What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit E.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration, and/or litigation only in its then-current home state (which currently is New Jersey). Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in its then-current home state (which currently is New Jersey) than in your own state.
2. Short Operating History. The franchisor is at an early stage of development and has a limited operating history. This franchise is likely to be a riskier investment than a franchise in a system with a longer operating history.
3. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sale levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING APPLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW ONLY

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then current reasonable qualifications or standards.

(ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000.00, the franchisee may request the franchisor to arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations, if any, of the franchisor to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION, OR ENFORCEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Notwithstanding paragraph (f) above, we intend to enforce fully the provisions of the arbitration section of our Franchise Agreement. We believe that paragraph (f) is unconstitutional and cannot preclude us from enforcing our arbitration provision. If you acquire a franchise, you acknowledge that we will seek to enforce that section as written, and that the terms of the Franchise Agreement will govern our relationship with you, including the specific requirements of the arbitration section.

Item 1

THE FRANCHISOR AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Franchise Disclosure Document (“Disclosure Document”), “we,” “us,” or “our” means Sparkle Squad, LLC, the franchisor. “You” means the person to whom we grant a franchise to operate a Sparkle Squad Business. You must sign the Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) attached as Exhibit A in your individual capacity. If you want an entity that you own to operate the franchise, you must sign the Assignment and Assumption Agreement (Exhibit C) under which all the provisions of the Agreement will apply to the entity and its owners (including you).

We are a Delaware limited liability company formed on September 15, 2022, and operate primarily under our own name and the SPARKLE SQUAD trademark. Our principal business address is 142 State Route 34, Holmdel, New Jersey 07733. We have offered franchises for Sparkle Squad Businesses since September 2023. Our direct parent company is LD Parent, Inc., which has the same principal business address as us. Our indirect parent company is CNL Strategic Capital, LLC, whose principal business address is 450 S. Orange Avenue, Suite 1400, Orlando, Florida 32801. If we have an agent in your state for service of process, we disclose that agent in Exhibit E. We have no predecessors.

We use the Agreement to grant franchises for Sparkle Squad Businesses to qualified persons (“franchisees”) who agree to adhere to the overall mission and core values underlying the Sparkle Squad system and understand that they are the means of delivering on the mission. A “Sparkle Squad Business” is identified by our trademarks, including “SPARKLE SQUAD” and logo appearing on the cover page of this Disclosure Document (the “Marks”), and uses our systems, standards, and know-how. The Sparkle Squad Business that you will operate is referred to as the “Business.” We have never operated a Sparkle Squad Business or offered franchises in another line of business. We have no business activities other than granting franchises for Sparkle Squad Businesses.

A Sparkle Squad business provides residential and commercial window cleaning services to a height of up to 60 feet, gutter cleaning, screen cleaning, house washing, pressure washing, and soft washing services, and holiday lighting and décor services. The Sparkle Squad franchise will use our methods and techniques, together with our marketing program, back office support system, and other elements. We and our affiliates have developed, and we are making available to our franchisees, comprehensive business methods and systems for developing and operating a Sparkle Squad Business, including technical information and expertise relating to authorized products and services we authorize. Our system also includes market selection, sales, marketing and advertising programs, and management information and techniques. You will operate within a specific territory (the “Territory”).

The window cleaning, gutter cleaning, and general exterior beautification industry is highly developed and competitive. Your competitors include both independent and franchised businesses offering similar services (some of which may be part of local, regional, or national chains). Your business will be mobile in that you will offer your services directly to consumers at their residences or, with commercial customers, at their places of business. Your market will be members of the general population. Your sales may be seasonal in certain markets (for example, those that have cold fall and winter seasons) and more year-round in other markets with warm or hot weather throughout the year.

No regulations apply specifically to the industry in which Sparkle Squad businesses operate. You must comply with all local, state, and federal laws that apply generally to all businesses. You should investigate all of these laws.

We are affiliated (by virtue of the same parent company) with Lawn Doctor, Inc. (“LDI”), which has the same principal business address as us. LDI offers and grants franchises for LAWN DOCTOR Businesses, the primary activity of which is to establish, care for, and maintain lawns and other vegetation in an identified territory. LDI also may require its franchisees to provide other services, including mosquito control. LAWN DOCTOR Businesses analyze lawn problems and care requirements, formulate and apply lawn chemicals and seed, market and promote the Business, and operate and maintain necessary equipment. They may offer optional services, such as liming, fungus control, grub treatments, and tree and shrub feeding. In addition, beginning in February 2024, LDI began offering its franchisees the option to add an authorized service line to their LAWN DOCTOR Businesses that offers and sells holiday lighting and décor design, installation, maintenance, removal, and storage services under the HOLIDAY LIGHTING HEROES trademark. As of April 2025, those services are a standard part of the LAWN DOCTOR Business franchise opportunity. LDI has offered franchises since 1967 and, as of December 31, 2025, had 672 franchised LAWN DOCTOR Businesses in operation. LDI has never operated a Sparkle Squad Business or offered franchises for other businesses.

We also are affiliated (by virtue of the same parent company) with Mosquito Hunters, LLC (“MH”), which has the same principal business address as us. MH offers and grants franchises for “PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS-HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING” businesses offering (i) outdoor pest control services specializing in the eradication of a wide range of pests, including mosquitoes, fleas, ticks, ants, spiders, rodents, and cockroaches, through regular spraying applications and a follow-up maintenance program as well as (ii) holiday lighting and décor services. MH’s predecessor began offering franchises under the MOSQUITO HUNTERS name in January 2015 and had sold 8 franchises as of May 2018 when MH acquired the MOSQUITO HUNTERS franchise system. MH added holiday lighting and décor as a central part of the “combination” franchise opportunity beginning in April 2024, although existing Mosquito Hunters Businesses received the opportunity to add the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING service line to their existing businesses beginning in December 2023. MH began using the additional trademark “PEST HUNTERS” to identify its franchised businesses beginning in March 2025. As of December 31, 2025, there were 139 franchised Mosquito Hunters Businesses in operation in the United States. MH has never operated a Sparkle Squad Business or offered franchises for other businesses.

We also are affiliated (by virtue of the same parent company) with ecomaids LLC (“EM”), which has the same principal business address as us. EM offers and grants franchises for “ECOMAIDS” businesses providing environmentally-friendly home cleaning services. EM has offered franchises since September 2019, although its predecessor began offering franchises in August 2012. EM has never operated a Sparkle Squad Business or offered franchises for other businesses. As of December 31, 2025, there were 40 franchised ECOMAIDS businesses operating in the United States.

We also are affiliated (as its direct parent company) with Elite Franchising Corp. (“Elite”), whose principal business address is 4–28 Steve Fonyo Dr., Kingston, ON (CANADA) K7M 8N9. Elite provides window cleaning, gutter cleaning, house washing, and screen cleaning services to residential and commercial customers as well as holiday lighting and décor services. Elite’s predecessor began franchising in 2018. Elite commenced offering franchises in May 2023. Elite has never operated a Sparkle Squad Business or offered franchises for other businesses. Footnotes to Item 7 Chart

* All amounts are nonrefundable.

1. Item 5 contains information on the circumstances under which discounts and fee reductions are available to franchisees. Your initial franchise fee might be lower if you operate an existing Sparkle Squad Business and are acquiring a franchise to operate an additional Sparkle Squad Business.
2. This fee is also described in Item 5.
3. Your Grand Opening Marketing Package, which we use to help you promote your business in your early stages of operation, is described in Item 11.
4. Equipment and tools include a Sparkle Squad Waterfed Window Cleaning W1 package, pressure washer, gutter cleaning equipment, screen cleaner, surface cleaner, softwash package, and ancillary tools.
5. Vehicle tracking and telematics are used to promote the safety and daily route efficiency of your service vehicles and crew members.
6. Sales support resources assist you with handling new sales and managing customer communications. There are two different platform levels (Pro and Standard) with various enhancements based on plan.
7. This covers the first monthly Technology Fee you must pay when you open for business.
8. You must have available or purchase computer hardware and software for the Business according to our standards and specifications, including a computer, monitor, printer, Microsoft Office, QuickBooks, and all consumables, including ink and paper. You must purchase peripheral devices such as telephones and connectivity (broadband, DSL, and cable). The low end of the range assumes you already have the required computer hardware.

9. In many instances, you may initially operate the Business from your home. If you do not have adequate storage space for equipment and materials, it should be available at a low rental given the limited space required (approximately 8' x 12'). We estimate monthly rental payments to be between $0 and $1,000 depending on the location. The low end of the range assumes you will operate the Business from your home with adequate storage space; the high end of the range assumes 1 month's rent for storage space at a cost of $1,000.
10. This estimate assumes you will lease the Service Vehicle used in the Business from our approved supplier. Our vehicle leasing vendor offers both 60- and 72-month leases with a required minimum of 10% down on all leases. If a candidate does not during the leasing approval process meet the qualifications for a 10% down payment based on credit score, the vehicle leasing vendor can offer leases under a 20% down payment option. The monthly lease payment for the required vehicle depends on lease-term and down payment percentage. The down payment or first month's lease payment estimate for the Sparkle Squad Job Pod includes wrapping, outfitting rhino lining, ramp, vent installation, and water filtration system outfitting.
11. You may designate up to 2 persons to participate in our mandatory training program, although you or your principal owner must attend the initial training program.
12. You must obtain and maintain the insurance coverage that we periodically specify, including general liability, workers compensation, and motor vehicle liability insurance. Insurance costs will vary considerably by state and depend on policy limits, types of policies, nature and value of physical assets, gross sales, number of employees, location, business contents, and other factors affecting risk exposure. These estimates contemplate monthly costs, although payment terms will vary by provider. We describe our current insurance requirements in Item 8.
13. This estimates the funds needed to cover your other pre-opening expenses as well as initial expenses for the first 3 months of operation. Additional funds are for the following: opening expenses; labor costs for 2 full-time technicians for servicing and/or supervising; Service Vehicle lease payments for second and third months of operation; rental space lease payments for second and third months of operation; centrally managed paid media investment and national marketing fund for first 3 months of operation; and technology fees for the second and third months of operation. Some expenses, particularly labor, will be affected by your locale and when the Business opens. In estimating these Additional Funds, we have relied on our affiliate's (Elite) experience in the window cleaning business since 2013 and our own experience in franchising Sparkle Squad Businesses since 2023.
14. We do not finance any part of your initial investment.

Item 8
RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Many of the items and services you will need for the Business must be purchased or leased from us or from sources we have designated or approved or must meet specifications we have set. We will provide you with a list of approved products and supplies, and a list of approved and designated suppliers, and will occasionally revise those lists. We estimate that source-restricted purchases for a Sparkle Squad Business will equal approximately 90 to 95% of your cost of establishing the Business and 50 to 60% of your ongoing costs.

We will provide certain support services for your Sparkle Squad Business, including a centralized call center, booking system, and support center, to process orders for the services within the franchise system, including orders in the Territory, handling customer inquiries, and other aspects of back office support to the extent we deem advisable (the “Back Office Support System Services”). We will direct all aspects of planning and operation of the Back Office Support System Services and have the right to add, remove, modify, or limit any Back Office Support System Services. We maintain a Back Office Support System Fund for the Back Office Support System Fees (described in Item 6) that you and other franchisees pay us from operating your Sparkle Squad Businesses. The Back Office Support System Fund is intended to provide a uniform standard for placement of orders for services and handling of customers throughout the franchise system, and to maintain a complete client database which provides management reports to franchisees. Except for these Back Office Support System Services and certain window cleaning and related equipment you buy from us, we and our affiliates currently are not the approved supplier or the only approved supplier of any required goods or services. (See discussion below about vehicle outfitting services.)

You must purchase computer hardware and software for the Business according to our standards and specifications. The computer hardware and software must be functional with the window cleaning business management computer software program provided by the supplier we designate. We have the right to require you to use designated and approved brands, types, makes and models of computer hardware (including printers) in connection with the computer software program. We also have the right to require you to use designated accounting professionals to ensure your required reports and financial statements are prepared properly.

You must purchase or lease at least one vehicle that is branded and outfitted with the required tool kit to perform the main services of the Sparkle Squad Business and that meets our specifications (the “Sparkle Squad Job Pod” or “Service Vehicle”). You must order the Service Vehicle from our approved supplier to ensure it complies with our standards and specifications. You also must: (1) take delivery of the Service Vehicle immediately following the completion of training school; (2) maintain the condition and appearance of the Service Vehicle and equipment consistent with the professional image of the Business; (3) display on the Service Vehicle and equipment only the Marks and signs, emblems, lettering, and logos we approve; and (4) not sell or transfer the Service Vehicle (other than to us) without first removing all of the Marks and proprietary equipment from the Service Vehicle. LDI will outfit your Service Vehicle for the Business and provide all related materials. The leasing company will pay LDI for those services and materials and roll those costs into your lease payments. One or more of our officers have a financial interest in LDI, which is the sole source of the vehicle outfitting services for your Service Vehicle. However, no officer of ours currently owns an interest in any other supplier to the Sparkle Squad system.

You must maintain in force the insurance coverage that we require from time to time and meet the other insurance related obligations in the Agreement. Such insurance must include comprehensive general liability, products liability, completed operations liability, motor vehicle liability, and workers' compensation. All such policies must be with carriers acceptable to us, must provide coverage on an occurrence basis, and must insure against claims for injury, death and property damage arising from the Business. Periodically, we will specify the required amount of coverage. Currently, general liability insurance must be not less than $1,000,000 combined single limit for each occurrence and $2,000,000 combined single limit aggregate; products and completed operations liability must not be less than $1,000,000 combined single limit aggregate; motor vehicle liability must not be less than $1,000,000 combined single limit aggregate; and workers' compensation must be the greater of our then-current requirements or as required by state law. We must be named an additional insured grantor. The types and amounts of coverage are subject to change by us.

During the first year of operation, your Business must use bookkeeping services provided by our designated franchise accounting provider.

Except as described above, there are no goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, real estate, or comparable items related to establishing or operating the Business that you currently must buy or lease from us (or our affiliate), from designated or approved suppliers, or according to our standards and specifications.

If you wish to use any type or brand of product or supply item, or purchase products or supplies from a supplier, that we have not yet approved, you must notify us of your desire to do so and submit to us specifications, photographs, samples and other information we request. You are not required to pay a fee to secure supplier approval. We will, within 30 days, determine whether the products, supplies or the supplier meets our specifications and standards. We develop our specifications and lists of approved suppliers through internal and field testing, consultations with franchisees and suppliers, review of industry and trade association information, and other means. We have the right to revoke supplier approval in a written notice, a copy of which will be provided to you. Our Operating Manual and written and online communications will identify our standards and specifications for you. You may, with our permission, provide those standards and specifications to suppliers if they agree to maintain confidentiality. We have the right to limit the number of approved suppliers with whom you may deal, designate sources that you must use, and/or refuse any of your requests for any reason, including that we have already designated an exclusive source (which might be us or our affiliate) for a particular item or service. For example, if we designate a buying marketplace (which may be developed and/or operated by us or our affiliate), you must buy the products and services we require through that marketplace. To the extent that we have developed criteria for suppliers, they are not available for review by franchisees.

We have not established any purchasing or distribution cooperatives. We have negotiated purchasing arrangements (including price terms) with suppliers who provide printed materials, Service Vehicles, and consumables to franchisees (although there are no direct or indirect financing arrangements in place with the Service Vehicle lessor). We and our affiliates have the right to derive revenue—in the form of promotional allowances, volume discounts, commissions, other discounts, performance payments, signing bonuses, rebates, marketing and advertising allowances, free products, and other economic benefits and payments—from suppliers that we designate, approve, or recommend for some or all Sparkle Squad Businesses on account of those suppliers’ prospective or actual dealings with you and other SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses. That revenue may or may not be related to services that we and our affiliates perform. All amounts received from suppliers, whether or not based on your or other franchisees’ purchases from those suppliers, will be our and our affiliates’ exclusive property, which we and our affiliates have the right to retain and use without restriction for any purposes we and they deem appropriate. Any products or services that we or our affiliates sell you directly may be sold to you at prices exceeding our and their costs. We do not provide you with any material benefits based on your purchase of approved items or services or your use of approved suppliers.

We and our affiliate will derive revenue or other material consideration from selling certain equipment, supplies, and services to you directly or indirectly and have the right to accept payments from suppliers on account of their dealings with you. We currently plan to receive payments from a third-party supplier of certain consumables you will use in providing your services. That payment currently is equal to 2% of the third-party supplier’s sales to our franchisees. In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025, according to our unaudited financial statements and internal records, our revenue from Back Office Support System fees and from selling window cleaning and related equipment directly to franchisees was $217,903, which was 5.97% of our total 2025 revenue of $3,652,662. During that fiscal year, we also received $17,913 from third-party suppliers on account of their business dealings with our franchisees. In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025, according to its unaudited financial statements and internal records, our affiliate LDI received $1,022,960 for various vehicle-related services for Sparkle Squad Business franchisees.

Item 10
FINANCING

We do not offer direct or indirect financing. We do not guaranty your note, lease, or obligation.

Item 11
FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEM, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Before you open the Business, we will:

(1) Provide you with specifications, standards, operating procedures, and specialized equipment for a Sparkle Squad Business to protect the quality of our products and services. (Agreement - Sections 7.A and 7.E) While we deliver, or cause to be delivered, to you the required franchise equipment package, we provide no other delivery or installation services.

(2) Provide you with reasonable guidance in the development of the Business. (Agreement - Section 2.B)

(3) Train you in the Sparkle Squad system. (Agreement - Section 2.A)

During your operation of the Business, we will:

(1) Provide you with guidance for the operation of the Business. We will provide guidance to you and supervisory employees through the Operating Manual (defined below) and, at our option, via telephonic conversations and consultation at our offices or your office. (Agreement - Section 2.B)

(2) Provide you access to the Operating Manual and, at our option, additional presentation materials and content on our learning management system. (Agreement - Section 2.B)

(3) Let you use the Marks. (Agreement - Section 3)

(4) Disclose confidential information to you relating to the operation of the Business. (Agreement - Section 4)

(5) Advise you of approved suppliers for a Service Vehicle and other items and required and authorized products and supplies. (Agreement - Section 7)

(6) Maintain and administer a Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment for you to drive leads within your Territory and a National Marketing Fund for regional and national marketing, advertising, and promotions programs. (Agreement - Sections 8.C and 8.D)

(7) Provide the Back Office Support System Services described in Item 8. (Agreement – Section 6.D)

(8) We will assist you in establishing prices for authorized products and supplies, but we generally do not control the prices you charge for your products and services.

Because Sparkle Squad Businesses provide services at customer locations and generally do not maintain physical sites, we do not have any site selection procedures or factors we consider in approving sites. Therefore, we do not have the right to terminate the Agreement if we and you cannot agree on a site.

Operating Manual

We will provide you with access to one copy of the operating manual (Agreement - Section 2.B), which may include one or more separate manuals as well as computer software, information available on an Internet site, other electronic media and/or written materials (the “Operating Manual”). The Operating Manual contains mandatory and suggested specifications, standards, and operating procedures we prescribe for the operation of a Sparkle Squad Business and information about your other obligations under the Agreement so that the quality of our brand, products, and services is maintained. We have the right to modify the Operating Manual, but this will not alter your fundamental status and rights under the Agreement. You must keep your copy of the Operating Manual current, but the master copy we maintain at our principal office will control. The Operating Manual is confidential, and you may disclose its contents only to your employees who need to know its contents to perform their jobs. You may not copy any part of the Operating Manual. The table of contents to the Operating Manual is attached as Exhibit F. As of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, the Operating Manual contains approximately 363 total pages.

At our option, we have the right to post some or all of the Operating Manual on a restricted website or extranet to which you will have access. If we do so, you must monitor and access the website or extranet for any updates to the Operating Manual or system standards.

Advertising

There are several component parts of your advertising obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

Grand Opening Marketing During First Year of Operation

As described in Item 5, you will pay us a $20,000 Grand Opening Marketing Package Fee when you sign the Franchise Agreement. We will control, manage, and use the Grand Opening Marketing Package Fee during your first year of operating your Sparkle Squad Business to market, promote, and advertise the Business in your Territory. We will identify the items and tactics on which to spend the Grand Opening Marketing Package Fee. (Agreement - Section 8.A)

Local Marketing

Beginning in the 13th month of operation of your Sparkle Squad Business (defined as the 13th month after your Grand Opening Marketing Package launch date, as we determine in our sole discretion), you must spend no less than $8,000 during each calendar year of the franchise term to market and promote all service lines of your Sparkle Squad Business within the Territory (the “Local Marketing Obligation”). (Agreement - Section 8.B) This Local Marketing Obligation is in addition to the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions and the NMF Fee described below.

You must submit to us—before you use them—samples of all local marketing materials we did not prepare or previously approve. If you do not receive written disapproval within 30 days after the materials are delivered to us, they will be deemed approved. If you use any unapproved promotional materials, we may assess a $250 fine per item per occurrence.

Within 60 days after the end of each calendar year, you must send us a report detailing your Local Marketing Obligation expenditures in the Territory during that year. If you do not spend the required amount during any calendar year, you must pay the unspent amount to us within the same 60 days. We then may use such monies for any marketing or promotional expense (whether national, regional, local or otherwise) at any time.

While you need not allocate Local Marketing Obligation expenditures evenly among all the service lines of your Sparkle Squad Business, you must allocate such expenditures in a manner that meaningfully supports each service line.

You must participate in any toll-free telephone number program we specify, including by signing any agreements and paying any associated charges, whether to us or a third party. You must display the toll-free telephone number as the primary and dominant business phone number. The toll-free telephone number will be displayed on all marketing materials and all of your Service Vehicles. (Agreement - Section 7.I)

You must comply with our requirements, standards, and specifications concerning your use of websites or other computer-based advertising to promote your Business. You must submit proposed website information for our approval before you implement a website, and we must approve any changes you make to a website. You may not in any event use the Marks in your domain name or electronic address. (Agreement - Section 7.J)

Local Advertising—Centrally Paid Media Investment

Recognizing the value of marketing and promotion to the goodwill and public image of Sparkle Squad Businesses, we will maintain and administer for you a centrally managed paid media investment, which our marketing team will manage and use exclusively to generate customer leads and brand awareness within your Territory through digital advertising channels that are centrally planned and managed for you (the “Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment”). (Agreement - Section 8.C)

Beginning in the first week of operation of your Sparkle Squad Business (defined as the week after your Grand Opening Marketing Package launch date, as we determine in our sole discretion), you must contribute to the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment, on an annual basis, the greater of $30,000 or 5% of your Net Revenues, subject to an annual cap of $45,000. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contribution is payable weekly (no less than approximately $577 per week). If you operate your Sparkle Squad Business in 2 contiguous territories (under 2 separate Franchise Agreements), the maximum Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions for those 2 territories during any calendar year will not exceed $45,000.

We will direct all programs financed by the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions, with sole discretion and control over the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used and their geographic, market and media placement and allocation. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment may be used to pay for preparing and producing advertising, marketing, and promotional content and related materials and administering, directing, and preparing marketing programs. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment will be accounted for separately from our other funds and will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for such reasonable salaries, administrative costs and overhead we incur in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment and its marketing and promotional programs. A report of monies collected and costs incurred by the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment for you will be prepared annually and made available for your inspection upon request.

Because your Sparkle Squad Business offers several distinct service lines, we may plan, deploy, and optimize the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment across the service lines based on seasonality, performance metrics, strategic priorities, and market opportunity. Although you pay Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions weekly, the timing and allocation of marketing expenditures with those contributions may not correspond directly to the timing of your contributions. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions are intended to fund ongoing and future marketing programs for you in the Territory, and we have the right to concentrate spending during periods when we believe that demand, conversion, or return on investment will be highest for the particular service line.

Advertising—National Marketing Fund

We will maintain and administer a National Marketing Fund (the “NMF”) for the regional and national marketing, advertising, and promotions programs we deem appropriate for the Sparkle Squad system. We will direct all such programs, materials, endorsements, and media used and their placement and allocation. (Agreement – Section 8.D)

Beginning in the 13th month of operation of your Sparkle Squad Business (defined as the 13th month after your Grand Opening Marketing Package launch date, as we determine in our sole discretion), you must start paying us for deposit into the NMF, on an annual basis, the greater of $5,000 or 2% of your Net Revenues (the “NMF Fee”), subject to an annual cap of $7,000. The NMF Fee is payable weekly (no less than approximately $96.15 per week). If you operate your Sparkle Squad Business in 2 contiguous territories (under 2 separate Franchise Agreements), the maximum NMF Fees for those 2 territories during any calendar year will not exceed $7,000. (Franchisees operating under older franchise agreements may contribute to the NMF at different rates.)

