QUESTION	WHERE TO FIND INFORMATION

What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The Franchise Agreement and Area Development Agreement require you to resolve disputes with us by litigation only in Nevada. Out-of-state litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost you more to participate in litigation with us in Nevada than in your home state.
2. Spousal Liability. Your spouse must sign a document that makes your spouse liable for all the financial obligations under the franchise agreement even though your spouse has no ownership interest in the franchise. This guarantee will place both your and your spouse's marital and personal assets, perhaps including your house, at risk if your franchise fails.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the "State Specific Addenda" (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ITEM 1
THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENTS, PREDECESSORS AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Disclosure Document, “the Company”, “we” or “us” means Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation, the franchisor of this business. “You” means the person who buys the franchise, and includes your owners if you are a partnership, limited liability company, corporation or other entity.

The Franchisor

We were incorporated in Delaware on March 31, 2006. Our principal business address is 7670 West Lake Mead Boulevard, Suite #225, Las Vegas, Nevada 89128. We do business under our corporate name as well as under the trade name and service mark “FIESTA”. We do not do business under any other names. Our agents for service of process are listed in Exhibit A. We do not engage in any other business activity. We have offered franchises for sale since March 2007. We do not, and have not, offered franchises for sale in any other line of business.

Our Parents, Predecessors and Affiliates

We have no predecessors. We have 3 parent companies, Fiesta Insurance Acquisition, Inc., a Delaware corporation, incorporated on October 4, 2018; Insurvia, Inc., a Delaware corporation (previously known as Fiesta Insurance Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation), incorporated on October 4, 2018; and Insurvia, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (previously known as FIFC Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company), formed on December 20, 2018. Their principal business address is 54 Wilton Road, Westport, Connecticut 06880. Fiesta Insurance Acquisition, Inc., Insurvia, Inc., and Insurvia, LLC have never offered franchises for sale in this or any other line of business.

We have 2 affiliates. Our affiliate, Bravo General Insurance Services (“Bravo”), was incorporated in Nevada on May 31, 2013. Bravo is an approved insurance supplier, acting as an insurance intermediary. The principal business address of Bravo is 7670 West Lake Mead Boulevard, Suite #225, Las Vegas, Nevada 89128. Bravo has never offered franchises.

Our affiliate, La Familia Agency LLC (“LFA”), a Texas limited liability company, was formed in Texas in August 9, 2010. LFA is an insurance agency licensed to do business in the State of Texas. The principal business address for LFA is 2711 LBJ Freeway, Suite 350, Farmers Branch, Texas 75234. Neither Bravo nor LFA offer franchises for sale in this or any other line of business. LFA does not offer services to Fiesta franchisees.

The Franchises Offered

We offer 3 separate franchises in this Disclosure Document, though we may not necessarily grant you the opportunity to purchase under either of these programs:

Single Business Program

If you become a franchisee under our Single Business Program, you will operate a Fiesta Insurance business (the “Franchised Business”) and will sell personal and commercial automobile, motorcycle/scooters, personal watercraft, homeowners, rental/condo/apartment, tenant occupied property, commercial property, commercial general liability, Mexico trip and special events insurance on our behalf and offer retail tax return preparation and electronic tax return filing services using the Fiesta trademarks, trade name, service marks, and commercial symbols (the "Proprietary Marks") and our business systems (collectively, the "Fiesta System") under our Franchise Agreement attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit B (the "Franchise Agreement").

You may only solicit the sale of insurance exclusively on our behalf, sell policies with insurance carriers we approve, and use premium financing companies that we approve. Your Franchised Businesses must also offer electronic filing of tax returns, electronic refund checks, and other related financial products and services (the "Bank Products"). The Bank Products will be offered with products or services provided by one or more banks or financial vendors (a "Financial Vendor" or "Financial Vendors") that are not affiliated with us. Subject to the terms of the Franchise Agreement, we may require you to offer additional services from the Franchised Business. You must offer only those services that we designate in the manner we specify. You cannot offer any other products or services that are not designated by us as approved products or services without our prior written approval. You will open the Franchised Business for business to the public after you sign the Franchise Agreement, complete our initial training program and obtain a site for the Franchised Business. You must pass all required state exams and satisfy all state licensing requirements.

You will operate your Franchised Business at an address set forth in your Franchise Agreement (the "Franchised Location") within a defined geographic area (the "Protected Area"). You must conduct your Franchised Business in accordance with our confidential Operations Manual (the "Operations Manual") and other manuals and instructional materials we provide for use in the Fiesta System. We reserve the right to change the approved software package and our approved supplier of the software package in the future.

Area Development Program

Under our Area Development Program, we will assign you a defined geographic area (the "Development Area") within which you must develop and operate 3 Franchised Businesses (the "Development Obligation") within a specified period of time (the "Development Period"). The Development Area may be one city, one or more counties, or some other defined geographic area. You will sign our Area Development Agreement attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit C ("Area Development Agreement") which will describe your Development Area, Development Obligation and Development Period. Area Developers may be individuals or entities which meet our then-current requirements for non-individual area developers. These requirements may include the signing of personal guarantees by some or all of the individuals holding an equity interest in the Area Developer. You will sign a separate Franchise Agreement and pay us an initial franchise fee for each Franchised Business that you are obligated to develop under the Area Development Agreement when you sign the Area Development Agreement (the "Area Development Franchise"). You must sign a separate Franchise Agreement for each Franchised Business you open under an Area Development Agreement on our then-current form of Franchise Agreement, which form of Franchise Agreement may be different than the form of Franchise Agreement included in this Disclosure Document. You will also sign a Software License Agreement for each Franchised Business.

Affiliation Franchise Program

Under our Affiliation Franchise Program, you will convert your independently owned business to a Fiesta insurance agency and retail tax return preparation and tax filing business (an "Affiliation Franchise") under a Franchise Agreement and an Affiliation Franchise Addendum to your Franchise Agreement (the "Affiliation Franchise Addendum") in the form attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit J. All provisions of our Franchise Agreement will apply to an Affiliation Franchise unless otherwise stated in the Affiliation Franchise Addendum.

Operating Experience

We have previously operated businesses of the type being franchised as a result of the termination of the franchisees who were granted the franchise rights to operate those Franchised Businesses. We do not operate a business of the type being franchised, but reserve the right to do so in the future. As of April 30, 2015, we were not operating any business of the type being franchised. From 2009 to 2014, we offered franchises for locations providing only tax return preparation services ("Tax Only") franchises. We no longer offer Tax Only franchises, nor are any Tax Only offices in operation.

Competition

The insurance policies that you will offer are required by consumers in order to conduct normal everyday activities. For instance, insurance is generally required to legally operate automobiles. As such, the market for insurance services in the United States is extensive and is expected to grow along with the country's population and standard of living. Your competitors include commercial banks, insurance companies, independent and captive insurance agents, Internet solicitation and direct mail solicitation.

Our general market for retail tax return preparation and electronic tax return filing business consists primarily of middle to low income tax bracket customers who seek to have their income taxes prepared and filed and/or are anticipating an income tax refund from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"). As a Fiesta franchise, you will compete with numerous other local, regional, and national tax return preparation businesses and accounting firms. The tax return preparation industry is highly seasonal. The substantial majority of your business will occur each year between January 1 and April 15 (a "Tax Season"); however, there is a substantial amount of preparation time for Tax Season, which ordinarily occurs in November and December of each year. Our and your ability to compete in the tax return preparation business depends largely upon the ability to file tax returns electronically with the IRS and the availability to offer financial products to customers.

Industry-Specific Regulations

The offering of insurance is regulated by each state and you and all of your employees and agents who are required to be licensed must be licensed by your state's Department of Insurance to sell insurance policies in your state. Your license must remain in good standing throughout the term of your Franchise Agreement. You must also file all notices that your state may require as notice that you are acting as our agent in the operation of the Franchised Business. If your license is revoked, suspended or restricted, or if an action to do so is begun by a governmental agency, you must immediately notify us. If you do not maintain your license in good standing throughout the term of your Franchise Agreement, we may terminate your Franchise Agreement. If your license is not in good standing, you cannot earn commissions from the sale of insurance.

You must maintain in good standing all required tax return preparation certificates, permits or licenses for the Franchised Business. If your required tax return preparation certificates, permits or licenses are revoked, suspended or restricted, or if any action is instituted by any local, state or federal regulatory authority to revoke, suspend or restrict the certificates, permits or licenses, you must, within notify us, in writing, of the occurrence of such event and we will have the right to terminate your Franchise Agreement. If, at any time, your required certificates, permits or licenses are revoked, suspended or restricted, you must not solicit or perform any tax return preparation services for the Franchised Business or earn any compensation for tax return preparation services from the Franchised Business and must refer all requests for tax return preparation services to us for reassignment by us.

The United States Internal Revenue Code and associated regulations and revenue rulings primarily govern tax return preparation and the filing of electronic tax returns. In order to file these electronic tax returns, you must obtain an Electronic Filing Identification Number (“EFIN”) from the IRS. If you or a business in which you were a principal were assessed a tax preparer penalty, were convicted of an IRS or monetary crime, failed to file a tax return or pay taxes, or cannot pass an IRS background check, you may not be able to obtain an EFIN. Most states have laws similar to the IRS laws and regulations that govern access to electronic filing of state returns. Please check with your state for any applicable certification or registration requirements.

The IRS also regulates other aspects of the tax return preparation industry by requiring that tax preparers use due diligence in preparing tax returns, sign completed tax returns, furnish copies of the completed tax returns to customers, ensure customer privacy, maintain confidentiality of customer records, maintain customer lists, and not negotiate, directly or indirectly, income tax refund checks. Federal laws also subject tax preparers to accuracy related penalties in connection with the preparation of tax returns. Preparers may be enjoined from further acting as tax preparers if they continually or repeatedly engage in specified misconduct. All authorized IRS e-file providers must adhere to IRS e-file rules and requirements to continue participation in IRS e-file. Adherence to all rules and regulations is expected of all preparers, regardless of how a tax return is submitted, and includes those described in IRS Publication 1345, Handbook for Authorized IRS e-file providers. In addition, the IRS conducts audit examinations of authorized IRS e-file providers and tax return preparers, reviewing samples of prepared tax returns to ensure compliance with regulations in connection with tax return preparation activities. In particular, the IRS has spent a substantial amount of time in recent years auditing tax return files looking for preparers who have e-filed tax returns using a customer’s last paystub (known as “paystub loans”), which practice the IRS now explicitly prohibits.

The Federal Trade Commission’s Safeguards Rule requires that tax preparers use physical, administrative and technological means to safeguard confidential customer data. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act and related federal regulations address the use and disclosure of client data and requires income tax return preparers to adopt and disclose consumer privacy policies. Numerous local, state, and federal regulations, statutes, laws, and ordinances govern tax return preparation. The majority of these local and state regulations govern the provision of tax return preparation services and Refund Anticipation Loans (“RALs”) and, in order to offer RALs, require submission and approval of a registration application as a “loan broker” or “credit services organization.” The IRS and several states also regulate advertising associated with RALs. Federal, state, and local laws and regulations regarding the provision of tax return preparation services and RALs may change or may be enacted at any time, which may impact the tax return preparation business or some aspect of it. You must maintain all required licenses throughout the term of your Franchise Agreement.

The Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (“PCI”) requires all companies that process, store, or transmit credit or debit card information to maintain a secure environment. PCI applies to all organizations or merchants, regardless of size or number of transactions, that accepts, transmits or stores any cardholder data.

You must also comply, as applicable, with Executive Order 13224, which prohibits transactions with suspected terrorists or persons or organizations associated with suspected terrorists, the USA Patriot Act and the International Money Laundering Statement and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act of 2001, which impose anti-money laundering requirements on a broad variety of “financial institutions”.

You must also comply, as applicable, with all local, state, and federal laws that apply to your Franchised Business including health, no smoking, discrimination, employment, and sexual harassment laws. The Americans with Disability Act of 1990 requires readily accessible accommodation for disabled people and therefore may affect your building construction, site elements, entrance ramps, doors, seating, bathrooms, drinking facilities, and the like. You must obtain real estate permits and licenses and operational licenses. You are advised to examine these and other laws before purchasing our franchise. You should consult with your attorney concerning these and other local laws and ordinances that may affect your Franchised Business.

We will establish and maintain exclusive control over separate trust and operating bank accounts into which we will deposit all insurance commissions you originate from the sale of insurance. After the Gross Insurance Revenue is deposited into our trust account, we will calculate the amount of commissions due to you. You will receive 75% to 80% of the Gross Insurance Revenue depending on the number of Franchised Businesses you operate and where you are located:

California and Texas		All Other States
of Stores	% of Gross Insurance Revenue We Retain	# of Stores	% of Gross Insurance Revenue We Retain

We will pay your commissions on the tenth day of each month following the month in which the Gross Insurance Revenue is deposited into our trust accounts. Each monthly payment of commissions will be accompanied by a statement setting forth the amount of Gross Insurance Revenue deposited into our trust accounts during the previous month and a calculation of the commissions due to you. You are responsible for the reconciliation and verification of all commissions paid, unearned commissions billed, charge-backs, set up fees, endorsement fees, reinstatement fees, policy renewal fees, payment fees, royalty fees and all other charges and expenses listed on the monthly accounting statement provided to you on the tenth day of each month. If any errors or discrepancies are discovered on the monthly accounting statement, you are responsible for reporting the errors or discrepancies to us for review within a reasonable time period.

We will establish separate producer codes to track all insurance commissions you originate. The Company and you will both pay all charge-backs and unearned insurance commissions on a pro-rata basis in accordance with the Company's and your respective share of the Gross Insurance Revenue. We may indirectly retain additional insurance sales commissions for "targeted market" insurance program policies. We may offer a bonus plan (calculated in accordance with a bonus plan agreement which we may develop) to reward you based on factors including insurance commissions growth with selected insurance companies, for increasing levels of direct-billed insurance commissions, for policy/consulting fees billed and collected by agents, and for commissions on policies issued. These bonuses in effect may operate to reduce the percent of total Commissions you pay us.

NOTE #2: Your first payment is due after you begin operating your Franchised Business. You must pay us $200 - $500 per month as the Policy Management Software Licensing Fee for the licensing fee for approved policy management software. We collect the Policy Management Software Licensing Fees, or other licensing fee, from you and forward your payments to our approved supplier. The approved policy management software is the paperless office software that will be used in every insurance customer transaction.

NOTE #3: Your first payment is due prior to opening to our approved vendor in your state. You must pay us or our approved vendor in your state $100 to $500 per month for Insurance Ratings software. The Insurance Ratings software is industry specific software that is necessary for providing customer quotes.

NOTE #4: You will pay us a percentage of the fees charged for opening new files for each insurance policy you write, insurance policy endorsements, policy renewals, policy reinstatements and policy payments. These fees are only required for California and Texas franchisees as of the issuance date of this Disclosure Document. Currently, you will pay us a minimum set up fee of $20 (California only) or $10 (Texas only) for each new insurance policy file.

NOTE #5: We will invoice and collect all fees ("Gross Tax Return Revenue") due from your clients for the tax returns you prepare. We will provide you with a report and reconciliation of tax returns filed during the previous month. We will retain up to 20% of the fee charged for each tax return you file on behalf of a taxpayer, and a minimum $30 per tax return, for tax returns filed during the previous month as a tax return preparation royalty fee ("Tax Return Preparation Royalty Fee"). We will provide you with a report and reconciliation of all tax returns filed each month by the 10th day of each month for tax returns filed during the previous month. If you provide a customer with Bank Products, the Tax Return Preparation Royalty Fees will be paid to us electronically by the Financial Vendor with no efforts by you. You will execute one or more ACH Payment Authorizations (or another form as we or the Financial Vendor require) and provide us with the bank name, routing number, account number and bank address authorizing the electronic payment of our fees at the time those monies are electronically disbursed to you by the third-party Bank Product supplier. We will coordinate setting up the routing of funds via the Financial Vendor. These disbursements of funds via the Financial Vendor generally occur every other business day during the peak of the Tax Season and changes to twice a week during the non-peak Tax Season.

NOTE #6: You must pay us for the tax return preparation software that you will use in preparing individual federal and state tax returns. The current fee is $500. We may increase the fee to no more than $1,500 upon 30 days written notice to you.

NOTE #7: We have established the national Platform Access Fund to manage and enhance the image, brand identity and patronage of our Franchised Businesses using third-party platforms and other on-line digital technologies.

NOTE #8: We may, in the future, at our option, establish other regional or national Marketing Funds to conduct advertising and promotional activities for Fiesta Insurance Franchised Businesses. If we do so, you must make a Monthly Marketing Contribution to the Marketing Fund.

NOTE #9: Gross Supplemental Revenue includes all revenue of every kind and nature derived from the offer and sale of products and services at the Franchised Business other than insurance policies, retail tax return preparation and tax filing services. We will retain up to 20% of the Gross Supplemental Revenue you receive from offering motor vehicle records and registration services, and other products or services unrelated to insurance policies, retail tax return preparation and tax filing services which are approved or designated by us.

NOTE #10: See Item 10.

NOTE #11: You must sign our then-current Franchise Agreement. You will pay $15,000 to renew each Franchise Agreement.

NOTE #12: You must pay us a Transfer Fee if you transfer or assign your rights under your Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, subject to state law. For some qualifying transfers, no transfer fee will be charged.

NOTE #13: We may require you and your owners or other supervisory or managerial employees to periodically attend franchisee conventions. You must pay us a fee to defray our costs for these programs.

NOTE #14: You must reimburse us for 100% of the actual payments we make to others for pre-approved advertising expenses.

NOTE #15: You must reimburse us for the actual or pro-rata expenses we incur on your behalf or on behalf of your customers for fees such as motor vehicle reports, licensing fees, clue reports, and the like.

NOTE #16: You must reimburse us for our out-of-pocket costs and expenses we incur to respond to and remedy any computer security-related incidents, data breach or other identity theft or theft of personal information (collectively, a "Cyber Event"), caused solely by Franchisee or the Franchised Business.

NOTE #17: You indemnify and hold us harmless from all damages (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs), from claims brought by third parties involving your ownership or operation of your Franchised Business. This indemnity obligation continues in full effect after the expiration or termination of your Franchise Agreement.

NOTE #18: You will pay all damages, costs and expenses including attorneys' fees, incurred by us subsequent to the termination or expiration of the franchise in obtaining injunctive relief or for enforcement of provisions in Articles 9, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 19 under your Franchise Agreement.

NOTE #19: To reimburse us for our costs and expenses associated with processing an accounting violation by you.

NOTE #20: To reimburse us for our costs and expenses associated with processing a scanning violation by you.

NOTE #21: To reimburse us for our costs and expenses associated with processing a deposit violation by you.

NOTE #22: To reimburse us for our administrative expenses associated with processing a violation by you of any requirement of our Operations Manual, other than an accounting violation, scanning violation, or deposit violation.

NOTE #23: You must pay us the Minimum Loan Fee if we loan you money for the purchase of additional Franchised Businesses.

NOTE #24: You must pay us the Tax Return Note Fee for each Fiesta franchised business you own if we loan you money for the purchase of additional Franchised Businesses. The Tax Return Note Fee will be collected and applied against the principal amount due under the Promissory Note.

NOTES:

NOTE #1: The Initial Franchise Fee is further described in Item 5 of this Disclosure Document. We do not finance any portion of your Initial Franchise Fees under the Area Development Program. If you purchase an Affiliation Franchise, you will not have to pay us an Initial Franchise Fee.

NOTE #2: If you do not own suitable office facilities, you may lease office facilities for your agency. Typical locations are high visibility retail areas, adjacent to chain grocery stores, and strip malls. The typical Franchised Business occupies 750 to 1,200 square feet. Rent is estimated to be between $1,000 to $4,000 per month depending on factors such as size, condition, and location of the leased premises. The exact amount of your rent and security deposit will be determined by your landlord. Your expenses for tenant improvements will depend upon the condition of the premises. You will, in most cases, already have a site for your existing independent business if you purchase an Affiliation Franchise and will already have established your expenses for the site for rent and related occupancy charges which are not included in this item; however, you will have to remodel your office and purchase new furniture and equipment for your Affiliation Franchise. If you purchase an Affiliation Franchise, we will, in our sole discretion, both as to the decision to pay and the amount of the payment, pay up to $20,000 of the cost to remodel your Franchised Location to conform to our current corporate design standards.

NOTE #3: Equipment costs are estimates. We have negotiated reduced furniture and technology packages for you. We will provide you with a choice of 3 furniture packages and 3 technology packages that you must choose from and purchase from the vendors we designate. Your actual costs will depend on the packages you purchase which vary by the number and quality of computer stations, desks, chairs, computers, etc. This estimate includes the costs of all required equipment from whichever package you choose. You must purchase, at a minimum, four workstations, 2 Brother MFC printers, 2 LCD monitors, 2 desktop towers, 2 Logitech Media Combos, 2 iPads, 2 Microsoft Office subscriptions, 2 set of speakers, 2 Logitech cameras and a Fiesta Kids Wall Decal, Kids Floor Mat, Kids Storage Unit and Kids table for the lobby/kids club area in your office. If you purchase an Affiliation Franchise, we will, in our sole discretion, both as to the decision to pay and the amount of the payment, pay up to $20,000 of the cost to remodel your Franchised Location to conform to our current corporate design standards.

NOTE #4: You will be included on our errors and omissions policy after you sign your Franchise Agreement and will no longer maintain your own errors and omissions policy. However, you must obtain and maintain all of the following insurance coverage: (a) broad form comprehensive general liability coverage; (b) workers' compensation (as required by law); (c) unemployment insurance covering your employees; (d) fire, flood, earthquake and extended coverage insurance on your office and your property in an amount adequate to replace them if there is an insured loss; (e) business interruption insurance in reasonable amounts; (f) state disability insurance for your employees (as required by law); and (g) Employment Practices Liability Insurance. If you purchase an Affiliation Franchise, you will, in most cases, already have insurance coverage in effect for your business; however, you must ensure that your existing insurance coverage meets our standard requirements.

NOTE #5: Miscellaneous opening costs include utility costs, licensing fees, appointment costs and beginning cash on hand.

NOTE #6: You must pay us $5,500 to $7,000 for our marketing package for a Franchised Business purchased under the Single Business Program before commencing operation of the Franchised Business. If you sign an Area Development Agreement, you must pay us $5,500 to $7,000 for our marketing package for your first Franchised Business before you open the first Franchised Business and must pay us $5,500 to $7,000 for our marketing package for the second and third Franchised Businesses prior to opening the second and third Franchised Businesses.

NOTE #7: You must pay $200 to $500 per month to our approved software supplier, as a Policy Management Software Licensing Fee/Licensing Fee (which we collect from you and forward to our approved supplier), and $100 to $500 per month to us or our approved vendor as an Insurance Ratings Software Licensing Fee. The estimates provided include 3 months of these expenses.

NOTE #8: You must, at all times, maintain adequate reserves and working capital sufficient for you to fulfill all of your obligations under your Franchise Agreement and to cover the risks and contingencies of your Franchised Business for at least 3 months. The estimates provided above include estimated set up fees you will pay us for each insurance policy you write, where state law allows, and currently only required in California and Texas; Tax Return Preparation Royalty Fees you pay us your Monthly Marketing Contributions, payable to the Marketing Fund, as applicable; your Monthly Platform Access Fund Contributions, payable to the Platform Access Fund; third party fees reimbursement; employee wages; facility expenses and any other miscellaneous required expenses incurred through the first 3 months of operations. These estimates do not take into account the finance charges, interest and related costs you may incur if any portion of the initial investment is financed or all other recurring monthly operating expenses. These amounts are the minimum recommended levels to cover operating expenses for 3 months. We cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses starting the business. Your costs will depend on how closely you follow the Franchised Business system standards, your management skill, experience and business acumen, local economic conditions, the acceptance by local consumers of our approved services, prevailing wage rates, competition, etc. Additional working capital may be required if revenues are low or fixed costs are high. The disclosure laws require us to include this estimate of all costs and expenses to operate your Franchised Business during the "initial phase" of your business, which is defined as a 3 month period or longer period if "reasonable for the industry." We are not aware of any established longer "reasonable period" for the insurance and tax return preparation industry, so our disclosure covers a 3 month period. To provide these initial investment estimates, we relied on the experience of our franchisees in opening and operating Franchised Businesses, if and to the extent they shared this information with us. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise.

NOTE #9: If you purchase an Affiliation Franchise, we will, in our sole discretion, both as to the decision to pay and the amount of the payment, pay up to $20,000 of the cost to remodel your Franchised Location to conform to our current corporate design standards.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Except as described below, you have no obligation to purchase or lease from us or from suppliers approved by us or according to specifications we issue:

Insurance Products and Services

Under the Franchise Agreement, you are granted the non-exclusive right, and undertake the obligation, to use the Proprietary Marks and the Fiesta System solely in connection with the operation of one Fiesta insurance agency and retail tax return preparation and tax filing business. You must offer only those services that we specify in the manner we specify. You may not offer products or services that we do not designate as approved products and services without our prior written approval. You may only solicit the sale of insurance and tax return preparation services exclusively on our behalf. You may only sell policies with insurance carriers we approve and may only use premium financing companies that we approve, and may not enter into contracts with any insurance companies or financing companies that we have not approved.

Although we may represent numerous insurance companies, you are restricted to using insurance companies that we approve for your use. We may offer a bonus plan (calculated in accordance with a bonus plan agreement which we may develop) based upon your insurance commissions growth with selected insurance companies or other established criteria. Our affiliate, Bravo, is an approved supplier of insurance, but is not the only approved supplier of insurance. Bravo's total revenue from supplying insurance to our franchisees for the fiscal year ending April 30, 2023 was $209,393, which was 68% of Bravo's total revenue of $312,527.76. Bravo pays us 17% of the written premium for each new policy issued. The source of this information is the financial books and records of Bravo.

We select approved insurance companies at our discretion. In selecting insurance companies, we consider a number of factors including: the insurance companies' product lines; the geographic regions in which the insurance companies transact business; the need for the insurance companies' products by our franchisees; the insurance companies' production and/or loss ratio requirements; the compensation programs offered by the insurance companies; the services offered by the insurance companies to us and our franchisees; and the insurance companies' financial strength. We may change your list of approved insurance companies at any time for any reason including: to accommodate our insurance companies; to reduce insurance companies' risk concentration; to match insurance companies with the types of volumes of purchases that you make; because we may discontinue doing business with an insurance companies and because we or an affiliate may offer the same service. Any change to your list of approved insurance companies will be effective immediately upon written notice to you. The list of our currently approved insurance companies is contained in the Operations Manual.

Your list of approved insurance companies will include guidelines that we have developed for contacting insurance companies, obligating insurance companies and for distributing insurance companies' manuals or materials. We will negotiate all contracts with approved insurance companies, including compensation paid by insurance companies for the sale, renewal, service or delivery of policies. Although we attempt to negotiate favorable terms with approved insurance companies, we cannot guarantee that we will obtain a contract with any particular insurance company, nor can we guarantee that it will be under the most favorable terms offered by an insurance company.

If you desire to recommend an insurance company with whom we currently do not conduct business, you must submit a written request to us for approval of the proposed insurance company, together with all other information that we may reasonably require, or request the insurance company itself to do so. We may inspect and evaluate the insurance company's products before we approve or disapprove your proposed insurance company, and you must pay all of our reasonable costs and expenses incurred in doing so. An insurance company must demonstrate to our reasonable satisfaction that it is in good financial standing in the business community and that its products are reliable. We will provide you with our standards and our criteria for approval of insurance company upon request and will approve or disapprove a proposed insurance company in 60 - 90 days. We will notify you if and when we no longer approve a previously approved insurance company. An insurance company must continually adhere to our standards and specifications to maintain its approval.

We may derive revenue through advertising allowances, prizes, override insurance commissions, profit sharing insurance commissions, bonus insurance commissions or similar payments from insurance companies. We may pay certain Fiesta franchisees shares of any advertising allowances, prizes, override insurance commissions, profit sharing insurance commissions, bonus insurance commissions, or similar payments made by insurance companies to us based on our franchisees' sales volumes and overall performance. The amounts and types of these payments we receive vary by supplier and may vary from year to year. Typically, these amounts are not associated with the sale of a specific policy by you, but are contingent upon factors like sales volume, premium volume, profitability and other special concessions negotiated by us.

You must purchase through our web portal, all advertising items or office supplies with our logo, such as stationery, business cards, signage, and envelopes, from our approved supplier. Your cost for office supplies with our logo will be your pro rata share of our production costs plus shipping charges.

Our total revenue from the sale of required materials to our franchisees for the fiscal year ending April 30, 2023 was $555,157.25 or 1.13% of our total revenue of $ 49,134,500.23.

You must license policy management software from our approved supplier. You must pay us a monthly fee for the use of the approved policy management software, which we will collect from you and forward to our approved supplier. The monthly fee is currently $200 to $500 and is subject to change on 30 days advance written notice to you.

There are no approved suppliers in which any of our officers owns an interest.

In addition, you must license any Insurance Rating Software that we designate for the state where your Franchised Business is located. You will pay us or our designated supplier a monthly fee for the use of the Insurance Rating Software. The cost of this software varies from state to state. As of the date of this Disclosure Document, the costs range from $100 to $500 per month and is subject to change on 30 days advance written notice to you from us.

We anticipate that the cost of these items will represent 30% of your total purchases in establishing the Franchised Business and 20% of your total purchases during operation of the Franchised Business.

You may only solicit the sale of insurance exclusively for your Franchised Business, may only sell policies with insurance carriers we approve and may only use premium financing companies that we approve. If you do not do so, you will breach your Franchise Agreement and be subject to possible termination and other remedies under applicable law. We anticipate that there will be no cost for these services in any of your startup expenses, but will represent 0% of your supplier relationships in operating the Franchised Business on an ongoing basis.

Although we attempt to negotiate favorable terms with approved insurance companies, we cannot guarantee that we will obtain a contract with any particular insurance company, nor can we guarantee that it will be under the most favorable terms offered by an insurance company. We do, however, try to increase commissions and decrease expenses for you as our business expands. We do not negotiate purchase agreements with other suppliers for your benefit. You will not receive any material benefits from us or any supplier.

Other than the requirements stated above, you are not required to purchase or lease any other item from any particular supplier. To use approved policy management software provided by an approved supplier, you will need at least one personal computer with Internet access and Microsoft Internet Explorer 9 or greater. The computer that you select for the Franchised Business must have an anti-virus program installed in it. You will be responsible for purchasing, licensing, installing and maintaining all computer software and equipment that you own.

We do not have or sponsor any purchasing or distribution cooperatives, although we reserve the right to do so in the future.

You must obtain a licensing application from all persons you wish to employ or with whom you wish to contract to sell insurance for the Franchised Business. Each application must require the applicant to provide the following information, among other things: (i) references; (ii) background investigations; (iii) information to determine the applicant's insurance professionalism; and (iv) information sufficient to determine whether the applicant would be suitable according to your Franchised Business' circumstances and situation at the time of application. You are responsible to ensure the applicant is suitable consistent with our standards, as specified in your Franchise Agreement and the Operations Manual.

Many aspects of the operation of your Franchised Business are subject to our methods and procedures. You must comply with all mandatory methods and procedures (whether contained in the Operations Manual or any other written communication) in the operation of your Franchised Business. You must comply, at your expense, with all local, state and federal codes, regulations, ordinances, rules and orders applicable to the Franchised Business.

Electronic Filing of Tax Returns

You must offer electronic tax return filing services using only those approved suppliers of electronic tax return filing services we designate. You must only use our forms, contracts and agreements to solicit and procure tax return preparation business for the Franchised Business. You must receive a valid FEIN from the IRS in order to take advantage of electronic filing. We may derive revenue in the form of allowances or rebates from suppliers providing tax return preparation software packages.

You must offer Bank Products to customers. Bank Products include: refund anticipation checks/electronic refund checks. You must offer only the Bank Products we designate, and only from the Financial Vendors and other suppliers of Bank Products that we designate. You may not offer any Bank Products or use any suppliers of these or similar bank products other than those we designate. You must also use Financial Vendors or suppliers that we will designate for the promotion, offering and provision of Bank Products. We are not affiliated with these Financial Vendors or suppliers. However, we reserve the right to derive revenue from these Financial Vendors in the form of allowances from the sale of Bank Products from the Financial Vendors to your customers or tax filers. During the fiscal year ending April 30, 2023, we received $269,847.21 in revenue from the sale of Bank Products.

We have the sole right to select the institutions providing Bank Products, and we may discontinue our arrangements with Bank Product providers at any time for any reason without incurring any liability to you. Currently, we have a contractual arrangement with Santa Barbara Tax Products Group. We provide the Financial Vendors with access to Fiesta Tax Service customers and technology support. The Financial Vendor requires Fiesta franchisees who wish to offer their Bank Products to execute a financial services agreement. We, the Financial Vendor and any other bank provider that we designate, have the right to impose conditions on you with respect to your use of Bank Products, including restrictions on the fees you may charge. Your initial application can be denied based upon various factors, such as your consumer credit history or your experience in the use of similar Bank Products in the past. In addition, your approval can be suspended or even terminated for having excessive loan loss ratios or for violating Federal, state and local laws. We do not make any warranties or representations with respect to the approval process with the Financial Vendors or any other Bank Product provider that we may designate in the future. The Bank Products we authorize, the institutions and suppliers providing those Bank Products, and the terms of the agreements (with the third party institutions and suppliers) for those Bank Products, may change in future Tax Seasons. If you are unable or unwilling to offer required Bank Products, we have the right to terminate your Franchise Agreement.

We own all information received and generated from and about the clients you acquire through the operation of your Franchised Business, including information about all insurance customers and renewal customers of policies written by you during the term and tax return preparation and filing information about your clients ("Book of Business"). If you purchase an Affiliation Franchise, you must assign and transfer your current insurance company appointments to us to allow us to work with our carrier relationships to have all of your current insurance company appointments increased up to our higher commission levels, wherever possible, during the affiliation process.

We may, however, select an alternate software provider, and we may discontinue our arrangements with our software provider at any time for any reason without incurring any liability to you. Our designated software provider may charge your customers fees, such as electronic filing fees and/or transmission fees. We provide our franchisees with a cyber activity security monitoring service, which monitors franchisees' computer systems for cyber security breaches. Currently, there are no fees associated with the use, access and maintenance of this service, but we reserve the right to charge a fee in the future.

We may, at our option, loan money to qualified franchisees who are already owners and operators of one or more Franchised Businesses for the purchase of additional Franchised Businesses. Any additional Franchised Businesses must conform to our current corporate design standards as of the date the loan was made. Typical loans will be between $20,000 - $50,000 and will be payable in full in 36 months. Interest on the amount we loan you will be at a fixed rate equal to the "Prime Rate" of interest as published by the Western Edition of the Wall Street Journal on the date the loan is made, plus 4%, not to exceed the maximum interest rate allowed by applicable law. We will also be entitled to a Minimum Loan Fee on the date the loan is paid in full. You must also pay us the Tax Return Note Fee for each tax return you file for each Fiesta franchised business you own, which will be collected and applied against the principal amount due under the Promissory Note. Repayment of the Promissory Note will be secured by the assets of all of your Franchised Businesses under a Security Agreement in the form attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit H. -The form of Promissory Note that will be used for these loans is attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit G. If you are a partnership, limited liability company or corporation, all of your partners, members or shareholders must personally guarantee payment of the Promissory Note. The form of Guarantee that will be used for these loans is attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit D. You and your partners, members or shareholders must also sign a General Release in our favor in substantially the form of Exhibit I to the Franchise Agreement. You may prepay the Promissory Note with no prepayment penalty. If you default under the Promissory Note or the Guarantee, or if you are in default under any of your Franchise Agreements, we may demand immediate payment of all principal and interest due under the Promissory Note. You waive all rights of presentment, protest and demand, notice of protest, demand, dishonor and nonpayment of the Promissory Note, notice of acceleration, notice of intent to accelerate, and any and all other similar notices, except the notice of default to be given if you don't make your payments under the Promissory Note. If any legal action is brought to enforce the Promissory Note, the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. We have the right to assign the Promissory Note at any time until the Note is paid in full. We do not intend to assign the Promissory Note. We intend to remain primarily responsible for providing the financed goods or services to you. If we assign the Promissory Note to a third party, you may lose all defenses against us in the event of a dispute.

If you purchase an Affiliation Franchise, we will, in our sole discretion, both as to the decision to pay and the amount of the payment, pay up to $20,000 of the cost to remodel your Franchised Location to conform to our current corporate design standards, without any obligation for repayment.

With these exceptions, we do not offer direct or indirect financing. We do not arrange financing from other sources. With this exception, we do not receive direct or indirect payments for arranging financing. Commercial paper from franchisees has not been and is not sold to anyone and we have no plans to do so. We will allow you to review our Operations Manual before you sign your Franchise Agreement. A copy of our Operations Manual is located at our corporate headquarters. The Operations Manual contains 102 pages. You alone will exercise day-to-day control over all operations, activities and elements of your Franchised Business, including over your employees. Under no circumstance will we do so or be deemed to do so. The various requirements, restrictions, prohibitions, specifications and procedures of the Fiesta System with which you must comply under the Franchise Agreement and the Operations Manual do not directly or indirectly constitute, suggest, infer or imply that we control any aspect or element of the day-to-day operations of your Franchised Business, but only constitute standards to which you must adhere when exercising your control over the day-to-day operations of your Franchised Business consistent with our policies. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.5)

5. Provide you with our marketing package. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.1.1).

2. We will provide continuing advisory assistance to you as we deem advisable. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.1).

