What You Need to Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Florida. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Florida than in your own state.
2. Inventory Control. You must make minimum amounts of inventory and supply purchases each year, even if you do not need that much. Your inability to make these purchases or to maintain inventory levels at all times may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
3. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty or advertising fund payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.
4. Supplier Control. You must purchase all or nearly all of the inventory or supplies that are necessary to operate your business from the franchisor, its affiliates, or suppliers that the franchisor designates, at prices the franchisor or they set. These prices may be higher than prices you could obtain elsewhere for the same or similar goods. This may reduce the anticipated profit of your franchise business.
5. Turnover Rate. During the last 3 years, approximately 50% of franchised outlets were terminated, transferred, reacquired by franchisor, or ceased operations for other reasons. The franchise could be a higher risk investment than a franchise in a system with a lower turnover rate.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
PURSUANT TO THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

(I) A PROVISION WHICH PERMITS THE FRANCHISOR TO DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY CONVEY, ASSIGN, OR OTHERWISE TRANSFER ITS OBLIGATIONS TO FULFILL CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS TO THE FRANCHISEE UNLESS PROVISION HAS BEEN MADE FOR PROVIDING THE REQUIRED CONTRACTUAL SERVICES.

THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NOTICE OF THIS OFFERING ON FILE WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE APPROVAL, RECOMMENDATION OR ENDORSEMENT BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Item 1
The Franchisor and any Parents, Predecessors, and Affiliates

The franchisor is Happy & Healthy Products, Inc. This Disclosure Document refers to the franchisor as the “Company” or “H&H”. To simplify the language in this Disclosure Document, “you” means the entity, person or persons who buy the franchise. If the franchisee will operate through a corporation or partnership, “you” also includes the franchisee’s owners or partners.

The Company does business and intends to do business under the name Fruitfull and its entity name Happy & Healthy Products, Inc. The Company’s principal business address is 1600 South Dixie Highway, Suite 100, Boca Raton, Florida 33432. The Company’s agent for service of process, if any, in your state is listed on the Receipt, the last page of this Disclosure Document. The Company is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida on February 25, 1991, and started selling product on or about March 17, 1993.

The Company has no predecessors or affiliates that currently offer franchises in any line of business or that provide products and services to franchisees. The Company has no corporate parent. The Company does not own or operate any similar businesses. In November 2021, Todd Peterson acquired 100% of our ownership interests from Linda Kamm, but this did not impact our corporate structure.

The Company also engages in the business of selling freezers, its proprietary brand of frozen yogurt bars and frozen dessert bars sold under the registered design trademark “FRUITFULL” (collectively referred to as “Fruitfull fruit bars” or “Fruitfull Products”) and other Fruitfull Products to its franchisees. The Company has done business under the mark “Happy and Healthy”, but beginning Spring 2024 the Company has initiated a branding transition towards “Fruitfull Snack” branding across all product lines, which is anticipated to take place over an estimated 12-18 months.

You will sign a franchise agreement (“Franchise Agreement”) to receive the right to own and operate a Fruitfull franchised business (“Franchised Business”). The Franchised Business will be authorized to sell a variety of Fruitfull Products, and other approved products, through approved services using designated equipment. As used in this FDD, a “Fruitfull Product” or “Product” is any product that is designated as such by H&H and which H&H makes available for purchase by the Franchised Business, either through H&H or a supplier designated by H&H. Products may include, but are not limited to, non-private labeled snack items, such as popcorn, protein bars, and other items. Currently, the private labeled Fruitfull Products include, but are not limited to, FRUITFULL fruit bars, Happy Indulgence Decadent Dips™ dessert bars, Be Happy & Healthy dessert bars, Be Happy & Healthy snacks and baked goods, beef sticks, popcorn, and other snacks and items not identified by the Licensed Marks. You are also required to stock frozen Products in freezers and promotional coolers that meet our then-current standards and specifications and that are approved by us (each, a “Freezer”). Freezers can stock only Fruitfull Products.

We offer two different models of Franchised Businesses, a classic model franchised business (a “Classic Franchised Business”), and a premier model franchised business (a “Premier Franchised Business”). A Classic Franchised Business is designed to target smaller customers, and as such, among other differences, it will have lower fees and minimum purchase requirements, but not be permitted to sell to any Premier Accounts. A “Premier Account” includes retailers, distributors, or other third parties, having two or more locations on a national or regional basis, hospitals, universities, and such other accounts that we designate in our sole discretion. A Premier Franchised Business is designed to target larger accounts and will be required to offer and sell products to any designated Premier Accounts in its territory. We are also considering authorizing the use of vending machines as approved services and equipment for Premier Franchised Businesses. Except where specifically noted, all disclosures pertain to both a Classic Franchised Business and a Premier Franchised Business.

If you are subsequently granted the right to own and operate a second or subsequent Franchised Business, then in addition to signing our then-current form of franchise agreement for that second or additional Franchised Business, which form of franchise agreement may be materially different than the one attached to this disclosure document, we may require you to sign our then-current form of franchise agreement for all of your existing Franchised Businesses for the remainder of the term that was originally granted to you for each Franchised Business.

You will typically be able to operate your business from an office in your home and keep your inventory in a local commercial cold storage facility.

The market for Fruitfull Product sales locations is retailers such as hospitals, universities, food stores, delicatessens, cafeterias, drug stores and the like, where individual frozen fruit bars and other frozen fruit confections, desserts and snacks are for sale to individuals for immediate consumption on or off the premises. You will compete with other sellers of frozen fruit confections, desserts, ice cream and snacks.

Demand for Fruitfull Products continues throughout the year, though sales peak in spring and summer.

Subject to the limitations set forth in Item 12, the Company's other franchisees generally will be allowed to sell in your Metropolitan Statistical Area ("MSA"), so you may compete against other Fruitfull franchisees in your MSA. Franchisees will also compete with other national, regional, and local sellers of dessert and snack products which customarily sell through the same type of retail outlets. Additionally, Franchisees will compete with ice cream shops, street vendors, route sales trucks, restaurants, and supermarkets.

You should note that state, county, city, municipal or local governments may have licensing laws that apply to the operation of your business, and that zoning laws may prevent operation of your business at your home. You should investigate these laws and consult your counsel to determine what licenses or zoning approvals are necessary for operation of your franchise and may apply to your operation. Also, Freezers placed on retail premises must meet certain minimum standards required by applicable laws. You are responsible for assuring that your Freezers meet these standards. All Freezers sold by or through the Company meet National Sanitation Foundation standards when they are sold.

The Company has offered Fruitfull (formerly known as Happy & Healthy) franchises since August 1, 1993. The Company currently operates one company-owned H&H business, like the business described in this Disclosure Document, in an MSA in South Florida. The Company has not offered franchises for any other businesses which are the same type of business that you will operate, or for any other type of business.

The Company's affiliate, Happy & Healthy Guaranty, LLC, absolutely and unconditionally guarantees the performance of our obligations under our franchise registrations that become effective on or after March 20, 2010, in states requiring the registration of the offer and sale of our franchises. See Item 21 of this Disclosure Document for additional discussion on this guarantee.

2/ This fee is neither financeable nor refundable. The $7,500 deposit for a Classic Franchised Business, and the $15,000 deposit for a Premier Franchised Business, must be paid on or before the date the Franchisee signs the Franchise Agreement; the balance is due within six months of the Franchisee signing the Franchise Agreement. If you fail to begin the operation of your Franchise Business within 6 months after the Effective Date, the Company has the right to terminate the Franchise Agreement and you will forfeit this fee. You will be deemed to have “begun” operation of your Franchise Business on the date that you enter into your first Freezer location agreement with an account.

3/ All Freezers, except chest freezers, are supplied by the Company. You may purchase additional Freezers from the Company or from approved third parties. If you purchase a Classic Franchised Business, then you must purchase at least 12 Freezers prior to commencing operations. If you purchase a Premier Franchised Business, then you must purchase at least 24 Freezers.

4/ A Classic Franchised Business will need a chest freezer for storage of products at your place of business. A Premier Franchised Business may also need a second chest freezer to stage larger delivery days.

5/ If you purchase a Classic Franchised Business, then you must purchase at least 12 snack racks. If you purchase a Premier Franchised Business, then you must purchase at least 24 snack racks. The above amounts reflect the estimates for purchasing the minimum required number of snack racks for respective model.

6/ For Premier Franchised Business these prices include a 3% volume discount on the Opening Inventory and then a 2% discount for ACH prepayment if ACH payment is received before the date the inventory is shipped. If you purchase a Classic Franchised Business, the 2% discount for ACH prepayment is included. The above estimates include these discounts. Prices for Fruitfull Products are subject to change.

7/ Training is conducted in your MSA so no extraordinary costs for lodging or food should be required. For a Classic Franchised Business, the estimate reflects the Training Fee for 1 week of training. For a Premier Franchised Business, the estimate reflects the Training Fee for 2 weeks of training. See Item 11 for more information on our Training Program.

8/ The Company assumes that you will (at least initially) operate the franchised business from your home. If this assumption is inaccurate, you should independently investigate the cost of obtaining an office for operating your franchised business. The high estimate is three months' payment of rent for office space, plus deposit.

9/ The Company assumes that you will (at least initially) operate the franchised business from your home and product will be stored in your home Freezer. If this assumption is inaccurate, you should independently investigate the cost of space at a cold-storage facility to store your product. The high estimate is three months' payment of rent for cold-storage space. Deposits are usually not required.

10/ If you purchase a Classic Franchised Business, you will be permitted to, and we will assume that you will (at least initially), operate the franchised business using an automobile which you already own. If this assumption is inaccurate, you should independently investigate the cost of obtaining a vehicle for operating your franchised business. A pickup truck or van is preferable. If you do not own one, a trailer can be used to move Freezers. A trailer kit (assembly required) may be purchased online, starting at $500. If you purchase a Premier Franchised Business, then you will be required to use a commercial grade vehicle equipped with an inverter and freezer for your business.

11/ The Company assumes that you will (at least initially) operate the franchised business using office equipment which you already own. If the assumption is inaccurate, you should independently investigate the cost of obtaining items such as a desk, chairs, phone, computer, laptop computer or tablet computer, smartphone, printer, file cabinets, etc. for operating your franchised business.

12/ The above amounts reflect estimated shipping costs for the display freezers and equipment.

13/ You should consult with an insurance agent about the appropriate types and costs of insurance policies which would be needed to protect you against potential claims for vehicles used to conduct your franchised business, and otherwise. You are required to purchase auto and business liability insurance, as described more fully in Item 8.

14/ This estimate reflects an estimated amount that you will need in working capital during your first three months of operations. Based upon our negotiated agreements, certain Premier Accounts are not required to pay for 70 to 90 days after being invoiced. As such, if you purchase a Premier Franchised Business and service any Premier Accounts, then you must have sufficient working capital to cover any delay in cash flows.

15/ This estimates your additional start-up expenses for the first 3 months. You may incur additional miscellaneous expenses such as printing of business cards and forms, use of a telephone (the line is not required to be dedicated to your business) and point of sales materials. You will also need a small cooler (six-pack size) and a larger cooler to carry samples to prospective accounts.

Small license fees may be required by state or local governments. As all of these types of payments are made to third parties, the Company has no way of precisely estimating their total amount or whether any of these payments is refundable. The figures stated represent the Company's best estimate; actual expenditures may be substantially different.

Item 8

Restrictions on Sources of Products and Services

Pursuant to the Franchise Agreement, you are required to purchase Fruitfull Products from the Company. Currently, Fruitfull Products include, but are not limited to, Fruitfull fruit bars, Be Happy & Healthy dessert bars, Be Happy & Healthy snacks and baked goods, and other snacks and items not identified by the Licensed Marks. You may also purchase certain non-Fruitfull Products from one or more authorized suppliers designated by the Company. You may also make emergency purchases of Fruitfull Products, to fill an unexpected shortage of certain products, from another Franchisee. If the Company selects additional Fruitfull Products, the Company may enter into agreements with the manufacturer. Your right to purchase these products from any person or entity other than the Company or an authorized supplier designated by the Company will be governed by the terms of any agreements with the manufacturer.

You are also required to display frozen Products in powered Freezers or insulated promotional coolers that meet our then-current standards and specifications and that are approved by us. Your initial purchase of Freezers must be from the Company. After your initial purchase, the purchase of Freezers may be made either from the Company or sources approved by the Company. The Company recommends that you use only N.S.F. (National Sanitation Foundation) approved freezers. However, the Company and its affiliates reserve the right to be the sole supplier of Freezers for additional purchases in the future.

The Company may prepare certain advertising and promotional marketing and point of sales materials that are only available from the Company. If you desire to purchase these items, you must do so from the Company.

Frozen Fruitfull Products are manufactured under a license from the Company under the Company's formulas and specifications.

There are no other approved suppliers in which any of our officers owns an interest.

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, the Company's total revenues from required product, equipment, and training purchases by franchisees were $954,860.95 or 93.13% of the Company's total revenue of $1,025,251.65.

You or a supplier may request that a new product be approved as an Fruitfull Product. To do so, you must submit to the Company a written request along with the samples the Company may request. The Company may require the proposed supplier to supply samples or to conduct a market test under the Company's control and/or supervision as a condition of the Company's approval. The Company does not issue standards and specifications to franchisees or approved suppliers. The Company does not make criteria for approved suppliers available to franchisees. The Company will evaluate the products and supplier's quality and reputation, as well as the supplier's willingness and ability to supply Franchisees before granting any approvals you request for approved suppliers. The Company is not restricted in the time in which it may or may not grant approval or disapproval but estimates that approval or disapproval will be given within 6 months. The Company does not charge a fee for seeking approval of new products or suppliers. If we revoke approval of any supplier, we will give you written notice.

You must purchase and maintain in force automobile and business liability insurance for the Franchise Business in amounts adequate to protect you and us against claims of up to $1,000,000 for a Classic Franchised Business, and up to $3,000,000 for a Premier Franchised Business. All insurance policies must: (1) be issued only by an insurance carrier(s) and through an agent meeting our then-current minimum standards; (2) name the Company and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors and employees as an additional insured following such format and using such endorsements as we periodically may direct; (3) contain a waiver of the insurance company's right of subrogation against us; (4) provide that we will receive thirty (30) days' prior written notice of a material change in or termination, expiration or cancellation of any policy (or such shorter period as required by the insurance carrier and approved by us); and (5) as applicable, include primary and non-contributory endorsement or language in form and content as we periodically require. To the extent you obtain a single policy for two (2) or more Happy & Healthy franchise businesses, or if your Premier Franchised Business services Premier Accounts, we periodically will determine the levels of insurance coverage that you must obtain and other requirements that you must satisfy, which may exceed the requirements described herein and/or exceed the insurance requirements that are required of other Fruitfull franchisees. We may, with prior written notice to you, increase the minimum liability protection requirements, modify policy, endorsement or other requirements, and require different or additional kinds of insurance to reflect inflation or changes in standards of liability. If you fail at any time to obtain or maintain in effect any insurance coverage we require, or fail to provide satisfactory evidence thereof, we may obtain insurance coverage for you and you will be required to reimburse us for our out of pocket costs and expenses in connection therewith, and we may also charge you an administrative fee of up to 10% of the cost of the premium to cover our associated administrative costs.