The NMF will be used and expended for media costs (including print, digital, search engine management and optimization, social media, television and radio, and other communications channels without restriction), commissions, market research costs, creative and production costs, including the costs of creating promotions and artwork, printing costs, and other costs relating to regional or national advertising and promotional programs we undertake. We may place and develop such advertisements and promotions and market them on your behalf, either directly or through an advertising or public relations agency retained for that purpose.

The NMF will be accounted for separately from our other funds and will not be used to defray any of our general operating expenses, except for salaries, administrative costs and overhead (calculated on a fully allocated basis), if any, that we incur in activities reasonably related to administering or directing the NMF and advertising programs (including conducting market research, preparing marketing materials, collecting and accounting for NMF Fees, paying taxes due on unspent NMF Fees we receive, and any other costs or expenses we incur operating or as a consequence of the NMF). An in-house unaudited statement of the NMF's operations will be prepared annually and made available to you upon request.

The NMF is intended to maximize general public recognition and patronage of the system for the benefit of all franchisees. We have no obligation to ensure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or pro-rata from the placement or conduct of such advertising and promotion. (In other words, we need not spend any particular portion of the NMF in your Territory.) The NMF will not be used principally to develop materials and programs to solicit franchisees. However, media, materials, and programs prepared using NMF Fees may describe the franchise program, reference the availability of franchises and related information, and process franchise leads.

You must fully participate in all required sales and promotional activities (including the introduction of new services, grand opening or other marketing programs we direct and approve).

The NMF is not intended to be a source of profit for us. If there is a surplus of funds at the end of any year, the funds will be applied to one or more of the following, in any combination we determine: (i) carried forward and applied to the next year's operating costs; or (ii) distributed pro rata to Sparkle Squad Businesses that contributed to the NMF for that year. We also have the right to use new NMF Fees to pay NMF deficits incurred during previous years.

While there currently are no company-owned or affiliate-owned Sparkle Squad Businesses, we expect that they would contribute to the NMF on the same terms as do franchisees.

In the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025, the expenditures of the NMF were allocated as follows: more than 90% for media and less than 10% for creative, production, administrative, and other costs.

There currently are no franchisee advertising councils that advise us on advertising and marketing policies and programs. We do not have the right to require you to participate in any advertising cooperative.

Computer System

You must purchase or have available computer hardware and software for the Business that meets our standards and specifications in order to operate the computer software program described below. (Agreement - Section 7.J) This includes a computer, monitor, printer, and third-party software, including Microsoft Office and QuickBooks.

You must use the computer software we designate. The computer software program is designed for your use in the overall management and operation of the Business and to collect and generate lists of customers and prospects, help conduct direct mail programs, provide accounting management information, generate data to track revenues from the Business, schedule services, provide GPS directions, and handle customer inquiries. The cost of the computer software program is part of the back-office support system, for which you pay 5% of weekly net revenues.

Except as described above, neither we nor the third parties whose products you buy have any contractual right or obligation to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades, or updates to the computer hardware and compatible software, unless you obtain a service contract or a warranty covers the product.

You may also be required to incur reasonable costs to upgrade and update your computer system by purchasing or leasing new or modified computer hardware and software for use with the computer software program described above. There are no contractual limitations on the frequency and cost of this obligation. You will also sign the Extranet Agreement (Exhibit D). We will have unlimited independent access to all information and data that your computer system generates and stores, including all data derived from the computer software program. We estimate the cost of any computer hardware and software, including peripheral devices and software in addition to the computer software program, to be up to $2,000. Because of varying market conditions and types of maintenance and support contracts, we currently are unable to estimate the annual cost of any optional maintenance, updating, upgrading, or support contracts.

Besides paying third-party suppliers the monthly license and support fees, you must pay us monthly Technology Fees to fund the technology expenditures we deem best for Sparkle Squad Businesses. (Agreement – Section 6.C) The Technology Fee currently is $150 per month until the cumulative Net Revenues of your Business reach $1,000,000, at which time the Technology Fee is currently scheduled to increase to $250 per month (provided, however, that we have the right, in our sole judgment, to increase the monthly Technology Fee from time to time during the franchise term). The first Technology Fee payment is due in the calendar month in which your Business commences operations. Each subsequent Technology Fee payment is due no later than the tenth day of each subsequent calendar month. We have the right to allocate and spend Technology Fees in our sole judgment, including for salaries, wages, and benefits, direct technology program costs, and overhead expenses for technology-related activities. The Technology Fee is in addition to any other costs you incur for the Software Program or other computer hardware or additional software. We have no obligation to account to you or other franchisees for our use of Technology Fees or to ensure that you or your Business benefits directly or pro rata based on your Technology Fee payments.

Business Opening

You select the Territory for your Business, subject to our approval. You must commence operation of your Business within 30 days after you complete our training program. Upon your request, we have the right, at our sole option, to grant you an extension of the 30-day period. (Agreement – Section 1.C) You must commence training no later than 180 days after the Agreement's effective date. (Agreement – Section 2.A) Therefore, we expect you to open your Business no later than approximately 215 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement. We have the right to terminate the Agreement if you do not comply with the opening deadline specified above. Factors affecting the time period between execution of the Agreement and opening of the Sparkle Squad Business include attendance at and satisfactory completion of our training program, arranging for any financing, and complying with all necessary licensing and regulatory requirements. We do not expect you to begin offering holiday lighting and décor services until the holiday season approaches (typically in September).

Training

You may designate up to 2 persons (the principal owner is required to attend) to participate in our mandatory training program. (Agreement – Section 2.A) The program will be conducted 5-6 times per year. You will be responsible for all travel and living expenses in connection with the training program. If you (or your principal owner) or your designee does not complete the training program to our satisfaction, you (or your principal owner) or your designee must attend the next initial training program at your expense. As noted above, you must commence training no later than 180 days after the Agreement’s effective date and begin operating your Business within 30 days after you complete training. If your (or your principal owner’s) or your designee’s performance in the additional training program is unsatisfactory, we have the right to terminate the Agreement effective upon delivery of notice of termination to you. We have the right to require that you (or your principal owner) and, if applicable, your general manager complete supplemental and refresher training programs, to be furnished without charge, at designated locations. You must pay any travel and living expenses for supplemental and refresher training programs. We, at our discretion, may provide some or all training programs in a virtual environment via a restricted website or extranet to which you have access.

Currently, the initial training program is conducted at our headquarters (or at nearby facilities). The current training program is a 5-day training program which includes approximately 48.5 hours of actual classroom and on-site instruction. The instructional materials for our training program include handouts, our online learning management system, and quizzes that we require you to take. Our officers participate in and supervise all phases of the program based on their expertise with Sparkle Squad Businesses or similar businesses. Our Department of Operations administers the training program. Chris Stoness, our Chief Executive Officer, has been an executive with the Sparkle Squad system since our formation and has experience in all aspects of operations, having founded our Canadian affiliate’s ELITE WINDOW business system in 2013 and operated it continuously since then. Mr. Stoness oversees the training program.

In addition to the above training, you will have access to our learning management system, which currently includes over 100 custom training courses on topics including financial acumen, software, business strategies, marketing tactics, technical skills, succession planning, and more. The designated supplier of the computer software program also will provide you with computer software training.

We periodically may conduct conventions or conferences for some or all of our franchisees (“Conventions”). You must attend one or more of these Conventions (as we specify) and pay all expenses incurred in attending, including registration, transportation, and meals, lodging, and living expenses. We will determine the duration and location of and curriculum for the Conventions. You must pay the applicable registration fee for each Convention when you register or as we otherwise direct. This fee is not refundable. You must pay a registration fee even if you do not attend (or plan to attend) the particular Convention. If you own and operate more than one Sparkle Squad Business franchise, you need only pay a single Convention registration fee for a particular Convention.

Item 12 TERRITORY

A geographic Territory will be identified in the Franchise Agreement in which you will initially conduct the Business. The Territory will contain no less than 35,000 single-family residences. We do not have the right to alter your Territory or territorial rights during the franchise term (we have the right to change the Territory upon your acquisition of a successor franchise for the Business). You have no options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

If you are in compliance with the Agreement, we will not operate, or grant a franchise for the operation of, a Sparkle Squad Business with a territory which overlaps in any material respect with your Territory. Except for this limitation, we and our affiliates retain all rights with respect to Sparkle Squad Businesses, the Marks, and other activities, including:

(1) the right to provide, offer and sell, and to grant others the right to provide, offer and sell, products that are identical or similar to and/or competitive with those offered and sold by Sparkle Squad Businesses, whether identified by the Marks or other trademarks or service marks, through dissimilar distribution channels (including via catalog, the Internet or other media) both inside and outside your Territory and on any terms and conditions we and our affiliates deem appropriate;

(2) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling services and products that are identical or similar to and/or competitive with those offered and sold by Sparkle Squad Businesses, but under trademarks and service marks other than the Marks (including businesses designing, installing, maintaining, and removing holiday lighting and décor and identified by the HOLIDAY LIGHTING HEROES trademark/service mark, the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING trademark/service mark, and any other trademarks or service marks), both inside and outside your Territory and on any terms and conditions we and our affiliates deem appropriate;

(3) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling services and products that are dissimilar from those offered and sold by Sparkle Squad Businesses, whether under the Marks or other trademarks and service marks, both inside and outside your Territory and on any terms and conditions we and our affiliates deem appropriate;

(4) the right to operate, and to grant others the right to operate, Sparkle Squad Businesses with territories which do not overlap in any material respect with your Territory under any terms and conditions we deem appropriate and regardless of proximity to the Business;

(5) the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses providing products and services similar to those provided by a Sparkle Squad Business, and franchising, licensing or creating similar arrangements with respect to those businesses once acquired, wherever those businesses (or the franchisees or licensees of those businesses) are located or operating (including in your Territory); and

(6) the right to be acquired by a business providing products and services similar to those provided by Sparkle Squad Businesses, or by another business, even if such business operates, franchises and/or licenses competitive businesses in your Territory.

We have the right to exercise any of the retained rights above without compensating you.

You must conduct the Business solely within your Territory, so that no Net Revenues of the Business are derived from customers whose properties are located outside your Territory. You must pay us an incremental royalty of 15% of the Net Revenues for all business conducted outside your Territory. This 15% royalty is in addition to the required weekly royalty of 10% of the Net Revenues of the Business. In addition, this incremental 15% royalty will apply if you acquire an existing Sparkle Squad Business that has customers outside its designated territory. Therefore, you may not provide services to customers outside of your Territory without our prior written approval. If we provide our approval, you may provide services only in the manner we specify, and we have the right, but not the obligation, to allow you to engage in telemarketing or other direct marketing to provide services outside your Territory. Given the nature of Sparkle Squad Businesses, we do not expect you to engage in Internet or catalog sales. If you have customers whose properties are located outside your Territory and we grant to another franchisee a territory that encompasses such properties of your customers, then you must give such customers to such other franchisee at no charge.

Subject to our approval, you may (but have no obligation to) relinquish a portion of your Territory for inclusion in the territory of a Sparkle Squad Business we grant to another person or entity. If you do so, you will be entitled to be paid any amount the new franchisee agrees to pay for this relinquishment over and above the initial franchise fee payable to us.

Because Sparkle Squad Businesses provide services at customer locations and generally do not maintain physical sites, relocation is not an issue that arises with Sparkle Squad Businesses. The continuation of your territorial rights does not depend upon your achievement of any sales level or other contingency with the exception of your compliance with the Agreement as described above. While we do not currently intend to use the Marks or other trademarks in other channels of distribution for similar products or services, we have the right to do so. Except as provided below, we and our affiliates currently do not operate, franchise, or plan to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark that sells or will sell services or goods similar to those offered by Sparkle Squad Businesses.

Holiday lighting and décor services offered and sold under the “HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING” name are part of the PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS-HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING Business combination franchise opportunity offered by our affiliate MH. In addition, holiday lighting and décor services offered under the “HEROES HOLIDAY LIGHTING” name are a service line offered as part of the LAWN DOCTOR Business franchise offered by our affiliate LDI. Our franchising affiliates MH and LDI (described in Item 1) share our principal business address and generally use the same training facilities that we will use. PEST HUNTERS-MOSQUITO HUNTERS-HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING and LAWN DOCTOR Businesses may solicit and accept orders for holiday lighting and décor services from customers near your Business and in your Territory. However, because we, LDI, and MH want all of our franchise systems to succeed, we and they expect to resolve, in the best manner possible, any conflicts between our and their respective franchisees regarding territory, customers, and support in the holiday lighting and décor services space.

Item 13 TRADEMARKS

We will license to you the right to use the Marks in the operation of the Business and in providing the services and products associated with the Business. The principal Marks are the following, which our affiliate LDI registered on the Principal Register of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office:

Mark	Registration No.	Registration Date
“SPARKLE SQUAD” word mark	7,183,534	10/03/2023
 Bubble Design Mark	7,191,223	10/10/2023

LDI intends to file all required affidavits of use and renewals when they become due for as long as the Marks remain material to our franchise system.

LDI licenses us to use the Mark and related intellectual property, and to authorize franchisees to use them in operating Sparkle Squad Businesses, under a Trademarks, Copyrights, and Trade Secrets License Agreement effective September 15, 2022 (the “License Agreement”). The License Agreement’s initial term is 20 years; we have the right to renew the License Agreement for 2 successive 5-year terms. We have the right to terminate the License Agreement at any time. LDI may terminate the License Agreement immediately if we breach the License Agreement and fail to cure the breach within 30 days after receiving written notice from LDI. When the License Agreement terminates or expires, we must stop using and sublicensing the Marks and related intellectual property. However, any Sparkle Squad Business franchisee that has been authorized to use the Marks in its franchise may continue using the Marks until that franchisee’s franchise agreement, and any permitted successor franchise agreement, expire or are terminated, but only if the franchisee continues to comply with its obligations in the franchise agreement and any permitted successor franchise agreement during their remaining terms. No other agreement limits our right to use or sublicense any Mark.

There are currently no effective material determinations of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or the trademark administrator of any state or any court, nor are there any pending infringement, opposition or cancellation proceedings or any pending material federal or state court litigation, involving any of the Marks. We do not actually know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks in any state.

You must follow our rules when you use the Marks, including our requirements and restrictions concerning use of the Marks on any website. Your right to use the Marks is limited to the conduct of the Business in compliance with the Franchise Agreement and all applicable standards, specifications, and operating procedures we prescribe. Your unauthorized use of the Marks will constitute an infringement of our rights. All provisions of the Agreement will apply to any additional trade and service marks and commercial symbols we authorize you to use. You must use the Marks as the sole identification of the Business, but you must identify yourself as the independent owner, operator, and manager of the Business in the manner we prescribe. You may not use any Mark or any variation thereof (1) as part of any corporate or legal business name, (2) with any prefix, suffix, or other modifying words, terms, designs, or symbols, (3) in connection with the performance or sale of any unauthorized services or products, (4) as part of any domain name, electronic address, or search engine, or (5) in any other manner we have not expressly authorized in writing. To the extent you use any Mark in employment-related materials, you must include a clear disclaimer that you (and only you) are the employer of employees and that we, as the franchisor, are not the employer of your Business's employees and do not engage in any employer-type activities for which only franchisees are responsible, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions.

You must immediately notify us of any apparent infringement or challenge to your use of any Mark. We will take action as we deem appropriate and control any litigation or proceeding. You must assist us with any action we may take in connection with an infringement or challenge to any Mark. If we decide to modify or discontinue use of any Mark or use one or more additional or substitute trade or service marks, no matter the circumstances, then you must comply with our directions to modify or discontinue the use of such Mark. We are not required by the Franchise Agreement to defend you against any claim respecting your use of any Mark. We also are not obligated to reimburse you for your direct expenses in modifying or discontinuing the use of a Mark and substituting a different trademark or service mark, for any loss of goodwill associated with any modified or discontinued Mark, or for your expenditures to promote a modified or substitute trademark or service mark.

PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

Currently, no patents or patent applications are material to the franchise. We claim a copyright in our Operating Manual, advertising and marketing materials, and similar items used in the franchise. We have not registered these copyrights with the United States Copyright Office but need not do so to protect them. Our right to use many of the copyrighted materials described above and much of the confidential information described below arises from the same License Agreement described in Item 13.

There are currently no effective material determinations of the United States Copyright Office or any court regarding any of the copyrighted materials. We are not obligated to protect or defend copyrights. Except for the License Agreement, there are no agreements currently in effect which significantly limit our right to use or license the use of the copyrighted materials in any manner material to you. We do not actually know of any infringing uses of our copyrights that could materially affect your use of copyrighted materials in any state. We are not obligated to reimburse you for your direct expenses in modifying or discontinuing the use of any copyright. Nor are you entitled to any other compensation in such circumstances.

Through the Operating Manual and other means, we provide confidential information to franchisees. Our confidential information includes methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, sales and marketing techniques and knowledge of and experience in the development, operation, and franchising of Sparkle Squad Businesses (some of which constitutes trade secrets under applicable law). You must keep this information completely confidential. You may not use the confidential information in any other business or make unauthorized copies of any confidential information. Your customer list is included in our confidential information, is our property, and constitutes our trade secret. You must implement the procedures that we require to prevent unauthorized disclosure of the confidential information. We have the right to review and approve the form of confidentiality agreement you use and to be a third-party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. Our right to review and approve the form of agreement is solely to ensure that you adequately protect confidential information. Under no circumstances will we control the forms or terms of employment agreements you use with your Business's employees or otherwise be responsible for your labor relations or employment practices.

All ideas, concepts, techniques, or materials relating to a Sparkle Squad Business, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for you or your owners or employees, must be promptly disclosed to us and will be deemed to be our sole and exclusive property, part of the franchise system, and works made-for-hire for us. To the extent any item does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for us, you assign ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to us and must sign whatever assignment or other documents we request to show our ownership or to help us obtain intellectual property rights in the item.

OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

You (or, if you are an entity, your owners) must continuously promote the Business and devote your full time, energies, and attention to operating the Business. You cannot engage in any business or activity that competes with us, the Business, or the Sparkle Squad system. However, we may permit you to engage in other non-competitive business activities if you obtain our written consent, which we may withhold in our sole discretion. If we allow you to transfer your rights and obligations under the Franchise Agreement to a corporation or other entity that you own, you will remain bound personally by every contractual provision, whether containing monetary or non-monetary obligations, including the covenant not to compete.

There are no limits on whom you may hire as an on-premises supervisor (for example, a general manager) if you or your owners do not operate the Business on a day-to-day basis. That on-premises supervisor need not have any equity interest in you. However, the on-premises supervisor must successfully complete our training program and agree to maintain the confidentiality of our proprietary information. Franchise owners are subject to non-competition restrictions. A spouse of a franchise owner generally need not sign a personal guaranty unless that spouse also has an ownership interest in the franchisee.

Item 16

RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You must offer and sell all residential and commercial window cleaning, gutter cleaning, screen cleaning, house washing, pressure washing, soft washing, and holiday lighting and décor services (and related products and services) that we require or authorize for sale by the Business in the Territory. You have no right to offer or sell any services or products that we do not authorize or approve. We have the right to change the types of required or authorized services and products during the franchise term; there are no limits on our right to do so. You must conduct the Business within the Territory, so that no Net Revenues of the Business are derived from customers whose properties are located outside your Territory. Otherwise, there generally are no restrictions on the customers with whom you are allowed to do business.

Item 17

Item 18 PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure to promote our franchise.

Item 19 FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in this Disclosure Document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example, by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

All financial performance representations in this Item 19 showing actual franchisee performance are based on internal unaudited historical data.

The table below reflects certain operating results during the 2025 calendar year of 27 franchisees owning 54 franchised territories who operated for a Full Season during 2025. Each of the 27 franchisees owns 2 franchised territories. A franchisee who operated for a Full Season during 2025 means a franchisee who was trained, licensed, and in a position to start servicing customers before the beginning of the Spring 2025 sales window. A Full Season means the full amount of time during which a franchisee is able to perform services within a calendar year for a given market, which varies by geography and weather conditions. Of the 27 franchisees, 6 franchisees (owning 12 franchised territories) attended the January 2025 training class. The remaining 21 franchisees (owning 42 franchised territories) had already gone through training before then. Franchisees who trained after the January 2025 training class are not included in this Item 19 because they did not then operate for a Full Season during 2025. The table below excludes a total of 25 franchisees (owning 49 franchised territories) that did not operate for a Full Season in 2025.

All services offered by SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses (including holiday lighting and décor services) are included in the first 3 line-items. These are the same services to be offered and sold to customers by the franchise offered in this disclosure document. The fourth line-item in the table breaks out the results for holiday lighting and décor services during 2025 offered by 23 (of the 27) franchisees owning 46 franchised territories. The table does not include any affiliate-owned territories.

“Total Revenue Invoiced” in 2025 reflects the total amount of work that was completed by all 27 franchisees and billed out during 2025 (this is distinguished from revenue “received” because some receivables were not collected until early 2026 due to trailing terms on commercial work). All other “Revenue Invoiced” references likewise reflect the amount of work in the particular category (i.e., high, low, median, and average) that was completed and billed out during 2025.

We compiled this information from direct reports and surveys from franchisees of actual services performed by franchisees during 2025. We did not independently audit the figures in these reports and surveys.

C. GRANT OF FRANCHISE.

FRANCHISEE has applied for a franchise to operate a SPARKLE SQUAD Business and such application has been approved by the COMPANY in reliance upon all of the representations made therein. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the COMPANY hereby grants to FRANCHISEE a franchise (the "Franchise") to operate a SPARKLE SQUAD Business in the Territory (as further described herein) and to use the Marks in the operation thereof for a term of ten (10) years commencing on the Agreement Date. Termination or expiration of this Agreement shall constitute a termination or expiration of the Franchise. FRANCHISEE agrees to commence the conduct of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business within thirty (30) days after his completion of the COMPANY's training program. If FRANCHISEE requests, the COMPANY may, at its sole option, grant FRANCHISEE an extension of the thirty (30)-day period.

FRANCHISEE agrees to conduct his SPARKLE SQUAD Business initially within the following territory: _____ (the "Territory"). The Territory shall contain approximately, but no less than, thirty-five thousand (35,000) single family residences. If this Agreement is being executed pursuant to a transfer, renewal or grant of a successor agreement, FRANCHISEE acknowledges and agrees that this Section 1.C. does not grant FRANCHISEE any rights to expand the number of single-family residences in his Territory notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein.

So long as FRANCHISEE is in compliance with this Agreement, the COMPANY will not operate, or grant a franchise for the operation of, a SPARKLE SQUAD Business with a territory which overlaps in any material respect with FRANCHISEE's Territory during the term of this Agreement. Except for this limitation, the COMPANY and its affiliates retain all rights with respect to SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, the Marks, and any other activities the COMPANY and its affiliates deem appropriate, including, but not limited to:

(1) the right to provide, offer and sell, and to grant others the right to provide, offer and sell, products that are identical or similar to and/or competitive with those offered and sold by SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, whether identified by the Marks or other

trademarks or service marks, through dissimilar distribution channels (including, without limitation, via catalog, the internet or other media) both inside and outside FRANCHISEE's Territory and on any terms and conditions the COMPANY and its affiliates deem appropriate;

(2) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling services and products that are identical or similar to and/or competitive with those offered and sold by SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, but under trademarks and service marks other than the Marks (including, without limitation, businesses designing, installing, maintaining, and removing holiday lighting and décor and identified by the HOLIDAY LIGHTING HEROES trademark/service mark, the HUMBUG HOLIDAY LIGHTING trademark/service mark, and any other trademarks or service marks), both inside and outside FRANCHISEE's Territory and on any terms and conditions the COMPANY and its affiliates deem appropriate;

(3) the right to establish and operate, and grant to others the right to establish and operate, businesses offering and selling services and products that are dissimilar from those offered and sold by SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, whether under the Marks or other trademarks and service marks, both inside and outside FRANCHISEE's Territory and on any terms and conditions the COMPANY and its affiliates deem appropriate;

(4) the right to operate, and to grant others the right to operate SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses with territories which do not overlap in any material respect FRANCHISEE's Territory under any terms and conditions the COMPANY deems appropriate and regardless of proximity to FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business;

(5) the right to acquire the assets or ownership interests of one or more businesses providing products and services similar to those provided by a SPARKLE SQUAD Business, and franchising, licensing or creating similar arrangements with respect to those businesses once acquired, wherever those businesses (or the franchisees or licensees of those businesses) are located or operating (including in FRANCHISEE's Territory); and

(6) the right to be acquired (whether through acquisition of assets, ownership interests or otherwise, regardless of the form of transaction) by a business providing products and services similar to those provided by SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, or by another business, even if such business operates, franchises and/or licenses competitive businesses in FRANCHISEE's Territory.