3. We will provide copies of any modifications to the Operations Manual. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.2).

4. We will evaluate the management and operation of your Franchised Business to assist you and to maintain the Fiesta System's standards of quality and service. (Franchise Agreement, Section 3.1). You must have personnel who are properly licensed by your state Department of Insurance on-site at all times during normal business hours to transact insurance business. You must not leave your office attended by unlicensed personnel during normal business hours, as insurance may only be sold by personnel who are properly licensed by your state Department of Insurance. Your failure to adhere to this requirement will violate both your state's Department of Insurance regulations and your Franchise Agreement and may result in the termination of your Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.4.2).

5. We will invoice and collect all Gross Insurance Revenue, calculate the amount of your Sales Commissions, and pay you the Commissions due on the tenth day of the month following the month in which we received the Gross Insurance Revenue. Gross Insurance Revenue includes all "Insurance Premium

9. We may establish and maintain one or more Internet web sites that may be used to provide information about us and the services that we offer. We may configure the site to accommodate one or more interior pages on our Web Site which we may dedicate to your Franchised Business. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.7). You may not establish a web site for your Franchised Business.

10. You will purchase your computer system from the vendors we designate. To use the approved policy management software package provided by an approved supplier, you must purchase at least one personal computer with Internet access and Microsoft Internet Explorer 9 or greater. You will be responsible for purchasing, licensing, installing, and maintaining all computer software and equipment that you own. (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.2).

11. We may, if we determine it is necessary to provide a private method of communication between us, our employees and our franchisees, establish and maintain an Intranet through which we may communicate with each other and you, and through which we may disseminate the Operations Manual, updates and other confidential information to you. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.8).

12. We may hold additional training courses, seminars and other training programs at no additional cost to you. You must pay all travel and living expenses for yourself and any supervisory or managerial employees that attend these programs. Attendance at these meetings may be mandatory. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.3).

Advertising

Unless and until we establish and maintain a regional Marketing Fund in your market area or a national Marketing Fund, we are not required to actively advertise or promote your Franchised Business, although we recommend that you do so. We may provide, in our discretion and if available, certain advertising and promotional materials to you at no charge if you wish to conduct your own advertising campaigns. You may also develop advertising materials for your own use, at your own cost, but we must approve all advertising materials in advance and in writing. You are solely responsible for the cost of your advertising, marketing and leads development above and beyond the Marketing Fund. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.1).

Marketing Package

You will only use our designated marketing materials, business cards, artwork and supplies in promoting insurance and tax return sales. You must purchase our marketing package from us before you open your Franchised Business. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 4.12 and 13.1.1). The marketing package includes indoor branded materials, a mascot costume, a branded arrow, and pre-opening and grand opening marketing materials.

Cooperative Advertising

We have the right, in our discretion, to establish an advertising cooperative in any geographic area or group of geographic areas. Currently, there are no advertising cooperatives.

Marketing Fund and Platform Access Fund

We established a regional Marketing Fund in 2014 for our California franchisees and a corresponding required Monthly Marketing Contribution, which is currently $600 per calendar month in California and Texas and $500 per calendar month in Florida. We may, in the future, establish other regional Marketing Funds or a national Marketing Fund for other markets. If you purchase a franchise from us that will be located in California following the issuance date of this Disclosure Document, or if you are a new or existing franchisee outside of California and we expand the Marketing Fund to cover the market in which you operate your Franchised Business, you must make a Monthly Marketing Contribution to the Marketing Fund in the amount we designate and require, which will not exceed $2,000 per calendar month, to conduct advertising, to promote and enhance the image, brand identity, and patronage and promotional activities for Fiesta Insurance Franchised Businesses. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 4.5.1 and 13.1.1). Franchisor or affiliate owned Fiesta Insurance businesses shall contribute to the Marketing Fund on the same basis as Fiesta franchisees. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 13.3).

We established a national Digital Marketing Fund in 2016. As of June 2021, we have renamed the Digital Marketing Fund to the Platform Access Fund. The Platform Access Fund is used to manage and enhance the image, brand identity and patronage of our Franchised Businesses using third-party platforms and other on-line digital technologies. You will make a Monthly Platform Access Fund Contribution each calendar month in an amount we designate and require, which is currently $300 per calendar month, and which will not exceed $500 per calendar month. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 4.5.4 and 13.1.4).

If you are a new Fiesta franchisee, you will be entitled to a one-time grace period for the six months from the opening date of your Franchised Business to make your Monthly Marketing Contribution. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 4.5.2 and 13.1.2). The grace period for making the Monthly Marketing Fund Contributions will not be available to existing Fiesta franchisees who sign renewal Franchise Agreements or otherwise renew their Franchise Agreements or to buyers of Franchised Businesses from existing Fiesta franchisees. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 4.5.3 and 13.1.3). The grace period for making the Monthly Marketing Fund Contribution will not apply to the Platform Access Fund Contribution. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.1.3 and 13.1.4).

We will administer the Marketing Fund and the Platform Access Fund (collectively, the "Marketing Funds") All expenditures of the Marketing Funds will be at our sole discretion. We may spend in any calendar year more or less than the total Monthly Marketing Contributions and the Platform Access Fund Contributions to the Marketing Funds in that year, and any excess may be accumulated for use during subsequent years. We may borrow from ourselves or other lenders on behalf of the Marketing Funds to cover deficits of the Marketing Funds or cause the Marketing Funds to invest any surplus for future use by the Marketing Funds. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.1.5).

The Marketing Funds will be used to meet the costs of conducting regional and/or national advertising and promotional activities (including the cost of advertising campaigns, test marketing, marketing surveys, public relations activities and marketing materials) which we deem beneficial to the Fiesta System. We are authorized to charge the Marketing Funds fees at reasonable market rates for advertising, marketing or promotional services we actually provide in lieu of engaging third party agencies to provide these services. We may employ individuals, consultants or advertising or other agencies, including consultants or agencies owned by, operated by or affiliated with us, to provide services for the Marketing Funds. The Marketing Funds may be used to defray direct expenses of our employees related to the operation of the Marketing Funds, to pay for attorneys' fees and other costs related to the defense of claims against the Marketing Funds or against us relating to the Marketing Fund, and to pay costs with respect to collecting amounts due to the Marketing Funds. Among other things, the Marketing Funds may be used for Web Site development/operation and to pay portal, Internet, Intranet, URL, 800 or similar number, and other charges, fees and/or expenses. A brief statement regarding the availability of Fiesta Insurance franchises may be included in advertising and other items produced using the Marketing Funds, which will not otherwise be used to solicit or to sell, Fiesta Insurance franchises to prospective franchisees. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.1.4).

We retain sole discretion over all advertising, marketing and public relations programs and activities financed by the Marketing Funds, including the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used and the geographic market, media placement and allocation. The Marketing Funds may be used to pay the costs of preparing and producing associated materials and programs as we determine, including video, audio and written advertising materials employing advertising agencies, sponsorship of sporting, charitable or similar events, administering regional and multi-regional advertising programs including purchasing direct mail and other media advertising, and employing advertising agencies to assist with marketing efforts, and supporting public relations, market research and other advertising, promotional and marketing activities. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.1.5). The Monthly Marketing Contributions are intended to maximize general public recognition of and the acceptance of the Fiesta Insurance brand for the benefit of the Fiesta System as a whole. Consequently, we undertake no obligation, in administering the Marketing Funds, to make expenditures for any Fiesta Insurance franchisee that are equivalent or proportionate to that franchisee's Monthly Marketing Contribution, or to ensure that any particular Fiesta Insurance franchise benefits directly or pro rata from advertising or promotion conducted with the Monthly Marketing Contributions. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.2.2). There are no Marketing Councils composed of franchisees, although we reserve the right to form them in the future.

We will prepare an annual report of the Marketing Funds, at the expense of the Marketing Funds, and send each Fiesta Insurance franchisee a copy of the annual report within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year upon request. The report will not be separately audited but will be examined as part of the overall annual audit of our books. (Franchise Agreement, Section 13.1.7).

The regional Marketing Fund for California made the following expenditures during the fiscal year ended April 30, 2023:

Category	Percentage of Expenditures
Administrative	1%
Production	25%

Category	Percentage of Expenditures
Media Placement	68%
Applied to Platform Access Fund (see below)	6%

The Platform Access Fund made the following expenditures during the fiscal year ended April 30, 2023:

Production	0%
TOTAL:	100%

As of April 30, 2023, the percentage of total advertising expenditures that were primarily used on solicitation of new franchisees was 0%. The Area Development Agreement does not impose any obligation to spend any monies on advertising in addition to any money you may have to spend under the Franchise Agreement.

As noted above, as of June 2021, we have renamed the Digital Marketing Fund to the Platform Access Fund.

Use of Electronic Media and the Internet

You are not permitted to advertise over the Internet, or through any electronic medium, without our prior written consent (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.7). You are not permitted to use the Proprietary Marks as part of an Internet domain name or e-mail address (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.2, 9.7 and 10.1). You may not sell or distribute products through any alternative channel of distribution, including the Internet (Franchise Agreement, Sections 1.2 and 9.7).

We have the sole right to market on the Internet and use the Proprietary Marks on the Internet, including all use of websites, domain names, URLs, directory addresses, email addresses, metatags, linking, advertising, cobranding and other arrangements, and in all other forms of electronic media. You may not separately register any domain name or any portion of a domain name containing the Proprietary Marks or participate or market on any website or other form of electronic media (including social technology, social media and social networking platforms) using the Proprietary Marks unless you first obtain written approval from us. Your general conduct on the Internet or other forms of electronic media, including your use of the Proprietary Marks or any advertising, is subject to the terms and conditions of the Franchise Agreement and any other rules, requirements or policies that we may periodically identify.

Opening of the Franchised Business

We anticipate that you will open the Franchised Business between 1 to 6 months after you sign a Franchise Agreement. The key factor that may affect this time period is the acquisition of an appropriate high visibility site for the Franchised Business and other factors including equipment installation, sign installation, and licensing requirements. You must open for business within 5 days after we give notice to you that the Franchised Business is ready for opening, but no later than 6 months from the date you sign the Franchise Agreement. We may withhold our consent to the opening of the Franchised Business if you are not an active insurance agent fully and currently licensed to sell insurance under applicable law on the proposed opening date of the Franchised Business. If you do not open the Franchised Business within 6 months of the date you sign the Franchise Agreement, or as otherwise agreed in writing by us, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement and retain your Initial Franchise fee. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.4). If we make a loan to you for your purchase of the franchise for the Franchised Business, the remodeling of the Franchised Location, the transfer of any interest in the franchise or the Franchise Agreement, or any other purpose, you must open (or re-open, as the case may be), the Franchised Business for business within 60 days from the loan origination date. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.1.5). If you sign an Area Development Agreement, you must open all 3 Franchised Businesses under the Development Agreement within 18 months after you sign the Development Agreement. (Area Development Agreement, Section 2.1.1).

Training Programs

During the months before and after you are open for business, we will provide approximately 75 to 100 hours of training and set-up assistance. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.1). You, or, if you are a corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, a principal of yours who is acceptable to us and who owns at least a 50% equity interest in the corporation, partnership or limited liability company, must attend and successfully complete to our satisfaction, our initial training program, including the review of the sales support guide that we will provide to you at least one week before you open your Franchised Business. Training in the use of advice forms, request forms, mail flow, workflow, deposits, and money handling is required for all franchise agent personnel and we encourage all personnel to read the sales support guide. We do not charge for the initial training or training materials; however, you may purchase additional training services and materials for you and your staff from us. Generally, all training will occur at our office or your office. We will not provide the initial training program if (i) you or any affiliate of yours (or an owner of either) currently owns or operates a Fiesta Insurance Franchised Business as of the date you sign your Franchise Agreement; or (ii) you sign your Franchise Agreement as a renewal Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.1). Training will be conducted as often as necessary to ensure that franchisees complete training before their Franchised Business opens. The following subjects will be discussed during training.

We do not currently charge an additional fee for providing these programs, but may do so in the future. You must pay for all expenses incurred by you and your supervisory or managerial employees to attend these additional training programs including the costs of transportation, lodging, meals, training materials and wages. We may, in our sole discretion, select the time and location of all additional training programs. (Franchise Agreement, Section 6.3).

If we determine it is necessary, we may provide you with remedial training or assistance programs, subject to the availability of our personnel. We do not charge an additional fee for providing this remedial training. You must pay for any and all other expenses incurred in connection with sending your supervisory or managerial employees to these remedial training programs, including the costs of transportation, lodging, meals, training materials and any wages. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.5).

The fees may be reduced by insurance carrier financial support. You must pay all expenses incurred by you and your supervisory or managerial employees to attend franchisee conventions, including the costs of transportation, lodging, meals, materials and wages. We may, in our sole discretion, select the time and location of all franchisee conventions. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.17).

Experience of Instructors

Carlos Gil, our Vice President of Sales, Jimmy Bryant, our Vice President of Agency Operations, Rhonette Jones, our Senior Director of Training, Arnold Dominguez, our National Training Director, and Diane Chaidez, our Vice President of Operations, are responsible for all aspects of training. Arnold Dominguez, our National Training Manager, is responsible for the tax services aspect of training. The Initial Training Program will be conducted by members of the training staff who have 37 or more years of work experience in the insurance services industry, 14 or more years of experience in the tax services industry, and at least 14 years' experience in the curriculum being taught. Our primary source of instructional materials is contained in the Operations Manual and the sales support guide.

Site Selection

You must select the site for your Franchised Business, but the site must be approved by us. If we have not designated the street address of your Franchised Location in your Franchise Agreement when you sign your Franchise Agreement, you must identify and obtain our prior written approval of the site of your Franchised Location before entering into a lease for the Franchised Location. You must submit the site you select, and we will have 10 business days to approve your site for the Franchised Business and to notify you of our approval or disapproval in writing. Our failure to respond within 10 business days will signify our disapproval of the site. In considering approval/disapproval of a site, we may consider that the site is in an area of high visibility and commercial foot traffic and preferably adjacent to a chain grocery store, the general location, neighborhood, size of community, the quality of the building, access, adequate parking, the lease terms and relative proximity to other franchisees. You must receive the opening notice from us and do everything necessary to open for business within 6 months from the date you sign the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.1.2). If you are not able to begin operation of the Franchised Business within 6 months of the date you sign the Franchise Agreement, we may terminate the Franchise Agreement and retain your Initial Franchise Fee. (Franchise Agreement, Sections 5.1.2 and 5.4). You may not operate your Franchised Business from your home. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.1.2).

Your lease or sublease for your Franchised Location must be satisfactory to us and must provide us with the right to take an assignment and physical possession of the Franchised Location without the lessor's consent or any additional consideration if you default (and/or there is a termination, cancellation, rescission or expiration of your rights) under the lease or sublease, your Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between us. You must take whatever actions are necessary to secure this assignment and must sign and have your landlord sign the Collateral Assignment of Lease in the form attached to the Franchise Agreement as Exhibit F. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.2).

Area Development Agreement

Under the Area Development Agreement, we grant you the right to develop and operate a specified number of Franchised Businesses in a specified Development Area, subject to our approval. You must locate the sites for your Franchised Businesses, and we must approve the sites. Our then-current standards for approving sites and determining Development Areas will apply. If we accept a proposed site, we will notify you of our acceptance of the site, subject to your successful negotiation of a final lease and other reasonable conditions we may impose. Promptly following our acceptance of the site, you must negotiate a lease for the site and submit a copy to us. You must also provide a fully signed copy of the lease promptly after signing. You must open all 3 Franchised Businesses under the Development Agreement within 18 months after you sign the Development Agreement. (Area Development Agreement, Sections 2.4 and 6.1).

Design Standards

All matters related in any way to your site are your sole responsibility. You are responsible for obtaining any architectural and engineering services required for your facility and for ensuring its compliance with local law. Neither we, nor any other person or company associated with us will have any liability for any site-related matter. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.1.4). You must comply with any standards, specifications and other requirements (the "Design Standards") that we provide to you for design, decoration, layout, equipment, furniture, fixtures, signs and other items for the Franchised Business. Any changes from plans provided by us must be submitted to us for our approval and consent, which we may provide in our business judgment. Your compliance with the Design Standards does not release you from your obligations to ensure that the Franchised Business is designed, constructed and operated in compliance with all local, state, and federal laws. You must post, hang, display and/or provide to customers information supplied or required by us that provides the customer with information about the Fiesta System to raise their awareness of the brand and the Fiesta System. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5.3).

Computer Hardware and Software

You must purchase or lease, and thereafter maintain in strict conformity with the standards and specifications that we may prescribe in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing, such computer hardware and software, required dedicated telephone and power lines, modem(s), printer(s), and other computer-related accessories or peripheral equipment for record keeping functions. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.1). We will provide you with the tax return preparation software that we make available to our franchisees and that you are to use in preparing individual federal and state tax returns for an annual fee, which is currently $500. We may increase the fee to no more than $1,500 upon 30 days written notice to you. (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.14). Otherwise, we have no obligation to provide on-going maintenance, repairs, upgrades and updates to your computer system,

We have the right to independently access and retrieve data and information from your computer system as we, in our sole and exclusive discretion, deem necessary or desirable. You acknowledge that because of the interconnection of computer systems and the necessity that such systems be compatible with each other, you will strictly comply with our standards and specifications for all items associated with your computer system and must otherwise operate your computer system in accordance with our standards and specifications. In addition, to ensure full operational efficiency and optimum communication capability between and among computer systems installed by you, us and other franchisees, you must, at your expense, keep your computer system in good maintenance and repair and promptly install such additions, changes, modifications, substitutions and/or replacements to your computer hardware, software, telephone and power lines, and other computer-related facilities, as we direct. (Franchise Agreement, Section 9.1). There are no contractual limitations on our right to require these upgrades and updates to your computer system.

The estimated annual cost of maintenance, repairs and upgrades is about $200.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Franchisees

Except for the rights we retain which are set forth in sub-paragraphs (a) – (e) below, we will grant you an exclusive territory from which you will operate your Franchised Business (the “Protected Area”). Your Protected Area will be designated on Exhibit A to your Franchise Agreement. Your Protected Area will be determined by us and you will be provided with the specific boundaries of the Protected Area before you sign your Franchise Agreement. We will insert a description of your Protected Area on Exhibit A to your Franchise Agreement or will attach a map or description of your Protected Area to your Franchise Agreement. We will make every effort to ensure that your Protected Area has a minimum population of 20,000 persons or encompasses an area of 5 square miles. Factors we use to determine your Protected Area are based on population density, zip code maps or other information that may become available in the future to determine mileage radius. You do not have any options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional Franchised Businesses within contiguous territories.

As long as you are in good standing under your Franchise Agreement, the Operations Manual, and all other agreements with us and our affiliates, we will not own or operate, or sell or issue a franchise to a third party to own or operate a Franchised Business within your Protected Area. You may not, without our prior written consent, solicit the sale of insurance services or retail tax return preparation and electronic tax return filing services outside of the Protected Area; however, you may sell insurance services and retail tax return preparation and electronic tax return filing services to customers to be located outside of the Protected Area so long as these sales do not result from any direct solicitation activities or any other channels of distribution by you. You do not have the right to sublicense, sublease, subcontract or enter into any management agreement with any party to operate the Franchised Business or to use the Fiesta System.

We retain for ourselves and our affiliates the rights:

(a) To own, acquire, establish, and/or operate, and to grant licenses and franchises to others to establish, own and operate, Fiesta businesses, at any location outside of the Protected Area (regardless of its proximity to the Protected Area).

(b) To own, acquire, establish and/or operate, and to grant license and franchises to others to establish, own and operate, businesses under other proprietary marks or other systems, whether such businesses are the same, similar, or different from the Franchised Business, at any location, whether inside or outside the Protected Area, and to purchase, merge, acquire or affiliate with any existing competitive or non-competitive franchise network, chain or any other business at any location, whether inside or outside of the Protected Area.

(c) To offer and sell Fiesta (or any other brand) products and services (whether or not competitive) to customers located anywhere (including within the Protected Area) using any channel of distribution located anywhere, subject to certain conditions in relation to specific opportunities for Special

Accounts. We may have the opportunity to enter into arrangements to provide services to corporations, entities, local school districts, social services or other government and non-government agencies and institutions. Such opportunities will be referred to as "Special Accounts". You must participate with the terms of Special Account arrangements as we may specify. In addition, you must comply with all Fiesta System standards regarding inter-franchise sales and system-wide co-operation. For example, we may develop a Fiesta System standard that would allow customers of any Franchised Business to buy a gift card that could be redeemed at any Fiesta Franchised Business.

(d) To market on the Internet and use the Proprietary Marks on the Internet, including the use of websites, domain names, URLs, directory addresses, email addresses, metatags, linking, advertising, co-branding and other arrangements, and in all other forms of electronic media.

(e) To produce, license, distribute and market Fiesta branded items through any outlet, whether inside or outside of the Protected Area (regardless of its proximity to the Franchised Location), and through any distribution channel, including by means of the Internet mail order catalogs, direct mail advertising and other distribution methods.

Although we retain the right to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark that sells similar insurance and/or tax services, we do not currently operate or franchise a similar business under a different trademark or have any plans to do so. We do not currently maintain or plan to maintain separate offices and/or training facilities for any competing or similar business.

We are not required to pay you any compensation if we exercise any of these rights inside your Protected Area.

Relocation of Franchised Business

If you desire to relocate the Franchised Business, you must obtain our prior written consent to the new location which must be located within the Protected Area (unless we waive this requirement). We may grant, condition or withhold our consent as we believe appropriate and will do so if you are not in good standing under your Franchise Agreement. You must pay all expenses to relocate the Franchised Business. You must also relocate the Franchised Business if the location of the Franchised Business is damaged, condemned or becomes unusable, or if, in our mutual judgment, there is a change in the character of the location of the Franchised Business which we believe will be detrimental to your business potential. If we consent to the relocation of the Franchised Business, you must sign a General Release in substantially the form of Exhibit I to the Franchise Agreement.

Protected Area Rights Dependent on Good Standing.

If you are not in good standing under your Franchise Agreement, we may reduce, eliminate or otherwise modify your territorial rights. You are in "good standing" if (i) you (and each of your owners and affiliates) is not in default of any obligation owed to us and/or any of our affiliates or associates, whether arising under the Franchise our affiliates or associates, the Operations Manual or other Fiesta System requirements; and (ii) you have on the date you sign the Franchise Agreement, or obtain within 6 months from the date you sign the Franchise Agreement and maintain throughout the term of the Franchise Agreement all insurance and other licenses required by applicable law for the operation of the Franchised Business. You will not be in good standing if you have been in default of any obligation owed to us and/or any of our affiliates or associates, whether arising under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement between you (and each of your owners and affiliates) and us and any of our affiliates or associates, the Operations Manual or other Fiesta System requirements and such defaults are incurable by nature and/or part of a series of repeated defaults as defined in the Franchise Agreement. As long as you are in good standing, there are no other circumstances that permit us to modify your territorial rights. Continuation of your territorial rights does not depend on achieving a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other contingency, except as described above.

You must devote your full time, attention and best efforts to the development and operation of the Franchised Business and must only permit the Franchised Business to be operated and managed in accordance with the terms of the Franchise Agreement.

Area Development Agreement

Under the Area Development Agreement, we grant you the non-exclusive right to develop and operate 3 Franchised Businesses at sites in a specified Development Area, subject to our approval. We will determine or approve the location of each Franchised Business and its Protected Area at the time each Franchise Agreement is signed, and our then-current standards for approving sites and determining Protected Areas will apply. The Development Area may be one or more cities, counties, states or some other defined area.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

We retain for ourselves and our affiliates the rights:

(a) To own, acquire, establish, and/or operate, and to grant licenses and franchises to others to establish, own and operate, a Fiesta Franchised Business, at any location, whether inside or outside of the Development Area (regardless of its proximity to the Development Area).

(b) To own, acquire, establish and/or operate, and to grant licenses and franchises to others to establish, own and operate, businesses under other proprietary marks or other systems, whether such businesses are the same, similar, or different from the Franchised Businesses, at any location, whether inside or outside the Development Area, and to purchase, merge, acquire or affiliate with any existing competitive or non-competitive franchise network, chain or any other business at any location, whether inside or outside of the Development Area.

(c) To offer and sell Fiesta (or any other brand) products and services (whether or not competitive) to customers located anywhere (including within the Development Area) using any channel of distribution, subject to specific opportunities for Special Accounts.

(d) To market on the Internet and use the Proprietary Marks on the Internet, including the use of websites, domain names, URLs, directory addresses, email addresses, metatags, linking, advertising, co-branding and other arrangements, and in all other forms of electronic media.

(e) To produce, license, distribute and market Fiesta branded items through any outlet, whether inside or outside of the Development Area (regardless of its proximity to the Development Area), and through any distribution channel, including by means of the Internet mail order catalogs, direct mail advertising and other distribution methods.

If you fail to meet any of your obligations under the Area Development Agreement, including the development obligations, or commit a material breach of any Franchise Agreement under the Area Development Agreement, or a material breach of any other agreement between you and us, we may terminate your right to develop, open and operate new Franchised Businesses in the Development Area, but the termination of the right to develop your Development Area will not terminate any rights granted under any Franchise Agreement then in effect between you and us, absent a breach of the Franchise Agreement itself. There are no other circumstances that permit us to modify your territorial rights under the Area Development Agreement. After the expiration of the term of your Area Development Agreement, we may own, operate, franchise or license others to operate additional Fiesta Franchised Businesses anywhere, without restriction, including in your Development Area, subject to the rights granted to you in the Protected Area established under any then-existing Franchise Agreement. If we determine that further development of your Development Area is desirable after the term of your agreement, we will notify you in writing within 180 days before the expiration of your Area Development Agreement, and you will have a prior right to sign a new Area Development Agreement and undertake additional development of your Development Area. If you believe that our proposed additional development schedule is not reasonable, we will agree to negotiate with you in good faith for 60 days to try to agree upon a mutually acceptable development schedule. If you do not exercise your right to sign a new Area Development Agreement, we may own, operate, franchise or license other to operate additional Franchised Businesses in your Development Area subject only to the Protected Area rights reserved to you in your individual Franchise Agreements.

Under the Area Development Agreement, the continuation of your territorial rights is dependent upon your compliance with your development and other obligations under the Area Development Agreement, as described above.

General

Our affiliate, LFA, is an insurance agency licensed to do business in the State of Texas, with locations throughout the State of Texas that operate under the La Familia Auto Insurance trademark. All La Familia Auto Insurance businesses are owned by LFA. La Familia Auto Insurance businesses may solicit and accept orders within your Protected Area if you are located in the State of Texas. We do not expect that there will be material conflicts between the two systems regarding territory, customers or franchisor support. LFA does not currently plan to franchise the La Familia Auto Insurance business, but reserves the right to do so in the future without your consent. LFA does not provide services to Fiesta franchisees.

Our affiliate, Bravo, is an approved insurance supplier, acting as an insurance intermediary for our franchisees. Bravo also has a direct to consumer division, which sells automobile insurance policies directly to consumers, under the Bravo trademark. Bravo may solicit and accept orders for automobile insurance from consumers within your Protected Area. We do not expect that there will be material conflicts between the two systems regarding territory, customers or franchisor support, but such conflicts may occur. Bravo does not currently plan to franchise its automobile insurance business, but reserves the right to do so in the future, both within and outside of your Protected Area, without prior notice or your consent.

We have not established other franchises or company-owned outlets or another distribution channel selling or leasing similar products or services under a different trademark. We describe earlier in this Item 12 what we may do anywhere and at any time.

Except for any other franchise program that we may develop in the future, neither we nor any parent or affiliate, other than LFA and Bravo, has established, or presently intends to establish, other franchised or company-owned facilities which provide similar products or services under a different trade name or trademark, but we reserve the right to do so in the future, without first obtaining your consent.

We also claim common law copyright protection for our printed literature and our Operations Manual.

Operations Manual

You must operate your Franchised Business in the manner specified in the Operations Manual. We may revise the Operations Manual, and you must comply with each new or changed standard.

We will lend you a copy of the Operations Manual after you complete our initial training program. You must treat the Operations Manual and the information contained in it, as confidential. You cannot copy these materials or show them to any unauthorized person. The Operations Manual will remain our sole property.

Confidential Information

You must not, during or after the term of the Franchise Agreement, divulge or use for the benefit of anyone else any confidential information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the Fiesta System and the methods of operation of your Franchised Business. You may divulge confidential information only to those supervisory or managerial employees and independent contractors who must have access to it to operate your Franchised Business. Any and all information and other data, which we designate as confidential, will be deemed confidential for purposes of the Franchise Agreement.

At our request, you must require your manager and any supervisory or managerial employees and independent contractors having access to any confidential information to sign covenants that they will maintain the confidentiality of information they receive during their employment at your Franchised Business. These covenants must be in a form we find satisfactory, and specifically identify us as a third party beneficiary of these covenants with the independent right to enforce them.

All "Fiesta Data" is and will remain our sole property. "Fiesta Data" includes, without limitation, any and all information by, from, or about a client you acquire from your business relationship with a client. You must sign the instruments we request to confirm the assignments and transfers to us.

Data Security Safeguards.

You must exert your best efforts to protect your clients and the Franchised Business against a Cyber-Event. If a Cyber Event occurs, regardless of whether the Cyber Event affects only your Franchised Business, we reserve the right, but not the obligation, to perform and/or control and/or cause our third-party consultants to perform and/or control all aspects of the response to the Cyber Event including, without limitation, the investigation, containment and resolution of the Cyber Event and all communications within the Fiesta franchise system and with vendors and suppliers, governmental authorities and the general public. Our control of the response to a Cyber Event may potentially affect or interrupt operations of your Franchised Business, but will not create any liability for us or additional rights for you, entitle you to damages or relieve you of your indemnification obligations under your Franchise Agreement. You must reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs and expenses we incur to respond to and remedy any Cyber Event caused solely by you or your Franchised Business. You must at all times be compliant with applicable law regarding data privacy, data security and security breaches; and our information security policies and guidelines, all as may be adopted and/or amended from time to time (collectively, "Data Security Safeguards"). You must obtain advice from your own legal and security consultants to ensure that you operate the Franchised Business at all times in full compliance with the Data Security Safeguards. We are not required to approve any co-branding chain or arrangement except in our discretion, and only if we have recognized that co-branding chain as an approved co-brand for operation within Fiesta Franchised Businesses. "Co-branding" includes the operation of an independent business, product line or operating system owned or licensed by another entity (not us) that is featured or incorporated within the Franchised Business or is adjacent to the Franchised Business and operated in a manner which is likely to cause the public to perceive it to be related to the Franchised Business licensed and franchised under the Franchise Agreement.

Improvements

All ideas, concepts, techniques or materials relating to the Franchised Business created by you while you are a Fiesta franchisee, whether or not protectable intellectual property (an "Improvement"), must be promptly disclosed to us and will become our exclusive property and a part of the Fiesta System as a work made for hire for us without compensation to you.

ITEM 15 OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

You must devote your full time and attention to the operation of your Franchised Business. Unless we approve otherwise, only you may be the principal operator of the Franchised Business for your first location. Your Franchised Business must be managed at all times by you, or one full-time supervisory or managerial employee, who has completed the minimum level of 80 hours of training required of supervisory or managerial employees. You are not required to grant an equity interest to any employee.

You and each shareholder, officer, director, general partner, manager and member of yours, if you are an entity, (and if you or any shareholder, officer, director, general partner, manager or member of yours is a married couple, both husband and wife) must sign the Franchise Agreement and a written guarantee in a form we prescribe, personally, irrevocably and unconditionally guaranteeing, jointly and severally, with all other guarantors, the full payment and performance of your obligations to us and to our affiliates. The Guarantee is attached as Exhibit C to the Franchise Agreement.

You must train all personnel employed at your Franchised Business in accordance with our then-current training and operations standards and you must maintain such standards of training, competence, cleanliness and demeanor as we require. You must ensure that only personnel performing managerial or supervisory functions have access to our confidential information, and all such personnel agree not to disclose, and do not disclose, any confidential information which may be revealed to them during the period of their employment and, upon our request, execute a confidentiality agreement, in a form prescribed by us. We will be deemed to be a third-party beneficiary under such confidentiality agreement.

All employees you hire or employ at your Franchised Business will be your employees and your employees alone, and will not, for any purpose, be deemed to be our employees or subject to our direct or indirect control, most particularly with respect to any mandated or other insurance coverage, taxes or contributions, or requirements regarding withholdings, levied or fixed by any governmental authority. You will file your own tax, regulatory and payroll reports, and be responsible for all employee benefits and workers' compensation insurance payments for your employees and operations. We will not have the power to hire or fire your employees. Our authority under the Franchise Agreement to train and approve your supervisory or managerial personnel for qualification to perform certain functions at your Franchised Business does not directly or indirectly vest us with the power to hire, fire or control any of your personnel. You and you alone will be solely responsible for all hiring and employment decisions and functions relating to your Franchised Business, including those related to hiring, firing, training, establishing remuneration, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, benefits, recordkeeping, supervision and discipline of employees, regardless of whether you have received advice from us on these subjects or not. Any guidance we may give you regarding employment policies should be considered merely examples. You will be responsible for establishing and implementing your own employment policies, and should do so in consultation with local legal counsel experienced in employment law.

ITEM 16 RESTRICTIONS ON WHAT THE FRANCHISEE MAY SELL

You do not have the right to develop new services for your Franchised Business without our consent. You must offer only those services that we specify in the manner we specify. You may only solicit the sale of insurance exclusively on our behalf, may only sell policies with insurance carriers we approve and may only use premium financing companies that we approve. We may change the types of authorized services, and there are no limits on our right to make changes. We have the exclusive right to develop new services to be offered for sale as Franchised Businesses. You cannot offer any product or service not previously approved by us in writing.

You may not use alternative channels of distribution or directly solicit sales outside your Protected Area, unless we consent in writing.

FIESTA INSURANCE FRANCHISE CORPORATION
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of _____, _____ (the "Effective Date"), by and between FIESTA INSURANCE FRANCHISE CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Franchisor"), and _____ ("Franchisee"), with reference to the following facts:

A. Franchisor has the perpetual license to use and sublicense the use of "FIESTA" trademarks, service marks, logos and commercial symbols and business methods and offers franchises for sale which sell, service and offer insurance policies, retail tax return preparation and tax filing services and other additional related services designated by Franchisor from time-to-time, to the public. These business methods encompass all aspects of developing, operating and marketing an insurance agency and retail tax return preparation and tax filing business and providing certain financial services to the public, specifications and procedures for operations, procedures for management control, training and assistance, specifications for equipment and fixtures, defined product offerings, Franchisor specified pricing, restrictions on ownership, advertising, public relations and promotional programs, the relationship between Franchisor and its franchisees, all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by Franchisor from time to time (collectively, the "Fiesta System").

B. The Fiesta System is identified by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including, but not limited, to the mark "Fiesta" and such other trade names, service marks, and trademarks as are now designated and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing for use in connection with the Fiesta System (the "Proprietary Marks") and certain copyrights, including, but not limited to, the Fiesta logo, Fiesta Max logo and Fiesta character and such other copyrights as are now designated and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing for use in connection with the Fiesta System (the "Copyrights").

C. Franchisee desires to obtain the right and privilege to operate one Fiesta insurance agency and retail tax return preparation and tax filing business (the "Franchised Business") at a site (the "Franchised Location") located in the "Protected Area" defined in Section 1.4 of this Agreement and wishes to enter into an agreement with Franchisor for that purpose and to receive the training and other assistance provided by Franchisor under the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES AGREE:

1. GRANT

1.1 Grant of Franchise. Franchisor hereby grants to Franchisee the non-exclusive right, and Franchisee undertakes the obligation, to use the Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights and the Fiesta System solely in connection with the continuous operation of the Franchised Business at the Franchised Location located in the Protected Area throughout the Initial Term. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor may designate additional related services to be provided by Franchisee at the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall not offer any products and services from the Franchised Location which are not designated by Franchisor as approved products and services without Franchisor's prior written consent. Franchisee shall not without Franchisor's prior written consent, solicit the sale of insurance or offer tax return preparation or tax filing services provided by the Franchised Business outside of the Protected Area; however, Franchisee may sell insurance and provide the tax return preparation and tax filing services from the Franchised Business to persons and entities located outside of the Protected Area so long as such sales do not result from any direct solicitation activities by Franchisee. Franchisee shall not have the right to sublicense, sublease, subcontract or enter into any management agreement with any party providing for the right to operate the Franchised Business or to use the Fiesta System. This Agreement confers no authority, express or implied, to accept, bind, or obligate Franchisor or any insurer represented by Franchisor, in any respect, whether as to risk being submitted for consideration or with respect to changes in the terms and conditions of any policy or binder offered through Franchisor, unless Franchisee is specifically authorized to do so in writing by Franchisor.