You must provide us with copies of the certificate of insurance, insurance policy endorsements and other evidence of compliance with these requirements as we periodically require, within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, and upon all renewals and extensions of the policy. You should consult with its your insurance agents, brokers, attorneys, and other insurance advisors to determine the level of insurance protection it needs and desires, in addition to the coverage and limits that we require.

The Company estimates that your required purchases described above will constitute 80% of your total purchases of inventory to establish the franchised business and 70% of operating expenses.

No designated or approved suppliers make payments to the Company because of transactions with franchisees, but the Company reserves the right to receive such payments in the future.

Except for agreements with manufacturers of Fruitfull Products, the Company does not negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers for the benefit of franchisees. The Company does not provide material benefits to franchisees based on a franchisee's use of designated or approved sources. There are no purchasing or distribution cooperatives.

Item 11
Franchisor's Assistance, Advertising, Computer Systems And Training

Except as listed below, the Company is not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Obligations.

The Company, in exchange for a Training Fee, will make available to franchisees the services of a marketing consultant for one week for a Classic Franchised Business, or two weeks for a Premier Franchised Business, who will provide the franchisees with training in the operation of an Fruitfull franchised business in your MSA and any surrounding areas agreed to by the Company. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5).

Since you are not required to operate from a specific site, the Company's pre-opening obligations do not include (a) conforming the premises to local ordinances and building codes or obtaining any required permits; (b) constructing, remodeling, or decorating the premises; (c) hiring and training employees; or (d) delivering/installing items.

The consultant will assist you in obtaining placements for up to 8 initial freezers in the Classic Franchised Business and up to 20 initial freezers for your Premier Franchised Business in your MSA and any surrounding areas that we agreed to. (Franchise Agreement, Section 5).

The Company will sell you 2 pallets (120 cases) of frozen Fruitfull Products for a Classic Franchised Business, or 4 pallets (240 cases) for a Premier Franchised Business, shipped to a frozen storage facility in or near your MSA or to any other area agreed to by the Company. See Item 5 for more details. The Company will pay freight charges for shipments of inventory made in the normal course of business to locations in the contiguous 48 United States.

Obligations of the Company During the Operation of the Franchised Business.

During the term of the Franchise Agreement, the Company is obligated by the Franchise Agreement to provide you with the following on the same basis as will be made available to similarly situated franchisees:

A non-exclusive right to use Licensed Marks in the operation of an H&H Franchised Business in your MSA (Franchise Agreement, Section 2); and

A limited supply of advertising and sales materials for use in promoting the Products (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.a).

Telephonic assistance concerning Fruitfull Products or the Freezers (Franchise Agreement, Section 7.c).

The Company will from time to time provide Freezer location agreement form(s) and you must use such form(s) when placing Freezers on the premises of third parties. You must submit all completed forms to the Company at the time and manner designated by the Company.

The Company's assistance may include, without limitation or obligation, pricing recommendations, suggestions of point of purchase promotional materials, signage for dedicated Freezers, suggestions for sales presentations to retailers and food service company managers, and the opportunity to exchange ideas and experiences with other Fruitfull franchisees. Your success as a businessperson will depend primarily on your ability to obtain and service profitable accounts. No two accounts are the same. You must agree that you alone are responsible for developing and implementing your own marketing and sales programs and products and services in your MSA, and that the Company has no obligation to you other than those expressly required by the Franchise Agreement (Franchise Agreement, Section 6).

The Company's obligations during the operation of the Franchised Business do not include hiring and training your employees. The Company provides a Quick Books template, along with instructions, for establishing and using administrative, bookkeeping, accounting, and inventory control procedures.

The Company may, but has no obligation to, provide discounts on prices of Products for qualifying Classic Franchised Businesses. Premier Franchised Businesses may not qualify for any such pricing discounts.

The Company's Advertising Fund for Your Product or Services.

H&H will institute, maintain, and administer an advertising fund (the "Advertising Fund") for the sole and exclusive purpose of supporting and paying for marketing programs H&H deems necessary, desirable or appropriate to promote the good will and public image of all H&H franchises (Franchise Agreement, Section 4.b).

Franchisees shall be required to contribute to the Advertising Fund an amount of 2% of all Purchases made by Franchisee during the prior calendar year, but the minimum contribution shall be $600 per year for Classic Franchised Businesses and $1,200 per year for Premier Franchised Businesses (collectively, the "Advertising Fund Contributions"); provided, however, Franchisee shall not be required to make any Advertising Fund Contributions for the first six (6) months that Franchisee operates its Franchise Business. Franchisee shall be required to make 1/3 of the Advertising Fund Contributions for a particular year on each of February 1, May 1, and August 1.

H&H will administer and direct all marketing programs financed by the Advertising Fund, and will have sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used and the geographic, market and media placement and allocation of the programs. The Advertising Fund may be used to pay the costs of preparing and producing video, audio and written advertising materials; administering local, regional, multi-regional and national advertising programs including purchasing direct mail and other media advertising; employing advertising, public relations and media buying agencies to assist in these activities; and supporting public relations, market research and other advertising and marketing activities. The Advertising Fund may elect to furnish you with marketing, advertising and promotional formats and sample materials without additional charge, or provide you with multiple copies of marketing, advertising and promotional materials at the direct cost of producing them.

The Advertising Fund will be administered by H&H and accounted for separately from H&H's other funds, and will not be used to defray any of H&H's general operating expenses, except for costs, salaries, travel expenses, administrative costs and overhead H&H may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration of the Advertising Fund and its marketing programs (including conducting market research, preparing advertising and marketing materials, general production costs and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Advertising Fund). H&H may spend in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the total contributions of all Franchised Locations to the Advertising Fund in that year and H&H may cause the Advertising Fund to invest any surplus for future use by the Advertising Fund. You authorize H&H to collect for remitting to the Advertising Fund any advertising or promotional monies or credits offered by any supplier because of your purchases. All interest earned on monies contributed to the Advertising Fund will be used to pay advertising costs of the Advertising Fund before other assets of the Advertising Fund are expended. H&H will prepare an unaudited statement of monies collected and costs incurred by the Advertising Fund and will be published frequently online. The Advertising Fund will not be audited.

The Advertising Fund will be intended to maximize recognition of the Licensed Marks and all Fruitfull franchisees. Although H&H will endeavor to utilize the Advertising Fund to develop advertising and marketing materials and programs, and to place advertising, that will benefit all Fruitfull franchisees, H&H undertakes no obligation to ensure that expenditures by the Advertising Fund in or affecting any geographic area will be proportionate or equivalent to the contributions to the Advertising Fund by franchisees operating in that geographic area or that any Franchised Location will benefit directly or in proportion to its contribution to the Advertising Fund from the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising. While H&H intends the Advertising Fund to be of unlimited duration, H&H will have the right to terminate and, if terminated, to reinstate, the Advertising Fund at any time after all amounts in the fund have been expended.

Except as described above, H&H assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to you regarding the maintenance, direction or administration of the Advertising Fund.

During the Company's last fiscal year (ending December 31, 2023), of the amounts that were collected, 42.33% was spent on packaging design, plate charges and vehicle graphics, 26.38% was spent on direct advertisement in social media, 9.21% was spent towards convention attendance, 6.03% was spent on website updates. Nothing was spent on administrative costs or bank charges. The remaining amount of the Advertising Fund was not spent. 0% of the Advertising Fund was used for advertising that is principally for the sale of franchises.

The Advertising Fund is not required to spend any amount on advertising in the area or territory where you are located. H&H has no franchisor/affiliate owned outlets which contribute to the Advertising Fund.

Excess Advertising Fund Contributions collected in any year will be used for Advertising Fund purposes in the next year. Additionally, Advertising Fund Contributions collected in any year may be used to repay deficits incurred in a prior year. H&H will not use Advertising Fund Contributions for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises.

You are not required to participate in any other advertising fund.

For additional information concerning advertising, see Items 6, 8 and 9.

Your Own Advertising Material / Business Digital Media.

In addition to your contribution to the Advertising Fund described above, Franchisees are required to spend at least 3% of their prior year Purchases on advertising and brand development in their Territory (the "Local Advertising Requirement"), but we encourage Franchisees to spend up to 5%. We will credit the amount you contribute to the Advertising Fund towards your Local Advertising Requirement. There will be no minimal Local Advertising Requirement in your first year of operations.

We will provide you with a limited supply of advertising and sales materials for use in promoting the Products. We may charge a fee for quantities which exceed its current standard allotment for franchisees.

The Company permits franchisees to use their own advertising material. If the advertising material uses the Licensed Marks, you must obtain the Company's written permission on a use-by-use basis. (Franchise Agreement, § 16.f)

Any website will be deemed "advertising" and must comply with our then-current policies and procedures. For purposes of this disclosure document, the term "digital media" means one or more related documents, designs, pages, or other communications that can be accessed through electronic means, including but not limited to the Internet, World Wide Web, social media and social networking sites (including but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram, TikTok, Pinterest, etc.), blogs, vlogs, and other applications, etc. that you operate or authorize others to operate and that refer to the Franchise Business, the Licensed Marks, H&H, and/or the business system.

In addition, we may from time to time establish specific policies regarding social media accounts or activity related to or connected with the Franchise Business and which use or refer to, directly or indirectly, H&H or the Licensed Marks, that H&H determines appropriate. The policies may include completion of training regarding social media.

In order to protect and control the H&H brand and the Licensed Marks, we shall, at our option, be granted administrator rights over all digital media accounts you establish and use in connection with the Franchise Business and which use or refer to, directly or indirectly, H&H or the Licensed Marks, and we may, at our option assume administration and control of such accounts.

Advertising Council/Advertising Cooperatives.

The Company does not maintain a franchisee advertising council to advise the Company on advertising policies. You are not required to participate in local or regional advertising cooperatives.

Required Systems or Cash Register

We require that, prior to you starting your business, and at all times thereafter during the term of the Franchise Agreement, you have a computer or other electronic device, along with internet access, which will enable you consistently communicate via e-mail with H&H and use an integrated franchise software system the company is considering. The cost of computers varies but a computer costing less than $1,000 should be sufficient. You may also wish to use a tablet computer, and a suitable tablet computer can cost up to $750. We reserve the right to require you to buy or use any type of electronic equipment or software that we designate. Neither we, nor our affiliates, provide any such electronic equipment or provide any support or maintenance for such equipment, but we anticipate implementing a new management system by 2024, at which time you would be required to implement the management system and we will start to collect a Technology Fee of $50 per month for a Classic Franchised Business and $100 per month for a Premier Franchised Business. We reserve the right to increase the Technology Fee upon notice to you, but we will not increase it by more than $250 in any year. We may require that you upgrade or update any electronic equipment or system. We may have independent access to information generated or stored on your computer systems. There are no contractual limitations on our right to access information.

You are not required to buy or use any cash registers.

Operations Manual.

The Company requires that you comply with the most up-to-date operations manual (the "Operations Manual"). A copy of the Operations Manual's Table of Contents is attached to this Disclosure Document as Exhibit G.

Selection of the Location for Your Business.

The Company expects you to initially operate your business out of your home and grants you the right to operate your business in an MSA which will be designated in the Franchise Agreement. If you do not work from home, you will not need the Company's approval for the site that you select. The Company will not select a site for your business. You may sell Fruitfull Products within your assigned MSA and within a reasonable distance from the assigned MSA, provided: (i) the Company only will ship to a single cold storage facility; and (ii) you may not sell Fruitfull Products in an MSA not assigned to you if the Company has granted the maximum allowable number of franchises for that MSA. The Company may, in its sole discretion, determine whether the location of your cold storage facility is unreasonably remote from your location or whether sales accounts outside your MSA are unreasonably remote from the MSA. If you and the Company cannot agree upon the location of your cold storage facility within 30 days after you sign the Franchise Agreement, the Company may terminate the Franchise Agreement.

Unless the Company agrees otherwise in writing, the Company will only ship to a single cold storage facility on your behalf, which must be located in your MSA or in surrounding areas. The Company may at its discretion arrange to drop ship products in quantities of full pallets or other amounts it determines to your wholesale customers, but it is under no obligation to do so.

The factors that the Company will consider in approving your MSA are (i) where you currently live, and (ii) whether the Company has granted the maximum allowable number of franchises for the MSA in question. Your MSA must be agreed upon prior to your signing the Franchise Agreement. If you and the Company are unable to agree upon an MSA within 30 days, the Company will not enter into a Franchise Agreement with you.

Time Period for Opening.

The typical length of time between (the later of either) signing the Franchise Agreement or the first payment in consideration for the franchise and the opening of your business is roughly 6 months. Factors which can affect this time period are scheduling assistance with marketing consultants and shipping schedules for Freezers and Fruitfull Products.

Training Program.

You are required to complete our Training Program, as well as our 2-day Jumpstart Training Program. For training, the Company will make available to you the services of a marketing consultant who will provide you with on-the-job assistance in the operation of your business in your MSA.

A Classic Franchised Business has a one-week Training Program, during which the consultant will assist you with locating and establishing placements for your first 8 Freezers for a cost of $10,000. A Premier Franchised Business has a two-week Training Program, during which the consultant will assist you with locating and establishing placements for your first 20 Freezers at a cost of $15,000. All accounts identified in this initial training belong to you as the franchisee and as such the selection of every account is ultimately entirely at your discretion. If you start as a Classic and wish to become a Premier, then we can require you to purchase and complete an additional week of training.

One other individual may attend the Training Program with you. You must also pay your expenses and the expenses of your personnel attending the Training Program, like travel, living expenses, compensation, etc.

