What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement and area development agreement require you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation and/or litigation only in Colorado. Out-of-state mediation or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate or litigate with the franchisor in Colorado than in your own state.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

NOTICE REQUIRED BY STATE OF MICHIGAN

THE STATE OF MICHIGAN PROHIBITS CERTAIN UNFAIR PROVISIONS THAT ARE SOMETIMES IN FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS. IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS ARE IN THESE FRANCHISE DOCUMENTS, THE PROVISIONS ARE VOID AND CANNOT BE ENFORCED AGAINST YOU.

Each of the following provisions is void and unenforceable if contained in any documents relating to a franchise:

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that the franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This will not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its terms except for good cause. Good cause will include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if (i) the term of the franchise is less than five years, and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least six months' advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type or under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This will not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause will include, but is not limited to:
 - (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisor's then-current reasonable qualifications or standards.
 - (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.

(iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.

(iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.

(h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. This subdivision does not prohibit a provision that grants to a franchisor a right of first refusal to purchase the assets of a franchise on the same terms and conditions as a bona fide third party willing and able to purchase those assets, nor does this subdivision prohibit a provision that grants the franchisor the right to acquire the assets of a franchise for the market or appraised value of such assets if the franchisee has breached the lawful provisions of the franchise agreement and has failed to cure the breach in the manner provided in subdivision (c).

(i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

The fact there is a notice of this offering on file with the attorney general does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the attorney general.

Any questions regarding this notice should be directed to the Department of Attorney General, State of Michigan, 670 G. Mennen Williams Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, telephone (517) 373-7117.

THE MICHIGAN NOTICE APPLIES ONLY TO FRANCHISEES WHO ARE RESIDENTS OF MICHIGAN OR LOCATE THEIR FRANCHISES IN MICHIGAN.

ITEM 1
THE FRANCHISOR, AND ANY PARENT, PREDECESSORS, AND AFFILIATES

To simplify the language in this Franchise Disclosure Document, “we,” “us,” and “our” mean Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC, the franchisor. “You,” “your,” and “Franchisee” mean the person and its owners (if the Franchisee is a business entity) who buys the franchise from us.

The Franchisor

We are a Colorado limited liability company organized on March 5, 2015. We operate under the names “Rush Bowls Franchising” and “Rush Bowls.” Our principal business address is 11031 Sheridan Boulevard, Suite One, Westminster, Colorado 80020. We have offered franchises for Rush Bowls Restaurants since March 2015. We do not conduct business under any other name or in any other line of business and we do not offer franchises in any other line of business. We do not conduct, and have never conducted, a business of the type described in this Franchise Disclosure Document. We have no parents or predecessors.

We have two affiliates.

LR Industries, Inc. is a Colorado corporation incorporated on May 13, 2004, whose principal business address is 5078 Cottonwood Drive, Boulder, Colorado 80301 (“LR”). LR owns and has operated the Rush Bowls Restaurant at 1207 13th Street, Boulder, Colorado 80302 since 2004. LR also owns the trademarks for “Rush Bowls” and licenses them to us.

WLR Industries, Inc. is a Colorado corporation incorporated on May 20, 2009, whose principal business address is 5078 Cottonwood Drive, Boulder, Colorado 80301 (“WLR”). WLR owns and operates our packaged foods business and manufactures frozen products for sale to supermarkets and other locations. WLR doesn’t currently sell these products to Rush Bowls franchisees, but reserves the right to do so in the future.

Neither of our affiliates has ever offered franchises for Rush Bowls Restaurants or for franchises in any other line of business.

Our agent for service of process in Colorado is Andrew Pudalov at 11031 Sheridan Boulevard, Suite One, Westminster, Colorado 80020. Our agents for service of process for other states are identified by state in Exhibit A. If a state is not listed, we have not appointed an agent for service of process in that state in connection with the requirements of franchise laws. There may be states in addition to those listed above in which we have appointed an agent for service of process. There may also be additional agents appointed in some of the states listed.

The Franchise

Rush Bowls franchisees operate restaurants that offer wholesome, all-natural high-quality bowls and smoothies made from acai, fruit, organic granola, and other ingredients. Rush Bowls Restaurants operate under our system (the “System”) using our trademarks, service marks, trade names, and logos (the “Marks”) from an approved retail location (a “Restaurant”).

You will sign our standard franchise agreement attached to this Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit C (the “Franchise Agreement”). You will operate one Rush Bowls Restaurant within a specified geographic territory (a “Protected Area”) within which we will not establish or franchise others to establish another Rush Bowls Restaurant during the term of your Franchise Agreement.

We also offer the opportunity to sign our area development agreement (the “Area Development Agreement”) and acquire the right to develop multiple Rush Bowls Restaurants in a designated development area (a “Development Territory”) to select qualified persons (“Area Developers”) in accordance with a specified development schedule (a “Development Schedule”) (an “Area Development Franchise”). The Development Territory will be established based on the consumer demographics of the Development Territory, the geographical area, city, county, and other boundaries, and the Area Developer’s capacity. If you enter into an Area Development Agreement, you will sign a Franchise Agreement for your first Rush Bowls Restaurant (the “Initial Franchise Agreement”) when you sign your Area Development Agreement. You will be required to sign our then-current form of standard Franchise Agreement for each Rush Bowls Restaurant that you develop under your Area Development Agreement which may have different terms than the Franchise Agreement included within this Franchise Disclosure Document except that any additional franchise agreements signed pursuant to your Development Schedule will have the same royalty rate as the Initial Franchise Agreement. Unless otherwise stated, any reference in this Franchise Disclosure Document to “you” or “Franchisee” includes you both as an Area Developer under an Area Development Agreement and as a franchisee under a Franchise Agreement.

Market and Competition

The primary market for the goods and services offered by Rush Bowls Restaurants is the general public. Due to the nature of frozen and cold ingredients, smoothies, and other cold products, sales may be seasonal with more business activity in the warmer months and less business activity in colder months. In addition, some Rush Bowls Restaurants located in towns with colleges typically experience higher sales when the college is in session. The restaurant market as a whole is well-developed, highly competitive, and includes retail units, mobile food trucks, and kiosks selling various types of food. You may have to compete with numerous other independent and chain-affiliated restaurants, some of which may be franchised. Many restaurant franchise systems have already established national and international brand recognition.

Industry-Specific Laws

Many states and local jurisdictions have enacted laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances which may apply to the operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant including those which (i) establish general standards, specifications, and requirements for the construction, design, and maintenance of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, (ii) regulate matters affecting the health, safety, and welfare of your customers such as general health and sanitation requirements, employee practices concerning the storage, handling, and preparation of food, restrictions on smoking and exposure to tobacco smoke or other carcinogens or reproductive toxicants and saccharin, and the availability of and requirements for public accommodations including restrooms, (iii) set standards pertaining to employee health and safety, (iv) set standards and requirements for fire safety and general emergency preparedness, (v) govern the use of vending machines, (vi) regulate the proper use, storage, and disposal of waste, insecticides, and other hazardous materials, (vii) establish general requirements or restrictions on advertising containing false or misleading claims, or health and nutrient claims on menus or otherwise, such as “low calorie” or “fat free,” and (viii) establish requirements concerning withholdings and employee reporting of taxes on tips. You will also obtain all necessary permits, licenses, and approvals to operate your Rush Bowls Restaurant. You do not need to obtain a liquor license for the operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, but we reserve the right to require one in the future. Many local or state jurisdictions require food service permits for those preparing, handling, and serving food to the public. You and your employees may be required to pass a test or other certification process to obtain these permits. There may also be local ordinances and regulations governing food storage, preparation, and serving.

You alone are responsible for investigating, understanding, and complying with all applicable laws, regulations, and requirements applicable to you and your Rush Bowls franchise despite any advice or information that we may give you. You should consult with a legal advisor about whether these and/or other requirements apply to your Rush Bowls franchise or Rush Bowls Restaurant. Failure to comply with laws and regulations is a material breach of the Franchise Agreement.

Notes:

1. All fees paid to us or our affiliates are uniform and non-refundable under any circumstances. Fees paid to vendors or other suppliers may be refundable depending on the vendors and suppliers. We currently require you to pay fees and other amounts due to us or our affiliates via electronic funds transfer (“EFT”) or similar means. You will complete the EFT authorization in the form attached to this Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit H. We can require an alternative payment method or payment frequency for any fees or amounts owed to us or our affiliates under your Franchise Agreement. If you enter into an Area Development Agreement to operate multiple Rush Bowls Restaurants, the fees indicated in the chart above are the fees charged and/or incurred for each Rush Bowls Restaurant. All fees are current as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document. Certain fees may increase over the term of your Franchise Agreement as indicated above.
2. “Gross Sales” means the total of all revenues and income from the sale of all food products, beverages, and other related merchandise, products, and services to your customers whether or not sold or performed at or from your Rush Bowls Restaurant, and whether received in cash, coupon, services in kind, from barter or exchange, on credit (whether or not payment is received), or otherwise. If you offer any services including, without limitation, catering or special events, all receipts from these services (including additional delivery charges) are included in Gross Sales. You may deduct from Gross Sales the amount of all sales tax receipts or similar tax receipts which are chargeable to customers by law if the taxes are separately stated when the customer is charged and paid to the appropriate taxing authority. You may also deduct from Gross Sales the amount of any documented refunds, chargebacks, credits, charged tips, and allowances you give in good faith to your customers. All barter and/or exchange transactions in which you furnish services or products in exchange for goods or services provided to you by a vendor, supplier, or customer will be valued at the full retail value of the goods or services provided to you for the purpose of determining Gross Sales.

3. Local and Regional Advertising Cooperatives. If a local or regional advertising cooperative is established, your contribution amounts will be established by the cooperative members subject to our approval. We anticipate that each franchisee and each Rush Bowls Restaurant that we own will have one vote for each Rush Bowls Restaurant operating in the designated market. Each Rush Bowls Restaurant we own that exists within the designated market will contribute to the cooperative on the same basis as our franchisees. Members of the cooperative will be responsible for administering the cooperative including determining the amount of contributions due from each member. No local or regional advertising cooperatives have been established as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document.

4. Non-Compliance Fee. Examples of non-compliance include, without limitation, using unapproved suppliers, displaying outdated or off-brand advertising materials, failure to meet your local advertising expenditure requirements, refusal to communicate with us, using unapproved building materials, failure to correct deficiencies noted during an inspection of your Rush Bowls Restaurant's operations, misusing social media, failing to respond to poor customer reviews in a timely manner after consultation with us, refusing to participate in a "limited time offer" program, and failing to engage a commercial cleaning service to clean your Rush Bowls Restaurant on at least an annual basis.

Notes:

These estimated initial expenses are our best estimates of the costs you may incur in establishing and operating your Rush Bowls franchise. We do not offer direct or indirect financing for these items. All expenditures paid to us or our affiliates are uniform and non-refundable under any circumstances. All expenses payable to third parties are non-refundable except as you may arrange for utility deposits and other payments.

1. Initial Franchise Fee. If you purchase the rights to operate multiple Rush Bowls Restaurants under an Area Development Agreement, the only additional initial cost that you will incur over the purchase of a single Rush Bowls franchise will be your Development Fee until you open your additional Rush Bowls Restaurants. Once you open your additional Rush Bowls Restaurants, you will incur the costs listed in this Item 7 (except for the Initial Franchise Fee) at the time you open your additional Rush Bowls Restaurants. These costs may increase in the future depending on when you open your additional Rush Bowls Restaurants. The estimate does not include the build-out of any Rush Bowls Restaurant other than your first one.
2. Leasehold Improvements and Rent – Three Months. This estimate does not include any construction allowances that may be offered by your landlord. This estimate includes expenses you will incur to build out your location including all costs required to set up your equipment. Actual building and construction costs will vary depending upon the condition and size of the premises for your Rush Bowls Restaurant and local construction costs. This estimate includes three months of lease payments and is based on a premises of approximately 500 to 1,500 square feet. Your actual rent payments may vary depending upon your location and your market's retail lease rates. See Note 8 below for utility, security, and lease deposit estimates. If you choose to purchase the premises for your Rush Bowls Restaurant, then the purchase price, down payment, interest rates, and other financing terms will determine your monthly mortgage payments.

3. Wages, Travel Expenses, and Living Expenses During Training. We provide an initial training program at a location we designate (generally at your Rush Bowls Restaurant). If training is provided at a location other than your Rush Bowls Restaurant, you will pay for airfare, meals, transportation costs, lodging, and incidental expenses for all initial training program attendees and our representatives who conduct your on-site training. Provided they attend at the same time, initial training is provided to you at no charge for up to two people including you (or your Operating Principal (defined below) if you are an entity) and your Designated Manager (defined below) if you have one. If additional initial training is required or more people must be trained, an additional fee will be assessed. This estimate includes costs and expenses you may incur for the initial training program. The low end assumes that initial training is provided at your location.
4. Furniture, Fixtures, Supplies, Décor, Inventory, and Equipment. This includes the cost of equipment, registers, small wares, office equipment and supplies, interior signage, and opening food and paper product inventory. Your furniture, fixtures, décor, and equipment may be financed through a bank or other financial institution, leased, or purchased outright.
5. Signage. This includes the cost of exterior signage only.
6. Point-of-Sale and Computer System. This includes the costs of computer hardware, peripherals, and software that will serve as your point-of-sale computer system and the maintenance agreement for that system.
7. Licenses and Permits. You should check with your local licensing regulatory agency to determine the cost of your licenses. This estimate does not include the cost of procuring a liquor license as none is currently required.
8. Miscellaneous Site Development Fees. Miscellaneous site development fees are costs associated with developing the site for your Rush Bowls Restaurant including, without limitation, security and lease deposits, utility and license deposits, impact fees, commissions, permits, miscellaneous professional fees to acquire or lease the premises of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, and other associated site development accounting and legal fees. You should check with your local regulatory agency that issues building permits to determine what impact, connection, or other site development fees may be required for the specific site of your Rush Bowls Restaurant.
9. Grand Opening. You will spend between $3,000 and $6,500 on the grand opening of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. This amount does not include the $800 you will pay to our digital marketing vendor to set up your website.
10. Grand Opening Training Fee. You will pay us $6,000 at least 14 days before your grand opening to cover our travel and training expenses. Any additional costs for our travel and training expenses above $6,000 will be billed to you within 30 days. Grand opening assistance is required for the first two Rush Bowls Restaurants you open. If you are opening your third or subsequent Rush Bowls Restaurant, we reserve the right to require grand opening assistance at our sole discretion, in which case this fee will be paid by you. Our estimates are based on the actual expenses our training team has incurred. We reserve the right to change the described amounts.

11. Webpage Set Up Fee. You will pay the webpage set up fee directly to our digital marketing vendor to set up your webpage and for your first five months of hosting service, after which hosting service costs will be paid by your ongoing Brand Fund Contributions (defined below).

12. Additional Funds. These amounts represent our estimate of the amount needed to cover your expenses for the initial three-month start-up phase of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. They include payroll, uniforms, administrative, janitorial, maintenance, utilities, and other items. They do not include standard pre-opening expenses, Royalties, or advertising fees payable under your Franchise Agreement or any debt service. They assume that none of your expenses are offset by any sales generated during your start-up phase. We have elected to include certain fees as line items above including rent payments. These fees could also be included in our Additional Funds amounts. For purposes of this disclosure, we estimate the start-up phase to be three months from the date your Rush Bowls Restaurant opens for business. These figures are estimates and we cannot guarantee that you will not have additional expenses when opening your Rush Bowls Restaurant. We relied on our franchising experience since 2015 and LR's experience operating our company-owned Rush Bowls Restaurants to formulate these amounts. You will bear any deviation or escalation in costs from the estimates that we have given. Your costs will depend on factors such as how well you follow our methods and procedures, your management skills, experience, and business acumen, local economic conditions, the local market for your products and services, the prevailing wage rate, competition, the sales level reached during your start-up period, and the size of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. Additional funds for the operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant will be required after the first three months of operation if sales produced by your Rush Bowls franchise are not sufficient to produce positive cash flow.

13. Figures May Vary. This is an estimate of your initial start-up expenses for one Rush Bowls Restaurant. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase a Rush Bowls franchise.

Area Developer

Type of Expenditure	Amount		Method of Payment	When Due	To Whom Payment is to be Made
	Low	High
Development Fee ⁽¹⁾	Multi-3 $79,000 Multi-5 $99,000	Multi-3 $79,000 Multi-5 $99,000	Lump sum	At the time you sign your Area Development Agreement	Us

TOTAL ESTIMATED INITIAL INVESTMENT⁽³⁾	Multi-3 $239,800 Multi-5 $259,800	Multi-3 $584,800 Multi-5 $604,800

Notes:

These estimated initial expenses are our best estimate of the costs you may incur in establishing and operating your Rush Bowls Restaurants under an Area Development Agreement. We do not offer direct or indirect financing for these items. All expenses payable to us are non-refundable except as you may otherwise arrange with us.