1.2 Use of Marks and Domain Names. To protect the Fiesta Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Fiesta System and the goodwill associated with the same, Franchisee shall use the Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Internet domain name www.FiestaInsurance.com, other Internet domain names, URLs, copyrights, toll-free telephone numbers and their mnemonics and other identifying marks constituting a part of the Fiesta System, now or in the future, only as authorized and directed by Franchisor and only in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to authorize or permit the use by Franchisee of the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Internet domain name www.FiestaInsurance.com, any other Internet domain names, URLs, toll-free telephone numbers, or any confusingly similar imitations of the same, at any location other than the Franchised Location, on the Internet or for any other purpose whatsoever. Franchisor shall use and permit Franchisee and other Fiesta Insurance franchisees to use the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights only in accordance with the Fiesta System and the standards and specifications attendant thereto which underlie the goodwill franchised with and symbolized by the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights.

1.3 Franchised Location. To protect the Fiesta Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Fiesta System and the goodwill associated with the same, Franchisee shall operate the Franchised Business only at the address listed on Exhibit A attached to this Agreement (the "Franchised Location"). Franchisee shall select the Franchised Location and operate the Franchised Business at the Franchised Location in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 below. Franchisee shall be solely responsible for all expenses associated with the operation of the Franchised Business at the Franchised Location, including, but not limited to rent, payroll, taxes, office supplies, advertising, marketing, claims, and the defense of any lawsuits.

1.4 Protected Area. During the Term, and provided that Franchisee is not in default of this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor, its affiliates, and Franchisee, Franchisor shall not own, operate, sell, or issue a franchise for any other Fiesta business within an area designated on Exhibit B attached to this Agreement (the "Protected Area"). Except as provided in this Section 1.4, Franchisee shall have no territorial or protective rights, and Franchisor shall have the right to place a Fiesta business anywhere it desires. In addition, Franchisor and its affiliates retain the right, among others, in any manner and on any terms and conditions that Franchisor deems advisable, and without granting Franchisee any rights therein:

(a) To own, acquire, establish, and/or operate, and to grant licenses and franchises to others to establish, own and operate, Fiesta businesses, at any location outside of the Protected Area (regardless of its proximity to the Protected Area).

(b) To own, acquire, establish and/or operate, and to grant licenses and franchises to others to establish, own and operate, businesses under other proprietary marks or other systems, whether such businesses are the same, similar, or different from the Franchised Business, at any location, whether inside or outside the Protected Area, and to purchase, merge, acquire or affiliate with any existing competitive or non-competitive franchise network, chain or any other business at any location, whether inside or outside of the Protected Area.

(c) To offer and sell Fiesta (or any other brand) products and services (whether or not competitive) to customers located anywhere (including within the Protected Area) using any channel of distribution located anywhere, subject to certain conditions in relation to specific opportunities for Special Accounts as described below.

(d) To market on the Internet and use the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights on the Internet, including the use of websites, domain names, URLs, directory addresses, email addresses, metatags, linking, advertising, co-branding and other arrangements, and in all other forms of electronic media.

(e) To produce, license, distribute and market Fiesta branded items through any outlet, whether inside or outside of the Protected Area (regardless of its proximity to the Franchised Location), and through any distribution channel, including by means of the Internet mail order catalogs, direct mail advertising and other distribution methods.

1.5 Modification to Fiesta System and Operations Manual. Franchisee acknowledges that the Fiesta System, Franchisor's confidential Operations Manual or any other manual loaned to Franchisee by Franchisor pursuant to Section 3.2 of this Agreement (collectively, the "Operations Manual"), and the services offered by the Franchised Business (such as, but not limited to, the addition, deletion, and modification of operating procedures and services) may be modified from time to time by Franchisor. Franchisor may, from time to time in its sole discretion, revise the Operations Manual to incorporate Fiesta System changes. Franchisor shall notify Franchisee of any such Fiesta System changes in writing. Franchisee shall implement any Fiesta System changes upon receipt of notice thereof from Franchisor, and shall complete their implementation within such time as Franchisor may reasonably specify. Franchisee shall not implement any modification to the Fiesta System without the prior written consent of Franchisor. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor of any proposed modification and shall provide Franchisor with such information as Franchisor requests regarding such modification. Franchisor shall have the right to incorporate the modification into the Fiesta System without compensation to Franchisee.

1.6 Protected Area Rights Dependent on Good Standing. If Franchisee is not in Good Standing, Franchisor may reduce, eliminate or otherwise modify the Protected Area. Franchisee is in "Good Standing" if (i) Franchisee (and each of Franchisee's owners and affiliates) is not in default of any obligation owed to Franchisor and/or any of Franchisor's affiliates or associates, whether arising under this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee (and each of Franchisee's owners and affiliates) and Franchisor and any of Franchisor's affiliates or associates, the Operations Manual or other System requirements; and (ii) Franchisee has on the Effective Date, or obtains within six (6) months from the Effective Date and maintains throughout the Term all insurance and other licenses required by applicable law for the operation of the Franchised Business. Further, Franchisee shall not be in Good Standing if Franchisee has been in default of any obligation owed to Franchisor and/or any of Franchisor's affiliates or associates, whether arising under this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee (and each of Franchisee's owners and affiliates) and Franchisor and any of Franchisor's affiliates or associates, the Operations Manual or other System requirements and such defaults are incurable by nature and/or part of a series of repeated defaults as defined in this Agreement

2. INITIAL AND RENEWAL TERMS

2.1 Initial and Renewal Terms. The initial term of this Agreement (the "Initial Term"), except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, shall commence upon its execution by Franchisor, and shall automatically expire five (5) years from the date Franchisee commences operations of the Franchised Business, unless sooner terminated under the terms of this Agreement. Upon the expiration of the Initial Term, Franchisee shall have the right (the "Renewal Right") to enter into a new franchise agreement in the form then generally being offered to prospective Fiesta franchisees (the "Renewal Franchise Agreement") for a five (5) year period (the "Renewal Term"), which Renewal Franchise Agreement shall likewise grant Franchisee the right to enter into one additional franchise agreement in the form then generally being offered to prospective Fiesta franchisees (the "Extension Franchise Agreement") for a five (5) year period (the "Extension Term"). "Term" means the Initial Term, the Renewal Term and the Extension Term of this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that the Commissions and other fees payable to Franchisor during the Renewal Term and Extension Term shall be at the rates then applicable to new franchisees. The term of the Renewal Franchise Agreement and Extension Franchise Agreement, as applicable, shall commence upon the date of the expiration of the Initial Term or the Renewal Term, as applicable; provided, however, that Franchisee comply with each of the conditions for renewal described in Sections 2.2 through 2.4 of this Agreement.

2.2 Conditions for Renewal. Franchisee's Renewal Right is conditioned upon Franchisee's fulfillment of all of the following conditions precedent:

2.2.1 At the time Franchisee delivers its Renewal Notice to Franchisor and at all times thereafter until the commencement of the Renewal Term, Franchisee shall not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, or its affiliates, or any standards set forth in the Operations Manual, and Franchisee shall have substantially complied with all the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Operations Manual and any other agreements during the Term.

2.2.2 Franchisee shall not have committed three (3) or more material defaults of Articles 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 or 17 during any twelve (12) month period during the Term for which Franchisor shall have delivered notices of default, whether or not such defaults were cured.

2.2.3 Franchisee shall have in all material respects maintained its status as a Fiesta franchisee in Good Standing throughout the Term and is in Good Standing on the commencement date of the Renewal Term and Extension Term.

2.2.4 Franchisee shall, at Franchisor's option, execute Franchisor's then-current form of Franchise Agreement and any addenda thereto, for the Renewal Term, which agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects, and the terms of which may differ materially and be less advantageous to Franchisee than the terms of this Agreement.

2.2.5 Franchisee shall satisfy Franchisor's then-current training requirements.

2.2.6 Franchisee shall execute a General Release, in substantially the form of Exhibit I attached to this Agreement.

2.2.7 Franchisee shall pay Franchisor a fee in the sum of $15,000 (the "Renewal Fee") for the right to renew the Term. The Renewal Fee shall be paid in equal monthly installments due on the tenth (10th) day of each month during the Renewal Term. If the Renewal Franchise Agreement is terminated prior to the expiration of the Renewal Term, the unpaid balance of the Renewal Fee shall become all due and payable to Franchisor on the termination date of the Renewal Franchise Agreement.

2.3 Form and Manner of Renewal and Extension. The Renewal Right shall be exercised, if at all, strictly in the following manner:

2.3.1 Between eight (8) months and fourteen (14) months before the expiration of the Term, Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing (the "Renewal Notice") that it intends to exercise its Renewal Right and no sooner than immediately after the expiration of any waiting period(s) by applicable law and no more than thirty (30) days after Franchisee receives Franchisor's Disclosure Document, if applicable, and execution copies of the Renewal Franchise Agreement, Franchisee shall execute the copies of the Renewal Franchise Agreement and return them to Franchisor.

2.3.2 If Franchisee shall have exercised its Renewal Right in accordance with Section 2.3.1 and satisfied all of the conditions contained in Section 2.2, Franchisor shall execute the Renewal Franchise Agreement executed by Franchisee and at or prior to the expiration of the Term deliver one fully executed copy thereof to Franchisee.

2.3.3 If Franchisee fails to perform any of the acts, or deliver any of the notices required under Sections 2.2 or 2.3 in a timely fashion, such failure shall be deemed an election by Franchisee not to exercise its Renewal Right and shall automatically cause the Renewal Right to lapse and expire.

2.4 Renewal Pending Registration. If Franchisor is not offering new franchises, is in the process of revising, amending or renewing Franchisor's form of Franchise Agreement or Franchise Disclosure Document or is not lawfully able to offer Franchisee Franchisor's then-current form of Franchise Agreement at the time Franchisee exercises an option to extend the Term, Franchisor may offer to renew Franchisee's existing Franchise Agreement upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement for the Renewal Term of the franchise, or may offer to renew the Term on a week-to-week basis following the expiration of the Term for as long as Franchisor deems necessary or appropriate so that Franchisor may lawfully offer Franchisee Franchisor's then-current form of Franchise Agreement.

2.5 Month-to-Month Agreement. If Franchisee does not sign Franchisor's then-current Franchise Agreement prior to the expiration date and Franchisee continues to accept the benefits of this Agreement after it expires, then at Franchisor's option, this Agreement may be treated either as (i) expired as of the expiration date with Franchisee then operating without a license to do so and in violation of Franchisor's rights; or (ii) continued on a month-to-month basis ("Month-to-Month Agreement") until sooner terminated as provided in this Agreement or until one party provides the other with written notice of such party's intent to terminate the Month-to-Month Agreement, in which case the Month-to-Month Agreement will terminate thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice to terminate the Month-to-Month Agreement, or such longer notice period as is required by applicable law. Franchisee shall provide Franchisor all information required by Franchisor, as determined by Franchisor in Franchisor's sole determination, necessary for Franchisor to evaluate the Franchised Location. Franchisor shall have ten (10) business days to review Franchisee's written site proposal for the Franchised Location and notify Franchisee of its approval or disapproval in writing. Franchisor's failure to respond within ten (10) business days shall signify Franchisor's disapproval of the site. Franchisor shall not unreasonably withhold Franchisor's approval of a proposed site for the Franchised Location.

5.1.2 Franchisee must have a site for the Franchised Location approved by Franchisor, receive the opening notice from Franchisor described in Section 5.4 below, and open Franchisee's Franchised Business for business within six (6) months from the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in Section 5.1.5 or unless otherwise agreed in writing by Franchisor. Franchisee understands that the site for the Franchised Location must be in an area of high visibility and commercial foot traffic and preferably adjacent to a chain grocery store. Franchisee may not operate the Franchised Business from Franchisee's home under any circumstances. Franchisee must not operate a Franchised Business, use any of the Proprietary Marks from or at any location, or make any commitments for a site until Franchisee has Franchisor's written site approval. Approval by Franchisor of any location is not a recommendation or endorsement of the site. Franchisor makes no representations or warranties as to the success of any site or as to any other matter of any kind relating to the site.

5.1.3 All matters related in any way to Franchisee's site are Franchisee's sole responsibility, regardless of any assistance Franchisor may choose to provide. Franchisee agrees not to make any claims against Franchisor and/or any of Franchisor's affiliates or associates with regard to such matters.

5.2 Lease of Franchised Location. Any lease or sublease for the Franchised Location must be satisfactory to Franchisor in its sole discretion and must, in any event, contain provisions set forth in Sections 5.2.1 through 5.2.6 below:

5.2.1 Obligate the lessor to provide Franchisor on request with sales and other operations information related to the Franchised Business.

5.2.2 Permit Franchisee to operate the Franchised Business in accordance with this Agreement and the Operations Manual.

5.2.4 Require the lessor to concurrently provide Franchisor with a copy of any written notices (whether of default or otherwise) to Franchisee under the lease and give Franchisor the right to cure any default if Franchisor so chooses.

5.2.5 Provide Franchisor with a right to take an assignment and physical possession of the Franchised Location without the lessor's consent or any additional consideration if Franchisee defaults (and/or there is a termination, cancellation, rescission or expiration of Franchisee's rights) under the lease, any sublease, this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor (or any affiliate). If Franchisor exercises this right, Franchisor shall not have any liability for any obligations incurred prior to Franchisor's occupancy. Franchisee shall take whatever actions are necessary to secure such assignment and shall, when Franchisee signs this Agreement, also sign and cause the lessor of the Franchise Location to sign the Collateral Assignment of Lease attached as Exhibit F. If Franchisee loses its lease rights to the Franchised Location in connection with any bankruptcy, the lessor shall, on Franchisor's request, enter into a new lease with Franchisor on essentially the same terms as the terminated lease.

5.2.6 Provide that the lessor consents to the use of the Proprietary Marks, Trade Dress and other aspects of the System, as modified from time to time, and give Franchisor the right to enter the Premises during normal business hours for purposes of inspection, to take steps to protect the Proprietary Marks and Trade Dress and/or prevent or cure any default.

5.2.7 Franchisee shall not execute a lease or sublease, or any modification or amendment, without Franchisor's prior written consent, which Franchisor may grant, condition or withhold in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisee shall deliver a copy of the signed lease or sublease to Franchisor within five (5) days after it is signed. If Franchisor owns or acquires the Franchised Location and Franchisor so requests, Franchisee shall enter into a lease with Franchisor for a term equal to the term of the Franchise (with matching successor and other terms) on commercially reasonable terms, and shall sublease the Franchised Location from Franchisor on the same terms as the prime lease, subject to the requirements of this Section 5.2 and granting Franchisor benefits substantially identical to those set out above. If such provisions are not included in the lease or other instruments Franchisor may, without liability and at Franchisor's sole option at any time require that Franchisee immediately cause such provisions to be inserted, or terminate Franchisee's rights and Franchisor's obligations under this Agreement.

5.3 Design Standards. To protect the Fiesta Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Fiesta System and the goodwill associated with the same, Franchisee shall comply with any standards, specifications and other requirements (the "Design Standards") that Franchisor provides to Franchisee for design, decoration, layout, equipment, furniture, fixtures, signs and other items for the Franchised Business. Any changes from plans provided by Franchisor must be submitted to Franchisor for its consent, which may be provided in Franchisor's Business Judgment. Franchisee's compliance with the Design Standards does not release Franchisee from its obligations to ensure that the Franchised Business is designed, constructed and operated in compliance with all local, state, and federal laws, including (without limitation) the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"). Franchisee shall post, hang, display and/or provide to customers information supplied or required by Franchisor from time to time that provides the customer with information about the Fiesta System to raise their awareness of the Fiesta Insurance brand and the Fiesta System.

- 5.4.3 All amounts due Franchisor (and/or any affiliate) have been paid.

5.4.4 Copies of all insurance policies (and payment of premiums), leases/subleases and licenses required under applicable law and other required documents have been received.

Franchisee shall comply with these conditions and be prepared to open the Franchised Business for business within the periods of time specified by this Agreement and, in any case, Franchisee shall open the Franchised Business for business and commence business pursuant to this Agreement within five (5) days after Franchisor gives its notice and consent to Franchisee stating that the Franchised Business is ready for opening. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor may withhold its notice and consent to the opening of the Franchised Business if Franchisee is not an active insurance agent fully and currently licensed to sell insurance under applicable law on the proposed opening date of the Franchised Business. If, for any reason, Franchisee does not open the Franchised Business within six (6) months of the Effective Date, or as otherwise agreed in writing by Franchisor, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement without refunding any of the Initial Franchise Fee.

5.5 Relocation of Franchised Business. Any relocation of the Franchised Business:

5.5.1 Must be to a location within the Protected Area.

5.5.2 Requires Franchisor's prior written consent, which Franchisor may grant, condition or withhold in Franchisor's sole discretion (and which may be withheld, in any case, if Franchisee is not in Good Standing).

5.5.3 Shall be at Franchisee's sole expense.

5.5.4 Shall require that Franchisee (and each affiliate and owner of Franchisee) sign a General Release in substantially the form of Exhibit I attached to this Agreement. If the location of the Franchised Business is damaged, condemned or otherwise rendered unusable, or if, in Franchisee's and Franchisor's judgment, there is a change in the character of the location of the Franchised Business sufficiently detrimental to its business potential to warrant its relocation, Franchisee shall relocate the Franchised Business.

5.5.5 To protect the Fiesta Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Fiesta System and the goodwill associated with the same, Franchisee may not operate or relocate the Franchised Business from any location other than the Franchised Location without Franchisor's prior written consent, which may be withheld or denied in Franchisor's sole discretion. If Franchisor approves a new Franchised Location of the Franchised Business, Franchisee shall have twelve (12) months from the date of Franchisor's approval of the new Franchised Location in which to secure the new Franchised Location and to open and operate the Franchised Business at the new Franchised Location. Once Franchisee has identified the new Franchised Location and Franchisor has approved it, and the lease has been reviewed and is acceptable to Franchisor, Franchisor will prepare a new copy of Exhibit A and provide it to Franchisee. If Franchisee fails to secure the new Franchised Location within twelve (12) months of the date of Franchisor's approval of the new Franchised Location, Franchisor shall have the right to estimate and bill Franchisee for continuing fees for the time period following the twelve (12) months based upon the Gross Insurance Revenue, Gross Tax Return Revenue and Gross Supplemental Revenue (collectively, the "Gross Franchise Revenue") at the Franchised Business during the identical period(s) of the last preceding calendar year plus an additional ten percent (10%) of such amount or, if the Franchised Business was not in operation during the identical period of the last preceding year, based upon the average Gross Franchise Revenue during the number of months the Franchised Business was in operation plus an additional ten percent (10%) of such amount.

Franchisor shall, in its sole discretion, select the time and location of the initial training program. The initial training program shall not be provided if (i) Franchisee or any affiliate of Franchisee (or an owner of either) owns or operates a Fiesta Insurance Franchised Business as of the Effective Date; or (ii) this Agreement is executed as a Renewal Franchise Agreement.

6.2 New Employee Training (Mandatory). All supervisory or managerial employees having direct contact with clients must successfully complete training and attend any additional courses, seminars and other training programs Franchisor reasonably requires. Franchisee must pay for the expenses associated with additional initial training, including without limitation, the travel costs and accommodation if the trainer travels to Franchisee's office. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that the various requirements, restrictions, prohibitions, specifications and procedures of the Fiesta System with which Franchisee must comply under this Agreement, the Operations Manual or otherwise, do not directly or indirectly constitute, suggest, infer or imply that Franchisor controls any aspect or element of the day-to-day operations of the Franchised Business, which Franchisee alone controls, but only constitute standards to which Franchisee must adhere when exercising Franchisee's control over the day-to-day operations of the Franchised Business consistent with the policies of Franchisor. Franchisee alone shall establish all requirements, consistent with the policies of Franchisor, regarding: (i) employment policies, hiring, firing, training, wage and hour requirements, record keeping, supervision, and discipline of employees; (ii) the individuals to whom Franchisee will offer and sell its products and services; and (iii) the suppliers from whom Franchisee obtains any products or services used in or at the Franchised Business for which Franchisor has not established Fiesta approved suppliers.

Franchisor shall have the right from time to time and at any time to retrieve data and information from Franchisee's computer system as Franchisor, in its sole and exclusive discretion, deems necessary or desirable. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that because of the interconnection of computer systems and the necessity that such systems be compatible with each other, Franchisee shall strictly comply with Franchisor's standards and specifications for all items associated with Franchisee's computer system and shall otherwise operate its computer system in accordance with Franchisor's standards and specifications. In addition, to ensure full operational efficiency and optimum communication capability between and among computer systems installed by Franchisee, Franchisor, and other Fiesta Insurance franchisees, Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, keep Franchisee's computer system in good maintenance and repair and promptly install such additions, changes, modifications, substitutions and/or replacements to Franchisee's computer hardware, software, telephone and power lines, and other computer-related facilities, as Franchisor directs.

9.2 Submission and Maintenance of Records. Franchisee shall, at Franchisee's expense, provide Franchisor with a copy of Franchisee's financial statements showing the results of operations of the Franchised Business for each fiscal year during the Term within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of Franchisee. In addition to all other remedies and rights Franchisor may have, Franchisor may terminate this Agreement if Gross Insurance Revenue, Gross Tax Return Revenue or Gross Supplemental Revenue is understated for any period by more than five percent (5%), or any understatement is determined by Franchisor to have been intentional.

9.4 Employee Policy.

9.4.1 Franchisee shall maintain a competent, conscientious, and trained staff and shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that its employees preserve good customer relations; render competent, prompt, courteous, and knowledgeable service; meet such minimum standards as Franchisor may establish from time to time; and are properly disciplined for poor performance as necessary. All employees hired by or working for Franchisee shall be employees of Franchisee, and Franchisee alone, and shall not, for any purpose, be deemed to be employees of Franchisor or subject to Franchisor's direct or indirect control, most particularly with respect to any mandated or other insurance coverage, tax or contributions, or requirements pertaining to withholdings, levied or fixed by any governmental authority. Franchisee and Franchisor will each file their own tax, regulatory and payroll reports, and be responsible for all employee benefits and workers compensation insurance payments with respect to their respective employees and operations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor will not have the power to hire or fire Franchisee's employees. Franchisee expressly agrees, and will never contend otherwise, that Franchisor's authority under this Agreement to certify Franchisee's supervisory or managerial personnel for qualification to perform certain functions at the Franchised Business does not directly or indirectly vest in Franchisor the power to hire, fire or control any of Franchisee's personnel. Franchisee alone shall be solely responsible for all hiring and employment decisions and functions related to the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, those related to hiring, firing, training, establishing remuneration, compliance with wage and hour requirements, personnel policies, benefits, recordkeeping, supervision, and discipline of employees, regardless of whether Franchisee has received advice from Franchisor on these subjects or not, and Franchisee shall not request from Franchisor or expect to receive from Franchisor, and Franchisor shall not provide Franchisee, any advice on these subjects. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that any guidance Franchisee receives from Franchisor regarding employment policies should be considered as examples, that Franchisee alone is responsible for establishing and implementing its own employment policies, and that Franchisee understands that Franchisee should do so in consultation with local legal counsel experienced in employment law. Franchisee shall indemnify, defend, reimburse and hold Franchisor harmless from any direct or indirect losses, costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, arising out of any claim made by or for the benefit of any employee of Franchisee against Franchisor regarding employment decisions and employee functions of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, those related to hiring, firing, wage and hour requirements, record keeping, supervision and discipline of employees. Franchisee shall maintain all insurance coverage required for the benefit of Franchisee's employees and shall timely and completely pay all taxes and assessments required by employers for their employees. Franchisee shall take all action necessary to ensure that Franchisee's employees understand and acknowledge that they are not employees of Franchisor, including, without limitation, requiring Franchisee's employees to sign a written acknowledgement that Franchisee is an independently owned and operated franchisee and their sole employer in a form specified by Franchisor in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing from time to time.

9.4.2 Franchisee shall have personnel who are properly licensed by Franchisee's state Department of Insurance on-site at the Franchised Business at all times during normal business hours to transact insurance business. Franchisee shall not leave the Franchised Business attended by unlicensed personnel during normal business hours, since insurance may only be sold by personnel who are properly licensed by Franchisee's state Department of Insurance. Franchisee's failure to adhere to this requirement will violate both Franchisee's state Department of Insurance regulations and this Agreement and will entitle Franchisor to terminate this Agreement.

9.4.3 Franchisee shall cause all employees, while working at the Franchised Business at the Franchised Location, to: (i) wear uniforms of such color, design, and other specifications as Franchisor may designate from time to time, and (ii) present a neat and clean appearance. If Franchisor removes the type of uniform utilized by Franchisee from the list of approved uniforms, Franchisee shall have ninety (90) days from receipt of written notice of such removal to discontinue use of its existing inventory of uniforms and implement the approved type of uniform.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Fiesta Data" includes, without limitation, any and all information by, from, or about a client acquired by Franchisee from its business relationship with a client. Franchisee shall require all insurance clients to sign the agency forms required by Franchisor which shall state that the Franchisee is an independent agent procuring insurance on behalf of Franchisor, and that accordingly, client's information shall be made available to and subject to approval by Franchisor. No right, title or interest in the Fiesta Data is conveyed, transferred, or otherwise licensed to Franchisee under this Agreement or otherwise. Accordingly, Franchisee shall not, during the term or thereafter sell, lease, share or rent any Fiesta Data or make any use whatsoever of the Fiesta Data.

9.6 Taxes. Franchisee shall promptly pay all taxes levied or assessed against the Franchised Business, including, but not limited to, unemployment taxes, sales taxes, use taxes, income taxes, withholding taxes, excise taxes, personal property taxes, intangible property taxes, gross receipt taxes, taxes on royalty fees, any similar taxes or levies, imposed upon or required to be collected or paid by Franchisor by reason of the furnishing intangible property (including trademarks and trade names) or services by Franchisor to Franchisee through the sale, license, or lease of property or property rights provided by this Agreement.

9.7 Franchisor's Web Site. Franchisor may, but shall not be obligated to, establish and maintain from time to time, one or more Internet web sites that Franchisor may develop, in its sole discretion, that may be used, among other things, to provide information about Franchisor and the services that are offered by Franchisor and its franchisees ("Franchisor's Web Site"). Franchisor has sole discretion and control over the establishment, design and content of Franchisor's Web Site. Franchisor may, but shall not be obligated to, configure the site to accommodate one or more interior pages of Franchisor's Web Site which Franchisor may dedicate, in whole or in part, to the Franchised Business ("Franchisee's Web Page"). Franchisor may require Franchisee to pay a reasonable fee for the privilege of having Franchisee's Web Page. Franchisor may, at its sole option, from time to time, without prior notice to Franchisee: (i) change, revise, or eliminate the design, content and functionality of Franchisor's Web Site; (ii) make operational changes to Franchisor's Web Site; (iii) change or modify the URL and/or domain name of Franchisor's Web Site; (iv) substitute, modify, or rearrange Franchisor's Web Site, at Franchisor's sole option, including in any manner that Franchisor considers necessary or desirable to, among other things, (a) comply with applicable laws, (b) respond to changes in market conditions or technology, and (c) respond to any other circumstances; (v) limit or restrict end-user access (in whole or in part) to Franchisor's Web Site; (vi) disable or terminate Franchisor's Web Site without any liability to Franchisee.

9.7.1 Any modifications (including customizations, alterations, submissions or updates) to the content made by Franchisee for any purpose shall be deemed to be a "work made for hire" under the copyright laws, and therefore, Franchisor shall own the intellectual property rights in and to such modifications. To the extent any modification does not qualify as a work made for hire as outlined above, Franchisee hereby assigns those modifications to Franchisor for no additional consideration and with no further action required and shall execute such further assignments as Franchisor may request. Franchisee may not modify Franchisee's Web Page except in coordination with Franchisor's webmaster and in compliance with Franchisor's policies and procedures.

9.7.2 If Franchisee fails to pay when due any fees or other amounts payable to Franchisor under this Agreement, or any other agreement with Franchisor or Franchisor's affiliates, or otherwise fails to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or Franchisor's affiliates, Franchisor may disable Franchisee's Web Page, without prior notice and without any liability or recourse as against Franchisor, or its affiliates, until such time as Franchisee pays and/or performs its outstanding obligations in full. Franchisee hereby appoints Franchisor as Franchisee's attorney-in-fact with full power and authority for the sole purpose of disabling Franchisee's Web Page. This appointment shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest and shall continue in full force and effect until and following the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

9.7.3 Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor has no control over the stability or maintenance of the Internet generally; as a result, Franchisor shall not be responsible for damage or loss caused by errors of the Internet. Furthermore, Franchisor shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, exemplary or consequential damages arising out of the use of, or the inability to use, Franchisor's Web Site or the Internet, including loss of profits, goodwill, or savings; downtime; or damage to or replacement of programs and data, whether known or unknown, based in contract, tort, product liability, or otherwise.

9.7.4 Franchisee shall not use the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights to advertise, promote or sell any services through the Internet, nor shall Franchisee offer or sell any service that is identified with the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights through the Internet. Franchisee's breach of this restriction shall constitute willful trademark and/or copyright infringement and a default of this Agreement.

9.7.5 Franchisee shall not separately register any domain name or any portion of any domain name containing the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights or participate or market on any website or other form of electronic media (including, without limitation, through the use of social technology, social media, social networking platforms or other forms of electronic media not yet developed) using the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights without prior express written approval from Franchisor. Franchisee's general conduct on the Internet and in the use of other forms of electronic media is subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and all other rules, requirements or policies that Franchisor may identify from time to time. Franchisee's website, if any, shall only be accessed through Franchisor's home page. Franchisee will provide Franchisor with all proposed content for Franchisor's Internet marketing programs, and will sign Internet and intranet usage agreements, if any, as requested by Franchisor. Franchisor retains the right to approve any linking or other use of its website. Franchisor may, at any time after Franchisee commences use of any approved electronic media, prohibit further use, effective upon receipt of written notice by Franchisee.

9.7.6 Except as provided in this Agreement, Franchisee shall not develop, create, generate, own, license, lease or use in any manner any computer medium or electronic medium (including, any Internet home page, e-mail address, web site, bulletin board, newsgroup or other Internet-related medium) which in any way uses or displays, in whole or part, the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights, or any of them, or any words, symbols or terms confusingly similar thereto other than Franchisee's Web Page, if established by Franchisor, in its sole discretion, and in accordance with this Agreement, such procedures, policies, standards and specifications as Franchisor may establish in the Operations Manual from time to time and only so long as Franchisee is not in default of this Agreement or any other Agreement between Franchisor, its affiliates, and Franchisee.

9.7.7 Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor shall own and shall retain all right, title and interest in and to the use of the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights in any and all manners and to all existing and future domain names, URLs, future addresses and sub-addresses established by Franchisor and all intellectual property rights in or to any of them.

9.8 Franchisor's Intranet. Franchisor may, at its sole discretion and option, establish and maintain a private method of communication for use only by employees and franchisees of Franchisor (an "Intranet") through which Franchisor, franchisees of Franchisor and Franchisor's employees may communicate with each other, and through which Franchisor may disseminate the Operations Manual, updates thereto and other Confidential Information. Franchisor shall have sole discretion and control over all aspects of the Intranet, including the content and functionality thereof. Franchisor shall have no obligation to maintain the Intranet indefinitely, and may dismantle it at any time without liability to Franchisee.

9.8.1 If Franchisor establishes an Intranet, Franchisee shall have the privilege to use the Intranet, subject to Franchisee's strict compliance with the standards and specifications, protocols and restrictions that Franchisor may establish from time to time. Such standards and specifications, protocols and restrictions may relate to, among other things, (i) the use of abusive, slanderous or otherwise offensive language in electronic communications; (ii) communications between or among franchisees that endorse or encourage breach of any franchisee's Franchise Agreement; (iii) confidential treatment of materials that Franchisor transmits via the Intranet; (iv) password protocols and other security precautions; (v) grounds and procedures for Franchisor's suspending or revoking a franchisee's access to the Intranet; and (vi) a privacy policy governing Franchisor's access to and use of electronic communications that franchisees post to the Intranet. Franchisee acknowledges that, as administrator of the Intranet, Franchisor can technically access and shall be entitled to view any communication that any person posts on the Intranet. Franchisee further acknowledges that the Intranet facility and all communications that are posted to it shall become Franchisor's property, free of any claims of privacy or privilege that Franchisee or any other person may assert.

9.8.2 Upon receipt of notice from Franchisor that Franchisor has established the Intranet, Franchisee shall establish and continually maintain (during all times that the Intranet shall be established and until the termination of this Agreement) an electronic connection (the specifications of which shall be specified in the Operations Manual) with the Intranet that allows Franchisor to send messages to and receive messages from Franchisee, subject to the standards and specifications. Franchisor shall have the right to require all of its franchisees, including Franchisee, to contribute a reasonable amount toward the cost of the Intranet's maintenance, which may vary from time to time during the Term, and shall pay the same to Franchisor in the manner and at the times that Franchisor may establish in the Operations Manual from time to time.

9.8.3 If Franchisee fails to pay when due any fees or other amounts payable to Franchisor under this Agreement, or any other agreement with Franchisor or Franchisor's affiliates, or otherwise fails to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or Franchisor's affiliates, Franchisor may, without prior notice and without any liability or recourse as against Franchisor, or its affiliates, temporarily disable or terminate Franchisee's access to the Intranet until such time as Franchisee pays and/or performs its outstanding obligation in full.

9.8.4 Franchisee shall, at the option and request of Franchisor, and without any additional consideration, assign to Franchisor all rights to all e-mail addresses, URLs, domain names, Internet listings, and Internet accounts related to the Franchised Business following demand by Franchisor upon Franchisee's misuse of the same and/or the termination or expiration of this Agreement. Furthermore, Franchisee hereby appoints Franchisor as Franchisee's attorney-in-fact with full power and authority for the sole purpose of assigning these rights to Franchisor. This appointment shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest and shall continue in full force and effect until and following the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

9.9 Co-Branding. To protect the Fiesta Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Fiesta System and the goodwill associated with the same, Franchisee shall not engage in any co-branding at or in connection with the Franchised Business except with Franchisor's prior written consent. Franchisor shall not be required to approve any co-branding chain or arrangement except in Franchisor's discretion, and only if Franchisor has recognized that co-branding chain as an approved co-brand for operation within the Fiesta System. "Co-Branding" includes the operation of an independent business, product line or operating system owned or licensed by another entity (not Franchisor) that is featured or incorporated within the Franchised Business or is adjacent to the Franchised Business and operated in a manner which is likely to cause the public to perceive it to be related to the Franchised Business licensed and franchised under this Agreement.

9.10 Improvements. If Franchisee develops any new concept, process or improvement in the Fiesta System (an "Improvement"), Franchisee shall promptly notify Franchisor and provide Franchisor with all necessary related information, without compensation. Any such Improvement shall become the sole property of Franchisor and Franchisor shall be the sole owner of all related intellectual property rights. Franchisee hereby assigns to Franchisor any rights Franchisee may have or acquire in the Improvements, including the right to modify the Improvement, and Franchisee waives and/or releases all rights of restraint and moral rights therein and thereto. Franchisee shall assist Franchisor in obtaining and enforcing the intellectual property rights to any such Improvement in any and all countries and further agrees to execute and provide Franchisor with all necessary documentation for obtaining and enforcing such rights. Franchisee hereby irrevocably designates and appoints Franchisor as Franchisee's agent and attorney-in-fact to execute and file any such documentation and to do all other lawful acts to further the prosecution and issuance of intellectual property right related to any such Improvement. If the foregoing provisions of this Section 9.10 are found to be invalid or otherwise unenforceable, Franchisee hereby grants Franchisor a worldwide, perpetual, non-exclusive, fully-paid license to use and sublicense the use of the Improvement to the extent such use or sublicense would, absent this Agreement, directly or indirectly infringe Franchisee's rights therein.

9.11 Authorization to Release Information. Franchisee hereby authorizes (and agrees to execute any other documents deemed necessary to effect such authorization) all banks, financial institutions, businesses, suppliers, contractors, vendors and other persons or entities with whom Franchisee does business to disclose to Franchisor any financial information in their possession relating to Franchisee or the Franchised Business which Franchisor may request. Franchisee further authorizes Franchisor to disclose to prospective franchisees or other third parties data from Franchisee's reports if Franchisor determines, in Franchisor's sole discretion, that such disclosure is necessary or advisable.

9.12 Adequate Reserves and Working Capital. Franchisee shall, at all times, maintain adequate reserves and working capital sufficient for Franchisee to fulfill all of Franchisee's obligations under this Agreement and to cover the risks and contingencies of the Franchised Business for at least three (3) months.

9.13 Notification of Legal Proceedings and Crisis Management Events. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days after Franchisee receives actual notice of the commencement of any investigation, action, suit, or other proceeding, or the issuance of any order, writ, injunction, award, or other decree of any court, agency, or other governmental authority that pertains to the Franchised Business or that may adversely affect Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business or ability to meet its obligations under this Agreement.

9.13.1 Upon the occurrence of a "Crisis Management Event" (as defined below), Franchisee shall immediately inform Franchisor's Chief Executive Officer or Chief Operating Officer (or as otherwise instructed in the Operations Manual) by telephone. Franchisee shall cooperate fully with Franchisor with respect to Franchisor's response to the Crisis Management Event.

9.13.2 "Crisis Management Event" means any event that occurs at or about the Franchised Business that has or may cause harm or injury to customers or employees, such as contagious diseases, natural disasters, terrorist acts, shootings, epidemics, pandemics or any other circumstance which may damage the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, or image or reputation of Franchisor or its affiliates.

