What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit J.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Iowa. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Iowa than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

THE FOLLOWING APPLIES TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW ONLY

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- a. A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- b. A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protection provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- c. A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- d. A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) the term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- e. A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- f. A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- g. A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:
 1. The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.

2. The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or sub-franchisor.

3. The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

4. The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

h. A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

i. A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

If the franchisor's most recent financial statements are unaudited and show a net worth of less than $100,000, the franchisee may request the franchisor to arrange for the escrow of initial investment and other funds paid by the franchisee until the obligations, if any, of the franchisor to provide real estate, improvements, equipment, inventory, training or other items included in the franchise offering are fulfilled. At the option of the franchisor, a surety bond may be provided in place of escrow.

Agent for Service of Process

If we have an agent for service of process in your state, we disclose that agent in Exhibit J.

The Business We Offer and Prior Experience

The franchise will give you the right to operate a Restaurant within a specific area in accordance with our standards. The form of Franchise Agreement we currently offer is the Franchise Agreement attached as Exhibit A to this Disclosure Document. If you are a business entity, all equity owners must sign the Franchise Agreement as Principals, agreeing to be bound by certain provisions to protect our intellectual property rights. The Principals and others we designate must also sign the Franchise Agreement as Guarantors. See Item 15. The various forms of agreement we have used in the past may have terms and conditions different from the current form. We reserve the right to change the form and terms of the agreement in the future.

We also grant franchises for multiple Restaurants and have entered into Area Development Agreements with some franchisees to establish and operate Restaurants in a designated geographical area, including designated cities. Under the Area Development Agreement, you agree to develop and open an agreed upon number of Restaurants according to a prescribed schedule. A separate Franchise Agreement is required for each Restaurant. The form of Area Development Agreement we currently offer is the Area Development Agreement attached as Exhibit B to this Disclosure Document. If you are a business entity, all equity owners must sign the Area Development Agreement as Principals, agreeing to be bound by certain provisions to protect our intellectual property rights. The Principals and others we designate must also sign the Area Development Agreement as Guarantors. See Item 15. The various forms of agreement we have used in the past may have terms and conditions different from the current form. We reserve the right to change the form and terms of the agreement in the future.

The Pizza Ranch® franchise system started as a single Restaurant in Hull, Iowa (population 1800), in 1981, operating under the trademark “The Pizza Ranch®”. We shortened the trademark to “Pizza Ranch” in 2007. You will open your Restaurant under the Pizza Ranch® trademark. Existing Restaurants operating under the trademark “The Pizza Ranch®” converted to the new trademark starting in 2007. We have created a brand around providing small-town America with good food and tremendous opportunity. We are also now developing Restaurants in larger towns and cities. Pizza Ranch® Restaurants specialize in pizza and chicken. The Restaurants offer an all-you-can-eat buffet that includes pizza, chicken, salad and other approved items, as well as special ordering from the menu. Customers have the choice of a public dining area or a community room for special occasions. Restaurants offer “to-go” service, catering service, and delivery service from the Restaurant. You are required to submit the Restaurant’s operating hours and buffet hours in writing for approval before you open your Restaurant, and we may change these hours during the term of the franchise.

The franchise includes the right to use the trademark “Pizza Ranch®” as well as other identifying marks, trademarks and logos we use now or may develop in the future (the “Licensed Marks”), and our unique system relating to the establishment, development and operation of a Restaurant. Our system includes our trade dress, design, lay-out, know-how, our high-quality food products and purchasing power, our confidential manuals, our recipes including trade secret ingredients for its various menu items, standards, specifications, sales and merchandising methods, training of franchisees and Restaurant team members, quality assurance programs, advertising methods, record keeping and business management systems.

We have a standard floor plan if you construct a building for your Restaurant or for remodeling existing space. If you want to remodel existing space, for example in a shopping center, and cannot fully comply with our standard floor plan we will assist you and work with our approved architect and engineers in adapting its standard plans to suit the existing space for our approval. All fees associated with adapting our standard plans to your space will be paid by you. Each Restaurant will have a floor plan and architecture approved by us and in keeping with our overall color scheme and concept.

If you elect to open and operate a new Pizza Ranch® restaurant, you will be required to open it with a FunZone, unless we grant you an exception. As used in this FDD, a Pizza Ranch FunZone Arcade® or “FunZone” is a dedicated space at your Restaurant of at least 1,200 square feet for card-operated arcade games and amusement devices. While 1,200 square feet is the minimum required size, recommended sizes for populations over 15,000 are 1,600 or more square feet. Existing franchisees that entered into franchise agreements prior to the issuance date of this disclosure document are not required to operate a FunZone at their Restaurants but have the option of adding one if their Restaurant premises meet our required standards.

As of December 31, 2024, there were a total of 218 Restaurants in operation, of which 212 were operated by franchisees and 6 were operated by us or our affiliates. We and our affiliates may operate an existing Restaurant on a temporary basis while a new franchisee is sought following the termination or expiration of a Franchise Agreement or the purchase of a Restaurant from a franchisee. See Item 20 for more information about the numbers of franchised and company-owned and affiliate-owned Restaurants and our expansion plans. See Exhibit G for a list of our franchisees.

The Market and Competition

Our service and products are used by the general public and are not limited to any age group. Sales are moderately seasonal. The restaurant business is well-established and highly competitive with respect to concept, price, location, food quality and service. Competition may vary depending on the location of your Restaurant, i.e., a small community or a larger city. You will have to compete with other local and national restaurants which have similar food and services, some of which operate more restaurants and have longer operating histories than our Restaurants. If your Restaurant is located in a shopping mall, you will likely be competing with other eating establishments located in the mall.

Applicable Laws and Regulations

You must comply with all local, state and federal laws that apply to businesses generally, including the Fair Labor Standards Acts and state laws governing various matters, such as minimum wage, overtime and other working conditions. You must also comply with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act, which regulates access to your Restaurant by persons with disabilities and requires that employers provide reasonable accommodations for team members and customers with disabilities. You must comply with all local, state and federal laws applicable to restaurants, including zoning, licensing, health, sanitation, smoking, safety, fire, insecticides, use, storage and disposal of waste (including laws requiring recycling and regulating the use of certain types of containers and other materials potentially harmful to the environment) and other matters, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and Occupational Safety and Health Administration regulations, food and safety regulations, “Truth in Menu” (concerning menu item names and product labeling), nutritional claims, discrimination, employment, sexual harassment, tax, state and federal data privacy and security laws, and laws and regulations relating to citizenship or immigration status. Various federal and state agencies, including the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and the U.S. Department of Agriculture and state and local health and sanitation agencies have regulations related to the preparation of food and the condition of restaurant facilities.

INITIAL FEES

Franchise Agreement

You must pay a franchise fee of $30,000 for each Franchise Agreement you sign with us. You must pay us $7,500 at the time you sign a Franchise Agreement. You will have 6 months from the date you sign the Franchise Agreement to select a location for your Restaurant.

You pay us the $7,500 of the franchise fee when you sign the Franchise Agreement (Exhibit A) and the Restaurant Location (Alternative) Exhibit (Exhibit 1 to the Franchise Agreement) and the Guaranty Agreement (Exhibit 3 to the Franchise Agreement). This amount is non-refundable, except we will refund $7,500 of the franchise fee if we terminate the Franchise Agreement based on your failure, in good faith as determined by us, to obtain our approval of your Restaurant location within 6 months of the date the Franchise Agreement is signed. We may require that you sign a general release as a condition to payment of any refund of the franchise fee. When your project has been approved to move forward for construction, you and we will sign the Location Exhibit (Exhibit 2 to the Franchise Agreement) and you will have 6 months from the date of the Location Exhibit to open your Restaurant. The remainder of the franchise fee, $22,500, is due to us at or immediately before the start of construction of your Restaurant and is non-refundable. The Termination of Agreement for License and Services and Mutual Release attached as Exhibit K contains a sample form of general release language that would be acceptable to us in connection with a termination of the Franchise Agreement, or you're entering into a subsequent term or transfer of the franchise or other event when we require you to deliver a general release to us.

If you sign an Area Development Agreement with us as described below, your franchise fee will be paid according to what was agreed to in the Area Development Agreement.

Area Development Agreement

If you enter into an Area Development Agreement (Exhibit B) with us, you will have the right to open more than 1 Restaurant in a designated area. You must pay an initial development fee upon signing the Area Development Agreement. The development fee is applied toward the future franchise fees as outlined in your specific Area Development Agreement. The development fee is not uniform and is negotiable depending on the size and/or the potential number of restaurants in the development area, their location and the experience of the developer. Typically, the development fee is $7,500 for each market in the development area. Depending on the population and geography of an area, each market will consist of a certain density of population, typically around 40,000 people, or for more rural locations, a certain radius, typically about a 3-mile radius from the proposed restaurant location.

Marketing Materials

Before opening your Restaurant, you must purchase marketing start-up materials from PR Production Fund, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of ours. Your packet of materials may vary depending on the size of your Restaurant and your local market. The cost of these materials is $3,840. The cost is nonrefundable, uniform and is not negotiable.

Explanatory Notes

- (1) As further described in Item 1, because new Pizza Ranch® restaurants are required to open with a FunZone unless we grant an exception, the initial investment estimates in this table assume that the Pizza Ranch® restaurant being developed will include a FunZone. However, we have included in note 14 below information regarding the estimated initial investment for a Pizza Ranch® restaurant being developed without a FunZone. While we anticipate that most FunZones will range from 1,200 to 4,000 square feet, this table assumes a FunZone of 2,400 square feet.
- (2) Development fees paid under an Area Development Agreement are applied toward the franchise fee as outlined in the Area Development Agreement.
- (3) Furniture, Fixtures and Equipment includes kitchen equipment, pressure fryers, chairs, booths, buffet units, tables, menu holders, redemption counter, storage racks, interior décor, smallwares (plates, utensils, coffee maker, air pots, etc.), point of sale system, signs, light fixtures, sound system, phone system, security system, security cameras, delivery vehicles, car delivery package, decals and paint.
- (4) This estimate includes the cost of purchasing arcade games and other amusement devices. The estimate assumes that you will purchase 1 game or device per 65 square feet.
- (5) You must remodel the leased building's interior and exterior per our specifications. The cost of leasehold improvements will vary, depending on the existing condition of the premises and what is needed to be done, for example, carpet, ceiling, exterior, heating, plumbing, electrical, etc. The estimate for the cost of leasehold improvements is based on $130 to $175 per square foot, for a 7,800 square foot Pizza Ranch. On occasion, the cost of leasehold improvements will be wholly or partially absorbed by the lessor when a lessee agrees to lease additional space adjoining their existing restaurant.

- (6) Construction costs include the footings, excavation, building, parking lot, interior and exterior finishes, electrical, mechanical and building permits.
- (7) You may be required to contract with one of our approved architects/engineers.
- (8) The cost of purchasing real estate will vary, depending on location, the actual size, site selected and the market for real estate in your area. The estimate in the table is the approximate cost of purchasing approximately 1.5 acres of land or 63,340 square feet, assuming you pay cash. If you finance the purchase of the land, you will pay a down payment when you purchase the land, which may be 10% to 20% or more of the purchase price. You would then pay monthly payments of principal and interest over the term of the mortgage loan, which would total more than the cash price. If you purchase the land and construct your Restaurant with a FunZone, your initial investment will be substantially higher than if you lease, as reflected in the table. Some Restaurants are free-standing buildings with their own parking; others are in strip malls. An important factor affecting real estate and construction costs is the seller's contributions to construction or finish-out.
- (9) Pre-opening training expenses include training materials and inventory, management team travel, lodging, meals and wages, as well as team member level wages for training prior to opening, recruitment, and employment advertising.
- (10) This is the actual cost of food utilized during pre-opening team member training.
- (11) Start-Up Costs include Crew uniforms, consisting of shirts/nametags, and hats or visors, printing of Make Charts and Manuals, the $3,840 cost of marketing start-up materials described in Item 5, office supplies, prize and debit card inventory, professional service fees such as attorneys' and accountants' fees, utility deposits, and insurance. Pre-opening advertising for your Restaurant will be directed by us. Ongoing advertising costs after opening will be as directed and required by us and will also depend on your market area and will be in addition to the marketing start-up materials' cost. You must purchase from a designated supplier and use the marketing start-up materials package. We are a designated supplier for certain items. See Item 8.
- (12) The cost of leasing real estate will vary, depending on location, the actual size, design and layout, site selected and market conditions. We cannot estimate your costs of leasing the Restaurant. Some Restaurants are free-standing buildings with their own parking; others are in strip centers. An important factor affecting real estate is the landlord's contribution to tenant improvements.
- (13) Working capital includes payroll and utility costs. These figures are estimates. We cannot guarantee you will not have additional expenses starting your business. Your costs will depend on factors such as: how you follow our methods; your management skill; your business experience; local economic conditions; local market for the Restaurant's product; prevailing wage rate; competition; and sales levels reached during the initial period. This does not take into consideration any revenue derived during the first 3 months of operation. To cover these expenses and other costs, we require that you have initial working capital of at least $20,000. The time period of 3 months and recommended level of working capital are not representations of when you should expect to break even.
- (14) If due to unique circumstances we approve you to open a new Pizza Ranch® restaurant without a FunZone, you will not incur the cost of Arcade Games, and some of the other expenses listed in this table are likely to be less, including Furniture, Fixtures & Equipment, Construction Costs, Pre-Opening Training Expenses and Start-Up Costs. As a result, we estimate the initial investment for a Pizza Ranch® restaurant being developed without a FunZone (based on 6,000 sq. ft. Restaurant) will range from $1,489,500 to $2,097,000 for a Retrofit/Leased Restaurant, and from $2,312,700 to $3,806,900 for a New Ground-Up Restaurant.

- (15) We rely on the experience of its principals in the pizza restaurant business since 1981 and its own experience for more than 40 years as the franchisor of Restaurants since 1984 to compile these figures. The information relating to FunZones is based on the experience of our franchisees that have developed FunZones over the past 6 years, and our estimate of regional average costs and prevailing market conditions. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to invest in this franchise. Except as specifically described in the explanatory notes above and in Item 5 concerning the initial franchise fee, all costs are non-refundable.

The estimated costs to establish multiple Restaurants under the Area Development Agreement is approximately the cost of establishing 1 Restaurant multiplied by the number of Restaurants to be established, minus any economic and operating efficiencies you are able to achieve by operating multiple Restaurants. These efficiencies will depend on your individual performance and abilities, and we are unable to estimate the amount of savings, if any. The development fee is applied to your franchise fee as outlined in your Area Development Agreement.

Item 8

RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Except as described below, you are not required by the Franchise Agreement or any other device or practice to purchase or lease products or services (1) from us or our affiliates or other suppliers we have designated or approved, (2) which meet our specifications, or (3) which we have the right to approve (collectively “source-restricted purchases”). We estimate that source-restricted purchases will equal approximately 70% - 90% of your total purchases in connection with the establishment of your Restaurant and approximately 80% - 90% of your total purchases in connection with the ongoing operation of your Restaurant.

In order to maintain the highest degree of quality, service and uniformity for Pizza Ranch® Restaurants, you must construct and operate your Restaurant in conformity with our criteria, standards and specifications for site selection, development and operation of Restaurants. These criteria, standards and specifications may be included in our Advertising, Marketing and Brand Standards Manual, the Manual for Kitchen Operations, the Handbook for Excellent Ranch Operations and the FunZone Operations Manual (collectively the “Manuals”). The Manuals are a compilation of manuals, books, binders, videos or other electronic media, intranet postings and other materials, containing operating data, specifications, standards, operating procedures, checklists, formulas, menus, equipment, services, recipes and other information. When we say we will provide “written” communication or a notice or information (including the Manuals) to you “in writing” we may or may not provide you with a paper (“hard copy”) form of the information. We may provide the communication or notice only through electronic communication or posting to our website(s). Updates to the Manuals occur when we execute key changes to criteria, standards or specifications.

You must use only the menu items, proprietary branded food products, ingredients, products, materials, equipment, computer hardware and software, signs, supplies, uniforms, advertising materials, wall finishes, furniture, furnishings, small wares, paper goods, arcade games and amusement devices, service providers (including third-party delivery aggregators), and other items in your Restaurant that conform to our standards and specifications. We may also designate 1 or more approved suppliers for any of these products or services. We and our affiliates may be an approved supplier or designated sole supplier for any purchases of products or services and may obtain revenue from you and make a profit without any limits on the amount of profit we or our affiliate may make. Our current designated sole suppliers for any of these products or services are listed on Exhibit E.

We choose our designated suppliers based on the supplier's product quality, distribution network, prices and service to you. We can revoke designated suppliers based on the same criteria used for approval. We will notify you of any changes regarding designated suppliers.

Some vendors pay us an allowance on products purchased by Pizza Ranch restaurants. Typically, these allowances are paid as a flat amount per number of units purchased from the applicable vendor. These allowances are subject to change as we deem necessary. We may use the allowances for our own purposes except as we otherwise agree. We currently use the allowances received from vendors for various operating costs related to quality assurance, negotiation fees, promotional fees, research and development for products, procedures, facilities, our national conference, design, operating methods, corporate identity and marketing methods for the Restaurants. These services also include periodic quality control inspection of the Restaurants.

Although we are not required to, we negotiate directly with suppliers of major required products used by franchisees to arrange adequate supplies of quality approved products meeting our standards and specifications. We believe that our method of negotiating with suppliers and distributors provides a cost-effective result for franchisees. The purchasing arrangements may include special contract pricing and volume discounts that result in lower prices than regular wholesale and/or retail prices. These benefits are typically passed on to franchisees. There can be no assurance that special pricing or terms will be available; any negotiated arrangements may be discontinued at any time. We do not provide material benefits (such as renewal or granting of additional franchises) to you based upon purchases from designated suppliers.

You must purchase accounting services for your Restaurant (including your FunZone, if applicable) from PR Financial Services, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of ours. You must purchase marketing start-up materials from PR Production Fund, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of ours.

For the year ending December 31, 2024, our and our wholly owned subsidiaries' revenue from the sale of goods and services to franchisees was $1,356,233 or 4.4% of our total revenues of $31,076,565 according to our consolidated financial statements (Exhibit I). The cost of purchasing goods and services from us or our subsidiaries represents less than 1% of your total purchases in connection with the operation of your Restaurant.

Officers of ours own an interest in us, and as a result, indirectly own an interest in our subsidiaries PR Financial Services and LLC, PR Production Fund, Inc., suppliers of accounting and marketing services to our franchisees. Except for their interest in us, none of our officers owns an interest in any privately held suppliers, or a material interest in any publicly held suppliers, to our franchisees.