1. Development Fee. If you sign an Area Development Agreement to develop a mutually-agreed number of Rush Bowls Restaurants, you will pay a Development Fee. We do not typically authorize parties to develop only two Rush Bowls Restaurants or more than five Rush Bowls Restaurants under an Area Development Agreement. The minimum number of Rush Bowls Restaurants we will authorize you to develop under the Multi-3 is three. We will authorize you to develop either four or five Rush Bowls Restaurants under the Multi-5. The Development Fee for the Multi-3 is $79,000 and the Development Fee for the Multi-5 is $99,000. The Development Fee is payable when you sign your Area Development Agreement, fully earned immediately upon receipt, and non-refundable regardless of whether you open any Rush Bowls Restaurants.
2. Initial Investment for Your First Rush Bowls Restaurant. These are the estimates to start your Rush Bowls Restaurant as described in the single franchise Rush Bowls Restaurant chart above (except for the Initial Franchise Fee which is replaced by the Development Fee). The Grand Opening Training Fee is required for your first and second Rush Bowls Restaurants and may be required for your subsequent Rush Bowls Restaurants, so the initial investment for a Rush Bowls Restaurant will vary depending on the number of Rush Bowls Restaurants you purchase and whether we require the Grand Opening Training Fee for additional Rush Bowls Restaurants. Costs associated with starting additional Rush Bowls Restaurants are subject to factors that we cannot estimate or control such as inflation, increased labor costs, or increased materials costs and will depend on when the additional Rush Bowls Restaurants are opened.
3. Figures May Vary. If you purchase a Multi-3 or Multi-5 under your Area Development Agreement, you will incur all of the costs listed above for each Rush Bowls Restaurant you open except that you will pay a Development Fee instead of Initial Franchise Fees. This is only an estimate of your initial investment and is based on our estimate of domestic costs and market conditions prevailing as of the Issuance Date of this Franchise Disclosure Document. The factors underlying our estimates may vary depending on several variables and the actual investment you make in developing and opening your Area Development Franchise may be greater or less than the estimates given depending upon the locations of your Rush Bowls Restaurants and then-current relevant market conditions. You will bear any deviation or escalation in costs from the estimates that we have given. Many factors that are unique to your location can make a dramatic difference in the estimates provided. The availability and terms of financing depend on several factors including, without limitation, the availability of financing, your creditworthiness, collateral you may have, and lending policies of financial institutions. You should review these figures with a business advisor, financial consultant, or other professional before deciding to enter an Area Development Agreement.

ITEM 8 RESTRICTIONS ON SOURCES OF PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

You will operate your Rush Bowls Restaurant according to our System and specifications. This includes purchasing or leasing all goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, and real estate related to establishing and operating your Rush Bowls Restaurant under our specifications which may include purchasing these items from (i) our designees, (ii) our approved suppliers, or (iii) us or our affiliates. You will not deviate from these methods, standards, and specifications without our prior written consent or otherwise operate in any manner which reflects adversely on our Marks or our System.

Our Franchise Operations Manual states our standards, specifications, and guidelines for all products and services we require you to obtain to establish and operate your Rush Bowls franchise and the approved vendors for these products and services. We will notify you of new or modified standards, specifications, and guidelines through periodic amendments or supplements to our Franchise Operations Manual or through other written communication including, without limitation, electronic communication like email or a system-wide Intranet.

You will purchase, install, maintain in sufficient supply, and use only fixtures, furnishings, equipment, signs, and supplies that conform to the standards and specifications described in our Franchise Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. You will use our approved vendors for all interior signage for use in your Rush Bowls Restaurant.

We utilize proprietary food products and recipes and may continue to develop and own proprietary recipes. In order to protect trade secrets and to monitor the manufacture, packaging, processing, and sale of proprietary food products, we or our affiliates may in the future (i) manufacture, supply, and sell proprietary food products to franchisees, or (ii) disclose the formula for methods and preparation of our proprietary food products to a limited number of suppliers including one or more of our affiliates that we authorize to manufacture our proprietary food products to our precise specifications and sell these proprietary food products to franchisees. You will purchase the proprietary food products we or our affiliates develop from time to time for proprietary recipes or formulas and purchase them only from us or a third party who we have licensed to prepare and sell the proprietary food products. All non-proprietary ingredients, beverage products, cooking materials, containers, cartons, bags, menus, napkins, other paper and plastic products, utensils, uniforms, and other supplies and materials used in your Rush Bowls Restaurant will strictly conform to our reasonable specifications and quality standards. Certain products such as plates, cups, boxes, and containers bearing the Marks will be purchased by you from certain authorized suppliers.

You will maintain an inventory of approved food products, beverages, ingredients, and other products in sufficient quantities and variety to realize the full potential of your Rush Bowls Restaurant at all times. You will use the menus and menu boards that we designate and serve meals and products in the manner we designate.

You will purchase and use sales and marketing materials including, without limitation, banners, menus, decals, and other items from our approved suppliers as disclosed and updated in the Franchise Operations Manual or through other written communication. We and our affiliates reserve the right to become approved suppliers of any proprietary food products and/or non-proprietary products.

You will use the computer hardware and software that we periodically designate to operate your Rush Bowls Restaurant including, without limitation, your point-of-sale system. You will obtain the computer hardware, software licenses, maintenance and support services, and other related services that meet our specifications from the suppliers we specify.

You will obtain and maintain the insurance coverage required by your Franchise Agreement or our Franchise Operations Manual. The required insurance currently includes (i) general liability insurance of at least $2,000,000 per occurrence, (ii) all risks property insurance coverage including fire coverage limits equal to at least the actual replacement cost of your Rush Bowl's Restaurant's furniture, fixtures, and equipment and your other property, (iii) actual loss sustained business interruption insurance with a minimum of coverage limits equal to at least actual replacement cost of your Rush Bowl's Restaurant's furniture, fixtures, and equipment and your other property, (iv) building insurance coverage for the building or the business premises for and against all risk, loss, and damages in an amount equal to at least actual replacement cost, (v) employment practices liability insurance coverage of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence insuring you and your employees for employment-related claims and damages, (vi) automobile liability insurance with coverage of at least $2,000,000 per occurrence insuring against all claims and damages resulting from the use, operation, or maintenance of all automobiles or vehicles owned by you or used by you or your employees (including automobiles owned or leased by any of your employees) in connection with your Rush Bowls Restaurant including, without limitation, for catering and delivery services, (vii) umbrella liability insurance for general liability insurance of at least $2,000,000 for liability insurance coverage for any claims or damages you incur in excess of the primary general liability, automobile liability, employment practices liability, and other liability insurance coverage you carry, and (viii) all insurance required by state or federal law. Your suppliers and independent contractors will obtain and maintain general liability insurance with coverage of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence and automobile insurance with coverage of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence.

Your insurance company must be authorized to do business in the state where your Rush Bowls Restaurant is located and must be approved by us. It will be rated "A" or better by A.M. Best & Company, Inc. We may periodically modify or increase the amounts of coverage required under these insurance policies or require different or additional insurance coverage at any time. All insurance policies will name us and any affiliates we designate as additional named insured parties.

We will provide you with a list of our designated and approved suppliers in our Franchise Operations Manual. If you want to use or sell a product or service that we have not yet evaluated or if you want to purchase or lease a product or service from a supplier or provider that we have not yet approved including, without limitation, local vendors for services and products requiring our approval, you will notify us and submit to us any information, specifications, and samples we request. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify you within 30 days after receiving all requested information and materials whether you are authorized to purchase or lease the product or service from that supplier or provider. Our failure to notify you within the specified time frame will be deemed a disapproval of your request. We reserve the right to charge a fee to evaluate the proposed product, service, or supplier. We evaluate the following general criteria during our review of a proposed supplier: (i) the ability to purchase the product in bulk, (ii) the quality of services, (iii) production and delivery capability, (iv) the proximity to Rush Bowls Restaurants to ensure timely deliveries of the product or services, (v) dependability, and (vi) other factors we deem relevant. A proposed supplier may be required to sign a supplier agreement with us. We may periodically reinspect approved suppliers' facilities and products. We reserve the right to revoke our approval of any supplier, product, or service that does not continue to meet our specifications. We will send you written notice of any revocation of an approved supplier, product, or service. We do not provide material benefits to you based solely on your use of designated or approved sources.

We estimate that approximately 80% of purchases required to open your Rush Bowls Restaurant and 75% of purchases required to operate your Rush Bowls Restaurant will be from us, our affiliates, or from other approved suppliers or under our specifications. We and our affiliates may receive rebates from some suppliers based on your purchase of services and products and we have no obligation to pass them on to our franchisees or use them in any particular manner. We are the only supplier of grand opening assistance. None of our affiliates are currently suppliers of any goods or services sold to our franchisees. Andrew Pudalov owns an interest in WLR which may become, but currently is not, an approved supplier of goods to you. During our last fiscal year ended December 31, 2022, neither we nor our affiliates derived revenue or other material consideration as a result of franchisees' required purchases or leases.

We may negotiate purchase arrangements with suppliers and distributors for the benefit of our franchisees and we may receive rebates or volume discounts from our purchase of equipment and supplies that we resell to you. Currently, we negotiate national rates with manufacturers and distributors for food, equipment, paper and plastic products, and technology. We do not currently have any other purchasing or distribution cooperatives.

You will provide us with a credit card for us to use for ongoing payments to our approved suppliers and vendors.

You may not engage in any marketing, promotional, or other activities with third party delivery service providers without our prior approval.

ITEM 11

FRANCHISOR'S ASSISTANCE, ADVERTISING, COMPUTER SYSTEM, AND TRAINING

Except as listed below, we are not obligated to provide you with any assistance.

Pre-opening Obligations

Before you open your Rush Bowls Restaurant, we or our designee will provide the following assistance and services to you:

1. Provide an initial training program (Franchise Agreement Section 14.1).
2. Loan you one copy of our Franchise Operations Manual. Our Franchise Operations Manual is approximately 125 pages long. The Table of Contents for our Franchise Operations Manual is attached to this Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit G (Franchise Agreement Section 11.1).
3. Provide you with advice to identify a suitable location for your Rush Bowls Restaurant if you request assistance (Franchise Agreement Section 12). We have also partnered with a vendor to assist in the data analysis and site selection process. The service is optional and provided at no cost to you. Although we will consult with you regarding your site and require your site to be subject to our final authorization, you have the ultimate responsibility for choosing, obtaining, and developing the site for your Rush Bowls Restaurant. We must approve the site before you sign any lease. We do not guarantee the suitability or success of the accepted site.
4. To evaluate a proposed site, we consider factors such as general location and neighborhood, traffic patterns, parking, size, layout, and other physical characteristics. Before leasing or purchasing the site for your Rush Bowls Restaurant, you will submit to us a description of the site in the form we specify with such other information and materials we may reasonably require. We will have 30 days after we receive the information and materials to evaluate the proposed site. If we disapprove of the proposed site, you will select another site subject to our consent. You must purchase or lease the site for your Rush Bowls Restaurant within 180 days after signing the Franchise Agreement. We may terminate the Franchise Agreement if you do not submit an approved site and then purchase or lease it within 180 days after signing the Franchise Agreement. We generally do not own the premises for any Rush Bowls Restaurant (Franchise Agreement Section 12.2).
5. Once you have an approved site for your Rush Bowls Restaurant, we will designate a Protected Area (defined below). If you sign an Area Development Agreement, we will designate the Development Territory before you sign the Area Development Agreement (Attachment 1-1 of Franchise Agreement and Attachment A of Area Development Agreement).

6. Review your lease agreement for your Rush Bowls Restaurant to ensure that its terms contain our required provisions and otherwise meet our minimum standards (Franchise Agreement Section 12.1).

7. We will provide a copy of our basic specifications for the design and layout of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. You are responsible for the costs of preparing architectural, engineering, and construction drawings and site plans which you will submit to us for our review and approval before you begin construction of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. You are responsible for construction and remodeling costs (Franchise Agreement Section 12).

8. We will arrange for at least one representative to provide on-site assistance for the opening of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. For approximately five days before and during your opening, we will assist you with implementing the System at your Rush Bowls Restaurant and training your employees. We will send you an invoice for any additional travel and related expenses of our representatives upon completion of the on-site grand opening assistance. You will pay the invoice within ten days after receipt of the invoice. The grand opening assistance is required for your first and second Rush Bowls Restaurants. We will not be required to provide grand opening assistance for your third or any subsequent Rush Bowls Restaurant opening (Franchise Agreement Section 14.3).

9. We may conduct “new restaurant opening” calls outlining store opening steps and timelines with you or multiple new Rush Bowls franchisees in our discretion (Franchise Agreement Section 14.4).

We do not provide the above services to renewing franchisees and may not provide all of the above services to franchisees that purchase existing Rush Bowls Restaurants.

Schedule for Opening

The typical length of time between signing the Franchise Agreement or the payment of any fees and the opening of the Rush Bowls Restaurant can vary from six weeks to twelve months. Some factors which may affect this timing are your ability to acquire a location through lease or purchase negotiations, your ability to secure any necessary financing, your ability to comply with local zoning and other ordinances, your ability to obtain any necessary permits and certifications, the timing of the delivery of equipment, tools, and inventory, and the time to convert, renovate, or build-out your Rush Bowls Restaurant.

If you are an Area Developer, you will sign your first Franchise Agreement when you sign your Area Development Agreement. The typical length of time between signing the Initial Franchise Agreement and opening the first Rush Bowls Restaurant under an Area Development Agreement is the same as for a single Rush Bowls Restaurant. Each additional Rush Bowls Restaurant you develop will be opened according to the terms of your Development Schedule. The site selection and approval process for each Rush Bowls Restaurant under an Area Development Agreement is the same as that for a single Rush Bowls Restaurant and will be governed by the Franchise Agreement signed for that location.

Continuing Obligations

During the operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, we or our designee will provide the following assistance and services to you:

1. Inform you of mandatory specifications, standards, and procedures for the operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant (Franchise Agreement Sections 9, 10, and 14).

2. Provide you with advice and guidance regarding advertising and marketing (Franchise Agreement Section 5).

3. Provide additional training to you for newly-hired personnel regarding the Rush Bowls brand and System guidelines, refresher training courses, and such additional training or assistance that you need or request at our discretion. You may be required to pay additional fees for this training or assistance (Franchise Agreement Section 14).

4. Allow you to continue to use confidential materials including the Franchise Operations Manual and the Marks (Franchise Agreement Sections 11 and 16).

Optional Assistance

During the term of the Franchise Agreement, we or our designee may, but are not required to, provide the following assistance and services to you:

1. Modify, update, or change the System including, without limitation, the adoption and use of new or modified trade names, trademarks, service marks, copyrighted materials, new products, new menu items, new equipment, or new techniques.

2. Make periodic visits to your Rush Bowls Restaurant to assist with aspects of the operation and management of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, prepare written reports concerning these visits outlining any suggested changes or improvements in the operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, and detail any problems in the operations which become evident during any visit. If provided at your request, you will reimburse our expenses and pay our then-current training charges.

3. Maintain and administer a Brand Fund. We may dissolve the Brand Fund upon written notice (Franchise Agreement Section 4).

4. Hold periodic national or regional conferences to discuss business and operational issues affecting franchisees.

5. Assist you in establishing pricing including prescribing minimum or maximum retail prices for the products or services you will offer and sell at your Rush Bowls Restaurant as allowed by law.

Advertising

Brand Fund

We have established the Brand Fund for marketing, developing, and promoting the System, the Marks, and Rush Bowls Restaurants. You will pay 2% of your Gross Sales for the Brand Fund (the “Brand Fund Contribution”), but we reserve the right to increase contributions up to 3% of your Gross Sales upon 90 days’ written notice to you. Your contribution to the Brand Fund is in addition to all other advertising requirements set out in this Item 11. Each franchisee will contribute to the Brand Fund, but certain franchisees may contribute on a different basis depending on when they signed their Franchise Agreement. Rush Bowls Restaurants owned by us and our affiliates and former affiliates are not obligated to contribute to the Brand Fund.

The Brand Fund is administered by us, our affiliates, or our designees at our discretion. We may use a professional advertising agency or media buyer to assist us. The Brand Fund is kept in a dedicated bank account, commercial account, or savings account.

We have complete discretion on how the Brand Fund will be utilized. We may use the Brand Fund for local, regional, or national marketing, advertising, sales promotion and promotional materials, public and consumer relations, website development and search engine optimization, the development or use of various technology for the System including, without limitation, application-related activities, and any other purpose to promote the Rush Bowls brand. We may use any media for disseminating Brand Fund advertisements including, without limitation, photos, videos, audio clips, direct mail, print ads, the Internet, radio, billboards, and television. We may reimburse ourselves, our authorized representatives, or our affiliates from the Brand Fund for administrative costs, independent audits, reasonable accounting, bookkeeping, reporting and legal expenses, taxes, and all other direct or indirect expenses associated with the programs funded by the Brand Fund. We do not guarantee that advertising expenditures from the Brand Fund will benefit you or any other franchisee directly, on a pro rata basis, or at all. We are not obligated to spend any amount on advertising in the geographical area where you are or will be located. We will not use the Brand Fund contributions for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises, but we reserve the right to include a notation in any advertisement or website indicating "Franchises Available" or similar language.

We assume no fiduciary duty to you or other direct or indirect liability or obligation to collect amounts due to the Brand Fund or to maintain, direct, or administer the Brand Fund. Any unused funds that are collected in any calendar year will be applied to the following year's funds and we reserve the right to contribute or loan additional funds to the Brand Fund on any terms we deem reasonable.