9.14 Anti-Terrorism Compliance. Franchisee shall comply with, and/or assist Franchisor to the fullest extent possible in Franchisor's efforts to comply with, Executive Order 13224 issued by the President of the United States, the USA Patriot Act, and all other present and future federal, state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, policies, lists and any other requirements of any governmental authority addressing or in any way relating to terrorist acts and acts of war (the "Anti-Terrorism Laws"). In connection with such compliance, Franchisee certifies, represents and warrants that none of Franchisee's property or interests are subject to being "blocked" under any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws and that Franchisee is not otherwise in violation of any of the Anti-Terrorism Laws. Any violation of the Anti-Terrorism Laws by Franchisee or Franchisee's employees or any "blocking" of Franchisee's assets under the Anti-Terrorism Laws constitute grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement and any other agreements Franchisee has entered into with Franchisor or any of its affiliates, in accordance with the provisions of Section 15.2 of this Agreement.

9.15 Licenses and Permits. Franchisee shall obtain and maintain throughout the Term, all business and insurance licenses and other permits required by applicable law for the operation of an independent business by Franchisee.

9.16 Performance Requirements. Franchisee shall devote Franchisee's full time, attention and best efforts to the development and operation of the Franchised Business and shall only permit the Franchised Business to be operated and managed in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

9.17 Franchisee Conventions. Franchisee must attend Franchisor's annual franchisee convention. Franchisee must pay Franchisor the fees Franchisor charges Franchisee and other Fiesta franchisees to defray the direct costs of providing the franchisee conventions. The fees may be reduced by insurance carrier financial support. Franchisee must pay all expenses incurred by Franchisee and Franchisee's employees to attend franchisee conventions, including the costs of transportation, lodging, meals, materials and wages. Franchisor may, in Franchisor's sole discretion, select the time and location of all franchisee conventions.

9.18 Data Security Safeguards. Franchisee shall exert Franchisee's best efforts to protect its clients and the Franchised Business against a cyber-event, including, without limitation, computer security-related incidents, data breach or other identity theft or theft of personal information (collectively, a "Cyber Event"). If a Cyber Event occurs, regardless of whether the Cyber Event affects only the Franchised Business, Franchisor reserves the right, but shall not have any obligation, to perform and/or control and/or cause its third-party consultants to perform and/or control all aspects of the response to the Cyber Event including, without limitation, the investigation, containment and resolution of the Cyber Event and all communications within the Fiesta franchise system and with vendors and suppliers, governmental authorities and the general public. Franchisor's control of the response to a Cyber Event may potentially affect or interrupt operations of the Franchised Business, but shall not create any liability for Franchisor or additional rights for Franchisee, entitle Franchisee to damages or relieve Franchisee of Franchisee's indemnification obligations under Section 18.2. Franchisee shall reimburse Franchisor for all of Franchisor's out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in responding to and remedying any Cyber Event caused solely by Franchisee or the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall at all times be compliant with applicable law regarding data privacy, data security and security breaches; and Franchisor's information security policies and guidelines, all as may be adopted and/or amended from time to time (collectively, "Data Security Safeguards"). Franchisee shall obtain advice from Franchisee's own legal and security consultants to ensure that Franchisee operates the Franchised Business at all times in full compliance with the Data Security Safeguards. Franchisee shall promptly inform Franchisor of any Cyber Event and exercise sound judgment in protecting (i) information stored locally or sent during transit (digitally or physically) in full compliance with the Data Security Safeguards; (ii) new or existing accounts; and (iii) access to critical systems and to ensure any shared accounts are used by authorized individuals. Notwithstanding Franchisor's right to perform and/or control all aspects of a response to a Cyber Event, Franchisor shall make commercially reasonable efforts to coordinate its response with Franchisee and Franchisee's insurance carrier(s) and to cooperate with Franchisee's insurance carrier(s) regarding insurance coverage of the Cyber Event to the extent reasonably practicable under the circumstances.

9.19 Privacy. Franchisee shall comply with all applicable laws pertaining to the privacy of clients, employee and transactional information ("Privacy Laws"). Franchisee shall also comply with Franchisor's standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws. If there is a conflict between Franchisor's standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws and actual applicable law, Franchisee shall (i) comply with the requirements of applicable law; (ii) immediately give Franchisor written notice of the conflict; and (iii) promptly and fully cooperate with Franchisor and Franchisor's counsel in determining the most effective way, if any, to meet Franchisor's standards and policies pertaining to Privacy Laws within the bounds of applicable law. Franchisee shall not publish, disseminate, implement, revise, or rescind a data privacy policy without Franchisor's prior written consent to such policy.

9.20 Fiesta Data. All data pertaining to the Franchised Business and all data created or collected by Franchisee in connection with Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business, including, without limitation, data pertaining to, or otherwise concerning, the Franchised Business's clients and other pertinent data about the Franchised Business collected by Franchisee, and data uploaded to, or downloaded from Franchisee's accounts and/or computer system (collectively "Fiesta Data") is Confidential Information and is the sole property of Franchisor. Franchisor shall have the right to review and use Fiesta Data in any manner that Franchisor deems appropriate without any compensation to Franchisee. Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with copies and/or originals of Fiesta Data within five (5) days after Franchisor's request for Fiesta Data at no cost to Franchisor and at any time during the Term and upon the expiration and/or termination of this Agreement. Franchisee shall maintain Fiesta Data as secret and confidential throughout the Term and shall not make any of Fiesta Data available to any unauthorized Person without the prior written consent of Franchisor and then only in the manner permitted by Franchisor. Franchisor hereby licenses use of Fiesta Data to Franchisee during the Term, at no cost, solely for Franchisee's use in connection with the Franchised Business.

10. PROPRIETARY MARKS

Franchisor and its Affiliates continue to develop, use and control the Fiesta Proprietary Marks and Copyrights in order to identify for the public the source of services and products marketed under the Fiesta Proprietary Marks, Copyrights and the Fiesta System, and to represent the Fiesta's System's high standards of quality, appearance and service. To protect the Fiesta System, the Fiesta Proprietary Marks and Copyrights and the goodwill associated with the same:

10.1 Franchisee Representations. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that:

10.1.1 Franchisee shall use only the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights designated by Franchisor, shall use them only in the manner authorized and permitted by Franchisor, shall use the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights only for the operation of the Franchised Business, and only at the Franchised Location.

10.1.2 Franchisee shall identify itself as an independent franchisee-owner of the Franchised Business in conjunction with any use of the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights or the operation of the Franchised Business. The form and content of such identification shall comply with standards set forth in the Operations Manual.

10.1.3 Franchisee's right to use the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights is limited to such uses as are authorized under this Agreement, and any unauthorized use thereof shall constitute an infringement. Franchisee shall not use the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights to incur any obligation or indebtedness on behalf of Franchisor.

10.1.4 Franchisee shall promptly notify Franchisor of any suspected unauthorized use of, or any challenge to the validity of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights, or any challenge to Franchisor's ownership of, and right to license others to use, or Franchisee's right to use, the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights licensed under this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor has the right to direct and control any administrative proceeding or litigation, or other adjudicative proceeding involving the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights, including any settlement thereof. Franchisor has the right, but not the obligation, to take action against uses by others that may constitute infringement of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights. Franchisor shall defend Franchisee against any third-party claim, suit, or demand arising out of Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights. If Franchisor, in its sole discretion, determines that Franchisee has used the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights in accordance with this Agreement, the cost of such defense, including the cost of any judgment or settlement, shall be borne by Franchisor. If Franchisor, in its sole discretion, determines that Franchisee has not used the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights in accordance with this Agreement, the cost of such defense, including the cost of any judgment or settlement, shall be borne by Franchisee. In the event of any litigation relating to Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights, Franchisee shall execute any and all documents and do such acts as may, in the opinion of Franchisor, be necessary to carry out such defense or prosecution, including, but not limited to, becoming a nominal party to any legal action. Except to the extent that such litigation is the result of Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights in a manner inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, Franchisor shall reimburse Franchisee for its out-of-pocket litigation costs in doing such acts.

10.1.5 Franchisor is the owner of all right, title, and interest in and to the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights and the goodwill franchised with and symbolized by them and Franchisor has the right to use, and license others to use, the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights. The Proprietary Marks and Copyrights are valid and serve to identify the Fiesta System and those who are franchised under the Fiesta System. During the Term and after its expiration or termination, Franchisee shall not directly or indirectly contest the validity of, or Franchisor's ownership of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights, nor take any other action which may tend to jeopardize Franchisor's interest therein, or Franchisor's right to use, and to license others to use, the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights.

10.1.6 Except as expressly limited in this Agreement, Franchisor (for itself, its affiliates and designees) retains all rights with respect to use of the Proprietary Marks, Copyrights and the Fiesta System to sell any products or services, similar to those which Franchisee sells, through any alternate channels of distribution. This includes, but is not limited to, retail locations and other channels of distribution such as television, mail order, catalog sales, wholesale to unrelated retail outlets, over the Internet, or through other forms of electronic media (including social technology, social media and social networking platforms). Franchisor exclusively reserves the Internet and other forms of electronic media as channels of distribution for Franchisor, and Franchisee may not independently market on the Internet or through other forms of electronic media, or conduct e-commerce without Franchisor's prior written consent.

10.1.7 Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights pursuant to this Agreement does not give Franchisee any ownership interest or other interest in or to the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights other than the license granted by this Agreement. Any and all goodwill arising from Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights shall inure solely and exclusively to the benefit of Franchisor or its affiliate, and upon expiration or termination of this Agreement and the license herein granted, no monetary amount shall be assigned as attributable to any goodwill franchised with Franchisee's use.

10.1.8 The right and license of the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights granted under this Agreement to Franchisee is nonexclusive, except as otherwise provided in Section 1.2 of this Agreement and Franchisor has and retains the rights described in Section 1.2 of this Agreement.

10.1.9 Franchisor reserves the right to change, revise, or substitute different proprietary marks and/or copyrights for use in identifying the Fiesta System, the Franchised Business, and the services offered through the Franchised Business, if the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights no longer can be used, or if Franchisor, in its sole discretion, determines that substitution of different proprietary marks or copyrights shall be beneficial to the Fiesta System. In such circumstances, the use of the substituted proprietary marks or copyrights shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement, and Franchisor shall not compensate Franchisee for such substitution and shall bear only the costs of modifying Franchisee's signs, costumes, logos, and advertising materials to conform to Franchisor's new proprietary marks or copyrights. If Franchisor's currently licensed Proprietary Marks or Copyrights can no longer be used, Franchisee shall implement promptly any such substitution. Franchisor shall have the right, at all reasonable times, at the Franchised Location and elsewhere, to inspect Franchisee's use of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights as Franchisor considers necessary to carry out the purposes of inspection as part of appropriate quality control.

10.2 Changes in Law. In the event that the trademark law or copyright law is amended so as to render inapplicable any of the provisions of this Agreement, Franchisee shall execute any documents, and do such acts and things as in the opinion of Franchisor may be necessary to affect the intent and purpose of the provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that Franchisor shall bear all costs associated with such request.

11. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

11.1 Use of Operations Manual. Franchisee shall operate the Franchised Business in accordance with the standards, methods, policies, and procedures specified in the Operations Manual. Franchisee shall treat the Operations Manual, any other manuals created for or approved for use in the operation of the Franchised Business, the information contained therein, and all Fiesta Data, secrets, know-how, customer and prospective customer lists, renewals and expirations, pricing policies, marketing plans, operation methods, method and amount of compensation, and all records of Franchisor such as manuals, rate books and other materials furnished to Franchisee by Franchisor, and other confidential business affairs of Franchisor, as confidential, and shall maintain such information as secret and confidential. Franchisee shall not at any time copy, duplicate, record, or otherwise reproduce the foregoing materials, in whole or in part, or otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person. The Operations Manual shall at all times remain the sole property of Franchisor and shall be kept in a secure place at the Franchised Location. Franchisee shall ensure that its copy of the Operations Manual is kept current at all times, and in the event of any dispute as to the contents of the Manual, the terms of the master copy of the Operations Manual maintained by Franchisor shall be controlling.

11.2 Confidentiality of Information. Franchisee shall not, during the Term or thereafter, communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of, anyone else, any "Confidential Information", knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Franchised Business which may be communicated to Franchisee, or of which Franchisee may be apprised, by virtue of Franchisee's operation under the terms of this Agreement. Franchisee shall divulge such Confidential Information only to such of its supervisory or managerial employees as must have access to it in order to perform their employment responsibilities. Any and all matters, information, knowledge, know-how, techniques, and other data which Franchisor designates as confidential shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement. "Confidential Information" includes tangible and intangible information in any form relating to the Fiesta System, including, without limitation, operations, products and services, identification of insurance carriers, methods, techniques, manuals, related written content, disclaimers, handout items, equipment, sources of materials and equipment, data, other content, formulations, patterns, compilations, programs, devices and processes, know-how, business relationships, designs, developmental or experimental work and services, improvements, discoveries, potential new products and services, websites, advertisements, ancillary products and services, marketing and selling methods and/or plans, business plans, budgets and unpublished financial statements, licenses, prices and costs, vendors, collaborators and customers, customer lists and other customer data, current customer and prospective customer names and addresses, information regarding credit extensions to customers, customer service purchasing histories and prices charged to customers, designs, drawings, specifications, documentation, diagrams, flowcharts, research, development, marketing techniques and materials, trademarks, trade secrets, sales/license techniques, inventions, copyrightable material, trademarkable material, databases, relationships between Franchisor and other companies, persons or entities and any other information or material considered proprietary by Franchisor, whether or not designated as Confidential Information by Franchisor, but which is not generally known by the public, or which derives independent economic value (actual or potential) from not being generally known to the public or persons unaffiliated with Franchisor and which is the subject of efforts by Franchisor that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy or any other information in oral, written, graphic or electronic form which, given the circumstances surrounding such disclosure, would be considered confidential. Confidential Information also includes the manner in which any of the above-described items may be combined with other information or products or synthesized or used by Franchisee. Confidential Information does not include any information which: (a) was in the lawful and unrestricted possession of Franchisee prior to its disclosure by Franchisor; (b) is or becomes generally available to the public by acts other than those of Franchisee after receiving it; (c) has been received lawfully and in good faith by Franchisee from a third party who did not derive it from Franchisor; or (d) is shown by acceptable evidence to have been independently developed by Franchisee.

11.3 Irreparable Injury. Franchisee acknowledges that failure to comply with the requirements of this Section 11 shall result in irreparable injury to Franchisor for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee consents to the issuance of, and shall pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining, without the posting of any bond, an ex-parte or other order for injunctive or other legal or equitable relief with respect to the requirements of this Section 11. Notwithstanding, apart from, and in addition to, any other remedies available to Franchisor, if Franchisee shall violate this Section 11, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, upon demand, the sum of $10,000 to account for the actual damages that Franchisor shall suffer as a result of Franchisee's failure to comply with this Section 11. In this regard, Franchisor and Franchisee acknowledge and agree that it would be impossible and impracticable to determine the precise amount of damages Franchisor will incur upon Franchisee's violation of this Section 11 due to the complications inherent in determining the harm that will be suffered by Franchisor as a result thereof. Franchisor and Franchisee further acknowledge and agree that this calculation of Franchisor's potential damages is a reasonable, good faith estimate of such damages.

11.4 Covenants from Third Parties. Franchisee shall require any supervisory or managerial employee or independent contractor who may have access to any Confidential Information of Franchisor to execute covenants that they shall maintain the confidentiality of information they receive in connection with their association with Franchisee. Such covenants shall be in a form satisfactory to Franchisor, including, without limitation, specific identification of Franchisor as a third party beneficiary of such covenants with the independent right to enforce them.

12. INSURANCE

12.1 Franchisee's Insurance Obligations. Franchisee shall obtain, have in effect on the effective date, and shall maintain in full force and effect during the Term, at Franchisee's expense, an insurance policy or policies protecting Franchisee and Franchisor against any demand or claim with respect to personal and bodily injury, death, or property damage, or any loss, liability, or expense whatsoever arising or occurring upon or in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business in such types and amounts as specified in the Operations Manual. Such policy or policies may include but not be limited to: (i) broad form comprehensive general liability coverage; (ii) worker's compensation and employer's liability insurance (as required by law); (iii) unemployment insurance covering employees; (iv) fire, flood, earthquake and extended coverage insurance on the location and Franchisee's property in an amount adequate to replace it if there is an insured loss; (v) business interruption insurance in reasonable amounts; (vi) state disability insurance for employees (as required by law); and (vii) Employment Practices Liability Insurance.

12.2 Errors and Omissions Insurance. Franchisee shall obtain and shall maintain in effect during the Term, at Franchisee's expense, errors and omissions insurance coverage as required by Franchisor, as such requirements may be revised from time to time by Franchisor in the Operations Manual or otherwise in writing, through insurance companies approved by Franchisor prior to Franchisee's purchase of the same, with such minimum limits as required by Franchisor in the Operations Manual. If Franchisor is able to obtain group errors and omissions insurance coverage for Fiesta Insurance Franchisees, Franchisee shall be required to participate in the errors and omissions coverage under such a group policy. Franchisee's pro-rata annual costs for the same shall equal the annual premium for the group policy divided by the number of Fiesta Insurance Franchisees who participate in such group policy coverage.

12.3 Requirements. At least ten (10) days prior to the time any insurance is first required to be carried by Franchisee, and thereafter at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration of any policy, Franchisee shall deliver to Franchisor a Certificate of Insurance evidencing the required coverage. All Certificates shall provide that no less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice shall be given Franchisor in the event of material alteration to or cancellation or non-renewal of the coverage evidenced by such Certificates. All policies of insurance to be maintained by Franchisee shall contain a separate endorsement naming Franchisor, and if required, Franchisor's parent and affiliated companies, as additional insured parties on the additional-insured Grantor of Franchise Form CG2029 or an insurer's comparable form. Franchisee shall cause Certificates of Insurance showing compliance with the above requirements to be delivered to Franchisor annually upon renewal and at such other times as Franchisor may request.

13. ADVERTISING

Recognizing the value of advertising, and the importance of the standardization of advertising programs to the goodwill and public image of the Fiesta System, to protect Fiesta Proprietary Marks, the Fiesta Copyrights, the Fiesta System and the goodwill associated with the same, the parties agree:

13.1 Marketing Funds.

13.1.1 If the Franchised Business is located in California or if the Franchised Business is located outside of California and Franchisor elects to establish other regional or a national Marketing Fund in the market area of the Franchised Business following the Effective Date, Franchisee shall make a Monthly Marketing Fund Contribution to the Marketing Fund each calendar month in the amount designated and required by Franchisor from time to time, which is currently $600 per calendar month for California and Texas franchisees and $500 per calendar month for Florida franchisees, and which shall not exceed $2,000 per calendar month for any Fiesta franchisee.

13.1.2 If Franchisee is a new Fiesta franchisee, Franchisee shall be entitled to a one-time grace period for the first six months from the opening date of the Franchised Business to begin making the Monthly Marketing Fund Contribution:

13.1.3 The grace period for making the Monthly Marketing Fund Contribution shall not be available to existing Fiesta franchisees who sign Renewal Franchise Agreements or otherwise renew their Franchise Agreements or to buyers of Franchised Businesses from existing Fiesta franchisees. The grace period for making the Monthly Marketing Fund Contribution shall not apply to the Monthly Platform Access Fund Contribution.

13.1.4 Following the Effective Date, Franchisee shall make a Monthly Platform Access Fund Contribution on the tenth (10th) day of each calendar month in the amount designated and required by Franchisor from time to time, which is currently $300 per calendar month, and which shall not exceed $500 per calendar month for any Fiesta franchisee.

13.1.5 The Marketing Fund and the Platform Access Fund (collectively, the "Marketing Funds") shall be administered by Franchisor. The Marketing Funds shall be used to meet the costs of conducting regional and/or national advertising and promotional activities (including the cost of advertising campaigns, test marketing, marketing surveys, public relations activities and marketing materials) which we deem beneficial to the System. Franchisor is authorized to charge the Marketing Funds fees at reasonable market rates for advertising, marketing or promotional services actually provided by Franchisor, in lieu of engaging third party agencies to provide these services. Franchisor may employ individuals, consultants or advertising or other agencies, including consultants or agencies owned by, operated by or affiliated with Franchisor, to provide services for the Marketing Funds. The Marketing Funds may be used to defray direct expenses of Franchisor's employees related to the operation of the Marketing Funds, to pay for attorney's fees and other costs related to the defense of claims against the Marketing Funds or against Franchisor relating to the Marketing Funds, and to pay costs with respect to collecting amounts due to the Marketing Funds. Among other things, the Marketing Funds may be used for Web Site development/operation and to pay portal, Internet, Intranet, URL, 800 or similar number, and other charges, fees and/or expenses. A brief statement regarding the availability of Fiesta Insurance franchises may be included in advertising and other items produced using the Marketing Funds, which shall not otherwise be used to solicit or to sell, Fiesta Insurance franchises to prospective franchisees.

13.1.6 All expenditures of the Marketing Funds shall be at Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisor may spend in any calendar year more or less than the total contributions to the Marketing Funds in that year, and any excess may be accumulated for use during subsequent years. Franchisor may borrow from itself or other lenders on behalf of the Marketing Funds to cover deficits of the Marketing Funds or cause the Marketing Funds to invest any surplus for future use by the Marketing Funds.

13.1.7 Franchisee authorizes Franchisor to act as its sole agent to enter into contracts with parties offering promotion, discount or other programs whereby Franchisor would receive rebates or marketing allowances ("Rebates") from handling items offered for sale by the parties. All Rebates shall be paid to the Marketing Funds or Franchisor and, if to Franchisor, Franchisor shall pay the Rebates to the Marketing Funds. By signing this Agreement, Franchisee assigns all of its right, title and interest in all Rebates to the Marketing Funds, and authorizes Franchisor to furnish any proof of purchase evidence as may be required in accordance with the contracts. All Rebates received by Franchisor resulting from the operation of company-owned Fiesta Insurance businesses by Franchisor or its affiliates shall also be contributed to the Marketing Funds.

13.1.8 Franchisor shall prepare an annual report of the Marketing Funds, at the expense of the Marketing Funds, and send a copy of the annual report, once a year, to Franchisee and all other Fiesta Insurance franchisees within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of each fiscal year upon request. The report will state the total amount of money collected and spent by the Marketing Funds during the previous year and list, by general category, the manner in which Franchisor spent the money. The report will not be separately audited but will be examined as part of the overall annual audit of Franchisor's books.

13.2 Content and Concepts.

13.2.1 Franchisor retains sole discretion over all advertising, marketing and public relations programs and activities financed by the Marketing Funds, including the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used and the geographic market, media placement and allocation. Franchisee agrees that the Marketing Funds may be used to pay the costs of preparing and producing associated materials and programs as Franchisor determines, including video, audio and written advertising materials employing advertising agencies, sponsorship of sporting, charitable or similar events, administering regional and multi-regional advertising programs including purchasing direct mail and other media advertising, and employing advertising agencies to assist with marketing efforts, and supporting public relations, market research and other advertising, promotional and marketing activities.

13.2.2 Franchisee acknowledges that the Monthly Marketing Fund Contributions and the Monthly Platform Access Fund Contributions are intended to maximize general public recognition of and the acceptance of the Fiesta Insurance brand for the benefit of the System as a whole. Franchisor undertakes no obligation, in administering the Marketing Funds, to make expenditures for Franchisee that are equivalent or proportionate to Franchisee's Monthly Marketing Fund Contributions or Monthly Platform Access Fund Contribution, or to insure that any particular Fiesta Insurance franchise benefits directly or pro rata from advertising or promotion conducted with the Monthly Marketing Fund Contributions or with the Monthly Platform Access Fund Contributions.

13.3 Termination of Contributions to the Marketing Funds. Franchisor shall have the right, from time to time during the Term, to require, terminate and reinstate the collection of the Monthly Marketing Fund Contributions for the Marketing Fund and the Monthly Platform Access Fund Contributions for the Platform Access Fund. Upon termination, Franchisor shall disburse the remaining Marketing Funds and/or Platform Access Funds on hand for the purposes authorized under this Agreement. Franchisor or affiliate owned Fiesta Insurance businesses shall contribute to the Marketing Fund and the Monthly Platform Access Fund Contribution on the same basis as Franchisee is required to contribute to the Marketing Fund and the Monthly Platform Access Fund Contribution.

14. TRANSFER OF INTEREST

14.1 Transfer by Franchisor. Franchisor shall have the right to transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any person or legal entity. With respect to any assignment which results in the subsequent performance by the assignee of all of Franchisor's obligations under this Agreement, the assignee shall expressly assume and agree to perform such obligations, and shall become solely responsible for all obligations of Franchisor under this Agreement from the date of assignment. In addition, and without limitation to the foregoing, Franchisee expressly affirms and agrees that Franchisor, and/or its Affiliates, may sell their assets, the Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights or Fiesta System; may sell securities in a public offering or in a private placement; may merge, acquire other corporations or be acquired by another corporation; and may undertake a refinancing, recapitalization, leveraged buy-out or other economic or financial restructuring. With regard to any of the above sales, assignments and dispositions, Franchisee expressly and specifically waives any claims, demands or damages arising from or related to the loss of Franchisor's name, the Proprietary Marks (or any variation thereof), the Copyrights (or any variation thereof), or Fiesta System and/or the loss of association with, or identification of, Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation, as Franchisor under this Agreement. Franchisee specifically waives any and all other claims, demands or damages arising from or related to the foregoing merger, acquisition and other business combination activities including, without limitation, any claim of divided loyalty, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, breach of contract or breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Franchisee agrees that Franchisor has the right, now or in the future, to purchase, merge, acquire or affiliate with an existing competitive or non-competitive franchise network, chain or any other business regardless of the location of that chain's or business' facilities, and to operate, franchise or license those businesses and/or facilities as the Fiesta Franchised Businesses operating under the Proprietary Marks or any other marks following Franchisor's purchase, merger, acquisition or affiliation, regardless of the location of these facilities (which Franchisee acknowledges may be proximate to the Franchised Business).

14.2 Transfer by Franchisee. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Franchisee, and that Franchisor has granted this franchise in reliance on Franchisee's business skill, financial capacity, and personal character. Accordingly, neither Franchisee nor any immediate or remote successor to any part of Franchisee's interest in this Agreement, shall sell, encumber, assign, transfer, convey, pledge, merge, or give away any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement, in Franchisee, or in all or substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business without the prior written consent of Franchisor. Any purported assignment or transfer not having the written consent of Franchisor required by this Section 14.2 shall be null and void and shall constitute a default of this Agreement, for which Franchisor may immediately terminate without opportunity to cure pursuant to Section 15.2.3 of this Agreement.

14.3 Requirements for Transfer. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, require any or all of the following as conditions of its consent to a transfer set forth in Section 14.2:

14.3.1 Franchisee shall not be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment of this Agreement or successor hereto, or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor, or its affiliates.

14.3.2 The transferor shall execute a General Release, in substantially the form of Exhibit I attached to this Agreement.

14.3.3 The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the assignment and that the terms of the proposed assignment do not place an unreasonable financial burden on the transferee, and Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor shall be entitled, in connection with assessing the financial burden placed upon any prospective transferee, to share with such prospective assignee information relating to the Franchised Business, including information in Franchisor's possession relating to operations at the Franchised Business.

14.3.4 The transferee shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the terms of the proposed assignment do not place an unreasonable operational burden on the transferee, and that the transferee meets Franchisor's standards for: (i) work experience and aptitude; (ii) character and reputation; (iii) absence of conflicting interests; and (iv) such other criteria and conditions as Franchisor shall then consider relevant in the case of an application for a new franchise by an applicant not currently operating a Franchised Business.

14.3.5 At Franchisor's request, the transferee shall execute, for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, the current standard form of Franchise Agreement then being offered to new franchisees, which Franchise Agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and the terms of which Franchise Agreement may differ materially from the terms of this Agreement and may be less favorable to the transferee; provided, however, that the transferee shall not be required to pay an Initial Franchise Fee or transfer fee. Franchisee shall, however, pay Franchisor a transfer fee equal to ten percent (10%) of the sales price of the interest to be conveyed (the "Transfer Fee"); plus Franchisor's out of pocket costs associated with the transfer, including attorneys' fees associated with the transfer. The Transfer Fee shall be no less than $1,000 and no more than $5,000.

14.3.6 At Franchisor's request, Franchisee, as assignor, shall execute a continuing guarantee in favor of Franchisor of the performance and payment by the proposed transferee, of all obligations and debts to Franchisor and its Affiliates under the new Franchise Agreement.

14.3.7 The transferee and each partner, shareholder or member of the transferee, as the case may be, must be a United States citizen or lawful resident alien of the United States and must have sufficient literacy and fluency in the English language sufficient, in Franchisor's opinion, to communicate with employees, customers, and suppliers of Franchisor and to satisfactorily complete Franchisor's required training program and such other tests and interviews as Franchisor shall reasonably deem to be necessary or desirable. Franchisee shall provide Franchisor with such information as Franchisor may require to make a determination concerning such proposed transfer.

14.3.8 The transferee shall successfully complete, at its expense, the required initial training described in Section 6.1, including payment of the then-current training fee charged by Franchisor (currently, $7,500 in those circumstances where Franchisee is required to pay a fee for trainees at the initial training programs.

14.3.9 The transferor and transferee must use an independent third party escrow company in connection with the sale.

14.3.10 Franchisee shall remain liable for all of Franchisee's obligations to Franchisor and its affiliates which arose prior to the effective date of the transfer, and shall execute any documents reasonably requested by Franchisor to evidence such liability.

14.3.11 The sales price of the interest to be conveyed must not be so high, or the terms of the sale so onerous, that, in Franchisor's judgment, the transferee will be unlikely to properly maintain, operate and promote the Franchised Business and meet the transferee's financial and other obligations to Franchisor, third party suppliers and creditors. This provision shall not create any liability to either transferor or transferee on Franchisor's part, in the event that Franchisor approves the transfer and the transferee experiences financial difficulties.

14.4 Granting of a Security Interest. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, Franchisee shall not grant a security interest in the Franchised Business or in any of the assets of the Franchised Business without the prior written consent of Franchisor.

14.5 Right of First Refusal. If Franchisee desires to accept any bona fide offer from a third party to purchase the Franchised Business and Franchisee's interests under this Agreement, Franchisee shall notify Franchisor of such offer at least twenty (20) days before such transfer is proposed to take place, and shall provide such information and documentation relating to the offer as Franchisor may require. Franchisor shall have the right and option, exercisable within ten (10) days after receipt of such written notification and any background materials concerning the proposed transfer that Franchisor shall reasonably request, to send written notice to the seller that Franchisor intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party. If Franchisor elects to purchase the seller's interest, the closing on such purchase shall occur within twenty (20) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Franchisor. If Franchisor declines to purchase the seller's interest, Franchisee shall have twenty (20) days to close on the transfer of such interest subject to Franchisor's approval pursuant to Section 14.3. Failure to effect a transfer with the third party within the twenty (20) day period, or any material change thereafter in the terms of the offer prior to closing, shall constitute a new offer subject to the same rights of first refusal by Franchisor as in the case of the third party's initial offer.

14.6 Death or Incapacitation. Upon the death or permanent incapacity (mental or physical) of Franchisee, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of such person shall continuously operate the Franchised Business as required by this Agreement and shall transfer such interest to a third party approved by Franchisor within six (6) months after such death or mental incapacity. Such transfers, including, without limitation, transfers by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any inter vivos transfer, except that the Transfer Fee shall be waived. In the case of transfer by devise or inheritance, however, if the heirs or beneficiaries of any such person are unable to meet the conditions of this Section 14, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of the decedent shall transfer the decedent's interest to another party approved by Franchisor, which disposition shall be subject to all the terms and conditions for transfers contained in this Agreement. If the interest is not disposed of within such period, Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement, pursuant to Section 15.2.4 of this Agreement.

14.7 Non-Waiver of Claims. Franchisor's consent to a transfer shall not constitute a waiver of any claims Franchisor may have against the transferring party, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the transferor or transferee.

14.8 Transfer in Bankruptcy. If, for any reason, this Agreement is not terminated pursuant to Section 15.1 and this Agreement is assumed, or assignment of the same to any person or entity who has made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Agreement is contemplated, pursuant to the United States Bankruptcy Code, then notice of such proposed assignment or assumption, setting forth: (i) the name and address of the proposed assignee, and (ii) all of the terms and conditions of the proposed assignment and assumption, shall be given to Franchisor within twenty (20) days after receipt of such proposed assignee's offer to accept assignment of this Agreement, and, in any event, within ten (10) days prior to the date application is made to a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assignment and assumption, and Franchisor shall thereupon have the prior right and option, to be exercised by notice given at any time prior to the effective date of such proposed assignment and assumption, to accept an assignment of this Agreement to Franchisor itself upon the same terms and conditions and for the same consideration, if any, as in the bona fide offer made by the proposed assignee, less any brokerage commissions which may be payable by Franchisee out of the consideration to be paid by such assignee for the assignment of this Agreement.

14.9 Entity Franchisee. Franchisee represents and warrants that the information set forth in Exhibit C, attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof, is accurate and complete in all material respects. Franchisee shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days of any change in the information set forth in Exhibit C, and shall submit to Franchisor a revised Exhibit C, certified by Franchisee as true, correct and complete and upon acceptance thereof by Franchisor shall be attached to this Agreement as Exhibit C. Franchisee promptly shall provide such additional information as Franchisor may from time to time request concerning all persons who may have any direct or indirect financial interest in Franchisee.

14.10 Assignment to a Controlled Entity. If Franchisee is an individual, individuals or a partnership, Franchisor consents to the assignment of this franchise to a corporation or limited liability company formed and controlled by Franchisee to operate the Franchised Business; provided, however, that each present and future shareholder and member of a corporation or limited liability company shall jointly and severally guarantee Franchisee's performance of each and every provision of this Agreement by executing a Guarantee in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit D and provided, further, that Franchisee shall be and remain, together with said corporation and its shareholders, or said limited liability company and its members, jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Agreement, and for all breaches thereof and, provided further, that Franchisee shall continue to supervise the operation of the Franchised Business. Franchisee shall immediately notify Franchisor of any such assignment and shall complete all appropriate agreements required by Franchisor as a result thereof. No Transfer Fee shall be charged by Franchisor for its participation in this type of transfer.

15. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

15.1 Bankruptcy or Insolvency. Franchisee shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted to Franchisee under this Agreement shall automatically terminate without notice to Franchisee, if Franchisee or the "Guarantors" named in Exhibit D become insolvent or make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Franchisee or the Guarantors or such a petition is filed against and not opposed by Franchisee or the Guarantors; if Franchisee or the Guarantors are adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent; if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Franchisee or other custodian for Franchisee's business or assets is filed and consented to by Franchisee; if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Franchisee's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction; if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law is instituted by or against Franchisee; if a final judgment remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless a supersedeas bond is filed); if Franchisee is dissolved; if execution is levied against Franchisee's business or property; if suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Franchised Business or assets is instituted against Franchisee and not dismissed within thirty (30) days; or if the real or personal property of the Franchised Business is sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal, or constable.

15.2 Notice Without Opportunity to Cure. Franchisee shall be in default under this Agreement, and Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement and all rights granted under this Agreement, without affording Franchisee any opportunity to cure the default, effective immediately upon receipt of notice by Franchisee (as "Receipt" is defined in Section 19.3 of this Agreement) upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

15.2.1 If Franchisee at any time ceases to operate or otherwise abandons the Franchised Business without the consent of Franchisor for a period of more than five (5) consecutive days.

15.2.2 If Franchisee or a Guarantor is convicted of a felony, a crime involving moral turpitude, or any other crime or offense that Franchisor believes is reasonably likely to have an adverse effect on the Fiesta System, the Copyrights, the Proprietary Marks, the goodwill associated therewith, or Franchisor's interest therein.

15.2.3 If any purported assignment or transfer of any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement, in Franchisee, or in all or substantially all of the assets of the Franchised Business or any other Franchised Business owned by Franchisee or the Guarantors, whether individually or collectively, is made to any third party without Franchisor's prior written consent, or any transfer of forty-nine percent (49%) or more of the capital stock membership interests, partnership rights, or other equity interests of Franchisee, contrary to the terms of Section 14 of this Agreement.

15.2.4 If an approved transfer as required by Section 14.6 of this Agreement, is not effected within the time provided following a death or permanent incapacity (mental or physical).

15.2.5 If Franchisee fails to comply with the covenants in Section 17 of this Agreement.

15.2.6 If, contrary to the terms of Section 11 of this Agreement, Franchisee, any principal or employee of Franchisee, discloses or divulges the contents of the Operations Manual or other Confidential Information provided to Franchisee by Franchisor.

15.2.7 If Franchisee has made any material misrepresentations in connection with Franchisee's application to Franchisor for the franchise granted under this Agreement.

15.2.8 If Franchisee, after curing a default pursuant to Section 15.3 of this Agreement, commits the same, similar, or different default again, whether or not cured after notice.

15.2.9 If Franchisee is in breach of the covenants of Section 7.1 or 7.2 or otherwise loses, through revocation, forfeiture, failure to renew, or otherwise, any license required by applicable law with respect to the operation of the Franchised Business.