FRANCHISEE agrees that he will at all times faithfully, honestly and diligently perform his obligations hereunder and that he will continuously exert his best efforts to effectively promote and enhance his SPARKLE SQUAD Business and develop and service customers within the Territory. FRANCHISEE agrees to conduct his SPARKLE SQUAD Business within the Territory, such that none of the Net Revenues (as defined herein) of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business are derived from customers whose properties are located outside FRANCHISEE's Territory.

FRANCHISEE must pay to the COMPANY an incremental royalty of fifteen percent (15%) of the Net Revenues for all business conducted outside the FRANCHISEE's Territory. This fifteen percent (15%) royalty is in addition to the required weekly royalty of ten percent (10%) of the Net Revenues of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, as described in Section 6.B.

If FRANCHISEE has customers whose properties are located outside the Territory, and the COMPANY grants to another franchisee a territory that encompasses such properties of FRANCHISEE's customers, then FRANCHISEE shall transfer and assign such customers to such other franchisee at no charge.

Subject to the COMPANY's approval, FRANCHISEE shall have the right to relinquish a portion of the Territory for inclusion in the territory of a Franchise granted by the COMPANY to another person or entity. FRANCHISEE shall be entitled to any consideration which such person agrees to pay for such relinquishment over and above the initial franchise fee payable to the COMPANY in connection with the grant of such franchise.

D. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS.

FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY understand and agree that this Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY, that FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY are and will be independent contractors, and that nothing in this Agreement, including the term "franchisee," is intended to make either FRANCHISEE or the COMPANY a general or special agent, joint venturer, partner or employee of the other for any purpose. Nor is the COMPANY the employer or joint employer of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees. FRANCHISEE agrees to identify itself conspicuously in all dealings with clients, suppliers, distributors, public officials and others as the SPARKLE SQUAD Business' owner, operator, and manager under a franchise the COMPANY has granted and to place notices of independent ownership on the forms, business cards, stationery, advertising and other materials the COMPANY requires from time to time. The COMPANY will not exercise direct or indirect control over the working conditions of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business personnel, except to the extent such indirect control is related to the COMPANY's legitimate interest in protecting the quality of the COMPANY's brand, products, or services. The COMPANY does not share or codetermine the terms and conditions of employment of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees and does not affect matters relating to the employment relationship between FRANCHISEE and its SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions. To that end, FRANCHISEE agrees to identify itself conspicuously in all dealings with its SPARKLE SQUAD Business personnel as the employer of such personnel and to notify such personnel that the COMPANY, as the franchisor, is not their employer and does not engage in any employer-type activities for which only franchisees are responsible, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions.

2. TRAINING AND GUIDANCE.

A. TRAINING.

The COMPANY shall furnish a training program on the operation of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business at such time and place as the COMPANY designates. (This is the training for which FRANCHISEE must pay the initial training and support fee specified in Section 6.A.(2) below.) This training will not include training on matters relating to labor relations and employment practices. FRANCHISEE shall have the right to designate up to two (2) individuals (including FRANCHISEE (or its principal owner) and a general manager) to participate in the training program, provided that such individuals attend the training program together. FRANCHISEE (or its principal owner) and, if applicable, its general manager must commence training no later than one hundred eighty (180) days after this Agreement's effective date. FRANCHISEE shall be responsible for all travel and living expenses incurred in connection with the training program. If, during the training program, the COMPANY determines, in its sole discretion, that FRANCHISEE (or its principal owner) or his designee (such as a general manager) is not qualified to operate a SPARKLE SQUAD Business or has not satisfactorily completed the training program, the COMPANY shall have the right to require such individuals to attend the next initial training program at FRANCHISEE's expense (including all travel and living expenses incurred by FRANCHISEE (or its principal owner) and his designee(s) in connection therewith). If FRANCHISEE's (or its principal owner's) or a designee's performance in the additional training program is unsatisfactory, the COMPANY shall have the right to terminate this Agreement effective upon delivery of notice of termination to FRANCHISEE. The COMPANY shall have the right to require that FRANCHISEE (or its principal owner) and, if applicable, his general manager complete supplemental and refresher training programs, to be furnished without charge, at designated locations. FRANCHISEE shall pay all such travel and living expenses therefor. At its option, the COMPANY may provide some or all training programs in a virtual environment via a restricted website or extranet to which FRANCHISEE will have access.

B. GUIDANCE.

The COMPANY shall furnish to FRANCHISEE guidance in connection with the operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business. Such guidance shall, in the sole discretion of the COMPANY, be furnished in the Operating Manual. The COMPANY may, at its option, provide additional guidance to FRANCHISEE via presentation materials and content on the COMPANY's learning management program. The COMPANY may also provide guidance via telephonic conversations and/or consultation with supervisory personnel at the offices of the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE's office. Additional guidance and assistance shall be available to supervisory personnel, in the sole discretion of the COMPANY, at per diem fees and charges established from time to time by the COMPANY.

The COMPANY will during the term of the Franchise provide FRANCHISEE with access to one (1) copy of the Operating Manual. The Operating Manual shall contain mandatory and suggested specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed from time to time by the COMPANY for the operation of a SPARKLE SQUAD Business and information relative to other obligations of FRANCHISEE hereunder so that the quality of the COMPANY's brand, products, and services is maintained. The COMPANY shall have the right to add to and to otherwise modify the Operating Manual from time to time to reflect changes in authorized products, services and equipment, standards of product and service quality and performance, and the operation of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, provided that no such addition or modification shall alter FRANCHISEE's fundamental status and rights under this Agreement. FRANCHISEE shall keep his copy of the Operating Manual current; however, in the event of a dispute, the master copy maintained by the COMPANY at its principal office shall be controlling. FRANCHISEE agrees that the contents of the Operating Manual are confidential and that FRANCHISEE will not disclose the Operating Manual to any person other than employees of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business who need to know its contents. FRANCHISEE shall not, at any time, copy or otherwise reproduce any part of the Operating Manual. As further described in Section 7.J., the COMPANY may post some or all of the Operating Manual on a website or extranet to which FRANCHISEE has access.

C. CONVENTIONS/CONFERENCES.

The COMPANY periodically may conduct conventions or conferences for some or all of its franchisees ("Conventions"). FRANCHISEE must attend one or more of these Conventions (as the COMPANY specifies) and pay all expenses incurred in attending, including registration, transportation, and meals, lodging, and living expenses. The COMPANY will determine the duration and location of and curriculum for the Conventions. FRANCHISEE must pay the applicable registration fee for each Convention when it registers or as otherwise directed by the COMPANY. This fee is not refundable. FRANCHISEE must pay a registration fee even if it does not attend (or plan to attend) the particular Convention. If FRANCHISEE owns and operates more than one SPARKLE SQUAD business franchise, FRANCHISEE need only pay a single Convention registration fee for a particular Convention.

3. MARKS.

A. OWNERSHIP AND GOODWILL OF MARKS.

FRANCHISEE acknowledges that his right to use the Marks is derived solely from this Agreement and is limited to his conduct of business pursuant to and in compliance with this Agreement and all applicable standards, specifications and operating procedures prescribed by the COMPANY from time to time during the term of the Franchise, including, but not limited to, standards and procedures prescribed by the COMPANY with respect to FRANCHISEE's use of any Mark in connection with a website. Any unauthorized use of the Marks by FRANCHISEE, including, but not limited to, use by FRANCHISEE of any Mark as part of a website domain name or electronic address, shall constitute an infringement of the rights of the COMPANY and its affiliates in and to the Marks. FRANCHISEE agrees that all usage of the Marks by FRANCHISEE and any goodwill established thereby shall inure to the exclusive benefit of the COMPANY and its affiliates, and FRANCHISEE acknowledges that this Agreement does not confer any goodwill or other interests in the Marks upon FRANCHISEE. All provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Marks shall apply to any additional proprietary trade and service marks and commercial symbols the COMPANY hereafter authorizes for use by FRANCHISEE. FRANCHISEE shall immediately notify the COMPANY of any apparent infringement of or challenge to FRANCHISEE's use of any Mark. The COMPANY and its affiliates shall have sole discretion to take such action as they deem appropriate and the right to exclusively control any litigation or proceeding arising out of any such infringement or challenge. FRANCHISEE agrees to render such assistance in connection therewith as the COMPANY and its affiliates deem necessary or advisable.

B. LIMITATIONS ON FRANCHISEE’S USE OF MARKS.

FRANCHISEE agrees to use the Marks as the sole identification of the Franchise, provided that FRANCHISEE shall identify himself as the independent owner, operator, and manager thereof in the manner prescribed by the COMPANY. FRANCHISEE may not use any Mark or any variation thereof (1) as part of any corporate or legal business name, (2) with any prefix, suffix or other modifying words, terms, designs or symbols (other than logos licensed to FRANCHISEE hereunder), (3) in connection with the performance or sale of any unauthorized services or products, (4) as part of any domain name, electronic address or search engine, or (5) in any other manner the COMPANY has not expressly authorized in writing. FRANCHISEE agrees to prominently display the Marks and only the Marks (as prescribed in Section 7.B. hereof) on the Service Vehicles, and on contracts, forms, equipment and other materials authorized by the COMPANY. To the extent FRANCHISEE uses any Mark in employment-related materials, FRANCHISEE must include a clear disclaimer that it (and only it) is the employer of employees and that the COMPANY, as the franchisor, is not the employer of FRANCHISEE’s SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees and does not engage in any employer-type activities for which only franchisees are responsible, such as employee selection, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions. FRANCHISEE further agrees that FRANCHISEE’s telephone number shall be used exclusively for the operation of FRANCHISEE’s SPARKLE SQUAD Business and for no other purpose.

FRANCHISEE agrees to give such notices of trade and service mark registrations as the COMPANY specifies and to obtain such fictitious or assumed name registrations as may be required under applicable law. If, in the COMPANY’s sole discretion, it becomes advisable for the COMPANY and/or FRANCHISEE to modify or discontinue use of any Mark and/or use one or more additional or substitute trade or service marks, FRANCHISEE agrees to comply with the COMPANY’s directions to modify or otherwise discontinue the use of such Mark within a reasonable time after notice thereof. The COMPANY has no obligation to reimburse FRANCHISEE’s (1) direct expenses in modifying or discontinuing the use of a Mark and substituting therefor a different trademark or service mark, (2) loss of goodwill associated with any modified or discontinued Mark, or (3) expenditures to promote a modified or substitute trademark or service mark.

4. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION/EXCLUSIVE RELATIONSHIP.

A. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

The COMPANY possesses, and will continue to develop and acquire, certain confidential information relating to the methods, techniques, formats, specifications, procedures, information, systems, sales and marketing techniques and knowledge of and experience in the development, operation and franchising of SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses (the “Confidential Information”). The COMPANY will disclose the Confidential Information to FRANCHISEE in the training program, the Operating Manual and in guidance furnished to FRANCHISEE. FRANCHISEE acknowledges that the Confidential Information is proprietary and involves trade secrets of the COMPANY and its affiliates and that he will not acquire any interest in the Confidential Information, other than the right to utilize it in the operation of a SPARKLE SQUAD Business during the term of this Agreement. The COMPANY will disclose the Confidential Information to FRANCHISEE only on the condition that FRANCHISEE and its owners agree, and they hereby do agree, that FRANCHISEE and its owners:

- (a) will not use any Confidential Information in any other business or capacity;
- (b) will keep the Confidential Information absolutely confidential during and after this Agreement’s term;
- (c) will not make unauthorized copies of any Confidential Information disclosed via electronic medium or in written or other tangible form; and
- (d) will adopt and implement all reasonable procedures that the COMPANY periodically prescribes to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information, including, without limitation, (i) restricting its disclosure to personnel of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business and others needing to know such Confidential Information to operate the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, (ii) requiring all employees having access to Confidential Information to sign confidentiality and non-competition agreements in a form acceptable to the COMPANY, and (iii) not using any Confidential Information directly or indirectly to create, train, test, or improve any machine learning, large language, or artificial intelligence models—or otherwise in connection with any artificial intelligence platforms—including for research purposes, open source, or other non-commercial use or for any other purpose the COMPANY does not expressly authorize. The COMPANY has the right to review and approve the form of agreement that FRANCHISEE uses and to be a third party beneficiary of that agreement with independent enforcement rights. The COMPANY’s right to review and approve the form of agreement is solely to ensure that FRANCHISEE adequately protects Confidential Information. Under no circumstances will the COMPANY control the forms or terms of employment agreements FRANCHISEE uses with its SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees or otherwise be responsible for FRANCHISEE’s labor relations or employment practices.

FRANCHISEE agrees that the list of the names, addresses and other information regarding FRANCHISEE’s current clients, former clients, and those who have inquired about the service (the “Customer List”) shall be included in the Confidential Information, shall be the property of the COMPANY and shall constitute a trade secret of the COMPANY. FRANCHISEE agrees that FRANCHISEE may not disclose the Customer List, or any portion thereof, to any person other than the COMPANY, either during the term of this Agreement or thereafter.

“Confidential Information” does not include information, knowledge or know-how which FRANCHISEE knew from previous business experience before the COMPANY provided it to FRANCHISEE (directly or indirectly) or before FRANCHISEE began training or operating his SPARKLE SQUAD Business. If the COMPANY includes any matter in Confidential Information, anyone who claims that it is not Confidential Information must prove that the exclusion in this paragraph is fulfilled.

All ideas, concepts, techniques or materials relating to a SPARKLE SQUAD Business, whether or not protectable intellectual property and whether created by or for FRANCHISEE or FRANCHISEE's employees, must be promptly disclosed to the COMPANY and will be deemed to be the COMPANY's sole and exclusive property, part of the franchise system, and works made-for-hire for the COMPANY. To the extent any item does not qualify as a "work made-for-hire" for the COMPANY, by this paragraph FRANCHISEE assigns ownership of that item, and all related rights to that item, to the COMPANY and agrees to sign whatever assignment or other documents the COMPANY requests to evidence the COMPANY's ownership or to help the COMPANY obtain intellectual property rights in the item.

B. EXCLUSIVE RELATIONSHIP.

FRANCHISEE acknowledges and agrees that the COMPANY would be unable to protect the Confidential Information against unauthorized use or disclosure if franchisees of SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses were permitted to hold interests in any Competitive Business. FRANCHISEE therefore agrees that during the term of this Agreement, neither FRANCHISEE, its owner(s) nor any member of his or their immediate families shall perform services for, or have any direct or indirect interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, partner, director, officer, employee, manager, consultant, representative or agent, or in any other capacity in, any Competitive Business located or operating within (a) FRANCHISEE's Territory, (b) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of FRANCHISEE's Territory, (c) the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business, or (d) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business.

5. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES/INDEMNIFICATION.

FRANCHISEE shall hire all employees of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business, and will be exclusively responsible for all terms relating to their employment, including employee selection, training, promotion, termination, hours worked, rates of pay, other benefits, work assigned, discipline, adjustment of grievances and complaints, and working conditions.

FRANCHISEE shall not employ any of the Marks in signing any contract or applying for any license or permit or in a manner that may result in the COMPANY's liability for any of FRANCHISEE's indebtedness or obligations, nor may FRANCHISEE use the Marks in any way not expressly authorized by the COMPANY, including, but not limited to, on a website. Except as expressly authorized by this Agreement, FRANCHISEE shall make no express or implied agreements, warranties, guarantees or representations, or incur any debt, in the name of or on behalf of the COMPANY and the COMPANY shall not be obligated by or be liable under any agreements or representations made by FRANCHISEE that are not expressly authorized hereunder. In addition to any sales, use, excise, privilege or other transaction taxes that the COMPANY is required or permitted by law to collect from FRANCHISEE for the sale, lease or other provision of goods or services under this Agreement, FRANCHISEE shall pay to the COMPANY an amount equal to all federal, state, local or foreign (i) sales, use, excise, privilege, occupation or any other transactional taxes, or (ii) any other taxes or similar exactions no matter how designated (excluding only taxes imposed on the COMPANY for the privilege of conducting business and calculated with respect to the COMPANY's net income, capital, net worth, gross receipts, or some other basis or combination thereof, but not excluding any gross receipts taxes imposed on the COMPANY for FRANCHISEE payments intended to reimburse the COMPANY for expenditures incurred for the benefit and on behalf of FRANCHISEE), that are imposed on the COMPANY or required to be withheld by FRANCHISEE in connection with the receipt or accrual of service fees, royalties or any other amounts payable by FRANCHISEE to the COMPANY under this Agreement. Any additional required payment pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be made in an amount necessary to provide the COMPANY with after tax receipts (taking into account any additional payments required hereunder), equal to the same amounts the COMPANY would have received under the provisions of this Agreement if such additional tax liability or withholding had not been imposed or required.

FRANCHISEE agrees to indemnify and hold the COMPANY, its affiliates, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors and assignees harmless from and against any liability for any claims arising out of the operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business, including any allegation that the COMPANY or its affiliates, shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, successors, and assignees is a joint employer or otherwise responsible for FRANCHISEE's acts or omissions related to FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees. For purposes of this indemnification, claims shall mean and include all obligations, actual and consequential damages, taxes and costs reasonably incurred in the defense of any claim, including, without limitation, reasonable accountants', attorneys' and expert witness fees, costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs, other litigation expenses and travel and living expenses. The COMPANY shall have the right to defend any such claim in which it is named as a defendant. This indemnity shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

6. FEES.

A. INITIAL FEES.

FRANCHISEE agrees to pay to the COMPANY the following initial fees on or before the Agreement Date:

(1) An initial franchise fee of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) (the "Initial Franchise Fee");

(2) An initial training and support fee of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) for onboarding, training, and franchise launch costs;

(3) A Grand Opening Marketing Package of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) (the "Grand Opening Marketing Fee") that the Company will control, manage, and use during the first year of operation of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business to market, promote, and advertise the SPARKLE SQUAD Business in the Territory; and

- (4) An initial equipment package fee of Fifteen Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($15,500).

These fees shall be fully earned by the COMPANY when paid and are nonrefundable.

B. ROYALTY AND SERVICE FEE.

FRANCHISEE agrees to pay to the COMPANY by Thursday of each week during the term hereof a weekly royalty and service fee in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the Net Revenues of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business for the immediately preceding week (Monday through Sunday).

C. TECHNOLOGY FEE.

FRANCHISEE agrees to pay the COMPANY a Technology Fee to fund the technology expenditures the COMPANY deems best for SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses. The Technology Fee currently is one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per month until the cumulative Net Revenues of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business reach One Million Dollars ($1,000,000), at which time the Technology Fee is currently scheduled to increase to Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) per month (provided, however, that the COMPANY reserves the right, in its sole judgment, to increase the monthly Technology Fee from time to time during this Agreement's term). The first Technology Fee payment is due and payable to the COMPANY in the calendar month in which FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business commences operations. Each subsequent Technology Fee payment is due and payable no later than the tenth day of each subsequent calendar month. The COMPANY has the right to allocate and spend Technology Fees in its sole judgment, including for salaries, wages, and benefits, direct technology program costs, and overhead expenses for technology-related activities. The Technology Fee is in addition to any other costs FRANCHISEE incurs to purchase or license the Software Program or other computer hardware or additional software described in Section 7.I. below. The COMPANY has no obligation to account to FRANCHISEE or other franchisees for its use of Technology Fees or to ensure that FRANCHISEE or FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business benefits directly or pro rata based on its Technology Fee payments.

D. BACK OFFICE SUPPORT SYSTEM.

(1) The COMPANY shall provide support services to FRANCHISEE in its discretion, including a centralized call center, booking system, and support center, to process orders for the services within the franchise system, including orders in the Territory, handling customer inquiries, and other aspects of back office support to the extent the COMPANY deems advisable in its discretion, including without limitation: the processing of customer bookings, payment processing, meetings, and the creation of related reports (the "Back Office Support System Services"). The COMPANY shall direct all aspects of planning and operation of the Back Office Support System Services in its absolute and uncontrolled discretion. The COMPANY may choose to add, remove, modify, or limit any Back Office Support System Services in its absolute discretion as set out in the Operating Manual from time to time.

(2) The COMPANY shall maintain a fund (the “Back Office Support System Fund”), and FRANCHISEE shall contribute to the Back Office Support System Fund in the amount of five percent (5%) of Net Revenue (the “Back Office Support System Fee”). The Back Office Support System Fee shall be paid to COMPANY along with the Royalty.

(3) The Back Office Support System Fund shall be used and expended to cover the operating and development expenses of the Back Office Support System Services, including costs associated with the creation and staffing of, purchase of equipment for, and other ongoing operational and development costs of the Back Office Support System Services.

(4) The Back Office Support System Fund shall be accounted for separately from other funds of the COMPANY and shall not be used to defray any of the COMPANY’s general operating expenses, except for salaries, administrative costs and overhead (calculated on a fully allocated basis), if any, as the COMPANY may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration, direction, and provision of the Back Office Support System Services and the administration of the Back Office Support System Fund. An in-house statement of operation of the Back Office Support System Fund shall be prepared annually and shall be made available to FRANCHISEE upon request, the cost of such statement to be paid by the Back Office Support System Fund.

(5) FRANCHISEE acknowledges and agrees that the Back Office Support System Services and the Back Office Support System Fund are intended to provide a uniform standard for placement of orders for services and handling of customers throughout the franchise system, and to maintain a complete client database which provides management reports to franchisees. The COMPANY undertakes no obligation to ensure that any particular franchisee (including FRANCHISEE) benefits on a pro-rata basis from the Back Office Support System Services or the Back Office Support System Fund.

(6) Except as expressly provided for herein, the COMPANY assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to FRANCHISEE with respect to the maintenance, direction or administration of the Back Office Support System Services or the Back Office Support System Fund. FRANCHISEE is not a third-party beneficiary and shall have no right to enforce any contributions from other franchisees or the administration of the Back Office Support System Fund. Any obligation of the COMPANY with respect to the Back Office Support System Fund shall be contractual in nature, and FRANCHISEE shall have no proprietary right in the Back Office Support System Fund, and it shall not constitute a trust fund.

(7) FRANCHISEE shall fully participate in all programs involving the Back Office Support System Services as the COMPANY may require from time to time.

(8) The Back Office Support System Fund is not intended to be a source of profit for the COMPANY. In the event of surplus funds at the end of any year, such funds will be applied to one or more of the following, in any combination as may be determined in the COMPANY’s absolute discretion: (i) carried forward and applied to the next year’s operating costs, (ii) transferred to the NMF, or (iii) distributed pro rata to SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses that contributed to the Back Office Support System Fund for that year.

E. INTEREST ON LATE PAYMENTS.

All royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, Back Office Support System Fees, lease payments, amounts due for purchases by FRANCHISEE from the COMPANY, and other amounts which FRANCHISEE owes to the COMPANY shall bear interest after due date at the highest applicable legal rate for open account business credit in the state of FRANCHISEE's domicile, not to exceed one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month. FRANCHISEE acknowledges that this Section 6.E. shall not constitute the COMPANY's agreement to accept such payments after same are due or a commitment by the COMPANY to extend credit to or otherwise finance FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business. Further, FRANCHISEE acknowledges that his failure to pay all amounts when due shall constitute grounds for termination of this Agreement.

F. APPLICATION OF PAYMENTS.

Notwithstanding any designation by FRANCHISEE, the COMPANY shall have sole discretion to apply any payments by FRANCHISEE to any of his past due indebtedness for royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, Back Office Support System Fees, purchases from the COMPANY or its affiliates, interest or any other indebtedness.

G. METHOD OF PAYMENT - ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER.

At any time during the term of this Agreement on at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice from the COMPANY to FRANCHISEE, the COMPANY may request that FRANCHISEE agree to and shall timely remit royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, Back Office Support System Fees, and any other amounts due to the COMPANY hereunder via electronic funds transfer or other means to a bank or financial institution designated by the COMPANY, and FRANCHISEE hereby grants the COMPANY authorization for direct (automatic) debiting of FRANCHISEE's bank or financial institution general operating account. In such event, FRANCHISEE agrees to supply any and all information necessary to provide for automatic electronic funds transfer and payment of such amounts due to the COMPANY and to comply with procedures specified by the COMPANY in the Operating Manual and in writing from time to time, and/or perform such acts and deliver and execute such documents, agreements and authorizations as may be necessary to assist in or accomplish payment by such method.