The Brand Fund is not audited. We will provide to you with an annual accounting for the Brand Fund that shows how the Brand Fund proceeds have been spent for the previous year upon your written request. During our most recent fiscal year ended December 31, 2022, the Brand Fund was spent as follows: 20% on production, 20% on media placement, 25% on administration, 10% on email marketing, and 25% on public relations. Neither we nor our affiliates receive payments for providing goods or services to the Brand Fund except for reimbursement of expenses as described above.

Local Advertising

In addition to the Brand Fund Contributions, you will spend an average of 2% of your Gross Sales on local advertising each calendar quarter (the "Local Advertising Requirement"). If you fail to spend the Local Advertising Requirement, you will be required to pay the difference to the Brand Fund. You will issue and offer such rebates, giveaways, and other promotions in accordance with advertising programs we establish at your sole expense. You will honor the rebates, giveaways, and other promotions issued by other franchisees under any such programs so long as such compliance does not contravene any applicable law, rule, or regulation. You will not create or issue any gift cards or gift certificates and will only sell gift the gift cards or gift certificates that have been issued or sponsored by us and which are accepted at all Rush Bowls Restaurants. You will not issue coupons or discounts of any type except we may approve at our discretion.

You may be required to participate in any local or regional advertising cooperative for Rush Bowls Restaurants that are established. The area of each local and regional advertising cooperative will be defined by us based on our assessment of the area. Franchisees in each cooperative will contribute an amount to the cooperative not to exceed 4% of Gross Sales for each Rush Bowls Restaurant that the franchisee owns that exists within the cooperative's area. Each Rush Bowls Restaurant we own that exists within the cooperative's area will contribute to the cooperative on the same basis as our franchisees. Members of the cooperative will be responsible for administering the cooperative including, without limitation, determining the amount of contributions from each member. We may require that each cooperative operate with governing documents and prepare annual unaudited financial statements. We may form, change, dissolve, or merge any cooperative formed in the future. If we elect to form such cooperatives or if such cooperatives already exist near your Protected Area, you will be required to participate in compliance with the provisions of the Franchise Operations Manual which we may periodically modify at our discretion.

You will order sales and marketing material from our approved suppliers. It is a material breach of your Franchise Agreement to use other marketing material without obtaining our prior written approval. If you desire to use your own advertising materials, you will obtain our prior approval which may be granted or denied at our sole discretion. We will review your request and we will respond in writing within 30 days from the date we receive all requested information. Our failure to notify you in the specified timeframe will be deemed a disapproval of your request. Use of logos, Marks, and other name identification materials will follow our approved standards. You may not use our logos, Marks, and other name identification materials on items to be sold or services to be provided without our prior written approval. You will pay a fee of $500 per occurrence to the Brand Fund if you use unauthorized advertising materials.

If you wish to advertise online, you will follow our online policy which is contained in our Franchise Operations Manual. Our online policy may change as technology and the Internet changes. Under our online policy, we may retain the sole right to market on the Internet including, without limitation, all use of websites, domain names, advertising, and co-branding arrangements. We may restrict your use of social media. We may not allow you to independently market on the Internet or use any domain name, address, locator, link, metatag, or search technique with words or symbols similar to the Marks. We intend that any franchisee website will be accessed only through our home page.

Grand Opening Marketing

You will spend between $3,000 and $6,500 on approved grand opening marketing, advertising, and promotion for your Rush Bowls Restaurant during the period commencing 30 days prior to the opening of your Rush Bowls Restaurant and ending 90 days after the date on which your Rush Bowls Restaurant opens for business. We will prepare a grand opening marketing plan outlining the use of marketing budget and review the plan with you in advance of launch. This plan will include developing webpages specific to your location at www.rushbowls.com and may include a combination of Google Display Network advertising campaigns, social media advertising, email marketing, SEO optimization, public relations strategy, in-store collateral materials, and other initiatives as deemed necessary as part of our new store outreach program.

If requested by us, you will provide us with an accurate accounting in the form we prescribe of your expenditures for grand opening marketing, advertising, and promotion within 120 days after the opening of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. All expenditures for grand opening marketing, advertising, and promotion will be in addition to your other marketing, advertising, and promotion obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

Advisory Council

We currently do not have an advisory council (a "Council") to advise us on advertising policies, but we may form one in the future. The Council will be governed by bylaws. Members of the Council will consist of both franchisees and corporate representatives. Members of the Council will be appointed by us at our sole discretion. The Council will serve in an advisory capacity only. We will have the power to form, change, or dissolve the Council at our sole discretion.

Media Communications

You will not participate in interviews or other media-related activities without our prior permission.

Computer System

You are required to purchase a computer system capable of running MS Office and our approved point-of-sale system (the “POS System”) (collectively, the “Computer System”). The POS System is currently Revel Systems POS, but we reserve the right to change the POS System in the future. We estimate the cost of purchasing the Computer System will be between $3,000 and $4,500. The Computer System will manage the daily workflow of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, coordinate the customer ordering experience, and track other information. You will record all Gross Sales on the Computer System. You will store all data and information in the Computer System and report data and information in the manner we specify. The Computer System will generate reports on the Gross Sales of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. You will maintain a high-speed Internet connection at your Rush Bowls Restaurant. In addition to offering and accepting approved gift cards, gift certificates, and loyalty cards, you will accept all credit cards and debit cards as we determine. We are not required to provide you with any ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades, updates, or support for the Computer System. You will arrange for the installation, maintenance, and support of the Computer System at your cost. There are no limitations in the Franchise Agreement regarding the costs of such required support, maintenance repairs, or upgrades relating to the Computer System. The cost of maintaining, updating, or upgrading the Computer System or its components will depend on your repair history, costs of computer maintenance services in your area, and technological advances. We estimate the annual cost will range between $2,000 and $3,000, but this range may vary as discussed above. We may revise our specifications for the Computer System periodically. You will upgrade or replace your Computer System when specifications are revised. There is no limitation on the frequency and cost of this obligation.

We or our designee have the right to independently access the electronic information and data relating to your Rush Bowls Restaurant and to collect and use your electronic information and data in any manner including, without limitation, to promote the System and the sale of Rush Bowls Restaurants. This may include posting financial information of each franchisee on an Intranet. There is no contractual limitation on our right to receive or use information through our proprietary data management and Intranet. We may access the electronic information and data from your Computer System remotely, at your Rush Bowls Restaurant, or from other locations.

Training

Initial Training

We will provide approximately one week of initial training at a location we determine (generally your Rush Bowls Restaurant) which is typically conducted a week to two weeks prior to your Rush Bowls Restaurant’s grand opening. You or your Operating Principal and any Designated Manager or representative that we require will complete the initial training to our satisfaction before you open your Rush Bowls Restaurant. We provide initial training for one to two people if they attend at the same time. You will pay up to a $500 fee for training each additional person after the first two. If training is provided at a location other than your Rush Bowls Restaurant, you will pay for associated expenses for such training for your attendees including, without limitation, accommodation costs, salary costs, transportation costs, and food costs. Initial training classes are held as often as necessary for franchisees to complete the initial training program. You will not receive any compensation or reimbursement for services or expenses for your participation in the initial training program. We plan to provide the training listed in the table below.

Notes:

1. We reserve the right to vary the length and content of the initial training program based upon the experience and skill level of the individuals attending the initial training program. We use our Franchise Operations Manual as the primary instruction materials during the initial training program.
2. Eric Gilson currently oversees our training program. Mr. Gilson is our Vice President of Finance and Operations and has been with us for over five years. He brings over six years of management experience and has managed a Rush Bowls Restaurant. Nicole Chamorro conducts training in the general operations of a Rush Bowls Restaurant. Ms. Chamorro brings over four years of management experience and has managed a Rush Bowls Restaurant. Other instructors will include experienced Rush Bowls restaurant managers or assistant managers with at least one year of management or training experience.

Ongoing Training

From time to time, we may require that you, your Operating Principal, your Designated Managers, or your other employees attend system-wide refresher or additional training courses. Some of these courses may be optional while others may be required. If you appoint a new Operating Principal or Designated Manager, that person will attend and successfully complete our initial training program before assuming responsibility for the management of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. If we conduct an inspection of your Rush Bowls Restaurant and determine you are not operating in compliance with your Franchise Agreement, we may require that you attend remedial training to address the operational deficiencies. You may also request that we provide additional training at either our corporate headquarters or at your Rush Bowls Restaurant, which we will provide at our discretion. You will pay for airfare, meals, transportation costs, lodging, and incidental expenses for your training program attendees.

Prospective Franchisee Tours

We may require that you allow prospective franchisees to tour your Rush Bowls Restaurant.

Annual Cleaning

You will engage a commercial cleaning service to thoroughly clean your Rush Bowls Restaurant at least annually or as we otherwise direct in our discretion.

ITEM 12 TERRITORY

Franchise Agreement

Rush Bowls Restaurant

You may operate your Rush Bowls Restaurant only at the approved location. The approved location for your Rush Bowls Restaurant will be described in your Franchise Agreement. If you have not identified an approved location for your Rush Bowls Restaurant when you sign your Franchise Agreement (as is typical), you and we will agree on an approved location in writing and amend your Franchise Agreement after you select a location we approve. You are not guaranteed any specific approved location and you may not be able to obtain your first choice as your approved location. You may not conduct your business from any other location. You may not relocate your Rush Bowls Restaurant without our prior written approval. We may approve a request to relocate your Rush Bowls Restaurant, provided you are not in default of your Franchise Agreement, in accordance with the provisions of your Franchise Agreement that provide for the relocation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant and our then-current site selection policies and procedures. Any proposed new location will be located in your Protected Area. You will be required to pay a relocation fee.

Protected Area

You will receive a Protected Area within which we will not establish or franchise others to establish another Rush Bowls Restaurant during the term of your Franchise Agreement. The Protected Area is determined based on the geographic area and population's properties within that area and other relevant demographic characteristics. Protected Area sizes will differ among franchisees and will be determined by the specific demographics and attributes of the area in which the Rush Bowls Restaurant is located. We currently define areas as follows: (i) "Urban Areas" are primarily dense urban residential areas, (ii) "Suburban Areas" are moderately dense residential areas primarily on the outskirts of larger metropolitan areas or moderately-sized towns away from metro areas, and (iii) "Rural Areas" are low density residential areas in smaller towns across the United States. As a general rule, your Protected Area will be an approximately zero to 1/2-mile radius from your Rush Bowls Restaurant for an Urban Area, an approximately 1/2-mile to one-mile radius from your Rush Bowls Restaurant for a Suburban Area, and an approximately one-mile to two-mile radius from your Rush Bowls Restaurant for a Rural Area.

You are not prohibited from directly marketing to or soliciting customers whose principal residence is outside of your Protected Area. If you renew your Franchise Agreement, your Protected Area may be modified depending on the then-current demographics of the Protected Area and our then-current standards for determining Protected Areas. Neither we nor any affiliates operate, franchise, or have plans to operate or franchise a business under a different trademark selling goods or services similar to those you will offer.

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

You will follow our off-site policies and procedures in our Franchise Operations Manual. You may provide catering and delivery services within your Protected Area and you may provide catering and delivery services outside of your Protected Area provided that you may not provide catering and delivery services in another franchisee's Protected Area. We may impose restrictions in the future that prevent you from providing catering and delivery services outside of your Protected Area. We have the right to withdraw our approval of catering and delivery services upon 30 days' prior written notice.

If you wish to purchase an additional Rush Bowls franchise, you will apply to us and we may offer you an additional Rush Bowls franchise at our sole discretion. We consider a variety of factors when determining whether to grant additional Rush Bowls franchises. Among the factors we consider, in addition to the then-current requirements for new franchisees, are whether or not the franchisee is in compliance with the requirements under their current Franchise Agreement.

If you wish to revise, amend, or relocate your Protected Area, you will apply to us to do so and we may, but are not required to, grant your request. We may condition our approval of your request on any terms or conditions that we deem reasonable including, without limitation, requiring you to pay a Territory Revision Fee of up to $1,000 as described in Item 6.

You will not receive the right to acquire additional Rush Bowls franchises within your Protected Area unless you purchase the right in your Area Development Agreement. You are not given a right of first refusal on the sale of existing Rush Bowls franchises.

We have established a website (the "Rush Bowls Website") and have the sole right to control its features and advertise and promote Rush Bowls Restaurants, including your Rush Bowls Restaurant. If you wish to advertise online using your own website, you may not establish an account or participate in any social networking sites or mention or discuss Rush Bowls Restaurants, us, or any of our affiliates without our prior written consent and subject to our online policy. You cannot use other channels of distribution, the Internet, catalog sales, telemarketing, or other direct marketing to make sales outside of your Protected Area.

Area Development Agreement

Under the Area Development Agreement, you are assigned a Development Territory in which you will develop a designated number of Rush Bowls Restaurants. The size of your Development Territory will depend on the number of Rush Bowls Restaurants to be developed, the area's demographics, the area's population, and other factors. In certain densely populated metropolitan areas, a Development Territory may be small if it has a high population density, while Development Territories in less densely populated urban areas may have significantly larger areas.

Your Development Territory will be an exclusive territory for the development of Rush Bowls Restaurants during the term of your Area Development Agreement so long as you are in compliance with your Area Development Agreement. This exclusivity grants you the exclusive rights to open Rush Bowls Restaurants in your Development Territory if you follow the terms of your Area Development Agreement. The rights granted under your Area Development Agreement relate only to the development of the Rush Bowls Restaurants identified in your Area Development Agreement. Except as provided in your Area Development Agreement and subject to your full compliance with your Area Development Agreement and any other agreement among you or any of your affiliates and us or any of our affiliates, neither we nor our affiliates will establish or authorize any other person or entity other than you to establish a Rush Bowls Restaurant in your Development Territory during the term of your Area Development Agreement. Your Development Territory may already include existing Rush Bowls Restaurants and you may not develop a Rush Bowls Restaurant that infringes on the territorial rights of existing Rush Bowls franchisees.

We, our affiliates, and any other authorized person or entity including, without limitation, any other franchisee may at any time conduct any other type of activities within your Development Territory that we are permitted to conduct under your Area Development Agreement or your Franchise Agreements. Your Development Territory will terminate upon completion of your Development Schedule or the termination of your Area Development Agreement, whichever occurs first, and the only territorial protections that you will receive upon termination will be those under each individual Franchise Agreement. The site selection and approval process for each Rush Bowls Restaurant under an Area Development Agreement is the same as that for a single Rush Bowls Restaurant and will be governed by the Franchise Agreement signed for that Rush Bowls Restaurant.

Any failure to adhere to your Development Schedule will constitute a material event of default under your Area Development Agreement, for which we may, without limitation (i) terminate your Area Development Agreement, (ii) terminate the territorial exclusivity in your Development Territory, (iii) reduce the area of your Development Territory, (iv) permit you to extend your Development Schedule, or (v) pursue any other remedy we may have at law or in equity including, without limitation, a suit for non-performance.

The size of your Development Territory may be a single or multi-city area, single county area, or some other area and will be described in Attachment A to your Area Development Agreement. We will determine your Development Territory before you sign your Area Development Agreement based on various market and economic factors.

Reservation of Rights

We and our affiliates have the right to operate and license others to operate Rush Bowls Restaurants at any location outside your Protected Area or your Development Territory even if doing so will or might affect the operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurants. We retain all rights not expressly granted to you. These include the rights for us and our affiliates to:

1. Own, franchise, acquire, operate, or license to others to operate Rush Bowls Restaurants at any location outside of your Protected Area or your Development Territory regardless of proximity to your Rush Bowls Restaurants.

2. Develop other business concepts under other brand names, provided such concepts are not competitive businesses, even if the locations for the concepts are within your Protected Area or your Development Area and even if these businesses are in competition with you.

3. Use the Marks and the System to sell products or services similar to those that you will sell through any alternate channels of distribution within or outside of your Protected Area or your Development

Area. This includes, without limitation, other channels of distribution such as television, catalog sales, wholesale to unrelated retail outlets, or the Internet. We exclusively reserve the Internet as a channel of distribution for us or our affiliates and you may not independently market on the Internet or conduct e-commerce.

4. Offer and sell food products including, without limitation, frozen products and proprietary food products under the Marks or any other marks, through grocery stores, convenience stores, hotel shops, theatres, malls, airports, gas stations, college campuses, military facilities, sports venues, theme or entertainment parks, casinos, or other retail locations within or outside of your Protected Area or your Development Territory.

5. Use and license the use of other proprietary and non-proprietary marks or methods that are not the same as or confusingly similar to the Marks, whether in alternative channels of distribution or in the operation of a business offering wholesome, all-natural food bowls and related products and services at any location including within your Protected Area or your Development Territory that may be similar to or different from your Rush Bowls Restaurant.

6. Engage in any transaction including, without limitation, purchasing, being purchased by, merging, or combining with, or converting the System into a new system with any business whether franchised or corporately owned, including a business that competes directly with your Rush Bowls Restaurant, located anywhere, provided that any such businesses located inside of your Protected Area or your Development Territory will not operate under the Marks.