The following is a representative sample of assistance provided by the marketing consultant as a part of the Training Program, updated as of the issuance date of this disclosure document. The topics and number of hours spent on each topic will vary with each individual franchisee, depending upon their previous sales and marketing experience and the emphasis they place on the various aspects of their Fruitfull Products business and their interests in retail or wholesale selling, Freezer accounts or conventional accounts, and whether they elect to have one or two weeks of training. This estimate does not include hours of telephone assistance prior to on-the-job assistance.

You are required to participate and complete the Basic Training Program to the Company’s satisfaction unless otherwise agreed to by the Company. You will be operating your Franchised Business at the start of the Basic Training Program.

Jumpstart Training Program

The Company provides a 2-day Jumpstart training program for both a Classic Franchised Business and a Premier Franchised Business.

The Company will attempt to schedule your initial Jumpstart training program between 6 to 9 months after you have completed the Training Program. The Company will attempt to make a marketing consultant available at a mutually convenient 2-day period during this time. You are required to attend and complete the Jumpstart training program to the Company’s satisfaction unless otherwise agreed to by the Company. If you do not participate in the Jumpstart program within 1 year after you have completed the Training Program, you will forfeit this training without any refund and will be in breach of your Franchise Agreement.

A Premier Franchised Business will be required to attend and complete the Jumpstart program each year, and they will be required to pay the then-current fees for attending the Jumpstart program after the first year. A Classic Franchised Business will have the option, but will not be required, to attend and complete the Jumpstart program in each subsequent year, and they will be required to pay the then-current fees for attending the Jumpstart program after the first year. The following is our lead trainer and her experience:

Stacey Gendal has over 20 years of relevant marketing and training experience. Until her retirement from full time employment from H&H on July 1, 2022, Stacey was our National Sales Director since May 2018 and our Head Sales and Marketing Consultant since March 2018. She was employed by the Sun Sentinel from August 2007 to March 2018, where she worked in sales advertising & digital marketing. She worked for Ring Power Lift Trucks from 2002 to 2006 in sales and training, and was employed as a Sales and Operations Manager at Cynthia's Wallpaper stores from 1989 to 1999.

The Company may, from time to time, utilize other marketing consultants who will be supervised by Ms. Gendal. The Company requires that these marketing consultants have a minimum of 2 years' experience as a marketing consultant, or other relevant experience.

In addition to the training described above, the Company sponsors a periodic "Convention" (which may be our convention or another conference or meeting we designate). The main purpose of the Company's Convention is to help you learn new and better ways to operate your Franchised Business. During the term of your Franchise Agreement, you will be required to attend the Convention within 2 years after commencing operation of your Franchised Business and (ii) attend at least 1 Convention every 3 years thereafter. Failure to comply with this requirement will result in either termination or an administrative charge of $2,000 at the discretion of H&H. All shipments will be withheld until such fine has been paid. There is no Convention fee, but you will be required to pay your expenses and the expenses of your personnel attending, like travel, living expenses, compensation, etc.

Other than the Conventions and Quarterly online meetings, and the Premier Franchise Business required annual Jumpstart program, the Company does not require additional training programs and/or refresher training programs.

Item 12 Territory

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

You are granted the right to operate a franchise within an MSA designated by Company. Your MSA will be described in Schedule 1 of the Franchise Agreement. The Company has the right to require that your franchise be relocated from the cold storage facility in your metropolitan statistical area ("MSA") from which it is then currently operated if in the Company's sole opinion such location in your MSA is unreasonable, such as when the location does not permit timely service to important accounts in your MSA. Other than that right, the Company does not approve the operation of your franchise from any particular cold storage facility.

The Company will not grant more than 1 Classic Franchised Business for every one hundred thousand (100,000) residents or increment of that amount in your MSA. The Company will not grant more than 1 Premier Franchised Business that is permitted to sell to Premier Accounts for every one million (1,000,000) residents or increment of that amount in your MSA. For example, if a MSA had a population of 2 million, then the Company could place up to 20 Classic Franchised Businesses and 2 Premier Franchised Businesses in the same MSA.

If you live outside an MSA, the Company will treat you as a resident of the closest MSA or describe an area on Schedule 1 of your Franchise Agreement that will give you the same competitive benefits as an MSA.

The Company may establish a company-owned outlet or other channel of distribution using the Licensed Marks.

You may not sell Fruitfull Products to any other distributor of frozen desserts or snack products without our prior written approval, which may be withheld for any reason. You must sell Fruitfull Products within your assigned MSA. You may also sell Fruitfull Products in an adjoining MSA (one that physically touches your own) within a reasonable distance from the assigned MSA, provided: (i) the Company only will ship to a single cold storage facility; and (ii) you may not sell Fruitfull Products in an MSA not assigned to you if H&H has granted the maximum allowable number of franchises for that MSA. The Company may, in its sole discretion, determine whether the location of your cold storage facility is unreasonable or whether sales accounts outside your MSA are unreasonably remote from the MSA. The Company has the right to require that all Franchisees in an MSA utilize the same cold storage. For accounts outside your MSA, a reasonable distance is typically defined as a two hour radius (one hour in each direction) from your home but Company may, in its sole discretion, determine that a farther distance may be reasonable under the circumstances. In the event that the Company obtains a prospective franchisee in an area outside of your MSA that you were servicing, you will have the option to either relinquish your accounts to that franchisee or purchase an additional franchise under the Company's then-current terms and conditions. If you purchased the additional franchise you would be entitled to another cold storage delivery option if you so desired. You may sell Fruitfull Products using your freezers which can be moved from location to location to take advantage of sales opportunities at special events within your assigned MSA and within a reasonable distance from the assigned MSA, provided you may not sell Fruitfull Products in an MSA not assigned to you if H&H has granted the maximum allowable number of franchises for that MSA.

The Company may consider granting you the right to establish additional franchises under further Franchise Agreements (which will require additional franchise fees) if you are in compliance with the Franchise Agreement and you propose to establish a franchise in an additional MSA which the Company approves, but the Company has no obligation to do so. The Company may consider granting you the right to relocate your franchise to a different MSA if you are in compliance with the Franchise Agreement and you propose to establish a franchise in an additional MSA for which the Company has not granted the maximum allowable number of franchises, but the Company has no obligation to do so. The Franchise Agreement grants you no options, rights of first refusal or similar rights to acquire additional franchises within your MSA or contiguous territories.

The Company and its affiliates reserve the right to directly operate, or to grant other persons the right to operate, Franchised Businesses and other H&H businesses that sell Fruitfull Products within and outside of your MSA

The Company and its affiliates may establish other franchisees, company-owned outlets, or other channels of distribution (such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing sales) within your MSA selling or leasing the same or similar Products or services under different trademarks than the Licensed Marks. The Company and its affiliates may sell or lease the same or similar Products and services under the Licensed Marks within or outside of your MSA under the same or through any other channel of distribution (such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing sales). You may not use alternative channels of distribution (such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, vending machines, or other direct marketing sales) to make sales outside or inside your MSA and you will receive no compensation for the Company's or its affiliates' sales through alternative distribution channels.

The Company and its affiliates reserve the right to acquire businesses that are the same as or similar to the Franchise Business or other H&H businesses and operate, or grant others the right to operate, such businesses regardless of whether such businesses are located within or outside Franchisee's MSA; and to be acquired by any third party which operates, or grants others the right to operate, businesses that are the same as or similar to the Franchise Business or other H&H businesses regardless of whether such businesses are located within or outside Franchisee's MSA.

The Company prohibits its franchisees from soliciting sales from existing H&H accounts of another H&H franchisee. The Company also prohibits its franchisees from soliciting any actively pursued accounts of another H&H Franchisee provided that such Franchisee is following the guidelines for actively pursuing accounts as stipulated in the Company's Operation Manual. You also must not establish a separate "vendor number" with any company with whom H&H has previously established a "vendor number."

You must comply with the applicable "Minimum Annual Purchase Requirement." "Purchases" for purposes of calculating the Minimum Annual Purchase Requirement means the total dollar amount of all purchases of Products by Franchisee for resale.

Classic Franchised Business: A Classic Franchised Business must Purchase at least $25,000 of Fruitfull Products in the first full calendar year of business, and then each calendar year in the term thereafter your Purchases from H&H must be equal to or greater than the prior year's Purchases.

Premier Franchised Business: A Premier Franchised Business must Purchase the following minimum amounts during the term of their Franchise Agreement:

Calendar Year	Minimum Purchases
Year 1	$50,000
Year 2	$75,000
Year 3	$150,000
Year 4	$140,000
Year 5 and each subsequent year	$180,000

In the event of a renewal or transfer, your Minimum Purchase requirements will not reset to Year 1, and instead will be based upon the number of years in which the franchised business had been operating prior to transfer or renewal.

If you are in default of your Franchise Agreement and fail to cure such default within the prescribed cure period (if any), then we have the right to: (i) withhold from you benefits, plans, promotions or products that might be available to other Fruitfull franchisees (including any discounts that H&H may offer), and/or we may not authorize you to participate in certain meetings or events; (ii) require you to provide us with a detailed business plan in such form and containing such content as we may specify; and/or (iii) terminate your Franchise Agreement.

The Company may establish, administer, and require Premier Franchised Businesses to participate in programs for the sale of products and services to Premier Accounts. If you purchase a Premier Franchised Business, you, your affiliates, other Premier franchisees, and other parties the Company designates may sell products and services to such Premier Accounts at locations that are situated within your MSA. Franchisees under prior forms of franchise agreements may be permitted to service Premier Accounts in your MSA. The Company may charge you administrative fees in return for Premier Account transactions.

The Company may promulgate and enforce the terms and conditions under which you and any other franchisee must or may participate in any given Premier Account program, and may impose additional requirements in connection with your participation in the Premier Account program including, but not limited to, increased insurance requirements. You may be required to execute contracts governing such programs as a condition of your participation. Both the Company and the Premier Account customer will have the right to refuse your participation in the program. In the event your participation is refused or terminated for any reason, or in the event you choose not to participate in any given Premier Account program (if your refusal is permitted by the Company), the Company may grant others (including, but not limited to, the Company, the Company's affiliates, and other franchisees) the right to sell products and services with respect to that particular Premier Account in your MSA. If you are not in compliance with your Franchise Agreement, then in addition to all other rights we have, we may revoke your right to service Premier Accounts.

In certain circumstances, and if there are no Premier Franchised Businesses in good standing in the MSA, the Company may offer a Classic Franchised Business the right to offer and sell Fruitfull Products to a Premier Account in their MSA. A Classic Franchised Business is not authorized to sell Fruitfull Products to a Premier Account without the Company's prior written approval. If a Classic Franchised Business is permitted to offer and sell Fruitfull Products to a Premier Account, then the Classic Franchised Business must immediately cease offering and selling Fruitfull Products to Premier Accounts upon written notice from the Company or if a Premier Franchised Business in good standing is located within the same MSA, and the Classic Franchised Business must transfer such Premier Accounts to the Premier Franchised Business or anyone else the Company designates. The Company is under no obligation to offer or permit Franchisee's Classic Franchise Business to sell Fruitfull Products to Premier Accounts, and the Company may permit other parties to offer and sell Fruitfull Products to Premier Accounts within Franchisee's MSA. The Classic Franchised Business will not be entitled to any compensation for the Company's or any other franchisees sales made to that Premier Account.

Item 13 Trademarks

Under the Franchise Agreement, the Company grants you the right to operate a business under the Licensed Marks which may be identified as an authorized Franchisee or distributor of FRUITFULL® brand products. FRUITFULL® and BE HAPPY AND HEALTHY® are the Company's "Principal Marks."

The FRUITFULL® design logo is a registered trademark (Registration No. 1,859,221, Registration Date October 18, 1994) on the principal register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO") with the Company as registrant.

We do not have a federal registration for HAPPY AND HEALTHY™. Therefore, our trademark does not have many legal benefits and rights as a federally registered trademark. If our trademark is challenged, you may have to change to an alternative trademark, which may increase your expenses.

HAPPY AND HEALTHY™ is a trademark of the Company and has been in continuous and consistent use for over 30 years on frozen novelties such as frozen fruit bars, frozen yogurt, and ice cream. This is a trademark that the Company has common law and federal trademark rights to pursuant to the United States trademark laws.

There are no agreements currently in effect which significantly limit the Company's rights to use or license the use of the Licensed Marks in a manner material to the franchise.

The Company need not protect your right to use the Licensed Marks and need not protect you against claims of infringement or unfair competition arising out of your use of the Principal Marks.

The Franchise Agreement does not require the Company to take any action against infringements or users. As owner of the Licensed Marks, the Company has the exclusive right to control administrative proceedings or litigation concerning the Licensed Marks.

The Franchise Agreement does not require the Company to participate in your defense or indemnify you for expenses or damages if you are a party to an administrative or judicial proceeding involving a trademark licensed by the Company to you, and the proceeding is resolved unfavorably to you.

You may not, without the Company's prior written approval, transfer any Freezer to anyone that is not an H&H franchisee until you have removed all Licensed Marks, decals and other marks associated with the Company from the Freezer. If you fail to do so, you will need to pay the Company $3,000 for each violation, plus attorneys' fees.

The Company does not actually know of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Principal Marks in the state in which the franchised business is to be located.

Item 14 Patents, Copyrights and Proprietary Information

The Company does not own any patents or pending patents that are material to the franchise.

Copyrights.

The Company has no obligations to you to protect the Copyrights.

The Company is not obligated to take action when notified of an infringement of the Copyrights. The Company is not required to participate in defending you or indemnifying you for expenses or damages in a proceeding involving the Copyrights. The Company has the right to control litigation involving the Copyrights. Your obligation to notify H&H of any infringement claims is discretionary.

The Franchise Agreement imposes no requirements upon you to modify or discontinue use of the subject matter covered by the Copyright.

The Company does not know of any infringement that could materially affect you regarding the Copyrights.

Confidential Information.

The Company claims that certain of its methods, procedures and techniques are trade secrets and confidential information including the formulations of all Fruitfull Products. Upon termination of the Franchise Agreement, you must cease to use in advertising or in any other manner any methods, procedures or techniques in which the Company has proprietary rights.

Item 15 Obligation to Participate in the Actual Operation of the Franchised Business and entities that are owners of the Franchised Business, and their respective spouses, must sign a personal guaranty attached to the Franchise Agreement as Schedule 4.

Each Manager/Employee employed by you will be required to sign a confidentiality and non-compete agreement. The confidentiality and non-compete agreement is binding upon each person that signs it and their spouses, adult children, heirs, executors, successors and assigns. However, we will not approve your Manager/Employee unless he or she executes a confidentiality agreement in a form we approve. A copy of the Confidentiality Agreement is attached to the Disclosure Document as Exhibit I. Other than signing the confidentiality agreement, we place no limitation on whom you can hire as a Manager/Employee. Your Manager/Employee does not need to have an equity interest in your franchise. The Company will require you to sign a Security Agreement at the time you sign the Franchise Agreement to secure open account financing. The Security Agreement grants to us a security interest in any Freezers that you have purchased from us. A copy of the Security Agreement is attached to the Disclosure Document as Exhibit H.

