection with such settlement, you shall not be obligated to pay any amounts in settlement, and you receive a general release from all claims.

ARTICLE 22 GENERAL CONDITIONS AND PROVISIONS

22.1 No Waiver

No failure of ours to exercise any power reserved to it hereunder, or to insist upon strict compliance by you with any obligation or condition hereunder, and no custom nor practice of the parties in variance with the terms hereof shall constitute a waiver of our right to demand exact compliance with the terms of this Agreement. Waiver by us of any particular default by you shall not be binding unless in writing and executed by us and shall not affect nor impair our right with respect to any subsequent default of the same or of a different nature. Subsequent acceptance by us of any payment(s) due shall not be deemed to be our waiver of any preceding breach by you of any terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement.

22.2 Injunctive Relief

As any breach by you of any of the restrictions contained in Articles 6, 7, 9 and 17 would result in irreparable injury to us, and as the damages arising out of any such breach would be difficult to ascertain, in addition to all other remedies provided by law or in equity, we shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief (whether a restraining order, a preliminary injunction or a permanent injunction) against any such breach, whether actual or contemplated.

22.3 Notices

Any and all notices required or permitted under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered or sent by expedited delivery service or certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, first class postage prepaid, or sent by email (provided that the sender confirms sending the email within three (3) business days after transmission, by overnight courier) to the respective parties at the following addresses unless and until a different address has been designated by written notice to the other party:

22.4 Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations

All holders of a legal or beneficial interest in you of five percent (5%) or greater shall be required to execute, as of the date of this Agreement, the Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations attached as Exhibit C, through which such holders agree to assume and discharge all of your obligations under this Agreement and to be personally liable hereunder for all of the same. In the event of any approved transfer of five percent (5%) or greater ownership interest in you, then said transferee shall also be obligated to execute the Guaranty and Assumption of Obligations.

22.5 Approvals

Whenever this Agreement requires our prior approval or consent, you shall make a timely written request to us therefor and, except as otherwise provided herein, any approval or consent granted shall be effective only if in writing. We make no warranties or guarantees upon which you may rely and assume no liability or obligation to you or any third party to which we would not otherwise be subject, by providing any waiver, approval, advice, consent or services to you in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay or denial of any request therefor.

22.6 Entire Agreement

This Agreement, its exhibits and the documents referred to herein shall be construed together and constitute the entire, full and complete agreement between us and you concerning the subject matter hereof and shall supersede all prior agreements; provided, however, that nothing in this or any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations made by us in the Disclosure Document that was furnished to you by us. No other representation, oral or otherwise, has induced Franchisee to execute this Agreement, and there are no representations (other than those within the Disclosure Document), inducements, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, between the parties not embodied herein, that are of any force or effect with respect to the matters set forth in or contemplated by this Agreement or otherwise. No amendment changes or variance from this Agreement shall be binding on either party unless executed in writing by both parties.

22.7 Severability and Modification

Except as noted below, each paragraph, part, term and provision of this Agreement shall be considered severable. If any paragraph, part, term or provision herein is ruled to be unenforceable, unreasonable or invalid, such ruling shall not impair the operation of or affect the remaining portions, paragraphs, parts, terms and provisions of this Agreement, and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties; and such unenforceable, unreasonable or invalid paragraphs, parts, terms or provisions shall be deemed not part of this Agreement. If we determine that a finding of invalidity adversely affects the basic consideration of this Agreement, we have the right to, at our option, terminate this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the above, each of the covenants contained in Articles 7 and 17 shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of any such covenant is held to be unenforceable, unreasonable or invalid, then it shall be amended to provide for limitations on disclosure of Trade Secrets and other Confidential Information or on competition to the maximum extent provided or permitted by law.

22.8 Construction

All captions herein are intended solely for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision hereof.

22.9 Force Majeure

Whenever a period of time is provided in this Agreement for either party to perform any act, except for your payment of monies to us and/or any Affiliate, neither party shall be liable nor responsible for any delays due to strikes, lockouts, casualties, acts of God, war, terrorism, governmental regulation or control or other causes beyond the reasonable control of the parties, and the time period for the performance of such act shall be extended for the amount of time of the delay. This clause shall not result in an extension of the term of this Agreement.

22.10 Timing

Time is of the essence; except as set forth in Section 22.9, failure to perform any act within the time required or permitted by this Agreement shall be a material breach.

22.11 Withholding Payments

You shall not, for any reason, withhold payment of any Royalty Fees or other amounts due to us or to an Affiliate. You shall not withhold or offset any amounts, damages or other monies allegedly due to you against any amounts due to us. No endorsement or statement on any payment for less than the full amount due to us will be construed as an acknowledgment of payment in full, or an accord and satisfaction, and we have the right to accept and cash any such payment without prejudice to our right to recover the full amount due, or pursue any other remedy provided in this Agreement or by law. We have the right to apply for any payments made by you against any of your past due indebtedness as we deem appropriate. We shall set off sums we owe to you against any unpaid debts owed by you to us.

22.12 Further Assurances

Each party to this Agreement will execute and deliver such further instruments, contracts, forms or other documents, and will perform such further acts, as may be necessary or desirable to perform or complete any term, covenant or obligation contained in this Agreement.

22.13 Third-Party Beneficiaries

Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer upon any person or legal entity other than us or you, and our respective successors and assigns as may be contemplated by this Agreement, any rights or remedies under this Agreement.

22.14 Multiple Originals

Both parties will execute multiple copies of this Agreement, and each executed copy will be deemed an original.

22.15 Compliance with Anti-Terrorism Laws

You and your owners agree to comply, and to assist us to the fullest extent possible in our efforts to comply with Anti-Terrorism Laws (defined below). In connection with that compliance, you and your owners certify, represent, and warrant that none of your property or interests is subject to being blocked under, and that you and your owners otherwise are not in violation of, any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws. "Anti-Terrorism Laws" mean Executive Order 13224 issued by the President of the United States, the USA PATRIOT Act, and all other present and future federal, state, and local laws, ordinances, regulations, policies, lists, and other requirements of any governmental authority addressing or in any way relating to terrorist acts and acts of war. Any violation of the Anti-Terrorism Laws by you or your owners, or any blocking of your or your owners' assets under the Anti-Terrorism Laws, shall constitute good cause for immediate termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 23 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

23.1 Choice of Law

Except to the extent this Agreement or any particular dispute is governed by the U.S. Trademark Act of 1946 or other federal law, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without reference to its conflict of laws principles). The Federal Arbitration Act shall govern all matters subject to arbitration. References to any law refer also to any successor laws and to any published regulations for such law as in effect at the relevant time. References to a governmental agency also refer to any regulatory body that succeeds in the function of such agency.

23.2 Cumulative Rights and Remedies

No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to us or you by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be in addition to every other right or remedy. Nothing contained herein shall bar our right to obtain injunctive relief against threatened conduct that may cause us loss or damage, including obtaining restraining orders and preliminary and permanent injunctions.

23.3 Limitations of Claims

Except for claims we assert against you, or your owners, affiliates or guarantors, for (i) non-payment or underpayment of amounts owed to us and/or our affiliates, (ii) unauthorized use of the Marks, (iii) indemnification, or (iv) violation of your non-competition or confidentiality covenants, any and all claims arising out of or related to this Agreement or the relationship of the parties will be barred unless a judicial or arbitration proceeding, as required under this Agreement, is commenced within one (1) year from the date on which the party asserting such claim knew or should have known, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, of the facts giving rise to such claims, and that any action not so brought shall be barred, whether as a claim, counterclaim, defense or setoff. You hereby acknowledge and agree that you may not maintain any action against us or any of our principals, officers, directors, agents, employees, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors or assigns unless (a) you deliver written notice of any claim to the other party within one hundred eighty (180) days after the event complained of becomes known to you, (b) you strictly adhere to the negotiation and mediation procedures set forth in this Agreement, and (c) you file an arbitration within one (1) year after the notice is delivered.