7. Implement multi-area marketing programs that may allow us or others to solicit or sell to customers anywhere. We reserve the right to issue mandatory policies to coordinate such multi-area marketing programs.

We are not required to pay you if we exercise any of the rights specified above. Continuation of your Protected Area is not dependent upon your achievement of a certain sales volume, market penetration, or other contingency. We do not pay compensation for soliciting or accepting orders inside your Protected Area or your Development Territory.

ITEM 13 TRADEMARKS

The Marks are owned by LR. LR has granted us an exclusive license (the “Trademark License”) to use our Marks to franchise the System around the world. Your Franchise Agreement and your payment of Royalties grant you a non-exclusive right and license to use the System which includes the use of the Marks. The Trademark License is for ten years and began on May 18, 2016. It will automatically renew for subsequent ten-year periods provided we are not in default or do not materially breach the Trademark License by engaging in any activity that damages our Marks or the goodwill of the System. If the Trademark License is terminated, LR will license the Marks directly to our franchisees until each Franchise Agreement expires or is otherwise terminated. LR has registrations with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the “USPTO”) for the following Marks:

Trademark	Registration Number	Date of Registration	Status
RUSH BOWLS	4212473	September 25, 2012	Registered on the Principal Register

Trademark	Registration Number	Date of Registration	Status
RUSH BOWLS	5265056	August 15, 2017	Registered on the Principal Register
	5345709	November 28, 2017	Registered on the Principal Register

There are no effective adverse material determinations of the USPTO, the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, or the trademark administrator of any state or any court and no pending infringement, opposition, cancellation proceedings, or material litigation involving our Marks. All required affidavits and renewals have been filed.

Except for the Trademark License, there are no agreements currently in effect that significantly limit our right to use or license the use of our principal Marks in any manner material to the System. We do not know of any superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of our Marks. You will follow our rules when using our Marks. You cannot use our name or our Marks as part of a corporate name or with modifying words, designs, or symbols without our prior written consent. You will indicate to the public in any contract or advertisement and display with a conspicuous sign in your Rush Bowls Restaurant that you are an independently owned and operated licensed Rush Bowls franchisee. You may not use our Marks in the sale of unauthorized services or products or in any manner we do not authorize. You may not use our Marks in any advertising for the transfer, sale, or other disposition of your Rush Bowls Restaurant or any interest in your Rush Bowls franchise. All rights and goodwill from the use of our Marks accrue to us.

We will defend you against any claim brought against you by a third party that your use of our Marks in strict accordance with the Franchise Agreement infringes upon that party's intellectual property rights. We may require your assistance, but we will exclusively control any proceeding or litigation relating to our Marks. We have no obligation to pursue any infringing users of our Marks. If we learn of an infringing user, we will take appropriate action, but we are not required to take any action if we do not feel it is warranted. You will notify us within three days if you learn that any party is using our Marks or a trademark that is confusingly similar to our Marks. We have the sole discretion to take such action as we deem appropriate to exclusively control any litigation or administrative proceeding involving a trademark licensed by us to you.

If we determine at any time in our sole discretion that you or us must modify or discontinue using any Mark or use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks, you will comply with our directions within a reasonable time after receiving notice. We will not reimburse you for your direct expenses of changing signage, any loss of revenue, or other indirect expenses resulting from any modified or discontinued Mark or for your expenses of promoting a modified or substituted trademark or service mark.

You will not directly or indirectly contest our right to our Marks. We may acquire, develop, and use additional marks not listed herein and may make those marks available for your use and for use by other franchisees.

ITEM 14 PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

The information in our Franchise Operations Manual is proprietary and protected by copyright and other laws. The designs contained in our Marks, the layout of our advertising materials, the ingredients and formula of our products and recipes, and any other writings and recordings in print or electronic form are also protected by copyright and other laws. Although we have not applied for copyright registration for our Franchise Operations Manual, our advertising materials, the content and format of our products or any other writings and recordings, we claim common law and federal copyrights in these items. We grant you the right to use this proprietary and copyrighted information (the "Copyrighted Works") for your operation of your Rush Bowls Restaurant, but such copyrights remain our sole property.

There are no effective determinations of the United States Copyright Office or any court regarding any Copyrighted Works, nor are there any pending proceedings or effective agreements between us and third parties pertaining to the Copyrighted Works that will or may significantly limit use of the Copyrighted Works.

Our Franchise Operations Manual, electronic information and communications, sales and promotional materials, the development and use of the System, standards, specifications, policies, procedures, information, concepts and systems on, knowledge of, and experience in the development, operation, and franchising of Rush Bowls Restaurants, our training materials and techniques, information concerning product and service sales, operating results, financial performance, and other financial data of Rush Bowls Restaurants and other related materials (collectively, the "Confidential Information") are proprietary and confidential and to be used by you only as described in your Franchise Agreement or our Franchise Operations Manual. Where appropriate, certain information has also been identified as trade secrets (the "Trade Secrets"). You will maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and the Trade Secrets and adopt reasonable procedures to prevent unauthorized disclosure of the Confidential Information and the Trade Secrets.

We will disclose parts of the Confidential Information and the Trade Secrets to you as we deem necessary or advisable for you to develop your Rush Bowls Restaurant during training and in guidance and assistance furnished to you under your Franchise Agreement. You may learn or obtain from us additional Confidential Information and Trade Secrets during the term of your Franchise Agreement. The Confidential Information and the Trade Secrets are our valuable assets and are disclosed to you on the condition that you, your owners (if you are a business entity), and your employees will maintain the information in confidence by entering into a confidentiality agreement we can enforce. Nothing in your Franchise Agreement will be construed to prohibit you from using the Confidential Information or the Trade Secrets in the operation of other Rush Bowls Restaurants during the term of your Franchise Agreement.

You will notify us within three days after you learn of another's use of language, a visual image, or a recording of any kind that you perceive to be identical or substantially similar to one of the Copyrighted Works or your use of the Confidential Information or the Trade Secrets, or if someone challenges your use of the Copyrighted Works, the Confidential Information, or the Trade Secrets. We will take whatever action we deem appropriate at our sole and absolute discretion to protect our rights in and to the Copyrighted Works, the Confidential Information, or the Trade Secrets that may include payment of reasonable costs associated with the action. Your Franchise Agreement does not require us to take affirmative action in response to any apparent infringement of or challenge to your use of any Copyrighted Works, the Confidential Information, or the Trade Secrets or claim by any person of any rights in any Copyrighted Works, the Confidential Information, or the Trade Secrets. You will not directly or indirectly contest our rights to the Copyrighted Works, the Confidential Information, or the Trade Secrets. You may not communicate with anyone except us, our counsel, or our designees regarding any infringement, challenge, or claim. We will take such action as we deem appropriate regarding any infringement, challenge, or claim and reserve the sole right to exclusively control any litigation or other proceeding arising out of any infringement, challenge, or claim regarding any Copyrighted Works, the Confidential Information, or the Trade Secrets. You will sign any instruments and documents, give any assistance, and do acts and things that may be necessary in the opinion of our counsel to protect and maintain our interests in any litigation or proceeding or to protect and maintain our interests in the Copyrighted Works, the Confidential Information, or the Trade Secrets.

No patents or patents pending are material to us at this time.

ITEM 15 OBLIGATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ACTUAL OPERATION OF THE FRANCHISE BUSINESS

We require that you either directly operate your Rush Bowls Restaurant or designate a manager (a “Designated Manager”) who has been approved by us. If you are not an individual, you will designate an “Operating Principal” acceptable to us who will be principally responsible for communicating with us about your Rush Bowls Restaurant. The Operating Principal will have the authority and responsibility for the day-to-day operations of your Rush Bowls Restaurant. The Designated Manager must successfully complete our training program (Item 11). We do not require that the Designated Manager have an ownership interest in your legal entity. If you replace a Designated Manager, the new Designated Manager must satisfactorily complete our training program at your expense.

Area Developers must own at least a 51% equity interest in the franchisee entity for each Rush Bowls franchise developed under the Area Development Agreement.

If you are a legal entity, any officer who does not own equity in the franchisee entity will sign a “System Protection Agreement” in the form attached to this Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit H. In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Restrictions on Use

The use of this report is restricted to inclusion within the Company's Franchise Disclosure Document (FDD) and is not intended to be, and should not be, used or relied upon by anyone for any other use.

RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

(1) Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Nature of Business

Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC (the "Company") was formed on March 5, 2015 as a Colorado Limited Liability Company. The Company is engaged in the development of retail store franchises that operate under the Rush Bowls system.

The Company uses the accrual basis of accounting, and their accounting period is the 12-month period ending December 31 of each year.

(b) Accounting Standards Codification

The Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") has issued the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") that became the single official source of authoritative U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), other than guidance issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), superseding existing FASB, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, emerging Issues Task Force and related literature. All other literature is not considered authoritative. The ASC does not change GAAP; it introduces a new structure that is organized in an accessible online research system.

(c) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the date of purchase. As of December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $654,825, $463,557, and $178,991, respectively.

(e) Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded for amounts due based on the terms of executed franchise agreements for franchise sales, royalty fees, and marketing fees. These accounts receivable are carried at original invoice amount less an estimate made for doubtful receivables based on a review of outstanding amounts. Management regularly evaluates individual customer's receivables considering their financial condition, credit history and current economic conditions. Accounts receivable are written off when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of accounts receivable previously written off are recorded as income when received. As of December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company had no allowance for uncollectible accounts. As of December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020, the Company had receivables of $4,432, $0, and $8,210, respectively.

(f) Advertising Fund

The Company's franchisees are required to contribute 2 % of their monthly gross revenue to the national advertising fund. Advertising fees paid by the franchisees are held by the Company in a separate bank account and are recorded as a liability until the related advertising services have been performed. The Company's national advertising fund liability as of December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020 was $68,859, $81,959, and $71,335, respectively.

RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

(g) Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets, such as property and equipment, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized for the difference between the carrying amount of the asset and the fair value of the asset.

(h) Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenues consist of initial franchise fees and royalties based on a percentage of gross revenues. The Company recognizes revenue in line with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

ASC 606 provides that revenues are to be recognized when control of promised goods or services is transferred to a customer in an amount that reflects the considerations expected to be received for those goods or services. In implementing ASC 606, the Company evaluated all revenue sources using the five-step approach: identify the contract, identify the performance obligations, determine the transaction price, allocate the transaction price, and recognize revenue.

For each franchised location, the Company enters into a formal franchise agreement that clearly outlines the transaction price and the Company's performance obligations.

Upon evaluation of the five-step process, the Company has determined royalties from locations operated by a franchisee, which are based on a percentage of gross revenue, are to be recognized at the time the underlying sales occur. In allocating the transaction price and recognizing the revenue associated with initial franchise fees, the Company has elected to adopt the practical expedient for private company franchisors outlined in ASC 952-606, Franchisors—Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The practical expedient allows franchisors to account for pre-opening services as a single distinct performance obligation. These pre-opening services include the following:

- Assistance in the selection of a site
- Assistance in obtaining facilities and preparing the facilities for their intended use, including related financing, architectural, and engineering services, and lease negotiation
- Training of the franchisee's personnel or the franchisee
- Preparation and distribution of manuals and similar material concerning operations, administration, and record keeping
- Bookkeeping, information technology, and advisory services, including setting up the franchisee's records and advising the franchisee about income, real estate, and other taxes about local regulations affecting the franchisee's business
- Inspection, testing, and other quality control programs

The Company has determined that the fair value of pre-opening services exceeds the initial fees received; as such, the initial fees are allocated to the pre-opening services, which are recognized as revenue upon commencement of operations.

(i) Income Taxes

The entity is structured as a limited liability company (LLC) under the laws of the State of Colorado. A limited liability company is classified as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes and, accordingly, the income or loss of the Company will be included in the income tax returns of the member. Therefore, there is no provision for federal and state income taxes.

RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

The Company follows the guidance under Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 740, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. ASC Topic 740 prescribes a more-likely-than-not measurement methodology to reflect the financial statement impact of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the tax return. If taxing authorities were to disallow any tax positions taken by the Company, the additional income taxes, if any, would be imposed on the member rather than the Company. Accordingly, there would be no effect on the Company's financial statements.

The Company's income tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities for a period of three years from the date they are filed. As of December 31, 2022, the 2021, 2020, and 2019 tax years were subject to examination.

(j) Leasing

The Company adopted ASC 842, Leases as of January 1, 2022, using the modified retrospective method. The Company has an operating lease for office space, which required adjustments to record the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities as of the date of implementation. The lease liability reflects the present value of the Company's estimated future minimum lease payments over the lease term, discounted using a collateralized incremental borrowing rate. The impact of ASC 842 is non-cash in nature and does not affect the Company's cash flows. The Company determined that the adoption of ASC 842 did not have a material effect on the balance sheet as of January 1, 2022.

The Company has elected to keep leases with an initial term of 12 months or less off the balance sheet. These types of leases primarily relate to leases of office equipment and are not significant in comparison to the Company's overall lease portfolio. Payments related to those leases will continue to be recognized in the statement of operations over the lease term.

(k) Advertising Costs

The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred. Advertising expenses for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020 was $78,567, $2,035, and $23,224, respectively.

(l) Financial Instruments

For certain of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, and accrued expenses, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to their short maturities. The amounts shown for notes payable also approximate fair value because current interest rates and terms offered to the Company for similar debt are substantially the same.

(m) Concentration of Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risks on cash or cash equivalents.

(2) Accrued Expenses

The Company's accrued expenses consist of payroll and payroll taxes payable as of year-end. As of December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, the Company's accrued expenses were $12,132, $0, and $0, respectively.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

(3) Note Payable

On April 15, 2020, the Company entered into a note payable with a third-party financial institution as part of the Payroll Protection Program administered by the United States Small Business Administration (“SBA”). The loan had an initial principal balance of $88,700, accrued interest at an annual rate of 1%, and had a maturity date of April 15, 2022. During the year ended December 31, 2021, the Company obtained forgiveness of the entire note balance, which was recorded as other income.

On January 19, 2021, the Company entered into a note payable with a third-party financial institution as part of the Payroll Protection Program administered by the United States Small Business Administration (“SBA”). The loan had an initial principal balance of $124,180, accrued interest at an annual rate of 1%, and had a maturity date of January 19, 2023. During the year ended December 31, 2021, the Company obtained forgiveness of the entire note balance, which was recorded as other income.

(4) Operating Lease

The Company is the lessee in an operating lease for office space. The lease expires in 2024, with the option to renew. There are no escalation terms in place. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had the following right of use assets:

Right of use asset	$ 37,693

As of December 31, 2022, the Company had the following operating lease liability:

	2022
Operating lease liability, current	$ 22,291
Operating lease liability, non-current	15,830
	$ 38,121

As of December 31, 2022, the maturities of the Company’s lease liability were as follows:

For the year ended December 31,
2023	$ 22,291
2024	15,830
	$ 38,121

(5) Franchise Agreements

The Company’s franchise agreements generally provide for a payment of initial fees as well as continuing royalties. Under the franchise agreement, franchisees are granted the right to operate a location using the Rush Bowls system for a period of ten years. Under the Company’s revenue recognition policy, franchise fees and any corresponding commissions are recognized when the franchisee begins operations. For any franchisees that have not yet begun operations as of year-end, the Company defers both the revenues and commissions. All locations that are expected to begin operations within the following year are categorized as current, while all others are classified as non-current.

The Company has estimated the following current and non-current portions of deferred contract costs as of December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020:

Deferred commissions, current	$ 208,272	$ 101,728	$ 72,188
Deferred commissions, non-current	655,509	1,262,835	1,236,376
	$ 863,781	$ 1,364,563	$ 1,308,564

RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020

The Company has estimated the following current and non-current portions of deferred revenue as of December 31, 2022, 2021, and 2020:

	2022	2021	2020
Deferred revenue, current	$ 600,199	$ 207,834	$ 149,134
Deferred revenue, non-current	1,452,437	2,258,233	2,088,967
	$ 2,052,636	$ 2,466,067	$ 2,238,101

(6) Commitments and Contingencies

The Company may be subject to various claims, legal actions and complaints arising in the ordinary course of business. In accounting for legal matters and other contingencies, the Company follows the guidance in ASC Topic 450 Contingencies, under which loss contingencies are accounted for based upon the likelihood of incurrence of a liability. If a loss contingency is “probable” and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated, it is accrued. If a loss contingency is “probable” but the amount of loss cannot be reasonably estimated, disclosure is made. If a loss contingency is “reasonably possible,” disclosure is made, including the potential range of loss, if determinable. Loss contingencies that are “remote” are neither accounted for nor disclosed.

In the opinion of management, all matters are of such kind, or involve such amounts, that unfavorable disposition, if any, would not have a material effect on the financial position of the Company.

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization classified the outbreak of a new strain of the coronavirus (“COVID-19”) as a pandemic. The COVID-19 outbreak in the United States began in mid-March 2020 and has continued through 2022 and subsequent to the fiscal year end. It is continuing to disrupt supply chains and affect production and sales across a range of industries. Management believes the pandemic has had a material effect on the Company’s operations, reducing revenue from both new and existing franchisees. The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on the Company’s future operational and financial performance continues to evolve and will depend on certain ongoing developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak, impact on the Company’s customers and vendors all of which are uncertain and cannot be reasonably estimated. At this point, the full extent to which COVID-19 may impact the Company’s future financial condition or results of operations is uncertain.