We must approve the location of your Restaurant in writing. Neither our approval of the location nor our assistance with the site selection process constitutes any guaranty that the location will be successful. If you wish to relocate your Restaurant, we must approve the new location.

The lease agreement for the Restaurant premises must be submitted to us for final approval prior to signature and execution. The lease must contain contract terms granting us the right, but not the obligation, in our sole discretion, to have the lease assigned to us and for us to act as tenant. A fully executed copy of the lease must be submitted to us when complete.

We must approve your final lease or purchase agreement contracts and construction documents for your Restaurant before construction.

You must obtain and maintain, at your own expense, the insurance coverage that we require. You must also indemnify, or reimburse us for, any losses or expenses we incur as a result of your actions or inaction. See the Franchise Agreement (Exhibit A). We recommend you use the standard policy arranged by us. If you choose not to use that policy, you must submit your policy to us for approval.

You must purchase a computerized point-of-sale system from Revel Systems (or current authorized POS system as directed by us) and secure an approved package for PCI (Payment Card Industry) Compliance from SageNet (or current or additional authorized PCI Security compliance vendor(s) as directed by us). See Item 11.

You must purchase a video display system and pay the monthly software fee to the recommended supplier, Kuusoft (NEXSIGNS), or another approved vendor.

You must participate in our online ordering program, which includes the availability of your full menu on www.pizzaranch.com, at no additional cost to you. You must participate in any third-party delivery services we designate, which as of the issuance date of this disclosure document include DoorDash. You also may participate in any other third-party delivery services we approve. We may not, however, approve or support all third-party delivery providers.

Our Director of Construction will assist you in resourcing a designated Architect/Engineering firm to help you prepare your drawings, floor plans and construction documents.

If you want to purchase any supplies, equipment or other products or services from a supplier other than a designated supplier you must submit to us a written request for approval of the supplier. We must then be permitted to determine whether the proposed products or services meet or exceed our standards and specifications by inspecting the supplier's facilities and product samples. Product samples from the proposed supplier must be delivered to us or an independent laboratory designated by us for testing. We may charge you or the supplier the reasonable costs of inspecting and testing. We will use reasonable efforts to begin an investigation of any proposed supplier or products or services within 30 business days. We will notify you within 10 business days after we have completed its investigation whether we approve your proposed supplier or products or services. We may periodically re-inspect the facilities and products or services of any approved supplier. We have the right to revoke approval if the supplier fails to continue to meet any of our then-current standards and specifications. We do not provide our criteria for supplier approval to franchisees.

We have not arranged any purchasing cooperatives among Restaurant franchisees.

Item 11

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEMS, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not required to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-Opening Assistance

Before you open your business, we or a company designated by us will:

(1) Assist you in evaluating possible sites submitted by you for your Restaurant location. However, neither our approval of, nor our assistance with the selection or development of the site constitutes a representation, warranty or guaranty by us that the site will be a successful location. You assume all risks associated with the profitability of the site. (Area Development Agreement Section 1.1.2, Franchise Agreement Section 6.1).

You select the site of your Restaurant within your market (as defined in Exhibit 1 of the Franchise Agreement) referencing our site selection specifications and subject to our approval. We will assist you in determining whether a particular site will be acceptable. In evaluating a site, we consider population and area demographics, traffic count, accessibility, availability of utilities and zoning, in addition to other specifications. We must approve the location in writing. We will make up to 3 visits to your proposed location to look at sites at no charge. If you request us to make additional location visits, you must pay the reasonable travel and living expenses for our team members or representatives plus our then-current standard per diem fee.

If you sign an Area Development Agreement, the procedures in this paragraph will apply. You must obtain our written approval of the sites for the Restaurants to be developed under your Area Development Agreement and commence and complete development of each additional Restaurant in time to meet the development quota mutually agreed upon. (Area Development Agreement Section 1.2, Franchise Agreement Section 1.2). If we disapprove of a site, you may submit other proposed sites until we approve one. There is no contractual time limit for us to approve or disapprove of the location you propose. If we and you do not agree on a site, and you do not commence and complete development of each additional Restaurant in time to meet the development quota that was mutually agreed upon, it will be a non-curable default under the Area Development Agreement and we may terminate the Area Development Agreement. (Area Development Agreement Section 7).

Unless you have a site already selected that we approve of, you will have 6 months after you sign a Franchise Agreement to obtain our approval on the proposed site for your Restaurant. You must get our approval of your proposed site before beginning construction of the Restaurant. Once we approve your proposed location, you have 6 months to complete construction and open your Restaurant. If we disapprove of a site, you may submit other proposed sites until we approve one. There is no contractual time limit for us to approve or disapprove of the location you propose. If you do not meet these timelines, it will be a non-curable default under the Franchise Agreement, and we may terminate the Franchise Agreement. (Franchise Agreement Section 22.1).

The time it will take between signing each Franchise Agreement and opening your Restaurant will depend upon whether you are building a new building or leasing existing space. Building a new building from the ground up typically will take 12 months from signing to opening. When leasing existing space, the typical time from signing to opening is 9 months. Other factors that affect this time are construction schedules or delays, the ability to obtain a lease, remodeling, obtaining local or state permits, or installation of equipment, fixtures or signs. These factors take on average 3 months longer for building a new building from the ground up.

(2) Provide a standard floor plan to scale (but not for construction) of an existing Restaurant facility as close in size as possible to your proposed Restaurant showing room layouts, location of chairs, tables, front-line (buffet counter), kitchen equipment and other details. We will also furnish sources of and specifications for materials and supplies for preparing, serving and selling food conforming to our standards and specifications and all floor, ceiling and wall finishes, all interior and exterior signage and all other furniture, fixtures, equipment, small wares and computer terminals. We will also provide a list of approved architects. However, we do not furnish or produce final contract and construction documents and final architectural plans and drawings. All construction documents must be completed by an approved architect and engineer. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.2).

(3) Review and approve your final contract and construction documents. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.3).

(4) Provide assistance and training we deem reasonably necessary to assist you to open your Restaurant and to operate for an initial period. The initial training program is described in more detail below. We will provide, at no additional charge, no less than 5 days (of 8 hours each) of training by at least 5 Pizza Ranch trainers. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.4). The training will consist of 7 days of team member training and 2 days of “soft openings.”

(5) Provide you with access to a copy of our Manuals which are described below. (Franchise Agreement Sections 6.7, 9.1).

(6) Provide continuing research and development services and assistance. We develop and offer and inform franchisees of any improved methods of operation, quality and quality control. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.6).

(7) Provide for all FunZones, standard floor plans, along with specifications for design, layout, flooring, colors, signage and wall finishes. However, we do not furnish or produce final contract and construction documents and final architectural plans and drawings. All construction documents must be completed by an approved architect and engineer.

Post-Opening Assistance

After your Restaurant opens, we will provide one or more of the following services:

(1) During your first week of opening, (Monday through Sunday) we will supply 3+ members of our Training Staff (which may include certified part-time New Restaurant Opening trainers) to assist in further training of team members.

(2) During the second week of opening (Monday through Sunday) we will supply 2 members of our Training Staff (which may include certified part-time New Restaurant Opening trainers) to assist in further training of team members.

(3) Change or add to the Manuals and other written materials whenever we believe changes are reasonably necessary. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.7).

(4) Provide continuing research and development and tell you of improved methods of operation, quality and quality control. (Franchise Agreement Section 6.6).

(5) Inspect the kind and quality of proposed food to be served and food actually being served in your Restaurant and tell you of new developments, changes or improvements in our standard specifications. (Franchise Agreement Section 12).

(6) We may establish local or regional advertising cooperatives in your Restaurant's market coverage area. If an advertising cooperative is established in your market coverage area, we have the right to require you to become a member of the cooperative. (Franchise Agreement Section 16.2).

(7) Establish and modify a standard menu which you may not modify without our prior written consent. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.2).

(8) Provide uniform designs and design changes. All Restaurant personnel must wear uniforms of such design and color prescribed by us. (Franchise Agreement Section 9.5).

(9) Make local and regional print, radio and TV ads available for use in your market. (Franchise Agreement Section 16.1). You may be responsible for placing your own ads in your markets. (Franchise Agreement Section 16.3).

(10) Establish a Marketing and Production Fund. All Restaurants must contribute to this fund on an equal basis. We administer the fund and segregate money in the fund from other funds. We have the discretion to determine all aspects of how advertising production funds are spent. (Franchise Agreement Section 16.1).

(11) We may offer further training programs and/or refresher courses at your expense, some of which may be mandatory. The cost for these programs will not exceed $200 per day per trainer for face-to-face training or $50 per month for web-based training solutions. We may provide all or a portion of the classes via internet, webinar or other form of electronic communication. If face-to-face training is needed for operational reasons, you will be responsible for all travel and accommodations for your staff. (Franchise Agreement Section 20.4).

(12) Permit you to use all of our currently registered or unregistered trademarks, trade names, logos and business features in the operation of your business. (Franchise Agreement Section 1.1).

Advertising

The Marketing and Production Fund (the “Fund”) established by us may disseminate master copies for use in local and regional advertising to you in the form of print, radio, interactive and TV ads. These items may then be used to place, print or produce an advertising campaign by the franchisee or by us at our discretion. The source of this advertising may be in-house, but we may use an outside advertising agency. The Marketing and Production Fund may also place media buys in your market. The Fund contribution which you are required to pay to us will not exceed 5% of your gross revenues. The current contribution is 2.25%. Any Restaurants we or our affiliates operate will contribute at the same or a similar rate. We will give you 6 months’ notice before increasing the contribution percentage. We administer the fund without an advertising council of franchisees. We have no duty to segregate the money in the Fund from our other accounts; no trust is created. We are not required to produce the Fund’s financial statements or to allow any franchisee audit. We may pay all company expenses relating to public relations and the production of master copies of advertising, merchandising and promotional materials (including the compensation of our team members who render Fund services) from the Fund. For the Fund’s year January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024, the Marketing and Production Fund was used as follows (unaudited):

We are not obligated to advertise locally in your area. You must advertise on your own as long as your advertisement/promotions are approved by us. If money contributed to the Marketing and Production Fund is not spent in a fiscal year, the money is carried over to the next year. None of this fund is used for advertising the sale of franchises. We do not anticipate that any part of your contributions to the Marketing and Production Fund will be used for advertising that is principally a solicitation for additional franchises, but we reserve the right to include a message or statement in any advertisement indicating that franchises are available for purchase and related information. (Franchise Agreement Section 16).

Any coupons produced by the local restaurant must contain “valid only at” information within the coupon disclaimer copy. Example, “Valid only at Orange City Pizza Ranch.” All valid locations must be listed on every coupon. Any locally produced marketing materials with offers are required to utilize the current pre-approved coupons and discounts sheet produced by marketing and must indicate the corresponding coupon code for Local Store Marketing (“LSM”) on the coupon. In the event a restaurant needs a coupon not listed, they must contact PR marketing or IT to set up a code into their restaurant system.

We can require you to participate in an Advertising Cooperative. You will be required to sign an Advertising Coop Agreement if you open a Restaurant in a market included in an Advertising Cooperative, see Exhibit C to this Disclosure Document. In 2014, all franchisee members of the Advertising Coop signed a new agreement (which is the Agreement found in Exhibit C). Prior to 2014, the Advertising Cooperative operated under a different Agreement, with slightly different terms. If we establish a cooperative in your market, you will be required to join. Membership in the cooperative will be all Restaurants in the trade area as defined by us. We generally define cooperative areas according to Areas of Dominant Influence (ADI) with local modifications as necessary. Co-op members are responsible for administration of the cooperative. We have a written governing document for cooperatives which we may amend, and which is available to the franchisees. We have the right to merge or dissolve the cooperatives. The decision whether to prepare annual or periodic financial statements is left to cooperative members. There are currently 6 Advertising Cooperatives in which all locations are participating. (Franchise Agreement Section 16.2).

We may establish promotional campaigns. Your Advertising Cooperative may also establish promotional campaigns. You must participate in the promotional campaigns at your own cost in addition to contributions to the Marketing and Production Fund or your Advertising Cooperative and amounts you must spend on local and regional advertising. (Franchise Agreement Section 16.4).

You may not develop, own or operate any website, webpage, domain name, email address or other identification of your Restaurant using the Licensed Marks or otherwise referring to the Licensed Restaurant or the products or services sold at Restaurants without our prior written approval. The restrictions on your advertising include any electronic medium for communication, including websites, webpages, email, texting, blogs and social networking sites. If we require, you will establish your website as part of the Pizza Ranch® website(s) we or the Marketing and Production Fund or our designee establishes. You will establish electronic links to the Pizza Ranch® website(s) or any other website we designate. Any website or electronic materials you propose to use must be approved in advance by us before publication to the site. (Franchise Agreement Section 16.9).

See Item 6, Item 8 and Item 9 and Franchise Agreement Section 16 for more information on advertising requirements. See Exhibit F for the Manuals' Tables of Contents. Our combined Manuals as of the date of this Disclosure Document contain 540 pages.

Computer and Point of Sale System Requirements

You must use a point-of-sale computerized system. The estimated cost of the point-of-sale computerized system is $ 8,500 to $20,000 per Restaurant. We designate the vendor to be used. Presently, Revel Systems, Inc. ("Revel") is the designated supplier. Revel requires you to use Apple iPads. The software is proprietary and is exclusive to Revel. It is used to record sales information on food and non-food items in your Restaurant. It also keeps track of payroll and is used to collect names and addresses for marketing purposes. We will have independent access to the information and data collected by the point of sale (POS) system; there is no contractual limitation on our right to access this information, restaurant computer systems, restaurant computer network, and data. For FunZone POS operations, we designate the vendor Embed to be used. The estimated cost of the point-of-sale computerized system is $30,000 to $35,000 per FunZone. Presently, Embed, Inc. ("Embed") is the designated supplier. We have used Embed as a supplier since December 2010.

The designated supplier has an obligation to provide ongoing maintenance, repairs and upgrades or updates provided you agree to pay the supplier's support contract. The current annual cost of maintenance and support is between $3,648 and $6,108. Embed monthly license and support annualized expense is between $2,602 and $4,366, this is dependent on number of terminals and readers. We do require that you pay for support. We are not obligated to provide any hardware or software products to you or to provide installation, call center, maintenance or Internet services to you for your hardware and software components. We may, from time to time, require additional or enhanced software and/or hardware components and/or call center, maintenance or Internet features to the required systems and you must keep the systems upgraded at your expense and at the times we specify. There is no contractual limitation on the frequency or cost of required updates or upgrades. None of the hardware or software companies listed above is contractually obligated to provide you with ongoing upgrades or updates except as noted. We have the right to require you to update your hardware and software for use with credit card, gift card and loyalty card processes, including the addition of secure EMV-Credit Card Chip reader devices to your POS system for enhanced secure credit card processing, all according to our specifications. You must pay the costs to purchase, install, and maintain the hardware and software systems. Currently, we estimate costs for EMV Credit Card Chip readers will be $350 per device.

Currently, you are required to use Chowly for third-party delivery aggregator services. We reserve the right to authorize and require new or additional third-party delivery aggregators.

You must maintain Internet service (at the minimum speed required in the Manuals, which currently is 50 Mbps, subject to adjustment) to engage in online communication/activity as we require. We may require you to update, change, add or use only authorized services and hardware Restaurant WIFI Services to provide secure Restaurant Business WIFI connections and secure Family Friendly WIFI connections. Unauthorized devices and services will be removed if this standard is breached. We reserve the right to require installation of redundant or back-up internet service at your Restaurant.

You must maintain a valid and secure environment for computer systems including both physical and virtual environments to protect your Restaurant and your guests from fraud and data theft. You must follow appropriate information network security procedures and measures to ensure and maintain the integrity of the systems and protection of data at your location as we direct.

You must reach and maintain a state of PCI (Payment Card Industry) Compliance as required and mandated by the credit card industry as directed by the major credit card vendors MasterCard, Visa, Discover, and American Express at your own expense. You must deploy systems and/or services to facilitate PCI Compliance either on your own or with an approved vendor that offers PCI Compliance Services. Proof of compliance is required, and we reserve the right to initiate PCI compliance audits from an approved independent auditing firm(s) at your own expense. The cost of this audit will start at $3,500. Compliance measures must be approved by us. The current designated PCI vendor is SageNet. We reserve the right to authorize and require new or additional PCI / security services vendors.

You are required to use designated third-party vendor/partners if direct interaction is required with the Restaurant POS (currently Revel) network/environment systems. You may not have any vendor systems or processes installed or maintained on the Restaurants internal POS-network environment. You are required to use designated customer facing Online Ordering Web Service providers. The current provider is Pizza Ranch Production Fund.

Currently, you are required to use Kuusoft (NEXSIGNS) for your digital menu board. We reserve the right to authorize and require new or additional digital menu boards with a new/different vendor.

You are required to use approved third-party remote access products/services for remote administration of POS environment / information access. If desired, the use of cloud based services/processes/products for information retrieval/access, information backup processes, Disaster Recovery process's systems must be from approved vendors. We reserve the right to add/subtract approved vendors which may require changes at your expense.

See Item 6, Item 7 and Item 8 and Franchise Agreement Section 9.7.

at your expense. The Manuals are confidential and remain our property. We may modify the Manuals, but the modification will not alter your status and rights under the Franchise Agreement. Item 12

TERRITORY

The Franchise Agreement gives you a protected territory (“Territory”) to operate 1 Pizza Ranch® Restaurant. The Territory is described in Exhibit 2 to your Franchise Agreement and will be defined using zip codes or by recognized geographical and/or political boundaries, such as streets, rivers, bodies of water, city limits or county lines, or the area within a certain radius from your Restaurant. The Territory will be determined to provide a mutually agreeable number of prospective customers in the area based upon population density and other characteristics of the territory or a certain mile radius surrounding the Restaurant. We may use any reasonably credible source of information to estimate the population in the Territory. You do not receive the right to acquire additional franchises in your Territory under the Franchise Agreement. We and our affiliates will not operate or grant any franchisees the right to operate another Pizza Ranch® Restaurant in your Territory as long as your Franchise Agreement is not terminated, except we reserve the right to do so in an alternative channel of distribution as described below. We and our affiliates may operate or license, both within and outside the Territory, restaurant concepts and food distributors or retailers operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks, regardless of whether or not these other concepts, distributors or retailers offer products and services which are similar to or compete with those offered by your Restaurant. Neither you, we, our affiliates, nor our other franchisees are restricted concerning the customers you or they may seek within or outside your Territory except that you may not make deliveries beyond your ability to ensure the high quality of any product made by your deliveries. Other Pizza Ranch® restaurants may deliver to customers in your Territory, so long as they meet our delivery standards, as established in the Manuals. You may exclude an area of your Territory from delivery services only if you have legitimate and reasonable concerns regarding employee safety, and those concerns are supported by verifiable third-party information, such as crime statistics published by local authorities. Neither the Franchise Agreement nor the Area Development Agreement grants you an option, right of first refusal, or similar right to operate Pizza Ranch® restaurants, except as specifically described in the respective agreement.