23.4 Limitation of Damages

The parties hereto and each of them EXPRESSLY WAIVE(S) ANY CLAIM FOR PUNITIVE, MULTIPLE AND/OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES; except that this waiver and limitation shall not apply with respect to (a) your obligation to indemnify us pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, or (b) any claims we bring against you and/or your guarantors and/or your owners for unauthorized use of the Marks, unauthorized use or disclosure of any Confidential Information, unfair competition, breach of your confidentiality or non-competition covenants under this Agreement, and/or any cause of action under the Lanham Act, and we shall be entitled to receive an award of multiple damages, attorneys' fees and all damages as provided by law.

23.5 Waiver of Jury Trial

The parties hereto and each of them EXPRESSLY WAIVE(S) THE RIGHT ANY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ARBITRATION, ACTION, PROCEEDING, OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, FOR ANY CLAIMS RELATING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE NEGOTIATION OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE EVENTS LEADING UP TO THE SIGNING OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE FRANCHISE, WHETHER BROUGHT IN STATE OR FEDERAL COURT, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT THEORY, NEGLIGENCE OR TORT, AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER OR NOT THERE ARE OTHER PARTIES IN SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING.

This waiver is effective even if a court of competent jurisdiction decides that the arbitration provision in this Agreement is unenforceable. Each party acknowledges that it has had full opportunity to consult with counsel concerning this waiver, and that this waiver is informed, voluntary, intentional, and not the result of unequal bargaining power.

23.6 No Class or Collective Actions. You agree that any arbitration, or, if applicable, litigation, between you (or any of your owners or guarantors), on the one hand, and us or Franchisor Related Party, on the other hand, will be on such party's individual claim and that the claim or claims subject to arbitration and/or litigation shall not be arbitrated or litigated on a class-wide, associational or collective basis.

23.7 Mediation

23.7.1 The parties have reached this Agreement in good faith and with the belief that it is advantageous to each of them. In recognition of the strain on time, unnecessary expense and wasted resources potentially associated with litigation and/or arbitration, and in the spirit of cooperation, the parties pledge to try to resolve any dispute amicably, without litigation or arbitration. Other than an action brought by us under Section 23.9 of this Agreement, and with the exception of injunctive relief or specific performance actions, before the filing of any arbitration, you and we agree to mediate any dispute, controversy or claim between us and/or any of our affiliates, officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, guarantors, employees or agents (each a "Franchisor Related Party"), on the one hand, and you and/or any of your affiliates, officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, guarantors, employees or agents (each a "Franchisee Related Party"), including without limitation, in connection with any dispute, controversy or claim arising under, out of, in connection with or in relation to: (a) this Agreement; (b) the parties' relationship; or (c) the events occurring prior to the entry into this Agreement. Good faith participation in these procedures to the greatest extent reasonably possible, despite lack of cooperation by one or more of the other parties, is a precondition to maintaining any arbitration or legal action, including any action to interpret or enforce this Agreement.

23.7.2 Mediation will be conducted in Delaware (or, at our option, the county where our corporate headquarters is then-located). Persons authorized to settle the dispute must attend each mediation session in person, or, if authorized by us, through a designated video conferencing platform. The party seeking mediation (the “Initiating Party”) must commence mediation by sending the other party/parties a written notice of its request for mediation (the “Mediation Notice”). The Mediation Notice must specify, to the fullest extent possible, the nature of the dispute, the Initiating Party’s version of the facts surrounding the dispute, the amount of damages and the nature of any injunctive or other such relief such party claims, and must identify one or more persons with authority to settle the dispute for the Initiating Party. Upon receipt of the Mediation Notice, the parties will endeavor, in good faith, to resolve the dispute outlined in the Dispute Notice. If the parties have been unable to resolve any such dispute within twenty (20) days after the date the Mediation Notice is provided by the Initiating Party to the other party, either party may initiate a mediation procedure in accordance with this provision. The parties agree to participate in the mediation proceedings in good faith with the intention of resolving the dispute if at all possible, within thirty (30) days of the notice from the party seeking to initiate the mediation procedures. The parties agree to participate in the mediation procedure to its conclusion, as set forth in this section.

23.7.3 The mediator shall advise the parties in writing of the format for the meeting or meetings. If the mediator believes it will be useful after reviewing the position papers, the mediator shall give both himself or herself and the authorized person designated by each party an opportunity to hear an oral presentation of each party’s views on the matter in dispute. The mediator shall assist the authorized persons to negotiate a resolution of the matter in dispute, with or without the assistance of counsel or others. To this end, the mediator is authorized both to conduct joint meetings and to attend separate private caucuses with the parties. All mediation sessions will be strictly private. The mediator must keep confidential all information learned unless specifically authorized by the party from which the information was obtained to disclose the information to the other party.

23.7.4 The parties commit to participate in the proceedings in good faith with the intention of resolving the dispute if at all possible. The mediation may be concluded: (a) by the signing of a settlement agreement by the parties; (b) by the mediator’s declaration that the mediation is terminated; or (c) by a written declaration of either party, no earlier than at the conclusion of a full day’s mediation, that the mediation is terminated. Even if the mediation is terminated without resolving the dispute, the parties agree not to terminate negotiations and not to begin any arbitration or legal action or seek another remedy before the expiration of five (5) days following the mediation. A party may begin arbitration within this period only if the arbitration might otherwise be barred by an applicable statute of limitations or in order to request an injunction from a Court of competent jurisdiction to prevent irreparable harm.

23.7.5 The fees and expenses of the mediator shall be shared equally by the parties. The mediator may not later serve as a witness, consultant, expert or counsel for any party with respect to the dispute or any related or similar matter in which either of the parties is involved. The mediation procedure is a compromise negotiation or settlement discussion for purposes of federal and state rules of evidence. The parties agree that no stenographic, visual or audio record of the proceedings may be made. Any conduct, statement, promise, offer, view or opinion, whether oral or written, made in the course of the mediation by the parties, their agents or employees, or the mediator is confidential and shall be treated as privileged. No conduct, statement, promise, offer, view or opinion made in the mediation procedure is discoverable or admissible in evidence for any purpose, not even impeachment, in any proceeding involving either of the parties. However, evidence that would otherwise be discoverable or admissible shall not be excluded from discovery or made inadmissible simply because of its use in the mediation.

23.8 Arbitration

Except as qualified below and in Section 23.9 and if not resolved by the negotiation and mediation procedures set forth in Section 23.7, all disputes, claims and controversies between us or a Franchisor Related Party on the one hand, and you and/or any of your owners or guarantors on the other hand, arising under, out of, in connection with or related to: (a) this Agreement; (b) the parties' relationship; (c) the events leading up to the entry into this Agreement; (d) the scope or validity of the arbitration obligation under this Agreement; (e) any System standard; (f) any claim based in tort or any theory of negligence (including claims for fraud in the inducement and other claims of fraud and the arbitrability of any matter); and/or (g) any lease or sublease for any Franchised Business, shall be submitted to binding arbitration in Delaware (or, at our option, in the city and state in which our then-current headquarters is located) under the authority of Delaware Statutes. The arbitrator(s) will have a minimum of five (5) years' experience in franchising or distribution law and will have the right to award specific performance of this Agreement. If the parties cannot agree upon a mutually agreeable arbitrator, then the arbitration shall be conducted as per the selection method set forth in the Delaware Statutes. The proceedings will be conducted under the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision or the Delaware Statutes. Any arbitration must be on an individual basis and the parties, and the arbitrator will have no authority or power to proceed with any claim as a class action, associational claim, or otherwise to join or consolidate any claim with any other claim or any other proceeding involving third parties. In the event a court determines that this limitation on joinder of our class action certification of claims is unenforceable, then this entire commitment to arbitrate shall become null and void and the parties shall submit all claims to the jurisdiction of the courts. The arbitrator shall have the right to make a determination as to any procedural matters that court of competent jurisdiction would be permitted to make in the state in which our main office is located. Further, the arbitrator shall decide all factual, procedural, or legal questions relating in any way to the dispute between the parties, including, without limitation, questions relating to whether Section 23.8 is applicable and enforceable as against the parties; the subject matter, timeliness, and scope of the dispute; any available remedies; and the existence of unconscionability and/or fraud in the inducement. The decision of the arbitrator(s) will be final and binding on all parties. This Section will survive termination or non-renewal of this Agreement under any circumstances. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. During the pendency of any arbitration proceeding, you and we shall fully perform our respective obligations under this Agreement. Other than as may be required by law, the entire arbitration proceedings (including, without limitation, any rulings, decisions or orders of the arbitrator), shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone other than the parties to this Agreement. We reserve the right, but have no obligation, to advance your share of the costs of any arbitration proceeding in order for such arbitration proceeding to take place and by doing so shall not be deemed to have waived or relinquished our right to seek recovery of those costs against you.