15.2.10 If Franchisee fails to successfully complete the initial training required by Section 6.1.

15.2.11 If Franchisee fails to obtain or maintain required insurance coverage as required by Section 12 of this Agreement.

15.2.12 If Franchisee fails to make timely payments upon any obligation of Franchisee or any obligation of Franchisee upon which Franchisor has advanced any funds for or on behalf of Franchisee.

15.2.13 If Franchisee fails to comply with any or all of the terms of this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor, or its affiliates, and Franchisee within five (5) days after receipt of written notice from Franchisor to do so.

15.2.14 If, in Franchisor's Business Judgment, Franchisor has grounds to believe that Franchisee or any of its officers, or directors has engaged in any lewd or immoral conduct, whether or not in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business, or in any unlawful form of harassment or discrimination.

15.2.15 If Franchisee fails, for a period of ten (10) days after notification of noncompliance, to comply with any federal, state or local law or regulation applicable to the operation of the franchise.

15.2.16 If Franchisee closes the Franchised Business for a period of more than two (2) consecutive days during a Tax Season without Franchisor's prior written consent or violates any IRS Code, Regulation, or Handbook, resulting in Franchisee's suspension or expulsion from any programs or rights necessary for, or in connection with, the preparation of tax returns.

15.2.17 If, in Franchisor's Business Judgment, Franchisor has grounds to believe that Franchisee or any of its officers, directors, or key employees has engaged or attempted to engage, through one or more affirmative acts or a failure to act, in any fraudulent, dishonest, unethical, immoral, or similar conduct in connection with the operation of the Franchised Business, whether such conduct is directed at or reasonably expected to impact the Franchised Business, the Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights, the Fiesta System, the Franchisor or its affiliates, suppliers, other franchisees, or another third party.

15.2.18 If Franchisee solicits clients of the Franchised Business to terminate their business relationships with any business in the Fiesta System and conduct business with Franchisee, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, or legal entity, or any business that is the same or similar to the Franchised Business or which offers services which are the same as or similar to the products and services being offered by the Franchised Business at the time of the solicitation.

15.2.19 If Franchisee defaults in any obligation under this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee that is not by its nature capable of being cured by Franchisee.

15.3 Notice With Opportunity to Cure. Except as otherwise provided in Section 15.1 and Section 15.2 of this Agreement, Franchisee shall have ten (10) days after its receipt (as "Receipt" is defined in Section 19.3 of this Agreement) from Franchisor of a written notice of default within which to remedy any default under this Agreement and to provide evidence thereof to Franchisor. If any such default is not cured within the specified time, or such longer period as applicable law may require, Franchisor shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by providing written notice of termination to Franchisee. Franchisee shall be in default pursuant to this Section 15.3 for failure to substantially comply with any of the requirements imposed by this Agreement, as it may from time to time reasonably be modified or supplemented by the Operations Manual, or failure to carry out the terms of this Agreement in good faith.

15.4 Cross-Default. Any default by Franchisee under the terms and conditions of this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor, or its affiliates, and Franchisee, shall be deemed to be a default of each and every other such agreement. In the event of the termination of this Agreement for any cause, or the termination of any other agreement between Franchisor, or its affiliates, and Franchisee, Franchisor may, at its option, terminate any or all of such other agreements.

15.5 Options At Termination. Upon any Default under Sections 15.2 or 15.3, Franchisor may (i) immediately terminate this Agreement and all rights granted to Franchisee under this Agreement; (ii) eliminate or diminish Franchisee's rights with respect to the Protected Area or the size of the Protected Area, the Initial Term, the Renewal Right and/or the Renewal Term, or (iii) take any one or more of the actions provided in this Section 15.5, by written notice to Franchisee.

16. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights granted under this Agreement to Franchisee shall forthwith terminate and the following items described in Sections 16.1 through 16.7 shall occur:

16.1 Cessation of Operations. Franchisee shall immediately cease to operate the Franchised Business, and shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public or hold itself out as a present or former franchisee of Franchisor. Franchisee shall immediately and permanently cease to use, by advertising or in any other manner whatsoever, any confidential methods, procedures, and techniques associated with the Fiesta System, the Copyrights, and all Proprietary Marks and distinctive forms, slogans, signs, symbols, and devices associated with the Fiesta System. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that the use of Franchisor's Copyrights or Proprietary Marks after termination or expiration of this Agreement constitutes an unauthorized use of an identical mark and Franchisor shall be entitled to damages due to, but not limited to, copyright and trademark infringement and counterfeiting.

16.2 Fictitious Business Names, Telephone Numbers and Domain Names. Franchisee hereby acknowledges that all fictitious business names, telephone and facsimile numbers, Internet addresses and electronic mail addresses and domain names used in the operation of the Franchised Business constitute assets of the Franchised Business and Franchisee shall execute all documents and authorization forms, prescribed by Franchisor, to cause the assignment to Franchisor or its designee, of all Franchisee's right, title and interest in and to Franchisee's fictitious business names, telephone and facsimile numbers, Internet addresses and electronic mail addresses and domain names and shall notify the telephone company and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of Franchisee's right to use any telephone and facsimile numbers, Internet addresses and electronic mail addresses and domain names and any regular, classified or other telephone directory listing associated with the Marks and compel a transfer of same to or at the direction of Franchisor.

16.3 Return of Operations Manual and Confidential Information. Franchisee shall immediately deliver to Franchisor the Operations Manual and all other manuals, records, correspondence, files, and any instructions containing Confidential Information relating to the operation of the Franchised Business which are in Franchisee's possession; all memorandum, notes, records, reports, manuals, drawings, and other documents (and all copies thereof) relating to Franchisor's business, the Book of Business and all property associated therewith, and all copies thereof (all of which are acknowledged to be the property of Franchisor).

16.4 Post Term Covenants. All covenants, obligations, and agreements of Franchisee which by their terms or by reasonable implication are to be performed, in whole or in part, after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, shall survive such termination or expiration.

16.5 Payment of Commissions and Tax Return Preparation Royalty Fees. Franchisor shall make a final payment of Commissions and remit the Gross Tax Return Revenue (after Franchisor's deduction of its Tax Return Preparation Royalty Fees) to Franchisee within ninety (90) days following Franchisor's receipt of Gross Franchise Revenue for the periods in question.

16.6 Notice of Termination to Clients. Franchisor shall have the sole right to notify all clients of Franchisee of the termination or expiration of this Agreement at the time and in the manner Franchisor determines to be most appropriate. Franchisee shall not give notice of the termination or the expiration of this Agreement to Franchisee's clients without Franchisor's prior written consent. All existing clients of Franchisee shall be the property of Franchisor. Franchisee shall assist Franchisor in transferring the accounts for all clients to Franchisor upon the termination or the expiration of this Agreement at such times and in the manner designated by Franchisor.

16.7 Option to Take Assignment of Lease for Franchised Location. Franchisor shall have the option, exercisable by written notice within thirty (30) days after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, to take an assignment and physical possession of the Franchised Location in accordance with Section 5.2.5 of this Agreement and Exhibit F attached to this Agreement. Franchisee shall not be entitled to any compensation from Franchisor if Franchisor exercises this option.

16.8 Security Interest. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that in addition to any other rights and remedies to which Franchisor may be entitled, Franchisor may enforce any rights and remedies of a secured party under the UCC as enacted in the state where the Franchised Location is located, pursuant to the security interest granted in Section 4.15, including, without limitation, the right to enter the Franchised Location to remove and repossess any items in which Franchisor has been granted a security interest, without notice to Franchisee. Franchisee hereby waives and releases Franchisor and its affiliates from any and all claims in connection therewith and arising therefrom. At the request of Franchisor following the event of a Default, Franchisee shall assemble and make available to Franchisor all items in which Franchisor has been granted a security interest at a place to be designated by Franchisor which is reasonably convenient to both Parties.

16.9 Survival of Obligations. In no event shall a termination or expiration of this Agreement affect Franchisee's obligations to take or abstain from taking any action in accordance with this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement which by their nature or expressly constitute post-termination (or post-expiration) covenants and agreements, shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

17. COVENANTS

17.1 During Term of Agreement. Franchisee specifically acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee shall receive valuable specialized training and Confidential Information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the Fiesta System. Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, all principals of Franchisee) covenants that during the Term, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Franchisee (or, if Franchisee is a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, all principals of Franchisee) shall not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, or legal entity:

17.1.1 Divert or attempt to divert any present or prospective customer to any competitor, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks, the Copyrights and the Fiesta System;

17.1.2 Own, maintain, advise, operate, engage in, be employed by, make loans to, invest in, provide any assistance to, or have any interest in (as owner or otherwise) or relationship or association with, any business that is associated with the sale of any type of insurance and/or with retail tax return preparation and tax filing services (a "Competitive Business").

17.2 After Expiration or Termination of Agreement. Franchisee specifically acknowledges and agrees that prior to becoming a franchisee of Franchisor, Franchisee had no experience, information or knowledge whatsoever about a business that offers automobile insurance policies, tax return preparation or tax filing services or related services to the public or of a Fiesta Franchised Business and that Franchisee's knowledge of the Confidential Information was obtained solely from Franchisor following Franchisee's training by Franchisor and Franchisee's subsequent operation of the Franchised Business under this Agreement. Franchisee further specifically acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Franchisee shall receive valuable specialized training and Confidential Information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the Fiesta System. Commencing upon the date of: (i) a transfer permitted under Section 14 of this Agreement; (ii) expiration of this Agreement; (iii) termination of this Agreement (regardless of the cause for termination); or (iv) a final court order (after all appeals have been taken) with respect to any of the foregoing events or with respect to enforcement of this Section 17.2, and continuing for an uninterrupted period of two (2) years thereafter, Franchisee shall not, without Franchisor's prior written consent, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, or legal entity:

17.2.1 Own, maintain, advise, operate, engage in, be employed by, make loans to, or have any interest in or relationship or association with a Competitive Business that is, or is intended to be, located at the Franchised Location or anywhere else within the Protected Area; accept employment from, contract with, or maintain an ownership interest in a competitive brokerage or agency (defined as a brokerage/agency whose primary business is insurance sales and/or tax services) that is, or is intended to be, located at the Franchised Location or anywhere else within the Protected Area; and/or disrupt, impair or otherwise interfere with the business of Franchisor, or any franchisee of Franchisor, including disrupting its/their relationships with customers, agents, representatives or vendors or otherwise.

17.2.2 Solicit clients of the Franchised Business to terminate their business relationships with the Fiesta System and conduct business with Franchisee, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, persons, or legal entity, or any Competitive Business.

17.2.3 Lease, sublease or otherwise permit any person to conduct any Competitive Business at the former Franchised Location.

17.3 Violation of Non-Compete Covenants. If Franchisee shall commit any violation of Section 17.2 during the two (2) year period following (i) a transfer permitted under Section 14 of this Agreement; (ii) the expiration of this Agreement; (iii) the termination of this Agreement (regardless of the cause for termination); or (iv) the issuance of a final court order (after all appeals have been taken), in addition to all other remedies available to Franchisor, Franchisee shall pay Franchisor, throughout the two (2) year period, fifty percent (50%) of all commissions/compensation earned by Franchisee from any activities of Franchisee which violate Section 17.2. Franchisee shall account and pay to Franchisor its fifty percent (50%) interest in the commissions/compensation on the tenth (10th) day of each month on all compensation/commissions received by Franchisee during the previous month. Franchisor shall have the right to audit Franchisee's books and records to confirm Franchisee's compliance with this Section 17.3, upon reasonable notice to Franchisee.

17.4 Exceptions to Non-Compete Covenants. Sections 17.1 and 17.2 shall not apply to ownership by Franchisee of a less than five percent (5%) beneficial interest in the outstanding equity securities of any company registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

17.5 Reducing Scope of Covenants. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Sections 17.1 and 17.2, or any portion thereof, without Franchisee's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of written notice thereof; and Franchisee agrees that Franchisee shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, which shall be fully enforceable notwithstanding the provisions of Section 17.1 or Section 17.2 of this Agreement.

17.6 Permission from Franchisor. If Franchisor expressly grants Franchisee permission in writing to compete with Franchisor pursuant to an arrangement to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Section 17.2, made under Section 17.5 or otherwise, as a condition to being granted such permission, Franchisee must pay Franchisor, throughout the two (2) year period following the (i) a transfer permitted under Section 14 of this Agreement; (ii) the expiration of this Agreement; (iii) the termination of this Agreement (regardless of the cause for termination); or (iv) the issuance of a final court order (after all appeals have been taken) with respect to any of the foregoing events or with respect to enforcement of Section 17.2, fifty percent (50%) of all commissions/compensation received by Franchisee from any competitor, customer, client, vendor, or account of Franchisor (unless modified in writing by Franchisor) including, but not limited to, those who were procured by Franchisee or those with whom Franchisee became acquainted by reason of this Agreement, or by reason of Franchisee's access to, or knowledge of, Confidential Information disclosed to Franchisee during the term of this Agreement. Franchisee shall account and pay to Franchisor, Franchisor's fifty percent (50%) interest in the commissions/compensation on the tenth (10th) day of each month on all compensation/commissions received by Franchisee during the previous month. Franchisor shall have the right to audit Franchisee's books and records to confirm Franchisee's compliance with this Section 17.6, upon reasonable notice to Franchisee.

17.7 Enforceability Not Affected by Claims. Franchisee agrees that the existence of any claims Franchisee may have against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Section 17. Franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by Franchisor in connection with the enforcement of this Section 17.

17.8 Irreparable Injury. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee's violation of any covenant of this Section 17 would result in irreparable injury to Franchisor for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee consents to the issuance of, and shall pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining, without the posting of any bond, an ex-parte or other order for injunctive or other legal or equitable relief with respect to such conduct or action.

18. RESPONSIBILITY, INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

18.1 No Fiduciary Relationship. This Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between the parties hereto. Franchisee shall be an independent contractor; and nothing in this Agreement is intended to constitute or appoint either party an agent, legal representative, subsidiary, joint venturer, partner, employee, or servant of the other for any purpose whatsoever. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee is not authorized to make any warranty, or representation on Franchisor's behalf, or to incur any debt or other obligations in Franchisor's name; and that Franchisor shall in no event assume liability for, or be deemed liable under this Agreement as a result of, any such action; nor shall Franchisor be liable by reason of any act or omission of Franchisee in its conduct of the Franchised Business or for any claim or judgment arising therefrom against Franchisee or Franchisor.

18.2 Indemnification. Franchisee shall indemnify and hold harmless to the fullest extent by law, Franchisor, its affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees, shareholders, and agents, (collectively the "Indemnitees") from any and all "losses and expenses" (as hereinafter defined) incurred in connection with any litigation or other form of adjudicatory procedure, claim, demand, investigation, or formal or informal inquiry (regardless of whether same is reduced to judgment) or any settlement thereof, and regardless of whether the same is between Indemnitors and Indemnitees, which arises directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business (collectively an "Event"), and regardless of whether same resulted from any strict or vicarious liability imposed by law on the Indemnitees. For the purpose of this Section 18.2, the term "losses and expenses" shall be deemed to include compensatory, exemplary, or punitive damages; fines and penalties; attorneys' fees; experts' fees; court costs; costs associated with investigating and defending against claims; settlement amounts; judgments; compensation for damages to Franchisor's reputation and goodwill; and all other costs associated with any of the foregoing losses and expenses. Franchisee shall give Franchisor prompt notice of any Event of which Franchisee is aware, for which indemnification is required, and, at the expense and risk of Franchisee, Franchisor may elect to assume (but under no circumstance is obligated to undertake) the defense and/or settlement thereof, provided that Franchisor shall seek the advice and counsel of Franchisee. Any assumption of Franchisor shall not modify Franchisee's indemnification obligation. Franchisor may, in its sole judgment, take such actions as Franchisor seems necessary and appropriate to investigate, defend, or settle any Event or take other remedial or corrective actions with respect thereof as may be, in Franchisor's sole judgment, necessary for the protection of the indemnities or the Fiesta System.

18.3 The term "Franchisee" as used in this Agreement shall refer to each person executing this Agreement as Franchisee, whether such person is one of the spouses, partners, shareholders, members, trustees, trustors or beneficiaries or persons named as included in Franchisee, and shall apply to each such person as if he were the only named Franchisee in this Agreement.

18.3.1 If Franchisee is a married couple, both husband and wife executing this Agreement shall be liable for all obligations and duties of Franchisee under this Agreement as if such spouse were the sole Franchisee under this Agreement.

18.3.2 If Franchisee is a partnership or if more than one person executes this Agreement as Franchisee, each partner or person executing this Agreement shall be liable for all the obligations and duties of Franchisee under this Agreement.

18.3.3 If Franchisee is a trust, each trustee, trustor and beneficiary signing this Agreement shall be liable for all of the obligations and duties of Franchisee under this Agreement.

18.3.4 If Franchisee is a corporation or limited liability company, all shareholders or members executing this Agreement shall be liable for all obligations and duties of Franchisee under this Agreement as if each such shareholder or member were the sole Franchisee under this Agreement.

18.3.5 If Franchisee is in breach or default under this Agreement, Franchisor may proceed directly against each such spouse, partner, signatory to this Agreement, shareholder, member, trustee, trustor or beneficiary without first proceeding against Franchisee and without proceeding against or naming in such suit any other Franchisee, partner, signatory to this Agreement, shareholder, member, trustee, trustor or beneficiary. The obligations of Franchisee and each such spouse, partner, person executing this Agreement, shareholder, member, trustee, trustor and beneficiary shall be joint and several.

18.3.6 Notice to or demand upon one spouse, partner, person signing this Agreement, shareholder, member, trustee, trustor or beneficiary shall be deemed notice to or demand upon Franchisee and all such spouses, partners, persons signing this Agreement, shareholders, members, trustees, trustors and beneficiaries, and no notice or demand need be made to or upon all such Franchisee's, spouses, partners, persons executing this Agreement, shareholders, members, trustees, trustors or beneficiaries.

18.3.7 The cessation of or release from liability of Franchisee, or any such spouse, partner, person executing this Agreement, shareholder, member, trustee, trustor or beneficiary shall not relieve any other Franchisee, spouse, partner, person executing this Agreement, shareholder, member, trustee, trustor or beneficiary from liability under this Agreement, except to the extent that the breach or default has been remedied or monies owed have been paid.

19. APPROVALS, WAIVERS, AND NOTICES

19.1 Obtaining Approvals. Whenever this Agreement requires the prior approval or consent of Franchisor, Franchisee shall make a timely written request to Franchisor therefor, and such approval or consent must be obtained in writing. Franchisor makes no warranties or guarantees upon which Franchisee may rely, and assumes no liability or obligation to Franchisee, by providing any waiver, approval, consent, or suggestion to Franchisee in connection with this Agreement, or by reason of any neglect, delay, or denial of any request therefor.

19.2 No Waiver. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of Franchisor to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Franchisee, or by any other franchisee, of any of the terms, provisions, or covenants thereof, and no custom or practice by the parties at variance with the terms of this Agreement, shall constitute a waiver by Franchisor to enforce any such right, option, or power as against Franchisee, or as to a subsequent breach or default by Franchisee. Subsequent acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due to Franchisor under this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Franchisor of any preceding or succeeding breach by Franchisee of any terms, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

19.3 Notices. All notices or demands shall be in writing and shall be served in person, by Express Mail, by Certified Mail, by private overnight delivery to the last known address of Franchisor and Franchisee, or by electronic transmission (email). "Receipt" shall take place (i) at the time of service, if personally served; (ii) twenty-four (24) hours (exclusive of weekends and national holidays) after deposit in the United States mail, properly addressed and postage prepaid, if served by Express Mail; (iii) upon the earlier of actual receipt or three (3) business days after deposit in the United States mail, by Registered or Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, properly addressed and postage prepaid; (iv) twenty-four (24) hours after delivery by the party giving the notice, statement or demand if by private overnight delivery; and (v) on the day of electronic transmission to the email address given below if confirmation of receipt is obtained by the sender promptly after completion of electronic transmission. 20. ENTIRE AGREEMENT, SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION

20.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, any attachments hereto, and any ancillary agreements between Franchisee and Franchisor or any affiliate which are executed contemporaneously with this Agreement, constitute the entire and complete Agreement between Franchisor (and, if applicable, any affiliate) and Franchisee concerning the subject matter thereof, and supersede all prior agreements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement is intended to disclaim representations Franchisor made to Franchisee in the Franchise Disclosure Document or in any related document that Franchisor heretofore furnished to Franchisee.

20.2 Severability and Construction. If, for any reason, any section, paragraph, part, term, provision, and/or covenant in this Agreement is determined to be invalid and contrary to, or in conflict with, any existing or future law or regulation by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction, the same such shall not impair the operation of, or have any other effect upon, such other portions, sections, paragraphs, parts, terms, provisions, and/or covenants of this Agreement and the latter shall continue to be given full force and effect and bind the parties hereto. Neither this Agreement or any uncertainty or ambiguity in this Agreement shall be construed or resolved against the drafter of this Agreement.

20.3 Survival After Expiration or Termination of Agreement. Any provision or covenant of this Agreement which expressly or by its nature imposes obligations beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall survive such expiration or termination.

20.4 Captions. All captions in this Agreement are intended for the convenience of the parties, and none shall be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement.

20.5 Amendments. Except as stated in this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement cannot be amended, supplemented, waived or changed orally, except by a written document signed by the party against whom enforcement of any amendment, supplement, waiver or modification is sought and making specific reference to this Agreement.

20.6 Modification of the System. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisor may modify the System. Franchisee shall accept and be bound by any modifications in the System as if they were part of this Agreement at the time of signing of this Agreement. Franchisee shall make all expenditures for, and modifications of, the System, as Franchisor requires.

21. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND APPLICABLE LAW

21.1 Choice of Law. This Agreement takes effect upon its acceptance and execution by Franchisor in Nevada, and shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of Nevada. If, however, any provision of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of State of Nevada, and if the Franchised Business is located outside of Nevada and such provision would be enforceable under the laws of the State in which the Franchised Business is located, then such provision shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that State. Nothing in this Section 21.1 is intended by the parties to subject this Agreement to any franchise or similar law, rules, or regulations of any state to which it would not otherwise be subject.

21.2 Venue. Without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting Franchisee's and Franchisor's obligations under Section 21.1, above, Franchisee and Franchisor agree that any litigation shall be held in the United States District Court in Clark County, Nevada. If a basis for federal jurisdiction does not exist, then any such proceeding shall be brought exclusively before a state court in Clark County, Nevada. Franchisor and Franchisee waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

21.3 Terms Applicable to All Proceedings, Waiver of Trial by Jury, Class Action Rights. With respect to any litigation or other proceeding of any kind, Franchisor and Franchisee:

21.3.1 Knowingly waive all rights to trial by jury.

21.3.2 Shall pursue any proceeding on an individual basis only, and not on a class-wide or multiple plaintiff basis; provided that if this provision is not enforceable for any reason, then Franchisee and Franchisor agree that with respect to any multiple plaintiff or class action, a court shall supervise the procedural aspects directly related to the multiple plaintiff/class nature of the proceeding (e.g. certification of the class, appropriateness of class representation, approval of attorney's fees incurred on behalf of the class, approval of any settlement, etc.) and the Court shall decide all substantive matters related to the actual claims, including liability and damages. Franchisor and Franchisee hereby waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to or claim of any punitive or exemplary damages against the other and agree that in the event of a dispute between them each shall be limited to the recovery of any actual damages sustained by it.

21.4 Non-Exclusivity of Remedy. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor or Franchisee by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

21.5 Limitation of Adjudicative Proceedings. Any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship of Franchisee and Franchisor, or Franchisee's operation of the Franchised Business, brought by any party hereto against the other, shall be commenced within two (2) years from the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such claim or action, or such claim or action shall be barred.

21.6 Right to Injunctive Relief. In addition to the foregoing, Franchisor shall have the right to seek injunctive relief without the posting of any bond or security to obtain the entry of temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Agreement relating to Franchisee's: (i) use of the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights, (ii) obligations upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, (iii) assignment or proposed assignment of the Franchised Business, this Agreement, or any ownership interest in Franchisee, or (iv) actions covered by the provisions of Section 15. Franchisor also shall be able to seek injunctive relief to prohibit any act or omission by Franchisee or its employees that constitutes a violation of any applicable law, is dishonest or misleading to Franchisee's customers or to the public, or which may impair the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights; and Franchisee shall pay all costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining such relief.

22.1 Recognition of Business Risks. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee has conducted an independent investigation of the proposed franchise, and recognizes that the business venture contemplated by this Agreement involves business risks and that its success shall be largely dependent upon the ability of Franchisee as an independent business person..

22.2 Receipt of Franchise Disclosure Document. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee has received a copy of the complete Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation Franchise Disclosure Document, which contains a copy of this Franchise Agreement, the attachments hereto, and agreements relating hereto, if any, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the date on which this Agreement was executed.

22.3 Review of Franchise Disclosure Document. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee has read and understood this Agreement, the attachments hereto, and agreements relating thereto, if any, and that Franchisor has accorded Franchisee ample time and opportunity to consult with advisors and counsel of Franchisee's own choosing about the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement.

22.4 Attorneys' Fees. If Franchisor becomes a party to any legal proceedings concerning this Agreement, the Franchised Business or the Franchised Location by reason of any act or omission of Franchisee or its authorized representatives, Franchisee shall be liable to Franchisor for the reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by Franchisor in the legal proceedings, as well as all cost of collection to obtain payment of all sums due from Franchisee to Franchisor under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the costs for collection agency services. If either party commences a legal action against the other party arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to have and recover from the other party its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

22.5 Business Judgment. "Business Judgment" means that Franchisor is allowed to exercise its judgment however Franchisor believes is appropriate in a given circumstance without limitation, subject to the use of that discretion in any reasonable way as more fully described in this Section 22.5. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, Franchisee (and each of Franchisee's owners and affiliates) acknowledge and agree that:

22.5.1 This Agreement (and the relationship of the Parties which arises from this Agreement) grants Franchisor the discretion to make decisions, take actions or refrain from taking actions not inconsistent with the explicit rights and obligations of Franchisee (and each of Franchisee's owners and affiliates) hereunder that may affect Franchisee and the interests of its owners and affiliates favorably or adversely. Franchisor shall use its Business Judgment in exercising such discretion based on its assessment of its own interests and balancing those interests against the interests, promotion, and benefit of the Fiesta System and other Fiesta Franchisees, Fiesta Franchised Businesses generally, and specifically without considering the individual interests of Franchisee or the individual interests of any other Fiesta Franchisee. Franchisee and each of Franchisee's owners and affiliates acknowledge and agree that Franchisor shall have no liability to Franchisee or its owners or affiliates for the exercise of its discretion in this manner; and even if Franchisor has numerous motives for a particular action or decision, so long as at least one motive is a reasonable business justification, no trier of fact in any legal action shall substitute his or her judgment for Franchisor's judgment so exercised and no such action or decision shall be subject to challenge for abuse of discretion. If Franchisor takes any action or Franchisor chooses not to take any action in its discretion with regard to any matter related to this Agreement and its actions or inaction are challenged for any reason, the Parties expressly direct the trier of fact to find that Franchisor's reliance on a business reason in the exercise of its discretion is to be viewed as a reasonable and proper exercise of its discretion, without regard to whether other reasons for its decision may exist and without regard to whether the trier of fact would independently accord the same weight to the business reason.

22.5.2 In granting its approval of the Franchised Location, designating suppliers, setting standards and the like, Franchisor shall exercise its Business Judgment. However, in the exercise of its Business Judgment, Franchisor shall not be liable to Franchisee or its owners or affiliates or anyone else, if Franchisor's exercise of its Business Judgment results in a business loss or if the products or services provided fail to meet the expectations of Franchisor, Franchisee, its owners and affiliates, or other parties. Franchisor disclaims all warranties and liability for the acts or omissions of any contractors, vendors, suppliers, products or employees which Franchisee uses, purchases, retains or hires pursuant to Franchisor's exercise of its Business Judgment.

22.5.3 If applicable law implies a covenant of good faith and fair dealing in this Agreement, the Parties agree that the covenant shall not imply any rights or obligations that are inconsistent with a fair construction of the terms of this Agreement. Additionally, if applicable law shall imply the covenant, Franchisee agrees that: (i) this Agreement (and the relationship of the Parties that is inherent in this Agreement) grants Franchisor the discretion to make decisions, take actions and/or refrain from taking actions not inconsistent with Franchisor's explicit rights and obligations under this Agreement that may affect favorably or adversely Franchisee's interests; (ii) Franchisor will use its judgment in exercising the discretion based on Franchisor's assessment of its own interests and balancing those interests against the interests of the Fiesta franchisees generally (including Franchisor and its Affiliates if applicable), and specifically without considering Franchisee's individual interests or the individual interests of any other particular Fiesta franchisee; (iii) Franchisor will have no liability to Franchisee for the exercise of Franchisor's discretion in this manner, so long as the discretion is not exercised in bad faith; and (iv) in the absence of bad faith, no trier of fact in any arbitration or litigation shall substitute its judgment for Franchisor's judgment so exercised.

22.6 Atypical Arrangements. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor may modify the offer of its franchises to other franchisees in any manner and at any time, which offers have or may have terms, conditions, and obligations which may differ from the terms, conditions, and obligations in this Agreement. Franchisee further acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor has made no warranty or representation that all Franchise Agreements previously issued or issued after this Franchise Agreement by Franchisor do or shall contain terms substantially similar to those contained in this Franchise Agreement. Franchisor may, in its reasonable business judgment and its sole and absolute discretion, due to local business conditions or otherwise, waive or modify comparable provisions of other Franchise Agreements previously executed or executed after the date of this Franchise Agreement with other Fiesta Insurance Franchisees in a non-uniform manner.

22.7 Additional Documents. Each of the parties shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party and to procure the execution, acknowledgment and delivery to the other party of any additional documents or instruments which either party may reasonably require to fully effectuate and carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

22.8 Exclusive Remedy. In no event shall Franchisee make any claim for money damages based on any claim or assertion that Franchisor has unreasonably withheld or delayed any consent or approval under this Agreement. Franchisee waives any such claim for damages. Franchisee may not claim any such damages by way of setoff, counterclaim or defense. Franchisee's sole remedy for the claim will be an action or proceeding to enforce the provisions of this Agreement, for specific performance or for declaratory judgment.

22.9 Incorporation of Recitals. The recitals set forth in Paragraph A through Paragraph C of this Agreement are true and correct and are hereby incorporated by reference into the body of this Agreement.

22.10 Counterparts and Electronic Transmission; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of this Agreement with signatures that have been transmitted by email or by facsimile shall constitute and be deemed original copies of this Agreement for all purposes, provided that the electronic copies are fully executed, dated and identical in form to the original hard copy version of this Agreement. In addition, this Agreement and all Exhibits to this Agreement may be signed electronically by the Parties and electronic signatures appearing on this Agreement and the Exhibits shall be deemed to be the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of the validity, enforceability and admissibility of this Agreement and the Exhibits.

22.11 Consent to Receive Texts and Calls From Fiesta. By providing my signature on this document, I agree to receive communications and marketing via text, automatic telephone dialing system or by artificial/pre-recorded messages from Fiesta Auto Insurance Center and its agents and affiliates at the telephone number I have provided. I understand that my consent is not required as a condition of purchasing any goods or services.

THIS COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF LEASE (this "Assignment") is entered into as of _____, 20__, between _____ ("Franchisee") and FIESTA INSURANCE FRANCHISE CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Franchisor").

Subject to the provisions hereof, Franchisee, to secure its obligations to Franchisor under the Franchise Agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee for the operation of a Fiesta franchised business (the "Franchised Business"), dated _____, 20__ (the "Franchise Agreement"), hereby assigns, transfers and sets over unto Franchisor and/or such persons/entity(ies) as Franchisor may from time to time designate all of Franchisee's right, title and interest, whether as tenant or otherwise, in, to and under that certain lease (the "Lease"), a copy of which is attached to this Assignment, dated _____, 20__, between Franchisee and _____ ("Landlord"), for the property commonly known as _____ (the "Franchised Location") in accordance with Section 5.2.5 of the Franchise Agreement. Franchisor shall have no liabilities or obligations of any kind arising from, or in connection with, this Assignment, the Lease or otherwise (including, but not limited to, any obligation to pay rent and/or other amounts) until and unless Franchisor, in its sole and absolute discretion, takes possession of the Franchised Location pursuant to the terms hereof and expressly (and in writing) assumes the rights and obligations of Franchisee under the Lease. IF FRANCHISOR ELECTS TO TAKE POSSESSION OF THE FRANCHISED LOCATION PURSUANT TO THE TERMS HEREOF, FRANCHISOR WILL PAY ALL PAST DUE RENT DUE TO THE LANDLORD FROM FRANCHISEE.

Franchisee shall indemnify and hold harmless Franchisor from and against all claims and demands of any type, kind or nature made by the Landlord or any third party that arise out of or are in any manner connected with Franchisee's use and occupancy of the Franchised Location subject to the Lease.

Franchisee represents and warrants to Franchisor that Franchisee has full power and authority to assign the Lease and its interest in the Franchised Business.

Franchisor shall not take possession of the Franchised Location until and unless (i) Franchisee defaults (and/or until there is a termination, cancellation, rescission or expiration of Franchisee's rights) under the Lease, any sublease, the Franchise Agreement or other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor (or any affiliate); (ii) Franchisee is adjudicated insolvent, or makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; (iii) Franchisee applies for or consents to the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee, or similar officer for it or for all or any substantial part of its property; (iv) such a custodian, receiver, trustee or similar officer is appointed without the application or consent of Franchisee, and such appointment continues undischarged for a period of sixty (60) days; (v) Franchisee is adjudicated bankrupt or institutes (by petition, application, answer, consent or otherwise) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, arrangement, readjustment of debt, dissolution, liquidation or similar proceeding relating to it under the laws of any jurisdiction; or (vi) any such proceeding is instituted (by petition, application or otherwise) against Franchisee and remains undismissed for a period of sixty (60) days. In such event, Franchisor (or its designee) shall have the right, and is hereby empowered, (but has no obligation) to take possession of the Franchised Location, expel Franchisee therefrom, and, in such event, Franchisee shall have no further right, title or interest in or under the Lease or to the Franchised Location, all such rights thereby passing to Franchisor or its designee, in each case without the Landlord's further consent. Franchisee shall do all acts necessary or appropriate to accomplish such assignment on Franchisor's request. Franchisee shall reimburse Franchisor for the costs and expenses incurred in connection with any such retaking, including, without limitation, the payment of any back rent and other payments due under the Lease (whether such payments are made by a separate agreement with the Landlord or otherwise), attorney's fees and expenses of litigation incurred in enforcing this Assignment, costs incurred in reletting the Franchised Location and costs incurred for putting the Franchised Location in good working order and repair.

Franchisee agrees that it shall not suffer or permit any surrender, termination, amendment or modification of the Lease without the prior written consent of Franchisor nor shall Franchisee sell, transfer, assign, sublet or enter into any agreement to sell, transfer, assign or sublet any of its right, title or interest in and to the Franchised Business or the Franchised Location, including any transfer, assignment or sublet of the Franchise Agreement, the Lease or any of the operating assets of the Franchised Business except as otherwise provided in the Franchise Agreement or this Assignment. Throughout the entire term of the Franchise Agreement, including all extension terms and/or renewal terms, Franchisee agrees that it shall elect and exercise on a timely basis all options to extend the term, or renew or assume in bankruptcy, the Lease, unless Franchisor otherwise agrees in writing. Upon failure of Franchisee to so elect to extend or renew or assume the Lease, Franchisee hereby appoints Franchisor as its true and lawful attorney-in-fact to exercise such options in the name, place and stead of Franchisee for the sole purpose of effecting any extension, renewal or assumption, in each case for the account of Franchisee and without any liability or obligation of Franchisor. This Assignment shall remain in full force and effect during the entire term of the Franchise Agreement and the Lease, including all extension terms and/or renewal terms of the Franchise Agreement and the Lease.

Failure of Franchisor to exercise any remedy under this Assignment shall not be construed or deemed to be a waiver of any of its rights under this Assignment. The rights and remedies of Franchisor under this Assignment are cumulative and are not in lieu of, but are in addition to, any other rights and remedies which Franchisor shall have under or by virtue of the Franchise Agreement or otherwise. The terms, covenants, and conditions contained herein shall bind Franchisee and its successors and assigns, and inure to the benefit of Franchisor and its successors and assigns. In the event of any dispute between the parties regarding this Assignment, or any matter related in any way to it, the dispute resolution provisions (including, but not limited to, mediation, binding arbitration, waiver of jury trial and limitation of damages) of the Franchise Agreement between Franchisor and Franchisee shall apply. If there is more than one Franchisee, their obligations under this Assignment shall be joint and several.