If you do not have a site for your Restaurant when you sign the Franchise Agreement, you will sign Exhibit 1 to the Franchise Agreement. You will then have 6 months after the Effective Date of the Franchise Agreement to find and obtain our approval of a site for the Restaurant within the designated market described in Exhibit 1 to the Franchise Agreement (“Market”) and sign Exhibit 2 of the Franchise Agreement for that site. Our designation of the Market in Exhibit 1 to the Franchise Agreement does not confer any territorial rights upon you during the period in which you are attempting to identify and receive our approval for a site for the Restaurant and we and our affiliates reserve, during that period, all territorial rights within the geographic area, but we agree not to exercise the rights to directly operate, or grant other persons or entities to operate Pizza Ranch® restaurants within the geographic area within this 6-month period. When your project has been approved to move forward for construction, you and we will sign Exhibit 2 to the Franchise Agreement, which identifies the Restaurant location and Territory. You must open your Restaurant within 6 months of signing Exhibit 2 to the Franchise Agreement.

We do not have a business or have plans or a policy to open a business or establish other franchises using a different trademark which sells pizzas or operates restaurants, but we reserve the right to do so. We do have the right to establish any other channel of distribution in your territory or development area under the Pizza Ranch® trademark.

Certain of our products, whether now existing or developed in the future, may be distributed in your Territory by others including us, our affiliates, or other franchisees, licensees or representatives, through channels of distribution other than a traditional Pizza Ranch® Restaurant. Alternate channels of distribution include sales of products offered under our trademarks at or through, grocery stores, supermarkets, catering services, theme parks, institutional feeding facilities, military bases, airports, stadiums, arenas, special events, gas stations, and sales of products by mail order or catalog business or via the Internet. The Franchise Agreement does not grant you any rights to distribute products through these alternate channels of distribution and you will have no right to share, nor should you expect to share, in any of the proceeds we and/or our affiliates or franchisees or licensees or any other party receives in connection with the alternate channels of distribution.

Even though we do grant you a Territory where we will not operate or grant a license to operate another Pizza Ranch® Restaurant, because of our right to distribute in other channels of distribution or other marks, and the fact that neither you, we, our affiliates nor our other franchisees are restricted concerning the customers you or they may seek within or outside your Territory, you should consider the following applies to you: You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

There is no minimum sales volume in order for you to keep your Territory under your Franchise Agreement. We may, upon renewal, modify your Territory based on population and geographic changes in the market where your Restaurant is located. If we approve a re-location of the Restaurant during the term of the Franchise Agreement, the Territory will not be modified.

If you enter into an Area Development Agreement with us, you will obtain a development area where you agree to develop a certain number of Restaurants (each operating under separate Franchise Agreements) within the development area under an agreed-upon timeline. You must get our approval for the location of each Restaurant in the development area. You and we sign our then-current Franchise Agreement for each Restaurant which will have a specific territory like any other Franchise Agreement. You will pay a development fee upon signing the Area Development Agreement and an initial franchise fee under each Franchise Agreement. See Item 5. You do not have the right to develop Restaurants outside your development area. We will not operate company-owned restaurants or grant franchises in your development area using our trademark as long as the Area Development Agreement is not terminated, except we reserve the right to do so in an alternative channel of distribution as described above. The number of Restaurants you must develop under your Area Development Agreement will be based on the size, population and density of your development area.

Except as stated in the Area Development Agreement, you have no options, rights of first refusal or other similar rights to acquire additional franchises in or around your development area. If we receive an offer from a qualified third party to develop a Restaurant in a market stated in your Area Development Agreement, we will provide you written notice of the terms of the offer. You will then have a 90-day period to sign a Franchise Agreement and pay the franchise fee in full for the market on the same terms or we may enter into a Franchise Agreement for the market with the third party.

Your right to develop Restaurants within your development area is dependent on your ability to comply with your development schedule. If you fail to comply with your development schedule, we may terminate the Area Development Agreement. If we exercise our right to terminate the Area Development Agreement, we may establish and may franchise others to establish Restaurants at any location within your former development area, subject only to any territorial rights granted to you under any Franchise Agreements which remain in effect.

The tables, figures, and income statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, but we have not audited these figures. The terms used in the tables and notes are defined in the endnotes following the tables. Wherever demographic or population information for the area surrounding the Restaurants is disclosed or used to sort Restaurants, such demographic or population information is based on data obtained from Environics Analytics/Claritas, which uses estimates based on the 2020 U.S. Census data.

If you elect to open and operate a new Pizza Ranch® restaurant, you will be required to open it with a FunZone, unless we grant an exception. Existing franchisees that entered into franchise agreements prior to the issuance date of this disclosure document, are not required to operate a FunZone at their Restaurants but have the option of adding one if their Restaurant premises meet our required standards. The gross sales, profits, earnings, and operating income figures represent averages and medians of specific FunZones and should not be considered as the actual or potential sales, profits, earnings or operating income that will be realized by any other FunZone at a Pizza Ranch® Restaurant.

The gross sales, profits, earnings, and operating income figures represent averages and medians of specific restaurants and should not be considered as the actual or potential sales, profits, earnings or operating income that will be realized by any other restaurant. We do not represent that any franchisee can expect to attain these sales, profits, earnings or operating income. Your individual financial results are likely to differ from these results. These figures have not been audited.

Certain financial performance representation figures do not reflect the costs of sales, operating expenses, or other costs or expenses that must be deducted from the gross revenue or gross sales figures to obtain your net income or profit. You should conduct an independent investigation of the costs and expenses you will incur in operating your Pizza Ranch® Restaurant. Franchisees or former franchisees, listed in this disclosure document, may be one source of this information.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance that you’ll earn as much.

If you rely on these figures, you must accept the risk of not doing as well. You must bear in mind that a newly opened business should not be expected to achieve sales volumes (or maintain expenses) similar to those of an established business. In addition, your results are likely to vary with local economic or market conditions that may affect, among other things, the sales, as well as the cost of food and beverages, payroll and labor expenses, and the cost of utilities and other services necessary to operate the Pizza Ranch® Restaurant.

There are several characteristics of the locations used in this financial performance representation that may differ materially from those of your location. They include the size and number of seats of the building, population around the location, overall retail sales around the location, quality of the management team, allowable signage, ingress/egress factors, competitive factors, traffic patterns, employment around the location, number of households, and median and disposable income factors.

Written substantiation of the data used in preparing this financial performance representation will be made available to you on your reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, we do not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Mark Souba, Pizza Ranch, Inc., 204 19th Street SE, Orange City, Iowa 51041; 712-707-8800 or 800-321-3401; the Federal Trade Commission; and the appropriate state regulatory agencies.

PIZZA RANCH, INC.

FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

THIS FRANCHISE AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between PIZZA RANCH, INC., an Iowa corporation ("Company"), _____, _____ ("Licensee"), and _____ ("Principal"), to be effective as of _____.

BACKGROUND

A. Company has developed secret formulas for the preparation of certain food products ("Food Products") and, in order to safeguard the good will of Company's trademarks and trade names, it is essential that only Food Products be used in certain secret recipes ("Secret Recipes") developed by Company for the preparation of menu items to be sold in or delivered from restaurants licensed or owned by Licensee using the name "Pizza Ranch®" ("Restaurants");

B. Company is the owner of unique restaurant operational specifications which include, without limitation, site selection criteria, building design, signs and equipment, layout plans, the trade name "Pizza Ranch®", the Secret Recipes, Food Products, and the Advertising, Marketing and Brand Standards Manual, the Manual for Kitchen Operations, the Handbook for Excellent Ranch Operations, and the FunZone Operations Manual (collectively, the "Manuals") and other written materials for the operation of Restaurants (all collectively referred to as "Proprietary Rights");

C. Company is engaged in the business of granting licenses for Restaurants using Proprietary Rights and any and all service marks, trademarks, trade names, slogans, copyrights and logos ("Licensed Marks") as adopted by Company in connection with the operation of Restaurants; and

D. Licensee is desirous of acquiring a license to use Proprietary Rights and Licensed Marks at a designated location, and, in reliance upon all of the representations made by Licensee and Principal and in connection with their application for a license, including, but not limited to, the manner in which the Restaurant will be owned and operated, Company is willing to grant a license upon the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement;

E. LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL ACKNOWLEDGE THAT (1) THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT AFTER HAVING MADE AN INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION OF COMPANY'S OPERATIONS, AND NOT BASED UPON ANY REPRESENTATION OR PROMISES TO THEM (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY PROJECTIONS OR PRO FORMAS) OF ANY KIND AS TO INCOME OR EARNINGS POTENTIAL; AND (2) COMPANY MADE NO REPRESENTATIONS, PROMISES OR STATEMENTS, ORAL OR WRITTEN, TO OR WITH THEM WHICH ARE NOT CONTAINED IN THIS AGREEMENT OR IN COMPANY'S FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT; AND (3) VENTURES IN THE RESTAURANT INDUSTRY, INCLUDING THE BUSINESS VENTURE CONTEMPLATED BY LICENSEE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF FINANCIAL RISK AND DEPEND, TO A LARGE EXTENT, UPON THE ABILITIES OF LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL, AND LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY HAVE NEITHER RELIED UPON, NOR HAS

COMPANY MADE, ANY WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO THE POTENTIAL SUCCESS OF THE BUSINESS VENTURE CONTEMPLATED IN THIS AGREEMENT.

F. Company and Licensee, Principal and other Owners of Licensee WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY on any and all claims brought by any party, as provided in Section 27.7.

AGREEMENT:

THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set out in this Agreement and other valuable consideration, the receipt of which are acknowledged, Company, Licensee and Principal agree as follows:

1. License:

- 1.1. Company grants to Licensee during the term of this Agreement and any renewals a nonexclusive license for use of Proprietary Rights and Licensed Marks in connection with the operation of 1 Restaurant (the "Licensed Restaurant") with a site approved by or to be approved by Company at the location specified in Exhibit 2 to this Agreement. Provided Licensee complies with the terms of this Agreement, Company will not own, operate, franchise or license any other Restaurant within the territory associated with the above location as defined in Exhibit 2 (the "Territory"), except Company reserves the right to do so in an alternative channel of distribution as described below. Alternatively, if Licensee does not have an approved location for the Licensed Restaurant, Company and Licensee will complete Exhibit 1, in which Licensee agrees on a specific market ("Market") in which the location of the Restaurant will be selected, subject to Company's approval, within 6 months after the effective date of this Agreement. Licensee does not receive any territorial rights upon the designation of the Market on Exhibit 1 and Company and its affiliates, reserve all territorial rights within the Market, but we agree not to exercise the right to directly operate, or grant other persons or entities to operate, Pizza Ranch® restaurants within this 6-month period. Once Company consents to a location for the Restaurant within the Market established in Exhibit 1 and Licensee secures and signs a lease for that location, Company and Licensee must sign Exhibit 2 to identify the location and the Territory. Licensee must open the Restaurant within 6 months of the date Exhibit 2 is signed.

Company and its affiliates reserve the unrestricted right to own, operate, franchise or license, both within and outside the Territory, restaurant concepts and food distributors or retailers operating under names other than the Proprietary Marks, regardless of whether or not these other concepts offer products and services which are similar to or compete with those offered by the Licensed Restaurant. Company retains the right, during the term of this Agreement to use and to license others to use, the Proprietary Rights and Licensed Marks for the operation and licensing of other Pizza Ranch® Restaurants at any locations outside of the Territory.

Certain of Company's products, whether now existing or developed in the future, may be distributed in the Territory by others including Company, Company's affiliates, or Company's franchisees, licensees or representatives, through channels of distribution other than a traditional Pizza Ranch® Restaurant. Alternate channels of distribution shall

- include, but are not limited to, sales of products offered under the Licensed Marks at or through, grocery stores, supermarkets, catering services, theme parks, institutional feeding facilities, military bases, airports, stadiums, arenas, gas stations, and sales of products by mail order or catalog business or via the Internet, and any similar outlets or distribution methods as Company shall determine. This Agreement grants Licensee no rights to distribute products through other channels of distribution. Licensee has no right to share, nor does it expect to share, in any of the proceeds received by Company or any other party in connection with the other channels of distribution.
- 1.2. If the Licensed Restaurant is a Restaurant to be developed under an Area Development Agreement, Licensee shall obtain Company's written approval of the proposed site and open the Licensed Restaurant in order to meet Licensee's development timetable under the Area Development Agreement for developing Restaurants.
 - 1.3. The Licensed Restaurant shall feature special ordering from the menu and also an "all-you-can-eat" buffet for lunch every day and on those evenings set forth in Company's Manuals or as approved in writing by Company. Both lunch and evening buffets will offer pizza, chicken, salad and other approved items. The Licensed Restaurant's customers shall have the choice of a public dining area or a community room (party or meeting room) for special occasions. The Licensed Restaurant shall also offer "to-go" service as well as delivery service.
 - 1.4. Licensee shall not have exclusive rights to deliver to customers located in the Territory. More than one Company franchisee and Company and its affiliates may have the right to deliver and cater in the same area or at the same place.
 - 1.5. At the time of the opening of the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must begin offering "to-go" and delivery service, unless Company grants an exception.
 - 1.6. In exceptional circumstances, when Company, in its sole discretion, determines that offering "to-go" and delivery from the Licensed Restaurant is not feasible, Company may waive the requirement that Licensee offer "to-go" and delivery.
 - 1.7. The term "Restaurant" and "Licensed Restaurant" shall include any game room and or arcade, including a Pizza Ranch FunZone Arcade® ("FunZone"), located within or adjacent to the Restaurant. Unless we otherwise agree in writing, the only game room or arcade Licensee may operate within or adjacent to the Restaurant is a branded FunZone operated in accordance with the FunZone Operations Manual and Company's other Manuals, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

2. Royalties and Service Fee, Audit:

- 2.1. After the opening of the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee on a monthly basis throughout the term of this Agreement shall pay Company (i) royalties equal to a minimum of $500 per month or 3.5% of monthly Gross Revenues of the Licensed Restaurant for each month, whichever is the greater; and (ii) a service fee equal to 0.5% of monthly Gross Revenues of the Licensed Restaurant for each month. Licensee further agrees to pay Company and its affiliates interest on all late payments of royalties, service fees, advertising contributions and other payments at the lesser of 18% per year or the maximum rate permitted by the law. Royalty and service fee payments are due on or before the 10th day of each month for Gross Revenues received during the prior month.

- 2.2. “Gross Revenues” as used in this Agreement mean the entire amount of revenues from all business conducted in, from or adjacent to the Licensed Restaurant, including all food and beverage sales and other products or services such as vending machines, arcade games and amusement devices (including those in a FunZone), delivery fees, legal gaming devices without taking any deduction for operators’ percentages or any other deductions whatsoever for sale at the Licensed Restaurant, but will not include any sums collected and paid out for any sales or excise tax imposed by any governmental authority.
- 2.3. Prior to opening of the Licensed Restaurant or as requested by Company, Licensee must execute and deliver to Company and to Licensee’s bank or other financial institutions all forms and documents that may be required to permit Company to debit Licensee’s bank account, either by check or electronically, the amount of royalty and service fees due each month. Company shall also have the right to debit Licensee’s account for the Marketing and Production Fund contributions as set forth in Section 16 below. Royalties, service fees and Marketing and Production Fund contributions will be debited on or before the 10th day of each month after which such royalties, service fees and contributions accrue, or if the 10th falls on a weekend or other bank holiday, then on the next business day.
- 2.4. Licensee will report Gross Revenues as directed by Company, using the electronic reporting system Company designates. If Company grants Licensee written permission to not use the electronic reporting system or if the electronic reporting system is not working for any reason, Licensee must report Gross Revenues for each period in writing by letter, facsimile or electronic mail on or before the 7th day of the month following the month in which royalties, service fees and Marketing and Production Fund contributions accrue. If Licensee for any reason fails to report Gross Revenues on a timely basis, Company may estimate Gross Revenues of the Licensed Restaurant for such period and debit Licensee’s bank account the amount of royalties, service fees and Marketing and Production Fund contributions based on the estimate. If Company’s estimate results in an overpayment, Company will deduct the amount of the overpayment from the next month’s payment. Any deficiency resulting from the estimate may be added to the next monthly payment due and debited against Licensee’s bank account. Any deficiency will bear interest as set forth above.
- 2.5. Licensee must notify Company at least 15 days prior to closing or making any change to the account against which such debits are to be made. If for any reason Licensee’s account cannot be debited, Licensee agrees to submit payments by check on or before the due dates set out in this Agreement, for all sums due Company. Licensee agrees to indemnify and hold Company harmless from and against all costs and expenses resulting from any dishonored debit against Licensee’s account or any dishonored check, regardless of whether such dishonor resulted from the act or omission of Licensee or Licensee’s bank; Licensee shall not be obligated to indemnify Company for any dishonored debit or check caused by Company’s negligence.
- 2.6. Company will have the unqualified right at any reasonable time to examine or audit Licensee’s books, records and correspondence and to make copies. If any such examination or audit discloses a deficiency in any payment due Company, Company will give notice of the deficiency to Licensee and Licensee must pay the amount of the deficiency within 10 days of receipt of the notice. In addition, if any audit shows that Gross Revenues of the Licensed Restaurant for any monthly period exceeded the sum reported by Licensee to Company for that period by more than 2%, or if Licensee fails to make its books, records and correspondence available when requested, Licensee must reimburse Company for the reasonable cost of the examination or audit.