7. FRANCHISE IMAGE AND OPERATING PROCEDURES.

A. EQUIPMENT.

FRANCHISEE agrees to use the Sparkle Squad Job Pod and all other required equipment meeting the COMPANY's specifications and standards as may be approved by the COMPANY from time to time. The COMPANY may modify and/or substitute any of the equipment FRANCHISEE is required to use in his SPARKLE SQUAD Business. FRANCHISEE may purchase or lease his original and replacement equipment from any source approved by the COMPANY (which may be limited to the COMPANY and its affiliates). If FRANCHISEE proposes to purchase or lease any equipment (other than computer hardware and software which is subject to the terms of Section 7.I. below) which is not then approved by the COMPANY, FRANCHISEE shall first notify the COMPANY and, upon request, furnish to the COMPANY specifications, photographs, drawings and/or other information sufficient to afford the COMPANY a reasonable opportunity to determine whether such equipment complies with its specifications and standards.

B. CONDITION AND APPEARANCE OF SERVICE VEHICLES AND EQUIPMENT.

FRANCHISEE agrees to purchase or lease one or more Service Vehicles suitable for containing the Sparkle Squad Job Pod and for transporting various supplies and materials needed to operate a SPARKLE SQUAD Business and which otherwise meet the COMPANY's specifications. FRANCHISEE agrees: (1) to take delivery of the Service Vehicle immediately following the completion of training school; (2) to maintain the condition and appearance of his Service Vehicles and equipment consistent with the image of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business as a professionally operated services business; (3) to place or display on the Service Vehicles and equipment only such signs, emblems, lettering and logos as are approved by the COMPANY, and no others; and (4) not to sell or otherwise transfer any of the Service Vehicles (other than to the COMPANY) without the prior written approval of the COMPANY and without first removing all of the Marks from the Service Vehicles.

C. AUTHORIZED PRODUCTS AND SERVICES.

The reputation and goodwill of the COMPANY is based upon, and can be maintained and enhanced only by, the furnishing of high-quality window cleaning, gutter cleaning, screen cleaning, house washing, pressure washing, soft washing, and holiday lighting and décor services and other related products and services. FRANCHISEE agrees, therefore, that he will only offer such window cleaning, gutter cleaning, screen cleaning, house washing, pressure washing, and soft washing services, holiday lighting and décor services, and other products and services, that the COMPANY shall authorize for the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, and that he will offer all of the products and services that the COMPANY authorizes for the Territory. FRANCHISEE further agrees that he will not sell his SPARKLE SQUAD customer list(s) or customer contracts, or otherwise use his SPARKLE SQUAD customer list(s) for any purpose other than in connection with the operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business. FRANCHISEE agrees that he will not, without the prior written approval by the COMPANY, offer or sell any type of service or offer, sell or use any product that is not authorized by the COMPANY for the SPARKLE SQUAD Business. FRANCHISEE further agrees that any equipment used in SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses shall not be used for any purpose other than the operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business in compliance with this Agreement.

D. APPROVED PRODUCTS AND SUPPLIES.

FRANCHISEE agrees that all products and supplies used in his SPARKLE SQUAD Business shall comply with the COMPANY's specifications and quality standards. The COMPANY shall provide FRANCHISEE with a list of approved products and supplies and shall from time to time issue revisions thereto. If FRANCHISEE wishes to use any type or brand of product or supply item or wishes to purchase products or supplies from a supplier that is not currently approved by the COMPANY, FRANCHISEE shall notify the COMPANY of his desire to do so and submit to the COMPANY specifications, photographs, samples and/or other information requested by the COMPANY. The COMPANY shall, within a reasonable time, determine whether such products, supplies or such supplier meets its specifications and standards and notify FRANCHISEE whether he is authorized to use such product or supply item or purchase from such supplier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the COMPANY may limit the number of approved suppliers with whom FRANCHISEE may deal, designate sources that FRANCHISEE must use, and/or refuse any of FRANCHISEE's requests for any reason, including that the COMPANY has already designated an exclusive source (which might be the COMPANY or its affiliate) for a particular item or service.

The COMPANY and its affiliates have the right to derive revenue—in the form of promotional allowances, volume discounts, commissions, other discounts, performance payments, signing bonuses, rebates, marketing and advertising allowances, free products, and other economic benefits and payments—from suppliers that it designates, approves, or recommends for some or all SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses on account of those suppliers' prospective or actual dealings with FRANCHISEE and other SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses. That revenue may or may not be related to services the COMPANY and its affiliates perform. All amounts received from suppliers, whether or not based on FRANCHISEE's or other franchisees' purchases from those suppliers, will be the COMPANY's and its affiliates' exclusive property, which the COMPANY and its affiliates have the right to retain and use without restriction for any purposes they deem appropriate. Any products or services that the COMPANY or its affiliates sell FRANCHISEE directly may be sold to FRANCHISEE at prices exceeding their costs.

E. SPECIFICATIONS, STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES.

FRANCHISEE agrees to cooperate with the COMPANY by maintaining high standards in the operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business. FRANCHISEE also agrees to comply with all mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures relating to the operation of a SPARKLE SQUAD Business. FRANCHISEE acknowledges and agrees that these mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures are integral to maintaining the quality of the COMPANY's brand, products, and services. Mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures prescribed from time to time by the COMPANY in the Operating Manual for the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, or otherwise communicated to FRANCHISEE in writing, shall constitute provisions of this Agreement as if fully set forth herein. All references herein to this Agreement shall include all such mandatory specifications, standards and operating procedures.

F. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND GOOD BUSINESS PRACTICES.

FRANCHISEE shall secure and maintain in force in its name all required licenses, permits and certificates relating to the operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business. FRANCHISEE shall operate his Franchise in full compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances and regulations, including, without limitation, all government regulations relating to environmental protection, labor, employment, occupational hazards and health, worker's compensation insurance, unemployment insurance and withholding and payment of federal and state income taxes, social security taxes and sales taxes. FRANCHISEE shall, in all dealings with his customers, suppliers, the COMPANY and the public, adhere to the highest standards of honesty, integrity, fair dealing and ethical conduct. FRANCHISEE agrees to refrain from any business or advertising practice which may be injurious to the business of the COMPANY and the goodwill associated with the Marks and other SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses. However, nothing in this Section 7.F. or elsewhere in this Agreement restricts or is intended to restrict FRANCHISEE's (or its owners') communications with any state or federal law regulator or enforcement authority about potential violations of law. FRANCHISEE agrees to comply with the COMPANY's standards, procedures, and requirements for responding to customer complaints, including reimbursing the COMPANY promptly if it resolves a customer complaint because FRANCHISEE fails to do so as or when required.

G. INSURANCE.

FRANCHISEE shall at all times during the term of the Franchise maintain in force at his sole expense (1) comprehensive general liability insurance (including products, completed operations and motor vehicle liability) on an occurrence basis against claims for bodily and personal injury, death and property damage caused by or occurring in conjunction with the operation of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business and (2) the worker's compensation insurance prescribed by the COMPANY or state law, whichever is greater. All insurance coverage shall be maintained under one or more policies of insurance containing minimum liability protection in such amounts as are specified by the COMPANY from time to time and issued by insurance carriers acceptable to the COMPANY. All liability insurance policies required hereunder shall name the COMPANY (its officers, directors, employees and designated affiliates) as additional insured grantor and shall provide that the COMPANY receives thirty (30) days' prior written notice of termination, expiration or cancellation of any such policy. Upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice to FRANCHISEE, the COMPANY may increase the minimum liability protection requirements as of the renewal date of any policy, and require different or additional kinds of insurance at any time, to reflect inflation, identification of new risks, changes in law or standards of liability, higher damage awards, product or motor vehicle liability litigation or other relevant changes in circumstances. FRANCHISEE shall furnish annually to the COMPANY a copy of the certificate and other evidence the COMPANY may require of each such insurance policy in the form the COMPANY requires.

H. FULL TIME EFFORTS.

FRANCHISEE agrees to use his best efforts to promote his SPARKLE SQUAD Business and to devote his full time, energies and attention to the operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD

Business. FRANCHISEE further agrees that he will not engage in any Competitive Business; provided, however, the COMPANY may permit FRANCHISEE to engage in other non-competitive business activities provided FRANCHISEE obtains the prior written consent of the COMPANY.

I. COMPUTER AND PHONE SYSTEMS.

FRANCHISEE acknowledges that FRANCHISEE must purchase a customized computer software program and related technology (the “Software Program”) from the supplier the COMPANY designates at the then current price and/or fees being charged by the designated supplier. FRANCHISEE also must acquire computer hardware and certain additional software in accordance with the COMPANY’s standards and specifications, including a computer, monitor, printer, and all consumables. Such computer software and hardware are an integral part of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business and necessary to protect the quality of the COMPANY’s brand, products, and services. The COMPANY reserves the right to modify the specifications and components of such computer software and hardware from time to time. Some or all software may be website based. FRANCHISEE grants the COMPANY (and the COMPANY’s designees) unlimited, independent access to, and the right to download, all information and data in FRANCHISEE’s computer software and hardware (including all data derived from the Software Program but excluding employee or employment-related information and data) at any time. FRANCHISEE shall not take any action or enter into any agreement that prohibits, prevents or restricts the COMPANY’s ability to access and download all such information and data. FRANCHISEE also must, at FRANCHISEE’s expense, maintain the designated computer software and hardware so that the COMPANY (and each of the COMPANY’s designees) has the ability to access and download all information and data (excluding employee or employment-related information and data) in FRANCHISEE’s computer software and hardware at any time in accordance with this Section. FRANCHISEE further acknowledges and agrees that the COMPANY has the right to require FRANCHISEE to incur reasonable costs to purchase or lease new or modified computer hardware and software for use with the Software Program. References to reasonable costs and fees in this Section shall refer to the COMPANY’s reasonable costs for the selection of appropriate hardware and software.

FRANCHISEE agrees to participate in any toll-free telephone number program the COMPANY specifies, including by signing any agreements and paying any associated charges, whether to the COMPANY or a third party. FRANCHISEE agrees to display the COMPANY’s toll-free telephone number as the primary and dominant business phone number. FRANCHISEE agrees that the toll-free telephone number will be displayed on all marketing materials and all of FRANCHISEE’s Service Vehicles. In addition, FRANCHISEE agrees to obtain from one or more suppliers designated or approved by the Company any artificial intelligence phone sales agent, soft phone, and artificial intelligence-generated booking and predictive dialing services the COMPANY specifies to assist FRANCHISEE with customer acquisition, sales support, and call management.

J. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION AND USE OF INTERNET.

At the COMPANY's option, the COMPANY may post the Operating Manual and other communications on a restricted intranet or other website to which FRANCHISEE will have access. If the COMPANY does so, FRANCHISEE must periodically monitor the site for any updates to the Operating Manual or other standards, specifications and procedures. Any passwords or other digital identifications necessary to access the Operating Manual on such a site will be deemed to be part of the Confidential Information (defined in Section 4.A.). Further, FRANCHISEE agrees that he will establish the channels of communication with the COMPANY and his customers as required by the COMPANY from time to time, including e-mail, internet and other electronic forms of communication, and that he will acquire and maintain any computer or other components necessary for the transmission of such communications.

FRANCHISEE agrees to comply with the COMPANY's requirements, standards and specifications concerning FRANCHISEE's use of a website to promote his SPARKLE SQUAD Business, including, but not limited to, the COMPANY's requirement that FRANCHISEE receive the COMPANY's approval of FRANCHISEE's proposed website information prior to implementation of the website and prior to changing an approved website. FRANCHISEE further agrees to comply with the COMPANY's requirements, standards and specifications concerning FRANCHISEE's use of social media in connection with its operation of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, including prohibitions on FRANCHISEE's posting or blogging comments about the SPARKLE SQUAD Business or the franchise system other than on an authorized COMPANY website ("social media" includes personal blogs, common social networks like Facebook and Instagram, professional networks like LinkedIn, live-blogging tools like Twitter, virtual worlds, file, audio and video-sharing sites, and other similar social networking or media sites or tools).

At the COMPANY's option, the COMPANY may establish one or more websites to advertise, market and promote SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, the services they offer and sell, and/or the SPARKLE SQUAD Business franchise opportunity. If the COMPANY establishes such a website, the COMPANY may designate a web page within the website for each SPARKLE SQUAD Business. The COMPANY may implement and periodically modify standards for any such website and individual web pages. FRANCHISEE will not establish a website for his SPARKLE SQUAD Business, other than the web page(s) designated to describe FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business which are located within the COMPANY's website.

K. REPRESENTATIONS AND COVENANT CONCERNING TERRORISM.

FRANCHISEE agrees to comply and/or assist the COMPANY in its compliance efforts, as applicable, with any and all laws, regulations, Executive Orders or otherwise relating to anti-terrorist activities, including, without limitation, the U.S. Patriot Act, Executive Order 13224, and related U.S. Treasury and/or other regulations. In connection with such compliance efforts, FRANCHISEE agrees not to enter into any prohibited transactions and to properly perform any currency reporting and other activities relating to his SPARKLE SQUAD Business as may be required by the COMPANY or by law. FRANCHISEE confirms that he is not listed in the Annex to Executive Order 13224 (the Annex is available at <http://www.treasury.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sanctions/terrorism.html>). FRANCHISEE is solely responsible for ascertaining what actions must be taken by FRANCHISEE to comply with all such laws, orders and/or regulations, and specifically acknowledges and agrees that his indemnification responsibilities as provided in Section 5 pertain to his obligations hereunder.

8. MARKETING AND PROMOTION.

A. GRAND OPENING MARKETING PACKAGE FEE.

On or before the Agreement Date, FRANCHISEE must pay the COMPANY the Grand Opening Marketing Package Fee referenced in Section 6.A.(3) above. The COMPANY will control, manage, and use the Grand Opening Marketing Package Fee during the first year of operation of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business to market, promote, and advertise the SPARKLE SQUAD Business in the Territory. The COMPANY shall identify, in its sole discretion, the items and tactics on which to spend the Grand Opening Marketing Package Fee.

B. LOCAL MARKETING.

(1) Beginning in the thirteenth (13th) month of operation of FRANCHISEE's Sparkle Squad Business (which is defined as the 13th month after FRANCHISEE's Grand Opening Marketing Package launch date, as determined by the COMPANY in its sole discretion), FRANCHISEE agrees to spend no less than Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000) during each calendar year of this Agreement's term to market and promote all service lines of its SPARKLE SQUAD Business within the Territory (the "Local Marketing Obligation"). This Local Marketing Obligation is in addition to the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions and the NMF Fee described in Sections 8.C. and 8.D. below. FRANCHISEE shall ensure that all advertising, marketing, and promotional programs and materials that FRANCHISEE develops or implements relating to its SPARKLE SQUAD Business are completely clear, factual, and not misleading, comply with all applicable laws and regulations, and conform to the highest ethical standards and the advertising and marketing policies that the COMPANY periodically specifies.

(2) Samples of all local marketing materials not prepared or previously approved by the COMPANY shall be submitted to the COMPANY for approval prior to usage, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If written disapproval is not received by FRANCHISEE within thirty (30) days of the date such materials are delivered to the COMPANY, such materials shall be deemed approved. If FRANCHISEE uses any unapproved promotional materials, the COMPANY reserves the right to assess a fine in the amount of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) per item per occurrence.

(3) Within sixty (60) days after the end of each calendar year, FRANCHISEE shall submit to the COMPANY a report detailing FRANCHISEE's Local Marketing Obligation expenditures in the Territory during that year. If FRANCHISEE fails to spend the required amount during any calendar year, FRANCHISEE must pay the unspent amount to the COMPANY within the same sixty (60) days after the year end. The COMPANY then may use such monies for any marketing or promotional expense (whether national, regional, local or otherwise) at any time.

(4) While FRANCHISEE is not obligated to allocate Local Marketing Obligation expenditures evenly among all the service lines of its Sparkle Squad Business, it must allocate such expenditures in a manner that meaningfully supports each service line.

C. CENTRALLY MANAGED PAID MEDIA INVESTMENT.

(1) Recognizing the value of marketing and promotion to the goodwill and public image of SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, the COMPANY shall maintain and administer for FRANCHISEE a centrally managed paid media investment, which shall be managed by the COMPANY's marketing team and used exclusively to generate customer leads and brand awareness within the Territory through digital advertising channels that are centrally planned and managed for FRANCHISEE (the "Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment").

(2) Beginning in the first (1st) week of operation of FRANCHISEE's Sparkle Squad Business (which is defined as the week after FRANCHISEE's Grand Opening Marketing Package launch date, as determined by the COMPANY in its sole discretion), FRANCHISEE shall contribute to the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment, on an annual basis, the greater of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000) or five percent (5%) of FRANCHISEE's Net Revenues, subject to an annual cap of Forty-Five Thousand Dollars ($45,000). The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contribution is payable weekly (no less than approximately $577 per week). If FRANCHISEE operates its Sparkle Squad Business in two contiguous territories (under two separate Franchise Agreements), the maximum Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions for those two territories during any calendar year will not exceed Forty-Five Thousand Dollars ($45,000).

(3) The COMPANY shall direct all programs financed by the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions, with sole discretion and control over the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used therein and their geographic, market and media placement and allocation. FRANCHISEE agrees that the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment may be used to pay for preparing and producing advertising, marketing, and promotional content and related materials and administering, directing, and preparing marketing programs. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment shall be accounted for separately from the other funds of the COMPANY, and shall not be used to defray any of the COMPANY's general operating expenses, except for such reasonable salaries, administrative costs and overhead as the COMPANY may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment and its marketing and promotional programs. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment is not the COMPANY's asset. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment is not a trust, and the COMPANY does not owe FRANCHISEE fiduciary obligations because of the COMPANY's maintaining, directing or administering the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment or for any other reason. A report of monies collected and costs incurred by the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment on behalf of FRANCHISEE shall be prepared annually by the COMPANY and made available for inspection by FRANCHISEE upon request.

Except as expressly provided in this Subsection, the COMPANY assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to FRANCHISEE for collecting amounts due to, maintaining, directing or administering the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment on behalf of FRANCHISEE.

(4) The COMPANY may at any time defer or reduce the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contribution of a SPARKLE SQUAD Business.

(5) Because FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business offers several distinct service lines, the COMPANY has the right to plan, deploy, and optimize the Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment across the service lines based on seasonality, performance metrics, strategic priorities, and market opportunity. Although FRANCHISEE pays Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions weekly, the timing and allocation of marketing expenditures with those contributions may not correspond directly to the timing of FRANCHISEE's contributions. The Centrally Managed Paid Media Investment contributions are intended to fund ongoing and future marketing programs, and the COMPANY has the right to concentrate spending during periods when it believes that demand, conversion, or return on investment will be highest for the particular service line.

D. NATIONAL MARKETING FUND.

(1) The COMPANY shall maintain and administer a National Marketing Fund (the "NMF") for regional and national marketing, advertising and promotions programs as the COMPANY in its sole discretion deems appropriate. The COMPANY shall direct and control all such programs, materials, endorsements and media used therein and the placement and allocation thereof.

(2) Beginning in the thirteenth (13th) month of operation of FRANCHISEE's Sparkle Squad Business (which is defined as the 13th month after FRANCHISEE's Grand Opening Marketing Package launch date, as determined by the COMPANY in its sole discretion), FRANCHISEE shall start to pay to the COMPANY for deposit into the NMF, on an annual basis, the greater of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or two percent (2%) of FRANCHISEE's Net Revenues (the "NMF Fee"), subject to an annual cap of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000). The NMF Fee is payable weekly (no less than approximately $96.15 per week). If FRANCHISEE operates its Sparkle Squad Business in two contiguous territories (under two separate Franchise Agreements), the maximum NMF Fees for those two territories during any calendar year will not exceed Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000).

(3) The NMF shall be used and expended for media costs (including print, digital, search engine management and optimization, social media, television and radio, and other communications channels without restriction), commissions, market research costs, creative and production costs, including without limitation, the costs of creating promotions and artwork, printing costs, and other costs relating to advertising and promotional programs undertaken by the COMPANY. The COMPANY reserves the right to place and develop such advertisements and promotions and to market same as agent for and on behalf of FRANCHISEE, either directly or through an advertising or public relations agency retained or formed for such purpose.

(4) The NMF shall be accounted for separately from the other funds of the COMPANY and shall not be used to defray any of the COMPANY's general operating expenses, except for salaries, administrative costs and overhead (calculated on a fully allocated basis), if any, as the COMPANY may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration or direction of the NMF and advertising programs (including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing marketing materials, collecting and accounting for NMF Fees, paying taxes due on unspent NMF Fees the COMPANY receives, and any other costs or expenses the COMPANY incurs operating or as a consequence of the NMF). An in-house unaudited statement of the operations of the NMF shall be prepared annually and shall be made available to FRANCHISEE upon request, the cost of such statement to be paid by the NMF.

(5) FRANCHISEE acknowledges and agrees that the NMF is intended to maximize general public recognition and patronage of the System for the benefit of all franchisees and that the COMPANY undertakes no obligation to ensure that any particular franchisee (including FRANCHISEE) benefits directly or pro-rata from the placement or conduct of such advertising and promotion. The NMF will not be used principally to develop materials and programs to solicit franchisees. However, media, materials, and programs prepared using NMF Fees may describe the franchise program, reference the availability of franchises and related information, and process franchise leads. The Company has the right, but no obligation, to use collection agents and institute legal proceedings at the NMF's expense to collect unpaid NMF Fees. It also has the right to forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against the NMF.

(6) Except as expressly provided for herein, the COMPANY assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to FRANCHISEE with respect to the maintenance, direction or administration of the NMF. FRANCHISEE is not a third-party beneficiary and shall have no right to enforce any contributions from other franchisees or the administration of the NMF. Any obligation of the COMPANY with respect to the NMF shall be contractual in nature, and FRANCHISEE shall have no proprietary right in the NMF, and it shall not constitute a trust fund.

(7) FRANCHISEE shall fully participate in all sales and promotional activities (including the introduction of new services, grand opening or other marketing programs directed and approved by the COMPANY) as the COMPANY may require.

(8) The NMF is not intended to be a source of profit for the COMPANY. In the event of surplus funds at the end of any year, such funds will be applied to one or more of the following, in any combination as may be determined in the COMPANY's absolute discretion: (i) carried forward and applied to the next year's operating costs, or (ii) distributed pro rata to SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses that contributed to the NMF for that year. The COMPANY also has the right to use new NMF Fees to pay NMF deficits incurred during previous years.

9. RECORDS AND REPORTING.

A. ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS.

FRANCHISEE agrees, at his expense, to maintain and preserve for three (3) years from the date of their preparation, or such greater period as may be required by the Operating Manual or applicable law, full, complete and accurate books, records and accounts, including, without limitation, copies of all customer contracts and lists, sales, invoices, cash receipts, service records, purchase records, accounts payable, cash disbursement records, inventory records, general ledgers, itemized bank deposit slips and bank statements, copies of sales tax returns, and copies of FRANCHISEE's state and federal income tax returns. These records will not include any records or information relating to FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees as FRANCHISEE controls exclusively its labor relations and employment practices. FRANCHISEE further agrees that such records shall be prepared and maintained on forms, and by the accounting professionals, prescribed from time to time by the COMPANY.

B. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

FRANCHISEE shall furnish the COMPANY on or before Thursday of each week, in the form from time to time prescribed by the COMPANY, a control report signed and verified by FRANCHISEE accurately reflecting the gross and Net Revenues of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business for the preceding week (Monday through Sunday). FRANCHISEE, at his expense, shall furnish to the COMPANY (and its agents), such forms, reports, records, financial statements and other information as the COMPANY may, from time to time, require, including the financial reports and statements as provided in this Subsection and other reports the COMPANY may request in the future. This information will not include any information relating to FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business employees as FRANCHISEE controls exclusively its labor relations and employment practices. FRANCHISEE shall prepare and furnish to the COMPANY on such forms as are prescribed by the COMPANY from time to time: (1) by the tenth (10th) day of each month, a report of Net Revenues of the Franchise for the preceding calendar month and such other data, information and supporting records as the COMPANY from time to time requires; and (2) within one hundred five (105) days after the end of each fiscal year of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business, an annual statement of profit and loss for FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business for the fiscal year, a balance sheet as of the end of the fiscal year and a cash flow projection for the following year. Each such report shall be signed and verified by FRANCHISEE in the manner prescribed by the COMPANY. The COMPANY may, from time to time, revise the timing and content of required reports. At the COMPANY's request, FRANCHISEE shall provide some or all of its records and reports via electronic transmission or other means as specified by the COMPANY.