23.9 Exceptions to Mediation and Arbitration

Notwithstanding Section 23.7 or Section 23.8, the parties agree that the following claims will not be subject to internal dispute resolution, mediation or arbitration:

- (a) any action for declaratory or equitable relief, including, without limitation, seeking preliminary or permanent injunctive relief, specific performance, other relief in the nature of equity to enjoin any harm or threat of harm to such party's tangible or intangible property, brought at any time, including, without limitation, prior to or during the pendency of any arbitration proceedings initiated hereunder.

- (b) any action in ejectment or for possession of any interest in real or personal property; or
- (c) any claim by us: (i) relating to your failure to pay any fee due to us under this Agreement; (ii) relating to your failure to comply with the confidentiality and non-competition covenants set forth in this Agreement; (iii) for indemnification; and/or (iv) and/or our affiliates relating to your use of the Marks and/or the System, including, without limitation, claims for violations of the Lanham Act.

23.10 No Class or Collective Actions. You agree that any arbitration, or, if applicable, litigation, between you (or any of your owners or guarantors), on the one hand, and us or Franchisor Related Party, on the other hand, will be on such party's individual claim and that the claim or claims subject to arbitration and/or litigation shall not be arbitrated or litigated on a class- wide, associational or collective basis.

ARTICLE 25 OPERATION IN THE EVENT OF ABSENCE OR DISABILITY; STEP-IN RIGHTS

25.1 Operation in the Event of Absence or Disability

In order to prevent any interruption of the Franchised Business operations which would cause harm to the Franchised Business, thereby depreciating the value thereof, you authorize us, who may, at our option, in the event that you are absent for any reason or are incapacitated by reason of illness and are unable, in our sole and reasonable judgment, to operate the Franchised Business, operate the Franchised Business for so long as we deem necessary and practical, and without waiver of any other rights or remedies we may have under this Agreement. We shall keep in a separate account all monies generated by the operation of your Franchised Business, less the expenses of the Franchised Business, including reasonable compensation and expenses for our representatives. CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-COMPETITION AGREEMENT

(for trained employees, shareholders, officers, directors, general partners, members and managers of Franchisee)

In consideration of my being a _____ of _____, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, I hereby acknowledge and agree that:

1. Pursuant to a Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20__ (the “Franchise Agreement”), _____ (the “Franchisee”), has acquired the right and franchise from Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc. (the “Company”) to establish and operate a Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchised Business (the “Franchised Business”) and the right to use in the operation of the Franchised Business the Company’s trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin (the “Proprietary Marks”), as they may be changed, improved and further developed from time to time in the Company’s sole discretion, only at the following authorized and approved location: _____ (the “Approved Location”).

2. The Company, as the result of the expenditure of time, skill, effort and resources has developed and owns a distinctive format and system (the “System”) relating to the establishment and operation of Franchised Businesses. The Company possesses certain proprietary and confidential information relating to the operation of the System, which includes certain proprietary trade secrets, methods, techniques, formats, specifications, systems, procedures, methods of business practices and management, sales and promotional techniques and knowledge of, and experience in, the operation of the Franchised Business (the “Confidential Information”).

3. Any and all information, knowledge, know-how, and techniques which the Company specifically designates as confidential shall be deemed to be Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement.

4. As _____ of the Franchisee, the Company and Franchisee will disclose the Confidential Information to me in furnishing to me training programs, the Company’s Confidential Operations Manuals (the “Manuals”), and other general assistance during the term of the Franchise Agreement.

5. I will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize it in the operation of the Franchised Business during the term of the Franchise Agreement, and the use or duplication of the Confidential Information for any use outside the System would constitute an unfair method of competition.

6. The Confidential Information is proprietary, involves trade secrets of the Company, and is disclosed to me solely on the condition that I agree, and I do hereby agree, that I shall hold in strict confidence all Confidential Information and all other information designated by the Company as confidential. Unless the Company otherwise agrees in writing, I will disclose and/or use the Confidential Information only in connection with my duties as _____ of the Franchisee, and will continue not to disclose any such information even after I cease to be in that position and will not use any such information even after I cease to be in that position unless I can demonstrate that such information has become generally known or easily accessible other than by the breach of an obligation of Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement.

7. Except as otherwise approved in writing by the Company, I shall not, while in my position with the Franchisee, either directly or indirectly for myself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, act as a consultant for, perform services for, or have any interest in any retail business or e-commerce business other than a Blo Blow Dry Bar that: (a) offers hair care products and services and similar items; or (b) grants or has granted franchises or licenses or establishes or has established joint ventures for the development and/or operation of a service business described in the foregoing clause (a) (a “Competitive Business”); and for a continuous uninterrupted period commencing upon the cessation or termination of my position with Franchisee, regardless of the cause for termination, or upon the expiration, termination, transfer, or assignment of the Franchise Agreement, whichever occurs first, and continuing for two (2) years thereafter, either directly or indirectly, for myself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, partnership, or corporation, own, maintain, operate, engage in, act as a consultant for, perform services for, or have any interest in any Competitive Business that is, or is intended to be, located at or within:

7.1 The Protected Territory, as defined in the Franchise Agreement (“Protected Territory”);

7.2 Twenty-five (25) miles of the Protected Territory; or

7.3 Twenty-five (25) miles of any Franchised Business operating under the System and the Proprietary Marks.

The prohibitions in this Paragraph 7 do not apply to my interests in or activities performed in connection with a Franchised Business. This restriction does not apply to my ownership of less than five percent (5%) beneficial interest in the outstanding securities of any publicly held corporation.

8. I agree that each of the foregoing covenants shall be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If all or any portion of a covenant in this Agreement is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which the Company is a party, I expressly agree to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Agreement.

9. I understand and acknowledge that the Company shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Agreement, or any portion thereof, without my consent, effective immediately upon receipt by me of written notice thereof; and I agree to comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified.

10. The Company is a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement and may enforce it, solely and/or jointly with the Franchisee. I am aware that my violation of this Agreement will cause the Company and the Franchisee irreparable harm; therefore, I acknowledge and agree that the Franchisee and/or the Company may apply for the issuance of an injunction preventing me from violating this Agreement, and I agree to pay the Franchisee and the Company all the costs it/they incur(s), including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, if this Agreement is enforced against me. Due to the importance of this Agreement to the Franchisee and the Company, any claim I have against the Franchisee, or the Company is a separate matter and does not entitle me to violate, or justify any violation of this Agreement.

11. This Agreement shall be construed under the laws of the State of Delaware. The only way this Agreement can be changed is in writing signed by both the Franchisee and me.

CONDITIONAL ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF LEASE

THIS COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF LEASE (this “Assignment”) is made, entered into and effective as of the effective date of the Lease (as defined hereinbelow), by, between and among BLO BLOW DRY BAR INC., with its principal business address located at 1867 Yonge Street, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario, M4S 1Y5 (the “Franchisor”), and _____ whose current principal place of business is _____ (the “Franchisee”).

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The Franchisor entered into that certain Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) dated as of _____, 20__ with the Franchisee, pursuant to which the Franchisee plans to own and operate a “Blo Blow Dry Bar” Franchised Business (the “Franchised Business”) located at _____ (the “Site”). In addition, pursuant to that certain Lease Agreement (the “Lease”), the Franchisee has leased or will lease certain space containing the Franchised Business described therein from _____ (the “Lessor”). The Franchise Agreement requires the Franchisee to deliver this Assignment to the Franchisor as a condition to the grant of a franchise.