This Assignment or any memorandum related hereto may be recorded by, and at the expense of, Franchisor. Franchisee hereby appoints Franchisor as its attorney in fact to execute any and all documents and to take any and all such actions, as are necessary or appropriate to record such instrument referenced above.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Franchisee shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Franchisor with respect to all obligations and liabilities, including, without limitation, the obligations to pay all rent and other monies due under the Lease, that arise after the date of any assignment of the Lease that transpires under this Assignment; provided, however, nothing under this Agreement shall affect any obligations or covenants of Franchisee owed under its Franchise Agreement with Franchisor, including, without limitation, any post-termination covenant not to compete.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have signed this Assignment as of the day and year set forth above.

b. Security Interest. Debtor hereby grants Secured Party a valid and continuing lien on, and perfected security interest in, the Collateral.

c. Financing Statement. Debtor hereby authorizes Secured Party to file UCC-1 Financing Statements at any time in any filing office in any Uniform Commercial Code jurisdiction, which shall evidence the security interests in the Collateral. Debtor further agrees, at the request and option of Secured Party, to take any and all other actions Secured Party may determine to be necessary or useful for the attachment, perfection and first priority of, and the ability of Secured Party to enforce, Secured Party's security interest in any and all of the Collateral.

Debtor warrants, covenants and represents to Secured Party that:

a. Ownership of Collateral. Debtor is the owner of all of the Collateral, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except liens in favor of Secured Party.

c. Defense and Indemnity. Debtor will defend its title and Secured Party's interest in the Collateral against all claims which may affect title to or Secured Party's security interest in the Collateral and will take any action necessary to remove any liens or encumbrances in the Collateral not authorized by this Agreement.

d. Sale of Collateral. Until all obligations of Debtor have been paid and performed under the Promissory Note and this Agreement, Debtor shall not sell or otherwise dispose of any assets or properties comprising the Collateral without the prior written consent of Secured Party.

e. Maintenance and Insurance. Debtor shall maintain the Collateral in good repair, working order and condition and shall maintain or cause to be maintained, at no cost or expense to Secured Party for the mutual benefit of Debtor and Secured Party, comprehensive broad form general public liability insurance against claims and liability for personal injury, death, or property damage arising from the use, occupancy or condition of the Franchised Business and the improvements at the Franchised Business. All insurance policies carried by Debtor shall provide that the policies cannot be canceled or materially changed except after thirty (30) days prior notice by the insurer to Secured Party. All policies shall name Secured Party as an additional insured.

C. This Release Agreement has been requested at a juncture in the relationship of the parties where Franchisor is considering either a change or an expansion of the relationship between the parties and/or their affiliates. Franchisor is unwilling to make the anticipated change or expansion in the relationship of the parties unless it is certain that it is proceeding with a "clean slate" and that there are no outstanding grievances or Claims against it. Releasing Parties, therefore, gives this Release Agreement as consideration for receiving the agreement of Franchisor to an anticipated change or expansion of the relationship between the parties. Releasing Parties acknowledges that this Release Agreement is intended to wipe the slate clean.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS AGREED:

It is understood by Releasing Parties that, after the Effective Date, the facts under which this Release Agreement is entered into may turn out to be other than or different from the facts Releasing Parties knew or believed to be true on the Effective Date. Releasing Parties, therefore, expressly assume the risk of the facts turning out to be so different and agree that this Release Agreement shall be in all respects final and effective and not subject to termination or rescission by any such difference in facts.

6. INDEMNITY. Without in any way limiting any of the rights and remedies otherwise available to the Franchisor Released Parties, Releasing Parties shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless each Franchisor Released Party from and against all Claims whether or not involving third-party Claims, arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with: (i) the assertion by or on behalf of Releasing Parties or their Constituents of any Claim or other matter released pursuant to this Release Agreement; (ii) the assertion by any third party of any Claim or demand against any Franchisor Released Party which Claim or demand arises directly or indirectly from, or in connection with, any Claims or other matters released pursuant to this Release Agreement; (iii) any breach of representations, warranties or covenants hereunder by Releasing Parties or its Constituents; or (iv) the Franchise Agreement, the Franchised Business, the Franchised Location, and/or any and all claims of creditors, customers, vendors, suppliers or invitees of the Franchised Business, or other third parties, for obligations incurred and/or acts or omissions to act by Franchisee, both prior to and following the Effective Date.

7. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

7.1 Amendment. This Release Agreement cannot be modified, altered or otherwise amended except by an agreement in writing signed by all of the parties.

7.2 Entire Agreement. This Release Agreement, together with the agreements referenced in this Release Agreement, constitute the entire understanding between and among the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Release Agreement and supersedes any prior negotiations and agreements, oral or written, with respect to the subject matter of this Release Agreement. The Recitals set forth in Paragraphs A through C of this Release Agreement are true and correct and are incorporated into this Release Agreement as part of this Release Agreement.

7.3 Counterparts and Electronic Transmission; Electronic Signatures. This Release Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of this Release Agreement with signatures that have been transmitted by email or by facsimile shall constitute and be deemed original copies of this Release Agreement for all purposes, provided that the copies are fully executed, dated and identical in form to the original hard copy version of this Release Agreement. In addition, this Release Agreement may be signed electronically by the parties and electronic signatures appearing on this Release Agreement shall be deemed to be the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of the validity, enforceability and admissibility of this Release Agreement.

7.4 Heirs, Successors and Assigns. This Release Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, successors and permitted assigns. In addition, each of Franchisor Released Parties that is not a party shall be a third party beneficiary of this Release Agreement, with the right to enforce this Release Agreement for his, her, or its benefit, whether acting alone or in combination with any other Franchisor Released Party.

7.5 Interpretation. The rule that an agreement is to be construed against the party drafting the agreement is hereby waived by the parties, and shall have no applicability in construing this Release Agreement or any of its terms. The headings used in this Release Agreement are for purposes of convenience only and shall not be used in construing the provisions of this Release Agreement. As used in this Release Agreement, the male gender shall include the female and neuter genders, the singular shall include the plural and the plural, the singular.

7.6 Severability and Validity. Any provision of this Release Agreement which is prohibited, unenforceable or not authorized in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition, unenforceability or non-authorization without invalidating the remaining provisions of this Release Agreement or affecting the validity, enforceability or legality of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

7.7 Governing Law and Venue. This Release Agreement shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of Nevada. In the event of any conflict of law, the law of Nevada shall prevail, without regard to the application of Nevada conflict of law rules. If, however, any provision of this Release Agreement would not be enforceable under the laws of Nevada, and if the Franchised Business is located outside of Nevada and such provision would be enforceable under the laws of the state in which the Franchised Business is located, then such provision shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that state. Nothing in this Section 7.7 is intended by the parties to subject this Release Agreement to any franchise or similar law, rules, or regulation of the state of Nevada to which it would not otherwise be subject. The parties agree that any action brought by either party against the other in any court, whether federal or state, shall be brought in Clark County, Nevada and the parties hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

7.8 Authority of Franchisor. Franchisor represents and warrants that (i) Franchisor has the power and authority to enter into this Release Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Release Agreement without the approval or consent of any other person or entity, and (ii) the individual who executes this Release Agreement on Franchisor's behalf is duly authorized to do so without the approval or consent of any other person or entity.

7.9 Authority of Releasing Parties. Releasing Parties represent and warrant that (i) they have the power and authority to enter into this Release Agreement and to perform their obligations under this Release Agreement without the approval or consent of any other person or entity, and (ii) the individuals who execute this Release Agreement on Releasing Parties' behalf are duly authorized to do so without the approval or consent of any other person or entity.

7.10 No Waiver. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of any party to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by any other party of any of the terms, provisions, or covenants of this Release Agreement, and no custom or practice by the parties at variance with the terms of this Release Agreement, shall constitute a waiver by any party to enforce any such right, option, or power as against the other parties, or as to a subsequent breach or default by the other parties.

7.11 Attorneys' Fees. If any legal action is brought to enforce the terms of this Release Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, and any and all costs of collection, in addition to any other relief to which that party may be entitled.

7.12 Further Acts. The parties agree to execute, acknowledge and deliver to any requesting party, and to procure the execution, acknowledgment and delivery to any requesting party, of any additional documents or instruments which the requesting party may reasonably require to fully effectuate and carry out the provisions of this Release Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties to this Release Agreement have executed this Release Agreement as of the Effective Date.

5. Errors and Omissions Policy. Franchisee shall be included on Franchisor's errors and omissions policy following the Effective Date, which will provide Franchisee with a significant savings on the annual cost of errors and omissions coverage. AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of _____, _____ (the "Effective Date"), by and between FIESTA INSURANCE FRANCHISE CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation ("Franchisor"), on the one hand, and _____ ("Area Developer"), on the other hand, (who are individually referred to as a "Party" and collectively referred to as the "Parties"), with reference to the following facts:

A. Franchisor has the perpetual license to use and sublicense the use of "FIESTA" trademarks, service marks, logos and commercial symbols and business methods and offers franchises for sale for businesses that sell, service and offer insurance policies, retail tax preparation and tax filing services and other additional related services designated by Franchisor from time-to-time, to the public. These business methods encompass all aspects of developing, operating and marketing an insurance agency and retail tax preparation and tax filing business and providing certain financial services to the public, specifications and procedures for operations, procedures for management control, training and assistance, specifications for equipment and fixtures, defined product offerings, Franchisor specified pricing, restrictions on ownership, advertising, public relations and promotional programs, the relationship between Franchisor and its area developers and franchisees, all of which may be changed, improved and further developed by Franchisor from time to time (collectively, the "Fiesta System").

B. The Fiesta System is identified by means of certain trade names, service marks, trademarks, logos, emblems, and indicia of origin, including, but not limited, to the mark "Fiesta" and such other trade names, service marks, and trademarks as are now designated and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing for use in connection with the Fiesta System (the "Proprietary Marks") and certain copyrights, including, but not limited to, the Fiesta logo, Fiesta Max logo and Fiesta character and such other copyrights as are now designated and may hereafter be designated by Franchisor in writing for use in connection with the Fiesta System (the "Copyrights").

C. Franchisor desires to expand and develop Fiesta insurance agencies and retail tax preparation and tax filing business (a "Fiesta Franchised Business" or the "Fiesta Franchised Businesses") in the Development Area, and Area Developer desires to develop Fiesta Franchised Businesses in the Development Area, upon the terms and conditions as set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES AGREE:

1. GRANT OF AREA DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS.

1.1 Grant of Area Development Rights.

1.1.1 Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, Franchisor hereby grants to Area Developer, and Area Developer hereby accepts, the non-exclusive right and obligation, during the "Term" (defined below), to develop Fiesta Franchised Businesses solely at sites in the geographic area defined in Exhibit A attached to this Agreement (the "Development Area"). An increase or decrease in the size of the cities, counties or political subdivisions, if any, included within these boundaries shall have no effect on the Development Area as it is described in Exhibit A.

1.1.2 To protect the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights and the goodwill associated with the same, Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that no right or license is granted to Area Developer under this Agreement to use the Proprietary Marks, Copyrights or Fiesta System, such right and license being granted solely pursuant to Franchise Agreements executed pursuant to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement shall permit Area Developer to own or operate a Fiesta Franchised Business, except pursuant to a duly executed and existing Franchise Agreement. Area Developer shall not use the Proprietary Marks, Copyrights, or Fiesta System in any manner or for any purpose, including in connection with any offering of securities or any request for credit, without the prior express written approval of Franchisor.

1.2 Non-Exclusive; Reservation of Rights.

1.2.1 Except as provided in Section 1.1.1, Franchisor expressly reserves all other rights, including the right, among others, in any manner and on any terms and conditions that Franchisor deems advisable, and without granting Area Developer any rights under this Agreement:

a) To own, acquire, establish and/or operate, and to grant licenses and franchises to others to establish, own, and operate, a Fiesta Franchised Business, at any location, whether inside or outside of the Development Area (regarding of its proximity to the Development Area).

b) To own, acquire, establish and/or operate, and to grant licenses and franchises to others to establish, own, and operate, businesses under other proprietary marks, copyrights, or other systems, whether such businesses are the same, similar or different from Fiesta Franchised Businesses, at any location, whether inside or outside of the Development Area (regardless of its proximity to the Development Area), and to purchase, merge, acquire or affiliate with any existing competitive or non-competitive franchise network, chain or any other business at any location, whether inside or outside of the Development Area (regardless of its proximity to the Development Area).

c) To offer and sell Fiesta (or any other brand) products and services (whether or not competitive) to customers located anywhere (including within the Development Area) using any channel of distribution whatsoever, subject to the conditions for Special Accounts as described in the Franchise Agreement.

d) To market on the Internet and use the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights on the Internet including the use of websites, domain names, URLs, directory addresses, email addresses, metatags, linking, advertising, co-branding and other arrangements and in all other forms of electronic media.

e) To produce, license, distribute and market Fiesta branded items through any outlet, whether inside or outside of the Development Area (regardless of its proximity to the Development Area), and through any distribution channel, including by means of the Internet mail order catalogs, direct mail advertising and other distribution methods.

1.3 Certain Definitions. In this Agreement, the following capitalized terms shall have the meanings set forth below, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Default" or "default" means any breach of or failure to comply with any of the terms or conditions of an agreement.

Area Developer’s financial inability to perform or Area Developer’s insolvency shall not be an event of Force Majeure under this Agreement. An event of Force Majeure will not affect or change Franchisee’s obligation to pay Initial Franchise Fees, Development Fees or any other fees owed to Franchisor when due.

“General Release” means a general release in a form prescribed by Franchisor of any and all claims which Area Developer may have or believes to have against Franchisor and/or its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees, whether the claims are known or unknown, which are based on, arise from or relate to this Agreement or the Fiesta Franchised Businesses, as well as claims, known or unknown, which are not based on, do not arise from or do not relate to this Agreement or the Fiesta Franchised Businesses but which relate to other franchise agreements, Fiesta Franchised Businesses, and other agreements between Franchisor, or its Affiliates, and Area Developer which arose on or before the date of the General Release, including, without limitation, all obligations, liabilities, demands, costs, expenses, damages, claims, actions and causes of action, of whatever nature, character or description, arising under federal, state and local laws, rules and ordinances.

“Governmental Authority” means and includes all federal, state, county, municipal and local governmental and quasi-governmental agencies, commissions and authorities.

“Owner” means each of the individuals listed on Exhibit B and each future direct or indirect shareholder, member, general or limited partner, trustee, or other equity owner of Area Developer.

“Protected Area” means the geographic area designated by Franchisor in a Franchise Agreement.

“Restricted Persons” means Area Developer, and each of its Owners and Affiliates, and the respective officers, directors, managers and Affiliates of each of them, and the spouse of each of the foregoing who are individuals.

2. AREA DEVELOPER’S DEVELOPMENT OBLIGATION.

To protect the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights and the goodwill associated with the same:

2.1 Development Obligation.

2.1.1 Within each Development Period specified in Exhibit A, Area Developer shall construct, equip, open and thereafter continue to operate at, and only at, sites within the Development Area, not less than the cumulative number of Fiesta Franchised Businesses required by the Development Obligation for that Development Period. Area Developer shall open all three (3) Franchised Businesses within eighteen (18) months of the Effective Date. Provided that Area Developer shall open the first Fiesta Franchised Business for business within six (6) months from the Effective Date; Area Developer shall open the remaining two (2) Fiesta Franchised Businesses for business within eighteen (18) months of the Effective Date. If Area Developer fails to open any Fiesta Franchised Business within the time frames described in this Section 2.1.1, Area Developer shall no longer have the right under this Agreement or a Franchise Agreement to develop, open or operate that Fiesta Franchised Business and Franchisor may terminate the Franchise Agreement for that Fiesta Franchised Business without refunding any of the Initial Franchise Fee.

2.1.2 Fiesta Franchised Businesses developed under this Agreement which are open and operating and which have been assigned to Affiliates of Area Developer in accordance with Section 7.2.2 with Franchisor’s consent, shall count in determining whether Area Developer has satisfied the Development Obligation for so long as the applicable Affiliate continues to satisfy the conditions set forth in Section 7.2.2.

2.1.3 Timing of Execution of Leases and Franchise Agreements. On the Effective Date, Area Developer shall execute two (2) copies of each Franchise Agreement and return them to Franchisor together with the applicable Initial Franchise Fee for each Fiesta Franchised Business which is required to be constructed, equipped and opened under this Agreement.

2.2 Force Majeure.

2.2.1 Subject to Area Developer’s continuing compliance with Section 2.3.2, should Area Developer be unable to meet the Development Obligation for any Development Period solely as the result of Force Majeure or any legal disability of Franchisor to deliver a Disclosure Document pursuant to Section 6.2, which results in the inability of Area Developer to construct or operate Fiesta Franchised Businesses in all or substantially all of the Development Area pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the particular Development Period during which the event of Force Majeure (or Franchisor’s legal disability to deliver a Disclosure Document) occurs shall be extended by an amount of time equal to the time period during which the Force Majeure (or Franchisor’s legal disability to deliver a Disclosure Document) shall have existed during that Development Period. Development Periods during which no such Force Majeure (or legal disability) existed shall not be extended. Other than as a result of Force Majeure, any delay in Franchisor’s issuance of acceptance of any site under Article 6, including, Area Developer's failure to satisfy the other conditions set forth in Section 6.3, shall not extend any Development Period.

2.2.2 In the event of the occurrence of an event constituting Force Majeure, Area Developer shall notify Franchisor in writing within five (5) days following commencement of the alleged Force Majeure of the specific nature and extent of the Force Majeure, and how it has impacted Area Developer's performance under this Agreement. Area Developer shall continue to provide Franchisor with updates and all information as may be requested by Franchisor, including Area Developer's progress and diligence in responding to and overcoming the Force Majeure.

2.3 Area Developer May Not Exceed The Development Obligation. Unless Franchisor shall otherwise consent in writing, Area Developer may not construct, equip, open and operate more than the total number of Fiesta Franchised Businesses comprising the Development Obligation.

3. DEVELOPMENT AREA.

3.1 Franchisor's Right to Develop. Notwithstanding Section 2.1 above, if during the Term of this Agreement, Area Developer is unable or unwilling, or fails for any reason (except due to Force Majeure as provided in Section 2.2), to satisfy the Development Obligation, this Agreement shall automatically terminate upon notice by Franchisor to Area Developer. Upon such termination, Franchisor may, but has no obligation to, open and operate, or license others to (or grant others development rights to) open and operate, Fiesta Franchised Businesses at any site(s) within the Development Area, excluding sites in the Protected Area granted to Area Developer pursuant to the individual Franchise Agreement for each then existing Fiesta Franchised Business located in the Development Area.

3.2 Protected Area for Each Individual Fiesta Franchised Business. Each Franchise Agreement executed pursuant to this Agreement shall provide that Franchisor and its Affiliates may not open or operate, or franchise or license the operation of any Fiesta Franchised Business at any site located within the Protected Area surrounding Fiesta Franchised Businesses opened by Area Developer pursuant to such Franchise Agreement.

4. TERM OF AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT.

4.1 Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and, unless otherwise negotiated, terminated or extended as provided in this Agreement, shall continue until the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term").

4.2 Limited Additional Development Right. If Area Developer shall determine that it desires to engage in further development of the Development Area in excess of the Development Obligation, Area Developer shall at the earlier of (i) one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the scheduled expiration of the Term or (ii) the date on which acceptance of the proposed site for the last Fiesta Franchised Business required to meet the Development Obligation is issued; notify Franchisor in writing ("Additional Development Notice") of Area Developer's desire to develop additional Fiesta Franchised Businesses in the Development Area and a plan for such development over a new term, setting forth the number of proposed Fiesta Franchised Businesses and the deadlines for the development of each of them within such proposed term. This right of additional development by Area Developer shall be exercised only in accordance with Section 4.3 and is subject to the conditions set forth in Section 4.4. This Agreement is not otherwise renewable.

4.3 Exercise of Right of Additional Development.

4.3.1 If Franchisor determines the additional development obligation proposed by the Additional Development Notice is unacceptable in any respect(s), Franchisor and Area Developer shall (subject to Section 4.4) negotiate during the following sixty (60) days in an effort to reach a mutually agreeable additional development obligation. Each Party may negotiate to protect its own interests as it deems appropriate in its discretion.

4.3.2 If the additional development obligation proposed by the Additional Development Notice is acceptable to Franchisor, or if Franchisor and Area Developer reach agreement on an alternative additional development obligation (the "Additional Development Obligation") within said sixty (60) day period, then Franchisor shall deliver to Area Developer a copy of Franchisor's then-current Disclosure Document, if required by Applicable Law, and two (2) copies of the then-current Area Development Agreement, which may vary substantially from this Agreement, setting forth the agreed upon Additional Development Obligation. Within thirty (30) days after Franchisor's delivery of the said Area Development Agreement, but no sooner than immediately after the expiration of any applicable waiting period(s) prescribed by Applicable Law, Area Developer shall execute two (2) copies of the Area Development Agreement and return them to Franchisor together with the applicable initial franchise fees for the Fiesta Franchised Businesses required by the Additional Development Obligation. If Area Developer has so executed and returned the copies and has satisfied the conditions set forth in Section 4.4, Franchisor will execute the copies and return one fully executed copy to Area Developer.

4.4 Conditions to Exercise of Right of Additional Development. Area Developer must satisfy the following conditions precedent to develop additional Fiesta Franchised Businesses in the Development Area pursuant to Section 4.2:

4.4.1 Area Developer (and each of its Affiliates which have developed or operate Fiesta Franchised Businesses in the Development Area) shall fully perform all of its obligations under this Agreement and all other agreements between Franchisor and Area Developer (or the applicable Affiliate).

4.4.2 Area Developer shall demonstrate to Franchisor, Area Developer's financial capacity to perform the Additional Development Obligations set forth in the new Area Development Agreement. In determining if Area Developer is financially capable, Franchisor will apply the same criteria to Area Developer as it applies to prospective area developers at that time.

4.4.3 At the expiration of each Development Period and at the expiration of the Term, Area Developer shall have opened and shall thereafter have continued to operate, in the Development Area, not less than the aggregate number of Fiesta Franchised Businesses then required by the Development Obligation.

4.4.4 Franchisor and Area Developer shall execute a new Area Development Agreement pursuant to Section 4.3.

4.4.5 Area Developer, and all Affiliates of Area Developer who then have a currently effective Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement with Franchisor, shall have execute and delivered to Franchisor a General Release.

4.5 Effect of Expiration. Unless an Additional Development Obligation shall have been agreed upon, and a new Area Development Agreement shall have been executed by the Parties pursuant to Sections

4.2 and 4.3, following the expiration of the Term, or the sooner termination of this Agreement, (i) Area Developer shall have no further right to construct, equip, own, open or operate additional Fiesta Franchised Businesses which are not, at the time of such termination or expiration, the subject of a then existing Franchise Agreement between Area Developer (or an Affiliate of Area Developer) and Franchisor which is then in full force and effect; and (ii) Franchisor, or its Affiliates, may thereafter itself construct, equip, open, own or operate, and license others to (or grant development rights to) construct, equip, open, own or operate Fiesta Franchised Businesses at any location(s) (within or outside of the Development Area), without any restriction, subject only to any Protected Area rights granted for any then-existing Fiesta Franchised Business operated by Area Developer pursuant to a validly subsisting Franchise Agreement executed for such Fiesta Franchised Business.

5. PAYMENTS BY AREA DEVELOPER.

5.1 Initial Franchise Fees. On the Effective Date, Area Developer shall pay $50,000 to Franchisor as the initial franchise fee (the "Initial Franchise Fee"), representing $25,000 for the first Fiesta Franchised Business required to be opened during the Term pursuant to the Development Obligation and $12,500 each for the second and third Fiesta Franchised Business required to be opened during the Term pursuant to the Development Obligation. The Initial Franchise Fee is fully earned by Franchisor when paid and is not refundable, in whole or in part, under any circumstances.

5.2 Renewal Fees. When the Franchise Agreements for each Fiesta Franchised Business expire, Area Developer shall fulfill the renewal obligations outlined in the Franchise Agreements as a condition to renewal and pay Franchisor a renewal fee of $15,000 for each Fiesta Franchised Business opened pursuant to the Development Obligation.

6. EXECUTION OF LEASES.

6.1 Site Review.

6.1.1 Area Developer understands that the site for a Fiesta Franchised Business must be in an area of high visibility and commercial foot traffic and preferably adjacent to a chain grocery store. Area Developer must not operate a Fiesta Franchised Business, use any of the Proprietary Marks or Copyrights from or at any location, or make any commitments about a site until Area Developer has Franchisor's written site acceptance. Franchisor's then-current standards for approving sites for Fiesta Franchised Businesses will apply. Franchisor shall not unreasonably withhold Franchisor's acceptance.

6.1.2 Area Developer acknowledges it is solely Area Developer's responsibility for finding and selecting each site for the Fiesta Franchised Businesses it develops pursuant to this Agreement.

6.2 Delivery of Disclosure Document and Execution of Lease.

6.2.1 Promptly following Area Developer's receipt of Franchisor's written approval of a site, Area Developer shall proceed to negotiate a lease for the site and shall submit to Franchisor a copy of the proposed lease.

6.2.2 Franchisor's review and acceptance of a lease shall not be construed to be an endorsement of such lease, confirmation that such lease complies with Applicable Law, or confirmation that the terms of such lease are favorable to Area Developer, and Franchisor hereby expressly disclaims any responsibility therefore.

6.2.3 Area Developer shall procure the site pursuant to the lease which has been reviewed and accepted by Franchisor, and shall forward to Franchisor, within ten (10) days after its execution, one copy of the executed lease evidencing Area Developer's right to occupy the site. Area Developer shall then commence construction and operation of the Fiesta Franchised Business within 6 months following the execution of the lease.

6.3 Condition Precedent to Franchisor's Obligations. To protect the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights and the goodwill associated with the same, Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that it shall be a condition precedent to Franchisor's obligations pursuant to Sections 6.1 and 6.2, and to Area Developer's right to develop each and every Fiesta Franchised Business, that Area Developer shall have satisfied all of the following conditions precedent prior to Franchisor's acceptance of the proposed Fiesta Franchised Business and the site and lease therefore:

6.3.1 Area Developer (and each of its Affiliates which have developed or operate Fiesta Franchised Businesses in the Development Area) shall have fully performed all of its obligations under this Agreement and all Franchise Agreements and other written agreements between Franchisor and Area Developer (or any such Affiliate of Area Developer), and must not at any time until Franchisor grants its acceptance of the proposed site, be in default of any of its contractual or other legal obligations to Franchisor or any of its Affiliates, or any approved vendor or supplier, or to any federal, state, county or municipal agency.

6.3.2 Area Developer shall have demonstrated to Franchisor, in Franchisor's discretion, Area Developer's financial and other capacity to perform the obligations set forth in the executed Franchise Agreement for the proposed Fiesta Franchised Business, including Area Developer's submission of a comprehensive management plan acceptable to, and accepted by Franchisor, which shall include among other reasonable requirements as may be established by Franchisor, an organization chart and supervisory requirements for the proposed Fiesta Franchised Business. In determining if Area Developer is financially or otherwise capable, Franchisor shall apply the same criteria to Area Developer as it applies to prospective area developers at that time.

6.3.3 Area Developer shall continue to operate, in the Development Area, not less than the cumulative number of Fiesta Franchised Businesses required by the Development Obligation set forth in Exhibit A to be in operation as of the end of the immediately preceding Development Period.

6.3.4 Area Developer, and each of its Affiliates who then has a currently effective Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement with Franchisor, must sign a General Release.

7. ASSIGNMENT AND SUB-FRANCHISING.

7.1 Assignment by Franchisor. Franchisor shall have the right to transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to any person or legal Entity. With respect to any assignment which results in the subsequent performance by the assignee of all of Franchisor's obligations under this Agreement, the assignee shall expressly assume and agree to perform such obligations, and shall become solely responsible for all obligations of Franchisor under this Agreement from the date of assignment. In addition, and without limitation to the foregoing, Area Developer expressly affirms and agrees that Franchisor, and/or its Affiliates, may sell their assets, the Proprietary Marks, Copyrights or Fiesta System; may sell securities in a public offering or in a private placement; may merge, acquire other corporations or be acquired by another corporation; and may undertake a refinancing, recapitalization, leveraged buy-out or other economic or financial restructuring. Area Developer specifically waives any and all other claims, demands or damages arising from or related to the foregoing merger, acquisition and other business combination activities including, without limitation, any claim of divided loyalty, breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, breach of contract or breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Area Developer agrees that Franchisor has the right, now or in the future, to purchase, merge, acquire or affiliate with an existing competitive or non-competitive franchise network, chain or any other business regardless of the location of that chain's or business' facilities, and to operate, franchise or license those businesses and/or facilities as the Fiesta Franchised Businesses operating under the Copyrights and Proprietary Marks or any other marks or copyrights following Franchisor's purchase, merger, acquisition or affiliation, regardless of the location of these facilities (which Area Developer acknowledges may be proximate to the Fiesta Franchised Businesses).

7.2 No Sub-Franchising by Area Developer. Area Developer shall not offer, sell, or negotiate the sale of Fiesta franchises to any third party, either in Area Developer's own name or in the name and/or on behalf of Franchisor, or otherwise sub-franchise, subcontract, sublicense, share, divide or partition this Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement will be construed as granting Area Developer the right to do so. Area Developer shall not execute any Franchise Agreement with Franchisor, or construct or equip any Fiesta Franchised Business with a view to offering or assigning such Franchise Agreement or Fiesta Franchised Business to any third party.

7.3 Assignment by Area Developer. To protect the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights and the goodwill associated with the same, Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that the rights and duties set forth in this Agreement are personal to Area Developer, and that Franchisor has granted this franchise in reliance on the business skill, financial capacity and personal character of Area Developer and its Owners. Accordingly, neither Area Developer nor Owner shall sell, encumber, assign, transfer, convey, pledge, merge, or give away any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement, in Area Developer, or in all or substantially all of the assets of the Fiesta Franchised Business (each, a "Transfer") without the prior written consent of Franchisor. Any purported Transfer not having the written consent of Franchisor shall be null, shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement, and shall entitle Franchisor to terminate this Agreement without granting Area Developer any opportunity to cure. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, require Area Developer and the Owners, as a condition to providing its consent to an Assignment of this Agreement, to execute a general release, in a form prescribed by Franchisor, of any and all claims, known or unknown, which the Area Developer may have against Franchisor and/or its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, agents and employees and a continuing guarantee, and, if the Area Developer is other than an individual, Franchisor may require, as Franchisor may request, such principals of the Area Developer, as assignor, to sign a continuing guarantee in favor of Franchisor for the performance and payment by the assignee of all obligations and debts to Franchisor and its affiliates under this Agreement. 7.4

7.4 Requirements for Transfer. Franchisor may, in its sole discretion, require any or all of the following as conditions of its consent to a Transfer:

7.4.1 Neither Area Developer nor any of its Owners or Affiliates (collectively, a "Seller") shall be in default of any provision of this Agreement, any amendment of this Agreement or successor hereto, or any other agreement with Franchisor or its Affiliates.

7.4.2 The terms of the proposed sale and purchase agreement shall not purport to Transfer any Confidential Information or intellectual property of Franchisor and shall not, in Franchisor's sole discretion, contain any terms or conditions that would damage the goodwill of the Fiesta System.

7.4.3 The proposed buyer of any direct or indirect interest in this Agreement, in Area Developer, or in all or substantially all of the assets of the Fiesta Franchised Business (the "Buyer") shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the assignment and that the terms of the proposed assignment do not place an unreasonable financial burden on the proposed Buyer, and Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor shall be entitled, in connection with assessing the financial burden placed upon any proposed Buyer, to share with such prospective assignee information relating to the Fiesta Franchised Business, including information in Franchisor's possession relating to operations at the Fiesta Franchised Business.

7.4.4 The proposed Buyer shall demonstrate to Franchisor's satisfaction that the terms of the proposed assignment do not place an unreasonable operational burden on the proposed Buyer, and that the proposed Buyer meets Franchisor's standards for: (i) work experience and aptitude, (ii) character and reputation, (iii) absence of conflicting interests, and (iv) such other criteria and conditions as Franchisor shall then consider relevant in the case of an application for a new franchise by an applicant not currently operating a Fiesta Franchised Business.

7.4.5 The sales price of the interest to be conveyed must not be so high, or the terms of the sale so onerous, that, in Franchisor's judgment, the proposed Buyer will be unlikely to properly maintain, operate and promote the Fiesta Franchised Business and meet the proposed Buyer's financial and other obligations to Franchisor, third party suppliers and creditors. This provision shall not create any liability to either transferor or proposed Buyer on Franchisor's part, in the event that Franchisor approves the transfer and the proposed Buyer experiences financial difficulties.

7.4.6 At Franchisor's request, the proposed Buyer shall execute, for a term ending on the expiration date of this Agreement, the current standard form Area Development Agreement then being offered to new Fiesta area developers, which Area Development Agreement shall supersede this Agreement in all respects and the terms of which may differ materially from the terms of this Agreement and may be less favorable to the proposed Buyer.

7.4.7 The proposed Buyer and each owner of the proposed Buyer, as the case may be, must be a United States citizen or lawful resident alien of the United States and must have sufficient literacy and fluency in the English language sufficient, in Franchisor's opinion, to communicate with employees, customers, and suppliers of Franchisor and to satisfactorily complete Franchisor's required training program and such other tests and interviews as Franchisor shall reasonably deem to be necessary or desirable. Area Developer shall provide Franchisor with such information as Franchisor may require to make a determination concerning such proposed Transfer.

7.4.8 The proposed Buyer shall be duly licensed to operate the Fiesta Franchised Businesses, and Area Developer shall have obtained, at its or the proposed Buyer's expense, all requisite consents to the Transfer from applicable governmental authorities.

7.4.9 The Seller and Buyer must use an independent third party escrow company in connection with the sale.

7.4.10 Area Developer shall remain liable for all of Area Developer's obligations to Franchisor and its Affiliates which arose prior to the effective date of the Transfer, and shall execute any documents reasonably requested by Franchisor to evidence such liability.

7.4.11 Area Developer, and all Affiliates of Area Developer who then have a currently effective Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement with Franchisor, shall have executed and delivered to Franchisor a General Release.

7.4.12 The Seller shall pay Franchisor a transfer fee in the sum equal to ten percent (10%) of the sales price of the interest to be conveyed (the "Transfer Fee"); provided, however, that the Transfer Fee shall be no less than $1,000 and no more than $5,000.

7.5 Right of First Refusal. If Area Developer desires to accept any bona fide offer from a third party Buyer to purchase Area Developer's interests under this Agreement, Area Developer shall notify Franchisor of such offer at least twenty (20) days before such Transfer is proposed to take place, and shall provide such information and documentation relating to the offer as Franchisor may require. Franchisor shall have the right and option, exercisable within ten (10) days after receipt of such written notification and any background materials concerning the proposed Transfer that Franchisor shall reasonably request, to send written notice to the seller that Franchisor intends to purchase the seller's interest on the same terms and conditions offered by the third party. If Franchisor elects to purchase the seller's interest, the closing on such purchase shall occur within twenty (20) days from the date of notice to the seller of the election to purchase by Franchisor. If Franchisor declines to purchase the seller's interest, Area Developer shall have twenty (20) days to close on the Transfer of such interest subject to Franchisor's approval pursuant to Section 7.4. Failure to effect a Transfer with the third party within the twenty (20) day period, or any material change thereafter in the terms of the offer prior to closing, shall constitute a new offer subject to the same rights of first refusal by Franchisor as in the case of the third party's initial offer.

7.6 Death or Incapacitation. Upon the death or permanent incapacity (mental or physical) of Area Developer or any Owner with management responsibility for the operation of the Fiesta Franchised Businesses, the executor, administrator, or personal representative of such person shall continuously operate as required by this Agreement and shall transfer such interest to a third party approved by Franchisor within 6 months after such death or mental incapacity. Transfers by devise or inheritance, shall be subject to the same conditions as any Transfer. In the case of Transfer by devise or inheritance, however, if the heirs or beneficiaries of any such person are unable to meet the conditions of this Article 7, the heirs or beneficiaries shall Transfer the decedent's interest to a third party Buyer approved by Franchisor subject to all of the terms of this Article 7, or, at Franchisor's option, as an alternative to a Transfer, execute the current standard form Area Development Agreement then being offered to new Fiesta area developers (modified to reflect the remaining Term then remaining with respect to this Agreement) and any ancillary documents that Franchisor requires, the terms of which may be different from those of this Agreement. If the conditions set forth in this Section 7.6 are not satisfied within the 6 month period, Franchisor may, at its option, terminate this Agreement.

7.7 Non-Waiver of Claims. Franchisor's consent to a Transfer shall not constitute a waiver of any claims Franchisor may have against the Seller, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of Franchisor's right to demand exact compliance with any of the terms of this Agreement by the Seller or Buyer.

7.8 Transfer in Bankruptcy. If, for any reason, this Agreement is not terminated pursuant to Article 9 and this Agreement is assumed, or assignment of the same to any person or Entity who has made a bona fide offer to accept an assignment of this Agreement is contemplated, pursuant to the United States

Bankruptcy Code, then notice of such proposed assignment or assumption, setting forth: (i) the name and address of the proposed assignee, and (ii) all of the terms and conditions of the proposed assignment and assumption, shall be given to Franchisor within twenty (20) days after receipt of such proposed assignee's offer to accept assignment of this Agreement, and, in any event, within ten (10) days prior to the date application is made to a court of competent jurisdiction for authority and approval to enter into such assignment and assumption, and Franchisor shall thereupon have the prior right and option, to be exercised by notice given at any time prior to the effective date of such proposed assignment and assumption, to accept an assignment of this Agreement to Franchisor itself upon the same terms and conditions and for the same consideration, if any, as in the bona fide offer made by the proposed assignee, less any brokerage commissions which may be payable by Area Developer out of the consideration to be paid by such assignee for the assignment of this Agreement.