10. INSPECTIONS AND AUDITS.

To determine whether FRANCHISEE is complying with this Agreement and/or all applicable specifications and quality standards, the COMPANY shall have the right at any reasonable time and without prior notice to FRANCHISEE to: (1) inspect FRANCHISEE's equipment and the Service Vehicles; (2) inspect FRANCHISEE's office and garage or warehouse;

(3) observe FRANCHISEE and all employees in the performance of services; (4) inspect any job performed by FRANCHISEE; and (5) contact and interview customers of FRANCHISEE. The COMPANY shall have the further right at any time during business hours, and with at least three (3) days' prior notice to FRANCHISEE, to inspect and audit, or cause to be inspected and audited, the business records, bookkeeping and accounting records, sales and income tax records and returns and other records of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business, and the books and records of any corporation or partnership which holds the Franchise (other than those records over which the COMPANY has no authority to control and/or remedy, such as FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business employee records as FRANCHISEE controls exclusively its labor relations and employment practices). FRANCHISEE further acknowledges and agrees that the COMPANY shall have the right to make photocopies of all such books and records. FRANCHISEE shall fully cooperate with representatives of the COMPANY and independent accountants hired by the COMPANY to conduct any such inspection or audit. If FRANCHISEE fails to provide any such books, records and other materials requested at such inspection/audit in the format prescribed by the COMPANY in the Operating Manual or in writing, then FRANCHISEE shall pay the COMPANY Five Hundred Dollars ($500) for each day any such requested books, records and other materials are not available to the COMPANY plus the COMPANY's reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such delay. In the event any such inspection or audit shall disclose an understatement of the Net Revenues of FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business, FRANCHISEE shall pay to the COMPANY, within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the inspection or audit report, the royalty and service fee, advertising contributions, and Back Office Support System Fees due on the amount of such understatement, plus interest (at the rate and on the terms provided in Section 6.E. hereof) from the date originally due until the date of payment. Further, in the event such inspection or audit is made necessary by the failure of FRANCHISEE to furnish reports, supporting records or other information, as herein required, or to furnish such reports and information on a timely basis, or if an understatement of Net Revenues for the period of any inspection or audit (which shall not be for less than two (2) months) is determined by any such inspection or audit to be greater than three percent (3%), FRANCHISEE shall reimburse the COMPANY for the cost of such inspection or audit, including, without limitation, the charges of any independent accountants and the travel expenses, room and board and compensation of employees of the COMPANY. The foregoing remedies shall be in addition to all other remedies and rights of the COMPANY hereunder or under applicable law.

11. TRANSFER.

A. BY THE COMPANY.

This Agreement and the Franchise are fully transferable by the COMPANY, without notice to or consent from FRANCHISEE, and shall inure to the benefit of any transferee or other legal successor to the COMPANY's interest herein.

B. FRANCHISEE MAY NOT TRANSFER WITHOUT COMPANY APPROVAL.

FRANCHISEE understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to FRANCHISEE (or, if FRANCHISEE is an entity, its owner(s)) and that the COMPANY has granted the Franchise in reliance upon the COMPANY's perceptions of the individual or collective character, business skill, aptitude and financial capacity of FRANCHISEE (or, if FRANCHISEE is an entity, its owner(s)). Therefore, neither this Agreement, the Business Assets (or any interest therein), the Franchise (or any interest therein), nor any part or all of the ownership of FRANCHISEE may be transferred without the COMPANY's prior written approval, and any such transfer shall constitute a breach of this Agreement and convey no rights to or interests in this Agreement, FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business, the Business Assets or FRANCHISEE. If FRANCHISEE desires to engage a consultant or broker to identify a potential transferee, then FRANCHISEE must provide the COMPANY with no less than ninety (90) days' prior notice of such engagement.

C. CONDITIONS FOR APPROVAL OF TRANSFER.

If FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) are in full compliance with this Agreement, the COMPANY shall not unreasonably withhold its approval of a transfer that meets all of the applicable requirements of this Section 11.C. The proposed transferee(s) or its owner(s) must be an individual of good moral character, have sufficient business experience, aptitude and financial resources to operate a SPARKLE SQUAD Business, be able to personally devote full time and best efforts to a SPARKLE SQUAD Business and to otherwise meet the COMPANY's then applicable standards for franchisees. If the transfer is of the Franchise, or of a controlling interest in FRANCHISEE, or if it is one of a series of transfers which in the aggregate constitutes the transfer of a controlling interest in FRANCHISEE, all of the following conditions must be met prior to, or concurrently with, the effective date of the transfer:

(1) all obligations of FRANCHISEE incurred in connection with this Agreement and the conduct of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business, including, but not limited to, obligations to customers of FRANCHISEE, must be assumed by the transferee(s);

(2) FRANCHISEE must pay all amounts owed to the COMPANY which are then due, and shall have submitted to the COMPANY all required reports and statements;

(3) the transferee(s) and, if applicable, its general manager must satisfactorily complete the training program required of new franchisees;

(4) the transferee(s) must execute and agree to be bound by the COMPANY's then current form of standard franchise agreement and such ancillary agreements as are then customarily used by the COMPANY in the transfer of SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses, which may provide for different rights and obligations than are provided by this Agreement, but which franchise agreement does not provide for payment of an Initial Franchise Fee;

(5) the transferee(s) must assume all obligations of FRANCHISEE under FRANCHISEE's agreement with the designated supplier for the Software Program, unless otherwise provided for under a separate agreement with the designated supplier;

(6) FRANCHISEE must pay a transfer fee to the COMPANY in an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the then current initial license fee payable by a franchisee who is new to the SPARKLE SQUAD system;

(7) if the COMPANY engages a third-party broker or consultant on FRANCHISEE's behalf to assist FRANCHISEE with the sale of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, then FRANCHISEE must pay the COMPANY its then-current non-refundable broker fee, and the broker fee is payable even if the transferee is not a potential transferee identified by the consultant or broker;

(8) FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) must execute a general release, in form satisfactory to the COMPANY, of any and all claims against the COMPANY, its affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents;

(9) the COMPANY must approve the material terms and conditions of such transfer, including, without limitation, that the price and terms of payment are not so burdensome as to adversely affect the future operations of the Franchise by such transferee(s) in compliance with the COMPANY's then standard franchise agreement and ancillary agreements;

(10) the COMPANY has the right to inspect the equipment and the Service Vehicles to be transferred to transferee(s) and to require cleaning, repair or reconditioning thereof by FRANCHISEE prior to transfer;

(11) FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) must execute a noncompetition covenant in favor of the COMPANY and the transferee(s), agreeing that for a period of not less than eighteen (18) months, commencing on the effective date of the transfer, he, they and the members of his and their immediate families will not have any direct or indirect interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, lender, partner, director, officer, manager, consultant, employee, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any Competitive Business located within (i) FRANCHISEE's Territory, (ii) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of FRANCHISEE's Territory, (iii) the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business, or (iv) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business;

(12) FRANCHISEE and its owners must provide transition services to the transferee for at least sixty (60) days after the transfer is complete; and

(13) FRANCHISEE and its owners shall have entered into an agreement with the COMPANY agreeing to subordinate to the transferee's obligations to the COMPANY (including royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, and Back Office Support System Fees) any obligations of such transferee to make installment payments of the purchase price to FRANCHISEE.

Subsection (6) shall not apply to transfers by gift, bequest or inheritance.

D. DEATH OR INCAPACITY OF FRANCHISEE.

Upon the death or permanent incapacity of FRANCHISEE, the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of such person must transfer his interest to a third party approved by the COMPANY within six (6) months from the date of death or permanent disability. Such transfer shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions for transfers contained in this Section 11. Failure to transfer in accordance with this Section upon such death or disability shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

E. THE COMPANY'S RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL.

If FRANCHISEE or its owner(s) shall at any time determine to sell an interest in FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business, an ownership interest in FRANCHISEE, or the Business Assets, FRANCHISEE or its owner(s) shall obtain a bona fide, executed written offer from a responsible and fully disclosed purchaser and shall submit an exact copy of such offer to the COMPANY. The COMPANY or its designee shall have the right, exercisable by written notice delivered to FRANCHISEE or its owner(s) within thirty (30) days after the COMPANY receives an exact copy of such offer and all other information the COMPANY requests, to purchase such interest in FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business, such ownership interest in FRANCHISEE or the Business Assets, for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in such offer, provided that: (1) the COMPANY may substitute cash for any form of payment proposed in such offer; (2) the COMPANY's credit will be deemed equal to the credit of any proposed buyer; (3) the COMPANY shall have not less than thirty (30) days to prepare for closing after notifying FRANCHISEE of the COMPANY's election to purchase; and (4) the COMPANY must receive, and FRANCHISEE agrees to make, all customary representations and warranties given by the seller of the assets of a business, including, without limitation, representations and warranties regarding ownership and condition of, and title to, assets and validity of contracts and the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, relating to the assets being purchased. The COMPANY may assign or delegate its rights under this Section 11.E. If the COMPANY exercises its right of first refusal, FRANCHISEE agrees that, for eighteen (18) months beginning on the closing date, FRANCHISEE, FRANCHISEE's transferring owner(s), and members of his or their immediate families will be bound by the non-competition covenant contained in Section 14.D, below. If the COMPANY does not exercise its right of first refusal, FRANCHISEE or its owner(s) may complete the sale to such purchaser pursuant to and on the terms of such offer, subject to the COMPANY's approval of the purchaser as provided in Section 11.C, provided that if the sale to such purchaser is not completed within one hundred twenty (120) days after delivery of such offer to the COMPANY, or there is a material change in the terms of the sale, the COMPANY shall again have the right of first refusal herein provided.

F. OWNERSHIP STRUCTURE.

If FRANCHISEE is an entity, FRANCHISEE represents and warrants that its ownership structure is as set forth on Exhibit A hereto and covenants that it will not vary from that ownership structure without the prior written approval of the COMPANY.

12. EXPIRATION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

A. FRANCHISEE'S RIGHT TO ACQUIRE A SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE.

Subject to the provision of this Section 12, upon expiration of the initial term of this Agreement, if: (1) FRANCHISEE has substantially complied with all of the provisions of this Agreement; and (2) FRANCHISEE, if necessary, refurbishes and re-equips each of his Service Vehicles and commissions the COMPANY (or another party approved by the COMPANY), at his expense and on his behalf, to repair or replace the equipment utilized in the operation of the Franchise and is in compliance with specifications and standards then applicable for new SPARKLE SQUAD Business franchises; then FRANCHISEE shall have the right to acquire a successor franchise for the SPARKLE SQUAD Business for an additional term of ten (10) years.

B. GRANT OF A SUCCESSOR FRANCHISE.

FRANCHISEE must give the COMPANY written notice of his election to acquire a successor franchise at least six (6) months, but not more than twelve (12) months, before the end of the initial term of this Agreement. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of FRANCHISEE's notice, the COMPANY shall notify FRANCHISEE in writing whether or not the COMPANY shall grant a successor franchise to FRANCHISEE. If, at any time during the term of this Agreement, FRANCHISEE fails to fully comply with this Agreement or any other agreement between FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY, the COMPANY may refuse to grant a successor franchise by delivering a notice of the COMPANY's refusal to grant a successor franchise, stating the reasons for such refusal. If the COMPANY's notice indicates that the COMPANY will permit FRANCHISEE to obtain a successor franchise, such right will be contingent upon FRANCHISEE's continued full compliance with this Agreement and any other agreement between the COMPANY and FRANCHISEE.

C. AGREEMENTS/RELEASES.

If the COMPANY grants a successor franchise, the COMPANY and FRANCHISEE and the owner(s) of FRANCHISEE shall execute the COMPANY's then current form of franchise agreement and such ancillary agreements as are used in offering franchises to operate SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses (with appropriate modifications to reflect the fact that the agreements relate to the grant of a successor franchise), and the COMPANY, FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) shall execute general releases, in form satisfactory to the COMPANY, of any and all claims against each other and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents. Failure by FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) to sign such agreement(s) and releases within ninety (90) days after delivery thereof to FRANCHISEE shall be deemed an election by FRANCHISEE not to acquire a successor franchise.

13. TERMINATION OF FRANCHISE BY THE COMPANY.

This Agreement shall terminate:

(1) effective upon delivery of notice of termination to FRANCHISEE if FRANCHISEE or its owner(s):

(a) abandons or fails to actively operate the Franchise or fails to commence operation of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business as required in Section 1.C. of this Agreement;

(b) surrenders or transfers control of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business without the COMPANY's prior written consent;

(c) has made any material misrepresentation or omission in his franchise application or after being granted the Franchise;

(d) fails to satisfactorily complete the training requirements described in Section 2.A. of this Agreement;

(e) is convicted of or pleads no contest to a felony, or any other crime or offense that is likely to adversely affect the reputation of FRANCHISEE, other SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses or the COMPANY;

(f) abandons, surrenders or makes an unauthorized transfer of the Franchise, the Business Assets or an ownership interest in FRANCHISEE;

(g) makes any unauthorized use, duplication or disclosure of any Confidential Information or the Operating Manual;

(h) fails on three (3) or more separate occasions during any one (1)-year period to submit when due reports or other data, information or supporting records, to pay when due the royalty and service fees, technology fees, lease payments, advertising contributions, Back Office Support System Fees, amounts due for products and services purchased from the COMPANY or other suppliers, or other payments due to the COMPANY, or otherwise fails to comply with this Agreement, whether or not such failures to comply are corrected after notice thereof is delivered to FRANCHISEE;

(i) submits to the COMPANY on two (2) or more separate occasions at any time during the initial term of this Agreement information, reports or supporting records which understate by more than three percent (3%) the royalty and service fees due for any period of, or periods aggregating, two (2) or more months, and FRANCHISEE is unable to demonstrate that such understatements resulted from inadvertent error;

(j) materially misuses or makes an unauthorized use of any Mark or commits any act which can reasonably be expected to materially impair the goodwill associated with any Mark, including, but not limited to, use of any Mark as part of a website domain name or electronic address in an unauthorized manner on FRANCHISEE's website;

(k) violates any environmental, labor, employment, health, safety, sanitation or other regulatory law, ordinance or regulation or conducts his SPARKLE SQUAD Business in a manner that presents a health or safety hazard to his customers or the public;

(l) fails to maintain the insurance the COMPANY requires from time to time;

(m) interferes with the COMPANY's right to inspect the SPARKLE SQUAD Business or observe its operation, as provided in Section 10 of this Agreement;

(n) engages in any dishonest or unethical conduct which, in the COMPANY's opinion, adversely affects his SPARKLE SQUAD Business' reputation, the reputation of other SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses or the goodwill associated with the Marks;

(o) permits any material licenses or permits necessary for his SPARKLE SQUAD Business' proper operation to be suspended, revoked or not renewed;

(p) fails to pay when due any federal, state or local income, service, sales or other taxes due on his SPARKLE SQUAD Business' operation, unless FRANCHISEE is in good faith contesting FRANCHISEE's liability for these taxes;

(q) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or admits in writing its insolvency or inability to pay its debts generally as they become due; consents to the appointment of a receiver, trustee or liquidator of all or the substantial part of FRANCHISEE's property; the FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business is attached, seized, subjected to a writ or distress warrant, or levied upon, unless the attachment, seizure, writ, warrant or levy is vacated within thirty (30) days; or any order appointing a receiver, trustee or liquidator of FRANCHISEE or his SPARKLE SQUAD Business is not vacated within thirty (30) days following the order's entry;

(r) violates the restrictions of Section 4.B. (Exclusive Relationship) or any other non-compete agreement; or

(s) at any time during the term of this Agreement defaults or fails to cure (if cure is permitted) any default under the agreement between FRANCHISEE and the designated supplier for the Software Program, or the agreement between FRANCHISEE and the designated supplier for the Software Program expires or is terminated.

(2) without further action by the COMPANY or notice to FRANCHISEE if FRANCHISEE or its owner(s):

(a) fails to accurately report the Net Revenues of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business or fails to make payments of any amounts due the COMPANY for royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, Back Office Support System Fees, or any other amounts due to the COMPANY or its affiliates hereunder, and does not correct such failure within ten (10) days after written notice of such failure is delivered to FRANCHISEE; or

(b) fails to comply with any other provision of this Agreement or any mandatory specification, standard or operating procedures prescribed by the COMPANY and does not: (1) correct such failure within thirty (30) days after written notice of such failure to comply is delivered to FRANCHISEE; or (2) provide proof acceptable to the COMPANY of efforts which are reasonably calculated to correct such failure if such failure cannot reasonably be corrected within thirty (30) days after written notice of such failure to comply is delivered to FRANCHISEE.

14. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE COMPANY AND FRANCHISEE UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION OF FRANCHISE.

A. PAYMENT OF AMOUNTS OWED TO THE COMPANY OR CUSTOMERS.

FRANCHISEE agrees to pay to the COMPANY within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of the Franchise, or such later date that the amounts due to the COMPANY are determined, such royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, Back Office Support System Fees, amounts owed to the COMPANY for purchases made by FRANCHISEE, interest due on any of the foregoing, and all other amounts owed to the COMPANY which are then unpaid. FRANCHISEE further agrees to return to his customers all amounts prepaid by such customers within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of the Franchise.

B. MARKS.

FRANCHISEE agrees that upon termination or expiration of the Franchise he will: (1) not directly or indirectly at any time or in any manner, including, but not limited to, on a website, identify himself or any business as a current or former SPARKLE SQUAD Business, or as a franchisee, licensee, owner or dealer of or as otherwise associated with the COMPANY, or use any Mark, any colorable imitation thereof or other indicia of a SPARKLE SQUAD Business in any manner or for any purpose or utilize for any purpose any trade name, trade or service mark or other commercial symbol that suggests or indicates a connection or association with the COMPANY; (2) return to the COMPANY or destroy all signs, brochures, advertising materials, forms, invoices and other materials containing any Marks or otherwise identifying or relating to the SPARKLE SQUAD Business; (3) take all such action as may be required to cancel all fictitious or assumed name or equivalent registrations relating to his use of any Mark; (4) remove all indicia of the Marks from all Service Vehicles not surrendered to or bought by the COMPANY; (5) notify the telephone company and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of FRANCHISEE's right to use any telephone number and any regular, classified or other telephone directory listings associated with any Mark, and to authorize transfer of same to or at the direction of the COMPANY (FRANCHISEE acknowledges that as between the COMPANY and FRANCHISEE, the COMPANY has the sole rights to and interest in all telephone numbers and directory listings associated with any Mark. FRANCHISEE authorizes the COMPANY, and hereby appoints the COMPANY and any officer of the COMPANY as his attorney in fact, to direct the telephone company and all listing agencies to transfer same to the COMPANY or at its direction, should FRANCHISEE fail or refuse to do so, and the telephone company and all listing agencies may accept such direction or this Agreement as conclusive of the exclusive rights of the COMPANY in such telephone numbers and directory listings and its authority to direct their transfer); (6) return all materials and supplies identified by the Marks within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination or expiration of this Agreement; (7) return to the COMPANY all copies of his SPARKLE SQUAD Business customer lists, including past customers, present customers and customer prospects; (8) cancel any electronic address, domain name or website which displays any Mark or that identifies FRANCHISEE as associated with the COMPANY or the SPARKLE SQUAD Business; and (9) furnish to the COMPANY, within thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination or expiration, evidence satisfactory to the COMPANY of FRANCHISEE's compliance with the foregoing obligations. FRANCHISEE acknowledges that his SPARKLE SQUAD Business customer lists and contracts are derived from and a result of his operating a SPARKLE SQUAD franchise. Therefore, FRANCHISEE agrees that such customer lists and contracts may not be used in connection with any business other than the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, and may not be used by, or sold or otherwise transferred to, a third party except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement.

C. RETURN OF EQUIPMENT AND OPERATING MANUALS.

FRANCHISEE agrees that upon termination or expiration of the Franchise, he will immediately cease to use the Confidential Information of the COMPANY disclosed to FRANCHISEE pursuant to this Agreement in any business or otherwise and return to the COMPANY all copies of the Operating Manual for the SPARKLE SQUAD Business that have been loaned to him by the COMPANY and any other equipment which the COMPANY has loaned to FRANCHISEE.

D. COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE.

Upon termination of this Agreement by either the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, or upon expiration of this Agreement (if the COMPANY refuses to grant a successor franchise, as provided in Section 12, or FRANCHISEE elects not to acquire a successor franchise), FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) agree that for a period of eighteen (18) months, commencing on the effective date of termination or expiration, or the date on which FRANCHISEE ceases to conduct the business conducted pursuant to this Agreement, whichever is later, neither FRANCHISEE, its owner(s) nor the members of his and their immediate families will have any interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, lender, partner, director, officer, manager, consultant, employee, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any Competitive Business located within (i) FRANCHISEE's Territory, (ii) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of FRANCHISEE's Territory, (iii) the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business in operation or in the process of opening on the later of the effective date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the date on which all persons restricted by this Subsection begin to comply with this Subsection, or (iv) fifty (50) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business in operation or in the process of opening on the later of the effective date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the date on which all persons restricted by this Subsection begin to comply with this Subsection.

E. CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS.

All obligations of the COMPANY and FRANCHISEE which expressly or by their nature survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding its expiration or termination and until they are satisfied in full or by their nature expire.

15. ENFORCEMENT.

A. SEVERABILITY AND SUBSTITUTION OF VALID PROVISIONS.

Except as expressly provided to the contrary herein, each section, paragraph, term and provision of this Agreement, and any portion thereof, shall be considered severable and if, for any reason, any such portion of this Agreement is held to be invalid, contrary to, or in conflict with any applicable present or future law or regulation in a final, unappealable ruling issued by any court, agency or tribunal with competent jurisdiction in a proceeding to which the COMPANY is a party, that ruling shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions of this Agreement as may remain otherwise intelligible, which shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto, although any portion held to be invalid shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement from the date the time for appeal expires, if FRANCHISEE is a party thereto; otherwise upon FRANCHISEE's receipt of written notice of non-enforcement thereof from the COMPANY. If any covenant herein which restricts competitive activity is deemed unenforceable by virtue of its scope in terms of area, business activity prohibited and/or length of time, but would be enforceable by reducing any part or all thereof, FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY agree that same shall be enforced to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in the jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. If any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater prior notice of the termination of or refusal to enter into a successor franchise agreement than is required hereunder, or the taking of some other action not required hereunder, or if under any applicable and binding law or rule of any jurisdiction, any provision of this Agreement or any specification, standard or operating procedure prescribed by the COMPANY is invalid or unenforceable, the prior notice and/or other action required by such law or rule shall be substituted for the comparable provisions hereof, and the COMPANY shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to modify such invalid or unenforceable provision, specification, standard or operating procedure to the extent required to be valid and enforceable. Such modification(s) to this Agreement shall be effective only in such jurisdiction, unless the COMPANY elects to give it greater applicability, and shall be enforced as originally made and entered into in all other jurisdictions. FRANCHISEE agrees to be bound by any such modification to this Agreement.

B. WAIVER OF OBLIGATIONS.

The COMPANY and FRANCHISEE may by written instrument unilaterally waive or reduce any obligation of or restriction upon the other under this Agreement, effective upon delivery of written notice thereof to the other. Any waiver granted by the COMPANY shall be without prejudice to any other rights the COMPANY may have, will be subject to continuing review by the COMPANY and may be revoked, in the COMPANY's sole discretion, at any time and for any reason, effective upon delivery to FRANCHISEE of ten (10) days' prior written notice. The COMPANY and FRANCHISEE shall not be deemed to have waived or impaired any right, power or option reserved by this Agreement by virtue of any custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms hereof; any failure, refusal or neglect of the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE to exercise any rights under this Agreement or to insist upon exact compliance by the other with its obligations hereunder; any waiver, forbearance, delay, failure or omission by the COMPANY to exercise any right, power or option, whether of the same, similar or different nature, with respect to other SPARKLE SQUAD Businesses; or the acceptance by the COMPANY of any payments due from FRANCHISEE after any breach of this Agreement.

Neither the COMPANY nor FRANCHISEE shall be liable for loss or damage or deemed to be in breach of this Agreement if its failure to perform its obligations results from: (1) transportation shortages, inadequate supply of equipment, merchandise, supplies, labor, material or energy, or the right to acquire or use any of the foregoing in order to accommodate or comply with the orders, requests, regulations, recommendations or instructions of any federal, state or municipal government or any department or agency thereof; (2) compliance with any law, ruling, order, regulation, requirement or instruction of any federal, state, or municipal government or any department or agency thereof; (3) acts of God; (4) fires, strikes, embargoes, war or riot; or (5) any other similar event or cause. Any delay resulting from any of said causes shall extend performance accordingly or excuse performance, in whole or in part, as may be reasonable, except that said causes shall not excuse payments of amounts owed at the time of such occurrence or payment of royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, and Back Office Support System Fees.

C. INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Subsection F of this Section, either party may institute in a court of competent jurisdiction an action or actions for temporary or preliminary injunctive relief; provided, however, that such party shall contemporaneously submit the dispute for arbitration on the merits in accordance with Subsection F(3) of this Section. FRANCHISEE agrees that the COMPANY may have such temporary or preliminary injunctive relief without bond, but upon due notice, and FRANCHISEE's sole remedy in the event of the entry of such injunctive relief shall be the dissolution of such injunctive relief, if warranted, upon hearing duly had (all claims for damages by reason of the wrongful issuance of any such injunction being expressly waived hereby).

D. RIGHTS OF PARTIES ARE CUMULATIVE.

The rights of the COMPANY and FRANCHISEE hereunder are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE of any other right or remedy hereunder or which the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE is entitled by law to enforce.

E. COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES.

If the COMPANY incurs expenses in connection with FRANCHISEE's failure to pay when due amounts owing to the COMPANY, to submit when due any reports, information or supporting records or otherwise to comply with this Agreement, FRANCHISEE shall reimburse the COMPANY for any such costs and expenses which it incurs, including, but not limited to, reasonable legal, arbitrators', accounting and related fees.

F. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ARBITRATION.

(1) Meeting Between Principals. COMPANY and FRANCHISEE will attempt to resolve any controversy, claim, or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement and involving FRANCHISEE and COMPANY or any of their respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives (a "Dispute") promptly by a meeting between principals of the respective parties who have authority to settle the Dispute ("Principals"). Either party may give the other written notice ("Dispute Notice") of any Dispute that has not been resolved in the ordinary course of business. Within fifteen (15) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, the receiving party must give to the other a written response ("Response"). The Dispute Notice and the Response must include: (i) a statement describing the position of the party giving the Dispute Notice and the Response and a summary of arguments supporting such position; and (ii) the name of the Principal and any other persons who will accompany the Principal at the meeting at which the parties will attempt to resolve the Dispute. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, the Principals will meet at a mutually acceptable time and place, and then as often as they reasonably consider necessary, to attempt to resolve the Dispute. All reasonable requests for information made by one party to the other will be honored. If the Dispute has not been resolved within sixty (60) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, or if the Principals do not meet within thirty (30) days after delivery of the Dispute Notice, either party may initiate mediation of the Dispute. All meetings, discussions, and other communications under this Subsection will be treated as compromise and settlement discussions and communications.

(2) Mediation. All claims or disputes between FRANCHISEE and COMPANY or any of their respective affiliates, owners, officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives arising under, out of, in connection with, or in relation to this Agreement, the parties' relationship, FRANCHISEE's SPARKLE SQUAD Business, or any of the parties' respective rights and obligations arising out of this Agreement must be submitted first to mediation prior to initiating an arbitration proceeding (except as noted in Section 15.C. above). Such mediation will take place in Holmdel, New Jersey (or COMPANY's then-current headquarters) under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), in accordance with the AAA's Commercial Mediation Rules then in effect. FRANCHISEE is prohibited from commencing any formal legal action against COMPANY or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute unless mediation proceedings have been terminated either: (i) as the result of a written declaration of the mediator(s) that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) as a result of a written declaration by COMPANY. Each party will bear its own costs of mediation and share equally the filing fee imposed by AAA and the mediator's fees. COMPANY reserves the right to specifically enforce its right to mediation. Prior to mediation and before commencing any legal action against COMPANY or its affiliates with respect to any such claim or dispute, FRANCHISEE must submit a notice to COMPANY specifying in detail the precise nature and grounds of such claim or dispute.

(3) Arbitration. Subject to Section 15.C. above (entitled "Injunctive Relief"), all controversies, disputes or claims between the COMPANY (its affiliates, and their respective shareholders, officers, directors, agents, employees, successors and assigns) and FRANCHISEE (its owners, guarantors and their respective officers, directors, agents, employees, successors and assigns) arising out of or related to:

- (a) FRANCHISEE's operation of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business;
- (b) this Agreement or any other agreement between the parties or any provision of such agreements;
- (c) the relationship of the parties hereto;
- (d) the validity of this Agreement or any other agreement between the parties or any provision of such agreements; or
- (e) any specifications, standards or procedures relating to the establishment or operation of the SPARKLE SQUAD Business, which is not resolved through a meeting of Principals (as described in Subsection F(1) above) or mediation (as described in Subsection F(2) above), shall be submitted for binding arbitration before one arbitrator and, except as this Subsection F(3) otherwise provides, in accordance with the then current commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association. All matters within the scope of the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. Sections 1 et seq.) shall be governed by it.

Arbitration shall take place at a location specified by the arbitrator within ten (10) miles of the COMPANY's then-current principal place of business. The arbitrator shall have no authority to select a hearing locale other than as described in the prior sentence. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The parties agree that, in connection with any such arbitration proceeding, each shall submit or file any claim which would constitute a compulsory counterclaim (as defined by Rule 13 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure) within the same proceeding as the claim to which it relates. Any such claim which is not submitted or filed in such proceeding shall be barred.

The COMPANY and FRANCHISEE agree that arbitration shall be conducted on an individual, not a class-wide, basis and that an arbitration proceeding between the COMPANY and FRANCHISEE shall not be consolidated with any other arbitration proceeding involving the COMPANY and any other natural person, association, corporation, partnership or other entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in this Subsection F(3) or Section 15.A., if any court or arbitrator determines that all or any part of the preceding sentence is unenforceable with respect to a dispute that otherwise would be subject to arbitration under this Subsection F(3), then all parties agree that this arbitration clause shall not apply to that dispute and that such dispute shall be resolved in a judicial proceeding in accordance with this Article 15 (excluding this Section 15.F(3)).

The COMPANY and FRANCHISEE waive any right to or claim for punitive or exemplary damages, except punitive or exemplary damages allowed under federal statute.

The provisions of this Subsection F(3) shall continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

G. GOVERNING LAW.

All matters relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other federal law, this Agreement, the Franchise and the relationship of the parties shall be governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey, without regard for its conflicts of laws principles, except that any New Jersey law regulating the sale of franchises or governing the relationship of a franchisor and its franchisee will not apply unless its jurisdictional requirements are met independently without reference to this Subsection G.

H. JURISDICTION.

With respect to actions described in Section 15.C. above and any other actions not subject to arbitration under Subsection F(3) above, FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY agree that any action arising under this Agreement or otherwise as a result of the relationship between FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY must be commenced in a state or federal court of competent jurisdiction in the State of New Jersey. FRANCHISEE irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of such courts and waives any objection he may have to either the jurisdiction or venue of such court.

I. WAIVER OF PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

The parties waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages, except punitive or exemplary damages allowed under federal statute. The parties agree that, in the event of a dispute between them, the party making a claim shall be limited to recovery of any actual damages it sustains.

J. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL.

Each party irrevocably waives trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by either party.

K. FRANCHISEE MAY NOT WITHHOLD PAYMENTS.

FRANCHISEE agrees that he will not, on grounds of the alleged nonperformance by the COMPANY of any of its obligations hereunder, withhold payment of any royalty and service fees, technology fees, advertising contributions, Back Office Support System Fees, amounts due to the COMPANY for purchases by FRANCHISEE or any other amounts due to the COMPANY.

L. BINDING EFFECT.

This Agreement is binding upon the parties hereto and their respective executors, administrators, heirs, assigns and successors in interest. Subject to the COMPANY's right to modify the Operating Manual, this Agreement shall not be modified except by written agreement signed by FRANCHISEE and the COMPANY.

M. LIMITATIONS OF CLAIMS.

Any and all claims, except claims for monies due the COMPANY, arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the relationship among the parties hereto shall be barred unless an action or legal or arbitration proceeding is commenced within one (1) year from the date FRANCHISEE or the COMPANY knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to such claims.

N. CONSTRUCTION.

The preambles and exhibits are a part of this Agreement, which together with the Operating Manual, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between the COMPANY and FRANCHISEE relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement or any related agreement shall disclaim or require FRANCHISEE to waive reliance on any representation that the COMPANY made in the most recent disclosure document (including its exhibits and amendments) that the COMPANY delivered to FRANCHISEE or its representative. The term "FRANCHISEE" as used herein is applicable to one (1) or more persons, a corporation or a partnership, as the case may be, and the singular usage includes the plural and the masculine and neuter usages include the other and the feminine. If two (2) or more persons are at any time FRANCHISEE hereunder, their obligations and liabilities to the COMPANY shall be joint and several. References to "FRANCHISEE" and "transferee" which are applicable to an individual or individuals shall mean the principal owner(s) of the equity or operating control of FRANCHISEE or the transferee, if FRANCHISEE or the transferee is a corporation or partnership. The headings of the several sections and paragraphs hereof are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such sections or paragraphs. The words "include" and "including" are meant to be illustrative and not exhaustive and are deemed to be read in all cases as "including, without limitation" and/or "including, but not limited to."

Except where this Agreement expressly obligates the COMPANY reasonably to approve or not unreasonably to withhold its approval of any action or request by FRANCHISEE, the COMPANY has the absolute right to refuse any request by FRANCHISEE or to withhold its approval of any action by FRANCHISEE that requires the COMPANY's approval. Nothing in this Agreement is intended, nor shall be deemed, to confer any rights or remedies upon any person or legal entity not a party hereto.

16. NOTICE AND PAYMENTS.

All written notices and reports permitted or required to be delivered by the provisions of this Agreement or of the Operating Manual shall be deemed so delivered at the time delivered by hand; one (1) business day after transmission by facsimile, telecopy, telegraph or comparable electronic system; one (1) business day after being placed in the hands of a commercial courier service for next business day delivery; or three (3) business days after placement in the mail by Registered or Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, postage prepaid, to the address set forth herein, or to such other address as designated in writing by the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE. Any required payment or report which the COMPANY does not actually receive at the correct address during regular or business hours on the date due (or postmarked by postal authorities at least two (2) days before it is due) will be deemed delinquent.

17. NO WAIVER OR DISCLAIMER OF RELIANCE IN CERTAIN STATES.

The following provision applies only to franchisees and franchises that are subject to the state franchise registration/disclosure laws in California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, or Wisconsin:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

6. Interests in Assignee. Assignee and Franchisee jointly and severally covenant and agree that, as long as the Franchise Agreement remains in full force and effect:

(a) Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise sell, assign, transfer, convey, donate, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber any shares or other ownership interests of Assignee now or hereafter owned or controlled by Franchisee without obtaining Company's prior written consent in accordance with the Franchise Agreement. With respect to the Claims released under this Section 7, Franchisee, on behalf of itself and the other members of the Franchisee Group, acknowledges that they may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true with respect to the subject matter of this release, but that it is their intention, subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 7, fully, finally and forever to settle and release all such Claims against any of the Company Group, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which now exist, may exist or did exist, and, in furtherance of such intention, the release given under this Section 7 shall be and

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

Franchisee, on behalf of itself and the other members of the Franchisee Group, waives and relinquishes every right or benefit which any of them has under Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California, and any similar statute or right under any other law, to the fullest extent that the right or benefit may lawfully be waived. EXHIBIT D
EXTRANET AGREEMENT

EXTRANET AGREEMENT

This Extranet Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made as of _____, 20____ by and between Sparkle Squad, LLC (“Sparkle Squad”) and _____ (“Sparkle Squad Franchisee”).

Introduction

Sparkle Squad is offering its franchisees an opportunity to access Sparkle Squad’s official web site (the “Web site”). Sparkle Squad has also developed a communication network that utilizes a password protected Internet web site (the “Extranet”) for the benefit of the Sparkle Squad system and its franchisees. To have access privileges to use the Extranet, you must agree to the terms and conditions set forth herein and to the Terms of Use (“TOU”) attached as Exhibit A. This Agreement and the TOU establish the terms and conditions of the access privileges granted to you and anyone you so designate to use the Extranet.

The parties to this Agreement – Sparkle Squad and Sparkle Squad Franchisee – are also parties to a Franchise Agreement relating to the establishment and operation of a Sparkle Squad business at the address noted in the signature block of this Agreement.

In this Agreement, the words “you” and “your” mean Sparkle Squad Franchisee, any other person or agent logging onto the Extranet on your behalf, any other person or agent otherwise using your account password and/or any sub-account that has been created. The words “we,” “us” and “our” mean Sparkle Squad.

System Requirements

In order to use the Extranet, you will need a computer with an internet connection, current internet browser software, and other compatible software (collectively, your “computer system”). You are solely and completely responsible for the installation, maintenance and operation of your computer system, and for all costs and expenses that you will incur in connection therewith, as well as telephone and/or cable charges incurred while connecting to the Web site, the Extranet, and for any charges by any internet provider you choose to use to gain access to the Internet and, ultimately, the Web site or the Extranet.

We are not responsible for any errors or failures caused by any malfunction of your computer, and we are not responsible for any computer virus or related problems that may be associated with your use of the Extranet, the Web site or of your computer.

Security

Sparkle Squad is committed to helping to keep your information private and secure. However, we cannot guarantee that this will be the case. You play a critical role in maintaining the security of your system. By using this system, you agree to the following:

- To keep your password and user ID confidential, and not to post them on or in the proximity of your computer, nor to store your password or other sensitive data on your computer. You further agree not to disclose your password and/or user ID to anyone.
- That your password and user ID are your authorization for using the Extranet.
- To log out of the Extranet when you are finished using the service.

The Extranet permits you to create sub-accounts for franchise partners and/or employees. You alone are responsible for the access granted to these sub-accounts as well as for ensuring these sub-accounts do not post derogatory or defamatory statements or comments. Sparkle Squad reserves the right to immediately disconnect any sub-accounts so created.

The Extranet permits you to electronically communicate with us, but at present, it does not permit you to transfer money, give notices or otherwise communicate with us so as to satisfy the obligations under your Franchise Agreement or any other agreements with Sparkle Squad.

Limits On Our Responsibility

We agree to make reasonable efforts to ensure the performance of the Extranet and the Web site, but we are not responsible for any losses or delays in transmission arising out of the use of any Internet service provider providing connection to the Internet or caused by any browser software. We are not responsible for any direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising in any way out of your use of the Extranet or the Web site. Because some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for incidental or consequential damages, in such states our liability is limited to the extent permitted by law.

Sparkle Squad makes no express or implied warranties concerning the Extranet service or the Web site, including, but not limited to, any warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose or non-infringement of third-party proprietary rights.

Franchise Agreement

This Agreement is part of your Franchise Agreement with Sparkle Squad. If you are in default under this Agreement, that will also constitute a default under your Franchise Agreement. The provisions of the Franchise Agreement relating to matters such as confidential information, use of the system, use of the trademarks, and indemnity also apply to your use of the Extranet and the Web site.

Changes to the Extranet and Web site

We reserve the right to change, modify or discontinue the Web site, the Extranet and/or any of its components or features from time to time.

Property Rights

The Extranet, the Web site, and all rights in and to any information or data relating to the Extranet and the Web site, including the logs of “hits” by visitors, the Web pages they visited, and any personal or business data they voluntarily supply, will be owned solely by Sparkle Squad.

Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed, exclusively in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey (without regard to its conflicts of laws rules). If any provision of this Agreement shall be unlawful, void or for any reason unenforceable, then that provision shall be deemed severable from this Agreement and shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any remaining provisions.

No Other Agreements

This Agreement and the exhibits hereto are the only agreements between us and you concerning the Extranet and the Web site, and supersede any and all prior communication on the subject matter hereof. Neither party is relying on anything other than the words of this Agreement and the exhibits hereto in deciding whether to enter into this Agreement.

Amendments

This Agreement may be amended but only with both parties’ written consent; however, revisions to the TOU shall be deemed to have been consented to, in writing, if you receive notice of any such changes online, and then continue to use the Extranet and/or the Web site.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and intending to be legally bound, the parties have entered into this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Sparkle Squad, LLC ("Sparkle Squad" or "we" or "us") welcomes you to Sparkle Squad's Extranet ("Extranet") for its franchisees. Please read these Terms of Use (the "TOU") carefully before using the Web site (the "Site").

We reserve the right to modify, alter or otherwise update these TOU at any time, and you agree to be bound by such modifications, alterations or updates. You should review the then-current terms because they will be binding on you if you continue to use this Site after receiving notice of any such changes.

Objectives

The Extranet is intended solely for the business use of Sparkle Squad, its franchisees and any so designated sub-accounts. Any other use of the Extranet is not permitted.

The TOU are designed to assist in protecting the Extranet, Sparkle Squad's franchisees, and other users of the Extranet from improper and/or illegal activity over the Internet. The categories listed below are intended merely to serve as guidelines regarding appropriate and inappropriate conduct. This list is by no means exhaustive and should not be interpreted as such. You agree to accept the affirmative duty to keep your user ID and password secure, and further agree that you will not post that information anywhere in, on, or near your computer or otherwise where it can be easily found by someone else. If your password is lost, stolen or otherwise compromised, you must immediately take reasonable steps to deactivate the compromised password. Sparkle Squad is not responsible for any data that is lost, altered or that becomes public through your failure to protect your password.

We will allow you (and any sub-accounts you create) access to the Extranet so long as you comply with these TOU and for so long as you remain a Sparkle Squad franchisee in good standing. You may not transfer your user account to anyone without our prior written consent. We reserve the right to terminate access to the Extranet by you or any sub-accounts, in our sole judgment, to discontinue the Extranet itself. We will have no liability to you if we terminate access to the Extranet.

Rights of Sparkle Squad

If you engage in conduct while using the Extranet that is in violation of the TOU or is otherwise illegal or improper, we reserve the right to suspend or terminate your access to the Extranet without prior notice to you. In most cases, we may attempt to notify you of any activity in violation of the TOU and request that you cease such activity; however, we are not required to do so. In addition, we may take any other appropriate action against you for violations of the TOU. We do not make any promise, nor do we have any obligation, to monitor or police activity occurring via the Extranet and will have no liability to any party, including you, for any violation of the TOU.

Holmdel, New Jersey

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of LD Parent, Inc. and its Subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, which provides a five-step model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers as follows:

- Identify the contract with a customer
- Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Recognize revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied

The Company has identified the following revenue streams; initial franchise fees, operating revenues which consist of: service/royalty fees from franchises, corporate location sales, sales of parts and equipment, revenues from sales type leases, advertising revenue, and interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivables. The Company's initial franchise fees are recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions relating to such contracts are recorded as a prepaid asset and amortized over the life of the contract.

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company disaggregates its revenue from customers with contracts by revenue streams. The Company's revenue streams are presented in the following table:

Years Ended December 31,	2025	2024
Net Revenues:
Service/royalty fees	$ 27,389,193	$ 25,368,940
Corporate location sales	2,973,238	1,455,186
Part and equipment sales	3,622,024	3,691,417
Advertising revenue	8,856,790	9,053,646
Initial franchise fees	4,118,089	4,655,247
Interest, service charges, and other	873,664	1,039,616
Total Net Revenues	$ 47,832,998	$ 45,264,052

Service/royalty fees derived from franchises ("Service Fees") are recognized as revenue when revenues are earned by the franchisees. The franchisees agree to pay to the Company a weekly royalty and service fee based on a percentage of the net revenues derived by the respective franchisees from the Company's business. Revenue from corporate location sales are recognized when home services have been rendered to the Company's customers and are earned by the Company. In 2024, corporate location sales were included with parts and equipment sales. Revenue from sales of parts and equipment are recognized, at the point in time which control is transferred, upon shipment. Interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivable is recorded as revenue when earned (and collection is reasonably assured) in accordance with the interest method.

Initial franchise fees are deferred and recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions paid on initial franchise fees are deferred and charged to expense upon recognition of the initial fee.

Advertising funds are presented as a gross up of revenue and related cost. Advertising funds, such as the Company's National Marketing Fund and Regional Marketing fund, promote the Company's brand nationally and in the local markets.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company records gross revenue related to Advertising funds which includes amounts charged by the Company to franchisees based on established contracts. Revenue related to these amounts is based on a percentage of sales of the franchisee and is recognized as earned. The sales-based royalty exception applies, and amounts are recognized as the underlying sales are done by the respective franchisees. Advertising fund revenue is deferred and is recognized as advertising expense as incurred by the Company.

Interest income mainly represents interest on notes receivable from franchisees and is recognized using the effective interest method. Service charges represent call center income, which is recognized at a point in time which the control is transferred, upon completion of calls.

Contract balances

The timing of revenue recognition may not align with the right to invoice the customer under franchisee agreements. The Company records accounts receivable when it has the unconditional right to issue an invoice and receive payment, regardless of whether revenue has been recognized. If revenue has not yet been recognized, a contract liability (deferred revenue) is recorded. Deferred revenue represents franchisee fees received that have not been earned yet. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $10,119,606 and $8,687,188 which represent deferred revenues as of the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The opening balances of deferred revenues as of January 1, 2024 were $7,510,379.

Costs to obtain a contract

Broker commissions paid to brokers, as well as commissions paid to internal sales personnel, that are incremental to the acquisition of franchisee contracts are capitalized as prepaid commissions on the Consolidated Balance Sheet when the period of benefit is determined to be greater than one year. The Company elected to apply the practical expedient to expense broker and sales commissions and associated costs as incurred when the expected amortization period is one year or less. The Company determines the period of benefit for broker and sales commissions paid for the acquisition of the franchisee contract by taking into consideration the term of the franchisee agreement. Amortization is recognized on a straight-line basis over a period of approximately ten years, which is commensurate with the pattern of revenue recognition. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $6,212,904 and $5,778,198 which represent prepaid commissions as of the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Receivables from Franchisees, net

The Company accounts for Receivables from Franchisees using the Current Expected Credit Losses (CECL) model. Credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost should be determined based on the total current expected credit losses over the life of the financial asset or group of financial assets. In effect, the financial asset or group of financial assets should be presented at the net amount expected to be collected. Credit losses will no longer be recorded under the current incurred loss model for financial assets measured at amortized cost.

Under the CECL model, the Company develops and documents its allowance for expected credit losses service fee (trade) receivables, notes receivables, and sales type equipment leases. The determination of portfolio segments is based primarily on asset type consideration of the credit risks.

Our quantitative allowance for credit loss estimates under CECL was determined using the loss rate method, which is impacted by certain adjustments for the nature of the aged receivables. In addition to our quantitative allowance for expected credit losses, we also incorporated a qualitative adjustment that may relate to unique risks or other relevant factors to further inform our estimate of the allowance for expected credit losses.

Additionally, due to the expansion of the time horizon over which we are required to estimate future credit losses, we may experience increased volatility in our future provisions for expected credit losses. Factors that could contribute to such volatility include, but are not limited to, changes in the composition and credit quality of customer base, economic conditions and forecasts, the allowance for credit loss models that are used, the data that is included in the models, the associated qualitative allowance framework, and our estimation techniques.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Trade accounts receivable and unbilled receivables are recorded at invoiced amounts, net of allowance for expected credit losses, if applicable, and are unsecured and do not bear interest. Notes receivables reflect the outstanding balance, principal and interest, net of allowance for expected credit losses.

The allowance for expected credit losses is based on the probability of future collection under the current expected credit losses model. Under the CECL model, the Company determines its allowance by applying a loss-rate method based on an aging schedule using the Company's historical loss rate. The Company also considers reasonable and supportable current information in determining its estimated loss rates, such as external forecasts, macroeconomic trends or other factors including customers' credit risk and historical loss experience. The adequacy of the allowance is evaluated on a regular basis. Account balances are written off after all means of collection are exhausted and the balance is deemed uncollectible. Subsequent recoveries are credited to the allowance. Changes in the allowance are recorded as adjustments to bad debt expense in the period incurred.

The following table sets forth the activity in the Company's allowance for expected credit losses:

	Trade Receivables	Note Receivable	Sales Type Leases	Total Allowance for Expected Credit Losses
Beginning balances at January 1, 2024	$ 345,305	$ 656,890	$ 4,380	$ 1,006,575

Ending balances as of December 31, 2025	$ 647,150	$ 97,840	$ 8,769	$ 753,759

The Company provides franchisees with an option to finance a portion of the initial franchise fee(s) over a period of up to 96 months with interest at 12% per annum. Additionally, the Company has converted accounts receivable from certain franchisees to notes receivable. These financing arrangements entered into during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 were $220,145 and $369,450, respectively. These financing arrangements are recorded as notes receivable and included within receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, $794,193 and $1,064,238 was outstanding of which $340,234 and $501,967 was classified as a current asset, which represents the principal amounts due on the aggregate notes receivable, respectively.