3. Initial Payments:

- 3.1. Licensee will, upon its signing of the Franchise Agreement, pay Company an initial portion of the franchise fee of $7,500, unless the fee has been paid pursuant to a separate Area Development Agreement with Company. Upon payment, this fee will be deemed fully earned and is non-refundable.
- 3.2. On or immediately before the start of construction of the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must pay the remaining $22,500 of the franchise fee. If Licensee signs an Area Development Agreement with Company, the amount due for the franchise fee will be paid according to what was agreed to in the Area Development Agreement. This fee will be deemed fully earned and is non-refundable once payment has been made.
- 3.3. Prior to opening the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee, Principal or General Manager; Assistant General Manager; Kitchen Managers (2); and a Guest Services Manager (a total of 5 individuals) must satisfactorily complete Company's initial training program described in Section 20. Licensee must pay Company a management training fee of $15,500 for the training of these 5 individuals. The management training fee is due to Company before any of its managers attend the initial training program. This fee will be deemed fully earned and is non-refundable once payment has been made. If Company is requested to provide the initial training program to additional managers prior to the opening of the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must pay to Company the additional training fees described in Section 20.1. Licensee will be responsible for all travel, living, and other expenses for its managers to attend the initial training program.
- 3.4. In addition to the management training fee or other applicable fee for the initial training program, Licensee must pay Company a training materials fee (currently $200, but subject to change by Company) for each General Manager, Assistant General Manager, Kitchen Manager and Guest Service Manager who attends Company's initial training program. The training materials fee for each of Licensee's managers is due to Company before that manager attends the initial training program. This fee will be deemed fully earned and is non-refundable once payment has been made.
- 3.5. Prior to opening the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must purchase marketing start-up materials from PR Production Fund, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Company. Licensee's packet of materials may vary depending on the size of its Licensed Restaurant and its local market. The cost of these materials is $2,850. This cost will be deemed fully earned and is non-refundable once payment has been made and is not negotiable.

4. Retention of Interests in Proprietary Rights: Licensee and Principal acknowledge the uniqueness of Proprietary Rights, that they have had no part in their creation or development, and they have no prior knowledge of, and no proprietary or other claims in, any part of Proprietary Rights or Licensed Marks. All materials loaned or otherwise made available to Licensee or Principal and all disclosures, including, but not limited to Secret Recipes, Company's know-how and information concerning Company's product standards and methods of operation, made to Licensee or Principal (and not to the general public) must be kept confidential by Licensee and Principal as trade secrets. Ownership of all right, title and interest in and to all goodwill associated with Proprietary Rights and Licensed Marks is and will remain vested solely in Company. All use of Licensed Marks and Proprietary Rights by Licensee and Principal will inure to the benefit of Company and no goodwill in associated Licensed Marks will inure to Licensee or Principal.

5. Control of Name:

- 5.1. Licensee will identify the Licensed Restaurant exclusively by use of the name "Pizza Ranch®" but otherwise will not without the express written consent of Company make any other use of such name. Licensee must not use the name "Pizza Ranch®" or any variation of such name in any assumed name, trade name or corporate name or in any domain name or email address which Licensee may adopt, except as is specifically permitted in writing by Company.

Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee (collectively referred to as "Franchise Owners") acknowledge that they are to receive information in specialized training from Company and during the term of this Agreement, which Company has developed over time and at great expense including but not limited to Proprietary Rights. Franchise Owners further acknowledge that Proprietary Rights are not generally known in the industry and are beyond the Franchise Owners own present skills and experience, and that to develop Proprietary Rights on their own would be expensive, time consuming and difficult. Franchise Owners also acknowledge that Proprietary Rights provide a competitive advantage; that they are valuable to Franchise Owners in the development of their franchise business; and that gaining access to Proprietary Rights is a primary reason for entering into this Agreement.

14.2. In consideration of Company's confidential disclosure of Proprietary Rights, Franchise Owners agree that at no time during the term of this Agreement or at any time thereafter will any of them use Proprietary Rights in connection with any business other than the Licensed Restaurant or disclose any portion of Proprietary Rights whatsoever to any third party except to team members of Licensee as necessary for their training for the operation of the Licensed Restaurant and then only upon taking all necessary steps to maintain the confidentiality of Proprietary Rights and the prevention of further disclosure. Licensee shall not copy or reproduce any documents or materials containing Proprietary Rights. For the avoidance of doubt, Licensee shall not use any of the Proprietary Rights, including our confidential information and proprietary information, for the purpose of machine learning, augmented human intelligence development, training any artificial intelligence (“AI”) model, algorithm improvement, or similar data aggregation activities without Company’s express written consent. Such uses shall not be deemed related to the performance of this Agreement and are expressly prohibited. License shall not, without Company’s prior written consent, input any of the Proprietary Rights into any generative AI platform, or disclose these materials to any provider or source of generative AI services. Licensee shall opt out of allowing any provider or source of generative AI to utilize any of the Proprietary Rights for training of any AI model or for other purposes. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, there may be certain, limited circumstances where applicable law allows for the disclosure of certain Proprietary Rights in limited circumstances, as specified in the Manuals. If Licensee desires additional copies of the Manuals or any portion of the Manuals, Licensee shall request them from Company and pay Company’s then current fee.

15.2. Limited Covenant Against Competitive Activities During Term. During the term of this Agreement, Franchise Owners will not, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person or entity:

15.3. Limited Covenant Against Competitive Activities Post Term. For 24 months after the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of termination, or after the date on which Licensee ceases to operate the Licensed Restaurant following the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement, whichever is later, Franchise Owners will not, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person or entity engage in any of the acts proscribed by Section 15.2, which are incorporated by reference, or otherwise own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, finance or perform any services in any capacity for or have any interest in any restaurant, pizzeria, sandwich shop or food service operation offering principal menu entrees or items which are the same as or similar to those offered at any Restaurant, or any game room, arcade or other similar business that offers arcade games and amusement devices that are the same or similar to those offered at a typical FunZone, at the premises of or within a radius of 10 miles of (i) the Licensed Restaurant, (ii) any existing Restaurant using the Proprietary Rights or (iii) any proposed Restaurant using the Proprietary Rights.

Company has the right to reduce the scope of any of the covenants set forth in this Section 15, without Franchise Owners' consent, effective immediately upon receipt by written notice of Company's election to do so and Franchise Owners will immediately comply with any covenant as so modified.
- 15.5. Court Reduction in Scope of Covenants. If any court or other tribunal having jurisdiction to determine the validity or enforceability of this Section 15 determines that this Section 15, or any part of this Section 15 would be invalid or unenforceable as written, then this Section 15 will be deemed to be modified to the extent or in the manner necessary to be valid and enforceable to the greatest extent possible.
- 15.6. Additional Franchise; Small Ownership of Public Entity. This Section 15 will not prohibit Franchise Owners from operating any other franchise which Company grants or owning less than a 2% beneficial interest of the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held entity.

Licensee shall pay Company a monthly Marketing and Production Fund contribution in an amount determined by Company, but not to exceed 5% of the Gross Revenues of the Licensed Restaurant during the preceding month. Payment of this fee will be considered past due if not received by the 10th day of each month. The current contribution is 2.25% of Gross Revenues. Company will give a 6-month written notice to Licensee before increasing this percentage.

- 16.1.3. Although Company does not profit from the Marketing and Production Fund contributions, Company has no duty to segregate any amounts paid into the Marketing and Production Fund. All Company expenses relating to public relations, advertising and marketing and the production of master copies of advertising, merchandising and promotional materials (including the compensation of Company's team members who render Marketing and Production Fund services) will be paid from the Marketing and Production Fund. Company, in its sole discretion, will determine all content of advertising, merchandising and promotional materials to be produced under the Marketing and Production Fund. Licensee must expend for local and regional advertising, marketing, and business promotion the difference between the amounts paid pursuant to Sections 16.1.2 and up to 5% of the Gross Revenue of the Licensed Restaurant for the preceding month. Currently, we require that you spend the difference between the amounts paid pursuant to Sections 16.1.2 and 3% of Gross Revenue of the Licensed Restaurant for the preceding month. We may increase this amount upon 6 months' notice to you. The advertising will include the items set forth in Section 16.7 below. If Licensee qualifies under an incentive program offered by Company, Company will direct company sponsored funds into the new restaurant marketing program, of which such funds will not count toward any of the required percentage spend as mentioned above.

- 16.4. Promotions. Licensee must participate, at its own expense, in the programs, local, regional or national, relating to sales promotions as may be established by Company, including but not limited to marketing start-up materials, prize contests, sweepstakes, Ranch Rewards, FunZone Rewards for Restaurants with a FunZone, or other company sponsored loyalty programs, coupon programs, posters, give-away items and gift cards. These expenditures, if any, will be in addition to those required in Sections 16.1, 16.2 and 16.3 above.
- 16.5. Advertising Benefit. Licensee acknowledges that the Marketing and Production Fund, local, regional and other advertising and promotions are intended to maximize general public recognition and patronage of the Restaurants in the manner determined to be most effective by Company, and that Company undertakes no obligation in developing, implementing or administering these programs to ensure that expenditures which are proportionate or equivalent to Licensee's contributions are made for the market coverage area of the Licensed Restaurant or that any particular Restaurant will benefit directly or pro rata from the placement of advertising or promotions.
- 16.6. Reports. Company may require to be submitted, within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year of Licensee, a report detailing all amounts expended on advertising for such year. If Licensee has not expended the required amounts on advertising pursuant to this Section 16, Licensee must immediately expend such deficient amounts in such manner and over such time period as Company deems necessary.
- 16.7. Definitions of Certain Advertising and Marketing Terms. Licensee agrees that the following terms shall be defined as specified.
- 16.7.1. Advertising and media - the direct costs of media for television, radio, newspaper and print, outdoor (billboard or transit), door hanging, telephone directory advertising, including any Internet based advertising and direct mail, including space or time charges, agency planning, selection, placement and production; the direct costs of in-store materials, including window signs, counter signs and other promotional signs.

- 16.8. Costs Excluded From Advertising and Marketing. Licensee understands and agrees that costs or expenses incurred in connection with any of the following will not satisfy the requirements of Sections 16.1, 16.2 and 16.3 above, and Licensee must not include in its report of the amounts expended on advertising and marketing, any costs or expenses incurred in connection with any of the following:
- 16.8.1. Incentive programs, including the cost of honoring coupons;

16.8.3. Food costs for promotions;

16.8.9. Such other items as Company determines in its reasonable discretion in writing.

16.9. Company's Prior Approval; Website and Local Advertising. All advertising and promotions are subject to Company's prior written approval and will be designed and produced in such a way and in accordance with Company's procedures to protect Company's Proprietary Property. Licensee will not develop, own or operate any website, webpage, domain name, email address or other identification of the Restaurant using the Licensed Marks or otherwise referring to the Licensed Restaurant or the products or services sold at Restaurants (the "Website") without Company's prior written approval. The restrictions on your advertising in this Section include any electronic medium for communication, including websites, webpages, email, texting, blogs and social networking sites. All content of a Website is deemed to be advertising and must comply with the requirements Company establishes for websites in the Manuals or otherwise. If Company requires, you will establish the Website as part of Company's website(s) Company or the Marketing and Production Fund or Company's designee establish. Licensee will establish electronic links to Company's website(s) or any other website Company designates. All local advertising, including electronic or website advertising, must be targeted to Licensee's Territory. Licensee must obtain Company's prior written approval to direct any advertising outside of Licensee's Territory.

17. Indemnification: Licensee agrees, during and after the term of this Agreement, to indemnify and hold Company harmless from all judgments, settlements, fines, suits, proceedings, claims, demands, liabilities, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, and interest on such fees, costs and expenses) or actions of any kind or nature, from any person or entity, arising or otherwise connected with Licensee's construction or operation of the Licensed Restaurant, including without limitation Licensee's or Licensee's employee's actions or inaction, whether or not related to or involving Company's negligence or performance or nonperformance of any obligations under this Agreement. If any liability is asserted against Company with respect to which Company is entitled to an indemnity under this section, Company must give Licensee prompt written notice of the assertion of such liability. Licensee must then, if requested by Company, take charge of the disposition of the asserted liability including compromise or the conduct of litigation, at Licensee's expense, including attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, and any interest on such fees, costs, and expenses (except that any such compromise must require Company's prior approval which will not be unreasonably withheld). If Licensee does not, through counsel satisfactory to Company, take charge of the disposition of the asserted liability if requested, Company may take charge of the disposition of such liability, but any failure by Company to do so will not adversely affect Company's right to indemnity under this section. If Licensee, through counsel satisfactory to Company, takes charge of the disposition of the asserted liability, Company, at its own expense, may retain its own counsel and share in the conduct of any litigation, but any failure by Company to do so will not adversely affect Company's right to indemnity under this section.

18. Insurance Coverages:

- 18.1. During the term of this Agreement and any renewal, Licensee must maintain in full force and effect the following insurance: (i) fire, extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief; (ii) comprehensive general liability insurance, including food products liability insurance; (iii) motor vehicle liability insurance (including, but not limited to motor vehicle liability coverage for the operation of motor vehicles not owned by Licensee but used in the business operation of the restaurant by hired team members); (iv) worker's compensation insurance as required by law; and (v) all other insurance required by law (including applicable alcoholic beverage laws) or by Company. All of the foregoing policies of insurance must contain coverages and limits as described by Company from time-to-time in the Manuals.
- 18.2. Each policy must be issued by an insurer reasonably satisfactory to Company, must name Company and Licensee as insureds and must provide that it will not be cancelled without 30 days' prior written notice to Company. The general liability insurance must insure Company, Licensee and the officers and team members of each of them against any liability for personal injury, death or property damage arising or occurring upon or in connection with the Licensed Restaurant or by reason of Licensee's operation upon or occupancy of the Licensed Restaurant, whether the injury occurs, or the cause arises on or off the site of the Licensed Restaurant. If Licensee does not use a Company approved insurance plan, a fee will be charged for an outside consultant to review the adequacy of the Licensee's insurance coverage. If Licensee fails to maintain the required insurance, Company has the right, but not the obligation, to obtain the required insurance and charge Licensee for it, together with a fee for Company's expenses, which will be payable immediately upon request.
- 18.3. At least 10 days before the Licensed Restaurant opens, and annually thereafter (at least 10 days before each anniversary date of the opening), Licensee must furnish to Company endorsements or other proof of insurance Company requires evidencing that Licensee has obtained and is maintaining in force all required insurance policies.
- 18.4. Licensee's obligation to obtain and maintain these insurance policies in the amounts specified shall not be limited in any way by reason of any insurance that Company may maintain, nor does Licensee's procurement of required insurance relieve Licensee of liability under the indemnity obligations described in Section 17. Licensee's insurance procurement obligations under this Section are separate and independent of Licensee's indemnity obligations. Company does not represent or warrant that any insurance that Licensee is required to purchase will provide adequate coverage for Licensee. The requirements of insurance specified in this Agreement are for Company's protection. Licensee should consult with its own insurance agents, brokers, attorneys and other insurance advisors to determine the level of insurance protection it needs and desires, in addition to the coverage and limits required by Company.

Licensee will not pay a transfer fee for an assignment under this Section.
- 19.3. By Licensee or Principals. Licensee understands and acknowledges that the rights and duties created by this Agreement are personal to Licensee or its Principals and that Company has granted the franchise in reliance upon the skill aptitude, attitude, business ability and financial capacity of Licensee or its Principals. Accordingly, Licensee and its Principals will not, without the express written consent of Company, assign or otherwise transfer to any person any part of Licensee's interest under this Agreement, the assets of the Licensed Restaurant, or the ownership interests in Licensee if Licensee is a corporation or other entity.
- 19.4. Conditions For Approval of Transfer: If Licensee is in full compliance with this Agreement, Company shall not unreasonably withhold its approval of a transfer, provided that the proposed transferee meets Company's applicable standards for Licensees, and all of the following conditions are met:
- 19.4.1. All obligations of Licensee or its Principals incurred in connection with this Agreement have been assumed by the assignee;
- 19.4.2. Licensee shall have paid such royalty and service fees, advertising contributions, amounts owed for purchases by Licensee from the Company and its affiliates and any other amounts owed to Company or its affiliates which are then due and unpaid;
- 19.4.3. The assignee or at least one of its Principals shall complete the training program required of new Licensees;

- 19.4.4. The assignee and its Principal have executed and agreed to be bound by Company's then-existing Franchise Agreement which shall provide for the same fees, and advertising contributions required and a term equal to the remaining term of this Agreement;

- 19.4.7. Licensee or the assignee shall have paid a transfer and training fee to the Company in an amount equal to $10,000, unless such fee is waived by the Company;
- 19.4.8. Licensee and its Principals shall have executed a general release in a form satisfactory to the Company of all claims against Company and its affiliates, officers, directors, team members and agents.
- 19.4.9. Company may expand upon, and provide more details related to, the conditions for transfer and Company's consent as described in this Section 19.4, and may do so in the Manuals or otherwise in writing.
- 19.5. Company's Right of Refusal. If Licensee or its Principals shall at any time decide to sell an interest in this Agreement, the assets of the Licensed Restaurant or an ownership interest in Licensee, Licensee shall first obtain a bona fide, executed written offer from a responsible and fully disclosed purchaser and shall submit an exact copy of such offer to Company. Company shall have the right, exercisable by written notice delivered to Licensee within 45 days from the date of delivery of a copy of the offer to the Company, to purchase such interest in this Agreement, the assets of the Licensed Restaurant or such ownership interest in Licensee for the price and on the terms and conditions contained in such offer. If Company does not exercise its right of first refusal, Licensee or its Principals may complete the sale to such purchaser pursuant to and on the terms of such offer, subject to the Company's approval of the purchaser as provided above in this section, provided that if the sale to such purchaser is not completed within 120 days after delivery of such offer to the Company, or there is a material change in the terms of the sale, the Company shall again have the right of first refusal provided. The failure of Company to exercise its rights under this Section 19.5 shall not affect Company's rights to consent to an assignment as set forth in this Section 19 above.
- 19.6. Transfer Upon Death or Incapacity. In the event of death, disability or permanent incapacity of Licensee or its Principals, Company will not unreasonably withhold its consent to the transfer of all of the interest of Licensee to Licensee's spouse or relatives by blood or marriage, whether such transfer is made by will or by law, provided that the requirements of Section 19.3 have been met. In the event Licensee's heirs do not obtain the consent of Company as prescribed, the executor, administrator, conservator or other personal representative of Licensee will have 6 months to dispose of the ownership interest subject, however, to all of the terms and conditions on transfers under this Agreement.

- 19.7. Transfer of Ownership Interest. If Licensee is a corporation, limited liability or other entity, it will be deemed a violation of this section if, without Company's prior written consent, there is a change in or transfer of any ownership interest in Licensee, or Licensee merges or consolidates with any other entity even if Licensee is the surviving entity. If Licensee is a corporation or limited liability company, the stock certificates or membership interests of Licensee must bear an appropriate, conspicuous legend substantially as follows: "The transfer of this stock [membership interest] is subject to the terms and conditions of a Franchise Agreement between Pizza Ranch, Inc. and the corporation [limited liability company] dated _____, 20____. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the corporation or Certificate of Organization and Operating Agreement of the limited liability should contain language to reflect the transfer restrictions set out in this section. Licensee will provide copies of the entity's governing documents to evidence compliance with these requirements.