(7) Subsequent Events

Management has reviewed and evaluated subsequent events through February 9, 2023, which is the date the financial statements were issued.

RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

This RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC FRANCHISE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made, entered into, and effective as of the date set forth in Attachment 1 to the Agreement (the “Effective Date”), by and between RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC, a Colorado limited liability company (“Franchisor”), and the franchisee set forth in Attachment 1 to the Agreement (“Franchisee”). If more than one person or entity is listed as Franchisee, each such person or entity will be jointly and severally liable for all rights, duties, restrictions, and obligations under the Agreement.

INTRODUCTION

- A. Franchisor has developed a distinctive business system using proprietary methodology and intellectual property (the “System”) for operating and franchising restaurants (each, a “Restaurant”) that offer wholesome, all-natural high-quality bowls and smoothies made from acai, fruit, organic granola, and other ingredients.
- B. Franchisor may license the use of the trademark “Rush Bowls” and other trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, commercial symbols, phrases, slogans, and taglines designated by Franchisor in writing now owned, licensed to, or developed by Franchisor (collectively, the “Marks”) for use in connection with the System to selected persons, businesses, or entities that comply with Franchisor’s uniform requirements and quality standards.
- C. Franchisor will continue to develop, use, and control the use of the Marks to identify to the public the source of the products and services and related services marketed under the System, and to represent to the public the System’s high standards of quality, appearance, cleanliness, and service.
- D. Franchisee desires to develop, own, and operate a Restaurant in conformity with the System and Franchisor’s uniformity requirements and quality standards as established and promulgated from time to time by Franchisor.
- E. Franchisee understands and acknowledges the importance of the high standards of quality, appearance, procedures, controls, cleanliness, and service established by Franchisor, and the necessity of operating Franchisee’s Restaurant in strict conformity with the standards and specifications established by Franchisor.

Pursuant to this Introduction and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth in the Agreement, Franchisor and Franchisee agree and contract as follows:

1. GRANT OF FRANCHISE

- 1.1. Franchised Location. Franchisor grants to Franchisee the personal right to operate one Restaurant in conformity with the System using the name “Rush Bowls” and other specified Marks only at the location identified in Attachment 1 (the “Franchised Location”).
- 1.2. Protected Area. Except as provided to the contrary in this Section 1.2, Franchisee will receive a protected geographic area in which to operate as described in Attachment 1-1 (the “Protected Area”). Franchisee’s Restaurant will have no territorial rights except as described in this Section 1.2. During the term of the Agreement, Franchisor will not establish or franchise others to establish another Restaurant within the Protected Area. Franchisor and Affiliates (defined below) may operate and license others to operate Restaurants at any location outside of the Protected Area. Franchisee may provide catering and delivery services in accordance with Section 10.6 provided Franchisee does not do so in the protected geographic area of any other franchisee.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Franchisor retains the right, for itself and Affiliates, on any terms Franchisor deems advisable, and without granting Franchisee any rights, to:

- (a) Own, franchise, acquire, operate, or license to others to operate Restaurants at any location outside of the Protected Area regardless of the proximity to Franchisee's Restaurant;
- (b) Develop other business concepts under other brand names, provided such concepts are not Competitive Businesses (defined below), even if the locations for the concepts are within the Protected Area and even if these businesses are in competition with Franchisee;
- (c) Use the Marks and the System to sell any products or services similar to those which Franchisee will sell through any alternate channels of distribution within or outside of the Protected Area including, without limitation, television, catalog sales, wholesale to unrelated retail outlets, or over the Internet even if these channels of distribution are in competition with Franchisee. Franchisor exclusively reserves the Internet as a channel of distribution for Franchisor. Franchisee may not independently market on the Internet or conduct e-commerce;
- (d) Offer and sell food products including, without limitation, frozen products and proprietary food products under the Marks or any other marks through grocery stores, convenience stores, hotel shops, kiosks, theaters, malls, airports, gas stations, college campuses, military facilities, sports venues, theme or entertainment parks, casinos, or other similar retail locations within or outside of the Protected Area;
- (e) Use and license the use of other proprietary and non-proprietary marks or methods that are not the same as or confusingly similar to the Marks, whether in alternative channels of distribution or in the operation of a business offering wholesome, all-natural food bowls and related products and services at any location including, without limitation, within the Protected Area;
- (f) Engage in any transaction including, without limitation, purchasing or being purchased by, merging or combining with, converting to the System or being converted into a new system with any business including, without limitation, a business that competes directly with Franchisee's Restaurant, whether located inside or outside of the Protected Area; provided, however, that in such situations the newly acquired businesses may not operate under the Marks in the Protected Area;
- (g) Use and license the use of technology to non-franchised locations inside and outside the Protected Area; and
- (h) Implement multi-area marketing programs that may allow Franchisor or others to solicit or sell to customers anywhere. Franchisor may issue mandatory policies to coordinate such multi-area marketing programs.

1.3. Undetermined Franchised Location. If the Franchised Location has not yet been determined as of the Effective Date, then when the address of the Franchised Location is determined, the street address, city, and state for the Franchised Location will be inserted in Attachment 1 to the Agreement and signed by both Franchisor and Franchisee.

1.4. Territory Revision and Franchised Location Relocation. Franchisee may not amend the Protected Area (a “Territory Revision”) without Franchisor’s express written consent which Franchisor may give in Franchisor’s sole discretion. Franchisor may condition its approval of a Territory Revision upon any conditions that Franchisor deems reasonable. Provided Franchisee is not in default of the Agreement, if Franchisee requests and Franchisor approves of a Territory Revision within 90 days of the Effective Date, Franchisee will pay Franchisor a Territory Revision fee of up to $1,000. Upon obtaining Franchisor’s express written consent, Franchisor may relocate the Franchised Location at Franchisee’s sole expense if:

- (a) The proposed new location is in Franchisee’s Protected Area;
- (b) The proposed new location meets Franchisor’s requirements as set forth in the Agreement; and
- (c) Franchisee’s new Protected Area does not infringe upon: (i) the market area of any existing or proposed Restaurant or any other Restaurant owned or operated by Franchisor or any Affiliates; or (ii) any protected area granted to any other franchisee, master franchisee, developer, area developer, or subfranchisee.

The new location of Franchisee’s Restaurant will comply with Franchisor’s then-current image, décor, standards, and specifications. Franchisee will pay Franchisor a nonrefundable $1,000 deposit upon requesting Franchisor’s review of a relocation site and the balance of costs incurred by Franchisor in connection with the review on the date Franchisor approves Franchisee’s request for relocation. If Franchisor permits Franchisee to relocate Franchisee’s Restaurant, Franchisee will pay Franchisor a $4,000 relocation fee (less the deposit paid and in addition to any review costs) prior to relocation of the Restaurant.

1.5. Conditions. Franchisee may not franchise, subfranchise, license, or sublicense Franchisee’s rights under the Agreement. Franchisee will not transfer the Agreement or Franchisee’s rights under the Agreement except as specifically provided for in the Agreement.

2. TERM OF AGREEMENT

2.1. Term. The first term of the Agreement (the “Initial Term”) commences on the Effective Date and continues until ten years after the earlier of: (i) the Required Opening Date; or (ii) the date Franchisee’s Restaurant is first open and operating. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Lease (defined below) for the Franchised Location is effective after the Effective Date, then the Initial Term of the Agreement will be coterminous with the term of the Lease, but will not exceed ten years from the effective date of the Lease in any event.

2.2. Franchisee’s Option to Renew Franchise for Successor Term. At the end of the Initial Term, Franchisee may renew the Franchise (defined below) for three successor terms of five years each (each, a “Successor Term”), as Franchisor is then offering to new franchisees; provided, however, that at the time of each such renewal, Franchisee has timely complied with all terms and conditions of the Agreement including, without limitation, the timely payment of all Royalties (defined below), Brand Fund Contributions (defined below), and any other amounts due under the Agreement and further provided that:

- (a) Franchisee has given Franchisor written notice of its request for an extension of the Franchise at least 180 days, but no more than one year, prior to the end of the Initial Term or then-current Successor Term;

(b) All monetary obligations owed by Franchisee to Franchisor have been paid or satisfied prior to the end of the Initial Term or then-current Successor Term, Franchisee is not in default under the Agreement, Franchisee has not been in default under the Agreement more than two times in any twelve-month period or more than six times during the Initial Term or then-current Successor Term, and no default by Franchisee has remained uncured for longer than 60 days;

(c) Franchisee either owns or has the right to lease the Franchised Location for at least five years;

(d) Franchisee and its Management Staff (defined below) have completed the required training designated by Franchisor;

(e) Franchisee executes Franchisor's then-current standard franchise agreement and ancillary documents (collectively, the "Successor Franchise Agreement") which may have terms materially different than those in the previous franchise agreement signed by Franchisee including, without limitation, higher royalty payments and advertising contributions and a modified or reduced Protected Area based on Franchisor's then-current standards;

(f) Franchisee agrees in writing to make reasonable capital expenditures necessary to Remodel (defined below) the Franchised Location to comply with the then-current image, décor, and specifications applicable to new Restaurants within six months after the date of the Successor Franchise Agreement and has evidenced that Franchisee has received a written loan commitment from a commercial lender for the amount of the estimated cost of the Remodel or is financially capable of making such expenditures to Franchisor's reasonable satisfaction. Franchisor will not require that the cost of the Remodel exceed $50,000 including Franchisee's costs of any Remodel of the Franchised Location by Franchisee under Section 9.18 that is completed within two years of the end of the Initial Term; and

(g) On or before the date Franchisee executes the Successor Franchise Agreement, Franchisee will pay Franchisor a $10,000 renewal fee.

2.3. Interim Term. If Franchisee does not sign a Successor Franchise Agreement after the expiration of the Initial Term or then-current Successor Term and continues to accept the benefits of the Agreement, then the Agreement may be treated at Franchisor's option either as: (i) expired as of the date of the expiration with Franchisee then operating without a franchise agreement to do so in violation of Franchisor's rights; or (ii) continued on a month-to-month basis (an "Interim Term") until either party provides the other party with 30 days' prior written notice of the party's intention to terminate the Interim Term. In the latter case, all of Franchisee's obligations will remain in full force and effect during the Interim Term as if the Agreement had not expired and all obligations and restrictions imposed on Franchisee upon the expiration or termination of the Agreement will be deemed to take effect upon termination of the Interim Term.

3. FEES

3.1. Initial Franchise Fee. Franchisee will pay Franchisor a $39,000 initial franchise fee (the "Initial Franchise Fee") on the date Franchisee signs the Agreement. The Initial Franchise Fee will be reduced to $35,100 if Franchisee or Franchisee's spouse is an honorably discharged United States veteran. The Initial Franchise Fee is fully earned upon execution of the Agreement by Franchisee and nonrefundable for any reason. The Initial Franchise Fee is payment for all of the pre-opening assistance that Franchisor provides and offsets some of Franchisor's franchisee recruitment expenses. If Franchisee: (i) has entered into an Area Development Agreement (defined below) with Franchisor; (ii) paid any development fee due thereunder; and (iii) the Agreement is being signed pursuant to the development schedule under such Area Development Agreement, then no Initial Franchise Fee is due.

3.2. Royalty. Franchisee will pay to Franchisor the greater of (i) a continuing royalty fee (the “Royalty”) equal to 6% of the Gross Sales generated by Franchisee’s Restaurant during the preceding Week (defined below), or (ii) the Minimum Royalty Fee (defined below). The Royalty is an ongoing payment for Franchisee’s use of the Marks and other intellectual property of the System and Franchisor’s ongoing support and assistance. The Royalty will be payable by Franchisee on Friday of each Week (or such other day of the Week or time increment as may be designated by Franchisor) based upon the Gross Sales (defined below) generated in the preceding Week. The Royalty will be paid by Franchisee by EFT as provided for in Section 6.2.

3.3. Payment Service Fee. Franchisor may charge a service charge of up to 4% of the total charge if Franchisee makes payment to Franchisor or an Affiliate by credit card for any fee required.

3.4. Technology Fee. Franchisor may require Franchisee to pay Franchisor a monthly $100 technology fee (the “Technology Fee”) for website hosting by Franchisor, central telephone services, future web-based System integration, and other technology related services for each Restaurant Franchisee owns upon 30 days’ written notice. Franchisor may periodically increase the Technology Fee by up to $200 per month for each Restaurant Franchisee owns upon at least 30 days’ written notice if Franchisor offers updated or additional software or technology. If assessed by Franchisor, the Technology Fee will be payable concurrently with the Royalty.

3.5 Non-Compliance Fee. If Franchisee receives notice that Franchisee is failing to (i) follow the System standards; (ii) comply with the provisions of the Agreement; or (iii) follow the provisions of the Franchise Operations Manual, Franchisee will pay to Franchisor a $500 non-compliance fee per day per incident. This fee is in addition to any other rights Franchisor has under the Agreement including, without limitation, termination and is intended to offset the damages that Franchisor incurs from Franchisee’s default. This fee is not a penalty.

3.6 Grand Opening Training Fee. Franchisee will pay Franchisor a $6,000 fee for the on-site assistance provided by Franchisor (the “Grand Opening Training Fee”) after execution of the Agreement and before the 14-day period prior to opening Franchisee’s Restaurant when Franchisor provides at least one representative to offer on-site assistance for the opening of Franchisee’s Restaurant. Any additional costs for on-site travel and training expenses above $6,000 will be billed to Franchisee within 30 days. The Grand Opening Training Fee will pay for up to five days of on-site assistance before and during Franchisee’s Restaurant’s opening, during which time Franchisor will train Franchisee to operate Franchisee’s Restaurant in conformity with the System. If Franchisor decides at Franchisor’s discretion or Franchisee requests that Franchisor provide Franchisee with additional assistance, Franchisee will pay Franchisor an additional fee of $1,000 to $2,000 per representative for each additional trip Franchisor’s representatives make plus associated Travel Expenses (defined below). Franchisor will invoice Franchisee for these additional costs and Franchisee will pay the invoice within ten days after receipt. Initial training is required for Franchisee’s Restaurant and Franchisor reserves the right to require it for any subsequent Restaurants that Franchisee opens.

3.7 Minimum Royalty Fee. Beginning three months after the Effective Date, Franchisee will pay Franchisor the greater of (i) the Royalty, or $150 per month (the “Minimum Royalty Fee”).

4. BRAND FUND

Franchisor has established a system-wide brand fund for Franchisor's use to promote and build the Rush Bowls brand (the "Brand Fund"). Franchisee will contribute 2% of its Gross Sales each Week to the Brand Fund (the "Brand Fund Contribution"). The Brand Fund Contribution is due at the same time and in the same manner as the Royalty. Franchisor may periodically increase the Brand Fund Contribution up to a maximum of 3% of Gross Sales upon at least 90 days' written notice. The Brand Fund will be administered by Franchisor, Affiliates, or Franchisor's designees in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisor has the absolute and unilateral right to determine when, how, and where Brand Fund Contributions and other payments deposited into the Brand Fund are spent. Rush Bowls businesses owned by Franchisor or Affiliates, former Affiliates, owners, and former owners are not obligated to contribute to the Brand Fund but may do so on a voluntary basis. Franchisor may use the Brand Fund for local, regional, or national marketing, advertising, sales promotion and promotional materials, public and consumer relations, website development and search engine optimization, the development of technology for the System, and any other purpose to promote the Marks. Franchisor may use any media for disseminating Brand Fund advertisements including, without limitation, direct mail, print ads, the Internet, radio, billboards, and television. Franchisor may reimburse itself and its authorized representatives or Affiliates from the Brand Fund for administrative and overhead costs, independent audits, reasonable accounting costs, bookkeeping expenses, salaries related to the administration and operation of the Brand Fund, reporting and legal expenses, taxes, and all other direct or indirect expenses associated with programs funded by the Brand Fund. Franchisor is not obligated to spend any amount on advertising in the geographical area where Franchisee is or will be located. Franchisor will not use the Brand Fund contributions for advertising that is principally a solicitation for the sale of franchises, but Franchisor may include a notation in any advertisement or website indicating "Franchises Available" (or similar phrasing). Franchisor assumes no fiduciary duty to any franchisee, master franchisee, developer, area developer, or subfranchisee. Franchisor assumes no direct or indirect liability or obligation to collect amounts due to the Brand Fund or maintain, direct, or administer the Brand Fund. Any unused funds collected in any calendar year will be applied to the following year's funds. Franchisor may contribute or loan additional funds to the Brand Fund on any terms Franchisor deems reasonable. Franchisor may terminate or reinstate the Brand Fund in Franchisor's sole discretion. If Franchisor terminates the Brand Fund, Franchisor will distribute all unused contributions to contributing franchisees and Franchisor or Affiliates in proportion to respective contributions during the preceding 24-month period.