OPERATIVE TERMS

The Franchisor and the Franchisee agree as follows:

1. Background Information: The background information is true and correct. This Assignment will be interpreted by reference to, and construed in accordance with, the background information.
2. Incorporation of Terms: Terms not otherwise defined in this Assignment have the meanings as defined in the Lease.
3. Indemnification of Franchisor: The Franchisee agrees to indemnify and hold the Franchisor and its affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers and representatives harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, proceedings, demands, damages, judgments, injuries, attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses, that they incur resulting from any claim brought against any of them or any action which any of them are named as a party or which any of them may suffer, sustain or incur by reason of, or arising out of, the Franchisee’s breach of any of the terms of the Lease, including the failure to pay rent or any other terms and conditions of the Lease.
4. Conditional Assignment: The Franchisee hereby grants to the Franchisor a security interest in and to the Lease, all of the furniture, fixtures, inventory and supplies located in the Site and the franchise relating to the Franchised Business, and all of the Franchisee’s rights, title and interest in and to the Lease as conditional for the payment of any obligation, liability or other amount owed by the Franchisee or its affiliates to the Lessor arising under the Lease and for any default or breach of any of the terms and provisions of the Lease, and for any default or breach of any of the terms and provisions of the Franchise Agreement. In the event of a breach or default by the Franchisee under the terms of the Lease, or, in the event the Franchisor makes any payment to the Lessor as a result of the Franchisee’s breach of the Lease, then such payment by the Franchisor, or such breach or default by the Franchisee, shall at Franchisor’s option be deemed to be an immediate default under the Franchise Agreement, and the Franchisor shall be entitled to the possession of the Site and to all of the rights, title and interest of the Franchisee in and to the Lease and to all other remedies described herein or in the Franchise Agreement or at law or in equity, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the Franchisor under any other Agreements or under other applicable laws or equities. This Assignment shall constitute a lien on the interest of the Franchisee in and to the Lease until satisfaction in full of all amounts owed by the Franchisee to the Franchisor. In addition, the rights of the Franchisor to assume all obligations under the Lease provided in this Assignment are totally optional on the part of the Franchisor, to be exercised in its sole discretion. Franchisee agrees to execute any and all Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and all other documents and instruments deemed necessary by Franchisor to perfect or document the interests and assignments granted herein.

5. No Subordination: The Franchisee shall not permit the Lease to become subordinate to any lien without first obtaining Franchisor's written consent, other than the lien created by this Assignment, the Franchise Agreement, the Lessor's lien under the Lease, liens securing bank financing for the operations of Franchisee on the Site and the agreements and other instruments referenced herein. The Franchisee will not terminate, modify or amend any of the provisions or terms of the Lease without the prior written consent of the Franchisor. Any attempt at termination, modification or amendment of any of the terms without such written consent is null and void.

6. Exercise of Remedies: In any case of default by the Franchisee under the terms of the Lease or under the Franchise Agreement, the Franchisor shall be entitled to exercise any one or more of the following remedies in its sole discretion:

- a) to take possession of the Site, or any part thereof, personally, or by its agents or attorneys;
- b) to, in its discretion, without notice and with or without process of law, enter upon and take and maintain possession of all or any part of the Site, together with all furniture, fixtures, inventory, books, records, papers and accounts of the Franchisee;
- c) to exclude the Franchisee, its agents or employees from the Site;
- d) as attorney-in-fact for the Franchisee, or in its own name, and under the powers herein granted, to hold, operate, manage and control the Franchised Business and conduct the business, if any, thereof, either personally or by its agents, with full power to use such measures, legally rectifiable, as in its discretion may be deemed proper or necessary to cure such default, including actions of forcible entry or detainer and actions in distress of rent, hereby granting full power and authority to the Franchisor to exercise each and every of the rights, privileges and powers herein granted at any and all times hereafter;
- e) to cancel or terminate any unauthorized agreements or subleases entered into by the Franchisee, for any cause or ground which would entitle the Franchisor to cancel the same;
- f) to disaffirm any unauthorized agreement, sublease or subordinated lien, to make all necessary or proper repairs, decorating, renewals, replacements, alterations, additions, betterments and improvements to the Site or the Site that may seem judicious, in the sole discretion of the Franchisor;
- g) to insure and reinsure the same for all risks incidental to the Franchisor's possession, operation and management thereof; and/or

h) notwithstanding any provision of the Franchise Agreement to the contrary, to declare all of the Franchisee's rights but not obligations under the Franchise Agreement to be immediately terminated as of the date of the Franchisee's default under the Lease.

7. Power of Attorney: The Franchisee does hereby appoint irrevocably the Franchisor as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact in its name and stead and hereby authorizes it, upon any default under the Lease or under the Franchise Agreement, with or without taking possession of the Site, to rent, lease, manage and operate the Site to any person, firm or corporation upon such terms and conditions in its discretion as it may determine, and with the same rights and powers and immunities, exoneration of liability and rights of recourse and indemnity as the Franchisor would have upon taking possession of the Site pursuant to the provisions set forth in the Lease. The power of attorney conferred upon the Franchisor pursuant to this Assignment is a power coupled with an interest and cannot be revoked, modified or altered without the written consent of the Franchisor.

8. Election of Remedies: It is understood and agreed that the provisions set forth in this Assignment are deemed a special remedy given to the Franchisor and are not deemed to exclude any of the remedies granted in the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between the Franchisor and the Franchisee, but are deemed an additional remedy and shall be cumulative with the remedies therein and elsewhere granted to the Franchisor, all of which remedies are enforceable concurrently or successively. No exercise by the Franchisor or any of the rights hereunder will cure, waiver or affect any default hereunder or default under the Franchise Agreement. No inaction or partial exercise of rights by the Franchisor will be construed as a waiver of any of its rights and remedies and no waiver by the Franchisor of any such rights and remedies shall be construed as a waiver by the Franchisor of any future rights and remedies.

9. Binding Agreements: This Assignment and all provisions hereof shall be binding upon the Franchisor and the Franchisee, their successors, assigns and legal representatives and all other persons or entities claiming under them or through them, or either of them, and the words "Franchisor" and "Franchisee" when used herein shall include all such persons and entities and any others liable for payment of amounts under the Lease or the Franchise Agreement. All individuals executing on behalf of corporate entities hereby represent and warrant that such execution has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate and shareholder authorizations and approvals.

10. Assignment to Control. This Assignment governs and controls over any conflicting provisions in the Lease.

11. Attorney's Fees, Etc. In any action or dispute, at law or in equity, that may arise under or otherwise relate to this Assignment, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover its attorneys' fees, costs and expenses relating to any trial or appeal (including, without limitation, paralegal fees) or arbitration or bankruptcy proceeding from the non-prevailing party.

12. Severability. If any of the provisions of this Assignment or any section or subsection of this Assignment shall be held invalid for any reason, the remainder of this Assignment or any such section or subsection will not be affected thereby and will remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have caused this Assignment to be executed as of the day and year first above written.

However, the Franchisor may not exercise a right of first refusal:
 - (a) If a proposed Transfer is between or among individuals (including members of their immediate families and their respective spouses) who, at the time of the proposed Transfer, have an ownership interest in the Franchisee or the Franchise, and who have guaranteed the Franchisee’s obligations under a then outstanding indebtedness which is guaranteed by the United States Small Business Administration (“SBA”)

- (Owner/Guarantors); or
- (b) If a proposed Transfer involves a Person other than an Owner/Guarantor and the proposed Transfer involves a noncontrolling ownership interest in the Franchisee or the Franchise, unless such noncontrolling interest: (1) represents less than a 20% ownership interest in the Franchisee or in the Franchise, or (2) the Franchisor (in combination with all of Franchisor's franchisees) qualifies as a small business and the exercise of the right does not affect the eligibility of the borrower to qualify for the SBA loan guarantee program.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that, if Franchisor determines Hair Extension Services should be discontinued System-wide, Franchisor may terminate the rights granted pursuant to this Addendum by providing Franchisee with written notice of termination. Additionally, Franchisor has the right to revoke Franchisee's permission to offer, sell and provide the Hair Extension Services at any time if Franchisee fails to comply with any of the terms or conditions set forth in Section 3 above, effective on delivery of written notice of termination. Franchisee must cease offering, selling and providing Hair Extension Services immediately upon receipt of any such written notice of termination.

5. Opening Inventory Package Fee. Franchisee must pay to Franchisor or its designee (which may include third-party vendors) an additional Opening Inventory Package Fee in the amount of: $_____ immediately upon execution of this Addendum, which fee shall be deemed fully earned and non-refundable upon payment.