The Company leases equipment to its franchisees with an option to pay in full upon execution of the lease or finance over 60, 72 or 84 months depending on the type of equipment. Interest is not to exceed 1.5% per month and the Company recognizes the imputed interest over the term of the lease. The Company records these leases as a sales-type lease in accordance with ASC 842 Leases (Note 8). Leased equipment is recorded in receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of December 31, 2025, $2,137,617 was outstanding of which $482,570 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2025, the Company recorded $546,786 as unearned interest of which $173,581 was classified within other current liabilities.

As of December 31, 2024, $1,992,905 was outstanding of which $465,266 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2024, the Company recorded $503,338 as unearned interest of which $162,093 was classified within other current liabilities.

Unearned interest beyond one year is recorded in long-term other liabilities.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company believes that the significant accounting estimates most critical to aid in fully understanding and evaluating the consolidated financial results include the accounting for expected credit losses. Actual results, as determined at a later date, could differ from those estimates.

Shipping Costs

Costs to ship products to franchisees are expensed to manufacturing expenses as incurred. The Company recorded shipping costs of $171,103 and $161,727 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company maintains cash balances in various financial institutions located in the United States of America which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents balances in a financial institution that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 each. At times, such balances may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limit. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and management believes that the Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk with respect to the Company's cash balances.

No one franchise or vendor exceeded 10% of the Company's revenues, receivables, purchases, or payables for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Inventories, net

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Parts and materials, included as inventory, are evaluated annually by management for net realizable value and obsolescence. At December 31, 2025 and 2024, the reserve for inventory was $50,772.

Property, Plant and Equipment, net

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation of property and equipment is computed by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, which approximate 39 years for building, 5 to 7 years for furniture, fixtures and other equipment and 3 to 5 years for software and transportation equipment. Improvements to leasehold property are amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the asset life and remaining lease term.

Goodwill

As required by ASC 350, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets ("ASC350"), the Company tests goodwill for impairment and follows ASU 2017-04 which amended ASC 350 for testing goodwill for impairment. Under ASU 2017-04, a goodwill impairment loss must be measured as the excess of a reporting unit's carrying amount (including goodwill) over its fair value. Impairment losses are limited to the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit. Goodwill is not amortized, but instead tested for impairment at the reporting unit level at least annually and more frequently upon the occurrence of certain events. The Company has one reporting unit. A qualitative assessment is performed to assess the qualitative factors and to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If the reporting unit does not pass the qualitative assessment, the carrying amount of the reporting unit, including goodwill, is compared to the fair value, and goodwill is considered impaired if the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value. The fair value is estimated under a discounted cash flow approach, supplemented with a market multiple valuation approach.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant estimates used in the discounted cash flow models include assumptions regarding future growth rates, terminal values, and discount rates. Any excess is recognized as an impairment loss. In conjunction with the management's annual review of goodwill and based on the qualitative assessments performed in 2025 and 2024, the Company determined it is not more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount.

Indefinite and Finite Lived Intangibles

In accordance with ASC 350, indefinite lived intangible assets are recorded at cost and are reviewed for impairment on an annual basis and whenever events or circumstances indicate that their carrying values may not be recoverable. Impairment is recorded if the carrying amount exceeds fair value. Intangible assets which have finite useful lives are amortized using the straight-line method over their useful lives and consist of franchisee and customer relationships, and a leasehold interest.

Future adverse changes in market conditions or poor operating results could result in losses or an inability to recover the carrying value of the goodwill and other intangible assets thereby possibly requiring an impairment charge in the future.

Long-lived Assets

The Company accounts for the impairment of long-lived assets in accordance with ASC 360, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. In accordance with ASC 360, the Company evaluates long-lived assets, including intangible assets, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable based on expected undiscounted cash flows attributable to that asset or group of assets. The amount of any impairment is measured as the difference between the carrying value and the fair value of the impaired asset. The Company did not have any long-lived assets impairment indicators during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Debt Issuance Costs

Costs related to financing are being capitalized and amortized straight line, which approximates the effective interest method, over the term of the related debt facilities. Unamortized debt issuance costs were $0 and $1,832 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, and are presented as a reduction to long-term debt in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Amortization of debt issuance costs for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 was $1,832 and $21,989, respectively, and is recorded in interest expense in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Income Taxes

The asset and liability approach is used to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities.

The Company recognizes a tax benefit from an uncertain position only if it is more likely than not the position is sustainable, based solely on its technical merits and consideration of the relevant taxing authority's widely understood administrative practices and precedents. If this threshold is met, the Company measures the tax benefit as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the statement of operations. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, there was no impact to the consolidated financial statements relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is a market-based measurement, which is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Valuation techniques for fair value measurements include the market approach (comparable market prices), the income approach (present value of future income or cash flow) and the cost approach (cost to replace the service capacity of an asset or replacement cost), which are each based upon observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect the Company's market assumptions. The Company utilizes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to fair value measurement techniques into three broad levels:

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

- Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted prices that are directly or indirectly observable for the asset or liability, including quoted prices for similar asset or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for similar or identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; and mode-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value drivers are observable.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions.

The Company's material financial instruments at December 31, 2025 and 2024, for which disclosure of estimated value is required by certain accounting standards, consisted primarily of cash and cash equivalents, receivables from franchisees, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and long-term debt. Cash and cash equivalents, receivables from franchisees, accounts payable, and accrued expenses are considered Level 1 due to their short-term nature and their market interest rates. The carrying value of long-term debt, which the Company does not record at fair value, approximates fair value due to the variable interest rate associated with this financial instrument which reflects current market rates available to the Company and is considered Level 2.

Business Acquisitions

The Company accounts for business combinations in accordance with ASC 805 Business Combinations. ASC 805 requires business combinations to be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and includes specific criteria for recording intangible assets separate from goodwill. Results of operations of acquired businesses are included in the financial statements of the acquiring company from the date of acquisition. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed of the acquired company are recorded at their fair value at the date of acquisitions.

Leases

The Company engages in leasing activity as both a lessee and a lessor.

The Company accounts for leases pursuant to ASC Topic 842, Leases, which the Company adopted effective January 1, 2022, using the modified retrospective method of adoption. The Company elected the package of practical expedients, which, among other items, permits the Company not to reassess under the new standard its prior conclusions about lease identification and initial direct costs. The Company also elected the short-term lease recognition exemption for all leases that qualify. Under this election, the Company does not recognize right-of-use assets or lease liabilities for leases with a term of 12 months or less. The Company also elected to not separate lease and non-lease components for all leases.

Lessee

The Company enters into operating leases and determines whether an arrangement is a lease at inception of the arrangement. The Company accounts for a lease when it has the right to control the leased asset for a period of time while obtaining substantially all of the assets' economic benefits. Leases are classified as operating or finance leases at the lease commencement date. A lease is classified as a finance lease if any one of the following criteria are met:

1. The lease transfers ownership of the asset at the end of the lease term.
2. The lease contains an option to purchase the asset that is reasonably certain to be exercised.
3. The lease term is for a major part of the remaining useful life of the asset, or
4. The present value of the lease payments equals or exceeds substantially all of the fair value of the asset.

A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not meet any one of these criteria. The Company currently only has operating leases as a lessee. The operating leases consist primarily of facility space, vehicles, and office equipment.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Lease liabilities are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the estimated present value of future minimum lease payments over the lease term, excluding lease incentives and initial direct costs incurred, if any. Lease liabilities represent the company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease and Right-of-Use (ROU) assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term. The discount rate used to determine the present value of the lease payments is the Company's incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at lease inception, as generally an implicit rate in the lease is not readily determinable. The Company's leases do not include residual value guarantees or covenants.

Lease expense for operating leases with original terms of less than 12 months is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

When determining the lease term at inception, options to extend or renew leases are included in the measurement and recognition of ROU asset and liability when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise the option. The Company considers various economic factors when making the determination, including, but not limited to, the significance of leasehold improvements incurred in the facility space, the difficulty in replacing the lease, underlying contractual obligations, or specific characteristics unique to a particular lease. Subsequent to entering a lease, if it becomes reasonably certain that the Company will exercise an option that was not included in the lease term, the Company accounts for the change in circumstances as a lease modification, which results in the remeasurement of the ROU asset and liability as of the modification date. The Company continually evaluates whether facts or circumstances indicate it is reasonably certain that it will exercise an option.

Lessor

The Company classifies leases as sales-type based on the results of the classification tests in accordance with ASC 842 and has elected, as an accounting policy, to present all funds collected from lessees for sales and other similar taxes net of the related sales tax expense for all lessor leases. The Company also excludes executory costs from lease accounting if the lessee's payments of those costs are made to a third party (e.g. taxing authority or insurer).

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses its advertising costs the first time the advertising takes place. All advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising expense recorded in selling, general, and administrative expense within the Consolidated Statements of Operations was $731,808 and $704,758 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

The Company incurs regional advertising costs, which are repaid weekly by franchisees based upon their cash receipts. The balances are reported as prepaid or accrued expenses at year-end.

3. Acquisitions

2025 Formation of LD Local Operations LLC and Acquisition of Lawnorder Inc. and FMJ LLC

On January 13, 2025 the Company formed a new limited liability company, LD Local Operations LLC, to operate a corporate location. Subsequently, on January 16, 2025, Lawn Doctor, Inc. entered into an agreement to acquire substantially all of the assets of Lawnorder Inc. and FMJ, LLC, a Lawn Doctor franchisee operating out of Altoona PA.

Total consideration was a $1,742,667 cash payment by the Company. The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 805, Business Combinations (ASC 805). In accordance with ASC 805, acquisition related costs must be accounted for separately from the business combination and are not part of the consideration transferred. In connection with the acquisition, the Company incurred $39,821 in acquisition related costs which is included in the selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

The allocation of the total consideration paid of the Company's net tangible and identifiable intangible assets was based upon the estimated fair value, using available information at acquisition date, of those assets as of January 16, 2025. The Company allocated the excess of purchase price over the identifiable intangible and net tangible assets to goodwill and expected synergies with the Company's existing operations. To the extent the Company has a tax basis in goodwill and intangibles, it is deductible over 15 years.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The following table presents the breakdown between purchase consideration and the allocation of the total purchase price:

Acquired tangible assets and liabilities:
Inventory	$ 24,476
Property and equipment	236,833
Net tangible assets	261,309
Identifiable intangible assets:
Goodwill	1,481,358
Total purchase consideration	$ 1,742,667

At the time of the acquisition by the Company, there were no existing enforceable contractual rights remaining pursuant to the original franchise agreement and as a result, the Company did not record any reacquired right intangible assets in connection with this transaction. The Company estimated the fair value of property and equipment and intangible assets using the income, cost and market approaches to value the related assets. Fair values were determined by management.

The consolidated financial statements include results of operations following the Altoona acquisition for the period from January 16, 2025 through December 31, 2025.

Total consideration was a $50,000 cash payment by the Company. The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with ASC 805. In accordance with ASC 805, acquisition related costs must be accounted for separately from the business combination and are not part of the consideration transferred. In connection with the acquisition, the Company incurred $19,694 in acquisition related costs which is included in the selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

The allocation of the total consideration paid of the Company's net tangible and identifiable intangible assets was based upon the estimated fair value, using available information at acquisition date, of those assets as of November 18, 2024. The Company allocated the excess of purchase price over the identifiable intangible and net tangible assets to goodwill and expected synergies with the Company's existing operations. To the extent the Company has a tax basis in goodwill and intangibles, it is deductible over 15 years.

The following table presents the breakdown between purchase consideration and the allocation of the total purchase price:

Acquired tangible assets and liabilities:
Property and equipment	$ 41,685
Net tangible assets	41,685

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The consolidated financial statements include results of operations following the Lexington acquisition for the period from November 18, 2024 through December 31, 2024.

The Company follows Account Standards Update (ASU) 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805) – Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers. ASU 2021-08 requires that an entity (acquirer) recognize and measure contract assets and contract liabilities acquired in a business combination in accordance with Topic 606, as if it had originated the contracts.

10. Borrowing Arrangements

Credit Agreements

On June 30, 2023 the Company entered into a new credit agreement with LD Strategic DEBT CO, LLC, a related party in the amount of $29,489,500 (referred to as the “Credit Agreement”). The proceeds from the loan were used to pay down the prior credit agreement that previously existed in 2023 in full. The Credit Agreement has no required installment payments until the maturity date, which was subsequently extended from February 7, 2025 to August 6, 2029, the date at which the outstanding balance is to be due and payable. The Credit Agreement also provides for annual prepayment of principal based on excess cash flow (as defined in the Credit Agreement). During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company did not make a prepayment based on excess cash flow. The Credit Agreement also provides for the maintenance of certain financial ratios, including leverage and fixed charge ratios. At December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company was in compliance with all of its covenant requirements. At December 31, 2025 and 2024, $29,489,500 was outstanding on the Term Loan.

The interest rate on the Credit Agreement varies depending if the Term Loan is a Base Rate Loan or a SOFR Loan. At December 31, 2023, the Company elected to treat the Credit Agreement as a SOFR Loan, which carried an effective interest rate of 9.94%.

On May 21, 2025, the Company entered into a Loan and Security Agreement with Old Plank Trail Community Bank, N.A., which provides for a revolving credit facility with maximum borrowings of $3.5 million. Borrowings under the facility are limited to the lesser of the committed amount or a borrowing base calculated based on eligible accounts receivable and inventory. Amounts outstanding under the revolving credit facility bear interest at variable rates based on either the Prime Rate or Term SOFR plus an applicable margin of 3.00%, subject to the terms of the agreement. The revolving credit facility is secured by substantially all of the Company’s assets, including accounts receivable and inventory, and matures on May 20, 2026. As of December 31, 2025, there were no amounts outstanding under the revolving credit facility.

In 2025, the Company incurred $218,068 of costs in connection with entering into the revolving credit facility. These deferred financing costs are included in prepaid expenses and other current assets on the Company’s balance sheet and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the contractual term of the revolving credit facility, which approximates the effective interest method. At December 31, 2025, unamortized deferred financing costs totaled $92,443 and the amortization of deferred financing costs was $125,625.

Note Purchase Agreement

On February 7, 2018, in conjunction with the acquisition, the Company entered into a Note Purchase Agreement for an $18,000,000 aggregate principal amount of senior secured notes with related parties. The notes are subordinate to the Credit Agreement noted above. The notes contain an annual interest rate of 16% and were payable upon maturity on August 7, 2023, which was subsequently extended to February 7, 2030, based on a sixth amendment to Note Purchase Agreement entered into in February 5, 2024. Payment of the notes is due in full on the maturity date. The Company may prepay the notes at a premium based upon the schedule set forth in the note purchase agreement. The note purchase agreement is collateralized by substantially all assets of Lawn Doctor, Inc. and was guaranteed by the Company. The note purchase agreement also provides for the maintenance of certain financial ratios, including leverage and fixed charge ratios. At December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company was in compliance with all of its covenant requirements. At December 31, 2025 and 2025, $18,000,000 was outstanding on the Note Purchase Agreement with related parties.

Employment Agreement

The Company has an employment agreement with a key executive which provides for an annual base salary plus an incentive bonus which is payable upon the achievement of certain defined financial benchmarks. The agreement was amended in 2018 to renew automatically for an additional one-year term unless the agreement is earlier terminated by either party. The agreement also includes a non-compete clause should the employee be terminated under specific terms of the agreement.

Employee Benefit Plan

The Company has a 401(k) savings retirement plan for all eligible employees. The plan allows for employee contributions to be matched by the Company on a pro rata basis. Contributions made to the plan by the Company, including fees, were $170,000 and $143,492 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Litigation

The Company is party to various legal proceedings that arise in the normal course of business. In the present opinion of management, none of these proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, are likely to have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations or cash flows of the Company. However, management cannot provide assurance that any adverse outcome would not be material to the Company's consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations or cash flows.

13. Related Party Balances and Transactions

14. Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes result from timing differences in the recognition of income and expenses for income tax and financial reporting purposes.

Net deferred tax assets and liabilities are summarized as follows:

December 31,	2025	2024
Employee compensation	$ 496,991	$ 453,171
Accounts receivable	147,319	135,011
Inventory	13,038	13,072
Partnership interest	691,942	807,393
Deferred revenue	1,359,494	820,899
Interest limitation	1,636,938	1,267,346
Lease liability	227,113	267,501
Foreign net operating loss	166,488	203,528
Valuation allowance	(642,101)	(487,291)
Deferred tax assets	4,097,222	3,480,630
Property and equipment	(623,504)	(569,439)
Intangible assets	(8,969,088)	(9,298,130)
Other	(17,204)	(8,403)
Deferred tax liabilities	(9,609,796)	(9,875,972)
Net deferred income tax liabilities	$ (5,512,574)	$ (6,395,342)

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more-likely-than-not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities (including the impact of available carryback and carryforward periods), projected future taxable income, and tax-planning strategies in making this assessment. Based on this analysis, the Company has determined that a valuation allowance against certain attributes related to Sparkle Squad, LLC and Elite Franchise were appropriate due to lack of predictable income. As of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, the Company maintained a valuation allowance in the amount of $642,101 and $487,291 respectively.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had approximately $17,000 and $160,000 in tax affected federal net operating loss carryforwards, respectively. The federal net operating losses have indefinite lives. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had approximately $146,000 and $203,000, respectively, of net operating loss carryforwards in jurisdictions outside the U.S. which have a 20 year carryforward period and begin to expire in 2043. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company had approximately $1,637,000 and $1,267,000, respectively, of tax affected U.S. federal and disallowed interest carryforwards which also have an indefinite carryforward period.

The Act provides for significant U.S. tax law changes and modifications including provisions allowing for accelerated tax deductions on qualified research expenditures and the increased ability to deduct interest expense. The Company has included the provisions that are effective for this tax year.

As of December 31, 2025, The Company has not identified any uncertain tax positions. 15. Stock-Based Compensation

Share Options

Stock Options are issued by LD Parent pursuant to its 2018 Stock Incentive Plan (“the Plan”). The related stock-based compensation is pushed down to its subsidiary and recorded by the Company. The Company follows ASC 718, Share-Based Payment, for recording stock-based compensation. The fair value of each time-based and performance-based option award is estimated on the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model. These options, along with performance-based options, will be expensed when such events are deemed probable. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of an appropriate industry sector index and other factors. The expected term of options with fixed exercise prices is derived by using the midpoint between vesting and expiration as the expected term of the option grant which is permitted under the guidance. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. During the year ended December 31, 2025, 287 option shares that were fully vested expired and there was no change related to previously recognized stock compensation expense. In May 2025, the Company granted 212 new options pursuant to the Plan.

A summary of assumptions is presented below in connection with the Plan option grants:

	2025 Grants	2018 Grants

Forfeited or expired	(287)	—	—	—	(287)
Outstanding at December 31, 2025	816	$ 6,055	4.87	182	634

The Company has time-based share-based compensation arrangements under the Plan, that vested over 5 years and were fully vested as of December 2023. The 2025 options vest over a 7 year period and include both a service condition and a performance condition. The performance condition is based on achievement of a certain Company target metric as defined in the option agreements. Achievement of the performance condition and related vesting is evaluated at the end of each fiscal year during the 7 year vesting period.

For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company recorded expense of $161,742 and $0, respectively, in selling, general, and administrative expenses for stock-based compensation. Unamortized stock-based compensation at December 31, 2025 and 2024 was $970,449 and $0, respectively.

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
LD Parent, Inc.
Holmdel, NJ

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of LD Parent, Inc. and its Subsidiaries (the Company), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Included in the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 Consolidated Statement of Operations is $(226,600) and $(145,898) of the non-controlling interest loss allocation due to the related partial ownership of Sparkle Squad and Elite.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC 606, which provides a five-step model for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers as follows:

- Identify the contract with a customer
- Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Determine the transaction price
- Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Recognize revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied

The Company has identified the following revenue streams; initial franchise fees, operating revenues which consist of: service/royalty fees from franchises, sales of parts and equipment, revenues from sales type leases, advertising revenue, and interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivables. The Company's initial franchise fees are recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions relating to such contracts are recorded as a prepaid asset and amortized over the life of the contract.

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company disaggregates its revenue from customers with contracts by revenue streams. The Company's revenue streams are presented in the following table:

Years Ended December 31,	2024	2023
Net Revenues:
Service/royalty fees	$ 25,368,940	$ 23,693,686
Part and equipment sales	5,146,603	4,450,670
Advertising revenue	9,053,646	8,297,789
Initial franchise fees	4,655,247	3,281,425
Interest, service charges, and other	1,039,616	1,272,651
Total Net Revenues	$ 45,264,052	$ 40,996,221

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Service/royalty fees derived from franchises (“Service Fees”) are recognized as revenue when revenues are earned by the franchisees. The franchisees agree to pay to the Company a weekly royalty and service fee based on a percentage of the net revenues derived by the respective franchisees from the Company’s business. Revenue from sales of parts and equipment are recognized, at the point in time which control is transferred, upon shipment. Interest income related to notes receivable and loans receivable is recorded as revenue when earned (and collection is reasonably assured) in accordance with the interest method.

Initial franchise fees are deferred and recognized over the life of the contract. Commissions paid on initial franchise fees are deferred and charged to expense upon recognition of the initial fee.

Advertising funds are presented as a gross up of revenue and related cost. Advertising funds, such as the Company’s National Marketing Fund and Regional Marketing fund, promote the Company’s brand nationally and in the local markets.

In accordance with ASC 606, the Company records gross revenue related to Advertising funds which includes amounts charged by the Company to franchisees based on established contracts. Revenue related to these amounts is based on a percentage of sales of the franchisee and is recognized as earned. The sales-based royalty exception applies, and amounts are recognized as the underlying sales are done by the respective franchisees. Advertising fund revenue is deferred and is recognized as advertising expense as incurred by the Company.

Interest income mainly represents interest on notes receivable from franchisees and is recognized using the effective interest method. Service charges represent call center income, which is recognized at a point in time which the control is transferred, upon completion of calls.

Contract balances

The timing of revenue recognition may not align with the right to invoice the customer under franchisee agreements. The Company records accounts receivable when it has the unconditional right to issue an invoice and receive payment, regardless of whether revenue has been recognized. If revenue has not yet been recognized, a contract liability (deferred revenue) is recorded. Deferred revenue represents franchisee fees received that have not been earned yet. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $8,687,188 and $7,510,379 which represent deferred revenues as of the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Costs to obtain a contract

Broker commissions paid to brokers, as well as commissions paid to internal sales personnel, that are incremental to the acquisition of franchisee contracts are capitalized as prepaid commissions on the Consolidated Balance Sheet when the period of benefit is determined to be greater than one year. The Company elected to apply the practical expedient to expense broker and sales commissions and associated costs as incurred when the expected amortization period is one year or less. The Company determines the period of benefit for broker and sales commissions paid for the acquisition of the franchisee contract by taking into consideration the term of the franchisee agreement. Amortization is recognized on a straight-line basis over a period of approximately ten years, which is commensurate with the pattern of revenue recognition. Included within the Consolidated Balance Sheets is an amount of $5,778,198 and $4,212,852 which represent prepaid commissions as of the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Receivables from Franchisees, net

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments - Credit Losses (CECL). The amendments in this update introduce a new accounting model to measure credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost. The FASB has also issued additional ASUs to clarify the scope and provide additional guidance for ASU 2016-13. Credit losses for financial assets measured at amortized cost should be determined based on the total current expected credit losses over the life of the financial asset or group of financial assets. In effect, the financial asset or group of financial assets should be presented at the net amount expected to be collected. Credit losses will no longer be recorded under the current incurred loss model for financial assets measured at amortized cost.

The amendments were effective on January 1, 2023 for the Company, and have been applied using a modified retrospective approach with a cumulative-effect adjustment through retained earnings as of the beginning of the fiscal year upon adoption as required. While the standard modifies the measurement of the allowance for credit losses, it does not alter the credit risk of our trade or unbilled receivables.

The impact of applying the CECL methodology upon adoption was a decrease to opening retained earnings of $50,000, less tax effect of $13,500, primarily driven by additional reserves allocated to trade receivables aged greater than one year assumption used in the updated methodology.

Under the CECL impairment model, the Company develops and documents its allowance for credit losses service fee (trade) receivables, notes receivables, and sales type equipment leases. The determination of portfolio segments is based primarily on asset type consideration of the credit risks.

Our quantitative allowance for credit loss estimates under CECL was determined using the loss rate method, which is impacted by certain adjustments for the nature of the aged receivables. In addition to our quantitative allowance for credit losses, we also incorporated a qualitative adjustment that may relate to unique risks or other relevant factors to further inform our estimate of the allowance for credit losses.