This additional training fee is due to Company before any of its managers attend the initial training program. However, if Company provides this training at the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must pay Company a non-refundable additional training fee

Upon the occurrence of any one or more of the events of default set forth below, and upon Licensee's failure to cure said event of default within 30 days after the Company sends written notice stating the event of default, Company may at its option terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Licensee, and this Agreement will then immediately terminate. Licensee shall have only 2 opportunities to cure, as to any or all of the events of default listed below in this Section 22.2, in any successive 12-month period, and upon the third event of default in any successive 12-month period, Licensee shall have no right to cure. Each notice sent by Company providing the opportunity to cure one or more events of default listed in this Section 22.2 shall constitute one opportunity to cure for the purpose of this Section; provided, however, that nothing shall limit the number, frequency, or contents of notices Company may send for any or all of the events of default listed below in this Section 22.2. Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to determine whether or how Licensee may cure any of the events of default listed below in this Section 22.2 to Company's satisfaction, including the right to determine that an event of default cannot be cured due to its historical or completed nature or because it goes to the essence of the parties' relationship. In the event Company determines, in its sole discretion, that any of the following events of default listed below in this Section 22.2 cannot be remedied due to their past or completed nature, Company may allow Licensee to cure such default by causing it not to occur again within 30 days after Company sends written notice stating the event of default, and if such default does occur again during that time, then Licensee shall have failed to cure it. For purposes of this Section 22.2, the following will be considered events of default:

- 22.2.1. If any court of record finally adjudicates that the obligations provided for in any such Section are unreasonable or otherwise inappropriate, the obligation will be modified to whatever extent the court deems reasonable and appropriate and such obligation will be enforced as modified. Licensees will be liable to Company for all expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining such relief, including the costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs and attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest). If the premises of the Licensed Restaurant are owned by Licensee or an affiliate, and this Agreement is terminated or expires, Company shall have the right to require Licensee or its affiliate, as applicable, to promptly enter into a lease with Company or Company's designee for the premises of the Licensed Restaurant, which lease shall be on commercially reasonable terms, including then-current market rates, and shall be for a term of 10 years, unless the parties to the proposed lease agree otherwise;

23.1.3. Licensee must immediately and permanently cease to use, by advertising or in any manner whatsoever, any confidential methods, procedures and techniques associated with Proprietary Rights, including, without limitation, any written materials provided to Licensee by Company, the Licensed Mark and any other proprietary marks and distinctive slogans, signs, or logos associated with Company. In particular, Licensee must cease to use, without limitation, all signs, advertising materials, stationery, forms, paper products, and any other articles which display the proprietary marks;

In the event that Company requires Licensee to assign its lease pursuant to this Section 23, Licensee must execute such documents and do such other acts as may be necessary to permit Company or its designee, at Company's option, to assume the telephone number and listing, receive mail, and otherwise commence operations immediately at the location of the Licensed Restaurant;

23.1.5. In the event that Licensee is permitted to and does remain in business at the premises of the Licensed Restaurant, Licensee must make such modifications or alterations to the premises (including without limitation, obtaining a new telephone number) immediately upon termination or expiration of this Agreement as may be necessary to distinguish the appearance of the premises from that of any other premises of other Restaurant, and must make such specific additional changes as Company may reasonably request for that purpose so that the premises are completely de-identified with the Pizza Ranch® franchise system to Company's satisfaction;

In the event the Licensee ceases to conduct business on the premises for any reason, Licensee must, upon the cessation of business, make sufficient alterations to the premises immediately to distinguish the appearance of the premises from that of any other premises licensed by Company, so that the premises are completely de-identified with the Pizza Ranch® franchise system to Company's satisfaction. This must include, but in no way be limited to, taking down all signage bearing any proprietary marks of Company;

In the event that Licensee fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this Section 23, Company will have the right to enter upon the premises where Licensee's franchised business was conducted without being guilty of trespass or any other tort, for the purpose of making or causing to be made such changes as may be required, at the expense of Licensee, which expense Licensee agrees to pay upon demand, and Licensee hereby consents to any such entry;

- 23.1.6. Licensee agrees, in the event it continues to operate or subsequently begins to operate any other business, not to use any reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of Licensed Marks, either in connection with such other business or in the promotion thereof, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake or deception, or which is likely to dilute Company's exclusive rights in and to the Licensed Marks, and further agrees not to utilize any designation of origin or description or representation which falsely suggests or represents an association or connection with Company or its system.
- 23.1.7. Licensee must pay upon demand all sums owing to Company. In the event of termination for any default of Licensee, such sums will include all damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest) incurred by Company as a result of the default and termination, which obligation will give rise to and remain, until paid in full, a lien in favor of Company against any and all of the personal property, fixtures, equipment and inventory owned by Licensee at the premises used for the Licensed Restaurant at the time of default.
- 23.1.8. Licensee must pay to Company all damages, costs, and expenses including reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest) incurred by Company subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement granted in obtaining injunctive or other relief for the enforcement of any provision of this Section 23.
- 23.1.9. Licensee must immediately turn over to Company the Manuals, all other manuals, confidential or proprietary software or related documentation provided to Licensee by Company, all records, files, instructions, correspondence, and brochures, and all other materials relating to the operation of the Licensed Restaurant in Licensee's possession, custody or control, and all copies thereof, (all of which are acknowledged to be Company's property), and retain no copy or record of the foregoing, excepting only Licensee's copy of this Agreement and of any correspondence between the parties and any other documents which Licensee reasonably needs for compliance with any provision of law.

23.1.10. Immediately upon termination or expiration, Licensee and Company will arrange for an inventory to be made, at Licensee's cost and expense, of all inventory, supplies, fixtures and equipment of Licensee related to the operation of the Licensed Restaurant. Company will have the right (but not the obligation) to exercise by notice of intent to do so within 30 days after termination or expiration, to purchase for cash any or all equipment, supplies, inventory, signs, advertising materials, and items bearing Licensed Marks, at the lesser of Licensee's cost or fair market value (less the amount of any outstanding liens or encumbrances). If the parties cannot agree on fair market value within a reasonable time, a qualified independent appraiser will be designated by the parties, and his determination will be binding. If the parties are unable to agree upon an independent appraiser, each party must designate a qualified independent appraiser, and the fair market value will be the average of the 2 determinations thereof by the 2 independent appraisers. If Company elects to exercise any option to purchase herein provided, it will have the right to set off all amounts due from Licensee and the cost of the appraisal, if any, against any payment. Each party will bear the cost of the appraiser it appoints; the parties will share equally the cost of any independent appraiser they mutually appoint. Licensee will cease use of all of Company's proprietary products.

23.1.11. Licensee must take such action as may be necessary to cancel any assumed or fictitious name or equivalent registration which contains the mark "Pizza Ranch®" or any other Licensed Mark of Company, and Licensee must furnish Company with evidence satisfactory to Company of compliance with this obligation within 10 days after termination or expiration of this Agreement.

23.1.12. Licensee must comply with all provisions of this Agreement which explicitly or implicitly concern Licensee's obligations after termination, including without limitation, the covenants contained in Sections 4, 5, 14, 15 and 23 of this Agreement.

23.1.13. All covenants, obligations and agreements of Licensee which by their terms or by reasonable implication are to be performed, in whole or in part, after the termination or expiration of this Agreement, will survive such termination or expiration.

24. Term of Agreement: Unless terminated under other provisions, this Agreement will be effective and binding from the date of its execution and will expire 10 years from the date on which the Licensed Restaurant is first opened for business under the terms of this Agreement; but the term of this Agreement will be and remain subject to a renewal as set forth in Section 25. Company may prepare and deliver to Licensee a certificate in order to memorialize the date on which the Licensed Restaurant first opened for business and the resulting expiration date of this Agreement. Licensee will sign and return the requested certificate within 14 days after request. If Licensee fails to sign and return the certificate within the 14-day period, Licensee will be conclusively deemed to have agreed that the information in the certificate is accurate and Licensee will have waived any right to object to the accuracy of the information unless Company has, during the 14-day period, received written notice from Licensee objecting to the information and describing in detail Licensee's reasons for so objecting.

25. Renewal of Franchise: Upon the expiration of the initial term of this Agreement, Licensee will have 2 renewal options to extend the license, each for an additional period of 10 years upon the following terms and conditions for each such period:

- 25.1. Neither Licensee or Principal are in default of any of the material terms and conditions in this Agreement, in the Manuals or any terms, conditions or covenants of any other agreements between Company and Licensee and Licensee or Principal;
- 25.2. Licensee and Principal must not have had more than an aggregate of 10 events of material default occur over the term of this Agreement, nor more than 3 events of material default occur within the last 2 years of the term of this Agreement;
- 25.3. Licensee and Principal must attend and satisfactorily complete such retraining or refresher training program as Company may reasonably require, in its sole discretion, at such time and place prior to the expiration of this Agreement as Company may reasonably designate;
- 25.4. Licensee performs such remodeling, repairs, replacements, redecoration or relocation as Company may require to cause the Licensed Restaurant, equipment, fixtures, furnishings and furniture to conform to the Standard Specifications being used for new or remodeled Restaurants on the renewal date;
- 25.5. Licensee and Principal execute then-current standard Franchise Agreement being used by Company, which may include materially different terms and may modify the Territory in the event of population or geographic changes within the market where the Restaurant is located;
- 25.6. Licensee and Principal sign Company's then current release of claims form; and
- 25.7. Licensee pays to Company a renewal fee of $2,500, which payment is due in full on or before the renewal date. Licensee will be invoiced for this amount, and if not paid in 30 days, Company has the right to debit Licensee's bank account for this amount.

26. Name Conflict:

- 26.1. Licensee shall promptly notify Company of any unauthorized use of the Licensed Marks or other Proprietary Rights or of any colorable imitation of the Licensed Marks or other Proprietary Rights. Licensee shall also cooperate in the prosecution or defense of any action Company undertakes related to the Licensed Marks or other Proprietary Rights and will render any assistance Company thinks is reasonably required to assist in this prosecution or defense, at Company's expense (except the cost of your separate counsel), unless the action is due to Licensee's conduct, acts or omissions. Company shall take reasonable efforts to protect and defend the Licensed Marks.
- 26.2. From time to time Company may, through changes in the Manuals or by other notice to Licensee, change, add or cease to use any of the Licensed Marks applicable to the operation of the Licensed Restaurant and may require Licensee to change the name of the Licensed Restaurant to a name of Company's choice by giving Licensee a 60-day written notice of such name change. Licensee shall take all actions, at Licensee's expense, to implement these changes by the date or dates Company directs.

27. Dispute Resolution:

- 27.1. Governing Law. This Agreement takes effect when accepted and executed by Company in Iowa. This Agreement will be construed under the laws of the State of Iowa and any dispute between the parties will be governed by and determined in accordance with the substantive law of the State of Iowa, which laws will prevail in the event of any conflict of law; except Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee will not be entitled to any rights under any franchise registration or disclosure law or any franchise relationship law of the State of Iowa unless the Licensed Restaurant is located in the State of Iowa or the jurisdictional requirement of the law is otherwise met without reference to the choice of law provision in this Section. If Company moves its corporate headquarters, Company will have the option of determining that the substantive law of the state to which Company moves will replace all references to Iowa law in this Agreement, or of continuing to have Iowa law apply. If Company chooses to have the law of the new state apply, Company will notify all franchisees within 6 months of Company's move, and the chosen law will apply to all franchisees; except any franchise registration or disclosure law or any franchise relationship law of the new state will only apply where the jurisdictional requirements of the law are otherwise met.
- 27.2. Forum. Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee acknowledge that they have and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with Company at Company's offices in the State of Iowa, where Company's decision-making authority is vested, and franchise operations are conducted and supervised. Except for Company's right to obtain injunctive relief in any appropriate forum, any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement will be commenced, conducted and concluded only in a state or federal court of general jurisdiction in the State of Iowa for the district or county in which Company's headquarters are then located, unless otherwise not allowed by the state law in which the Licensed Restaurant is located. Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of these courts, waive any objection they may have to either the jurisdiction or venue of these courts and agree not to argue that these courts are inconvenient forums. If Company moves its corporate headquarters, Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee acknowledge that they will have a substantial and continuing relationship with Company in the state to which Company moves and that any references to Iowa in this Section will be deemed to be references to the new state.
- 27.3. Injunctive Relief; Declaratory Relief. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in this Agreement will prevent Company from obtaining injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction for Licensee's, Principal's and Other Owners of Licensee's unauthorized use of Company's trademark, or for violation of any of the covenants of Sections 4, 5, 14, 15, 19 and 23 of this Agreement, without the need to show actual or threatened harm or to post a bond or other security, nor will Company be obligated to pursue any informal resolution of these claims before seeking injunctive relief. Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee will be liable to Company for all expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining such relief, including the costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs and attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest). This remedy will be in addition to any other remedies Company may have under this Agreement, including the right to terminate this Agreement.

- 27.4. NO CLASS PROCEEDINGS. LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE AGREE TO LITIGATE EACH DISPUTE WITH COMPANY ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS. LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE WILL NOT CONSOLIDATE ANY DISPUTE WITH A CLAIM OF ANY OTHER FRANCHISEE, INDIVIDUAL, OR ENTITY, AND WILL NOT PURSUE ANY CLASS CLAIMS IN ANY MEDIATION, ARBITRATION, OR LITIGATION FORUM THAT ARISE OUT OF OR RELATE TO THIS AGREEMENT.
- 27.5. ONLY THE COMPANY ENTITY HAS ANY LIABILITY. LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE MAY SEEK DAMAGES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY REMEDY UNDER LAW OR EQUITY ONLY AGAINST COMPANY'S BUSINESS ENTITY. LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE AGREE THAT COMPANY'S AFFILIATES AND COMPANY'S AND COMPANY'S AFFILIATES' RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, LIMITED PARTNERS, GENERAL PARTNERS, SHAREHOLDERS, INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS AND TEAM MEMBERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE AND MAY NOT BE NAMED AS A PARTY IN ANY LITIGATION, ARBITRATION OR OTHER PROCEEDING COMMENCED BY LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE IF THE CLAIM ARISES OUT OF OR RELATES TO THIS AGREEMENT. LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE FURTHER AGREE THAT ALL OF THE FOREGOING PARTIES ARE INTENDED BENEFICIARIES OF THIS CLAUSE.
- 27.6. NO PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES. A COURT MAY AWARD INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AS WELL AS DAMAGES, BUT WILL HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO AWARD PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES.
- 27.7. JURY TRIAL WAIVER. COMPANY AND LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE, RESPECTIVELY, WAIVE ANY RIGHT COMPANY, LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE MIGHT HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY ON ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER. COMPANY AND LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE, RESPECTIVELY, EACH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT COMPANY AND LICENSEE, PRINCIPAL AND OTHER OWNERS OF LICENSEE, RESPECTIVELY HAVE HAD A FULL OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL CONCERNING THIS WAIVER, AND THAT THIS WAIVER IS INFORMED, VOLUNTARY, INTENTIONAL AND NOT THE RESULT OF UNEQUAL BARGAINING POWER.
- 27.8. Survival. Licensee and Company acknowledge and agree that this Section 27 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

28. Notices and Addresses:

28.1. Notice. Any notice or other communication required under this Agreement will be in writing and may be personally delivered or delivered by a nationally recognized overnight courier service or mailed by registered or certified mail. Notices will be sent to the parties at their respective addresses listed below unless a different address has been designated in writing. Notices will become effective upon receipt except any notice by certified or registered mail is deemed to have been given at the date and time of mailing with adequate postage paid.

28.2. Mailing Addresses.

28.2.1. Company's and Licensee's initial designated mailing addresses are the following addresses:

Pizza Ranch, Inc.
Attn.: President
204 19th Street SE
Orange City, Iowa 51041

Licensee

Principal/Other Owners of Licensee

28.2.2. Company and Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee may from time to time change their respective designated mailing addresses by an express written notice of such change given by one to the other at its then most recently designated mailing address.

29. Guaranty of Payment. The Principal, and Other Owners of Licensee joining in the execution of this Agreement, jointly and severally, guarantee the payment of Licensee of all indebtedness of any kind of Licensee to Company and agree to sign the guaranty included in Exhibit 3 to this Agreement ("Guaranty Agreement"). This guaranty shall not be affected by any forbearance of extension that Company may grant Licensee.

30. Severability of Provisions. Should any provision of this Agreement be for any reason held invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision shall be deemed restricted in application to the extent required to render it valid, and the remainder of this Agreement shall in no way be affected and shall remain valid and enforceable for all purposes. If any applicable law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater notice of the termination of or election not to renew this Agreement, or the taking of some other action with respect to the termination or election not to renew than is required in this Agreement, the prior notice or other action required by law or rule will be substituted for the notice of other action required in this Agreement.

31. Whole Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement and any attachments constitute the complete and integrated agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements; no other representations have induced Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee to execute this Agreement except Licensee, Principal and Other Owners may rely on Company's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document (the "FDD") Company delivered in connection with this Agreement. No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in, attached to or specifically referenced in this Agreement or in the FDD were made by either party and none will have any effect with reference to this Agreement. No change in this Agreement will be binding on either party unless it is mutually agreed to in writing. The BACKGROUND Section at the beginning of this Agreement contains contractual terms that are not mere recitals. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall be deemed to be one and the same agreement. A signed or electronically signed copy of this Agreement delivered by facsimile, e-mail or other means of electronic transmission shall be deemed to have the same legal effect as delivery of an original signed copy of this Agreement. The use of the term "including" in this Agreement shall mean "including without limitation."

32. Relationship of Company and Licensee: This Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between Company and Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee. Licensee will be and remain an independent contractor under this Agreement without any expressed or implied authority or power as agent or otherwise to act for or bind Company, and Company will have no liability or other responsibility to Licensee or to any other person or persons for financial or other commercial success of Licensee. Although Licensee must comply with this Agreement and Company's Proprietary Rights, Licensee will have full and complete control of the manner in which Licensee complies and full and complete control of the day-to-day operation and performance of its obligations under this Agreement, the operation of the Licensed Restaurant and Licensee's business policies and practices.
33. Acknowledgments: Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee, jointly and severally make the following warranties, representations, agreements and acknowledgments to Company:
- 33.1. They are entering into this Agreement after having conducted an independent investigation of the business franchised and Company's operations and all facts, they deem relevant. They acknowledge that no salesperson, representative or other person has made any representation regarding the actual or potential sales, income or profit from franchised or company or affiliate-owned Restaurants other than what is stated in Item 19 of Company's Franchise Disclosure Document, except as permitted as described in Item 19 relating to (1) the actual records of an existing outlet they considered buying; or (2) a supplement to the information provided in Item 19.
- 33.2. All information and materials, including all financial statements and business plans they provided to Company individually or collectively are true and correct and complete to the best knowledge of the persons providing the materials, and all assets listed on their respective financial statements and business plans are available to satisfy their obligations arising under this Agreement.
- 33.3. Neither they, nor any person or entity with an ownership interest in the franchise, nor any officer, director, manager, member or employee of theirs or of these other persons or entities or of any affiliate or theirs, is, or at any time will be named, either directly or by an alias or nickname, on the list of Specially Designated Nationals or Blocked Persons, which includes the names of suspected terrorists, as designated by the United States Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, available at <http://www.ustreas.gov/offices/eotffc/ofac/sdn/index.html>. They acknowledge that Company intends to comply, and they must comply, with all prohibitions against corrupt business practices, money laundering and support of terrorist activities, including those contained in the United States Patriot Act (available at <http://www.epic.org/privacy/terrorism/hr3162.html>), Executive Order 13224 (available at <http://www.treas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/legal/eo/13224.pdf>), and related United States Treasury regulations and any similar law ("Anti-Terrorism Law"). They will immediately notify Company of any misrepresentation or breach of this Section. Company may terminate this Agreement without any opportunity for cure as provided in Section 22.1 upon any misrepresentation or breach of this Section.