8. Release by Franchisee. Franchisee and Guarantor, for themselves and all persons and entities claiming by, through, or under them, hereby release, acquit and forever discharge Franchisor and its present and former officers, employees, shareholders, directors, agents, servants, representatives, parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, franchisees, successors, and assigns (the "Franchisor Releasees") from all obligations, claims, debts, demands, covenants, contracts, promises, agreements, liabilities, costs, attorneys' fees, actions or causes of action whatsoever, whether known or unknown, which they, by themselves, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person, persons, partnership or corporation, has, had or claims to have against the Franchisor Releasees as of the date of this Agreement, including those arising out of or related to the offer or sale of the Franchised Business or Franchise Agreement or the operation of the Franchised Business, as well as the parties' rights or obligations under the Franchise Agreement and any other agreement with the Franchisor Releasees. Franchisee and Guarantor represent and warrant that it has not assigned any of the claims released by this Agreement. Franchisee and Guarantor further represents and warrants that it will not initiate or assist or cooperate with any third party in connection with, an action or other proceeding against any Franchisor Releasees in connection with the claims released in this Section.

9. Acknowledgment. Without limiting the scope of Section 8, Franchisee acknowledges a familiarity with Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE WHICH, IF KNOWN BY HIM, MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED THE SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

Franchisee and Franchisor hereby waive and relinquish every right or benefit which it may have under Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and any similar statute under any other state or federal law, to the fullest extent that it may lawfully waive such right or benefit. In connection with this waiver and relinquishment, with respect to the claims released above in Section 8, each party acknowledges that it may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true but that it is the parties' intention, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, to fully, finally and forever to settle and release all such claims, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist or did exist, and, in furtherance of such intention, the release given above shall be and remain in effect as a full and complete release, notwithstanding the discovery or existence of any such additional or different facts.

10. Construction of Language. The language of this Addendum will be construed according to its fair meaning, and not strictly for or against either party. The parties have had a reasonable opportunity to review this Addendum. In the event of ambiguity or if a question of intent or interpretation arises, this Addendum shall be construed as if drafted jointly by all of the parties, and no presumptions or burdens of proof shall arise in favor of any party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Addendum. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation.

11. Multiple Copies or Counterparts of Agreement. The original and one or more copies of this Addendum may be executed by one or more of the parties hereto. In such an event, all of such executed copies shall have the same force and effect as the executed original and all of such counterparts taken together shall have the effect of a fully executed original.

12. Entire Agreement. The Franchise Agreement and this Addendum constitute the entire, full, and complete agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein and supersede any and all prior agreements. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Franchise Agreement and this Addendum, the terms of this Addendum shall control. Except as amended by this Addendum, all the other terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement are hereby ratified and confirmed, including the provisions related to governing law, attorneys' fees and costs, venue and dispute resolution, all of which will also apply to any claims, causes of action or disputes arising out of or related to this Addendum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, have duly executed and delivered this Addendum on the date first written above.

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into this ____ day of _____, 20__ by and between Blo Blow Dry Bar Inc., a Delaware corporation, with its principal office at 1867 Yonge Street, Suite 600, Toronto, Ontario, M4S 1Y5 (“we”, “us” or “our”) and _____, whose principal address is _____ (“you” or “your”).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, we have developed, and are in the process of further developing, a System identified by the service mark “Blo Blow Dry Bar” (the “Mark” or “Proprietary Mark”) and relating to the establishment and operation of a full service blow dry business having a distinctive interior and exterior design and trade dress and offering for sale to the public hair styling and cleansing products and accessories (referred to in this Agreement as a “Bar” or “Franchised Business”); and

WHEREAS, in addition to the service mark “Blo Blow Dry Bar” and certain other Proprietary Marks, the distinguishing characteristics of the System include, among other things, uniform standards and procedures for efficient business operations; procedures and strategies for marketing, advertising and promotion; customer service and development techniques; distinctive interior and exterior design, layout and décor; other strategies, techniques and trade secrets; and the Manual; and

WHEREAS, you wish to obtain the rights and license from us for the use of our System and Proprietary Marks and, in association therewith, to own and operate multiple Bars in the area described in Schedule “A” attached hereto (hereinafter referred to as the “Development Area”) and you understand and accept the terms, conditions and covenants set forth herein as those which are reasonably necessary to maintain our high and uniform standards of quality and service in order to protect the goodwill and enhance the public image of the System and the Proprietary Marks; and

WHEREAS, we have the sole and exclusive right to the goodwill associated with the System and the Proprietary Marks and are willing to grant the use and license to you on the terms and conditions herein contained to use the System and the Proprietary Marks; and

WHEREAS, you acknowledge that you have read this Agreement and our Disclosure Document and that you understand and accept the terms, conditions and covenants contained in this Agreement as being reasonably necessary to maintain our high standards of quality and service and the uniformity of those standards at all Bars in order to protect and preserve the goodwill of the Marks; and

WHEREAS, we expressly disclaim the making of, and you acknowledge that you have not received or relied upon, any warranty or guarantee, express or implied, as to the revenues, profits or success of the business venture contemplated by this Agreement. You acknowledge that you have not received or relied on any representations, written or oral, about the franchise by us, or our officers, directors, employees or agents, that are contrary to the statements made in our Disclosure Document or to the terms herein, and further represent to us, as an inducement to our entry into this Agreement, that you have made no misrepresentations, written or oral, to us in the application for the multi-unit development rights granted hereunder.

ARTICLE I DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

1.1 Subject to the provisions contained herein, this Agreement shall be for a term commencing on the date hereof and expiring on the last day of the last development period as defined in Exhibit B, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference (“Development Period”).

1.2 We retain the right, in our sole discretion and without granting any rights to you: (a) to own and operate, or to grant other persons the right to own and operate, Bars at such locations outside the Development Area, and on such terms and conditions as we deem appropriate in our sole discretion; and (b) to sell anywhere the products authorized for Bars under the Proprietary Marks or other trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols through dissimilar channels of distribution and pursuant to such terms and conditions as we deem appropriate.

1.3 Provided you: (i) are in full compliance with the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, including, without limitation, the development obligations contained in Section 1.4; and (ii) are in full compliance with all obligations under all Franchise Agreements heretofore or hereafter entered into with us; then during the Development Periods, we: (1) will grant to you, in accordance with the provisions of Article II hereof, franchises for the ownership and operation of Bars located within the Development Area; and (2) with the exception of our Reserved Rights (as defined below), will not operate (directly or through an affiliate), nor grant a franchise for the operation of, any Bar to be located within the Development Area, except such franchises as are granted to you.

1.4 You agree, during the term of this Agreement, that you will at all times faithfully, honestly and diligently perform your obligations hereunder and that you will continuously exert your best efforts to promote and enhance the development of Bars within the Development Area. Without limiting the foregoing obligation, you agree to have signed leases within the Development Area for the cumulative number of Bars at the end of each Development Period set forth in Section 2 of Exhibit B hereof (“Minimum Development Quota”) and to have each such Bar open and operating in accordance with the timeframe set forth in the Franchise Agreement. You further agree that no Bar may be opened for business unless and until a Franchise Agreement for such Bar has been fully executed. If you fail at any time to meet any Minimum Development Quota, we shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by delivering a notice to you stating that we elect to terminate this Agreement as a result of such failure. Such termination shall be effective upon delivery of such notice of termination. Our right to terminate this Agreement shall be our sole and exclusive remedy for your failure to meet a Minimum Development Quota.

1.5 You acknowledge and understand that this Agreement does not confer upon you any right to use the System or the Proprietary Marks, which right may only be granted pursuant to a Franchise Agreement with us.