Item 16 Restrictions on What the Franchisee May Sell

The Franchisee may only offer and sell Fruitfull Products and those products and services that we have approved. As described in Item 1, an H&H Product is any product that is designated as such by H&H and which H&H makes available for purchase by the franchised business, either through H&H or a supplier designated by H&H. At this time, Franchisees may pick and choose from this approved product line according to the preferences in their geographic market and are not required to carry all products, but Franchisor may elect to mandate a particular product or all products to facilitate brand uniformity.

We may add new products or services that you must offer at your business. Our right to modify the approved list of goods and services to be offered at H&H businesses is not limited. You will immediately cease selling products, and offering or performing services, we no longer approve, and you agree to begin offering any required new or modified products and services within the time period(s) we describe in the Operations Manual.

You may not solicit sales from any account which is an existing account of another authorized seller of Fruitfull Products or an account that another authorized seller of Fruitfull Products is actively pursuing, provided that authorized seller is following the guidelines for actively pursuing accounts as stipulated in the Company's Operations Manual. You also may not sell Products to any other distributor of frozen desserts, ice cream or snack products without the Company's prior written approval, which may be withheld for any reason. Finally, a Classic Franchised Business may only offer and sell Fruitfull Products to a Premier Accounts if granted the opportunity to do so by the Company. If a Classic Franchised Business is permitted to offer and sell Products to a Premier Account, then the Classic Franchised Business must immediately cease doing so upon notice from the Company.

HAPPY & HEALTHY PRODUCTS, INC.
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of _____, 20____, by and between Happy & Healthy Products, Inc., a Florida corporation ("H&H") and _____ (the "Franchisee").

1. RECITALS

a. Franchisee has investigated several business opportunities and has decided to acquire a franchise from H&H for the purpose of engaging in the business of distributing frozen fruit bars, confection bars, snacks, baked goods and other products, through approved services using designated equipment. As used in this Agreement, a "Fruitfull Product" or "Product" is any product that is designated as such by H&H and which H&H makes available for purchase by Franchisee, either directly through H&H or indirectly through a supplier designated by H&H. Fruitfull Products may include, but are not limited to, non-private labeled snack items, such as popcorn, protein bars, and other items. You are also required to display certain Products in powered freezers or insulated promotional coolers that meet our then-current standards and specifications and that are approved by us (each, a "Fruitfull Freezer" or "Freezer"). H&H reserves the right to periodically update and modify the approved methods and equipment in which Franchisee may or shall offer and sell Products, including vending machines.

b. H&H is willing, on the terms described below, to provide Franchisees with the opportunity to participate in its marketing programs and its distribution network.

c. H&H has two different types of models, a classic model (the "Classic Franchise Business" and a premier model (the "Premier Franchise Business"). Franchisee has elected to purchase the type of model selected on the Summary Pages of this Agreement. All references to "Franchise Business" pertain to both Classic Franchise Businesses and Premier Franchise Businesses, except as otherwise noted.

2. GRANT OF FRANCHISE

a. Subject to all the terms and conditions herein, H&H grants to Franchisee the non-exclusive right to use (i) the trademark Happy & Healthy™, (ii) the registered trademark Fruitfull® ("Fruitfull"), (iii) the registered trademark Be Happy & Healthy®, (iv) the registered trademark Happy Indulgence®, and (v) such other marks as H&H may hereafter make available for Franchisee's use (collectively "Licensed Marks"), and all the other benefits of this Agreement as set forth herein, in the operation of a Fruitfull® Franchise Business in the Metropolitan Statistical Area ("MSA") designated on Schedule 1 (hereafter "Franchisee's MSA"), together the "Franchise Business." For so long as Franchisee is in full compliance with this Agreement, H&H agrees to grant no more than the maximum number of Fruitfull franchisees in your MSA as set forth in the Summary Pages. Franchisee's rights to the MSA are contingent upon Franchisee's compliance with this Agreement including, but not limited to, the following terms and conditions:

b. Franchisee must comply with the applicable "Minimum Annual Purchase Requirement" set forth on the Summary Pages. "Purchases" as used in this Agreement shall mean the total dollar amount of all purchases of Products by Franchisee for resale.

c. H&H only will ship to a single cold storage facility for the Franchisee and may determine whether the location of Franchisee's cold storage facility is unreasonable.

d. H&H may at any time and in its sole discretion, require that all Franchisees in an MSA utilize the same cold storage.

e. H&H may in its discretion, and without an obligation to do so, arrange to drop ship Products in quantities of at least one full pallet, or in such other quantities as H&H determines in its discretion, to Franchisee's Wholesale customers.

f. Franchisee must not establish a separate "vendor number" with any company with whom H&H has previously established a "vendor number."

g. H&H may offer or require Franchisee to participate in programs for the sale of products and services to retailers, distributors, or other third parties, having two or more locations on a national or regional basis, hospitals, universities, and such other accounts that H&H may designate in its sole discretion ("Premier Accounts"). H&H may charge Franchisee administrative fees in return for Premier Account transactions.

i. If Franchisee purchased a Premier Franchise Business, then Franchisee, Franchisee's affiliates, other Premier Franchise Businesses, H&H, and other parties H&H designates may sell products and services to such Premier Accounts at locations that are situated within your MSA. Franchisees under prior forms of franchise agreements may be permitted to service Premier Accounts in your MSA. H&H may promulgate and enforce the terms and conditions under which Franchisee must or may participate in any given Premier Account program, and may impose additional requirements in connection with Franchisee's participation in the Premier Account program including, but not limited to, increased insurance requirements. Franchisee may be required to execute contracts governing such programs as a condition of its participation. Both H&H and the Premier Account customer will have the right to refuse Franchisee's participation in the program. In the event Franchisee's participation is refused or terminated for any reason, or in the event you choose not to participate in any given Premier Account program (if Franchisee's refusal is permitted by H&H), H&H may grant others (including, but not limited to, H&H, H&H's affiliates, and other franchisees) the right to sell products and services with respect to that particular Premier Account in your MSA. If Franchisee is not in compliance with this Agreement, then in addition to all other rights H&H has, H&H may revoke your right to service Premier Accounts, and permit another franchisee to offer and sell Fruitfull Products to Premier Accounts in the Franchisee's MSA.

ii. If Franchisee purchased a Classic Franchise Business, then in certain circumstances, and if there are no Premier Franchised Businesses in good standing in the Franchisee's MSA, H&H may offer Franchisee the right to offer and sell Fruitfull Products to a Premier Account in the Franchisee's MSA. A Classic Franchised Business is not authorized to sell Fruitfull Products to a Premier Account without H&H's prior written approval. If Franchisee's Classic Franchise Business is permitted to offer and sell Fruitfull Products to a Premier Account, then Franchisee's Classic Franchised Business must immediately cease offering and selling Fruitfull Products to Premier Accounts upon written notice from H&H or if a Premier Franchised Business in good standing is located within the Franchisee's MSA, and the Franchisee's Classic Franchised Business must transfer such Premier Accounts to the Premier Franchised Business or anyone else H&H designates. H&H is under no obligation to offer or permit Franchisee's Classic Franchise Business to sell Fruitfull Products to Premier Accounts, and H&H may permit other parties to offer and sell Fruitfull Products to Premier Accounts within Franchisee's MSA.

h. Franchisee must sell Fruitfull Products within Franchisee's assigned MSA. Franchisee may also sell Fruitfull Products outside from its assigned MSA, provided that:

1. Franchisee must not sell Fruitfull Products in an MSA not assigned to Franchisee if H&H has granted the maximum allowable number of franchises for that MSA.

2. Franchisee must not sell Fruitfull Products in an MSA other than its own or other than an immediately physically adjoining MSA, or any other distance outside of the assigned MSA as determined by H&H, in its sole discretion.

3. H&H may, in its sole discretion, determine whether sales accounts outside Franchisee's MSA are unreasonably remote from the MSA; and

4. In the event that a prospective franchisee desires to obtain a franchise in an MSA that Franchisee is servicing (other than Franchisee's own or physically adjoining), Franchisee will have the option to either relinquish the accounts in that MSA or purchase a franchise for that MSA under H&H's then-current terms and conditions.

i. This Agreement does not include the right for Franchisee to sell any Fruitfull Products through any other channels of distribution, including the Internet.

j. In addition to all other rights granted to H&H and its affiliates under this Agreement, H&H for itself and its affiliates reserve the right to:

i. Establish other franchisees, company-owned outlets, or other channels of distribution (such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing sales), selling or leasing the same or similar Products or services under a different trademark than the Licensed Marks;.

ii. Sell or lease the same or similar Products or services under the Licensed Marks within or outside of Franchisee's MSA through the same or any other channel of distribution (such as the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, vending machines, or other direct marketing sales);

iii. To acquire businesses that are the same as or similar to the Franchise Business or other H&H businesses and operate, or grant others the right to operate, such businesses regardless of whether such businesses are located within or outside Franchisee's MSA, and to be acquired by any third party which operates, or grants others the right to operate, businesses that are the same as or similar to the Franchise Business or other H&H businesses regardless of whether such businesses are located within or outside Franchisee's MSA;

iv. All other rights not granted to you under this Agreement.

3. TERM OF FRANCHISE

a. The term of this Agreement shall expire on the fifth anniversary of its Effective Date (the "Expiration Date").

b. If Franchisee operates a Classic Franchise Business, then, in H&H's sole discretion, Franchisee may be granted the right to enter into a successor agreement for the Classic Franchise Business for one (1) additional renewal term of five (5) years, provided that Franchisee satisfies the conditions set forth in Section 3(c) below. If Franchisee operates a Premier Franchise Business, then, in H&H's sole discretion, Franchisee may be granted the right to enter into a successor agreement for the Premier Franchise Business for two (2) additional renewal terms of five (5) years each, provided that Franchisee satisfies the conditions set forth in Section 3(c) below.

c. Franchisee must satisfy and complete each of the following conditions in order to have the right to enter into a successor agreement:

1. Franchisee has given H&H written notice at least one hundred eighty (180) days but no more than two hundred ten (210) days before the end of the term of this Agreement of Franchisee's intention to enter into a successor franchise agreement;
2. Franchisee signs H&H's then-current standard form of Franchise Agreement which may differ materially from the provisions of this Agreement;
3. Franchisee has complied with this current Agreement throughout its term, and Franchisee has met its Minimum Annual Purchase Requirement during the two (2) years preceding the Expiration Date;
4. Upon signing the successor Franchise Agreement Franchisee pays the respective renewal fee set forth in the Summary Page;
5. Franchisee and each of its owners sign a general release, in form acceptable to H&H, of all claims against H&H and its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, and agents.

d. If Franchisee is subsequently granted the right to own and operate a second or subsequent Fruitfull Franchise Business, then in addition to signing H&H's then-current form of franchise agreement for that second or additional Franchise Business, H&H may require Franchisee to sign H&H's then-current form of franchise agreement for the remainder of the term that was granted to Franchisee under this Agreement.

e. If H&H intends not to offer Franchisee a successor Franchise Agreement, then H&H shall give Franchisee at least one hundred eighty (180) days' notice of non-renewal before the Expiration Date, subject to applicable law. The term of this Agreement will be automatically extended if necessary to give Franchisee a full one hundred eighty (180) days' notice of non-renewal.

4. FEES

a. As a condition of becoming a Franchisee, Franchisee has agreed to pay H&H the nonrefundable initial franchise fee specified on the Summary Pages. If the amount specified in Section 10 of the Summary Pages, as well as all fees due to H&H for Freezers and Products is not received by H&H within six (6) months of the Effective Date, H&H may, at its option, terminate this Agreement without waiving its right to the initial franchise fee and other amounts already paid. If Franchisee fails to begin the operation of its Franchise Business within six (6) months after the Effective Date, H&H may terminate the Franchise Agreement and Franchisee will forfeit all amounts paid to H&H. Franchisee will be deemed to have "begun" operation of the Franchise Business on the date that Franchisee enters into its first Freezer location agreement with an account.

b. H&H shall institute, maintain and administer an Advertising Fund (the "Advertising Fund") for the sole and exclusive purpose of supporting and paying for marketing programs H&H deems necessary, desirable or appropriate to promote the good will and public image of the Licensed Marks and all Fruitfull franchises. Franchisee shall be required to contribute to the Advertising Fund the respective amount set forth on the Summary Page (the "Advertising Fund Contributions"); provided, however, Franchisee shall not be required to make any Advertising Fund Contributions for the first six (6) months that Franchisee operates its Franchise Business. Franchisee shall be required to make 1/3 of the Advertising Fund Contributions for a particular year on each of February 1, May 1, and August 1.

c. Franchisee shall pay H&H its then-current technology fee in connection with H&H's then-current management system and for H&H researching, developing, implementing, maintaining, upgrading, or updating, any component of the technology system, in H&H's sole discretion (the "Technology Fee"). H&H reserves the right to increase the Technology Fee upon notice to Franchisee, but H&H will not increase it by more than $250 in any year. H&H may also require that Franchisee upgrades or updates any electronic equipment or system at Franchisee's sole cost and expense.

d. If Franchisee operates a Classic Franchised Business and is granted the right to convert to a Premier Franchise Business, then Franchisee must pay H&H a fee equal to $35,000 to convert to a Premier Franchise Business. H&H may also require Franchisee to attend and complete, to H&H's satisfaction, additional training and pay H&H's then-current training fee, and Franchisee must satisfy all other conditions required by H&H. Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that H&H is not obligated to grant Franchisee's request to convert to a Premier Franchise Business.