7.9 Entity Area Developer. Area Developer represents and warrants that the information set forth in Exhibit B, attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof, is accurate and complete in all material respects. Area Developer shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days of any change in the information set forth in Exhibit B, and shall submit to Franchisor a revised Exhibit B, certified by Area Developer as true, correct and complete and upon acceptance thereof by Franchisor shall be attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B. Area Developer promptly shall provide such additional information as Franchisor may from time to time request concerning all persons who may have any direct or indirect financial interest in Area Developer.

7.10 Assignment to a Controlled Entity. If Area Developer is an individual, individuals or a partnership, Franchisor consents to the assignment of this Agreement to a corporation or limited liability company formed and controlled by Area Developer to operate the Fiesta Franchised Business; provided, however, that each present and future Owner of Area Developer shall jointly and severally guarantee Area Developer's performance of each and every provision of this Agreement by executing a Guarantee in the form of Exhibit C and provided, further, that Area Developer shall be and remain, together with its Owners, jointly and severally liable for all obligations under this Agreement, and for all breaches thereof and, provided further, that Area Developer shall continue to supervise the operation of the Fiesta Franchised Business. Area Developer shall immediately notify Franchisor of any such assignment and shall complete all appropriate agreements required by Franchisor as a result thereof.

7.11 Non-Disparagement. Following (i) a Transfer permitted under Article 7, (ii) the expiration of the Term, or (iii) the termination of this Agreement (regardless of the cause for termination), neither Party shall make, participate, or concur in any remark or actions that are disparaging or detrimental regarding the other Party, or its Affiliates, or their respective officers, directors, shareholders, managers, members, parents, predecessors, principals, employees, successors, assigns, representatives or attorneys, in any way or in any manner, including, without limitation, in any comment or posting on internet forums, social media, blogs, Facebook pages and similar sites, internet sites, newspapers, or articles, unless the same is required by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or by other applicable legal requirements.

8. COVENANTS.

8.1 During Term of Agreement. Area Developer specifically acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Area Developer shall receive valuable specialized training and Confidential Information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the Fiesta System. To protect the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights and the goodwill associated with the same, Area Developer (and, if Area Developer is a corporation, limited liability company, or partnership, all Owners of Area Developer) covenants that during the term of this Agreement, except as otherwise approved in writing by Franchisor, Area Developer and its Owners shall not, either directly or indirectly, for itself, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any person, or legal Entity:

8.1.1 Divert or attempt to divert any present or prospective customer to Competitive Business by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks, Copyrights and the Fiesta System;

8.1.2 Operate any Competitive Business.

8.1.3 Communicate, divulge, or use for the benefit of, anyone else, any Confidential Information, knowledge, or know-how concerning the methods of operation of the Fiesta Franchised Business or Fiesta System which may be communicated to Area Developer, or of which Area Developer may be apprised, by virtue of Area Developer's operation under the terms of this Agreement. Area Developer shall divulge such Confidential Information only to such of its employees as must have access to it in order to perform their employment responsibilities. Any and all matters, information, knowledge, know-how, techniques, and other data which Franchisor designates as confidential shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement.

8.2 After Expiration or Termination of Agreement. Area Developer specifically acknowledges and agrees that prior to becoming an area developer of Franchisor, Area Developer had no experience, information or knowledge whatsoever about a business that offers automobile insurance policies, tax preparation or tax filing services or related services to the public or of a Fiesta Franchised Business and that Area Developer's knowledge of the Confidential Information was obtained solely from Franchisor following Area Developer's training by Franchisor and Area Developer's subsequent operation of the Fiesta Franchised Businesses under the respective Franchise Agreements with Franchisor. Area Developer further specifically acknowledges that, pursuant to this Agreement, Area Developer shall receive valuable specialized training and Confidential Information, including, without limitation, information regarding the operational, sales, promotional, and marketing methods and techniques of Franchisor and the Fiesta System. Commencing upon the date of: (i) a Transfer permitted under Article 7, (ii) the expiration of this Agreement, (iii) termination of this Agreement (regardless of the cause for termination), or (iv) a final court order (after all appeals have been taken) with respect to any of the foregoing events or with respect to enforcement of this Section 8.2, and continuing for an uninterrupted period of 2 years thereafter, Area Developer shall not, without Franchisor's prior written consent, own, operate, lend to, advise, be employed by or have any financial interest in any, make loans to, invest in, provide any assistance to, or have any interest in (as Owner or otherwise) or relationship or association with, any Competitive Business located anywhere within the Development Area or at a location designated as a "Franchised Location" in a Franchise Agreement between Franchisor, as franchisor, and Area Developer, or an Affiliate or Owner of Area Developer, as franchisee, except in accordance with the terms of an effective Franchise Agreement between Franchisor, as franchisor, and Area Developer, or an Affiliate or Owner of Area Developer, as franchisee, or disrupt, impair or otherwise interfere with the business of Franchisor, whether by way disrupting its relationships with customers, agents, representatives or vendors or otherwise.

8.3 Exceptions to Non-Compete Covenants. Sections 8.1 and 8.2 shall not apply to ownership by Area Developer of a less than five percent (5%) beneficial interest in the outstanding Equity securities of any Competitive Business registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

8.4 Reducing Scope of Covenants. Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in Sections 8.1 and 8.2, or any portion thereof, without Area Developer's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Area Developer of written notice thereof, and Area Developer agrees that Area Developer shall comply forthwith with any covenant as so modified, which shall be fully enforceable notwithstanding the provisions of Section 8.1 or Section 8.2.

8.5 Enforceability Not Affected by Claims. Area Developer agrees that the existence of any claims Area Developer may have against Franchisor, whether or not arising from this Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by Franchisor of the covenants in this Article 8. Area Developer shall pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by Franchisor in connection with the enforcement of this Article 8.

8.6 Irreparable Injury. Area Developer acknowledges that Area Developer's violation of any covenant of this Article 8 would result in irreparable injury to Franchisor for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Area Developer consents to the issuance of, and shall pay all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining, without the posting of any bond, an ex-parte or other order for injunctive or other legal or equitable relief with respect to such conduct or action.

9. TERMINATION.

9.1 Bankruptcy or Insolvency. Area Developer shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement, and all rights granted to Area Developer under this Agreement shall automatically terminate without notice to Area Developer, if Area Developer becomes insolvent or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, if a petition in bankruptcy is filed by Area Developer or such a petition is filed against and not opposed by Area Developer, if Area Developer is adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent, if a bill in equity or other proceeding for the appointment of a receiver of Area Developer or other custodian for Area Developer's business or assets is filed and consented to by Area Developer, if a receiver or other custodian (permanent or temporary) of Area Developer's assets or property, or any part thereof, is appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction, if proceedings for a composition with creditors under any state or federal law is instituted by or against Area Developer, if a final judgment remains unsatisfied or of record for thirty (30) days or longer (unless a supersedeas bond is filed), if Area Developer is dissolved, if execution is levied against Area Developer's business or property, if suit to foreclose any lien or mortgage against the Fiesta Franchised Businesses or assets is instituted against Area Developer and not dismissed within thirty (30) days, or if the real or personal property of the Fiesta Franchised Business is sold after levy thereupon by any sheriff, marshal, or constable.

9.2 Termination Pursuant to a Default of this Agreement.

9.2.1 Subject to Applicable Law to the contrary, this Agreement may be terminated by Franchisor in the event of any Default by Area Developer of this Agreement, unless such Default is non-curable or is cured by Area Developer within five (5) days following written notice of the Default (in the case of a failure to pay money), or twenty (20) days following written notice of the Default (in the case of any other Default); provided that in the case of a Default by Area Developer (or its Affiliate) under any Franchise Agreement or other written agreement, the notice and cure provisions of the Franchise Agreement or other agreement shall control, and provided, further, however, that any Default described in Sections 9.2.2, 9.2.3 or 9.2.5 shall be deemed incurable.

9.2.2 Any Assignment or attempted Assignment in violation of the terms of Section 7.2 or 7.3, or without the written consents required pursuant to this Agreement.

9.2.3 Subject to Section 2.3, failure of Area Developer to satisfy the Development Obligation within the Development Periods set forth in this Agreement.

9.2.4 Failure of Area Developer (or any Affiliate of Area Developer) to pay any Initial Franchise Fee or royalty fee in a timely manner as required by this Agreement or any Franchise Agreement signed by Area Developer.

9.2.5 Area Developer's opening of any Fiesta Franchised Business in the Development Area except in strict accordance with the procedures set forth in Sections 6.1 through 6.3.

9.2.6 Failure of Area Developer to fully comply with the requirements of Section 8.1.

9.2.7 Any Default of any other agreement between Area Developer (or any Affiliate of Area Developer) and Franchisor (or any Affiliate of Franchisor), including any Franchise Agreement executed pursuant to this Agreement.

9.2.8 If Area Developer fails, for a period of ten (10) days after notification of non-compliance, to comply with any federal, state or local law or regulation applicable to the operation of the franchise.

9.2.9 If Area Developer breaches any obligation under this Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisor and Area Developer that is not by its nature capable of being cured by Area Developer.

9.3 Cross-Default. Any Default by Area Developer, or its Affiliates, under the terms and conditions of this Agreement, or any other agreement between Franchisor, its Affiliates and Area Developer, shall be deemed to be a Default of each and every other such agreement. In the event of the termination of this Agreement for any cause or the termination of any other agreement between Franchisor, its Affiliates and Area Developer or its Affiliates, Franchisor and its Affiliates may, at their option, terminate any or all of such other agreements.

9.4 Notice Required By Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article 9, in the event any valid, Applicable Law of a competent Governmental Authority having jurisdiction over this Agreement and the Parties shall limit Franchisor's rights of termination hereunder or shall require longer notice periods than those set forth above, this Agreement shall be deemed amended to conform to the minimum notice periods or restrictions upon termination required by such laws and regulations. Franchisor shall not, however, be precluded from contesting the validity, enforceability or application of such laws or regulations in any action, arbitration, hearing or dispute relating to this Agreement or the termination thereof.

10. INDEMNITY.

10.1 Relationship of Area Developer to Franchisor. It is expressly agreed that the Parties intend by this Agreement to establish between Franchisor and Area Developer the relationship of Franchisor and Area Developer. It is further agreed that Area Developer has no authority to create or assume in Franchisor's name or on behalf of Franchisor, any obligation, express or implied, or to act or purport to act as agent or representative on behalf of Franchisor for any purpose whatsoever. Neither Franchisor nor Area Developer is the employer, employee, agent, partner or co-venturer of or with the other, each being independent. Area Developer agrees that it will not hold itself out as the agent, employee, partner or co-venturer of Franchisor. All employees hired by or working for Area Developer shall be the employees of Area Developer and shall not, for any purpose, be deemed employees of Franchisor or subject to Franchisor's control. Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that Area Developer alone shall exercise day-to-day control over all operations, activities and elements of the Franchised Business, including over Area Developer's employees, and that under no circumstance shall Franchisor do so or be deemed to do so. Area Developer further acknowledges and agrees that the various requirements, restrictions, prohibitions, specifications and procedures of the Fiesta System that Area Developer must comply with under the Franchise Agreements, the Manuals or otherwise, do not directly or indirectly constitute, suggest, infer or imply that Franchisor controls any aspect or element of the day-to-day operations of the Franchised Business, which Area Developer alone controls, but only constitute standards to which Area Developer must adhere when exercising Area Developer's control over the day-to-day operations of the Franchised Business consistent with the policies of Franchisor. Each of the Parties agrees to file its own tax, regulatory and payroll reports with respect to its respective employees and operations, saving and indemnifying the other Party to this Agreement of and from any liability of any nature whatsoever by virtue thereof.

10.2 Indemnity by Area Developer. Area Developer hereby agrees to protect, defend and indemnify Franchisor, and all of its past, present and future Owners, Affiliates, officers, directors, employees, attorneys and designees, and hold them harmless from and against any and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, court costs, losses, liabilities, damages, claims and demands of every kind or nature on account of any actual or alleged loss, injury or damage to any person, firm or corporation or to any property arising out of or in connection with Area Developer's construction, development or operation of Fiesta Franchised Businesses pursuant to this Agreement, except to the extent caused by intentional acts of Franchisor in breach of this Agreement. The terms of this Section 10.2 shall survive the termination, expiration or cancellation of this Agreement.

11. GENERAL CONDITIONS AND PROVISIONS.

11.1 No Consequential Damages For Legal Incapacity. Franchisor shall not be liable to Area Developer for any consequential damages, including lost profits, interest expense, increased construction or occupancy costs, or other costs and expenses incurred by Area Developer by reason of any delay in the delivery of Franchisor's Disclosure Document caused by legal incapacity during the Term, or other conduct not due to the gross negligence or intentional misfeasance of Franchisor.

11.2 Waiver and Delay. No delay, waiver, omission, or forbearance on the part of Franchisor to exercise any right, option, duty, or power arising out of any breach or default by Area Developer, or by any other area developer, of any of the terms, provisions, or covenants thereof, and no custom or practice by the Parties at variance with the terms of this Agreement, shall constitute a waiver by Franchisor to enforce any such right, option, or power as against Area Developer, or as to a subsequent breach or default by Area Developer. Subsequent acceptance by Franchisor of any payments due to Franchisor under this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver by Franchisor of any preceding or succeeding breach by Area Developer of any terms, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

11.3 Survival After Expiration or Termination of Agreement. Any provision or covenant of this Agreement which expressly or by its nature imposes obligations beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall survive such expiration or termination.

11.4 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of Franchisor and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Area Developer and his or their respective heirs, executors, administrators and its successors and assigns, subject to the prohibitions and restrictions against Assignment contained in this Agreement.

11.5 Joint and Several Liability. If Area Developer consists of more than one person or Entity, or a combination thereof, the obligations and liabilities of each of such person or Entity to Franchisor are joint and several, and such person(s) or Entities shall be deemed to be general partnership.

11.6 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Exhibits incorporated into this Agreement contain all of the terms and conditions agreed upon by the Parties to this Agreement concerning the subject matter hereof. No other agreements concerning the subject matter hereof, written or oral, shall be deemed to exist or to bind any of the Parties to this Agreement and all prior agreements, understandings and representations, are merged into this Agreement and superseded hereby. Area Developer represents that there are no contemporaneous agreements or understandings between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not contained in this Agreement. No officer or employee or agent of Franchisor has any authority to make any representation or promise not included in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement is intended to disclaim representations Franchisor made to Area Developer in the Franchise Disclosure Document or in any related document that Franchisor heretofore furnished to Area Developer.

11.7 Amendments. Except as stated in this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement cannot be amended, supplemented, waived or changed orally, except by a written document signed by the Parties making specific reference to this Agreement.

11.8 Titles for Convenience. Article, Section and paragraph titles used this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be deemed to affect the meaning or construction of any of the terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement.

11.9 Gender and Construction. The terms of all Exhibits attached to this Agreement are hereby incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement as if the same had been set forth in full in this Agreement. All terms used in any one number or gender shall extend to mean and include any other number and gender as the facts, context, or sense of this Agreement or any Article or Section hereof may require. As used in this Agreement, the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in a non-exclusive sense. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement to the contrary, any consent, approval, acceptance or authorization of Franchisor which Area Developer may be required to obtain under this Agreement may be given or withheld by Franchisor in its sole discretion. To protect the Fiesta System, the Proprietary Marks and the Copyrights and the goodwill associated with the same, on any occasion where Franchisor is required or permitted under this Agreement to make any judgment, determination or use its discretion, including any decision as to whether any condition or circumstance meets Franchisor's standards or satisfaction, Franchisor may do so in its sole subjective judgment and discretion. Neither this Agreement nor any uncertainty or ambiguity in this Agreement shall be construed or resolved against the drafter hereof, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Agreement has been independently reviewed by all Parties and shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of all Parties to this Agreement. Franchisor and Area Developer intend that if any provision of this Agreement is susceptible to two or more constructions, one of which would render the provision enforceable and the other or others of which would render the provision unenforceable, then the provision shall be given the meaning that renders it enforceable.

11.13 General. The submission of this Agreement does not constitute an offer and this Agreement shall become effective only upon the execution thereof by Franchisor and Area Developer.

12. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

12.1 Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the State of Nevada, without regard to the application of Nevada conflict of law rules. If, however, any provision of this Agreement would not be enforceable under the law of the State of Nevada and if the Fiesta Franchised Businesses are located outside of Nevada and such provision would be enforceable under the laws of the State in which the Fiesta Franchised Businesses are located, then such provision shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of that State. Nothing in this Section 12.1 is intended by the Parties to subject this Agreement to any franchise or similar law, rules, or regulations of any state to which it would not otherwise be subject.

12.2 Venue. Without in any way limiting or otherwise affecting Area Developer's and Franchisor's obligations under Section 12.1, above, Area Developer and Franchisor agree that any litigation shall be held in the United States District Court in Clark County, Nevada. If a basis for federal jurisdiction does not exist, then any such proceeding shall be brought exclusively before a state court in Clark County, Nevada. Franchisor and Area Developer waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue for the purpose of carrying out this provision.

12.3 Waivers. With respect to any litigation or other proceeding of any kind, Franchisor and Area Developer (i) knowingly waive all rights to trial by jury, shall pursue any proceeding on an individual basis only, and not on a class-wide or multiple plaintiff basis; provided that if this provision is not enforceable for any reason, then Area Developer and Franchisor agree that with respect to any multiple plaintiff or class action, a court shall supervise the procedural aspects directly related to the multiple plaintiff/class nature of the proceeding (e.g. certification of the class, appropriateness of class representation, approval of attorney's fees incurred on behalf of the class, approval of any settlement, etc.), and the Court shall decide all substantive matters related to the actual claims, including liability and damages, and (ii) hereby waive to the fullest extent permitted by law any right to or claim of any punitive or exemplary damages against the other and agree that in the event of a dispute between them each shall be limited to the recovery of their actual damages, if any.

12.4 Non-Exclusivity of Remedy. No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to Franchisor or Area Developer by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed, exclusive of any other right or remedy herein or by law or equity provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

12.5 Limitation of Adjudicative Proceedings. Any and all claims and actions arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the relationship of Area Developer and Franchisor, or Area Developer's operation of the Fiesta Franchised Business(es), brought by either Party against the other, shall be commenced within two (2) years from the occurrence of the facts giving rise to such claim or action, or such claim or action shall be barred.

12.6 Right to Injunctive Relief. In addition to the foregoing, Franchisor shall have the right to seek injunctive relief without the posting of any bond or security to obtain the entry of temporary and permanent injunctions and orders of specific performance enforcing the provisions of this Agreement relating to Area Developer's: (i) use of the Proprietary Marks and/or Copyrights, (ii) obligations upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, (iii) assignment or proposed assignment of the Fiesta Franchised Business, this Agreement, or any ownership interest in Area Developer, or (iv) actions covered by the provisions of Article 9. Franchisor also shall be able to seek injunctive relief to prohibit any act or omission by Area Developer or its employees that constitutes a violation of any Applicable Law, is dishonest or misleading to Area Developer's customers or to the public, or which may impair the goodwill associated with the Proprietary Marks and Copyrights; and Area Developer shall pay all costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by Franchisor in obtaining such relief.

13. AREA DEVELOPER.

13.1 Entity Information. If Area Developer is an Entity, Area Developer represents and warrants that the information set forth in Exhibit B attached to this Agreement is accurate and complete in all material respects. Area Developer shall notify Franchisor in writing within ten (10) days of any change in the information set forth in Exhibit B, and shall submit to Franchisor a revised Exhibit B, which shall be certified by Area Developer as true, correct and complete and upon acceptance thereof by Franchisor shall be attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B. Area Developer promptly shall provide such additional information as Franchisor may from time to time request concerning all persons who may have any direct or indirect financial interest in Area Developer, including providing copies of all amendments to Area Developer "Entity Documents" as defined in Exhibit B. Area Developer shall conduct no business other than the business contemplated under this Agreement and under any currently effective Franchise Agreement between Franchisor and Area Developer. The Entity Documents of Area Developer shall recite that the issuance and transfer of any interest in Area Developer is subject to the restrictions set forth in this Agreement and any Franchise Agreement executed pursuant thereto.

13.2 Responsibility. The term "Area Developer" as used in this Agreement shall refer to each person executing this Agreement as Area Developer, whether such person is one of the Owners or spouses of the Owners named as included in Area Developer, and shall apply to each such person as if he were the only named Area Developer in this Agreement.

13.2.1 If Area Developer is a married couple, both husband and wife executing this Agreement shall be liable for all obligations and duties of Area Developer under this Agreement as if such spouse were the sole Area Developer under this Agreement.

13.2.2 If Area Developer is a partnership or if more than one person executes this Agreement as Area Developer, each partner or person executing this Agreement shall be liable for all the obligations and duties of Area Developer under this Agreement.

13.2.3 If Area Developer is a trust, each trustee, trustor and beneficiary signing this Agreement shall be liable for all of the obligations and duties of Area Developer under this Agreement.

13.2.4 If Area Developer is a corporation or limited liability company, all Owners or members executing this Agreement shall be liable for all obligations and duties of Area Developer under this Agreement as if each Owner was the sole Area Developer under this Agreement.

13.2.5 If Area Developer is in breach or default under this Agreement, Franchisor may proceed directly against each such Owner without first proceeding against Area Developer and without proceeding against or naming in such suit any other Area Developer or Owner. The obligations of Area Developer and each such Owner shall be joint and several.

13.2.6 Notice to or demand upon one Owner shall be deemed notice to or demand upon Area Developer and all Owners, and no notice or demand need be made to or upon all Owners.

13.2.7 The cessation of or release from liability of Area Developer, or any Owner shall not relieve any other Area Developer or Owner from liability under this Agreement, except to the extent that the breach or default has been remedied or monies owed have been paid.

14. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

14.1 General. Area Developer, and its Owners, jointly and severally acknowledge that they have carefully read this Agreement and all other related documents to be executed concurrently or in conjunction with the execution hereof, that they have obtained the advice of counsel in connection with entering into this Agreement, that they understand the nature of this Agreement, and that they intend to comply herewith and be bound hereby.

14.2 Independent Investigation. Area Developer acknowledges that Area Developer has conducted an independent investigation of the business franchised under this Agreement, recognizes that the business venture contemplated by this Agreement involves business risks, and that its success will be largely dependent upon the ability of Area Developer and if an Entity, its Owners, as independent businesspersons.

14.3 Copy of Agreement. Area Developer acknowledges that it received a copy of this Agreement, the Exhibits attached to this Agreement, and agreements relating to this Agreement, if any, with all of the blank lines therein filled in prior to the date on which this Agreement was executed.

14.4 Opportunity to Consult. Area Developer acknowledges that it has read and understood this Agreement, the Exhibits attached to this Agreement, and agreements relating thereto, if any, and that Franchisor has accorded Area Developer ample time and opportunity to consult with advisors of Area Developer's own choosing about the potential benefits and risks of entering into this Agreement.

14.5 Franchise Disclosure Document. Area Developer acknowledges that it has received a copy of the complete Franchisor's Franchise Disclosure Document which contains a copy of this Area Development Agreement, at least fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the date on which this Agreement was executed. Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor has made no promises, representations, warranties or assurances to Area Developer which are inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement or Franchisor's Franchise Disclosure Document, concerning the profitability or likelihood of success of the Fiesta Franchised Business at the Franchised Location, that he has been informed by Franchisor that there can be no guarantee of success in the Fiesta Franchised Business and that Area Developer's business ability and aptitude is primary in determining his success.

14.6 Anti-Terrorism Laws. Neither Area Developer nor any of its Owners conducts any activity, or has failed to conduct any activity, if such action or inaction constitutes a money laundering crime, including any money laundering crime prohibited under the International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act ("Patriot Act") and any amendments or successors thereto.

14.6.1 Neither Area Developer, any of its Owners nor any employee of either of them is named as a "Specially Designated Nationals" or "Blocked Persons" as designated by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control. Currently, this list is published under the internet website address "www.treas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sdn/". Area Developer is neither directly nor indirectly owned or controlled by the government of any country that is subject to a United States embargo. Nor does Area Developer or its Owners act directly or indirectly on behalf of the government of any country that is subject to a United States embargo. Area Developer agrees that it will notify Area Developer in writing immediately of the occurrence of any event, which renders the foregoing representations and warranties of this paragraph incorrect.

14.6.2 Area Developer represents that it understands and has been advised by legal counsel on the requirements of the Applicable Laws referred to above, including the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (currently located at www.usdoj.gov/criminal/fraud/fcpa.html), any local foreign corrupt practices laws and the Patriot Act (currently located at www.epic.org/privacy/terrorism/hr3162.html), and hereby acknowledges the importance to Area Developer, Fiesta System and the Parties' relationship of their respective compliance with any applicable auditing requirements and any requirement to report or provide access to information to Franchisor or any government, that is made part of any Applicable Law. Area Developer shall take all reasonable steps to require its consultants, agents and employees to comply with such laws prior to engaging or employing any such persons.

14.7 Attorneys' Fees. If Franchisor becomes a party to any legal proceedings concerning this Agreement, the Fiesta Franchised Business or the Franchised Location by reason of any act or omission of Area Developer or its authorized representatives, Area Developer shall be liable to Franchisor for the reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by Franchisor in the legal proceedings, as well as all cost of collection to obtain payment of all sums due from Area Developer to Franchisor under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the costs for collection agency services. If either Party commences a legal action against the other Party arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to have and recover from the other Party its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit.

14.8 Business Judgment. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, Area Developer and the Owners acknowledge and agree that:

14.8.1 This Agreement (and the relationship of the Parties which arises from this Agreement) grants Franchisor the discretion to make decisions, take actions or refrain from taking actions not inconsistent with the explicit rights and obligations of Area Developer and the Owners hereunder that may affect Area Developer and the Owners' interests favorably or adversely. Franchisor shall use its Business Judgment in exercising such discretion based on its assessment of its own interests and balancing those interests against the interests, promotion, and benefit of the Fiesta System and other Fiesta area developers, Fiesta Franchised Businesses generally, and specifically without considering the individual interests of Area Developer or the Owners or the individual interests of any other Fiesta area developer. Area Developer and the Owners acknowledge and agree that Franchisor shall have no liability to Area Developer or the Owners for the exercise of its discretion in this manner; and even if Franchisor has numerous motives for a particular action or decision, so long as at least one motive is a reasonable business justification, no trier of fact in any legal action shall substitute his or her judgment for Franchisor's judgment so exercised and no such action or decision shall be subject to challenge for abuse of discretion. If Franchisor takes any action or Franchisor chooses not to take any action in its discretion with regard to any matter related to this Agreement and its actions or inaction are challenged for any reason, the Parties expressly direct the trier of fact to find that Franchisor's reliance on a business reason in the exercise of its discretion is to be viewed as a reasonable and proper exercise of its discretion, without regard to whether other reasons for its decision may exist and without regard to whether the trier of fact would independently accord the same weight to the business reason.

14.8.2 In granting its approval of the Franchised Locations, designating suppliers, setting standards and the like, Franchisor shall exercise its Business Judgment. However, in the exercise of its Business Judgment, Franchisor shall not be liable to Area Developer or the Owners or anyone else, if Franchisor's exercise of its Business Judgment results in a business loss or if the products or services provided fail to meet the expectations of Franchisor, Area Developer, the Owners or other parties. Franchisor disclaims all warranties and liability for the acts or omissions of any contractors, vendors, suppliers, products or employees which Area Developer uses, purchases, retains or hires pursuant to Franchisor's exercise of its Business Judgment.

14.8.3 If Applicable Law implies a covenant of good faith and fair dealing in this Agreement, the Parties agree that the covenant shall not imply any rights or obligations that are inconsistent with a fair construction of the terms of this Agreement. Additionally, if Applicable Law shall imply the covenant, Franchisee agrees that: (i) this Agreement (and the relationship of the Parties that is inherent in this Agreement) grants Franchisor the discretion to make decisions, take actions and/or refrain from taking actions not inconsistent with Franchisor's explicit rights and obligations under this Agreement that may affect favorably or adversely Franchisee's interests; (ii) Franchisor will use its judgment in exercising the discretion based on Franchisor's assessment of its own interests and balancing those interests against the interests of the Fiesta area developers generally (including Franchisor and its Affiliates if applicable), and specifically without considering Franchisee's individual interests or the individual interests of any other particular Fiesta area developer; (iii) Franchisor will have no liability to Franchisee for the exercise of Franchisor's discretion in this manner, so long as the discretion is not exercised in bad faith; and (iv) in the absence of bad faith, no trier of fact in any arbitration or litigation shall substitute its judgment for Franchisor's judgment so exercised.

14.9 Atypical Arrangements. Area Developer acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor may modify the terms of its Area Development Agreement in any manner and at any time, which offers have or may have terms, conditions, and obligations which may differ from the terms, conditions, and obligations in this Agreement. Area Developer further acknowledges and agrees that Franchisor has made no warranty or representation that all Area Development Agreements previously issued or issued after this Agreement by Franchisor do or shall contain terms substantially similar to those contained in this Agreement. Franchisor may, in its reasonable business judgment and its sole and absolute discretion, due to local business conditions or otherwise, waive or modify comparable provisions of other Area Development Agreements previously executed or executed after the date of this Agreement with other Fiesta Insurance area developers in a non-uniform manner.

14.10 Additional Documents. Each of the Parties shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other Party and to procure the execution, acknowledgment and delivery to the other Party of any additional documents or instruments which either Party may reasonably require to fully effectuate and carry out the provisions of this Agreement.

14.11 Exclusive Remedy. In no event shall Area Developer make any claim for money damages based on any claim or assertion that Franchisor has unreasonably withheld or delayed any consent or approval under this Agreement. Area Developer waives any such claim for damages. Area Developer may not claim any such damages by way of setoff, counterclaim or defense. Area Developer's sole remedy for the claim will be an action or proceeding to enforce the provisions of this Agreement, for specific performance or for declaratory judgment.

14.12 Incorporation of Recitals. The recitals set forth in Paragraph A through Paragraph C of this Agreement are true and correct and are hereby incorporated by reference into the body of this Agreement.

14.13 Counterparts and Electronic Transmission; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument. Copies of this Agreement with signatures that have been transmitted by email or by facsimile shall constitute and be deemed original copies of this Agreement for all purposes, provided that the electronic copies are fully executed, dated and identical in form to the original hard copy version of this Agreement. In addition, this Agreement and all Exhibits to this Agreement may be signed electronically by the Parties and electronic signatures appearing on this Agreement and the Exhibits shall be deemed to be the same as handwritten signatures for the purposes of the validity, enforceability and admissibility of this Agreement and the Exhibits.

14.14 Consent to Receive Texts and Calls From Fiesta. By providing my signature on this document, I agree to receive communications and marketing via text, automatic telephone dialing system or by artificial/pre-recorded messages from Fiesta Auto Insurance Center and its agents and affiliates at the telephone number I have provided. I understand that my consent is not required as a condition of purchasing any goods or

EXHIBIT C GUARANTEE

As an inducement to FIESTA INSURANCE FRANCHISE CORPORATION, ("Franchisor") to execute the Area Development Agreement (the "Development Agreement") with _____, a _____ ("Area Developer") dated _____, and in consideration of Franchisor's executing the Development Agreement, _____ ("Guarantor") agrees as follows:

A. Guarantor shall pay or cause to be paid to Franchisor all monies payable by Area Developer under the Development Agreement on the days and times in the manner therein appointed for payment thereof.

B. Guarantor shall unconditionally guarantee full performance and discharge by Area Developer of all the obligations of Area Developer under the Development Agreement at the times and in the manner therein provided.

C. Guarantor shall indemnify and hold Franchisor and its Affiliates harmless against and from all losses, damages, costs and expenses which Franchisor and its Affiliates may sustain, incur or become liable for by reason of: (i) the failure for any reason whatsoever of Area Developer to pay the monies payable pursuant to the Development Agreement or to do and perform any other act, matter or thing pursuant to the provisions of the Development Agreement; or (ii) any act, action or proceeding of or by Franchisor for or in connection with the recovery of monies or the obtaining of performance by Area Developer of any other act, matter or thing pursuant to the provisions of the Development Agreement.

D. Franchisor shall not be obligated to proceed against Area Developer or exhaust any security from Area Developer or pursue or exhaust any remedy, including any legal or equitable relief against Area Developer, before proceeding to enforce the obligations of the Guarantor under this Guarantee, and the enforcement of such obligations may take place before, after, or contemporaneously with, enforcement of any debt or obligation of Area Developer under the Development Agreement.

E. Without affecting the Guarantor's obligations under this Guarantee, Franchisor, without notice to the Guarantor, may extend, modify or release any indebtedness or obligation of Area Developer, or settle, adjust or compromise any claims against Area Developer. Guarantor waives notice of amendment of the Development Agreement and notice of demand for payment or performance by Area Developer.

F. Guarantor's obligations under this Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect, and shall be unaffected by: (i) the unenforceability of the Development Agreement against Area Developer; (ii) the termination of any obligations of Area Developer under the Development Agreement by operation of law or otherwise; (iii) the bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or other liquidation of Area Developer, including, without limitation, any surrender or disclaimer of the Development Agreement by the trustee in bankruptcy of Area Developer; (iv) Franchisor's consent or acquiescence to any bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or any other creditor's proceedings of or against Area Developer, or by the winding-up or dissolution of Area Developer, or any other event or occurrence which would have the effect at law of terminating the existence of Area Developer's obligations prior to the termination of the Development Agreement; or (v) by any other agreements or other dealings between Franchisor and Area Developer having the effect of amending or altering the Development Agreement or Area Developer's obligations under this Guarantee, or by any want of notice by Franchisor to Area Developer of any default of Area Developer or by any other matter, thing, act or omission of Franchisor whatsoever. Guarantors acknowledge and agree that Guarantors shall, and hereby are, bound by each and all of the confidentiality and non-competition provisions of the Development Agreement.

G. This Guarantee shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of Nevada. In the event of any conflict of law, the law of Nevada shall prevail, without regard to the application of Nevada conflict of law rules. Venue for purposes of any legal proceedings brought in connection with or arising out of this Guarantee shall be conclusively presumed to be in the State of Nevada, Clark County. Guarantors hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court in Clark County, Nevada.

TO THE FIESTA INSURANCE FRANCHISE CORPORATION
FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

STATE SPECIFIC ADDENDA

CALIFORNIA
ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

California Corporations Code, Section 31125 requires the franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, approved by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation prior to a solicitation of a proposed material modification of an existing franchise.

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT 14 DAYS PRIOR TO EXECUTION OF ANY AGREEMENT.

OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION at www.dfpi.ca.gov.

THESE FRANCHISES HAVE BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA. SUCH REGISTRATION DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE COMMISSIONER OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION NOR A FINDING BY THE COMMISSIONER THAT THE INFORMATION PROVIDED HEREIN IS TRUE, COMPLETE AND NOT MISLEADING.

1. The following language is added to the end of Item 3 of the disclosure document:

Neither we nor any person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate or franchise broker offering franchises under our principal trademark is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange.

2. The following paragraphs are added at the end of Item 17 of the disclosure document:

California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code sections 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

The California Franchise Investment Law requires a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise be delivered together with the Franchise Disclosure Document.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.).

The highest interest rate allowed by law in California is 10% annually.

The Franchise Agreement and Area Development Agreement require application of the laws of Nevada. This provision may not be enforceable under California law. You may want to consult an attorney to understand the impact of out-of-state governing law on the Franchise Agreement and the Area Development Agreement.

You must sign a general release if you renew or transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code §31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code §§31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code §20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code §§20000 through 20043).

The Franchise Agreement and Area Development Agreement contain a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law but we will enforce it to the extent enforceable.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to franchisees concerning termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

3. The following paragraph is added to the end of Item 19 of the disclosure document:

The earnings claims figures do not reflect the costs of sales, operating expenses, or other costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your (franchised business). Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in the Disclosure Document, may be one source of this information.

4. No disclaimer, questionnaire, clause, or statement signed by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall be construed or interpreted as waiving any claim of fraud in the inducement, whether common law or statutory, or as disclaiming reliance on or the right to rely upon any statement made or information provided by any franchisor, broker or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor that was a material inducement to a franchisee's investment. Any statements or representations signed by a franchisee purporting to understand any fact or its legal effect shall be deemed made only based upon the franchisee's understanding of the law and facts as of the time of the franchisee's investment decision. This provision supersedes any other or inconsistent term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Section 4 of the Act provides that any provision in the Franchise Agreement that designates jurisdiction or venue outside the State of Illinois is void. However, a Franchise Agreement may provide for arbitration outside of Illinois.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

INDIANA
ADDENDUM TO DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

1. The risk factors listed on the cover page of the Disclosure Document are void under Indiana law.

2. It is unlawful for any franchise agreement entered into between any franchisor and a franchisee who is either a resident of Indiana or a nonresident who will be operating a franchise in Indiana to contain any of the following provisions:
 - a. Requiring goods, supplies, inventories, or services to be purchased exclusively from the franchisor or sources designated by the franchisor where such goods, supplies, inventories, or services of comparable quality are available from sources other than those designated by the franchisor. However, the publication by the franchisor of a list of approved suppliers of goods, supplies, inventories, or service or the requirement that such goods, supplies, inventories, or services comply with specifications and standards prescribed by the franchisor does not constitute designation of a source nor does a reasonable right of the franchisor to disapprove a supplier constitute a designation. This paragraph does not apply to the principal goods, supplies, inventories, or services manufactured or trademarked by the franchisor.