1.6 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, we retain the right, on behalf of ourselves or through affiliates, in our discretion, and without granting any rights to you, to:

(a) solicit prospective franchisees and grant franchises or other rights to operate Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises through national or regional advertising, trade shows or conventions or through e-commerce or similar means, including in the Development Area;

(b) grant franchises for Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises and to own and operate Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises ourselves or through affiliates at any location outside of the Development Area;

(c) sell, solicit, recruit and provide services for any franchised business not defined as a Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchise anywhere, including in the Development Area;

(d) sell and provide the services and Proprietary Products authorized for sale by Blo Blow Dry Bar Franchises under the Marks or other trade names, trademarks, service marks and commercial symbols through similar or dissimilar channels (including telephone, mail order, co-branded sites and sites located within other retail businesses, Intranet, Internet, web sites, wireless, email or other forms of e-commerce) for distribution within and outside of the Development Area and according to the terms and conditions we consider appropriate;

(e) solicit prospective franchisees for, and own and operate, businesses of any other kind or nature, anywhere;

(f) acquire be acquired by, merge or affiliate with, or engage in any transaction with other businesses (whether or not those businesses are competitive), including competing franchise systems with locations operating in your Development Area, we and/or our licensees have the right to operate the business under the Marks in the Development Area without affording any rights to you or providing any compensation to you; and

(g) establish and operate and/or to license others to establish and operate, franchised businesses in “Special Venues”, including Special Venues located in your Development Area. For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Special Venues” means non-traditional venues such as resorts, military bases, airports, casinos and entertainment venues.

ARTICLE II GRANT OF FRANCHISES TO YOU

2.1 Subject to the provisions of Article I hereof, we agree to grant franchises to you for the operation of Bars located within the Development Area, subject to the following: You shall submit to us a complete site report (containing such demographic, commercial, and other information and photographs as we may reasonably require) for each site at which you propose to establish and operate a Bar and which you reasonably believe to conform to site selection criteria established by us from time to time. Such proposed site shall be subject to our prior written approval, which will not be unreasonably withheld. In approving or disapproving of any proposed site, we will consider such matters as we deem material, including, without limitation, demographic characteristics of the proposed site, traffic patterns, density of population, and other commercial characteristics (including the purchase price or rental obligations and other lease terms for the proposed site) and the size of premises, appearance, and other physical characteristics.

2.2 By delivery of written notice to you, we will approve or disapprove the sites proposed by you for the operation of a Bar. We agree to exert our best efforts to deliver such notification to you within thirty (30) days of receipt by us of the complete site reports and other materials requested by us, containing all information reasonably required by us. If you have failed to obtain lawful possession of any approved site (through acquisition, lease, or sublease) within thirty (30) days after delivery of our approval thereof, we may, in our sole discretion, withdraw approval of such site.

2.3 Provided you have obtained lawful possession of any approved site; we shall offer to you a franchise to operate a Bar at such approved site by delivering to you a Franchise Agreement in form for execution by you. Such a Franchise Agreement shall be executed by an officer of yours and returned to us within fifteen (15) days of our delivery thereof, with payment of the balance of the initial franchise fee required thereunder. If you fail to execute such a Franchise Agreement and tender payment of the balance of the initial franchise fee as above provided, we may, at our sole discretion, terminate our offer to grant you a franchise to operate a Bar at such approved site and withdraw our approval of such site.

ARTICLE III MULTI-UNIT DEVELOPER FEE

Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, unless otherwise indicated on Exhibit B hereof, you shall pay to us the sum set forth in Section 1 of Exhibit B hereof as a non-refundable Multi-Unit Developer Fee, which shall be deemed fully earned by us upon execution of this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV TERMINATION BY US

In addition to our right to terminate under Section 1.4 hereof, we shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by delivering a notice to you stating that we elect to terminate this Agreement as a result of any of the breaches set forth below. Such termination shall be effective upon delivery of such notice of termination or, if applicable, upon failure to cure (to our satisfaction) any such breach by the expiration of any period of time within which such a breach may be cured in accordance with the provisions set forth below. It shall be a material breach of this Agreement if:

(a) you, or any of your shareholders, make an unauthorized assignment or transfer of this Agreement or an ownership interest in you;

(b) a general partnership interest in you (if you are a limited partnership) is terminated for whatever reason;

(e) you fail on three (3) or more separate occasions within any twelve (12) consecutive month period to comply with this Agreement, whether or not such failures to comply are corrected after notice thereof is delivered to you; or

(f) we have delivered a notice of termination of a Franchise Agreement in accordance with its terms and conditions as defined in such agreement.

You shall have the right to cure a breach under Paragraph (d) within thirty (30) days after delivery of our notice of termination.

ARTICLE V EFFECT OF TERMINATION AND EXPIRATION

5.1 All obligations of us and you under this Agreement which expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement and until they are satisfied in full or by their nature expire.

5.2 Upon termination, transfer, or expiration of this Agreement, you agree that for a period of two (2) years, commencing on the effective date of expiration, transfer, or termination of this Agreement, you (and your shareholders or partners) will not have any interest as an owner, partner, director, officer, employee, consultant, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any facility that offers products or services similar to those offered at the Bar located or operating within the Development Area or within twenty-five (25) miles of any Bar in the System. 6.1 This Agreement is fully assignable by us and shall inure to the benefit of any assignee or other legal successor to our interests herein.

6.2 You understand and acknowledge that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to you and that we have granted this Agreement in reliance upon the individual or collective character, skill, aptitude, attitude, business ability, and financial capacity of your shareholders. Therefore, neither this Agreement (or any interest therein) nor any part or all of the ownership of you may be voluntarily, involuntarily, directly or indirectly, assigned, sold, subdivided, subfranchised, or otherwise transferred by you or your owners (including, without limitation, by consolidation or merger, by issuance of securities representing an ownership interest in you, by conversion of a general partnership to a limited partnership, by transfer or creation of an interest as a general partner of a limited partnership, by transfer of an interest in you, or in the event of your death or the death of an owner of you, by will, declaration of or transfer in trust or the laws of intestate succession), without our prior written approval, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and the payment of a transfer fee of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000), plus any applicable broker or commission fees. Any such assignment or transfer without such approval shall constitute a breach hereof and shall convey no rights to or interest in this Agreement to such assignee.

6.3 In the event you (or any of your owners) shall, subject to the restrictions and conditions of transfer contained in Section 6.2 of this Agreement, attempt to raise or secure funds by the sale of securities (including, without limitation, common or preferred stock, bonds, debentures or general or limited partnership interests) in you or any affiliate of yours, you, recognizing that the written information used with respect thereto may reflect upon us, agree to submit any such written information to us prior to its inclusion in any registration statement, prospectus or similar Disclosure Document or memorandum and must obtain our written consent to the method of financing prior to any offering or sale of such securities. Our written consent shall not imply or constitute our approval with respect to the method of financing, the offering literature submitted to us or any other aspect of the offering. No information respecting us or any of our affiliates shall be included in any securities disclosure document, unless such information has been furnished by us in writing pursuant to your written request, in which we, in our sole discretion, object to any reference to us or any of our affiliates or to any of our franchisees in such offering literature or prospectus, such literature or prospectus shall not be used unless and until our objections are withdrawn. We assume no responsibility for the offering whatsoever.

6.4 You and each of your owners must indemnify, defend and hold harmless us and our affiliates, and our respective officers, directors, employees and agents, from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, and all costs and expense (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred in the defense of such claims, demands or liabilities arising from the offering or sale of such securities, whether asserted by a purchaser of any such security or by a governmental agency. We shall have the right (but not the obligation) to defend any such claims, demands or liabilities and/or to participate in the defense of any action to which we or any of our affiliates or any of our respective officers, directors, employees or agents are named as a party.

6.5 Upon your death or disability, or if you are a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other legal entity upon the death or disability of a principal owner of you, all of such person's interest in this Agreement or such interest in you shall be transferred to a transferee approved by us. Such disposition of this Agreement or such interest in you, including, without limitation, transfer by bequest or inheritance, shall be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed six (6) months from the date of death or disability, and shall be subject to terms and conditions substantially similar to those applicable to transfers contained in this Article VI. Failure to so transfer the interest in this Agreement or such interest in you within said period of time shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII ENFORCEMENT

7.1 To the extent that Section 5.2 is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited, or length of time, but may be made enforceable by reductions of any or all thereof, you and we agree that same shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought.