- 33.4. They acknowledge receipt of this Agreement, with all blanks completed and with any amendments and exhibits, at least 7 calendar days before they signed this Agreement, except differences that were a result of negotiated changes they requested and had an opportunity to review before signing this Agreement. They also acknowledge that they received Company's Franchise Disclosure Document at least 14 calendar days (and at least 10 business days in Michigan) before they signed this Agreement or paid Company any monies, refundable or otherwise, or earlier in the sales process if they requested it. They also acknowledge that before furnishing a Franchise Disclosure Document to them, Company or its agent advised them of the formats in which the Franchise Disclosure Document is made available and any prerequisites for obtaining and conditions necessary for reviewing the Franchise Disclosure Document in a particular format.
- 33.5. They acknowledge Company has the right to use information they provide Company or which concerns them for business purposes relating to the administration of this Agreement and the Marketing and Production Fund and the operation of the System. This information includes their name, business or home address, business or home telephone number, email address, financial information and business records. Company may disclose all or a portion of this information to vendors, the Marketing and Production Fund, the Advertising Cooperative, any purchasing cooperative or corporation, prospective franchisees, existing franchisees, governmental authorities and others for legitimate business purposes. They acknowledge Company will disclose certain information in Company's Franchise Disclosure Document as required by federal or state laws and regulations. Company will also honor validly served subpoenas, warrants and court orders. They also acknowledge that circumstances may arise when Company deems it advisable to conduct an investigative background search on them. They authorize Company or Company's designee to conduct an investigative background search, which may reveal information about business experience, education, criminal record, civil judgments, property ownership, liens, association with other individuals, creditworthiness, job performance and other matters.
- 33.6. THEY ACKNOWLEDGE THEY HAVE READ THIS AGREEMENT AND THEY WOULD NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT IF THEY DID NOT UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS.

Alternate channels of distribution shall include, but are not limited to, sales of products offered under the Licensed Marks at or through, grocery stores, supermarkets, catering services, theme parks, institutional feeding facilities, military bases, airports, stadiums, arenas, gas stations, and sales of products by mail order or catalog business or via the Internet, and any similar outlets or distribution methods as Company shall determine. This Agreement grants Licensee no rights to develop any location except a traditional Restaurant nor to distribute products through other channels of distribution. Licensee has no right to share, nor does it expect to share, in any of the proceeds received by Company or any other party in connection with the other channels of distribution.

- 1.2. Procedure: The following will govern the course and order of development under this Agreement:

- 1.2.1. Licensee will complete development of and open and maintain in business not fewer than _____ () Restaurants ("Licensed Restaurants") as specified in Exhibit "2" attached (Development Timeline).

The protected territory for each restaurant developed under this agreement will be defined pending execution of a Franchise Agreement which will more fully describe the parties' respective rights and obligations, and which will supersede this Agreement once signed; the Franchise Agreement will define the protected territory within the Development Territory.

- 1.2.2. Licensee must obtain Company's written approval of the sites for the Licensed Restaurants to be developed under this Agreement and commence and complete development of each Licensed Restaurant in time to meet the development quota contained in Section 1.1.1. Company will use commercially reasonable best efforts to assist Licensee in evaluating possible sites submitted for the Licensed Restaurants. Company will make up to 3 visits to Licensee's proposed site to assist with the site selection process at no charge to Licensee. If Licensee requests Company to make additional site visits, and Company agrees, Licensee must pay the reasonable travel and other expenses including Company's then current standard per diem fee associated with such visits. LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT NEITHER COMPANY'S APPROVAL OF, NOR ITS ASSISTANCE WITH REGARD TO, THE SELECTION OR DEVELOPMENT OF THE SITE CONSTITUTES A REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY OR GUARANTY BY COMPANY THAT THE SITE CHOSEN BY LICENSEE WILL BE A SUCCESSFUL LOCATION FOR THE LICENSED RESTAURANT, AND LICENSEE ASSUMES ALL RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE PROFITABILITY OF THE SITE.

1.2.3. Company and Licensee will enter into a Franchise Agreement when the site is approved for each Licensed Restaurant and Licensee will pay the initial franchise fee at the commencement of construction of each Licensed Restaurant throughout the term of this Agreement, provided that Company does not have to enter into a Franchise Agreement unless Licensee is in substantial compliance with this Agreement and all other Franchise Agreements with Company.

1.2.4. Licensee will have no rights after termination of this Agreement for exclusive or nonexclusive development to any locations within the Development Area for which no Franchise Agreement has been signed by Licensee as required by this Agreement.

2. Location Approval:

2.1. Licensee will, throughout the term of this Agreement submit to Company for its prior written approval the location of each proposed Licensed Restaurant and Licensee will, with timeliness adequate to assure the commencement of development of the first Licensed Restaurant, promptly submit to Company for its prior written approval the location of one or more first proposed Licensed Restaurants.

2.2. Company will promptly advise Licensee of its approval or disapproval of each Licensed Restaurant location so designated and proposed by Licensee, and Company will not unreasonably withhold such approval.

3. Charges and Fees: Licensee will pay Company the following fees:

3.1. Development Fee: Licensee will upon the effective date of this Agreement pay to Company a nonrefundable fee as specified in Exhibit "3" (the "Development Fee").

3.2. Franchise Fee for Agreement: During the term of this Agreement and each extension, Licensee will at the issuance of each Franchise Agreement pay Company the full initial franchise fee in the amount of $30,000 with a reduction or offset on account of the amount allocated to each potential site in the computation of the Development Fee as specified in Exhibit "3".

4. Representations and Limitations: The following representations will apply to this Agreement.
 - 4.1. Company Representations: Company represents to Licensee that it has the exclusive right to license Pizza Ranch restaurants in the Development Area and it will discharge and perform all of its service and other obligations under this Agreement and under each Franchise Agreement issued.
 - 4.2. Licensee Representation: Licensee represents to Company that it has the capacity and will otherwise discharge and perform all of its development and other obligations under this Agreement and under each Franchise Agreement signed by Licensee.
 - 4.3. Control of Name: Licensee will not without the express written consent of the Company make any use whatever of the name, "Pizza Ranch" or any other Licensed Marks, or the Proprietary Rights, except to the extent permitted or required each Franchise Agreement entered into between the parties.
5. Transfer: This Agreement will be subject to the following limitations on transfer:
 - 5.1. Transfer by Company: Company will have the right to assign to any other person all or part of its interest under this Agreement.
 - 5.2. Transfer by Licensee: Except as set forth in this Agreement, Licensee's rights under this Agreement are personal, and Licensee will not, without the express written consent of Company, involuntarily or voluntarily assign or otherwise transfer to any person any part of its interests under this Agreement. Any unauthorized transfer shall be void and shall subject this Agreement to termination.
6. Term of Agreement: Unless sooner terminated as provided in this Agreement, this Agreement will be in effect for a term beginning with the effective date of this Agreement and ending as stipulated in the Development Timeline outlined in Exhibit "2". The parties may extend the term of this Agreement only by an express written agreement.
7. Termination:
 - 7.1. Immediate Termination. Upon the occurrence of any 1 or more of the events of default set forth below, Company may, at its option, give Licensee a notice of termination of this Agreement stating the event of default and upon the giving of such notice this Agreement will immediately terminate:
 - 7.1.1. Licensee fails to obtain written site approval, and/or sign a Franchise Agreement and pay the initial franchise fee, commence development, effect completion of and open the first Licensed Restaurant and thereafter, each additional Licensed Restaurant within the time periods required under Section 1.2.
 - 7.1.2. Licensee or Principal gives a voluntary petition or application under the Bankruptcy Code or any state insolvency or similar law seeking to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, seeking a corporate reorganization, if Licensee is a corporation, or seeking other relief under the Bankruptcy Code or any state insolvency or similar law; or any other person files a petition or application seeking to have the Licensee or Principal adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or if Licensee is a corporation, for corporate reorganization, or seeking other relief against the Licensee or Principal under the Bankruptcy Code or any state insolvency or similar law, and the petition or application is not dismissed within 45 days after it is filed.

7.1.3. Licensee or Principal makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

7.1.4. A levy of execution is made upon the license granted hereunder.

7.1.5. Licensee or Principal makes a material misrepresentation or omission in connection with the application for the development rights granted under this Agreement or any renewal, or any of representations and warranties do not remain true throughout the term of this Agreement, including any representations regarding financial status and representations under Section 4.2.

7.1.6. Licensee, Principal or any franchise owner breaches any of the covenants set forth in Section 4.3.

7.1.7. Licensee, Principal or any other owner of Licensee is convicted of a felony, is convicted of a violation of any law which provides for criminal penalties or commits any act of moral turpitude, which in each case may impair the good will or affect the reputation associated with the Licensed Marks.

7.2. Termination Upon Failure to Cure. Company shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon breach of any one or more of the material requirements, obligations or other provisions of this Agreement (not governed by Section 7.1 above), upon the giving of written notice to Licensee of an intent to terminate within 60 days unless such breach is cured, and the sending of a written notice at the end of the 60-day period to Licensee of termination if Licensee does not cure within the 60-day period, and this Agreement will then immediately terminate; provided, however, that Licensee will only be allowed 2 cure periods, as to any or all of events of default under this Section 7.2, in any successive 12-month period, and upon the third event of default in any successive 12-month period, Licensee will have no right to cure.

8. Conflict of Provisions: This Agreement will supersede the provisions of any Franchise Agreement and of any agreement issued to the extent required for resolution of any discrepancy or the inconsistency between such provisions.

9. Post-termination Rights: Upon termination of this Agreement, Licensee will retain all rights under each Franchise Agreement issued and not then in default upon the part of Licensee as Licensee, subject, however, to the provisions of each Franchise Agreement; and Company will thereafter issue no like Franchise Agreement to any other person for any Licensed Restaurant within the protected territory of any Licensed Restaurant governed by any such Franchise Agreement in accordance with the terms of the Franchise Agreement, but will have the right otherwise to arrange for development of the Development Area.

10. Relationship of Company and Licensee: This Agreement does not create a fiduciary relationship between Company and Licensee. Licensee will be and remain an independent contractor under this Agreement without any expressed or implied authority or power as agent or otherwise to act for or bind Company, and Company will have no liability or other responsibility to Licensee or to any other person or persons for financial or other commercial success of Licensee. Although Licensee must comply with this Agreement and the Company's Proprietary Rights, Licensee will have full and complete control of the manner in which Licensee complies and full and complete control of the day-to-day operation and performance of its development and other obligations under this Agreement, the operation of each Licensed Restaurant under each Franchise Agreement and Licensee's business policies and practices.

11. Dispute Resolution:

- 11.1. Governing Law. This Agreement takes effect when accepted and executed by Company in Iowa. This Agreement will be construed under the laws of the State of Iowa and any dispute between the parties will be governed by and determined in accordance with the substantive law of the State of Iowa, which laws will prevail in the event of any conflict of law; except Licensee and Principal will not be entitled to any rights under any franchise registration or disclosure law or any franchise relationship law of the State of Iowa unless the Development Area is located in the State of Iowa or the jurisdictional requirement of the law is otherwise met without reference to the choice of law provision in this Section. If Company moves its corporate headquarters, Company will have the option of determining that the substantive law of the state to which Company moves will replace all references to Iowa law in this Agreement, or of continuing to have Iowa law apply. If Company chooses to have the law of the new state apply, Company will notify all franchisees and Licensee within 6 months of Company's move, and the chosen law will apply to all franchisees and Licensee and Principal; except any franchise registration or disclosure law or any franchise relationship law of the new state will only apply where the jurisdictional requirements of the law are otherwise met.
- 11.2. Forum. Licensee and Principal acknowledges that Licensee has and will continue to develop a substantial and continuing relationship with Company at Company's offices in the State of Iowa, where Company's decision-making authority is vested, and franchise operations are conducted and supervised. Except for Company's right to obtain injunctive relief in any appropriate forum, any action arising out of or relating to this Agreement will be commenced, conducted and concluded only in a state or federal court of general jurisdiction in the State of Iowa for the district or county in which Company's headquarters are then located, unless otherwise not allowed by the state law in which the Licensed Restaurant is located. Licensee and Principal irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of these courts, waive any objection they may have to either the jurisdiction or venue of these courts and agree not to argue that these courts are inconvenient forums. If Company moves its corporate headquarters, Licensee and Principal acknowledge that Licensee will have a substantial and continuing relationship with Company in the state to which Company moves and that any references to Iowa in this Section will be deemed to be references to the new state.
- 11.3. Injunctive Relief; Declaratory Relief. Notwithstanding the above, nothing in this Agreement will prevent Company from obtaining injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction for Licensee's and/or Principal's unauthorized use of Company's trademark, or for violation of any of the covenants of Sections 4.3 or 14 of this Agreement, without the need to show actual or threatened harm or to post a bond or other security, nor will Company be obligated to pursue any informal resolution of these claims before seeking injunctive relief. Licensee and Principal will be liable to Company for all expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining such relief, including the costs of investigation and proof of facts, court costs and attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest). This remedy will be in addition to any other remedies Company may have under this Agreement, including the right to terminate this Agreement.

11.4. NO CLASS PROCEEDINGS. LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL AGREE TO LITIGATE EACH DISPUTE WITH COMPANY ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS. LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL WILL NOT CONSOLIDATE ANY DISPUTE WITH A CLAIM OF ANY OTHER FRANCHISEE, INDIVIDUAL, OR ENTITY, AND LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL WILL NOT PURSUE ANY CLASS CLAIMS IN ANY MEDIATION, ARBITRATION, OR LITIGATION FORUM THAT ARISE OUT OF OR RELATE TO THIS AGREEMENT.

11.5. ONLY THE COMPANY ENTITY HAS ANY LIABILITY. LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL MAY SEEK DAMAGES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY REMEDY UNDER LAW OR EQUITY ONLY AGAINST COMPANY'S BUSINESS ENTITY. LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL AGREE THAT COMPANY'S AFFILIATES AND COMPANY'S AND COMPANY'S AFFILIATES' RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, LIMITED PARTNERS, GENERAL PARTNERS, SHAREHOLDERS, INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS AND EMPLOYEES WILL NOT BE LIABLE AND MAY NOT BE NAMED AS A PARTY IN ANY LITIGATION, ARBITRATION OR OTHER PROCEEDING COMMENCED BY LICENSEE IF THE CLAIM ARISES OUT OF OR RELATES TO THIS AGREEMENT. LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL FURTHER AGREE THAT ALL OF THE FOREGOING PARTIES ARE INTENDED BENEFICIARIES OF THIS CLAUSE.

11.6. NO PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES. A COURT MAY AWARD INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AS WELL AS DAMAGES, BUT WILL HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO AWARD PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES.

11.7. JURY TRIAL WAIVER. COMPANY AND LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL, RESPECTIVELY, WAIVE ANY RIGHT THEY MIGHT HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY ON ANY AND ALL CLAIMS ASSERTED AGAINST THE OTHER. COMPANY AND LICENSEE AND PRINCIPAL, RESPECTIVELY, EACH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THEY HAVE HAD A FULL OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL CONCERNING THIS WAIVER, AND THAT THIS WAIVER IS INFORMED, VOLUNTARY, INTENTIONAL AND NOT THE RESULT OF UNEQUAL BARGAINING POWER.

11.8. Survival. Licensee and Company acknowledge and agree this Section 11 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

12. Notices and Addresses:

12.1. Notice. Any notice or other communication required under this Agreement will be in writing and may be personally delivered or delivered by a nationally recognized overnight courier service or mailed by registered or certified mail. Notices will be sent to the parties at their respective addresses listed below unless a different address has been designated in writing. Notices will become effective upon receipt except any notice by certified or registered mail is deemed to have been given at the date and time of mailing with adequate postage paid.

12.2. Mailing Addresses.

12.2.1. The parties' initial designated mailing addresses are the following:

Pizza Ranch, Inc.
Attn.: President

12.2.2. Company and Licensee, Principal and other owners of Licensee may from time to time change their respective designated mailing addresses by an express written notice of such change given by one to the other at its then most recently designated mailing address.

13. Guaranty of Payment. The Principal, and other owners of Licensee joining in the execution of this Agreement, jointly and severally, guarantee the payment by Licensee of all indebtedness of any kind of Licensee to Company. This guaranty shall not be affected by any forbearance of extension that Company may grant Licensee.

14. Noncompetition:

14.1. No Unauthorized Use of the System. Licensee, Principal and other owners of Licensee joining in the execution of this Agreement (collectively referred to as "Franchise Owners") will use best and continuing efforts during the term of this Agreement to develop Licensed Restaurants. In consideration of the substantial value to Licensee and Franchise Owners to receive disclosure of and to use the Proprietary Rights, Franchise Owners will not, during the term of this Agreement and for 24 months after the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of termination, or after the date on which Licensee ceases to operate any Licensed Restaurant following the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement, whichever is later, own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, finance, or have any interest in any restaurant, other than a Restaurant licensed by Company, which uses or duplicates the Proprietary Rights in whole or in part, or is a colorable imitation of a Restaurant, or offer or sell any Pizza Ranch® brand products and/or services or colorable imitations of them, other than in or from a Restaurant licensed by Company.