 - b. Allowing the franchisor to establish a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of the franchisee in the exclusive territory granted the franchisee by the franchise agreement; or, if no exclusive territory is designated, permitting the franchisor to compete unfairly with the franchisee in a reasonable area.

 - c. Allowing substantial modification of the franchise agreement by the franchisor without the consent in writing of the franchisee.

 - d. Allowing the franchisor to obtain money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom the franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between the franchisee and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by the franchisor, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to the franchisee.

 - e. Requiring the franchisee to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability to be imposed by Indiana law or requiring any controversy between the franchisee and the franchisor to be referred to any person, if referral would be binding on the franchisee. This paragraph does not apply to arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

 - f. Allowing for an increase in prices of goods provided by the franchisor which the franchisee had ordered for private retail consumers prior to the franchisee's receipt of an official price increase notification. A sales contract signed by a private retail consumer shall constitute evidence of each order. Price changes applicable to new models of a product at the time of introduction of such new models shall not be considered a price increase. Price increases caused by conformity to state or federal law, or the revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods, are not subject to this paragraph.

g. Permitting unilateral termination of the franchise if such termination is without good cause or in bad faith. Good cause within the meaning of this paragraph includes any material violation of the franchise agreement.

h. Permitting the franchisor to fail to renew a franchise without good cause or in bad faith. This paragraph shall not prohibit a franchise agreement from providing that the agreement is not renewable upon expiration or that the agreement is renewable if the franchisee meets certain conditions specified in the agreement.

i. Requiring a franchisee to covenant not to compete with the franchisor for a period longer than three (3) years or in an area greater than the exclusive area granted by the franchise agreement or, in absence of such a provision in the agreement, an area of reasonable size, upon termination of or failure to renew the franchise.

j. Limiting litigation brought for breach of the agreement in any manner whatsoever. A choice of forum or law other than that of Indiana is prohibited.

k. Requiring the franchisee to participate in any:

(i) Advertising campaign or contest;

(ii) Promotional campaigns;

(iii) Promotional materials; or

(iv) Display decorations or materials;

at any expense to the franchisee that is indeterminate, determined by a third party, or determined by a formula, unless the franchise agreement specifies the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum that the franchisee may be required to pay.

l. Requiring a franchisee to enter into an agreement providing the franchisor with any indemnification for liability caused by the franchisee's proper reliance on or use of procedures or materials provided by the franchisor or by the franchisor's negligence.

m. Requiring a franchisee to enter into an agreement reserving the right to injunctive relief and any specific damages to the franchisor, limiting the remedies available to either party without benefit of appropriate process or recognizing the adequacy or inadequacy of any remedy under the agreement.

3. It is unlawful for any franchisor who has entered into any franchise agreement with a franchisee who is either a resident of Indiana or a nonresident operating a franchise in Indiana to engage in any of the following acts and practices in relation to the agreement:

a. Coercing the franchisee to:

(i) Order or accept delivery of any goods, supplies, inventories, or services which are neither necessary to the operation of the franchise, required by the franchise agreement, required by law, nor voluntarily ordered by the franchisee.

(ii) Order or accept delivery of any goods offered for sale by the franchisee which includes modifications or accessories which are not included in the base price of those goods as publicly advertised by the franchisor.

(iii) Participate in an advertising campaign or contest, any promotional campaign, promotional materials, display decorations, or materials at an expense to the franchisee over and above the maximum percentage of gross monthly sales or the maximum absolute sum required to be spent by the franchisee provided for in the franchise agreement, in the absence of such provision for required advertising expenditures in the franchise agreement, no such participation may be required; or

(iv) Enter into any agreement with the franchisor or any designee of the franchisor, or do any other act prejudicial to the franchisee, by threatening to cancel or fail to renew any agreement between the franchisee and the franchisor. Notice in good faith to any franchisee of the franchisee's violation of the terms or provisions of a franchise or agreement does not constitute a violation of this paragraph.

b. Refusing or failing to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order from a franchisee for any good, supplies, inventories, or services which the franchisor has agreed to supply to the franchisee, unless the failure is caused by acts or caused beyond the control of the franchisor.

c. Denying the surviving spouse, heirs, or estate of a deceased franchisee the opportunity to participate in the ownership of the franchise under a valid franchise agreement for a reasonable time after the death of the franchisee, provided that the surviving spouse, heirs, or estate maintains all standards and obligations of the franchise.

d. Establishing a franchisor-owned outlet engaged in a substantially identical business to that of the franchisee within the exclusive territory granted the franchisee by the franchise agreement, or if no exclusive territory is designated, competing unfairly with the franchisee within a reasonable area. However, a franchisor shall not be considered to be competing when operating a business either temporarily for a reasonable period of time, or in a bona fide retail operation which is for sale to any qualified independent person at a fair and reasonable price, or in a bona fide relationship in which an independent person has made a significant investment subject to loss in the business operation and can reasonably expect to acquire full ownership of such business on reasonable terms and conditions.

e. Discriminating unfairly among its franchisees or unreasonably failing or refusing to comply with any terms of a franchise agreement.

f. Obtaining money, goods, services, or any other benefit from any other person with whom the franchisee does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between the franchisee and the other person, other than compensation for services rendered by the franchisor, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to the franchisee.

g. Increasing prices of goods provided by the franchisor which the franchisee had ordered for retail consumers prior to the franchisee's receipt of a written official price increase notification. Price increases caused by conformity to a state or federal law, the revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made goods or pursuant to the franchise agreement are not subject to this paragraph.

h. Using deceptive advertising or engaging in deceptive acts in connection with the franchise or the franchisor's business.

4. The franchisee does not waive any right under Indiana statutes with regard to prior representations made in the Indiana Disclosure Document.

5. Each provision of the franchise documents which is unlawful pursuant to Indiana's franchise laws is amended to conform with said law.

6. Each provision of this Addendum shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of Indiana law are met independently without reference to this Addendum to Disclosure Document.

7. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

The parties to the attached Development Agreement hereby acknowledge and agree that:

1. Irrespective of any requirements for the Developer to renew or extend the Development Agreement and any conditions that must be met for the Franchisor to approve a transfer of the franchise, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights the Developer enjoys and any causes of action arising in the Developer's favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder shall remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687.4 and 687.5 be satisfied.
2. The Developer may terminate the Development Agreement on any grounds available by law.
3. Irrespective of any rights granted to the Developer to assign the Development Agreement, no assignment will be made except to an assignee who in good faith and judgment of the Franchisor, is willing and financially able to assume the Developer's obligations under the Development Agreement.
4. No choice of law or choice of forum provision in the Development Agreement should be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the Franchisor or upon the Developer by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.
5. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Addendum and the terms of the Development Agreement, the terms of this Addendum shall prevail.
6. Each provision of this Addendum shall be effective only to the extent, with respect to such provision, that the jurisdictional requirements of the General Business Law of the State of New York are met independently without reference to this Addendum.
7. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100, and the rules adopted thereunder, may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheets as of April 30, 2023 and 2022, the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

As described in Note 1, the Company adopted Accounting Standards Codification Topic 842 as of May 1, 2022. Beginning retained earnings was not impacted by the adoption of this new standard. Prior period amounts have not been adjusted and continue to be reported in accordance with the Company's historic accounting under ASC Topic 840. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated in Delaware on March 31, 2006. The Company's headquarters are located in Las Vegas, Nevada. The Company was organized to sell franchises for the right to own and operate independent Fiesta Auto Insurance Agencies in various states throughout the country. These franchised agencies will sell property and casualty insurance and may offer other ancillary business services such as tax preparation services, motor vehicle registration services and travel agency services under the "Fiesta" trade name and service mark. The Company sold 2 and 15 individual franchise licenses during the years ended April 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. There were 26 and 14 franchise closures during the years ended April 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. As of April 30, 2023, there were 220 franchises in operation, none of which were owned by the Company.

On October 19, 2018, the Company's three former stockholders entered into a stock purchase agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") to sell their combined 100% common stock interest in the Company to Fiesta Insurance Acquisition, Inc. ("FIA"), which is wholly owned by Insurvia, Inc. ("IINC"), which is wholly owned by Insurvia, LLC ("ILLC"). For accounting purposes, there was a change of control and the accounting method applied was the push down method of accounting where the assets acquired and liabilities assumed were recognized based on their estimated fair values. On January 31, 2021, FIA and ILLC along with Wastani Investment Corporation ("WIC") and DA Group Corporation ("DGC") entered into a membership interest purchase agreement (the "Membership Purchase Agreement") to purchase La Familia Agency, LLC ("LFA"), which is an independent insurance agency offering auto insurance, home insurance, renters insurance, business insurance, motorcycle insurance and surety bonds. As of April 30, 2023, LFA has 70 corporate owned locations.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Significant estimates and assumptions made by management are used for, but not limited to, the allowance for doubtful accounts, the estimated useful lives of long-lived assets, loan and financing costs, impairment of goodwill and other intangible assets and the estimated fair value of assets and liabilities acquired in the change of control. Actual results could differ from those estimates and could materially affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and future operating results.

Reclassification

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Assets and liabilities recorded at fair value in the financial statements are categorized based upon the level of judgment associated with the inputs used to measure their fair value. The categories, as defined by the relative authoritative standard, are as follows:

Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation
Notes to Financial Statements
April 30, 2023 and 2022

Level Input	Input Definition
Level I	Inputs are unadjusted, quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets at the measurement date.
Level II	Inputs, other than quoted prices included in Level I, that are observable for the asset or liability through corroboration with market data at the measurement date.
Level III	Unobservable inputs that reflect management's best estimate of what market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date.

Unless otherwise specified, management believes the carrying value of financial instruments approximates their fair value.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. The Company has significant cash balances at financial institutions which, throughout the year, regularly exceed the federally insured limit of $250,000. Any loss or lack of access to such funds could have a significant adverse impact on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

The following table provides a reconciliation of cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash reported on the balance sheet to the amount reported on the statement of cash flows:

	2023	2022
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 3,949,006	$ 4,169,000
Restricted cash	151,206	88,618
Total cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash	$ 4,100,212	$ 4,257,618

Restricted Cash

The Company establishes advertising funds to collect and administer funds contributed for use in advertising and promotional programs, which are designed to increase sales at the franchise operation level and enhance the reputation of the Company and its franchise owners. Contributions to the advertising funds are required for the stores designated by the respective fund. Expenditures of the advertising fund are amounts paid to third-parties, franchisees for reimbursement of certain marketing costs or Company employees with marketing responsibilities.

At each reporting date, to the extent contributions to the advertising funds exceed expenditures on a cumulative basis, the excess contributions are accounted for as a liability and are recorded in accounts payable and accrued liabilities in the Company's balance sheet.

Restricted Cash – Digital Marketing Fund

Restricted cash for the digital marketing fund consisted of the following:

	2023	2022
Digital marketing fund liability	$ 36,714	$ 38,827
Contributions during the year	586,985	594,842
Expenditures during the year	(617,554)	(596,955)
Digital marketing fund liability	$ 6,145	$ 36,714

Funds Held in Trust

Funds held in trust consist of insurance premiums collected on behalf of customers of the Company's franchisees. These funds are held in segregated accounts and are remitted to the respective insurance providers on behalf of customers. Funds held in trust and their offsetting liability, funds held in trust for customers, are presented separately for financial statement presentation purposes.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recognized when insurance policies are sold in accordance with the respective commission agreement and when other ancillary fees are earned from franchisees. Management records an estimate for doubtful accounts when deemed appropriate. Management determines the allowance for doubtful accounts by regularly evaluating individual receivables and considering the insurance provider or franchisee's financial condition and credit history and current economic conditions. Management determined that a reserve of $50,000 and $12,000 was necessary at April 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Accounts receivable are written off when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of accounts receivable previously written off are recorded as income when received. Management determines the past due status of accounts receivable based on contractual terms with each customer, but amounts are generally due within 30 days. Interest is not charged on past due accounts.

Accounts receivable at May 1, 2021 was $3,160,395.

Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation

Notes to Financial Statements

April 30, 2023 and 2022

Notes Receivable

The Company provides financing to franchisees for the purchase of franchises. Notes receivable are collateralized by the underlying franchise and are guaranteed by the owners of the respective entity. The debtors' ability to repay the notes is dependent upon both the performance of the industry as a whole and performance of the industry in the individual franchisee areas. Notes receivable are recorded net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. Notes are written off against the allowance when all possible means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote. At April 30, 2023 and 2022, management determined that no such allowances were necessary. See Note 2 for a further description of notes receivable.

Equipment and Leasehold Improvements

Equipment and leasehold improvements are recorded at cost. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from three to five years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of their estimated useful lives or respective lease term. Upon the disposition of an asset, its accumulated depreciation is deducted from the original cost, and any gain or loss is reflected in current earnings. Repairs and maintenance that do not enhance the use or extend the life of equipment and leasehold improvements are expensed as incurred.

Pre-Publication, Production and Gaming Application

The Company capitalizes the editorial and other costs incurred in the creation of the master copy of books or other media. Pre-publication and production costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over a seven year period based on expected future revenues. The Company capitalized a gaming application developed by a third-party vendor that can be installed and played on smart phones and tablets. The gaming application costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over a three year period. The Company regularly reviews the recoverability of the capitalized costs based on expected future revenue.

Other Intangible Assets

Definite Lived Amortizable Intangibles

In connection with the acquisition and change of control, the Company recognized amortizable intangible assets for insurance carrier relationships and franchise agreements. These assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 20 and 15 years, respectively.

Indefinite Lived Amortizable Intangibles

The Company also recognized trade names and a domain name which are intangible assets with an indefinite life and are not amortized.

The Company regularly reviews the recoverability of other intangibles assets based on expected future revenue.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost over the fair value of acquired identifiable tangible and intangible assets less liabilities assumed from the acquisition and change of control that occurred on October 19, 2018. Identifiable intangible assets acquired in business combinations are recorded based upon their fair value at the date of acquisition.

The Company evaluates goodwill on an annual basis in the fourth quarter or more frequently if management believes indicators of impairment exist. Such indicators could include, but are not limited to (1) a significant adverse change in legal factors or in business climate, (2) unanticipated competition, or (3) an adverse action or assessment by a regulator. The Company first assesses qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, including goodwill. If management concludes that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, management conducts a two-step quantitative goodwill impairment test.

The first step of the impairment test involves comparing the fair value of the applicable reporting unit with its carrying value. The Company estimates the fair values of its reporting units using a combination of the income, or discounted cash flows, approach and the market approach, which utilizes comparable companies' data. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds the reporting unit's fair value, management performs the second step of the goodwill impairment test. The second step of the goodwill impairment test involves comparing the implied fair value of the affected reporting unit's goodwill with the carrying value of that goodwill.

The Company's goodwill totaling $24,048,693 resulted from the acquisition and change of control on October 19, 2018. The amount by which the carrying value of the goodwill exceeds its implied fair value, if any, is recognized as an impairment loss. The Company's evaluations of goodwill completed as of April 30, 2023 and 2022 resulted in no impairment losses.

Impairment of Long Lived Assets

The Company reviews its long-lived assets whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of such assets may not be recoverable. Impairment is evaluated by comparing the carrying value of the assets with the estimated future net undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the assets, including cash flows from disposition. Should the sum of the expected future net cash flows be less than the carrying value, the Company would recognize an impairment loss at that date for the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its fair value. Management has determined that no impairment currently exists.

Deferred Financing Costs

Deferred financing costs incurred relating to notes payable are presented as a reduction of the related debt. The Company amortizes the deferred financing costs using the effective interest rate method over the term of the related debt. Amortization of deferred financing costs totaling $418,700 and $457,992 is included as interest expense in the accompanying statements of operations for the years ended April 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

The Company adopted Accounting Standard Codification Topic 606 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers effective May 1, 2020.

The standard provides principles for recognizing revenue for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers with the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The standard also provides guidance on the recognition of incremental costs related to obtaining customer contracts.

The Company determines revenue recognition through the following steps:

- i. Identification of the contract, or contracts, with a customer
- ii. Identification of the performance obligations in the contract
- iii. Determination of the transaction price
- iv. Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- v. Recognition of revenue when, or as, the Company satisfies a performance obligation

The Company recognizes initial franchise fees, which are nonrefundable, as income when all material performance obligations relating to the franchise, primarily related to the initial set up, assistance with selecting the site, training, etc., have been substantially performed or satisfied by the Company, which usually coincides with the opening of the store. In cases where the Company receives a note receivable for the franchise fee, revenue is recognized for the present value of such note receivable. Renewal franchise fees that do not entail other performance obligations by the Company are recognized ratably over the term of the franchise contract, which is typically 5 years.

The Company earns commission on insurance policies sold by franchisees in the period sold. All payments received for insurance policies sold are initially collected by the Company. During the period following initial cash collection, the Company remits the amount due to the franchisee for their portion of commissions earned. Franchisees earn commission at varying rates in accordance with their respective franchise agreements. The Company then retains its portion of commissions, which is usually earned at rates ranging from 20% to 25% of gross insurance commissions.

The Company receives fees for other business services provided by franchisees such as tax preparation services. Revenues for such fees are recognized as the services are provided by the franchisee, with the continued support of the Company. Similar to commission revenues, the Company collects payments for all services provided and then remits the amount due to the franchisee for their portion of fees earned as determined by the respective franchise agreement. The Company earns its fees at varying amounts based on the service provided by the franchisee.

The Company also provides marketing services for its franchisees. The Company recognizes marketing fee revenue and the related expense when collected from franchisees as such amounts are earned, and the liability to incur marketing efforts, is created at that time.

Deferred revenue represents franchise fees collected from customers in advance of the performance obligation being satisfied by the Company. Deferred revenue at May 1, 2021 was $778,173.

Leases

The Company determines whether a contract is, or contains, a lease at inception. The Company classifies each of its leases as operating or financing considering factors such as the length of the lease term, the present value of the lease payments, the nature of the asset being leased, and the potential for ownership of the asset to transfer during the lease term. Leases with terms greater than one-year are recognized on the balance sheets as right-of-use assets and lease liabilities and are measured at the present value of the fixed payments due over the expected lease term minus the present value of any incentives, rebates or abatements expected to be received from the lessor. Options to extend a lease are typically excluded from the expected lease term as the exercise of the option is typically not reasonably certain. The interest rate implicit in lease contracts is typically not readily determinable. As such, the Company utilizes the risk-free rate. The Company records expense to recognize fixed lease payments on a straight-line basis over the expected lease term. Costs determined to be variable and not based on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and are expensed as incurred.

Certain lease contracts include obligations to pay for other services, such as operations, property taxes, and maintenance. For leases of property, we account for these other services as a component of the lease.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expenses was nominal for the years ended April 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with accounting guidance codified as ASC Topic 740, "Income Taxes, ASC 740" which requires that the Company recognize deferred tax liabilities and assets based on the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities, using enacted tax rates in effect in the years the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred income tax expense (benefit) results from the change in net deferred tax assets or deferred tax liabilities. A valuation allowance is recorded when it is more likely than not that some or all deferred tax assets will not be realized.

The Company applies the provisions of ASC 740 that prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

The Company utilizes a two-step approach to recognizing and measuring uncertain tax positions (tax contingencies). The first step evaluates the tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates it is more likely than not that the Company will sustain the position on audit, including resolution of related appeals or litigation processes. The second step measures the tax benefit as the largest amount more than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company did not identify any material uncertain tax positions on returns that have been filed or that will be filed and/or amended.

To the extent the Company may accrue interest and penalties, it elects to recognize accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax items as a component of the provision for income taxes. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing and other jurisdictions. However, there are currently no audits in progress for any prior tax periods.

The Company is part of a group that files a consolidated federal and certain state income tax returns. Current and deferred income taxes are provided for on a separate return basis. The Company accounts for deferred income taxes in accordance with the liability method. Income taxes consist of taxes currently payable plus those deferred due to temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

Adoption of New Accounting Pronouncement

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued an Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) amending the accounting for leases. The Company adopted the new standard effective May 1, 2022, using the modified retrospective approach. Comparative periods were not adjusted upon adoption, as the Company utilized the practical expedient available under the guidance. Further, the Company elected to implement the package of practical expedients, whereby the Company did not (i) reassess existing contracts for embedded leases, (ii) reassess existing lease agreements for finance or operating classification, or (iii) reassess existing lease agreements in consideration of initial direct costs. The implementation of this standard did not have a material impact to statements of income or cash flows and the Company’s debt covenant calculations under its current agreements.

The Company recognized $161,141 in right-of-use (“ROU”) assets related to its leased property as of May 1, 2022. Corresponding leases liabilities of $161,141 were also recognized. There was no cumulative effect of applying the new standard and accordingly there was no adjustment to retained earnings upon adoption.

Subsequent Events

The Company has considered subsequent events through August 2, 2023, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, in preparing the financial statements and notes thereto.

Total	$ (59,573)	$ (307,278)

The effective tax rate differs from the statutory tax rate primarily due to state taxes and nondeductible expenses.

The Company has net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $6.5 million that can offset income taxable by the state of California. Such loss carryforwards expire through 2043.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed by applying the federal and state income tax rates in effect to the gross amounts of temporary differences and other tax attributes. In assessing if the deferred tax assets will be realized, the Company considers whether it is more likely than not that some or all of these deferred tax assets will be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the period in which these deductible temporary differences reverse.

For the years ended April 30, 2023 and 2022, the Company evaluated whether or not the deferred tax assets will more likely than not be realized and concluded that sufficient sources of income will be generated in future years and consequently, a valuation allowance has not been recognized.

Taxes payable as of April 30, 2023 was $1,840,818 and is due to FIA, who will ultimately be responsible for paying the tax authorities.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Directors
Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation
Las Vegas, Nevada

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation (the "Company"), which comprise the balance sheet as of April 30, 2022, the related statements of operations, stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Other Matter

The financial statements of Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation for the year ended April 30, 2021 were audited by Martini Akpovi Partners, LLP, who joined with WithumSmith+Brown, PC on February 1, 2022 and expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements dated August 19, 2021.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

Independent Auditors' Report (Continued)

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated in Delaware on March 31, 2006. The Company's headquarters are located in Las Vegas, Nevada. The Company was organized to sell franchises for the right to own and operate independent Fiesta Auto Insurance Agencies in various states throughout the country. These franchised agencies will sell property and casualty insurance and may offer other ancillary business services such as tax preparation services, motor vehicle registration services and travel agency services under the "Fiesta" trade name and service mark. The Company sold 15 and 40 individual franchise licenses during the years ended April 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively. There were 14 and 9 franchise closures during the years ended April 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively. As of April 30, 2022, there were 244 franchises in operation, none of which were owned by the Company.

On October 19, 2018, the Company's three former stockholders entered into a stock purchase agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") to sell their combined 100% common stock interest in the Company to Fiesta Insurance Acquisition, Inc. ("FIA"), which is wholly owned by Insurvia, Inc. ("IINC"), which is wholly owned by Insurvia, LLC ("ILLC"). For accounting purposes, there was a change of control and the accounting method applied was the push down method of accounting where the assets acquired and liabilities assumed were recognized based on their estimated fair values. On January 31, 2021, FIA and ILLC along with Wastani Investment Corporation ("WIC") and DA Group Corporation ("DGC") entered into a membership interest purchase agreement (the "Membership Purchase Agreement") to purchase La Familia Agency, LLC ("LFA"), which is an independent insurance agency offering auto insurance, home insurance, renters insurance, business insurance, motorcycle insurance and surety bonds. As of April 30, 2022, LFA has 73 corporate owned locations.

Cumulative Effect Adjustment

Prior to adoption of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standard Codification ("ASC") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("Topic 606"), the Company recognized initial franchise fees as income when all material services or conditions relating to the sale of the franchise have been substantially performed or satisfied by the Company. Franchise fees were initially deferred and then recognized in full upon the commencement of franchise operations, or after six months from the signing of the franchisee contract, whichever came first. With the adoption of ASC Topic 606 under the modified retrospective approach, the Company recognized the impact of the accounting change as a cumulative effect adjustment to retained earnings as of May 1, 2020 in the amount of $530,773. See the Revenue Recognition disclosure below for a detailed explanation on how franchise fees are recorded.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Significant estimates and assumptions made by management are used for, but not limited to, the allowance for doubtful accounts, the estimated useful lives of long-lived assets, loan and financing costs, impairment of goodwill and other intangible assets and the estimated fair value of assets and liabilities acquired in the change of control. Actual results could differ from those estimates and could materially affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and future operating results.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Assets and liabilities recorded at fair value in the financial statements are categorized based upon the level of judgment associated with the inputs used to measure their fair value. The categories, as defined by the relative authoritative standard, are as follows:

Level Input	Input Definition
Level I	Inputs are unadjusted, quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets at the measurement date.
Level II	Inputs, other than quoted prices included in Level I, that are observable for the asset or liability through corroboration with market data at the measurement date.
Level III	Unobservable inputs that reflect management's best estimate of what market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date.

Unless otherwise specified, management believes the carrying value of financial instruments approximates their fair value.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. The Company also maintains cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant risk of loss on cash and cash equivalents.

The following table provides a reconciliation of cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash reported on the balance sheet to the amount reported on the statement of cash flows:

Cash and equivalents	$ 4,169,000	$ 2,783,237
Restricted cash	88,618	1,168,148

Restricted Cash

The Company establishes advertising funds to collect and administer funds contributed for use in advertising and promotional programs, which are designed to increase sales at the franchise operation level and enhance the reputation of the Company and its franchise owners. Contributions to the advertising funds are required for the stores designated by the respective fund. Expenditures of the advertising fund are amounts paid to third-parties, franchisees for reimbursement of certain marketing costs or Company employees with marketing responsibilities.

At each reporting date, to the extent contributions to the advertising funds exceed expenditures on a cumulative basis, the excess contributions are accounted for as a liability and are recorded in accounts payable and accrued liabilities in the Company's balance sheet.

Restricted Cash – Advertising Fund

Restricted cash for the California advertising fund consisted of the following:

	2022	2021
CA advertising fund liability	$ 1,129,321	$ 1,161,285
Contributions during the year	2,249,900	1,674,976
Expenditures during the year	(3,327,317)	(1,706,940)
CA advertising fund liability	$ 51,904	$ 1,129,321

Restricted Cash – Digital Marketing Fund

Restricted cash for the digital marketing fund consisted of the following:

	2022	2021
Digital marketing fund liability	$ 38,827	$ 149,217
Contributions during the year	594,842	482,371
Expenditures during the year	(596,955)	(592,761)
Digital marketing fund liability	$ 36,714	$ 38,827

Funds Held in Trust

Funds held in trust consist of insurance premiums collected on behalf of customers of the Company's franchisees. These funds are held in segregated accounts and are remitted to the respective insurance providers on behalf of customers. Funds held in trust and their offsetting liability, funds held in trust for customers, are presented separately for financial statement presentation purposes.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recognized when insurance policies are sold in accordance with the respective commission agreement and when other ancillary fees are earned from franchisees. Management records an estimate for doubtful accounts when deemed appropriate. Management determines the allowance for doubtful accounts by regularly evaluating individual receivables and considering the insurance provider or franchisee's financial condition and credit history and current economic conditions. Management determined that a reserve of $12,000 was necessary at April 30, 2022 and 2021. Accounts receivable are written off when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of accounts receivable previously written off are recorded as income when received. Management determines the past due status of accounts receivable based on contractual terms with each customer, but amounts are generally due within 30 days. Interest is not charged on past due accounts.

Accounts receivable at May 1, 2020 was $2,679,545.

Notes Receivable

The Company provides financing to franchisees for the purchase of franchises. Notes receivable are collateralized by the underlying franchise and are guaranteed by the owners of the respective entity. The debtors' ability to repay the notes is dependent upon both the performance of the industry as a whole and performance of the industry in the individual franchisee areas. Notes receivable are recorded net of an allowance for doubtful accounts. Notes are written off against the allowance when all possible means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote. At April 30, 2022 and 2021, management determined that no such allowances were necessary. See Note 2 for a further description of notes receivable.

Equipment and Leasehold Improvements

Equipment and leasehold improvements are recorded at cost. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from three to five years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of their estimated useful lives or respective lease term. Upon the disposition of an asset, its accumulated depreciation is deducted from the original cost, and any gain or loss is reflected in current earnings. Repairs and maintenance that do not enhance the use or extend the life of equipment and leasehold improvements are expensed as incurred.

Pre-Publication, Production and Gaming Application

The Company capitalizes the editorial and other costs incurred in the creation of the master copy of books or other media. Pre-publication and production costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over a seven year period based on expected future revenues. The Company capitalized a gaming application developed by a third-party vendor that can be installed and played on smart phones and tablets. The gaming application costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over a three year period. The Company regularly reviews the recoverability of the capitalized costs based on expected future revenue.

Other Intangible Assets

Definite Lived Amortizable Intangibles

In connection with the acquisition and change of control, the Company recognized amortizable intangible assets for insurance carrier relationships and franchise agreements. These assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life of 20 and 15 years, respectively.

Indefinite Lived Amortizable Intangibles

The Company also recognized trade names and a domain name which are intangible assets with an indefinite life and are not amortized.

The Company regularly reviews the recoverability of other intangibles assets based on expected future revenue.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost over the fair value of acquired identifiable tangible and intangible assets less liabilities assumed from the acquisition and change of control that occurred on October 19, 2018. Identifiable intangible assets acquired in business combinations are recorded based upon their fair value at the date of acquisition.

The Company evaluates goodwill on an annual basis in the fourth quarter or more frequently if management believes indicators of impairment exist. Such indicators could include, but are not limited to (1) a significant adverse change in legal factors or in business climate, (2) unanticipated competition, or (3) an adverse action or assessment by a regulator. The Company first assesses qualitative factors to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, including goodwill. If management concludes that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, management conducts a two-step quantitative goodwill impairment test.

The first step of the impairment test involves comparing the fair value of the applicable reporting unit with its carrying value. The Company estimates the fair values of its reporting units using a combination of the income, or discounted cash flows, approach and the market approach, which utilizes comparable companies' data. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds the reporting unit's fair value, management performs the second step of the goodwill impairment test. The second step of the goodwill impairment test involves comparing the implied fair value of the affected reporting unit's goodwill with the carrying value of that goodwill.

The Company's goodwill totaling $24,048,693 resulted from the acquisition and change of control on October 19, 2018. The amount by which the carrying value of the goodwill exceeds its implied fair value, if any, is recognized as an impairment loss. The Company's evaluations of goodwill completed as of April 30, 2022 and 2021 resulted in no impairment losses.

Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation

Impairment of Long Lived Assets

The Company reviews its long-lived assets whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of such assets may not be recoverable. Impairment is evaluated by comparing the carrying value of the assets with the estimated future net undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the assets, including cash flows from disposition. Should the sum of the expected future net cash flows be less than the carrying value, the Company would recognize an impairment loss at that date for the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its fair value. Management has determined that no impairment currently exists.

Deferred Financing Costs

Deferred financing costs incurred relating to notes payable are presented as a reduction of the related debt. The Company amortizes the deferred financing costs using the effective interest rate method over the term of the related debt. Amortization of deferred financing costs totaling $457,992 and $777,851 is included as interest expense in the accompanying statements of operations for the years ended April 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

The Company adopted Accounting Standard Codification Topic 606 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers effective May 1, 2020.

The standard provides principles for recognizing revenue for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers with the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The standard also provides guidance on the recognition of incremental costs related to obtaining customer contracts. The Company adopted ASC Topic 606, effective May 1, 2020, utilizing the modified retrospective method. This approach was applied to contracts that were in process as of May 1, 2020, which resulted in a cumulative effect adjustment of $530,773 to the opening balance of retained earnings at the date of adoption. The adoption of this standard primarily impacts the timing of the revenue recognition for franchise fees revenue and marketing fund presentation.

The Company determines revenue recognition through the following steps:

- i. Identification of the contract, or contracts, with a customer
- ii. Identification of the performance obligations in the contract
- iii. Determination of the transaction price
- iv. Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- v. Recognition of revenue when, or as, the Company satisfies a performance obligation

The Company recognizes initial franchise fees, which are nonrefundable, as income when all material performance obligations relating to the franchise, primarily related to the initial set up, assistance with selecting the site, training, etc., have been substantially performed or satisfied by the Company, which usually coincides with the opening of the store. In cases where the Company receives a note receivable for the franchise fee, revenue is recognized for the present value of such note receivable. Renewal franchise fees that do not entail other performance obligations by the Company are recognized ratably over the term of the franchise contract, which is typically 5 years.

Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation

Notes to Financial Statements

April 30, 2022 and 2021

The Company earns commission on insurance policies sold by franchisees in the period sold. All payments received for insurance policies sold are initially collected by the Company. During the period following initial cash collection, the Company remits the amount due to the franchisee for their portion of commissions earned. Franchisees earn commission at varying rates in accordance with their respective franchise agreements. The Company then retains its portion of commissions, which is usually earned at rates ranging from 20% to 25% of gross insurance commissions.

The Company receives fees for other business services provided by franchisees such as tax preparation services. Revenues for such fees are recognized as the services are provided by the franchisee, with the continued support of the Company. Similar to commission revenues, the Company collects payments for all services provided and then remits the amount due to the franchisee for their portion of fees earned as determined by the respective franchise agreement. The Company earns its fees at varying amounts based on the service provided by the franchisee.

The Company also provides marketing services for its franchisees. The Company recognizes marketing fee revenue and the related expense when collected from franchisees as such amounts are earned, and the liability to incur marketing efforts, is created at that time.

Deferred revenue represents franchise fees collected from customers in advance of the performance obligation being satisfied by the Company. Deferred revenue at May 1, 2020 was $140,000.

Franchise fees allocated to remaining performance obligations for the year ending April 30 are as follows:

2023	$	222,795
2024		162,330
2025		103,420
2026		64,973
2027		5,521
		559,039

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expense was $242,049 and $280,358 for the years ended April 30, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with accounting guidance codified as ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes, (“ASC 740”) which requires that the Company recognize deferred tax liabilities and assets based on the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities, using enacted tax rates in effect in the years the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred income tax expense (benefit) results from the change in net deferred tax assets or deferred tax liabilities. A valuation allowance is recorded when it is more likely than not that some or all deferred tax assets will not be realized.

Fiesta Insurance Franchise Corporation

Notes to Financial Statements

April 30, 2022 and 2021

The Company applies the provisions of ASC 740 that prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

The Company utilizes a two-step approach to recognizing and measuring uncertain tax positions (tax contingencies). The first step evaluates the tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates it is more likely than not that the Company will sustain the position on audit, including resolution of related appeals or litigation processes. The second step measures the tax benefit as the largest amount more than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company did not identify any material uncertain tax positions on returns that have been filed or that will be filed and/or amended.

To the extent the Company may accrue interest and penalties, it elects to recognize accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax items as a component of the portion for income taxes. The Company is subject to routine audits by taxing and other jurisdictions. However, there are currently no audits in progress for any prior tax periods.

Subsequent Events

The Company has considered subsequent events through August 15, 2022, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, in preparing the financial statements and notes thereto.

Note 2 – Notes Receivable

Notes receivable consist of various franchisee loans. The Company provides financing to franchisees for the purchase of franchises. During the years ended April 30, 2022 and 2021, the Company granted loans to various franchisees in aggregate amounts of approximately $1,015,000 and $815,000, respectively. These notes receivable, bearing interest at prime rate plus 4% (which aggregated to 7.25% at April 30, 2022), are payable at various dates through maturity in April 2027.

Note 10 – Income Taxes (continued)

The effective tax rate differs from the statutory tax rate primarily due to state taxes and nondeductible expenses.

The tax effects of temporary differences that give rise to significant portions of the deferred tax assets and liabilities are presented below.

	2022	2021
Deferred tax assets
163(j) business interest limitation	$ 1,278,596	$ 172,295
Deferred revenue	156,637	220,033
Net operating loss	364,658	393,085
Other deferred tax assets	47,963	47,600
Total deferred tax assets	1,847,854	833,013
Deferred tax liabilities
Depreciation	-	(977)
Amortization of intangibles	(765,129)	(549,582)
Goodwill	(1,572,245)	(1,133,318)
Total deferred tax liabilities	(2,337,374)	(1,683,877)
Net deferred tax liabilities	$ (489,520)	$ (850,864)

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed by applying the federal and state income tax rates in effect to the gross amounts of temporary differences and other tax attributes. In assessing if the deferred tax assets will be realized, the Company considers whether it is more likely than not that some or all of these deferred tax assets will be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the period in which these deductible temporary differences reverse.

For the years ended April 30, 2022 and 2021, the Company evaluated whether or not the deferred tax assets will more likely than not be realized and concluded that sufficient sources of income will be generated in future years and consequently, a valuation allowance has not been recognized.