7.2 If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater prior notice of the termination of this Agreement than is required hereunder, or the taking of some other action not required hereunder, or if under any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction any provision of this Agreement or any specification, standard or operating procedure prescribed by us is invalid or unenforceable, the prior notice and/or other action required by such law or rule shall be substituted for the comparable provisions hereof, and we shall have the right, in our sole discretion, to modify such invalid or unenforceable provision, specification, standard or operating procedure to the extent required to be valid and enforceable. You agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law which is subsumed within the terms of any provision hereof as though it were separately articulated in and made a part of this Agreement that may result from striking from any of the provisions hereof, or any specification, standard or operating procedure prescribed by us, any portion or portions which a court may hold to be unenforceable in a final decision to which we are a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such court order. Such modifications to this Agreement shall be effective only in such jurisdiction unless we elect to give them greater applicability and this Agreement shall be enforced as originally made and entered into in all other jurisdictions.

7.3 We and you may by written instrument unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction upon the other under this Agreement, effective upon delivery of written notice thereof to the other or such other effective date stated in the notice of waiver. Whenever this Agreement requires our prior approval or consent, you shall make a timely written request therefor, and such approval shall be obtained in writing.

7.4 We make no warranties or guarantees upon which you may rely, and assume no liability or obligation to you by granting any waiver, approval, or consent to you, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request, therefore. Any waiver granted by us shall be without prejudice to any other rights we may have, will be subject to our continuing review, and may be revoked, in our sole discretion, at any time and for any reason, effective upon delivery to you of ten (10) days' prior written notice.

7.5 We and you shall not be deemed to have waived or impaired any right, power or option reserved by this Agreement (including, without limitation, the right to demand exact compliance with every term, condition and covenant herein, or to declare any breach thereof to be a default and to determine this Agreement prior to the expiration of its term) by virtue of any custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof; any failure, refusal, or neglect of us or you to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist upon exact compliance by the other with its obligations hereunder; any waiver, forbearance, delay, failure, or omission by us to exercise any right, power, or option, whether of the same, similar or different nature, with respect to any Bar or any development or franchise agreements therefor; any grant of a Franchise Agreement to you; or the acceptance by us of any payment from you after any breach of this Agreement.

7.6 Neither we nor you shall be liable for loss or damage or deemed to be in breach of this Agreement if its failure to perform its obligations results from: (1) compliance with any law, ruling, order, regulation, requirement, or instruction of any federal, state, or municipal government or any department or agency thereof; (2) acts of God; (3) acts or omissions of the other party; (4) fires, strikes, embargoes, war, or riot; or (5) any other similar event or cause. Any delay resulting from any of the said causes shall extend performance accordingly or excuse performance, in whole or in part, as may be reasonable.

7.7 Nothing herein contained shall bar our right to obtain specific performance of the provisions of this Agreement and injunctive relief against threatened conduct that will cause us loss or damages under customary equity rules, including applicable rules for obtaining restraining orders and preliminary injunctions. You agree that we may have such injunctive relief, without bond, but upon due notice, in addition to such further and other relief as may be available at equity or law.

7.8 Our and your rights hereunder are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by us or you of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by us or you of any other right or remedy hereunder or which we or you are entitled by law or equity to enforce.

7.9 To the extent not inconsistent with applicable law, this Agreement and the offer or sale of this Agreement shall be governed by the substantive laws (and expressly excluding the choice of law) of the State of Delaware.

7.10 You and we agree that any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement (including, without limitation, the offer and sale of this Agreement) shall be instituted and maintained only in a state or federal court of general jurisdiction in the State of Delaware, and you irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of such court and waives any objection you may have to either the jurisdiction or venue of such court.

7.11 This Agreement is binding upon the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, assigns, and successors in interest, and shall not be modified except by written agreement signed by both you and us.

7.12 The preambles and exhibit(s) are a part of this Agreement, which constitutes the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between us and you relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Nothing in this or any related agreement, however, is intended to disclaim the representations we made in the Franchise Disclosure Document.

7.13 Nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or legal entity not a party hereto.

7.14 The headings of the several sections and paragraphs hereof are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such sections or paragraphs.

7.15 The term "Multi-Unit Developer" as used herein is applicable to one (1) or more persons, a corporation or a partnership, as the case may be, and the singular usage includes the plural, and the masculine and neuter usages include the other and the feminine. If two (2) or more persons are at any time Multi-Unit Developer hereunder, their obligations and liabilities to us shall be joint and several. References to "Multi-Unit Developer" and "assignee" which are applicable to an individual or individuals shall mean the owner(s) of the equity or operating control of Multi-Unit Developer or the assignee, if Multi-Unit Developer or the assignee is a corporation, limited liability company or partnership.

7.16 This Agreement shall be executed in multiple copies, each of which shall be deemed an original.

7.17 Time is of the essence of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII DISPUTE RESOLUTION

8.1 The parties have reached this Agreement in good faith and with the belief that it is advantageous to each of them. In recognition of the strain on time, unnecessary expense and wasted resources potentially associated with litigation and/or arbitration, and in the spirit of cooperation, the parties pledge to try to resolve any dispute amicably, without litigation or arbitration. Other than an action brought by us under Section 8.3 of this Agreement, and with the exception of injunctive relief or specific performance actions, before the filing of any arbitration, you and we agree to mediate any dispute, controversy or claim between us and/or any of our affiliates, officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, guarantors, employees or agents (each a “Franchisor Related Party”), on the one hand, and you and/or any of your affiliates, officers, directors, managers, shareholders, members, owners, guarantors, employees or agents (each a “Developer Related Party”), including without limitation, in connection with any dispute, controversy or claim arising under, out of, in connection with or in relation to: (a) this Agreement; (b) the parties’ relationship; or (c) the events occurring prior to the entry into this Agreement. Good faith participation in these procedures to the greatest extent reasonably possible, despite lack of cooperation by one or more of the other parties, is a precondition to maintaining any arbitration or legal action, including any action to interpret or enforce this Agreement.

(a) Mediation will be conducted in Delaware (or, at our option, the county where our corporate headquarters are then-located). Persons authorized to settle the dispute must attend each mediation session in person, or, if authorized by us, through a designated video conferencing platform. The party seeking mediation (the “Initiating Party”) must commence mediation by sending the other party/parties a written notice of its request for mediation (the “Mediation Notice”). The Mediation Notice must specify, to the fullest extent possible, the nature of the dispute, the Initiating Party’s version of the facts surrounding the dispute, the amount of damage and the nature of any injunctive or other such relief such party claims and must identify one or more persons with authority to settle the dispute for the Initiating Party. Upon receipt of the Mediation Notice, the parties will endeavor, in good faith, to resolve the dispute outlined in the Dispute Notice. If the parties have been unable to resolve any such dispute within twenty (20) days after the date the Mediation Notice is provided by the Initiating Party to the other party, either party may initiate a mediation procedure in accordance with this provision. The parties agree to participate in the mediation proceedings in good faith with the intention of resolving the dispute, if at all possible, within thirty (30) days of the notice from the party seeking to initiate the mediation procedures. The parties agree to participate in the mediation procedure to its conclusion, as set forth in this section.

(b) The mediator shall advise the parties in writing of the format for the meeting or meetings. If the mediator believes it will be useful after reviewing the position papers, the mediator shall give both himself or herself and the authorized person designated by each party an opportunity to hear an oral presentation of each party’s views on the matter in dispute. The mediator shall assist the authorized persons to negotiate a resolution of the matter in dispute, with or without the assistance of counsel or others. To this end, the mediator is authorized both to conduct joint meetings and to attend separate private caucuses with the parties. All mediation sessions will be strictly private. The mediator must keep confidential all information learned unless specifically authorized by the party from which the information was obtained to disclose the information to the other party.

(c) The parties commit to participate in the proceedings in good faith with the intention of resolving the dispute if at all possible. The mediation may be concluded: (a) by the signing of a settlement agreement by the parties; (b) by the mediator’s declaration that the mediation is terminated; or (c) by a written declaration of either party, no earlier than at the conclusion of a full day’s mediation, that the mediation is terminated. Even if the mediation is terminated without resolving the dispute, the parties agree not to terminate negotiations and not to begin any arbitration or legal action or seek another remedy before the expiration of five (5) days following the mediation. A party may begin arbitration within this period only if the arbitration might otherwise be barred by an applicable statute of limitations or in order to request an injunction from a Court of competent jurisdiction to prevent irreparable harm.