5. OTHER MARKETING, ADVERTISING, AND PROMOTION

5.1. Approved Marketing and Advertising. Franchisee will only order sales and marketing material from Franchisor or Approved Suppliers (defined below). It is a material breach of the Agreement to use other marketing material without obtaining Franchisor's prior written approval. If Franchisee desires to use its own advertising materials including, without limitation, Franchisee's own website or social media account, Franchisee will obtain Franchisor's prior approval which may be granted or denied in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisor will review Franchisee's request and respond in writing within 30 days from the date Franchisor receives all requested information. Franchisor's failure to notify Franchisee in the specified time frame will be deemed a disapproval of Franchisee's request. Use of Franchisor's logos, Marks, and other identification materials will meet Franchisor's approved standards. Franchisee may not use Franchisor's logos, Marks, and other identification materials on items to be sold or services to be provided without Franchisor's prior written approval. If Franchisee uses unauthorized advertising materials, Franchisee will pay a $500 fee per occurrence to Franchisor or the Brand Fund in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisor may establish minimum and maximum resale prices for use with multi-area marketing programs and special price promotions as permitted by law. Franchisee may not develop, maintain, or authorize any website, social media account, crowdfunding campaign, or blog that mentions or describes Franchisee or Franchisee's Restaurant or displays any of the Marks without Franchisor's prior written approval. If Franchisor approves of Franchisee's use of a website, social media account, or other account, Franchisor may require Franchisee to obtain Franchisor's written approval of any content as initially exists or is updated or modified. Franchisor may review and remove all online content on social media sites, blogs, in electronic communications, and on other online sites upon which the Marks are used to protect the reputation and high quality associated with the Marks and maintain consistency within the System.

5.2. Local Advertising. Franchisee will spend at least 2% of Franchisee's Gross Sales each calendar quarter on approved local marketing and advertising as specified in the Franchise Operations Manual for Franchisee's Restaurant (the "Local Advertising Requirement") in addition to payment of the Brand Fund Contributions. Franchisee will furnish Franchisor with an accurate accounting of Franchisee's expenditures for local advertising payments each Accounting Period (defined below). If Franchisee fails to meet the minimum Local Advertising Requirement, Franchisee will pay Franchisor the difference between what Franchisee should have spent and what Franchisee actually spent, which amount will be deposited in the Brand Fund. Franchisee will issue and offer such rebates, giveaways, and other promotions in accordance with advertising programs established by Franchisor and honor the rebates, giveaways, and other promotions issued by other franchisees under any such program at Franchisee's sole cost and expense as long as such compliance does not contravene any applicable law, rule, or regulation. Franchisee will not create or issue any gift cards or gift certificates and will only sell gift cards and gift certificates that have been issued or sponsored by Franchisor for use at all Restaurants. Franchisee will not issue coupons or discounts of any type except as approved by Franchisor.

5.3. Local Advertising Cooperative. Franchisee may be required to participate in any local or regional advertising cooperatives established for Restaurants. The area of each local and regional advertising cooperative will be defined by Franchisor based on Franchisor's assessment of the area. Franchisees in each advertising cooperative will contribute an amount to the advertising cooperative not to exceed 4% of Gross Sales for each Restaurant that the franchisee owns within the advertising cooperative's area. Each Restaurant Franchisor owns that exists within the advertising cooperative's area will contribute to the advertising cooperative on the same basis as franchisees. Members of the advertising cooperative will be responsible for administering the advertising cooperative including, without limitation, determining the amount of contributions from each member. Franchisor may require that each advertising cooperative operate with approved governing documents and prepare annual unaudited financial statements. Franchisor may form, change, dissolve, or merge any advertising cooperative. If Franchisor elects to form an advertising cooperative or if an advertising cooperative already exists near Franchisee's Protected Area, Franchisee will participate in compliance with the provisions of the Franchise Operations Manual or as otherwise directed by Franchisor in Franchisor's sole discretion. Any contributions that Franchisee makes to an advertising cooperative will be applied towards the Local Advertising Requirement.

5.4. Grand Opening Marketing. Franchisee will spend between $3,000 and $6,500 on approved grand opening marketing, advertising, and promotion for Franchisee's Restaurant during the period commencing 30 days prior to the opening of Franchisee's Restaurant for business and ending 90 days after the date on which Franchisee's Restaurant opens for business. Franchisee will provide Franchisor with an accurate accounting in the form prescribed by Franchisor of Franchisee's expenditures for grand opening marketing, advertising, and promotion within 120 days after the opening of Franchisee's Restaurant. All expenditures for grand opening marketing, advertising, and promotion will be in addition to Franchisee's other marketing, advertising, and promotion obligations under the Agreement.

5.5. Media Interaction. Franchisee will not participate in interviews or other media-related activities without Franchisor's prior permission.

5.6. Advisory Council. Franchisor may establish an advisory council (the “Council”) to advise Franchisor on advertising policies, provide input regarding the Brand Fund, and promote communications between Franchisor and all franchisees. If the Council is formed, Franchisor may appoint any franchisee to the Council in Franchisor’s sole discretion. Franchisor may grant the Council any operation or decision-making powers that Franchisor deems appropriate. Franchisor may form, change, or dissolve the Council in Franchisor’s sole discretion.

6. PAYMENT OF FEES

6.1. Interest on Unpaid Fees. If Franchisee fails to timely remit any of payment due to Franchisor or Affiliates, the amount of the past-due payment will bear interest at the lesser of: (i) the daily equivalent of 12% per year simple interest; or (ii) the maximum legal rate permitted by law. Interest accrues from the original due date until payment is received in full. Franchisee will also pay Franchisor a $200 administrative fee per occurrence for each delinquent payment of any amount within seven days after the delinquent payment was due. Franchisee will immediately reimburse Franchisor for the actual costs incurred by Franchisor in the collection of any past due amounts from Franchisee including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees and costs.

6.2. Electronic Funds Transfers. Franchisee will execute such documents as Franchisor may request including, without limitation, the Automated Clearing House Payment Authorization Form attached to Franchisor’s Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit H authorizing and directing Franchisee’s financial institution to pay Franchisor or Affiliates directly by electronic funds transfer (“EFT”) any amounts due to Franchisor under the Agreement and charge Franchisee’s account. If Franchisee fails to provide required reports of Franchisee’s Gross Sales at any time, Franchisor may estimate the amount payable by Franchisee for that Week and withdraw the estimated amount by EFT from Franchisee’s account in accordance with the provisions of this Section 6.2. Franchisee will maintain a balance in Franchisee’s account at all times sufficient to allow the appropriate amounts to be withdrawn from Franchisee’s account and paid directly to Franchisor. It will be a default under the Agreement if Franchisee fails to maintain an account balance sufficient to pay any amounts due or Franchisee closes Franchisee’s account without first designating a new account for EFT and providing Franchisor with the new account’s information. Franchisee will be responsible for all fees imposed by its financial institution in connection with Franchisee’s EFT payments. Franchisee will pay Franchisor $100 per occurrence if any check or electronic payment is not successful due to insufficient funds, stop payment instructions, or any similar event. Franchisor may require an alternative payment method or payment frequency for any amounts owed to Franchisor or Affiliates in Franchisor’s sole discretion.

6.3. Credit Card. Franchisee will provide Franchisor with a credit card for Franchisor to use for ongoing payments to approved suppliers and vendors as necessary.

6.4. Franchisee’s Obligation to Pay. Franchisee’s obligation to pay Franchisor all amounts due under the Agreement is absolute and unconditional and will remain in full force and effect for the entire term of the Agreement. Franchisee has no “right of offset” and will timely pay all amounts due to Franchisor regardless of any alleged Claims (defined below).

7. REPORTS AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

7.1. Reports. Franchisee will maintain an accurate durable electronic or written record of the daily Gross Sales for Franchisee’s Restaurant and any other information specified by Franchisor. Franchisee will electronically submit Weekly reports for Franchisee’s Restaurant using the forms, formats, and procedures set forth in the Franchise Operations Manual. Franchisee will pay $100 per occurrence and $100 per Week to the Brand Fund or Franchisor if Franchisee fails to submit any report when due in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisee will continue to incur these fees until Franchisee submits the required report.

7.2. Financial Statements. Franchisee will adopt the Accounting Year (defined below) for financial reporting purposes specified by Franchisor in the Franchise Operations Manual or otherwise in writing. Franchisee will prepare Financial Statements (defined below) that will be delivered to Franchisor within ten days of the end of each Accounting Period and within 90 days of Franchisee's Accounting Year-end at Franchisee's expense. All Financial Statements will be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the form prescribed by Franchisor and conform to the Accounting Year and standard chart of accounts prescribed by Franchisor in the Agreement or the Franchise Operations Manual. An officer or Owner (defined below) of Franchisee will verify the Financial Statements' accuracy and completeness.

7.3. Income Tax Returns. Franchisee will furnish Franchisor with signed copies of all pages of its federal income tax returns pertaining to Franchisee's Restaurant for the Accounting Year within 120 days after Franchisee's Accounting Year-end or any other period requested by Franchisor. Franchisor will maintain the confidentiality of the information provided by Franchisee under this Section 7.3.

7.4. Audit Rights. Franchisee and Franchisee's accountants will make all of Franchisee's Financial Records (defined below) available during regular business hours for Franchisor or Franchisor's designees to review, copy, and audit within three business days after receiving Franchisor's written notice. The Financial Records for each Accounting Year will be maintained by Franchisee in a safe place for each of the preceding three Accounting Years. The audit will be conducted at the location where Franchisee maintains the Financial Records and Franchisor will be provided with adequate facilities by Franchisee to conduct the audit. If an audit establishes that Franchisee's weekly Gross Sales were understated by more than 2% or Franchisee failed to submit required reports in any Accounting Period or Accounting Year, then Franchisee will pay Franchisor for the cost of the audit and inspection, any understated amounts, and all accounting, legal, and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the audit including, without limitation, Salaries and Benefits (defined below), Travel Expenses, and auditor's fees within ten days of Franchisee's receipt of an invoice.

8. DESIGNATED MANAGER AND OPERATING PRINCIPAL

Franchisee will directly operate Franchisee's Restaurant or designate a manager (the "Designated Manager") who has been approved by Franchisor. The Designated Manager must successfully complete the Training Program (defined below). Franchisor does not require that the Designated Manager have an ownership interest in Franchisee if Franchisee is an Entity (defined below). If Franchisee replaces a Designated Manager, the new Designated Manager must satisfactorily complete the Training Program at Franchisee's expense prior to assuming responsibility for the management of Franchisee's Restaurant. If Franchisee is an Entity, Franchisee will designate an "Operating Principal" acceptable to Franchisor who will be principally responsible for communicating with Franchisor about Franchisee's Restaurant and have the authority and responsibility for the day-to-day operations of Franchisee's Restaurant. The Operating Principal need not have an ownership interest in Franchisee's Entity.

9. STANDARDS REQUIRED OF FRANCHISEE

9.1. Quality and Service Standards. Franchisor has developed and will continue to develop uniform standards of quality, cleanliness, and service applicable to all Restaurants including Franchisee's Restaurant to protect and maintain for the benefit of Franchisor and all franchisees and developers the distinction, valuable goodwill, and uniformity of the System. Franchisee will maintain the uniformity and quality standards required by Franchisor for all Products and Services (defined below) and the services associated with the Marks and the System to assure the public that all Restaurants will be uniform in nature and offer quality Products and Services.

9.2. Identification of Restaurant. Franchisee will operate Franchisee's Restaurant so that it is clearly identified and advertised as a Restaurant. The style and form of "Rush Bowls" and any other Marks used in any advertising, marketing, public relations, or promotional program will have Franchisor's prior written approval. Franchisee will use the name "Rush Bowls," the approved logos, and all graphics commonly associated with the System and the Marks on all materials in the manner prescribed by Franchisor.

9.3. Compliance with Standards. Franchisee will use the Marks and the System in strict compliance with the moral and ethical standards, quality standards, health standards, operating procedures, specifications, requirements, and instructions required by Franchisor. Franchisee will operate Franchisee's Restaurant according to Franchisor's specifications including, without limitation, purchasing, leasing, or using all goods, services, supplies, fixtures, equipment, inventory, computer hardware and software, and real estate related to establishing and operating Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee may be required to purchase items from: (i) Franchisor's designees; (ii) Approved Suppliers; or (iii) Franchisor or Affiliates. Franchisee will not deviate from Franchisor's methods, standards, and specifications without Franchisor's prior written consent or otherwise operate in any manner which reflects adversely on the Marks or the System in Franchisor's sole opinion.

9.4. Franchisee's Name. Franchisee will not use "Rush Bowls" or any name that is confusingly similar to any of the words used in any of the Marks in the name of any Entity formed by Franchisee or Franchisee's affiliates. Franchisee will hold itself out to the public at all times as an independent contractor operating Franchisee's Restaurant under the Agreement. Franchisee will file for a certificate of assumed name in the manner required by applicable state law to notify the public that Franchisee is operating Franchisee's Restaurant as an independent contractor.

9.5. Interests of Franchisee. If Franchisee is an Entity, Franchisee will be dedicated solely to the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant and not hold any interest in, operate, or manage any other business of any kind without Franchisor's prior written approval. If Franchisee is an individual, Franchisee will not hold any interest in, operate, or manage any Competitive Business without Franchisor's prior written approval.

9.6. Default Notices, Significant Correspondence, and Crisis Management Events. Immediately upon Franchisee's receipt or delivery at the Franchised Location, Franchisee will deliver to Franchisor an exact copy of all:

- (a) Notices of default received from the landlord of the Franchised Location or any mortgagee, trustee under any deed of trust, contract for deed holder, lessor, or any other similar party;
- (b) Notifications or other correspondence relating to any legal proceeding for any Claim in excess of $10,000 relating in any way to Franchisee's Restaurant or the Franchised Location; and
- (c) Inspection reports or any other notices, warnings, or citations from any Governmental Authority (defined below) including, without limitation, any health, safety, taxing, and/or licensing authorities.

Franchisee will notify Franchisor in writing within five days of the commencement of any proceeding and/or of the issuance of any governmental order or action impacting Franchisee and/or the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee will provide Franchisor with a written summary of all written consumer and employee complaints including, without limitation, electronic complaints within ten days of the end of each Accounting Period in such method and format as Franchisor designates. Franchisee will provide all additional information requested by Franchisor relating to any of these matters. Franchisee will reimburse Franchisor for any reasonable costs Franchisor incurs responding to customer complaints if a customer of Franchisee's Restaurant contacts Franchisor with a complaint and Franchisor provides a gift card, refund, or other value to the customer.

"Crisis Management Event" means any event that occurs at or about Franchisee's Restaurant that causes or may cause harm or injury to customers or employees. Crisis Management Events include, without limitation, food contamination, food spoilage/poisoning, food tampering, contagious diseases, natural disasters, terrorist acts, shootings, or any other circumstances that may damage the System, the Marks, or the image or reputation of Franchisee's Restaurant, the System, or Franchisor. Franchisee will inform Franchisor by telephone and email upon the occurrence of a Crisis Management Event without delay. Franchisee will cooperate fully with Franchisor's response to any Crisis Management Event. If a Crisis Management Event occurs, Franchisor may establish emergency procedures that require Franchisee to temporarily close Franchisee's Restaurant to the public, in which event Franchisor will not be liable to Franchisee for any losses or costs including, without limitation, consequential damages and lost profits.

9.7. Catastrophes. If the Franchised Location is either partially or completely destroyed by fire or any catastrophe and the term of the Agreement and underlying Lease for the Franchised Location has a remaining term of at least five years, Franchisee will:

- (a) Use the building insurance proceeds to repair or reconstruct the Franchised Location as set forth herein;
- (b) Within 30 days thereafter, initiate the process to commence the repairs and reconstruction necessary to restore Franchisee's Restaurant to its original condition prior to such casualty; and
- (c) Recomence Franchisee's Restaurant's business operations as soon as reasonably possible. If Franchisee's Restaurant cannot be restored to its original condition, Franchisee will relocate Franchisee's Restaurant as provided for in Section 1.4 except that Franchisee will not be required to pay a relocation fee.

The term of the Agreement will be extended for the period from the date Franchisee's Restaurant closed as a result of the casualty until the date Franchisee's Restaurant re-opens. Franchisee will relocate Franchisee's Restaurant as provided in Section 1.4 or repair or reconstruct the premises of Franchisee's Restaurant in conformance with the then-current standard décor specifications. Franchisee warrants that Franchisee is not listed in the Annex to Executive Order 13224 (<http://www.treasury.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sanctions/terrorism.html>) and will not hire any person so listed or have any dealings with a person so listed. Franchisee is solely responsible for ascertaining what actions must be taken by Franchisee to comply with all such laws, orders, and/or regulations. Franchisee specifically acknowledges and agrees that Franchisee's indemnification responsibilities as described in Section 25 pertain to Franchisee's obligations hereunder.

9.18. Remodeling of Restaurant Premises. Franchisee will make such reasonable capital expenditures as necessary to extensively remodel, modernize, redecorate, and renovate Franchisee's Restaurant and replace and modernize the FF&E so that Franchisee's Restaurant will reflect the then-current image of a Restaurant and conform to Franchisor's then-current specifications (a "Remodel"). Franchisee acknowledges that the Remodel requirements set forth in this Section 9.18 are reasonable and necessary to maintain uniformity among all Restaurants, update the image of Restaurants, and avoid the deterioration of the appearance and operation of Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee will complete a Remodel within nine months after receiving written notice from Franchisor specifying the required Remodel. Except for repairs and maintenance as provided for in Section 9.17, Franchisee will not be required to remodel the Restaurant or replace and modernize its FF&E more than once every five years from the Effective Date. Franchisee will not be required to spend more than $50,000 for each Remodel.