5. LOCATION ASSISTANCE

a. Franchisee must attend and successfully complete H&H's initial training program (the "Training Program"). For the Training Program, H&H will make available to Franchisee the services of a marketing consultant, in consideration of the Training Fee specified on the Summary Pages. The marketing consultant shall provide Franchisee with on-the-job training in the operation of an Fruitfull Franchise Business in Franchisee's MSA, and any surrounding areas agreed to by H&H. The consultant will assist Franchisee in contracting placements for Franchisee's initial order of Freezers in Franchisee's MSA and any surrounding areas agreed to by H&H. H&H guarantees that it or the consultant will assist Franchisee with locating and establishing contracts for the first 8 Freezers for a Classic Franchise Business, or first 20 Freezers for a Premier Franchise Business, as a part of the Training Program.

b. Franchisee must also attend H&H's Jumpstart program within 1 year after Franchisee has completed the initial training program, otherwise Franchisee will forfeit such training without any refund. If Franchisee operates a Premier Franchise Business, then Franchisee must attend H&H's Jumpstart program each year of the term of this Agreement, and pay H&H's then-current fees for the Jumpstart program after its first year.

c. Once the initial accounts have been established, Franchisee alone shall be responsible for servicing the accounts, relocating Freezers whenever business so warrants, and establishing new accounts. In addition, Franchisee shall take such action as may be required by H&H, or by Franchisee's freezer location agreement(s) with the account(s) serviced by Franchisee, to remove or relocate Freezers or other assets of the Franchise Business from such account's retail establishment upon notice by H&H or such account, at Franchisee's sole cost and expense. In the event H&H incurs any costs or expenses removing or relocating any Freezers due to Franchisee's failure to comply with this Section 5.c, then, in addition to all other rights granted to H&H, H&H may offset the costs and expenses it incurs against any amounts that it may owe to Franchisee.

d. Upon Franchisee's request, and subject to H&H's availability, H&H may provide additional sales assistance to Franchisee for H&H's then-current fee. Franchisee must pay H&H the then-current fee at least 30 days prior to H&H providing such additional assistance to Franchisee.

e. This Agreement in no way precludes Franchisee from hiring or retaining sales personnel or independent contractors, so long as such relationships are undertaken at no expense to H&H.

6. SALES AND MARKETING

a. Franchisee understands that H&H will provide Franchisee with an explanation of its Fruitfull Freezer marketing program and ideas for promoting Fruitfull Products at retail events. Moreover, H&H will provide Franchisee with the location and marketing assistance prescribed in Section 5, above. H&H's assistance may include, without limitation or obligation, pricing recommendations, suggestions for point-of-sale promotional materials, signage for Fruitfull Freezers, suggestions for sales presentations to retailers and food service company managers, and the opportunity to exchange ideas and experiences with other Fruitfull franchisees. As an independent business owner, Franchisee's success as a businessperson will depend primarily on Franchisee's ability to obtain and service profitable accounts. No two accounts are the same. Franchisee agrees that the Franchisee alone is responsible for developing and implementing his or her own marketing and sales programs in the Franchisee's MSA, and that H&H has no obligation to Franchisee other than those expressly prescribed by this Agreement.

b. Franchisee may not solicit sales from any account which is an existing account of another authorized seller of Fruitfull Products or an account that another authorized seller of Fruitfull Products is actively pursuing, provided that authorized seller is following the guidelines for actively pursuing accounts as stipulated in H&H's Manual. Finally, Franchisee may not sell Fruitfull Products to any other distributor of frozen desserts or snack products without H&H's prior written approval, which may be withheld for any reason.

c. Except as is otherwise expressly set forth in this Agreement, H&H does not restrict Franchisee or any other Fruitfull franchisee in the accounts upon which they may call. Franchisee is an independent business owner and subject to the terms of this Agreement shall have complete control over the operations of Franchisee's business.

d. H&H will direct all marketing programs financed by the Advertising Fund, and will have sole discretion over the creative concepts, materials and endorsements used and the geographic, market and media placement and allocation of the programs. The Advertising Fund may be used to pay the costs of preparing and producing video, audio and written advertising materials; administering local, regional, multi-regional and national advertising programs including, without limitation, purchasing direct mail and other media advertising; employing advertising, public relations and media buying agencies to assist in these activities; and supporting public relations, market research and other advertising and marketing activities. The Advertising Fund may elect to furnish Franchisee with marketing, advertising and promotional formats and sample materials without additional charge, or provide Franchisee with multiple copies of marketing, advertising and promotional materials at the direct cost of producing them.

i. The Advertising Fund will be accounted for separately from H&H's other funds, and will not be used to defray any of H&H's general operating expenses, except for costs, salaries, travel expenses, administrative costs and overhead H&H may incur in activities reasonably related to the administration of the Advertising Fund and its marketing programs (including, without limitation, conducting market research, preparing advertising and marketing materials, general production costs and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Advertising Fund). H&H may spend in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the total contributions of all Franchised Locations to the Advertising Fund in that year and H&H may cause the Advertising Fund to invest any surplus for future use by the Advertising Fund. Franchisee authorizes H&H to collect for remission to the Advertising Fund any advertising or promotional monies or credits offered by any supplier based upon Franchisee's purchases. All interest earned on monies contributed to the Advertising Fund will be used to pay advertising costs of the Advertising Fund before other assets of the Advertising Fund are expended. H&H will prepare an annual statement of monies collected and costs incurred by the Advertising Fund and will furnish it to Franchisee upon written request.

ii. Franchisee agrees that the Advertising Fund will be intended to maximize recognition of the Licensed Marks and all Fruitfull franchisees. Although H&H will endeavor to utilize the Advertising Fund to develop advertising and marketing materials and programs, and to place advertising that will benefit all Fruitfull franchisees, H&H undertakes no obligation to ensure that expenditures by the Advertising Fund in or affecting any geographic area will be proportionate or equivalent to the contributions to the Advertising Fund by Franchisees operating in that geographic area or that any Franchised Location will benefit directly or in proportion to its contribution to the Advertising Fund from the development of advertising and marketing materials or the placement of advertising. Although H&H intends the Advertising Fund to be of unlimited duration, H&H will have the right to terminate and, if terminated, to reinstate, the Advertising Fund at any time after all amounts in the fund have been expended.

e. Except as expressly provided in this Section 6, H&H assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to Franchisee with respect to the maintenance, direction or administration of the Advertising Fund.

7. SUPPLIES AND INFORMATION

a. H&H will provide Franchisee a limited supply of advertising and sales materials for use in promoting the Products. H&H may charge a fee for quantities which exceed its current standard allotment for Franchisees.

b. H&H will from time to time provide Freezer location agreement form(s) and Franchisee must use such form(s) when placing Freezers on the premises of third parties. Franchisee must submit all completed forms to H&H at the time and manner designated by H&H.

c. H&H may provide telephonic or digital assistance to the Franchisee on matters relating to Fruitfull Products or Fruitfull Freezers.

d. H&H shall permit Franchisee access to its confidential Operations Manual (the "Manual"), which is online, and Franchisee shall comply with all provisions of such Manual. From time to time during the term of this Agreement, H&H may communicate to the Franchisee mandatory and suggested standards, methods, procedures and specifications applicable to the System and information relative to other obligations of Franchisee hereunder and to the operation of the Franchise Business. Such communications may be made through such Confidential Manual, as and when available, or through H&H Communications. All intellectual-property rights to the Manual shall at all times remain the exclusive property of H&H and Franchisee shall have no rights to it (including access rights), in any event, upon termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever. Franchisee shall not at any time download, copy, duplicate, record or otherwise reproduce or transcribe the Manual or any part of this Agreement or any of the forms supplied by H&H hereunder without H&H's prior written consent. H&H shall have the right to add to, modify, withdraw from or otherwise revise the provisions of the Manual from time to time. The provisions of the Manual (as revised from time to time) and the mandatory standards, methods, procedures and specifications applicable to the System and such revisions made from time to time by H&H shall constitute provisions of this Agreement and Franchisee shall comply with same as if fully set forth herein.

e. Franchisee acknowledges that certain information relating to the operation of the Franchise Business including, without limitation, the standards, methods, procedures and specifications of the System, and the contents of the Manual, is derived from information disclosed to Franchisee by H&H and that all such information is of a proprietary and confidential nature and is a trade secret of H&H. Franchisee shall maintain the absolute confidentiality of all such information during the term of this Agreement and after the termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever and shall not disclose any such information for any reason whatsoever, disclosing the same to Franchisee's employees only to the extent necessary for the operation of the Franchise Business in accordance with this Agreement. Franchisee further agrees not to use any such information, directly or indirectly, in any other business or in any other manner or obtain any benefit therefrom not specifically approved in writing by H&H during the term of this Agreement or afterwards. Franchisee may not at any time copy, duplicate, record or otherwise reproduce any part of the Manual. Employees or other helpers of the Franchisee who have access to information or materials that H&H deems confidential shall sign a confidentiality and non-compete agreement in the form that H&H designates from time to time.

f. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Franchisee and Franchisee's owners, may, in accordance with any applicable law including the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act, disclose confidential information, including H&H's trade secrets, (a) in confidence, to federal, state, or local government officials, or to an attorney of Franchisee, for the sole purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (b) in a document filed in a lawsuit or other legal proceeding, but only if the filing is made under seal and protected from public disclosure. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to conflict with any applicable law or create liability for disclosures expressly allowed by law.

8. WARRANTIES

H&H is an authorized wholesaler of Freezers and components for one or more suppliers. As a wholesale distributor, H&H neither manufactures the Freezers nor manufactures the Products sold by its Franchisees. All warranties on Freezers and Products shall be manufacturers' warranties. No warranty, either express or implied on the Freezers or Products is offered by H&H. However, H&H agrees to pass through to Franchisee all warranties of manufacturers with whom H&H and Franchisee deal.

9. FRANCHISEE'S OBLIGATIONS

a. Franchisee agrees to use his/her best efforts to sell Fruitfull Products.

b. All owners (and their respective spouses) of a Franchisee which is a corporation, partnership or other business entity, will sign the Guaranty and Assumption Agreement in the form attached to this Agreement as Schedule 4 (the "Guaranty Agreement"). Any person or entity that at any time after the Effective Date of this Agreement becomes an owner of Franchisee in accordance with this Agreement or otherwise will (along with their spouse), as a condition of becoming an owner, sign the Guaranty Agreement. Franchisee must furnish to H&H at any time upon reasonable request a certified copy of the Articles of Incorporation or Articles of Organization and a list, in a form H&H reasonably requires, of all shareholders or members of record and all persons having a beneficial interest in any corporation or other entity that is or becomes a Franchisee.

c. Franchisee (and each direct and indirect owner of Franchisee if Franchisee is an entity) will not, during the term of this Agreement, directly or as an employee, agent, consultant, partner, officer, director or shareholder of any other person, firm, entity, partnership or business: (i) divert or attempt to divert any business or customers of the Franchise Business to any Competing Business (as defined below in this paragraph) or perform any act that would damage the goodwill associated with the Marks or the System; or (ii) own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, have any interest in, or assist any person or entity engaged in any Competing Business (including any e-commerce or Internet-based business), except: (1) with our prior written consent; (2) the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent one percent (1%) or less of that class of securities; or (3) under a separate agreement between you and us. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Competing Business" means any business that offers or sells frozen fruit bars, confection bars, snacks, baked goods, or any other products that are the same as, or substantially similar to, any of the Products offered and sold by the Franchise Business, through the same or similar methods of distribution as the Franchise Business.

d. During the term of this Agreement, Franchisee agrees that he/she shall not purchase from any source other than H&H, or an authorized supplier designated by H&H, any of the Products unless H&H notifies Franchisee that he or she may purchase directly from such source.

e. Franchisee agrees to purchase all its display freezers (including additional Fruitfull Freezers purchased during the term), and any other equipment designated by H&H, from H&H or sources designated or approved by H&H.

f. Franchisee shall secure, at its sole expense, appropriate cold storage facilities necessary for the operation of its Franchise Business. Franchisee shall designate a single cold storage facility for receiving shipments from H&H. H&H will ship only to such a designated cold storage facility, approved by H&H in writing, which is located in Franchisee's MSA or in a surrounding area. H&H may withhold its approval of a cold storage facility at its option, including, without limitation, if H&H determines that transportation of Products to the facility is difficult or impractical, or if H&H at its option designates a single cold storage facility to be used by all franchisees in the Franchisee's MSA

g. Franchisee agrees not to engage in any activities which reflect unfavorably H&H, the Licensed Marks, or upon the manufacturers of the Products acquired pursuant to this Agreement including, but not limited, on the Internet.

h. Franchisee agrees to allow H&H to use Franchisee's likeness, company name or individual name in future H&H promotional materials, as well as to identify Franchisee as an Fruitfull franchisee.

i. Franchisee shall within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date of this Agreement provide H&H with a quality photograph of Franchisee. Franchisee and all individuals in the photograph shall execute a Personal Release, in the form set forth in Schedule 3, attached hereto, so that H&H may use such photograph.

j. Franchisee shall purchase and maintain in force automobile and business liability insurance for the Franchise Business in amounts adequate to protect Franchisee and H&H against claims of up to One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) for a Classic Franchise Business, and against claims of up to Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) for a Premier Franchise Business. All insurance policies must: (1) be issued only by an insurance carrier(s) and through an agent meeting H&H's then-current minimum standards; (2) name H&H and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors and employees as an additional insured following such format and using such endorsements as H&H periodically may direct; (3) contain a waiver of the insurance company's right of subrogation against H&H; (4) provide that H&H will receive thirty (30) days' prior written notice of a material change in or termination, expiration or cancellation of any policy (or such shorter period as required by the insurance carrier and approved by H&H); and (5) as applicable, include primary and non-contributory endorsement or language in form and content as H&H periodically requires. To the extent Franchisee obtains a single policy for two (2) or more Fruitfull franchise businesses, or if Franchisee participates in H&H's Premier Accounts Program, H&H periodically will determine the levels of insurance coverage that Franchisee must obtain and other requirements that Franchisee must satisfy, which may exceed the requirements described herein and/or exceed the insurance requirements that are required of other Fruitfull franchisees. H&H periodically may, with prior written notice to Franchisee, modify policy, endorsement or other requirements, increase the minimum liability protection requirements, and require different or additional kinds of insurance to reflect inflation or changes in standards of liability. If Franchisee at any time fails to obtain or maintain in effect any insurance coverage required by H&H, or to furnish satisfactory evidence thereof, H&H, at its option, may obtain insurance coverage for Franchisee, and Franchisee must reimburse H&H for its costs and expenses in connection therewith and may also require Franchisee to pay H&H an administrative surcharge of up to ten percent (10%) of the cost of the premium to cover H&H's associated administrative costs. Franchisee agrees to promptly sign any applications or other forms or instruments required to obtain any insurance and pay to H&H, on demand, any costs and premiums incurred by H&H. Franchisee will provide H&H with copies of the certificate of insurance, insurance policy endorsements and other evidence of compliance with these requirements as H&H periodically requires, within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, and upon all renewal dates of the policy. In addition, Franchisee will provide to H&H with a copy of the certificate of or other evidence of the renewal or extension of each insurance policy. Franchisee's obligation to obtain and maintain these insurance policies in the amounts specified shall not be limited in any way by reason of any insurance that H&H may maintain, nor does Franchisee's procurement of required insurance relieve Franchisee of liability under the indemnity obligations described hereunder. Franchisee's insurance procurement obligations under this Section are separate and independent of Franchisee's indemnity obligations. H&H does not represent or warrant that any insurance that Franchisee is required to purchase will provide adequate coverage for Franchisee. The requirements of insurance specified in this Agreement are for H&H's protection. Franchisee should consult with its own insurance agents, brokers, attorneys and other insurance advisors to determine the level of insurance protection it needs and desires, in addition to the coverage and limits required by H&H.