(d) The fees and expenses of the mediator shall be shared equally by the parties. The mediator may not later serve as a witness, consultant, expert or counsel for any party with respect to the dispute or any related or similar matter in which either of the parties is involved. The mediation procedure is a compromise negotiation or settlement discussion for purposes of federal and state rules of evidence. The parties agree that no stenographic, visual or audio record of the proceedings may be made. Any conduct, statement, promise, offer, view or opinion, whether oral or written, made in the course of the mediation by the parties, their agents or employees, or the mediator is confidential and shall be treated as privileged. No conduct, statement, promise, offer, view or opinion made in the mediation procedure is discoverable or admissible in evidence for any purpose, not even impeachment, in any proceeding involving either of the parties. However, evidence that would otherwise be discoverable or admissible shall not be excluded from discovery or made inadmissible simply because of its use in the mediation.

8.2 Except as qualified below and in Section 8.3, and if not resolved by the negotiation and mediation procedures set forth in Section 8.1, all disputes, claims and controversies between us or a Franchisor Related Party on the one hand, and you and/or any of your owners or guarantors on the other hand, arising under, out of, in connection with, or related to: (a) this Agreement; (b) the parties' relationship; (c) the events leading up to the entry into this Agreement; (d) the scope or validity of the arbitration obligation under this Agreement; (e) any System standard; (f) any claim based in tort or any theory of negligence (including claims for fraud in the inducement and other claims of fraud and the arbitrability of any matter); and / or (g) any lease or sublease for any Franchised Business, shall be submitted to binding arbitration in Delaware (or at our option, in the city and state in which our then-current headquarters is located) under the authority of Delaware Statutes. The arbitrator(s) will have a minimum of five (5) years experience in franchising or distribution law and will have the right to award specific performance of this Agreement. If the parties cannot agree upon a mutually agreeable arbitrator, then the arbitration shall be conducted as per the selection method set forth in the Delaware Statutes. The proceedings will be conducted under the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with the provisions of this arbitration provision or the Delaware Statutes. Any arbitration must be on an individual basis and the parties, and the arbitrator will have no authority or power to proceed with any claim as a class action, associational claim, or otherwise to join or consolidate any claim with any other claim or any other proceeding involving third parties. In the event a court determines that this limitation on joinder of or class action certification of claims is unenforceable, then this entire commitment to arbitrate shall become null and void and the parties shall submit all claims to the jurisdiction of the courts. The arbitrator shall have the right to make a determination as to any procedural matters that court of competent jurisdiction would be permitted to make in the state in which our main office is located. Further, the arbitrator shall decide all factual, procedural, or legal questions relating in any way to the dispute between the parties, including, without limitation, questions relating to whether Section 8.1 or 8.2 is applicable and enforceable as against the parties; the subject matter, timeliness, and scope of the dispute; any available remedies; and the existence of unconscionability and/or fraud in the inducement. The decision of the arbitrator(s) will be final and binding on all parties. This Section will survive termination or non-renewal of this Agreement under any circumstances. Judgment upon the award of the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. During the pendency of any arbitration proceeding, you and we shall fully perform our respective obligations under this Agreement. Other than as may be required by law, the entire arbitration proceedings (including, without limitation, any rulings, decisions or orders of the arbitrator), shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone other than the parties to this Agreement. We reserve the right, but have no obligation, to advance your share of the costs of any arbitration proceeding in order for such arbitration proceeding to take place and by doing so shall not be deemed to have waived or relinquished our right to seek recovery of those costs against you.

8.3 Exceptions to Mediation and Arbitration. Notwithstanding Section 8.1 or Section 8.2, the parties agree that the following claims will not be subject to internal dispute resolution, mediation or arbitration:

(a) any action for declaratory or equitable relief, including, without limitation, seeking preliminary or permanent injunctive relief, specific performance, other relief in the nature of equity to enjoin any harm or threat of harm to such party's tangible or intangible property, brought at any time, including, without limitation, prior to or during the pendency of any arbitration proceedings initiated hereunder;

(b) any action in ejectment or for possession of any interest in real or personal property; or

(c) any claim by us: (i) relating to your failure to pay any fee due to us under this Agreement; (ii) relating to your failure to comply with the confidentiality and non-competition covenants set forth in this Agreement; (iii) for indemnification; and/or (iv) and/or our affiliates relating to your use of the Marks and/or the System, including, without limitation, claims for violations of the Lanham Act.

8.4 No Class or Collective Actions. You agree that any arbitration, or, if applicable, litigation, between you (or any of your owners or guarantors), on the one hand, and us or Franchisor Related Party, on the other hand, will be on such party's individual claim and that the claim or claims subject to arbitration and/or litigation shall not be arbitrated or litigated on a class- wide, associational or collective basis.

8.5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 8.1 or 8.2 above, we and you each have the right, in a proper case, to seek injunctions, restraining orders and orders of specific performance from a court of competent jurisdiction, provided that, with the exception of claims covered under Section 8.3 above, we agree to contemporaneously submit our dispute for arbitration on the merits as provided herein.

You agree that we will not be required to post a bond to obtain any injunctive relief and that your only remedy if an injunction is entered against you will be the dissolution of that injunction if warranted upon due hearing. All claims for damages because of the wrongful issuance of such injunction are hereby expressly waived. If we secure any such injunction or order of specific performance, you agree to pay to us an amount equal to the aggregate of our costs of obtaining such relief including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees, costs and expenses as provided in this Section and any damages incurred by us as a result of the breach of any such provision.

8.6 Limitation of Damages

The parties hereto and each of them EXPRESSLY WAIVE(S) ANY CLAIM FOR PUNITIVE, MULTIPLE AND/OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES; except that this waiver and limitation shall not apply with respect to (a) your obligation to indemnify us pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, or (b) any claims we bring against you and/or your guarantors and/or your owners for unauthorized use of the Marks, unauthorized use or disclosure of any Confidential Information, unfair competition, breach of your confidentiality or non-competition covenants under this Agreement, and/or any cause of action under the Lanham Act, and we shall be entitled to receive an award of multiple damages, attorneys' fees and all damages as provided by law.

8.7 Waiver of Jury Trial

The parties hereto and each of them EXPRESSLY WAIVE(S) THE RIGHT ANY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ARBITRATION, ACTION, PROCEEDING, OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR IN EQUITY, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, FOR ANY CLAIMS RELATING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE NEGOTIATION OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE EVENTS LEADING UP TO THE SIGNING OF THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE BUSINESS RELATIONSHIP RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE FRANCHISE, WHETHER BROUGHT IN STATE OR FEDERAL COURT, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT THEORY, NEGLIGENCE OR TORT, AND REGARDLESS OF WHETHER OR NOT THERE ARE OTHER PARTIES IN SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING.

This waiver is effective even if a court of competent jurisdiction decides that the arbitration provision in this Agreement is unenforceable. Each party acknowledges that it has had full opportunity to consult with counsel concerning this waiver, and that this waiver is informed, voluntary, intentional, and not the result of unequal bargaining power.

8.8 No Class or Collective Actions. You agree that any arbitration, or, if applicable, litigation, between you (or any of your owners or guarantors), on the one hand, and us or Franchisor Related Party, on the other hand, will be on such party’s individual claim and that the claim or claims subject to arbitration and/or litigation shall not be arbitrated or litigated on a class- wide, associational or collective basis.

ARTICLE IX
INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS; INDEMNIFICATION

We and you are independent contractors. Neither we nor you shall be obligated by or have any liability under any agreements, representations, or warranties made by the other that are not expressly authorized hereunder, nor shall we be obligated for any damages to any person or property directly or indirectly arising out of the operation of your business conducted pursuant to this Agreement, whether or not caused by your negligent or willful action or failure to act. We shall have no liability for any sales, use, excise, income, gross receipts, property, or other taxes levied upon you or your assets or upon us in connection with the business conducted by you, or any payments made by you to us pursuant to this Agreement or any Franchise Agreement. You agree to indemnify us and our subsidiaries, affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents and assignees against and to reimburse them for all such obligations, damages, and taxes for which they are held liable and for all costs reasonably incurred by them in the defense of any such claim brought against them or in any action in which they are named as a party, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ and expert witness fees, cost of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses, and travel and living expenses. We shall have the right to defend any such claim against us. The indemnities and assumptions of liabilities and obligations herein shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.