9.19. Required Opening Date. Franchisee must open the Restaurant for business and commence operations on or before twelve months from the Effective Date.

9.20. Other Operations. Franchisee will use the Franchised Location solely for the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant and will not directly or indirectly operate or engage in any other business or activity from the Franchised Location. Franchisee will not participate in any dual branding program or any other program, promotion, or business pursuant to which another trademark, service mark, trade name, or commercial symbol is used in connection with Franchisee's Restaurant or at the Franchised Location.

9.21. Annual Conventions. Franchisee (or any Operating Principal, if the Franchisee is an Entity), Franchisee's Designated Manager, and such other persons as may be required by Franchisor will attend any annual conventions, meetings, seminars, and other gatherings or group sessions (each, a "Convention") held by Franchisor. Franchisor may determine the topics covered, duration, date, and location of all Convention. Franchisee will pay the then-current attendance fee established by Franchisor for each person attending a Convention (the "Convention Fee") and the Travel Expenses and all other expenses incurred by the persons attending the Convention on Franchisee's behalf. The Convention Fee is payable to Franchisor to help defray the cost of attendance at any Convention that Franchisor holds and is due regardless of whether or not Franchisee attends the Convention.

9.22. Quality Assurance Programs. Franchisee will participate in any quality assurance monitoring programs specified by Franchisor at Franchisee's expense including, without limitation, telephonic or electronic customer polling or onsite "secret shopper" programs and will share the results of such programs with Franchisor.

9.26. Force Majeure. Neither Franchisor nor Franchisee will be liable for any delay in the fulfilment of or failure to fulfil their obligations in whole or in part (other than the payment of money as may be owed by a party) under the Agreement where the delay or failure is solely due to Force Majeure. If a Force Majeure event occurs, the parties' obligations will be extended or relieved only to the extent the parties are respectively necessarily prevented or delayed in such performance during the period of such Force Majeure event. Force Majeure will be construed narrowly and will not include general economic, market, or societal conditions, or any changes thereto including those that are the direct or indirect result of a Force Majeure event. The party whose performance is affected by a Force Majeure event will give prompt notice of such Force Majeure event to the other party, which in no case will be more than 48 hours after the Force Majeure event, setting forth the nature thereof and an estimate as to the Force Majeure event's duration, and the affected party will furnish the other party with periodic reports regarding the progress of the Force Majeure event. Each party will use its best efforts to mitigate the effect of the Force Majeure event upon their performance of the Agreement and fulfill its obligations under the Agreement. Upon completion of the Force Majeure event, the affected party will recommence the performance of its obligations under the Agreement as soon as reasonably practicable. If the Force Majeure event continues for a period of six months or more, the unaffected party may terminate the Agreement upon 30 days' written notice to the affected party at the unaffected party's option. A Force Majeure event will not relieve a party from liability for an obligation that arose before the occurrence of the Force Majeure event, affect any obligation to pay money owed under the Agreement, or affect Franchisee's obligations to indemnify Franchisor whether such obligation arose before or after the Force Majeure event. A Force Majeure event will not affect Franchisee's obligations to comply with any restrictive covenants in the Agreement during or after the Force Majeure event.

Franchisor does not represent that any of the Products and Services will be available to Franchisee in any particular market area or that any pricing or payment terms extended by any supplier to Franchisor or any Affiliates will be offered to Franchisee. Franchisee will comply with Franchisor's requirements for the retail prices charged to consumers by Franchisee for certain Products and Services as designated by Franchisor from time to time to the extent permitted by law.

Franchisor will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Franchisee within 30 days after receiving all requested information and materials whether Franchisee is authorized to purchase or lease the product or service from that supplier or provider. If Franchisee does not receive a response to Franchisee's request within such 30-day period, Franchisee's request will be deemed disapproved. Franchisee will reimburse Franchisor for the costs and expenses incurred to conduct the evaluation. Franchisor may periodically re-inspect Approved Suppliers' facilities and products. Franchisor may revoke its approval of any supplier, product, or service that does not continue to meet Franchisor's specifications.

Any additions, changes, modifications or improvements made to any of Franchisor's Confidential Information by Franchisee or its employees and agents will be the sole and exclusive property of Franchisor. Franchisee is not guaranteed any specific Franchised Location and Franchisee may not be able to obtain Franchisee's first choice for the Franchised Location. Franchisor recommends that Franchisee retain an experienced attorney to provide advice and counsel on the terms, conditions, and economics of the legal and other documents required to lease or purchase the site of the Franchised Location. Franchisee will provide Franchisor with a copy of the proposed Lease for the site selected by Franchisee at least four Weeks before the date the Lease is to be signed. Franchisor's review of the Lease will be only to determine whether the terms of the Lease comply with the terms and conditions of the Agreement and not to provide any business, economic, legal, or real estate advice or analysis. Franchisee will be solely responsible for all terms of the Lease, including the enforceability, economics, and legality of all provisions in the Lease. The enforceability of the Lease will be conditioned upon the approval of Franchisee by Franchisor and the enforceability of the Agreement. Franchisee will not sign the Lease until the Agreement has been signed by both Franchisee and Franchisor. Contemporaneously with Lease execution, Franchisee will execute a Conditional Assignment of Lease and Consent and Agreement of Lessor in substantially the forms attached to Franchisor's Franchise Disclosure Document at Exhibit H. Franchisee will obtain the signature of the landlord for the site on such Consent and Agreement of Lessor. The terms of the Lease will give Franchisor the right to enter the premises of the Franchised Location to conduct inspections during regular business hours.

12.2. Site Information. Franchisee will provide to Franchisor the information specified by Franchisor in writing for the proposed site of the Franchised Location (the "Site Information"). Franchisee will purchase or lease the site for Franchisee's Restaurant within 180 days of the Effective Date. Franchisor may require that Franchisee obtain an economic feasibility study for the proposed site at Franchisee's expense. An expert mutually agreed upon by Franchisor and Franchisee in writing will complete any such required feasibility study. Franchisor will visit the site proposed by Franchisee and review the site submittal package in Franchisee's sole discretion. Franchisee will not purchase or lease a proposed site until Franchisee has provided the Site Information to Franchisor, Franchisor has reviewed the proposed site, and Franchisor has provided Franchisee with written approval of the proposed site. Franchisee will provide executed copies of the Lease or purchase closing documents for the Franchised Location within ten days of execution. The review of any Site Information, any visits by Franchisor to a proposed site, the review of the site, or Franchisor's written approval of the proposed site will not constitute a warranty or representation by Franchisor or any other party that the Franchised Location's site chosen by Franchisee will be a financial or operational success.

12.3. Site Release. Franchisor will have no duty or obligation to assist Franchisee in the selection of a site for the Franchised Location or provide any assistance to Franchisee in the purchase or lease of the Franchised Location. Franchisor has informed Franchisee that Franchisor does not have any experience or expertise in selecting real estate sites in the geographic area where Franchisee's Restaurant will be located and Franchisor will not have any obligation, duty, or liability to Franchisee as a result of the site selected by Franchisee or the purchase or lease of the Franchised Location. Franchisee releases Franchisor, Affiliates, and their respective Executive Management, agents, and employees in their corporate and individual capacities from any Claims by Franchisee arising from, in connection with, or as a result of Franchisee's purchase or lease of the site selected by Franchisee for the Franchised Location.

Franchisee will be responsible for the accuracy of all drawings, plans, and specifications for Franchisee's Restaurant.

Any changes or modifications to the Design Standards will be submitted to Franchisor for its prior approval. Compliance with the Design Standards will not release Franchisee from Franchisee's obligation to ensure that Franchisee's Restaurant is designed and constructed in compliance with all federal, state, and local laws including, without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act. Franchisee will purchase and install the FF&E specified in the Franchise Operations Manual or otherwise in writing by Franchisor for Franchisee's Restaurant in compliance with the Design Standards.

Franchisee will prepare complete and detailed plans and specifications for the Signs and submit them to Franchisor for written approval at Franchisee's expense. Franchisee will be responsible for any installation costs, sign costs, and other related expenses and comply with all federal, state, and local laws, regulations, building codes and ordinances related to the construction, erection, maintenance, and use of the Signs. Franchisee may not alter, remove, change, modify, or redesign the Signs without Franchisor's prior written approval. Franchisor may redesign the specifications for the Signs without the approval or consent of Franchisee. Within 90 days after receipt of Franchisor's written notice, Franchisee will either modify or replace the Signs so that the Signs displayed at the Franchised Location will comply with the new specifications at Franchisee's expense. Franchisee will not be required to modify or replace the Signs more than once every five years from the Effective Date.

12.9. Ownership of Franchised Location. If Franchisee, any Owners, or an Entity owned by Franchisee or any Owners owns, leases, or otherwise controls the Franchised Location including, without limitation, land, building, and related real estate, or owns 51% or more of an Entity that owns, leases, or otherwise controls the Franchised Location, Franchisee will enter into a Lease for the Franchised Location for a term coterminous with the term of the Agreement. The Lease will be deemed to be a Major Asset. This Section 12.9 will not apply if Franchisee owns the Franchised Location and the Franchised Location is reflected as an asset on Franchisee's Financial Statements, in which event the Franchised Location will be deemed a Major Asset.

13. EQUIPMENT, COMPUTER HARDWARE, AND COMPUTER SOFTWARE

13.1. Computer Hardware, Computer Software, and Point-of-Sale System. Franchisee will lease, license, use, and purchase the computer hardware, high-speed Internet connections, communication and transmission equipment and systems, computer software, peripheral devices and point-of-sale, cash register and operating systems and maintenance and support services (the "Computer System") that meet the standards, specifications, and requirements periodically established by Franchisor as set forth in the Franchise Operations Manual or otherwise in writing from the suppliers Franchisor specifies at Franchisee's expense. Upon written notice from Franchisor, Franchisee will modify, enhance, update, and upgrade the Computer System to the standards, specifications and requirements specified by Franchisor at Franchisee's expense. The Computer System will manage the daily workflow of Franchisee's Restaurant, coordinate the customer ordering experience, track inventory, food costs, labor data, and other information. Franchisee will record all Gross Sales on the Computer System. Franchisee will store all data and information in the Computer System and allow Franchisor to access such data and information in the manner Franchisor specifies. The Computer System will generate reports on the Gross Sales of Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee will maintain a high-speed Internet connection at Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisor is not required to provide Franchisee with any ongoing maintenance, repairs, upgrades, updates, or support for the Computer System. Franchisee will arrange for the installation, maintenance, and support of the Computer System at Franchisee's expense. There is no limitation on the frequency and cost of this obligation. Franchisor may retrieve data and other information from Franchisee's point-of-sale systems and Computer System at any time as Franchisor deems necessary or desirable in Franchisor's sole discretion. Franchisee will ensure that Franchisor has access at all times to Franchisee's point-of-sale systems and Computer Systems at Franchisee's expense. Franchisor or its designee may independently access the electronic information and data relating to Franchisee's Restaurant and collect and use Franchisee's electronic information and data in any manner including, without limitation, promoting the System and the sale of Franchises. This may include posting financial information of each franchisee on an intranet website. There is no contractual limitation on Franchisor's right to receive or use information through Franchisor's proprietary data management and intranet system. Franchisor may remotely access the electronic information and data from Franchisee's Computer System.

13.3. Rush Bowls Website. Franchisor maintains a website (the "Rush Bowls Website") to advertise and promote the Restaurants. 16.1. Right to License Marks. Franchisor warrants that it has the right to grant the Franchise and license the Marks and the System to Franchisee. Any improvements made by Franchisee to the Marks or the System will be Franchisor's sole and absolute property. Franchisor will have the exclusive right to register and protect all such improvements in Franchisor's name in accordance with applicable law. Franchisee's right to use and identify with the Marks and the System will exist concurrently with the term of the Agreement and such use by Franchisee will inure exclusively to the benefit of Franchisor.

16.2. Conditions to License of Marks. Franchisor grants to Franchisee the nonexclusive personal right to use the Marks and the System in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement. Franchisee's nonexclusive personal right to use "Rush Bowls" as the name of Franchisee's Restaurant and its right to use the Marks and the System applies only to Franchisee's Restaurant at the Franchised Location and such rights will exist only as long as Franchisee fully performs and complies with all of the conditions, terms, and covenants of the Agreement. Franchisee's right to use the Marks is limited to the uses set forth in the Agreement and any unauthorized use will constitute an infringement of the rights of Franchisor under the Agreement and under the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. §1051, et seq.). Franchisee will not have or acquire any rights in any of the Marks or the System other than the right of use as provided herein. Franchisee will indicate to the public that Franchisee is an independently owned and operated licensed franchisee of Rush Bowls in any contract or advertisement and with a conspicuous sign in Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee may not use the Marks in the sale of unauthorized services or products or in any manner Franchisor does not authorize. Franchisee may not use the Marks in any advertising for the transfer, sale, or other disposition of Franchisee's Restaurant or any interest in the Franchise. All rights and goodwill from the use of the Marks accrue to Franchisor. If it becomes advisable for Franchisor or Franchisee to modify or discontinue using any Mark or use one or more additional or substitute trademarks or service marks at any time, Franchisee will comply with Franchisor's directions within a reasonable time after receiving notice. Franchisor will not reimburse Franchisee for Franchisee's direct expenses of changing signage, for any loss of revenue or other indirect expenses due to any modified or discontinued Mark, or for Franchisee's expenses for promoting a modified or substituted trademark or service mark.

16.4. Improvements. If Franchisee or Owners develop any new or revised concept, product, recipe, trademark, service mark, branding concept, process, or improvement in or related to the operation or promotion of Franchisee's Restaurant or the System (collectively, "Improvements"), Franchisee will promptly provide Franchisor with a detailed summary of the Improvements. Franchisee and Owners acknowledge that:

- (a) All Improvements made by Franchisee and Owners are Franchisor's property;
- (b) Franchisee will execute any documents or instruments required by Franchisor to memorialize or evidence Franchisor's ownership of the Improvements;
- (c) Franchisor may incorporate any of the Improvements into the System or the Marks; and

(d) Franchisor may authorize Affiliates, franchisees, and developers to use any Improvements in the operations of any Restaurants owned, operated, licensed, or franchised by Franchisor or Affiliates without any compensation to Franchisee.

16.5. Adverse Claims to Marks. If there are any Claims by any party that its rights to any of the Marks are superior to Franchisor's rights and if Franchisor's attorneys are of the opinion that such Claims by a party is legally meritorious, or if there is an adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction that any party's rights to the Marks are superior to Franchisor's rights, then Franchisee will immediately adopt and use the changes and amendments to the Marks that are specified by Franchisor at Franchisee's expenses upon receiving Franchisor's written notice. If directed, Franchisee will immediately cease using the Marks specified by Franchisor and commence using the new trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, designs, and commercial symbols designated by Franchisor in writing at the Franchised Location and in connection with all advertising, marketing, and promotion of Franchisee's Restaurant as soon as reasonably practicable. Franchisee will not make any changes or amendments whatsoever to the Marks or the System without Franchisor's prior written approval.

16.6. Defense or Enforcement of Rights to Marks. Franchisee will give Franchisor immediate written notice of any Claims or complaints made against or associated with the Marks and the System and cooperate in all respects with Franchisor in any lawsuits or other proceedings involving the Marks and the System without compensation. Franchisor will have the sole and absolute right to determine whether it will commence or defend any litigation involving the Marks or the System, and the cost and expense of all litigation incurred by Franchisor including, without limitation, attorneys' fees specifically relating to the Marks or the System will be paid by Franchisor.

16.7. Tender of Defense. If Franchisee is named as a defendant or party in any action involving the Marks or the System solely because the plaintiff or claimant alleges that Franchisee does not have the right to use the Marks or the System, Franchisee may tender defense of the action to Franchisor and Franchisor will defend Franchisee in the action at Franchisor's expense provided that Franchisee has tendered defense of the action to Franchisor within seven days after receiving service of the pleadings or the summons and complaint relating to the action. Franchisor will indemnify and hold Franchisee harmless from any Damages assessed against Franchisee in any actions resulting solely from Franchisee's use of the Marks or the System at the Franchised Location if Franchisee has timely tendered defense of the action to Franchisor and complied with the Agreement and the Franchise Operations Manual with respect to Franchisee's use of the Marks and the System.

16.8. Franchisee's Right to Participate in Litigation. Franchisee may retain an attorney to represent it individually in all litigation and court proceedings involving the Marks or the System at Franchisee's expense, and may also do so with respect to matters involving only Franchisee and not Franchisor or its interests; provided, however, that Franchisor and its attorneys will control and conduct all litigation involving the Marks, the System, or Franchisor's rights. Except as expressly provided for herein, Franchisor will have no liability for any costs that Franchisee may incur in any litigation involving the Marks or the System, and Franchisee will pay for all costs including, without limitation, attorneys' fees that it may incur in any litigation or proceeding arising as a result of matters referred to under this Section 16.8 if Franchisee has not timely tendered the defense to Franchisor in accordance with Section 16.7.