- 14.2. Limited Covenant Against Competitive Activities During Term. During the term of this Agreement, Franchise Owners will not, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person or entity:
- 14.2.1. divert or attempt to divert any business or customer of a Restaurant, including the FunZone, to any competitor, including a competitor in which the Franchise Owners have a direct or indirect interest; or
 - 14.2.2. own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, finance or perform any services in any capacity for any restaurant, pizzeria, sandwich shop or food service operation offering principal menu entrees or items which are the same as or similar to those offered at any Restaurant, or a game room, arcade or other similar business that offers arcade games and amusement devices that are the same or similar to those offered in a typical FunZone.
- 14.3. Limited Covenant Against Competitive Activities Post Term. For 24 months after the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of termination, or after the date on which Licensee ceases to operate any Licensed Restaurant following the expiration, transfer or termination of this Agreement, whichever is later, Franchise Owners will not, directly or indirectly, for themselves or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person or entity engage in any of the acts proscribed by Section 14.2, which are incorporated by reference, or otherwise own, maintain, engage in, be employed by, finance or perform any services in any capacity for or have any interest in any restaurant, pizzeria, sandwich shop or food service operation offering principal menu entrees or items which are the same as or similar to those offered at any Restaurant, or any game room, arcade or other similar business that offers arcade games and amusement devices that are the same or similar to those offered at a typical FunZone within the Development Area or at the premises of any former Licensed Restaurant or at or within a radius of 10 miles of (i) the boundaries of the Development Area, (ii) any former Licensed Restaurant, (iii) any existing Restaurant using the Proprietary Rights or (iv) any proposed Restaurant using the Proprietary Rights.
- 14.4. Company's Reduction in Scope of Covenants. Company has the right to reduce the scope of any of the covenants set forth in this Section 14, without Franchise Owners' consent, effective immediately upon receipt by written notice of Company's election to do so and Franchise Owners will immediately comply with any covenant as so modified.
- 14.5. Court Reduction in Scope of Covenants. If any court or other tribunal having jurisdiction to determine the validity or enforceability of this Section 14 determines that this Section 14, or any part of this Section 14 would be invalid or unenforceable as written, then this Section 14 will be deemed to be modified to the extent or in the manner necessary to be valid and enforceable to the greatest extent possible.
- 14.6. Additional Franchise; Small Ownership of Public Entity. This Section 14 will not prohibit Franchise Owners from operating any other franchise which Company grants, or owning less than a 2% beneficial interest of the outstanding equity securities of any publicly held entity.

- 14.7. Independent Covenants. Each of the covenants above in this Section 14 will be construed as independent of each other and any other covenant or provision of this Agreement.
15. Severability of Provisions. Should any provision of this Agreement be for any reason held invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision shall be deemed restricted in application to the extent required to render it valid, and the remainder of this Agreement shall in no way be affected and shall remain valid and enforceable for all purposes. If any applicable law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater notice of the termination of or election not to renew this Agreement, or the taking of some other action with respect to the termination or election not to renew than is required in this Agreement, the prior notice or other action required by law or rule will be substituted for the notice of other action required in this Agreement.
16. Whole Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement and any attachments constitute the complete and integrated agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements except Licensee, Principal and Other Owners may rely on Company's representations in the most recent Franchise Disclosure Document (the "FDD") Company delivered in connection with this Agreement; no other representations have induced Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee to execute this Agreement. No representations, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not appearing in, attached to or specifically referenced in this Agreement or in the FDD were made by either party and none will have any effect with reference to this Agreement. No change in this Agreement will be binding on either party unless it is mutually agreed to in writing. The BACKGROUND Section at the beginning of this Agreement contains contractual terms that are not mere recitals.
17. Acknowledgments: Licensee, Principal and Other Owners of Licensee, jointly and severally make the following warranties, representations, agreements and acknowledgments to Company:
- 17.1. They are entering into this Agreement after having conducted an independent investigation of the business franchised and Company's operations and all facts, they deem relevant. They acknowledge that no salesperson, representative or other person has made any representation regarding the actual or potential sales, income or profit from franchised or company or affiliate-owned restaurants other than what is stated in Item 19 of Company's Franchise Disclosure Document.
- 17.2. All information and materials, including all financial statements and business plans they provided to Company individually or collectively are true and correct and complete to the best knowledge of the persons providing the materials, and all assets listed on their respective financial statements and business plans are available to satisfy their obligations arising under this Agreement.
- 17.3. Neither they, nor any person or entity with an ownership interest in the franchise, nor any officer, director, manager, member or employee of theirs or of these other persons or entities or of any affiliate or theirs, is, or at any time will be named, either directly or by an alias or nickname, on the list of Specially Designated Nationals or Blocked Persons, which includes the names of suspected terrorists, as designated by the United States Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, available at <http://www.ustreas.gov/offices/eotffc/ofac/sdn/index.html>. They acknowledge that Company intends to comply, and they must comply, with all prohibitions against corrupt business practices, money laundering and support of terrorist activities, including those contained in the United States Patriot Act (available at <http://www.epic.org/privacy/terrorism/hr3162.html>), Executive Order 13224 (available at <http://www.treas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/legal/eo/13224.pdf>), and related United States Treasury regulations and any similar law (“Anti-Terrorism Law”). They will immediately notify Company of any misrepresentation or breach of this Section. Company may terminate this Agreement without any opportunity for cure as provided in Section 7.1 upon any misrepresentation or breach of this Section.

- 17.4. They acknowledge receipt of this Agreement, with all blanks completed and with any amendments and exhibits, at least seven calendar days before they signed this Agreement, except differences that were a result of negotiated changes they requested and had an opportunity to review before signing this Agreement. They also acknowledge that they received Company’s Franchise Disclosure Document at least 14 calendar days (and at least 10 business days in Michigan) before they signed this Agreement or paid Company any monies, refundable or otherwise, or earlier in the sales process if they requested it. They also acknowledge that before furnishing a Franchise Disclosure Document to them, Company or its agent advised them of the formats in which the Franchise Disclosure Document is made available and any prerequisites for obtaining and conditions necessary for reviewing the Franchise Disclosure Document in a particular format.
- 17.5. They acknowledge Company has the right to use information they provide Company or which concerns them for business purposes relating to the administration of this Agreement and the operation of the franchise system. This information includes their name, business or home address, business or home telephone number, email address, financial information and business records. Company may disclose all or a portion of this information to vendors, prospective franchisees, existing franchisees, governmental authorities and others for legitimate business purposes. They acknowledge Company will disclose certain information in Company’s Franchise Disclosure Document as required by federal or state laws and regulations. Company will also honor validly served subpoenas, warrants and court orders. They also acknowledge that circumstances may arise when Company deems it advisable to conduct an investigative background search on them. They authorize Company or Company’s designee to conduct an investigative background search, which may reveal information about business experience, education, criminal record, civil judgments, property ownership, liens, association with other individuals, creditworthiness, job performance and other matters.

EXHIBIT C

ADVERTISING COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT FOR PIZZA RANCH RESTAURANTS

ARTICLE I

Purpose

The purpose of this Agreement is to create and provide guidance for a nonprofit, unincorporated cooperative of operators of Pizza Ranch restaurants within the Market Area Guidelines as identified on Exhibit “A” (the “Market Area Guidelines”). Corporate Pizza Ranch will determine which Advertising Co-op each restaurant will be placed at the time of franchise agreement signing. This association formed by this Agreement will be for the cooperative benefit of its members.

ARTICLE II

Members and Management

SECTION 1. Membership. The members of the Co-op shall be all persons or entities which operate Pizza Ranch restaurants of any kind under a validly existing franchise agreement with Pizza Ranch, Inc. and any restaurants owned by Pizza Ranch, Inc. or any affiliated entity located anywhere within the Market Area. Membership for all persons and entities operating Pizza Ranch restaurants shall automatically commence when the authorized owner of the franchise has signed this Agreement. In addition, once the Co-op has been formed, membership shall automatically commence for new members when a person or entity acquires a Pizza Ranch restaurant anywhere in the Market Area, when an entity opens a new franchise in the Market Area, or if Pizza Ranch, Inc. or an affiliated entity should open a company-owned store in the Market Area.

SECTION 2. Co-op Management. The Co-op shall be managed by its members. Each member shall designate an authorized representative to attend Co-op meetings and to vote on matters that come before the Co-op. Each member who owns a Pizza Ranch restaurant in the Market Area shall be entitled to 1 vote for each restaurant owned.

To be in good standing, the member must be in compliance with the rules and policies of the Co-op. In addition, each Franchisee must be in compliance with the terms of its Franchise Agreement, and current on all franchise and other fees due to Pizza Ranch, Inc. All references in this Agreement to members or membership shall mean members in good standing, unless the context otherwise requires.

SECTION 3. Voting and Policies. Each member of the Co-op shall be bound by any action which has previously been adopted at a meeting of the Co-op members by majority vote as set forth in this Agreement, even though such member voted against the action, or did not participate in the vote. If a particular proposal receives a tie vote, then such proposal will not be adopted.

If any member conducts a promotion or advertisement on the member’s own behalf, the ads for such promotion or advertisement shall clearly identify the address of the participating restaurant.

SECTION 4. Transfer of membership. Membership shall be transferable only by reason of the transfer of a member's Pizza Ranch restaurant to another entity. The transferee shall automatically become a member of the Co-op. Before the transfer or sale of a restaurant (whether by direct or indirect sale, by changing ownership of the franchisee, by merger, or otherwise), a member shall be required to give not less than 30 days' advance written notice to the Co-op of the proposed transfer or sale.

SECTION 5. Enforcement of the Co-op Agreement. Members may take legal action against a member to enforce the Co-op rules and policies as set forth in this Agreement or as adopted by the Co-op meetings or programs, such members shall, nevertheless, continue to be obligated to abide by the Co-op's rules and policies until such time as this Agreement is terminated.

ARTICLE III

Purpose of Co-op

SECTION 1: The purpose of the co-op and meetings is to be a forum for information exchange between Pizza Ranch, Inc. and franchisees. Meetings shall be a collaborative discussion between the Pizza Ranch franchisees and the Pizza Ranch Support Center.

SECTION 2: The co-op meetings will be a forum for the Pizza Ranch support center to discuss chain-wide marketing initiatives, operational initiatives and any other information which is important to discuss with a franchise group.

ARTICLE IV

Meetings of Members

SECTION 1. Meetings. The members of the Co-op shall meet as needed at a pre-designated time and place. Special meetings may be called at any other time by a majority of the Co-op members. Members shall not be reimbursed for expenses incurred in coming to and attending meetings. Meetings will have 2 areas of focus: 1. Information and updates from the Pizza Ranch Support Center, and 2. Franchisee discussion around best practices.

SECTION 2. Notice of Co-op Meetings. Notice stating the time, place, and purpose of Co-op meetings shall be given to each member at least 5 days before the meeting date. Notice may be given by telephone, by fax, by oral conversation, by email or by first class mail. Mailed notice shall be deemed delivered when placed in the U.S. Mail to the member's address shown on the Co-op's records at least 10 (ten) days before the meeting. Attendance at a meeting shall be a waiver of notice, except when a member objects that the meeting is not lawfully called.

SECTION 3. Informal Action. Co-op members may take action by unanimous written consent (including via email) without a meeting. The members may also have meetings and take action by telephone conference provided that during said conference all participants can hear and speak to each other.

SECTION 4. Quorum. The presence in person of a majority of the entire Co-op membership shall be a quorum for all meetings, formal or informal. A quorum shall not be lost by reason of members leaving the meeting before adjournment.

SECTION 5. Proxies. Unless a majority of the members decide otherwise, members may vote by proxy, provided said proxy is in writing.

SECTION 6. Majority Vote. Unless otherwise required by this Agreement, a majority vote of the members who are present at a meeting where a quorum is present shall be required and shall be sufficient for the adoption of any action by the members.

ARTICLE V

Officers

SECTION 1. General. The Co-op shall have officers which shall be elected by a majority vote of the members. The officers of the Co-op shall be a President and Vice President.

SECTION 2. Term of Office. Each officer shall serve for 1 year; provided that any officer may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the members. Elections for officers will be held every year in the third quarter, with the new officers taking office October 1.

SECTION 3. President. The President shall supervise the business and affairs of the Co-op. The President shall do the following:

- a) Arrange and preside at all Co-op meetings;
- b) Coordinate the Co-op's affairs with Pizza Ranch marketing personnel;

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Pizza Ranch, Inc. and Subsidiaries
Orange City, Iowa

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Pizza Ranch, Inc. (an Iowa subchapter S Corporation) and Subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Pizza Ranch, Inc. and Subsidiaries as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Pizza Ranch, Inc. and Subsidiaries and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Pizza Ranch, Inc. and Subsidiaries' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. The five steps require the Company to: (1) identify the contract with the customer, (2) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (3) determine the transaction price, (4) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations, and (5) recognize revenue when (or as) each performance obligation is satisfied. Certain other revenues, such as lease revenues, grants, investment income, or gains and losses arising from sales of investments to business assets, are recognized in accordance with other specific guidance as codified in Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC).

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2024, 2023, AND 2022

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

Revenues are recognized based on the following categories:

Restaurant Revenue - Revenues from the sale of food and beverage items by company-owned restaurants are recognized at the point in time when the promised goods or services are transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled in exchange for the goods or services. Revenues from Fun Zone games and activities are recognized at the point in time of purchase.

Franchise Royalties - The Company's franchise agreements require that the franchisee remit monthly fees as a percentage of the applicable restaurant's sales in exchange for the license of the intellectual property associated with use of proprietary rights and licensed marks. This revenue is recognized at the close of each month as each franchisee reports their revenues for the corresponding month.

Franchise Fees - The Company's franchise agreements require an upfront fee upon the agreement being signed. A portion of this fee related to training conducted prior to the franchisee store's opening is recognized at the point in time the franchisee store is opened. The Company has elected the practical expedient to recognize these pre-opening services as a single performance obligation. The remaining fee is recognized on a straight-line basis over the life of the franchise agreement. A franchise agreement eligible for renewal at the end of the original term for an additional fee, which is then recognized on a straight-line basis over the extension period.

Transfer Fees - Any fees paid to the Company in the event that the franchise agreement is transferred to another franchisee are recognized at the point in time the transfer occurs.

Franchise Supplies and Merchandise Sales - Revenues from sale of supplies to franchisee stores are recognized at the point in time when the supplies are transferred to the franchisee.

Financial Services - The Company provides its franchisees with financial services, including payroll processing and monthly financial statements. This revenue is recognized at the point in time the services are rendered.

Volume Allowance - The Company receives rebates from suppliers for large quantities purchased by franchisees and company-owned stores. This revenue is recognized at the point in time that the Company has met the usage requirements of the agreement.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

Cash and Cash Equivalents - For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less at acquisition to be cash equivalents, unless held for investment purposes.

Investment in Equity Securities - The Company has investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values which are reported at fair value. Realized gains and losses are determined using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method. Both realized and unrealized gains and losses on equity securities are reported in net income.

Certificates of Deposit - The Company's certificates of deposit represent direct purchases from financial institutions for which there is no secondary market. The certificates of deposit are recorded at cost, adjusted for premiums and discounts that are recognized as interest income using the interest method over the period to maturity. The Company has the positive intent to hold the certificates of deposit to maturity and has evaluated the risk of losses to be remote due to a combination of federal deposit insurance and history with the holding financial institutions. As such, no allowance for credit losses was deemed necessary. All certificates of deposit will mature in the next year.

Receivables - The Company has three main categories of receivables: accounts receivable, franchise royalties receivable, and volume allowance receivable. The Company reports receivables at their estimated collectible value.

Accounts Receivable - Balances generally consist of trade credit extended to customers on unsecured arrangements, timing differences between electronic credit and debit card transactions and the ultimate settlement of the initiated transactions, and the net difference between gift cards presented for payment at restaurants other than the location of purchase.

Franchise Royalties Receivable - Balances consist of monthly fees due from franchised restaurants based on a percentage of restaurant sales.

Volume Allowance Receivable - Balances consists of rebates earned from suppliers based on quantities purchased, which will be redeemed as a reduction of future purchase costs or a direct rebate check.

Management provides for expected credit losses through a charge to earnings and a credit to a valuation allowance based upon a review of outstanding receivables, historical collection experience, current economic conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Accounts receivable and franchise royalties receivable are generally due within 30 days, and accounts over 60 days are monitored closely.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to receivables. Recoveries of receivables previously written off are recorded when received. Management has evaluated their risks of losses and determined that no allowance for credit losses for receivable balances is necessary at December 31, 2024, 2023, or 2022.

Inventories - Inventories primarily consist of food and beverage items and are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, determined on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and Equipment - Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The cost of property and equipment is depreciated over estimated useful lives of 3 to 40 years utilizing the straight-line method.

Ordinary maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. The cost of renewals and betterments are capitalized in the appropriate property and equipment accounts and are depreciated as set forth above. The historical cost and related accumulated depreciation of assets sold or retired are removed from the appropriate accounts and gains or losses, if any, are recognized upon disposal.

Leases - The Company assesses whether an arrangement is or contains a lease at contract inception. For arrangements considered leases, the Company determines classification of the lease as a finance or operating lease and the initial measurement of the right-of-use asset and lease liability at the commencement date, which is the date that the underlying asset becomes available for use. The Company determines the lease term by assuming the exercise of any renewal or termination options that are reasonably assured. For both operating and finance leases, the Company recognizes a right-of-use asset, which represents their right to use the underlying asset for the lease term, and a lease liability, which represents the present value of their obligation to make payments over the lease term. The Company uses the rate implicit in the lease when available, and the Company's incremental borrowing rate at least inception for any remaining leases in applying a discount factor for determining the present value of future lease payments.

Rent expense for operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Amortization of right-of-use lease assets is recognized using a systematic and rational method over the shorter of the lease term or the useful life of the right-of-use asset. The interest expense related to any finance leases is recognized using the effective interest method based on the discount rate determined at lease commencement. Variable rent payments related to both operating and finance leases are expensed in the period incurred. These net lease costs are included in operating expenses in the consolidated statements of income.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

The Company has elected the practical expedient for the treatment of short-term leases for any leases with an initial term of 12 months or less. Right-of-use assets and lease liabilities associated with these short-term leases are not recorded in the consolidated balance sheets, instead, the Company recognizes lease expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term in operating expenses on the consolidated statements of income.

Other Investments - The Company's other investments generally consist of ownership interests and equity securities without readily determinable fair values. The Company elects to value these investments at cost, less impairment, if any, plus or minus changes resulting from observable price changes. Investments are evaluated annually for impairment. The Company's investments in equity securities without readily determinable fair values consist of ownership interest in Prairie Winds Hotel Holdings, L.L.C. and insurance contract deposits with WELLth Captive Collateral and Valor Insurance.

The equity method of accounting is used when the Company has the ability to influence the operating or financial decisions of the investee, generally at an ownership interest level of approximately 20 to 50 percent. Equity investments are recorded at cost and subsequently adjusted for the Company's share of undistributed earnings or losses of the investee and reviewed annually for impairment. The Company applies the cumulative earnings approach to determine the proper classification of distributions received from the equity method investees in the consolidated statements of cash flows. The Company accounts for its investment in a related party, Pizza Ranch RE1, L.L.C., on the equity method of accounting.