Additionally, due to the expansion of the time horizon over which we are required to estimate future credit losses, we may experience increased volatility in our future provisions for credit losses. Factors that could contribute to such volatility include, but are not limited to, changes in the composition and credit quality of customer base, economic conditions and forecasts, the allowance for credit loss models that are used, the data that is included in the models, the associated qualitative allowance framework, and our estimation techniques.

Trade accounts receivable and unbilled receivables are recorded at invoiced amounts, net of allowance for credit losses, if applicable, and are unsecured and do not bear interest. Notes receivables reflect the outstanding balance, principal and interest, net of allowance for credit losses.

The allowance for doubtful accounts is based on the probability of future collection under the current expected credit losses impairment model. Under the CECL impairment model, the Company determines its allowance by applying a loss-rate method based on an aging schedule using the Company's historical loss rate. The Company also considers reasonable and supportable current information in determining its estimated loss rates, such as external forecasts, macroeconomic trends or other factors including customers' credit risk and historical loss experience. The adequacy of the allowance is evaluated on a regular basis. Account balances are written off after all means of collection are exhausted and the balance is deemed uncollectible. Subsequent recoveries are credited to the allowance. Changes in the allowance are recorded as adjustments to bad debt expense in the period incurred.

Prior to December 31, 2023, trade and unbilled receivables and notes receivables were presented net of allowance for doubtful accounts based on the credit risk of specific clients, past collection history, and management's evaluation of other risks.

The following table sets forth the activity in the Company's allowance for credit losses:

The Company provides franchisees with an option to finance a portion of the initial franchise fee(s) over a period of up to 96 months with interest at 12% per annum. Additionally, the Company has converted accounts receivable from certain franchisees to notes receivable. These financing arrangements entered into during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 were $369,450 and $467,550, respectively. These financing arrangements are recorded as notes receivable and included within receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, $1,064,238 and $2,008,382 was outstanding of which $501,967 and $1,080,621 was classified as a current asset, which represents the principal amounts due on the aggregate notes receivable, respectively.

The Company leases equipment to its franchisees with an option to pay in full upon execution of the lease or finance over 60, 72 or 84 months depending on the type of equipment. Interest is not to exceed 1.5% per month and the Company recognizes the imputed interest over the term of the lease. The Company records these leases as a sales-type lease in accordance with ASC 842 Leases (Note 8). Leased equipment is recorded in receivables from franchisees in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets.

As of December 31, 2024, $1,992,905 was outstanding of which $465,266 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2024, the Company recorded $503,338 as unearned interest of which $162,093 was classified within other current liabilities.

As of December 31, 2023, $1,898,166 was outstanding of which $434,170 was classified as a current asset. As of December 31, 2023, the Company recorded $478,528 as unearned interest of which $153,466 was classified within other current liabilities.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Unearned interest beyond one year is recorded in long-term other liabilities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results, as determined at a later date, could differ from those estimates.

Shipping Costs

Costs to ship products to franchisees are expensed to manufacturing expenses as incurred. The Company recorded shipping costs of $161,727 and $141,866 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company maintains cash balances in various financial institutions located in the United States of America which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents balances in a financial institution that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000 each. At times, such balances may be in excess of the FDIC insurance limit. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and management believes that the Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk with respect to the Company's cash balances.

No one franchise or vendor exceeded 10% of the Company's sales or purchases for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

No one franchise or vendor exceeded 10% of the Company's accounts receivable or payables at December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Inventories, net

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Parts and materials, included as inventory, are evaluated annually by management for net realizable value and obsolescence. At December 31, 2024 and 2023, the reserve for inventory was $50,772 and $109,576, respectively.

Property, Plant and Equipment, net

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation of property and equipment is computed by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, which approximate 39 years for building, 5 to 7 years for furniture, fixtures and other equipment and 3 to 5 years for software and transportation equipment. Improvements to leasehold property are amortized on the straight-line method over the shorter of the asset life and remaining lease term.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Goodwill

As required by ASC 350, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets (“ASC350”), the Company tests goodwill for impairment and follows ASU 2017-04 which amended ASC 350 for testing goodwill for impairment. Under ASU 2017-04, a goodwill impairment loss must be measured as the excess of a reporting unit’s carrying amount (including goodwill) over its fair value. Impairment losses are limited to the total amount of goodwill allocated to the reporting unit. Goodwill is not amortized, but instead tested for impairment at the reporting unit level at least annually and more frequently upon the occurrence of certain events. The Company has one reporting unit. A qualitative assessment is performed to assess the qualitative factors and to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If the reporting unit does not pass the qualitative assessment, the carrying amount of the reporting unit, including goodwill, is compared to the fair value, and goodwill is considered impaired if the carrying value of the reporting unit exceeds its fair value. The fair value is estimated under a discounted cash flow approach, supplemented with a market multiple valuation approach.

Significant estimates used in the discounted cash flow models include assumptions regarding future growth rates, terminal values, and discount rates. Any excess is recognized as an impairment loss. In conjunction with the management’s annual review of goodwill and based on the qualitative assessments performed in 2024 and 2023, the Company determined it is not more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount.

Indefinite and Finite Lived Intangibles

In accordance with ASC 350, indefinite lived intangible assets are recorded at cost and are reviewed for impairment on an annual basis and whenever events or circumstances indicate that their carrying values may not be recoverable. Impairment is recorded if the carrying amount exceeds fair value. Intangible assets which have finite useful lives are amortized using the straight-line method over their useful lives and consist of franchisee and customer relationships, and a leasehold interest.

Future adverse changes in market conditions or poor operating results could result in losses or an inability to recover the carrying value of the goodwill and other intangible assets thereby possibly requiring an impairment charge in the future.

Long-lived Assets

The Company accounts for the impairment of long-lived assets in accordance with ASC 360, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. In accordance with ASC 360, the Company evaluates long-lived assets, including intangible assets, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable based on expected undiscounted cash flows attributable to that asset or group of assets. The amount of any impairment is measured as the difference between the carrying value and the fair value of the impaired asset. The Company did not have any long-lived assets impairment indicators during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Debt Issuance Costs

Costs related to financing are being capitalized and amortized straight line, which approximates the effective interest method, over the term of the related debt facilities. Debt issuance costs were $1,832 and $23,821 as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and are presented as a reduction to long-term debt in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Amortization of deferred financing costs for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 was $21,989 and $58,736, respectively, and is recorded in interest expense in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Income Taxes

The asset and liability approach is used to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax basis of assets and liabilities.

The Company recognizes a tax benefit from an uncertain position only if it is more likely than not the position is sustainable, based solely on its technical merits and consideration of the relevant taxing authority's widely understood administrative practices and precedents. If this threshold is met, the Company measures the tax benefit as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the statement of operations. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, there was no impact to the consolidated financial statements relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is a market-based measurement, which is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Valuation techniques for fair value measurements include the market approach (comparable market prices), the income approach (present value of future income or cash flow) and the cost approach (cost to replace the service capacity of an asset or replacement cost), which are each based upon observable and unobservable inputs. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect the Company's market assumptions. The Company utilizes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to fair value measurement techniques into three broad levels:

- Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted prices that are directly or indirectly observable for the asset or liability, including quoted prices for similar asset or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for similar or identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; and mode-derived valuations whose inputs are observable or whose significant value drivers are observable.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions.

The Company's material financial instruments at December 31, 2024 and 2023, for which disclosure of estimated value is required by certain accounting standards, consisted primarily of cash and cash equivalents, receivables from franchisees, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and long-term debt. Cash and cash equivalents, receivables from franchisees, accounts payable, and accrued expenses are considered Level 1 due to their short-term nature and their market interest rates. The carrying value of long-term debt, which the Company does not record at fair value, approximates fair value due to the variable interest rate associated with this financial instrument which reflects market rates and is considered Level 2.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Business Acquisitions

The Company accounts for business combinations in accordance with ASC 805 Business Combinations. ASC 805 requires business combinations to be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and includes specific criteria for recording intangible assets separate from goodwill. Results of operations of acquired businesses are included in the financial statements of the acquiring company from the date of acquisition. Assets acquired and liabilities assumed of the acquired company are recorded at their fair value at the date of acquisitions.

Leases

The Company engages in leasing activity as both a lessee and a lessor.

The Company accounts for leases pursuant to ASC Topic 842, Leases, which the Company adopted effective January 1, 2022, using the modified retrospective method of adoption. The Company elected the package of practical expedients, which, among other items, permits the Company not to reassess under the new standard its prior conclusions about lease identification and initial direct costs. The Company also elected the short-term lease recognition exemption for all leases that qualify. Under this election, the Company does not recognize right-of-use assets or lease liabilities for leases with a term of 12 months or less. The Company also elected to not separate lease and non-lease components for all leases.

Lessee

The Company enters into operating leases and determines whether an arrangement is a lease at inception of the arrangement. The Company accounts for a lease when it has the right to control the leased asset for a period of time while obtaining substantially all of the assets' economic benefits. Leases are classified as operating or finance leases at the lease commencement date. A lease is classified as a finance lease if any one of the following criteria are met:

1. The lease transfers ownership of the asset at the end of the lease term.
2. The lease contains an option to purchase the asset that is reasonably certain to be exercised.
3. The lease term is for a major part of the remaining useful life of the asset, or
4. The present value of the lease payments equals or exceeds substantially all of the fair value of the asset.

A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not meet any one of these criteria. The Company currently only has operating leases as a lessee. The operating leases consist primarily of facility space, vehicles, and office equipment.

Lease liabilities are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the estimated present value of future minimum lease payments over the lease term, excluding lease incentives and initial direct costs incurred, if any. Lease liabilities represent the company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease and Right-of-Use (ROU) assets represent the Company's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term. The discount rate used to determine the present value of the lease payments is the Company's incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at lease inception, as generally an implicit rate in the lease is not readily determinable. The Company's leases do not include residual value guarantees or covenants.

LD Parent, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Lease expense for operating leases with original terms of less than 12 months is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

When determining the lease term at inception, options to extend or renew leases are included in the measurement and recognition of ROU asset and liability when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise the option. The Company considers various economic factors when making the determination, including, but not limited to, the significance of leasehold improvements incurred in the facility space, the difficulty in replacing the lease, underlying contractual obligations, or specific characteristics unique to a particular lease. Subsequent to entering a lease, if it becomes reasonably certain that the Company will exercise an option that was not included in the lease term, the Company accounts for the change in circumstances as a lease modification, which results in the remeasurement of the ROU asset and liability as of the modification date. The Company continually evaluates whether facts or circumstances indicate it is reasonably certain that it will exercise an option.

Lessor

The Company classifies leases as sales-type based on the results of the classification tests in accordance with ASC 842 and has elected, as an accounting policy, to present all funds collected from lessees for sales and other similar taxes net of the related sales tax expense for all lessor leases. The Company also excludes executory costs from lease accounting if the lessee's payments of those costs are made to a third party (e.g. taxing authority or insurer).

Advertising Expenses

The Company expenses its advertising costs the first time the advertising takes place. All advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising expense recorded in selling, general, and administrative expense within the Consolidated Statements of Operations was $704,758 and $783,196 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

The Company incurs regional advertising costs, which are repaid weekly by franchisees based upon their cash receipts. The balances are reported as prepaid or accrued expenses at year-end.

3. Acquisitions

2024 Formation of EM Corporate - Lexington Richmond LLC and Acquisition of Eco Clean KY LLC

On October 9, 2024 the Company formed a new limited liability company, EM Corporate - Lexington Richmond LLC, to operate a corporate location. Subsequently, on November 18, 2024, Ecomaid LLC entered into an agreement to acquire substantially all of the assets of Eco Clean KY, LLC, an Ecomaid franchisee operating out of Richmond KY.

Total consideration was a $50,000 cash payment by the Company. The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 805, Business Combinations. In accordance with ASC 805 Business Combinations, acquisition related costs must be accounted for separately from the business combination and are not part of the consideration transferred. In connection with the acquisition, the Company incurred $19,694 in acquisition related costs which is included in the selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

The allocation of the total consideration paid of the Company's net tangible and identifiable intangible assets was based upon the estimated fair value, using available information at acquisition date, of those assets as of November 18, 2024. The Company allocated the excess of purchase price over the identifiable intangible and net tangible assets to goodwill and expected synergies with the Company's existing operations. To the extent the Company has a tax basis in goodwill and intangibles, it is deductible over 15 years.

The following table presents the breakdown between purchase consideration and the allocation of the total purchase price:

Acquired tangible assets and liabilities:

Property and equipment	$	41,685
Net tangible assets		41,685

Identifiable intangible assets:

Goodwill		8,315
Total purchase consideration	$	50,000

The Company estimated the fair value of property and equipment and intangible assets using the income, cost and market approaches to value the related assets. Fair values were determined by management. .

The consolidated financial statements include results of operations following the Lexington acquisition for the period from November 18, 2024 through December 31, 2024.

The Company follows Account Standards Update (ASU) 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805) – Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers. ASU 2021-08 requires that an entity (acquirer) recognize and measure contract assets and contract liabilities acquired in a business combination in accordance with Topic 606, as if it had originated the contracts.

10. Borrowing Arrangements

Credit Agreements

On February 7, 2018, in conjunction with the acquisition by CNL Strategic Capital, LLC (“CNLSC”), the Company entered into an amendment to their Credit Agreement dated December 12, 2014. The amendment permitted the repayment of all of the outstanding principal amount of Subordinated Debt as of the date of the agreement, issuances up to $18,000,000 of subordinated second lien indebtedness, increase in the Term Loan by $6,000,000 and extended the maturity date to February 7, 2023. The amendment also contains revisions to the restrictive covenants inclusive of senior debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio, total debt to adjusted EBITDA ratio, fixed charge ratio, and excess cash flow. The Revolving Loan Commitment remained unchanged. The Revolving Loan Commitment was payable upon maturity on December 11, 2019. This was later amended in March 2019 to extend the maturity date to February 7, 2023 and clarify certain definitions in the prior amendment.

On August 11, 2021, the Company entered into a new amendment to their Credit Agreement dated December 12, 2014. The amendment increased the Term Loan by $10,700,000 and extended the maturity date for the Term Loan as well as the Revolving Loan Commitment to February 7, 2025. The amendment was treated as a debt modification.

On June 30, 2023 the Company entered into a new credit agreement with a LD Strategic DEBT CO, LLC, related party in the amount of $29,489,500. The proceeds from the loan were used to pay down the existing loan in full. The new credit agreement has no required installment payments until the maturity date, which was subsequently extended from February 7, 2025 to August 6, 2029. The outstanding balance is to be due and payable. The Credit Agreement also provides for annual prepayment of principal based on excess cash flow (as defined in the Credit Agreement). During the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Company did not make a prepayment based on excess cash flow. The Credit Agreement also provides for the maintenance of certain financial ratios, including leverage and fixed charge ratios. At December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Company was in compliance with all of its covenant requirements. At December 31, 2024 and 2023, $29,489,500 was outstanding on the Term Loan.

Contributions made to the plan by the Company, including fees, were $143,492 and $139,500 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Litigation

The Company is party to various legal proceedings that arise in the normal course of business. In the present opinion of management, none of these proceedings, individually or in the aggregate, are likely to have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations or cash flows of the Company. However, management cannot provide assurance that any adverse outcome would not be material to the Company's consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations or cash flows.

13. Related Party Balances and Transactions

See Note 10 for credit agreement and note purchase agreement with the stockholders of LD Parent. The Company made distributions to its stockholders of $5,800,000 and $5,250,000 during the year ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

14. Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes result from timing differences in the recognition of income and expenses for income tax and financial reporting purposes.

Net deferred tax assets and liabilities are summarized as follows:

December 31,	2024	2023
Employee compensation	$ 453,171	$ 450,312

Deferred tax liabilities	(9,875,972)	(10,198,904)
Net deferred income tax liabilities	$ (6,395,342)	$ (7,202,482)

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more-likely-than-not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities (including the impact of available carryback and carryforward periods), projected future taxable income, and tax-planning strategies in

15. Stock-Based Compensation

Share Options

Stock Options are issued by LD Parent pursuant to its 2018 Stock Incentive Plan (“the Plan”). The related stock-based compensation is pushed down to its subsidiary and recorded by the Company. The Company follows ASC 718, Share-Based Payment, for recording stock-based compensation. The fair value of each time-based and performance-based option award is estimated on the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model. These options, along with performance-based options, will be expensed when such events are deemed probable. Expected volatility is based on historical volatility of an appropriate industry sector index and other factors. The expected term of options with fixed exercise prices is derived by using the midpoint between vesting and expiration as the expected term of the option grant which is permitted under the guidance. The risk-free rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant. No stock options were granted during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

A summary of assumptions is presented below in connection with 2018 grants:

The following provision applies only to franchisees and franchises that are subject to the state franchise registration/disclosure laws in California, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, or Wisconsin:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES FOR THE
SPARKLE SQUAD, LLC

The following are additional disclosures for the Franchise Disclosure Document of SPARKLE SQUAD, LLC required by various state franchise laws. Each provision of these additional disclosures will not apply unless, with respect to that provision, the jurisdictional requirements of the applicable state franchise registration and disclosure law are met independently without reference to these additional disclosures.

CALIFORNIA

1. THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT 14 DAYS PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION OF ANY AGREEMENT.

2. BEFORE THE FRANCHISOR CAN ASK YOU TO MATERIALLY MODIFY YOUR EXISTING FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, SECTION 31125 OF THE CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE REQUIRES THE FRANCHISOR TO FILE A MATERIAL MODIFICATION APPLICATION WITH THE DEPARTMENT THAT INCLUDES A DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT SHOWING THE EXISTING TERMS AND THE PROPOSED NEW TERMS OF YOUR FRANCHISE AGREEMENT. ONCE THE APPLICATION IS REGISTERED, THE FRANCHISOR MUST PROVIDE YOU WITH THAT DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT WITH AN EXPLANATION THAT THE CHANGES ARE VOLUNTARY.

3. OUR WEBSITE, www.sparklesquad.com, HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION & INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THE WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION & INNOVATION AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

4. The registration of this franchise offering by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the commissioner.

5. The following risk factor is added to the Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise Page:

The franchise agreement contains provisions requiring you to agree to shorten the statute of limitations to bring claims and waive your right to punitive or exemplary damages against the franchisor or any of its representatives, limiting your recovery to actual damages. Under California Corporations Code section 31512, these provisions are not enforceable in California for any claims you may have under the California Franchise Investment Law.

6. The following is added to the end of Item 3:

Neither we, nor any person in Item 2 of the Disclosure Document, is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such person from membership in that association or exchange.

7. The following sentence is added to the “Remarks” column of the line-item titled “Interest” in Item 6:

The highest interest rate allowed under California law is 10% annually.

8. The following paragraphs are added to the end of Item 17:

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to franchisees concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, and the law applies, then the law will control.

The franchise agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. A contract that restrains a former franchisee from engaging in a lawful trade or business is to that extent void under California Business and Professions Code Section 16600.

The Agreement provides for termination upon insolvency. This provision might not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).

The Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of New Jersey. This provision might not be enforceable under California law.

The Agreement requires binding arbitration at a location specified by the arbitrator within 10 miles of our principal place of business at the time the arbitration demand is filed. You will be required to travel to that location and pay the expenses you incur in any such arbitration proceeding. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

You must sign a general release of claims if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order thereunder is void. Section 31512 might void a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 – 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 might void a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043).

California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code sections 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ILLINOIS

1. The following statements are added to the end of Item 17:

Illinois law governs the Franchise Agreement.

In conformance with Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any provision in a franchise agreement that designates jurisdiction and venue in a forum outside of the State of Illinois is void. However, a franchise agreement may provide for arbitration to take place outside of Illinois.

Your rights upon Termination and Non-Renewal of an agreement are set forth in sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

In conformance with section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act or any other law of Illinois is void.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MARYLAND

1. The following language is added as a new last paragraph in Item 5 and to the end of footnote 1 in Item 7:

Based upon our financial condition, the Maryland Securities Commissioner has required a financial assurance. Therefore, all initial fees and payments owed by you shall be deferred until we complete our pre-opening obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

2. The following language is added to the end of the “Summary” sections of Item 17(c), titled Requirements for franchisee to renew or extend, and Item 17(m), titled Conditions for franchisor approval of transfer:

Any release required as a condition of renewal and/or assignment/transfer will not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law. (The form of general release that we currently intend to use in connection with franchise transfers and renewals is included in the Assignment and Assumption Agreement appearing at Exhibit C of this Disclosure Document.)

3. The following language is added to the end of the “Summary” section of Item 17(h), titled “Cause” defined – non-curable defaults:

Termination upon insolvency might not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq.), but we will enforce it to the extent enforceable.

4. The “Summary” section of Item 17(v), titled Choice of forum, is amended to read as follows:

Arbitration of most disputes within 10 miles of our then-current principal office (currently in New Jersey), except that, subject to your arbitration obligation, and to the extent required by the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, you may bring an action in Maryland.

5. The “Summary” section of Item 17(w), titled Choice of forum, is amended to read as follows:

New Jersey law generally applies, except for Federal Arbitration Act, other federal law, and claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

6. The following language is added to the end of the chart in Item 17:

You must bring any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by you in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by us, any franchise seller, or any other person acting on our behalf. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a “franchise broker” is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.
19. The following Risk Factor is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document titled “Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise”:

Use of Franchise Brokers. The franchisor may use the services of franchise brokers to assist it in selling franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. Carefully evaluate any information provided by a franchise broker about a franchise. Do your own investigation by contacting the franchisor’s current and former franchisees to ask them about their experience with the franchisor.
20. The following paragraph is added to the end of Item 5:

Franchisees who receive financial incentives to refer franchise prospects to us may be required to register as franchise brokers under the laws of the State of Washington.
21. The “Remarks” column of the Item 6 line-item titled “Out-of-Territory Royalty Fee” is amended to read as follows:

If you operate your business outside your specific Territory defined in the Franchise Agreement, you must pay an incremental 15% Out-Of-Territory Royalty Fee. This 15% Out-of-Territory Royalty Fee is in addition to the 10% of Net Revenues Royalty and Service Fee you already must pay. You must pay this incremental amount because you do not have the right to operate your Business outside your specified Territory.

22. The “Summary” section of Item 17(r) is amended to read as follows:

Subject to state law, for 18 months, you cannot have any direct or indirect interest as an owner, director, officer, employee, or in any other capacity in any Competitive Business located within the same areas described in (q) above. However, we have the right to enforce this post-term non-competition restriction only to the extent reasonable under applicable law.

23. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Sections 1.B(4) through (6) of the Franchise Agreement are hereby deleted.

24. The following language is added to the end of the 2nd paragraph of Section 7(D) of the Franchise Agreement:

, provided, however, that FRANCHISEE does not waive its protections under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d) (which states it is a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act for any person to sell, rent, or offer to sell to a franchisee any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price).

25. Section 11(C)(12) of the Franchise Agreement is amended to read as follows:

FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) must execute a noncompetition covenant in favor of the COMPANY and the transferee(s), agreeing that for a period of not less than eighteen (18) months, commencing on the effective date of the transfer, he, they and the members of his and their immediate families will not have any direct or indirect interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, lender, partner, director, officer, manager, consultant, employee, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any Competitive Business located within (i) FRANCHISEE’s Territory, (ii) twenty-five (25) miles of the boundary of FRANCHISEE’s Territory, (iii) the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business, or (iv) twenty-five (25) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business;

26. Section 14(D) of the Franchise Agreement is amended to read as follows:

Upon termination of this Agreement by either the COMPANY or FRANCHISEE in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, or upon expiration of this Agreement (if the COMPANY refuses to grant a successor franchise, as provided in Section 12, or FRANCHISEE elects not to acquire a successor franchise), FRANCHISEE and its owner(s) agree that for a period of eighteen (18) months, commencing on the effective date of termination or expiration, or the date on which FRANCHISEE ceases to conduct the business conducted pursuant to this Agreement, whichever is later, neither FRANCHISEE, its owner(s) nor the members of his and their immediate families will have any interest as a disclosed or beneficial owner, investor, lender, partner, director, officer, manager, consultant, employee, representative or agent, or in any other capacity, in any Competitive Business located within (i) FRANCHISEE's Territory, (ii) twenty-five (25) miles of the boundary of FRANCHISEE's Territory, (iii) the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business in operation or in the process of opening on the later of the effective date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the date on which all persons restricted by this Subsection begin to comply with this Subsection, or (iv) twenty-five (25) miles of the boundary of the territory of any other SPARKLE SQUAD Business in operation or in the process of opening on the later of the effective date of the termination or expiration of this Agreement or the date on which all persons restricted by this Subsection begin to comply with this Subsection.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.