k. Franchisee shall maintain, and deliver or allow H&H access to, all accounting reports, lists of active accounts, lists of accounts which Franchisee is actively pursuing and other informational reports as H&H may require, including: (1) monthly profit and loss statements for the Business, or at such intervals as H&H periodically may require; (2) at H&H's request, an annual profit and loss statement and source and use of funds statement for the Franchise Business for the year and a balance sheet for the Franchise Business as of the end of the year; and (3) at H&H's request, all tax returns relating to the Franchise Business and each of its owners. Franchisee also will provide to H&H copies of all Records and other information and supporting documents as H&H designates. All financial statements, reports and information must be on forms H&H approves and that Franchisee has signed and verified. H&H may require Franchisee to pay a late reporting fee of $100 each month that Franchisee fails to submit all required reports or Records to H&H. If at any time Franchisee fails to fully comply with Franchisee's obligations under this section, H&H may require that Franchisee engages, at its expense, a third party accounting firm or other service provider that H&H designates to satisfy the requirements of this section. In the event that Franchisee has not responded to and fulfilled any requests for Reports from H&H within two (2) weeks after the requested due date, then in addition to all other rights that it may have, H&H may, in its sole discretion, refrain from shipping any additional Fruitfull Products or other items to Franchisee until such requested information is provided.

l. Franchisee shall only stock Freezers with Fruitfull Products.

m. Franchisee agrees to conduct its business at all times in a manner using sales, marketing, advertising, and operational policies and procedures which have been prescribed and/or approved by H&H in either its Manual (if any) or other communications to its franchisees.

n. Franchisee specifically acknowledges and agrees that any Website (as defined below) will be deemed "advertising" under this Agreement and must comply with the policies and procedures that H&H establishes from time to time. (As used in this Agreement, the term "Website" means one or more related documents, designs, pages, or other communications that can be accessed through electronic means, including but not limited to the Internet, World Wide Web, social media and social networking sites (including but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram etc.), blogs, vlogs, and other applications, etc. that Franchisee operates or authorizes others to operate and that refer to the Franchisee).

Business, the Licensed Marks, H&H, and/or the business system.) In addition, H&H may from time to time establish specific policies regarding social media accounts or activity related to or connected with the Franchise Business and which use or refer to, directly or indirectly, H&H or the Licensed Marks, that H&H determines appropriate. The policies may include completion of training regarding social media. H&H may modify these policies as H&H determines is appropriate, including as available technologies and advertising methods change. Without limiting the foregoing, in order to protect and control the H&H brand and the Licensed Marks, Franchisee hereby agrees that H&H shall, at its option, be granted administrator rights over all social media accounts used by Franchisee in connection with the Franchise Business and which use or refer to, directly or indirectly, H&H or the Licensed Marks, and H&H may, at its option without notice or limitation, assume administration and control of such accounts.

o. Franchisee agrees that it will not, without H&H's prior written approval, sell, assign or transfer any Freezer to a person or entity that is not an Fruitfull franchisee until Franchisee has removed all Fruitfull Products, the Licensed Marks, decals and other marks associated with the Franchise from the Freezer. Franchisee acknowledges that it would be difficult to determine the amount of damages suffered by H&H if Franchisee fails to comply with this subsection, so Franchisee agrees that Franchisee shall pay H&H Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) in addition to all attorneys' fees H&H incurs in enforcing this provision, as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, for each individual violation of this subsection. The requirements of this Section 9.o apply even when H&H and Franchisee are not renewing the Franchise Agreement.

p. Franchisee agrees that, during the term of this Agreement, he/she shall attend and participate in H&H's convention, or such other conference or meeting as may be designated by H&H (the "Convention"), within two (2) years after commencing operation of the Franchise Business and (ii) at least one (1) Convention every three (3)-year period thereafter. Failure to comply with this requirement will result in either termination or an administrative charge of $2,000 at the discretion of H&H. All shipments will be withheld until such amount has been paid. Franchisee shall solely be responsible for the costs associated with attending such Conventions, including airfare, lodging and meals.

q. Franchisee agrees that, prior to Franchisee commencing operation of the Franchise Business and at all times thereafter during the term of this Agreement, Franchisee shall have a computer and such other hardware, software, and other devices or components that meets H&H's standards and specifications, as set forth in the Manual or otherwise in writing. Franchisee must also have access to the internet through an Internet access provider, which will enable Franchisee to communicate via e-mail with H&H from Franchisee's place of business. Franchisee agrees that it will review its e-mail messages at least once every Business Day, unless otherwise agreed upon by H&H in advance. A "Business Day" as used in this Agreement is a day when banks are open for regular commercial business in the United States.

r. Franchisee agrees that Franchisee shall execute a Security Agreement (in a form satisfactory to H&H) in the event that H&H extends credit to Franchisee in connection with the purchase of Fruitfull Products.

s. To preserve and protect the brand and Marks, Franchisee must take such steps as are necessary to ensure that Franchisee's employees preserve good customer relations; render competent, prompt, courteous, and knowledgeable service; and meet any minimum operational standards that H&H may establish from time to time in the Manual. To the extent that H&H may provide suggested or mandatory standards, H&H will provide such guidance through the Manual or other written materials, telephone conversations and/or virtual or in-person meetings. Any such operating standards are designed solely to meet the anticipated volume of business, preserve excellent customer relations, and protect and promote brand and System. By offering such advice or assistance, it does not mean that H&H is Franchisee's employer, or the employer of Franchisee's employees, and it is the intention of the parties to this Agreement that H&H shall not be deemed a joint employer with Franchisee for any reason. Further, it is the intention of the parties to this Agreement that H&H shall not be deemed a joint employer with Franchisee for any reason. If H&H incurs any claims, damages, judgments, liabilities, or losses as a result of any actions or omissions of Franchisee or Franchisee's employees, including any that relate to any party making a finding of any joint employer status, Franchisee will fully indemnify H&H for such loss.

t. Franchisee will, at all times, maintain a sufficient amount of working capital to meet customer demands and to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. H&H reserves the right to set forth in its Manual a minimum required amount of working capital that Franchisee must maintain.

10. TRANSFER

a. H&H may sell or assign any or all of its rights or interests in this Agreement at any time.

b. Franchisee may not sell, assign or transfer any of his/her interest in this Agreement, in Franchisee, or in the Franchise Business, or all of or substantially all of the assets of the Franchise Business, without H&H's prior written approval, which may be withheld for good business reasons, which include, but are not limited to the failure of the Franchisee, transferee or terms of the transfer to satisfy the terms and standards H&H generally applies to transfers and transferees at the time Franchisee proposes to make a transfer. The standards need not be in writing.

c. Franchisee must notify H&H of any bona fide proposed transfer or sale of any rights or interests in Franchisee, the Franchise Agreement, or the Franchise Business, and set forth a complete description of all terms and fees of the proposed transfer or assignment, including the proposed transferee's name, address, financial qualifications and previous five (5) years business experience.

d. H&H or its assignee may, within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, purchase the interest offered on the same economic terms as those offered, less any brokerage fees or commissions.

e. If H&H fails to exercise its option to purchase the interest which is the subject of the transfer or assignment within thirty (30) days of H&H's receipt of the notice described above, H&H shall notify Franchisee of its approval or disapproval of the proposed transfer and its terms. If H&H approves the transfer, it only may be accomplished on terms which are no more favorable to the transferee than were the terms offered to H&H.

f. H&H may condition a transfer upon the transferee's paying H&H a transfer fee and H&H's then-current training fee (but no initial franchise fee) and upon the transferee's executing a general release for the benefit of H&H, its employees, agents and representatives, and upon the transferee's signing H&H's then current form of Franchise Agreement. The transfer fee will be the amounts set forth in H&H's then-current Manual, but may be at least $8,500 and up to $25,000 if H&H obtains the lead.

g. If transferee is a business entity, transferee's owners and their spouses must enter into a personal guaranty in the form attached hereto as Schedule 4.

h. Franchisee may transfer to another MSA, only with H&H's prior written approval, which may be withheld in H&H's sole discretion. Such transfer will be conditioned upon Franchisee's payment of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) and Franchisee's entering into H&H's then current Franchise Agreement.

i. Upon Franchisee's death or disability (or, if Franchisee is a corporation, partnership or other entity, the death or disability of a principal owner), Franchisee's (or such principal owner's) executor, administrator, conservator, guardian or other personal representative shall transfer Franchisee's interest in this Agreement (or the principal owner's interest) in Franchisee to a third party provided the transfer is made to the spouse, adult child, heirs or legal representative of the deceased or disabled person and such person has been approved by H&H in advance, which approval may be withheld for good business reasons. Such disposition of this Agreement or the interest in Franchisee (including, without limitation, transfer by bequest or inheritance) must be completed within a reasonable time, not to exceed six (6) months from the date of death or disability and will be subject to all of the terms and conditions applicable to transfers contained in this Section. A failure to transfer Franchisee's interest in this Agreement or a principal owner's interest in Franchisee to an approved party within this period constitutes a breach of this Agreement. For purposes hereof, the term "disability" means a mental or physical disability, impairment or condition that is reasonably expected to prevent or actually does prevent Franchisee or the principal owner from managing and operating the Franchise Business. Any transfer made pursuant to this Section 10.i shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 10.d, 10.e, or 10.f

11. TERMINATION

H&H may terminate the Franchise Agreement, without prejudice to the enforcement of any legal or equitable remedy, immediately upon giving Franchisee written notice of such termination and the reason or cause for the termination, without providing Franchisee with an opportunity to cure the default, except as otherwise provided herein. The following shall constitute sufficient basis for H&H to terminate the Franchise Agreement:

a. If the Franchisee fails to pay any financial obligation to H&H or to a supplier of products or equipment approved by H&H within five (5) days after H&H gives Franchisee a written notice of default;

b. If the Franchisee fails to perform or breaches any covenant or obligation owing under the Franchise Agreement (not otherwise described in this Section 11) and fails to cure such non-compliance within thirty (30) days after H&H gives Franchisee written notice of default;

c. If Franchisee uses the Licensed Marks in any way which has not been previously approved by H&H;

d. If Franchisee attempts to subfranchise or subdivide its Franchise rights without H&H's prior written approval;

e. If Franchisee sells or attempts to sell any Fruitfull Product to another wholesaler, distributor or former Fruitfull franchisee without H&H's prior written approval;

f. If Franchisee engages in any other activities which, in H&H's reasonable opinion, brings discredit upon the Licensed Marks or the reputation and goodwill of H&H or its Franchisees;

g. If Franchisee files, or if Franchisee has filed against it, a voluntary or involuntary petition in bankruptcy or is adjudicated as bankrupt or insolvent; if Franchisee files any petition or answer seeking or acquiescing in any reorganization, arrangement, liquidation, dissolution, receivership, appointment of trustee, liquidator or examiner; if a receiver, trustee or liquidator is appointed for all or any part of Franchisee's assets; or upon the dissolution or termination of existence of Franchisee;

h. If Franchisee sells or assigns any of its rights or interests in this Agreement, Franchisee, or in the Franchise Business, or sells or assigns all or substantially all of the assets of the Franchise Business, in violation of Section 10 of this Agreement;

i. If Franchisee has received from H&H, during any consecutive 24-month period, 3 or more notices of default (whether or not the notices relate to the same or to different defaults and whether or not the defaults were timely cured by Franchisee);

j. If Franchisee abandons or fails or refuses to actively operate the Franchise Business for any period such that H&H may reasonably conclude that Franchisee does not intend to continue operating the Franchise Business;

k. If Franchisee fails to meet its Minimum Annual Purchase Requirement;

l. If Franchisee attempts to directly contact any of H&H's freight companies, vendors or Premier Accounts;

m. If Franchisee sells or attempts to sell to another Franchisee's account;

n. If Franchisee fails to attend and participate in the Convention as required under Section 9.p. of this Agreement;

o. If Franchisee fails to begin the operation of its Franchise Business within six (6) months after the Effective Date; or

p. If, during the term of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee violates the restrictive covenants described in Section 9.c of this Agreement.

12. OBLIGATIONS FOLLOWING TERMINATION OR NONRENEWAL

Upon the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement, Franchisee shall immediately:

a. Cease to be a Franchisee of H&H and cease to operate the former Franchise Business. Franchisee shall not thereafter, directly or indirectly, represent to the public that the former Franchise Business is or was operated or in any way connected with Fruitfull Products, or hold itself out as a present or former Franchisee of H&H;

b. Pay all sums owing to H&H. Upon termination for any default by Franchisee, such sums shall include actual damages, costs and expenses incurred by H&H as a result of the default;

c. Return to H&H any and all trade secrets and confidential materials owned by H&H, and all copies thereof which may be in Franchisee's possession. Franchisee shall retain no copy or record of any of the foregoing other than its copy of the Franchise Agreement, any correspondence between the parties, and any other document which Franchisee reasonably needs for compliance with any applicable provision of law;

d. Provide H&H a complete list of Franchisee's employees, customers, their respective addresses, all mailing lists, and any outstanding obligations Franchisee may have to any third parties, including outstanding customer orders. H&H shall have the right, but not the obligation, to fill any such outstanding customer orders generated by Franchisee, and in such event, Franchisee shall immediately reimburse H&H for any costs or expenses incurred by H&H in doing so. In addition, H&H shall have the right to cancel any orders placed by Franchisee for which delivery has not been made;

e. Take such action as may be required by H&H to terminate, transfer or assign to H&H or its designee all telephone numbers, white and yellow page telephone and internet references and advertisements, and all trade and similar name registrations and business licenses, and to cancel any interest which Franchisee may have in the same;

f. Take such action as may be required by H&H, or by Franchisee's Freezer location agreement(s) with the account(s) serviced by Franchisee, to remove Freezers or other assets of the Franchise Business from such account's retail establishment, at Franchisee's sole cost and expense. Franchisee hereby agrees that, in addition to all other rights that H&H may have, H&H may take possession of any such Freezer or other asset that Franchisee fails to remove from a retail establishment within a reasonable amount of time after termination or expiration of this Agreement;

g. Cease to use in advertising or in any manner whatsoever, any methods, procedures, or techniques in which H&H has a proprietary right, title or interest, the Licensed Marks, and other marks and indicia of origin associated with the Franchise, and remove or change all trade dress, including photographs of Products, decals, posters and other indications of association with the Franchise from any vehicles, buildings, Freezers, uniforms, clothing and other effects at the Franchisee's expense and in a manner satisfactory to H&H. Unless otherwise approved in writing by H&H, Franchisee must return to H&H all copies of materials bearing the Licensed Marks as specified by H&H.