Income Taxes - The Company has elected to be treated as an S Corporation, whereby all taxable income is passed through to the individual stockholders. Accordingly, no deferred or current tax liabilities, assets, or provisions are provided for in the consolidated financial statements. Management has concluded that any income tax positions that would not meet the more-likely-than-not criterion of FASB ASC 740-10 would be the responsibility of the stockholders. Accordingly, the accompanying consolidated financial statements do not include any provisions for uncertain income tax positions, and no related interest or penalties have been recorded. Federal and state income tax returns of the Company are generally subject to examination by the respective taxing authorities for a period of three years from the date the returns are filed.

Sales and Excise Taxes - The Company has customers in states and municipalities in which the governmental units impose a sales or excise tax on certain sales. The Company collects these taxes from its customers and remits the entire amount to the various governmental units. The Company's policy is to exclude the tax collected and remitted from revenues and costs of supplies and merchandise sold.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED):

Research and Development - Research and development costs are expensed as incurred. Total research and development costs for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022 were $737,925, $599,053 and $626,907, respectively.

Advertising - Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Total advertising costs for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022 were $727,968, $786,244, and $755,730, respectively.

Management's Use of Estimates - The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Management periodically evaluates estimates used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements for continued reasonableness. Appropriate adjustments, if any, to the estimates are made prospectively based upon such periodic evaluation. It is reasonably possible that changes may occur in the near term that would affect management's estimates. Management's significant estimates include the estimated lives of assets depreciated or amortized, discount factors used in present value calculations, volume allowance receivable, and allowance for credit losses.

Risks and Uncertainties - Certain risks and uncertainties are inherent in the Company's day-to-day operations and to the process of preparing its consolidated financial statements. The more significant of those risks and uncertainties are presented throughout the notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Concentrations - Financial instruments which subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk consist principally of temporary cash investments. To reduce credit risk, management continually monitors the financial strength of the financial institutions with which it maintains relationships, along with monitoring the cash balances on deposit with these financial institutions in order to minimize this potential risk. At various times throughout the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, the Company's cash balances on deposit with financial institutions exceeded federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses on such accounts.

Reclassifications - Certain reclassifications have been made to the December 31, 2023 and 2022 consolidated financial statements to conform to the current year's presentation. Total stockholders' equity and net income are unchanged due to these reclassifications.

Subsequent Events - The Company evaluated for subsequent events through March 24, 2025, which is the date which these consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE B - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The FASB ASC has established a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

Level 1 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Company has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement. These inputs reflect management's judgment about the assumptions that a market participant would use in pricing the investment and are based on the best available information.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Company believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair measurement at the reporting date.

NOTE G - SHORT-TERM OPERATING NOTE:

The Company has maintained a revolving loan agreement that provided up to $500,000 with Iowa State Bank, Hull, Iowa. The Company elected not to renew the line of credit in 2023 or 2024. In 2022, the agreement provided for a variable rate of interest equal to the prime rate published in the Wall Street Journal plus one percent, 4.00 percent at December 31, 2022. The Company signed a general security agreement pledging accounts receivable, inventory, and equipment as collateral for the term of the line of credit. The loan and security agreements expired in June 2023. There was no outstanding balance related to this revolving agreement at December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022.

NOTE H - LEASES:

The Company leases buildings, vehicles, and land under operating leases with 5 to 20 year initial terms. Most leases include renewal options which can extend the initial lease term. The exercise of these renewal options is at the sole discretion of the Company, and only lease options that the Company believes are reasonably certain to be exercised are included in the measurement of the lease assets and liabilities. The Company's lease agreements may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Company has elected to combine and account for lease and non-lease components as a single lease component for its leases.

While all of the agreements provide for minimum lease payments, some agreements may include variable payments based on a percentage of sales. Variable payments are not determinable at the lease commencement and are not included in the measurement of the lease assets and liabilities. The lease agreements do not include any material residual value guarantees or restrictive covenants.

TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT FOR LICENSE AND SERVICE AND MUTUAL RELEASE

TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT FOR LICENSE AND SERVICE AND MUTUAL RELEASE

This Termination of Agreement for License and Service and Mutual Release (this “Agreement”) is effective on _____, 20__ among (i) Pizza Ranch, Inc., an Iowa corporation (“Pizza Ranch”); (ii) PR Financial Services, LLC, an Iowa corporation (“PRF”); (iii) Licensee1, and Licensee2, residents and citizens of _____ (the “Individual Licensees”); and (iv) ENTITY LICENSEE, Inc., a _____ corporation owned and controlled by the Individual Licensees (“ENTITY LICENSEE”). The Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE are sometimes collectively referred to as “Licensee.”

BACKGROUND

A. ENTITY LICENSEE and Pizza Ranch entered into a Franchise Agreement (the “Franchise Agreement”) under which ENTITY LICENSEE was granted the right and undertook the obligation to operate a PIZZA RANCH® restaurant at _____ (the “Restaurant”). PRF is an affiliate of Pizza Ranch that provides financial services to ENTITY LICENSEE for a fee.

B. Licensee has requested, and Pizza Ranch has agreed, that the Franchise Agreement and all rights and obligations between the parties related to the Franchise Agreement be terminated to effect a sale of the Franchised Business to a third party.

AGREEMENT

With the foregoing background incorporated by reference, and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained in this Agreement, and for other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

1. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement is terminated effective as of the close of business on _____.

2. Franchisee will comply with all obligations under the Franchise Agreement applicable to the period the Franchise Agreement was in effect, including all payment and reporting requirements, and will also comply with all provisions of the Franchise Agreement which expressly or by their terms are intended to survive the termination of the Franchise Agreement. Franchisee agrees that the confidentiality provisions, noncompetition covenants and the indemnification obligations are among the provisions that survive the termination of the Franchise Agreement.

3. Licensee agrees that it no longer has the right to use the name “PIZZA RANCH” or the business techniques, recipes, other trademarks and trade secrets associated with the PIZZA RANCH system of restaurants as stated in the Franchise Agreement. Licensee will not suggest to the public any present or former affiliation of the premises, or any business operated by Licensee with the PIZZA RANCH system. If directed by Pizza Ranch if the proposed transfer does not occur, Licensee will immediately make all modifications or alterations to the inside and outside of the Restaurant premises, including trade dress, signs, equipment, furnishings and fixtures, to distinguish it from the restaurants associated with the PIZZA RANCH system and will remove all evidence of the “PIZZA RANCH” mark and other trademarks. Licensee will furnish Pizza Ranch with photographs or other evidence satisfactory to Pizza Ranch to confirm Licensee’s compliance with this obligation to de-identify and will allow an inspection by employees or representatives of Pizza Ranch during normal business hours to confirm Licensee’s compliance.

4. Licensee will immediately return to Pizza Ranch or, at Pizza Ranch’s option, convey to Pizza Ranch’s designee, all Pizza Ranch Manuals or other materials relating to Pizza Ranch’s specifications for equipment, fixtures, furniture and other essential items and for operation of the Restaurant in conformity with Pizza Ranch’s standard specifications, including recipes and procedures for preparing food items, as required under the Franchise Agreement.

5. The Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE, for themselves and all persons and entities claiming by, through or under them, release, acquit and forever discharge Pizza Ranch, PRF and their respective present and former officers, employees, shareholders, directors, agents, attorneys, servants, representatives, parents, predecessors, subsidiaries, affiliates, heirs, successors and assigns, in both their individual and corporate capacities (the "Pizza Ranch Releasees"), from all obligations, claims, debts, demands, covenants, contracts, promises, agreements, liabilities, costs, attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest), actions or causes of action whatsoever, whether known or unknown, which the Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE, by themselves, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any other person or entity, have, had or claim to have against the Pizza Ranch Releasees, including specifically, but not exclusively, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any and all claims, demands, actions or causes of action arising out of, pursuant to or related to this Agreement, the Franchise Agreement, the Restaurant, and/or the parties' franchise relationship, and any and all correspondence, representations, certifications, warranties, promises or acts made in reliance upon any one or more of the same, whether oral or written, or based in whole or in part on events occurring prior to the date of this Agreement.

6. Subject to the exceptions set forth in this Agreement, Pizza Ranch and PRF, for themselves and all current and former persons and entities claiming by, through or under them, hereby release, acquit and forever discharge the Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE from all obligations, claims, debts, demands, covenants, contracts, promises, agreements, liabilities, costs, attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses (and interest) actions or causes of action whatsoever, whether known or unknown, which Pizza Ranch or PRF has, had or claims to have against the Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE, including specifically, but not exclusively, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any and all claims, demands, actions or causes of action arising out of, pursuant to, or related to the Franchise Agreement, the Restaurant, and/or the parties' franchise relationship, and any and all correspondence, representations, certifications, warranties, promises or acts made in reliance upon any one or more of the same, whether oral or written, or based in whole or in part on events occurring prior to the date of this Agreement. Specifically excepted from Pizza Ranch's and PRF's release of the Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE are (a) the Individual Licensees' and ENTITY LICENSEE's obligations under this Agreement; and (b) any claims asserted against the Pizza Ranch Releasees by any third party which claims relate to the Individual Licensees' and ENTITY LICENSEE's ownership, occupation or operation of the Restaurant and/or to the Franchise Agreement, and the Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE specifically agree to indemnify and hold the Pizza Ranch Releasees harmless from and against any and all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable costs of investigation, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and reasonable expert's fees (and interest). This indemnification obligation will be a continuing one and will not be affected by the termination of the Franchise Agreement.

7. This Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective heirs, successors and assigns. Nothing contained in this Agreement will release the parties from their obligations under this Agreement.

8. This Agreement will be construed and interpreted in accordance with the law of Iowa.

9. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Pizza Ranch, PRF and Licensee concerning the subject matter, and supersedes all prior agreements, no other representations having induced Licensee to execute this Agreement. No representations, inducements, promises or agreements, oral or otherwise, not embodied in this Agreement (unless of subsequent date), were made by either party and none will be of any force or effect with reference to this Agreement or otherwise.

10. Each party declares that the terms of this Agreement have been completely read and are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by each party after having a reasonable opportunity to retain and confer with counsel. This Agreement is entered into after a full investigation by the parties, and the parties are not relying upon any statements or representations not contained in this Agreement.

11. In the event Pizza Ranch retains the services of legal counsel to enforce the terms of this Agreement, Pizza Ranch will be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, and expert and investigative fees (and interest) incurred in enforcing the terms of this Agreement.

12. The obligations of the Individual Licensees and ENTITY LICENSEE under this Agreement will be joint and several.

13. Each Licensee represents: I HAVE READ THE ABOVE AGREEMENT, WHICH INCLUDES A RELEASE, AND I UNDERSTAND ITS TERMS. I WOULD NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT IF I DID NOT UNDERSTAND IT AND I AGREE TO BE BOUND BY ITS TERMS.

Intending to be legally bound, the parties execute this Agreement as of the date first written above.

ADDENDUM TO PIZZA RANCH, INC.
FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

State Cover Page and Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 and Minn. Rule 2860.4400J prohibit us from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Disclosure Document shall abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

Franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. A court will determine if a bond is required.

Item 6, Additional Disclosure:

NSF checks are governed by Minn. Stat. 604.113, which puts a cap of $30 on service charges.

Item 13, Additional Disclosures:

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that a franchisor indemnify Minnesota Franchisees against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of the franchisor's trademark infringes upon the trademark rights of the third party. The franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of a franchisor's trademark except in accordance with the requirements of the franchise agreement, and as the condition to an indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to the franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to the franchisor. If the franchisor accepts tender of defense, the franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures:

Any condition, stipulation or provision, including any choice of law provision, purporting to bind any person who, at the time of acquiring a franchise is a resident of the State of Minnesota or in the case of a partnership or corporation, organized or incorporated under the laws of the State of Minnesota, or purporting to bind a person acquiring any franchise to be operated in the State of Minnesota to waive compliance or which has the effect of waiving compliance with any provision of the Minnesota Franchise Law is void.

We will comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subs. 3, 4 and 5, which requires, except in certain specified cases, that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure), 180 days' notice for nonrenewal of the Franchise Agreement, and that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

Minnesota Rule 2860.4400D prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§80C.01 – 80C.22, provided that the foregoing shall not bar the voluntary settlement of disputes.

The limitations of claims section must comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.17, subd. 5.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO PIZZA RANCH, INC.
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

To the extent the Minnesota Franchise Act, Minn. Stat. §§80C.01 – 80C.22 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable, contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 4 which requires that except for certain specified cases, that franchisee be given 180 days' notice for non-renewal of this Franchise Agreement.

The Minnesota Department of Commerce requires that franchisor indemnify franchisees whose franchise is located in Minnesota against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the franchisee's use of franchisor's trademarks ("Marks") infringe upon the trademark rights of the third party. Franchisor does not indemnify against the consequences of a franchisee's use of franchisor's trademark, but franchisor shall indemnify franchisee for claims against franchisee solely as it relates to franchisee's use of the Marks in accordance with the requirements of the Franchise Agreement and franchisor's standards. As a further condition to indemnification, the franchisee must provide notice to franchisor of any such claim immediately and tender the defense of the claim to franchisor. If franchisor accepts tender of defense, franchisor has the right to manage the defense of the claim, including the right to compromise, settle or otherwise resolve the claim, or to determine whether to appeal a final determination of the claim.

Franchisee will not be required to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statute §§ 80C.01 – 80C.22, provided that the foregoing shall not bar the voluntary settlement of disputes.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota Franchise Law, franchisor shall comply with Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14, subd. 3 which requires that except for certain specified cases, a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure). Termination of the franchise by the franchisor shall be effective immediately upon receipt by franchisee of the notice of termination where its grounds for termination or cancellation are: (1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee; (2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted according to the Franchise Agreement; or (3) failure of the franchisee to cure a default under the Franchise Agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trade name, trademark, service mark, logo type or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance thereof.

According to Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.21 in Minnesota Rules or 2860.4400J, the terms of the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable, shall not in any way abrogate or reduce your rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. 1984, Chapter 80C, including the right to submit certain matters to the jurisdiction of the courts of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in this Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable, shall abrogate or reduce any of franchisee's rights as provided for in Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum or remedy provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota.

Any claims franchisee may have against the franchisor that have arisen under the Minnesota Franchise Laws shall be governed by the Minnesota Franchise Law.

The Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable contains a waiver of jury trial provision. This provision may not be enforceable under Minnesota law.

The Franchisee cannot consent to the Franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. We may seek injunctive relief. A court shall determine if a bond or other security is required.

Any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.17, Subd. 5 must be commenced no more than 3 years after the cause of action accrues.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

2. Any capitalized terms that are not defined in this Addendum shall have the meaning given them in the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable.

3. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable, remains unmodified and in full force and effect.

This Addendum is being entered into in connection with the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement, as applicable. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Franchise Agreement or Area Development Agreement the terms and conditions of this Addendum shall apply.

Intending to be legally bound, the parties have executed Addendum, either electronically or in writing, effective as of the Effective Date of the Agreement.

Item 17, Additional Disclosures. The following statements are added to Item 17:

1. The North Dakota Securities Commissioner has determined that it is unfair and unequitable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law for the franchisor to require the franchisee to sign a general release upon renewal of the Franchise Agreement. Therefore, the requirement that the franchisee signs a release upon renewal of the Franchise Agreement is deleted from Item 17c. and from any other place it appears in the Disclosure Document or in the Franchise Agreement.
2. Item 17r. is revised to provide that covenants not to compete, such as those mentioned in Item 17r. of the Disclosure Document are generally considered unenforceable in the state of North Dakota.
3. Any references in the Disclosure Document and in the Franchise Agreement and to any requirement to consent to a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages are deleted.
4. Any references in the Disclosure Document and in the Franchise Agreement to any requirement to consent to a waiver of trial by jury are deleted.
5. Any claims arising under the North Dakota franchise law will be governed by the laws of the State of North Dakota.
6. The prevailing party in any enforcement action is entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees.
7. Any references in the Disclosure Document and in the Franchise Agreement requiring franchisee to consent to termination penalties or liquidated damages are deleted.
8. The North Dakota Securities Commissioner has determined that it is unfair, unjust, or inequitable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law for the franchisor to require the franchisee to consent to the jurisdiction of courts located outside of North Dakota or to arbitration or mediation at a site that is remote from the site of the franchisee's business. Therefore, any references in Item 17(v) of the Disclosure Document and any requirement in Section 27 of the Franchise Agreement that the franchisee consents to the jurisdiction of courts located outside of North Dakota or to arbitration or mediation at a site located outside of North Dakota are deleted.
9. Any reference in the Disclosure Document requiring the franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims is deleted. The statute of limitations under North Dakota law applies.
10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ADDENDUM TO PIZZA RANCH, INC.
FRANCHISE AGREEMENT AND AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT
REQUIRED BY THE STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

To the extent the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, N.D. Cent. Code, §§51-19-01 – 51-19-17 applies, the terms of this Addendum apply.

1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Franchise Agreement or, as applicable, Area Development Agreement, to the extent that the Franchise Agreement or, as applicable, Area Development Agreement, contains provisions that are inconsistent with the following, such provisions are hereby amended:

Any release executed in connection with a renewal shall not apply to any claims that may arise under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

Covenants not to compete during the term of and upon termination or expiration of the franchise agreement are enforceable only under certain conditions according to North Dakota law. If the Franchise Agreement or, as applicable, Area Development Agreement, contains a covenant not to compete that is inconsistent with North Dakota law, the covenant may be unenforceable.

The choice of law other than the State of North Dakota may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. If the laws of a state other than North Dakota govern, to the extent that such law conflicts with North Dakota law, North Dakota law will control.

The waiver of punitive or exemplary damages may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

The waiver of trial by jury may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

The requirement that arbitration be held outside the State of North Dakota may not be enforceable under the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. Any mediation or arbitration will be held at a site agreeable to all parties.

The requirement that a franchisee consent to termination or liquidated damages has been determined by the Commissioner to be unfair, unjust and inequitable within the intent of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. This requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

The Franchise Agreement states that franchisee must consent to the jurisdiction of courts located outside the State of North Dakota. This requirement may not be enforceable under North Dakota law.

Franchise Agreement stipulates that the franchisee shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by Franchisor in enforcing the agreement. For North Dakota franchisees, the prevailing party is entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees.

Any reference in the Disclosure Document requiring the franchisee to consent to a limitation of claims is deleted. The statute of limitations under North Dakota law applies.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by a franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor.