In addition:

h. Franchisee (and each direct and indirect owner of Franchisee if Franchisee is an entity) will not, for a period of two (2) years after this Agreement expires or is terminated or the date on which Franchisee ceases to operate the Franchise Business, whichever is later, directly or as an employee, agent, consultant, partner, officer, director or shareholder of any other person, firm, entity, partnership or corporation: (1) divert or attempt to divert any business or customers of the Franchise Business to any Competing Business or perform any act that would damage the goodwill associated with the Marks or the System; (2) own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, having any interest in, or assist any person or entity engaged in any Competing Business which is located within (i) Franchisee's MSA, (ii) within ten (10) miles of Franchisee's MSA, or (iii) within two (2) miles of any location where the Franchisee sold Products during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the date of termination or expiration; provided, however, that this Section 12(h) will not apply to: (i) other H&H businesses that Franchisee operates under separate franchise agreements with H&H; or (ii) the ownership of securities listed on a stock exchange or traded on the over-the-counter market that represent one percent (1%) or less of that class of securities Franchisee agrees that the length of time in this Section 12(h) will be tolled for any period during which Franchisee is in breach of the covenants set forth in this Section 12(h) or any other period during which H&H seeks to enforce this Agreement.

i. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that H&H shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in the Franchise Agreement or any portions thereof, without the Franchisee's consent, effective immediately upon receipt by Franchisee of written notice thereof; and Franchisee agrees that it shall comply immediately with any covenant as so modified.

j. If all or any portion of a covenant described above is held unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in an unappealed final decision to which H&H is a party, Franchisee expressly agrees to be bound by any lesser covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law that is subsumed within the terms of such covenant, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of the covenants described above. Franchisee further expressly agrees that the existence of any claim it may have against H&H, whether or not arising from the Franchise Agreement, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by H&H of the above covenants.

k. Franchisee acknowledges that Franchisee's violation of the terms of Section 12(h) would result in irreparable injury to H&H for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and Franchisee accordingly consents to the issuance of an injunction prohibiting any conduct by Franchisee in violation of the terms of Section 12(h).

13. ALTERNATIVES TO TERMINATION

H&H has the right to undertake any one or more of the following actions in addition to terminating this Agreement:

a. H&H may withhold from Franchisee benefits, plans, promotions or products that might be available to other Fruitfull franchisees (including any discounts that H&H may offer), and/or H&H may not authorize Franchisee to participate in certain meetings or events, unless and until Franchisee cure Franchisee's default(s) and operates in compliance with this Agreement and H&H's rules, policies, and standards;

b. H&H may require Franchisee to provide H&H with a detailed business plan in such form and containing such content as H&H may specify; and/or

c. If applicable, revoke Franchisee's right to service Premier Accounts.

If any of such rights, options, arrangements, or areas are terminated or modified in accordance with Section 13, such action shall be without prejudice to H&H's right to terminate this Agreement, and/or to terminate any other rights, options or arrangements under this Agreement at any time thereafter for the same default or as a result of any additional defaults of the terms of this Agreement.

14. DISCLAIMERS

a. Except as is expressly set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, H&H will not refund Franchisee's initial investment in whole or in part, unless the Fruitfull Freezers or Products sold to Franchisee by H&H are defective, and the manufacturer does not promptly replace the defective Freezers or Products.

b. H&H makes no representations whatsoever as to the actual or potential sales, income or profits a Franchisee may achieve as a result of this Agreement. Franchisee acknowledges that the success or failure of the Franchisee's Business depends substantially upon Franchisee himself or herself.

15. INDEMNIFICATION

Franchisee hereby agrees to indemnify and hold H&H and its subsidiaries, affiliates, stockholders, members, directors, officers, employees and agents harmless against, and to reimburse them for, any loss, liability or damages arising out of or relating to Franchisee's ownership or operation of the Franchise Business, the relationship between the parties, this Agreement, and all reasonable costs of defending any claim brought against any of them or any action in which any of them is named as a party (including reasonable attorneys' fees and interest) unless the loss, liability, damage or cost is solely due to H&H's breach of this Agreement, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

a. Franchisee may only bring any claims he or she may have against H&H in arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association in Palm Beach County, Florida.

b. H&H may bring any claim it may have against Franchisee in arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association in Palm Beach County, Florida. H&H also may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any violation of this Agreement or to obtain specific performance hereof. Franchisee shall be liable to H&H for H&H's costs and attorneys' fees arising from pursuing or defending against any claims against Franchisee in arbitration or in litigation, regardless of the forum. Additionally, Franchisee agrees to reimburse H&H for any fees or expenses H&H incurs in collecting any amounts due under this Agreement.

17. GOVERNING LAW

Subject to H&H's rights under federal trademark laws and the parties' rights under the Federal Arbitration Act respecting Section 17 above, this Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to any conflict of laws principles of such state. Franchisee waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights and protections that might be provided through any state franchise or business opportunity laws, other than those of the state in which the Franchise Business is located.

18. NOTICES

All written notices and reports permitted or required to be delivered by the provisions of this Agreement will be delivered by hand, sent by a recognized overnight delivery service or by registered U.S. Mail, or by other means which provides the sender with evidence of delivery, or of rejected delivery, and addressed to the party to be notified at the address stated herein or at such other address as may have been designated in writing to the other party. Any notice by a means which provides the sender with evidence of delivery, or rejected delivery, will be deemed to have been given at the date and time of receipt or rejected delivery.

19. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES

H&H and Franchisee are independent contractors. Neither party is the agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary, joint venture or employee of the other. Neither party will independently obligate the other to any third parties or represent any right to do so. This Agreement does not reflect or create a fiduciary relationship or a relationship of special trust or confidence. Franchisee must conspicuously identify itself at the premises of the Franchise Business and in all dealings with customers, lessors, contractors, suppliers, public officials and others as the owner of the Franchise Business under a franchise agreement from H&H, and must place other notices of independent ownership on signs, forms, stationery, advertising and other materials as H&H requires.

20. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

a. Franchisee understands and acknowledges that H&H is not the manufacturer of the Fruitfull Freezers which H&H sells to Franchisee and that H&H makes no representations or warranties about the Freezers. H&H may source multiple Freezers with similar utility value but minor differences in dimensions, features and colors. The Fruitfull Freezers do not include locks or baskets, although manufacturers and H&H may occasionally add those features at no charge. Franchisee's only contractual obligation is to H&H, and this Agreement creates no contractual obligation between Franchisee and any manufacturer or other suppliers of Products or equipment.

b. H&H agrees to arrange shipment of all Fruitfull Freezers purchased within approximately thirty (30) Business Days from the Effective Date, if so approved by Franchisee. In the event of strikes, riots, insurrections, circumstances beyond H&H's control or Acts of God, this period may be extended, but under no circumstances to exceed one hundred eighty (180) Business Days. If H&H fails to effect shipment within such time period, Franchisee, upon request, shall have payment for said order refunded immediately.

c. Franchisee shall be responsible for Franchisee's own federal, state and local taxes, and or compliance with all applicable laws, as well as any sales taxes due on equipment or Products purchased from H&H. Franchisee shall act as an independent contractor and shall be solely liable for determining the nature and applicability of all local laws which may apply to the operation of the Franchise Business in Franchisee's MSA, or where else the Franchisee conducts business.

d. All Franchisee's purchases of Fruitfull Products shall be made solely from H&H or an authorized supplier designated by H&H, other than emergency purchases to fill an unexpected shortage of certain products, which purchases may be made from another Franchisee. All purchases of Fruitfull Products, Fruitfull Freezers and other items from H&H must be made via ACH (Automated Clearing House), unless H&H agrees otherwise in writing in advance.

e. Franchisee and H&H agree that this Agreement contains their entire understanding relative to its subject matter, and there is no reliance upon any verbal or other written representation whatsoever. H&H has not guaranteed minimum or maximum earnings; any estimate thereof is only in the nature of possibilities; earnings are primarily dependent upon the type of service and promotion rendered by the Franchisee and sales volume, which factors are beyond the control of H&H. This Agreement may be amended only in writing and signed by all parties hereto. Franchisee acknowledges that nothing in this Agreement or in any related agreement is intended to disclaim the representations H&H made in the franchise disclosure document.

f. Franchisee agrees not to use the Licensed Marks or any trademarks, service marks, names or indicia which are or maybe confusingly similar to the Licensed Marks in Franchisee's name or identity. Franchisee must obtain written permission to use any of the Licensed Marks from H&H on a per use basis if such use has not previously been authorized in writing.

g. Franchisee acknowledges that H&H or its agent has provided Franchisee with a Franchise Disclosure Document not later sixteen (16) days before Franchisee's signed this Agreement, or sixteen (16) days before any payment of any consideration connected to the purchase of this Franchise. Franchisee further acknowledges that Franchisee has read such Franchise Disclosure Document and understands its contents.

h. Franchisee acknowledges that H&H has provided Franchisee with a copy of this Agreement and all related documents, fully completed, at least nine (9) days prior to Franchisee signing this Agreement or making any payment to H&H.

i. Franchisee acknowledges that H&H has advised it to consult with its own attorneys, accountants, or other advisors, that Franchisee has had ample opportunity to do so, and that the attorneys for H&H have not advised or represented Franchisee with respect to this Agreement or the relationship hereby created.

j. Franchisee acknowledges and recognizes that different terms and conditions, including different fee structure and investment requirements may pertain to different Fruitfull Franchises offered in the past, contemporaneously herewith, or in the future, and that H&H does not represent that all Franchise Agreements are or will be identical.

k. Franchisee acknowledges that, except as is specifically set forth in this Agreement, it is not nor is it intended to be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement or any other agreement or contractual relationship to which H&H is a party.

l. This Agreement only shall become effective upon its execution by H&H's president.

m. Franchisee agrees that the Franchise Business shall only be operated by the Franchisee or by a Manager/Employee employed by Franchisee who has previously been approved by H&H. H&H's approval of Franchisee's Manager/Employee shall be predicated upon the Manager's execution of a confidentiality agreement in a form approved by H&H.

CALIFORNIA

THIS ADDENDUM to the Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) by and between Happy & Healthy Products, Inc., a Florida Corporation and _____ (hereinafter referred to as “Franchisee”) is made and entered into this ___ day of _____, 20____.

To the extent the California Franchise Investment Law, Cal. Corp. Code §§ 31000-31516 or the California Franchise Relations Act, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§20000-20043 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

The Franchise Agreement requires franchisee to execute a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the franchise agreement. California Corporations Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order there under is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043).

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of Florida. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

Section 9(o) of the Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages clause. Under California Civil Code §1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination or non-renewal of a franchise. The Federal Bankruptcy Code also provides rights to franchisee concerning termination of the Franchise Agreement upon certain bankruptcy-related events. If the Franchise Agreement is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in Florida with the cost being borne by the parties as determined by the arbitrator. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult with private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchisee seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

MARYLAND

This Addendum to the Franchise Agreement by and between Happy & Healthy Products, Inc. and _____ (“Franchisee”) dated _____, _____ (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into on _____, _____.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Agreement, the following provision shall supersede and apply to all franchises the offer and sale of which are governed by the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law, Md Code Ann., Bus. Reg. §§ 14-201 to 14-233:

All fees paid to H&H and/or its affiliates, including the nonrefundable deposit and payments for goods and services received from H&H and/or its affiliates before the business opens, are not due or payable until H&H fulfills all of its material preopening obligations to Franchisee.

Any provision in the Agreement which operates to waive Franchisee’s right to file a lawsuit alleging a cause of action arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Maryland is void and Franchisee therefore may sue in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

Pursuant to COMAR 02.02.08.16L no person may require that Franchisee provide a release from liability under the provisions of the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law as part of a franchise agreement or as a condition of the sale, renewal, or assignment of a franchise. Accordingly, all such representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel, or waiver of liability are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

Any limitation on the period of time arbitration and/or litigation claims must be brought shall not act to reduce the 3 year statute of limitations afforded to a franchisee for bringing a claim arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within 3 years after the grant of the franchise.

The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale, and/or assignment/transfer shall not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

The acknowledgments or representations of the Franchisee which disclaim the occurrence and/or acknowledge the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Franchise Law are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

3. Section 15 of the Franchise Agreement is amended to add the following:

“H&H agrees to indemnify Franchisee against liability from your authorized use of the Licensed Marks if you have promptly notified H&H of any such claim of proceeding, as long as Franchisee is in compliance with this Agreement when the claim arose. Franchisee acknowledges that H&H has the exclusive right to control administrative proceedings or litigation concerning the Licensed Marks.”
4. Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22.
5. With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days’ notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by the franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee; (2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor’s trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

6. According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement shall not in any way abrogate or reduce your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement shall abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.
7. Any claims franchisee may have against the franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.
8. The Franchise Agreement contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.
9. Franchisee consents to the franchisor seeking injunctive relief without the necessity of showing actual or threatened harm. A court shall determine if a bond or other security is required.
10. The Franchise Agreement contains a liquidated damages provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.
11. Any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5 must be commenced no more than 3 years after the cause of action accrues.
12. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including, fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchise.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND ANY RELATED AGREEMENTS

THIS ADDENDUM to the Franchise Agreement (the “Agreement”) by and between Happy & Healthy Products, Inc., a Florida Corporation and _____ (hereinafter referred to as “Franchisee”) is made and entered into this ____ day of _____, 20__.

The parties agree to amend the Agreement as follows:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Franchise Agreement, the following provisions shall supersede and apply to all franchises the offer and sale of which are governed by the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW §§ 19.100.010 to 19.100.940 (the “Act”):

1. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with H&H including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with H&H including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
3. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
5. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect H&H’s reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
6. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor’s earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.
7. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a H&H from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same H&H or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the H&H. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

8. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
9. Section 20.e is deleted and replaced with the following: "This Agreement may be amended only in writing and signed by all parties hereto."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Addendum on the date first written above.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Member
Happy and Healthy Guaranty, LLC

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Happy and Healthy Guaranty, LLC, which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of earnings and Member's Equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Happy and Healthy Guaranty, LLC as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Happy and Healthy Guaranty, LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Happy and Healthy Guaranty, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Happy and Healthy Guaranty, LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Happy and Healthy Guaranty, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, H & H intends to sell, from time to time, certain of H & H’s products to Franchisee (the “Products”);

WHEREAS, in connection with each sale of the Products to Franchisee, H & H will invoice Franchisee for the cost of the Products (each such invoice, an “Invoice”);

WHEREAS, it is a condition to the initial extension of credit subsequent to or contemporaneous with the execution of this Agreement to Franchisee with respect to the sale of the Products to Franchisee and to the extension of credit to Franchisee from time to time with respect to further sales of the Products to Franchisee that Franchisee shall have granted the security interests contemplated by this Agreement, and Franchisee desires to grant such security interests in order to induce H & H to extend credit with respect to the sale of the Products to Franchisee;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and in order to induce H & H to extend credit with respect to the sale of the Products to Franchisee, Franchisee hereby agrees with H & H, as follows:

1. Definitions

1.1. Certain Defined Terms. The following terms, as used herein, have the meanings set forth below:

“Control” means “control” as defined in the UCC.

“Proceeds” means all “proceeds” (as defined in the UCC) of, and all other profits, rentals or receipts, in whatever form, arising from the collection, sale, lease, exchange, assignment, licensing or other disposition of, or realization upon, any Collateral.

“Security Interests” means the security interests granted pursuant to Section 2 hereof, as well as all other security interests created or assigned as additional security for the Secured Obligations (as defined in Section 3) pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement or any Invoice.

“UCC” means the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect on the date hereof in the State of Florida, provided that if by reason of mandatory provisions of law, the perfection or the effect of perfection or non-perfection of the Security Interests in any Collateral or the availability of any remedy hereunder is governed by the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect on or after the date hereof in any other jurisdiction, “UCC” means the Uniform Commercial Code as in effect in such other jurisdiction for purposes of the provisions hereof relating to such perfection or effect of perfection or non-perfection or availability of such remedy.

2. Grant of Security Interests

To secure the payment, performance and observance of the Secured Obligations, Franchisee hereby grants to H & H, a first priority security interest in, a right of setoff against, and an assignment to H & H of, all right, title and interest of Franchisee in (all being collectively referred to as the “Collateral”):

(a) All right, title and interest in the equipment set forth in Exhibit A hereto and replacements therefor; and

(b) Proceeds of all or any of the property described in subparts (a) above.

3. Security for Obligations

This Agreement secures the payment and performance of the Invoices and all indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of Franchisee now or hereafter existing under this Agreement and all renewals, extensions, restructurings and refinancings of any of the above, including, without limitation, any additional indebtedness which may be extended to Franchisee pursuant to any restructuring or refinancing of Franchisee's indebtedness under any Invoice, and including any post-petition interest accruing during any bankruptcy reorganization of Franchisee or other similar proceeding (all such indebtedness, liabilities and obligations of Franchisee being collectively called the "Secured Obligations").

4. Representations and Warranties

Franchisee represents and warrants as follows:

4.1. Ownership of Collateral. Franchisee owns the Collateral, and will own all after-acquired Collateral, free and clear of any lien, pledge, encumbrance or security interest (other than those created by this Agreement). No effective financing statement or other form of lien notice covering all or any part of the Collateral is on file in any recording office, except for those in favor of H & H.

4.2. Office Locations. Franchisee's principal place of business and all of the sites where any Collateral is located are specified on Schedule I, which Schedule I shall be amended from time-to-time pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

5. Further Assurances; Covenants

5.1. Other Documents and Actions. Franchisee will, from time to time, at its expense, promptly execute and deliver all further instruments and documents and take all further action that may be necessary or desirable, or that H & H may request, in order to create, perfect and protect the Security Interests granted or purported to be granted hereby or pursuant to any Invoice or to enable H & H to exercise and enforce its rights and remedies hereunder or under any Invoice with respect to any Collateral.

5.2. Corporate or Name Change. Franchisee will give H & H at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of any change in Franchisee's name, identity, mailing address or corporate structure. With respect to any such change, Franchisee will execute such documents and take such actions as H & H deems necessary or desirable to create, perfect and preserve the Security Interests.

5.3. Business Locations. Franchisee will give H & H at least ten (10) days prior written notice of (i) any change in Franchisee's principal place of business or (ii) of any new location of any of the Collateral. Schedule I hereto shall be amended to reflect any such change in Franchisee's principal place of business or any new location of any of the Collateral. With respect to any new location of any Collateral (which in any event shall be within the continental United States), Franchisee will execute such documents and take such actions as H & H deems necessary or desirable to create, perfect and preserve the Security Interests.

5.4. Protection of Collateral. Franchisee will do nothing to impair the rights of H & H in the Collateral. Franchisee assumes all liability and responsibility in connection with the Collateral acquired by it, and the liability of Franchisee to pay the Secured Obligations shall in no way be affected or diminished by reason of the fact that such Collateral may be lost, stolen, damaged, or for any reason whatsoever unavailable to Franchisee.

6. H & H Appointed Attorney-in-Fact

Franchisee hereby irrevocably appoints H & H as Franchisee's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of Franchisee and in the name of Franchisee, H & H or otherwise or without the signature of Franchisee where permitted by law, from time to time in H & H's discretion to take any action and to execute any instrument that H & H may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this Agreement. Franchisee hereby ratifies and approves all acts of H & H made or taken pursuant to this Section 6. Neither H & H nor any person designated by H & H shall be liable for any acts or omissions or for any error of judgment or mistake of fact or law, unless it is determined by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, final and not subject to review on appeal, that such action, omission, error or mistake constituted gross negligence or willful misconduct. This power, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable so long as this Agreement shall remain in force.

7. Event of Default

The occurrence of any of the following shall be deemed an event of default hereunder (an "Event of Default"):

(a) failure by Franchisee to make any payment of principal or interest under any Invoice when it becomes due and payable or to perform any other term, condition, provision or covenant contained herein;

(b) failure by Franchisee to perform any term, condition, provision or covenant contained in any other agreement between H & H and Franchisee, including, without limitation, the Franchise Agreement;

(c) any statement, representation, warranty or covenant made by Franchisee in connection with this Agreement, now or hereafter is found to have been untrue, incomplete or misleading when made or furnished;

(d) an application is made by Franchisee for the appointment of a receiver, trustee or custodian for any of Franchisee's assets; a petition under any section or chapter of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar law or regulation is filed by Franchisee; Franchisee makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; any case or proceeding is filed by Franchisee for its dissolution, liquidation, or termination; the collateral securing this indebtedness or Franchisee's other assets are attached, seized, levied upon or subjected to a writ of distress or warrant; Franchisee is enjoined, restrained or in any way prevented by court order from conducting all or any material part of its business affairs; or

(e) an application is made against Franchisee for the appointment of a receiver, trustee or custodian for any of Franchisee's assets and such petition is not dismissed within thirty (30) days; a petition under any section or chapter of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar law or regulation is filed against Franchisee and such petition is not dismissed within thirty (30) days; or any case or proceeding is filed against Franchisee for its dissolution, liquidation, or termination and is not dismissed within thirty (30) days.

8. Remedies

If any Event of Default shall have occurred, H & H may exercise in respect of the Collateral, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided for herein or otherwise available to it, all the rights and remedies of a secured party on default under the UCC (whether or not the UCC applies to the affected Collateral) and also may require Franchisee to, and Franchisee hereby agrees that it will, at its expense and upon request of H & H forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by H & H and make it available to H & H at any reasonable place or places designated by H & H. To the extent permitted by law, Franchisee hereby specifically waives all rights of redemption, stay or appraisal which it has or may have under any law now existing or hereafter enacted.

Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, H & H or its agents or attorneys shall have the right without notice or demand or legal process (unless the same shall be required by applicable law), personally, or by agents or attorneys, to enter upon, occupy and use any premises owned or leased by Franchisee or where the Collateral is located (or is believed to be located) until the Secured Obligations are paid in full without any obligation to pay rent to Franchisee, to remove the Collateral or any part thereof therefrom to the premises of H & H or any agent of H & H for such time as H & H may desire in order to effectively collect or liquidate the Collateral and use in connection with such removal any and all services, supplies and other facilities of Franchisee.

Franchisee acknowledges and agrees that a breach of any of the covenants contained in Sections 4, 5, and 6 hereof will cause irreparable injury to H & H and that H & H has no adequate remedy at law in respect of such breaches and therefore agrees, without limiting the right of H & H to seek and obtain specific performance of other obligations of Franchisee contained in this Agreement, that the covenants of Franchisee contained in the Sections referred to in this Section shall be specifically enforceable against Franchisee.

9. Limitation on Duty of H & H with Respect to Collateral

Beyond the safe custody thereof, H & H shall have no duty with respect to any Collateral in its possession or control (or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee) or the preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto. H & H shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody and preservation of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property. H & H shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage to any of the Collateral, or for any diminution in the value thereof, by reason of the act or omission of any warehouseman, carrier, forwarding agency, consignee or other agent or bailee selected by H & H in good faith.

10. Application of Proceeds

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the proceeds of any sale of, or other realization upon, all or any part of the Collateral shall be applied: first, to all fees, costs and expenses incurred by H & H with respect to the Collateral including, without limitation, those described in Section 11 hereof; second, to accrued and unpaid interest on the Secured Obligations (including any interest which but for the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, would have accrued on such amounts); and third, to the principal amounts of the Secured Obligations outstanding. Any balance remaining shall be delivered to Franchisee or to whomsoever may be lawfully entitled to receive such balance or as a court of competent jurisdiction may direct.

11. Expenses

Franchisee shall pay all costs, fees and expenses of perfecting, maintaining and enforcing the Security Interests, and any and all excise, property, sales and use taxes imposed by any state, federal or local authority on any of the Collateral.

12. Termination of Security Interests; Release of Collateral

Upon final payment in full of all Secured Obligations and the receipt by H & H of the written confirmation of Franchisee terminating any further credit accommodations by H & H, the Security Interests granted herein shall terminate with respect to all or any portion of the Collateral which has not been paid to H & H pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, if any (the "Remaining Collateral"), and all rights to the Remaining Collateral shall revert to Franchisee. Upon such termination of the Security Interests or release of the Remaining Collateral, H & H will, at the expense of Franchisee, execute and deliver to Franchisee such documents as Franchisee shall reasonably request to evidence the termination of the Security Interests or the release of the Remaining Collateral, as the case may be.

13. Notices

Any notice, approval, request, demand, consent or other communication hereunder including any notice of default or notice of sale, shall be in writing (including facsimile transmission) and shall be sent to the applicable party at its address shown below or at such other address as such party may, by written notice received by the other party, have designated as its address for such purpose. This Agreement shall be binding on Franchisee and its successors and assigns; provided that Franchisee may not delegate its obligations under this Agreement without H & H's prior written consent.

15. Amendments, Waivers and Consents

No amendment, modification, termination or waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless the same shall be in writing signed by H & H and Franchisee.

STATE ADDENDA TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
PURSUANT TO THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW AND THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE RELATIONS ACT

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

The following provisions supersede any inconsistent provisions in the Disclosure Document and apply to all franchises the offer and sale of which are governed by the California Franchise Investment Law:

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning the termination, transfer or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101 et seq.)

The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of Florida. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

The California Franchise Investment Law requires a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the franchise to be delivered together with the Disclosure Document.

Section 31125 of the Corporations Code requires us to provide you a disclosure document in the form required by the Commissioner of Corporations before we ask you to consider a material modification of an existing franchise agreement.

No person or franchise broker in Item 2 of this Disclosure Document is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

The Franchise Agreement requires you to sign a general release if you transfer your franchise. California Corporations Code 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code 31000 through 31516). Business and Professions Code 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code 20000 through 20043).

The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration for any claims you may have against us. The arbitration will occur at Palm Beach County, Florida with the cost being borne by you. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside of the state of California.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

OUR WEBSITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENTS OF THIS WEBSITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT WWW.DFPI.CA.GOV.

Registration of this franchise does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the Commissioner of the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation.

California's Franchise Investment Law (Corporations Code sections 31512 and 31512.1) states that any provision of a franchise agreement or related document requiring the franchisee to waive specific provisions of the law is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. The law also prohibits a franchisor from disclaiming or denying (i) representations it, its employees, or its agents make to you, (ii) your ability to rely on any representations it makes to you, or (iii) any violations of the law.

The balance of the purchase price shall be paid into an escrow account, established with a bank or an attorney, which is agreed upon by both parties. The balance in escrow shall be paid to the company 60 days after the purchaser commences operation of the business or upon complete compliance with the terms of the contract, whichever occurs first.”

Additionally, consistent with Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act of 1987, any condition, stipulation, or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act of 1987 or any other law of Illinois is void.
3. ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
PURSUANT TO THE MINNESOTA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

The following provisions supersede any inconsistent provision in the Disclosure Document and apply to all franchises the offer and sale of which are covered by the Minnesota Franchise Investment Law:

Item 17 of this Disclosure Document is amended to add the following:

“Minn. Stat. § 80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400J prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document or agreement can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.”

Sec. 80C. 14, subds. 3, 4, and 5 which require, except in certain specified cases, that a franchisee be given 90 days’ notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days’ notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement.”

As owner of the Licensed Marks, H&H has the exclusive right to control administrative proceedings or litigation concerning the Licensed Marks.”

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including, fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchise.

6. Any acknowledgments or representations by you which disclaim the occurrence and/or acknowledge the non-occurrence of acts that would constitute a violation of the Franchise Law are not intended to nor shall they act as a release, estoppel or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

To the extent the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, Va. Code §§13.1-557 – 13.1-574 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

Any provision in any of the contracts that you sign with us which provides for termination of the franchise upon the bankruptcy of the franchisee may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C. 101 et. seq.).

“According to Section 13.1 – 564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the franchise agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.”

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
PURSUANT TO THE WASHINGTON FRANCHISE INVESTMENT PROTECTION ACT

The following provision supersede any inconsistent provisions in the Disclosure Document, and apply to all franchises the offer and sale of which are governed by the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act:

1. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.
3. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.
5. Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
6. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.
7. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
8. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