16.9. Notice. If Franchisee believes Franchisor has failed to adequately provide pre-opening and opening services to Franchisee as provided in the Agreement, Franchisee will notify Franchisor in writing within 30 days following Franchisor's provision of such services. Without the timely provision of such notice to Franchisor, Franchisee will be deemed to conclusively acknowledge that all pre-opening and opening services required to be provided by Franchisor were sufficient and satisfactory in Franchisee's judgment.

17. TRANSFER

17.1. Transfer of Agreement by Franchisor. Franchisor may Transfer the Agreement to any person or Entity without the approval of Franchisee and any such Transfer will inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of Franchisor. Franchisor will provide Franchisee with written notice after the Transfer has been completed, and the assignee will be required to fully perform all obligations of Franchisor under the Agreement.

17.2. Transfer of Agreement to Beneficiary or Entity. If Franchisee is an individual and has personally signed the Agreement, then if the death or permanent disability of Franchisee occurs, the Agreement may be transferred to any designated person or beneficiary (a “Beneficiary”) without the payment of any Transfer Fee and without complying with Section 21. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Transfer of the Agreement to the Beneficiary will be subject to the applicable provisions of Sections 17.3(b) through 17.3(i) and will not be valid or effective until Franchisor has received the properly executed legal documents that its attorneys deem necessary to document the Transfer of the Agreement to the Beneficiary. The Beneficiary will be unconditionally bound by the terms and conditions of the Agreement and successfully complete the Training Program. There will be no charge to the Beneficiary for attending the Training Program; provided, however, that the Beneficiary will pay the Salary and Benefits and the Travel Expenses of the Beneficiary. Franchisee may Transfer the Agreement to an Entity without the payment of a Transfer Fee and without complying with Section 21 if Franchisee is an individual or a general partnership provided that: (i) the owners of the Entity are the same person or persons who signed the Agreement; and (ii) Franchisee (or the Entity to which Franchisee is transferring ownership) pays Franchisor a $500 fee on or prior to the Transfer.

17.3. Conditions to Transfer by Franchisee. Subject to the provisions of Section 21, Franchisee will not Transfer any interest in or any part of the Agreement, the Franchise, or Franchisee’s Restaurant to any person or Entity without Franchisor’s prior written approval. Franchisor will not withhold its written consent to the Transfer by Franchisee if the Transfer does not violate any of the terms of the Agreement, Franchisor does not exercise its rights under Section 21 of the Agreement, and Franchisee and the transferee are in full compliance with the following terms and conditions:

- (a) Franchisee has provided written notice to Franchisor of the proposed Transfer at least 45 days prior to the Transfer;
- (b) All of Franchisee’s monetary obligations due to Franchisor or Affiliates have been paid in full and Franchisee is not otherwise in default under the Agreement;
- (c) Franchisee has agreed in writing to observe all applicable provisions of the Agreement including, without limitation, the covenants not to compete contained in the Agreement;
- (d) Franchisee has executed a general release, the current form of which is attached to Franchisor’s Franchise Disclosure Document as Exhibit H, of any Claims against Franchisor, Affiliates, and their respective Executive Management, Owners, agents, and employees in their corporate and individual capacities arising from, in connection with, or as a result of the Agreement, the operation of Franchisee’s Restaurant, or Franchisee’s purchase of the Franchise including, without limitation, all Claims arising under any federal or state franchising laws or any other federal, state, or local law, rule, or ordinance;
- (e) The transferee has demonstrated to Franchisor’s satisfaction that the transferee meets the managerial, financial, and business standards required by Franchisor for new franchisees or developers,

(f) The transferee and all of the transferee's owners execute the legal agreements required by Franchisor or its legal counsel including, without limitation, Franchisor's then-current standard franchise agreement and any related documents;

(g) The transferee has purchased or leased the Franchised Location for a term consistent with the remaining term of the Agreement or the term of the then-current standard franchise agreement;

(h) The transferee has purchased or otherwise acquired a food service license for Franchisee's Restaurant at the Franchised Location;

(i) The transferee and its Management Staff have successfully completed the Training;

(j) Franchisee will reimburse Franchisor upon receipt of Franchisor's invoice for any broker or other placement fees that Franchisor incurs as a result of the Transfer; and

(k) The transferee agrees to update Franchisee's Restaurant to conform with Franchisor's then-current standards.

17.4. Transfer of Ownership Interest. No Owner may Transfer an Ownership Interest in Franchisee without Franchisor's prior written approval. Franchisor will not withhold its written consent if the Transfer of the Ownership Interest complies in all respects with the terms of the Agreement and Franchisor does not exercise its right of first refusal to acquire the Owner's Ownership Interest in Franchisee under Section 21.8. A Transfer by an Owner to: (i) a relative (husband, wife, children, grandchildren, mother, father, brother, or sister) of such Owner; or (ii) one of the existing Owners will not be subject to the provisions of Sections 17.6 and 21.8; provided, however, that: (i) the Transfer has been approved in writing by Franchisor; and (ii) Owners have complied with all of the provisions of the Agreement applicable to Owners.

17.5. Acknowledgment of Restrictions. Franchisee and Owners acknowledge that the restrictions on Transfers imposed herein are reasonable and necessary to protect the System, the Marks, and Franchisor's reputation and image, and are for the protection of Franchisor, Franchisee, and all other franchisees and developers who own and operate Restaurants. Any Transfer permitted by this Section 17 will not be effective until Franchisor receives executed copies of all Transfer documents and Franchisor consents to the Transfer in writing. Any attempted Transfer made without complying with the requirements of this Section 17 will be void.

17.6. Transfer Fee. If the Agreement is Transferred to another person or Entity, or if any Owner Transfers any Ownership Interest in Franchisee to a third party, then except as provided for in Sections 17.2 and 17.4, Franchisee will pay Franchisor a fee equal to: (i) $4,000 for a Transfer to an existing franchisee of Franchisor; or (ii) 30% of Franchisor's then-current initial franchise fee for a Transfer to any other person or Entity (the "Transfer Fee"). Franchisee will pay a $1,000 non-refundable deposit upon Franchisee's request for approval of the Transfer and pay the balance of the Transfer Fee upon approval of the Transfer. The Transfer Fee is paid for the costs incurred by Franchisor in connection with the Transfer. Franchisor may charge the transferee Franchisee the per diem training fee for the expenses incurred by Franchisor in connection with providing the Training Program to the transferee and its Management Staff. The transferee will be responsible for all Salaries and Benefits, Travel Expenses, and other expenses incurred by all personnel attending the Training Program on behalf of the transferee.

18.1. Termination and Conditions of Breach. In addition to its other rights of termination contained in the Agreement, Franchisor may terminate the Agreement if:

- (f) Franchisee breaches any material provision, term, or condition of the Agreement including, without limitation, the failure to timely pay any Fees (defined below), rents, or any other monetary obligations due and payable to Franchisor or Affiliates under the Agreement or any other agreement; provided, however, that a default or termination of any Area Development Agreement due to failure to meet the development schedule will not be grounds for default or termination of the Agreement;
- (g) Franchisee, the Designated Manager, or any of its Executive Management or Owners are convicted of, or plead guilty to a violation of any federal or state law that has a material adverse effect on the operations of Franchisee's Restaurant or a crime involving dishonesty, fraud, or moral turpitude;

(n) Any license, permit, or certification required for food service at Franchisee's Restaurant is canceled for any reason;

Under the circumstances described above, Franchisor has the right, but not the obligation, to enter Franchisee's Restaurant and assume management of Franchisee's Restaurant or appoint a third party to assume management. If Franchisor or a third party assumes management, Franchisee will pay Franchisor $400 per day that Franchisor or the third party manages Franchisee's Restaurant, plus Franchisor's or the third party's costs and expenses in addition to the Royalty Fees and Brand Fund Contributions and other amounts due Franchisor or Affiliates. If Franchisor exercises its rights of management under this Section 18.1, it will not affect Franchisor's right to terminate the Agreement.

18.2. Notice of Breach. Except as provided in Sections 18.4 and 18.5, Franchisor may not terminate the Agreement until: (i) written notice setting forth the alleged breach in detail has been delivered to Franchisee by Franchisor; and (ii) Franchisee fails to correct the alleged breach 30 days after receipt of the written notice to correct the alleged breach except when the written notice states that Franchisee is delinquent in the payment of any of Fees, rents, or other monetary obligations payable to Franchisor or an Affiliate under the Agreement or any other agreement, in which case Franchisee will have five days after receipt of written notice to correct the breach by making full payment to Franchisor together with interest on the past due obligations at the rate of 18% per annum and any applicable administrative fees. If Franchisee fails to correct the alleged breach set forth in the written notice within the required period of time, the Agreement may be terminated by Franchisor.

18.3. Notice of Termination. Except as provided in Sections 18.4 and 18.5, if Franchisor has complied with the provisions of this Section 18 and Franchisee has not corrected the alleged breach set forth in the written notice of breach within the applicable time period specified in the Agreement, then Franchisor will have the absolute right to terminate the Agreement by giving Franchisee written notice of termination and the effective date of termination will be the day written notice of termination is received by Franchisee.

18.4. Immediate Termination Rights of Franchisor. Unless precluded by applicable law, Franchisor will have the absolute right to immediately terminate the Agreement if:

(a) Franchisee, the Designated Manager, any of Franchisee's Executive Management, or any Owners are convicted of or plead guilty to a charge of violating any law applicable to Franchisee's Restaurant;

(b) Franchisee is deemed insolvent under applicable state or federal law, any involuntary petition for bankruptcy is filed against Franchisee and Franchisee is unable within a period of 60 days from such filing to obtain the dismissal of the bankruptcy petition, Franchisee files for bankruptcy, or Franchisee is adjudicated bankrupt under applicable state or federal law;

(c) Franchisee makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or enters into any similar arrangement for the disposition of its assets for the benefit of creditors;

(h) Franchisee fails to open Franchisee's Restaurant and commence business operations by the Required Opening Date.

18.5. Notice of Immediate Termination. Except as provided below, if the Agreement is terminated by Franchisor under Section 18.4, then Franchisor will give Franchisee written notice that the Agreement is terminated and the effective date of termination will be the day the written notice of termination is received by Franchisee. If notice of termination is given to Franchisee by Franchisor under Section 18.4(f), then the Agreement will terminate on the first minute of the 25th hour after receipt of the written notice of termination if Franchisee fails to correct the alleged breach within 24 hours after receiving the written notice of termination.

18.6. Liquidated Damages. Upon termination of the Agreement by Franchisor under Section 18 or upon termination by Franchisee without legal cause, in addition to the amounts owed hereunder, Franchisee will pay Franchisor within 15 days after the effective date of the Agreement's termination liquidated damages equal to the average monthly Royalty Fees and Brand Fund Contributions (without regard to any fee waivers or other reductions) payable beginning with the date Franchisee opens Franchisee's Restaurant through the date of early termination multiplied by the lesser of: (i) 36; or (ii) the number of full months remaining in the term of the Agreement except that liquidated damages will not be less than $30,000 under any circumstances. The parties hereto acknowledge that it would be impracticable to determine the precise damages Franchisor will suffer from the Agreement's termination and the loss of cash flow from Royalties and Brand Fund Contributions. The parties consider this liquidated damages provision to be a reasonable, good faith pre-estimate of those damages.

18.7. Other Remedies. Nothing in this Section 18 will preclude Franchisor from seeking other remedies or Damages under any state or federal law, common law, or under the Agreement against Franchisee including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and injunctive relief. If the Agreement is terminated by Franchisor under this Section 18 or Franchisee breaches the Agreement by a wrongful termination or a termination that is not in strict compliance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, then Franchisor will be entitled to seek recovery of all Damages that Franchisor has sustained and will sustain in the future as a result of Franchisee's breach of the Agreement. Franchisee must reimburse Franchisor for any legal and accounting fees Franchisor incurs enforcing Franchisor's rights under the Agreement or resulting from Franchisee's breach or termination of the Agreement.

18.8. No Equity upon Termination. The provisions of the Agreement will control Franchisee's rights regarding the Franchise. Franchisee will have no equity or any other continuing interest in the Franchise, any goodwill associated with Franchisee's Restaurant or the Marks, or any right to compensation or refunds upon the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

18.9. Continuing Obligations. If the Agreement is terminated because of Franchisee's default, Franchisee will not be released or discharged from Franchisee's obligations including, without limitation, payment of all Fees then due and other amounts that would have become due under the Agreement if Franchisee had continued the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant for the full term of the Agreement. Franchisor's remedies will include, without limitation, the rights to collect the present value of these amounts and receive the benefit of its bargain with Franchisee, accelerate the balances of any promissory notes, and receive any other unpaid amounts owed to Franchisor or Affiliates. Franchisee will sign a general release if Franchisor chooses to waive its rights to collect any amounts that would have become due if Franchisee had continued in business for the full term of the Agreement.

19. FRANCHISEE'S TERMINATION RIGHTS

Franchisee may terminate the Agreement if Franchisee is in full compliance with the Agreement, Franchisor breaches any material provision, term, or condition of the Agreement, and Franchisor fails to either: (i) cure such breach within 30 days after Franchisor receives written notice setting for the alleged breach in detail; or (ii) fails to begin to correct such breach within 30 days after Franchisor receives written notice setting for the alleged breach in detail if such breach cannot be cured within the 30-day period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Franchisee fails to give written notice to Franchisor of the alleged breach within twelve months from the first day of the alleged breach of the Agreement actually occurred including any breach based upon any state, federal, or common law, then the alleged breach by Franchisor will be deemed to be waived by Franchisee and will not be deemed to be a breach of the Agreement by Franchisor; Franchisee will be barred from commencing any action against Franchisor or from recovering any Damages from Franchisor for that specific alleged breach of the Agreement.

20. FRANCHISEE'S OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OR EXPIRATION

20.1. Termination of Use of Marks and Other Obligations. If the Agreement is canceled or terminated for any reason or the Agreement expires, Franchisee will:

- (a) Pay all Fees to Franchisor within five days of cancellation, termination, or expiration;
- (b) Immediately return to Franchisor the Franchise Operations Manual, Confidential Information, menus, advertising materials, and all other printed materials and records pertaining to Franchisee's Restaurant by first class prepaid United States mail; and
- (c) Comply with all other applicable provisions of the Agreement. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement for any reason, Franchisee's right to use "Rush Bowls," the other Marks, and the System will terminate immediately in all respects. Franchisee will not thereafter conduct or promote any business under any name or in any manner that might tend to give the general public the impression that Franchisee is continuing to operate as a franchisee.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Franchisee will immediately cease all marketing or advertising that includes any of the Marks, delete all content containing the Marks or any references to Franchisor or Franchisee's Restaurant from any webpage maintained by Franchisee, and cease using any items or materials that bear or include any of the Marks.

20.2. Alteration of Franchised Location. If the Agreement expires or is terminated for any reason or if the Franchised Location ever ceases to be used for Franchisee's Restaurant, then within 30 days after the date of the expiration or termination of the Agreement, Franchisee will alter, modify, and change both the exterior and interior appearance of the building and the Franchised Location so that it will be clearly distinguished from the standard appearance of a Restaurant at Franchisee's expense. At a minimum, such changes and modifications to the Franchised Location will include, without limitation:

- (a) Repainting and recovering both the exterior and interior walls of the Franchised Location with totally different colors including removing any distinctive colors and designs from the walls;
- (b) Removing all furniture, fixtures, and other décor items associated with Rush Bowls Restaurants and replacing them with other décor items not of the general type and appearance customarily used in Rush Bowls Restaurants;
- (c) Removing all exterior and interior Signs; and
- (d) Immediately discontinuing use of the approved wall décor items and window decals and refraining from using any items that may be confusingly similar to those used in Restaurants.

20.3. Telephone Listings. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement or if Franchisor acquires Franchisee's Restaurant under the Agreement, Franchisor will have the absolute right to notify the telephone company and all listing agencies of the termination or expiration of Franchisee's right to use all telephone numbers and any classified or other directory listings for Franchisee's Restaurant and to authorize the telephone company and all listing agencies to transfer to Franchisor or its assignee all telephone numbers and directory listings of Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisor has the absolute right and interest in and to all telephone numbers and directory listings associated with the Marks and Franchisee authorizes Franchisor to direct the telephone company and all listing agencies to transfer Franchisee's telephone numbers and directory listings to Franchisor or to an assignee of Franchisor if the Agreement is terminated or expires or Franchisor acquires Franchisee's Restaurant. The telephone company and all listing agencies may accept the Agreement as evidence of the exclusive rights of Franchisor to such telephone numbers and directory listings and the Agreement will constitute the authority from Franchisee for the telephone company and listing agency to transfer all such telephone numbers and directory listings to Franchisor. The Agreement will constitute a release of the telephone company and listing agencies by Franchisee from any Claims and Damages that Franchisee may at any time have the right to allege against them in connection with this Section 20.3. Franchisee will execute such documents as Franchisor may require for completing the transfer of the telephone numbers.

20.4. Continuation of Obligations. The indemnities, conditions, requirements, and covenants contained in the Agreement will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

21. FRANCHISOR'S OPTION TO PURCHASE

21.1. Terms of Option. Franchisee will not Transfer or otherwise dispose of any interest in or any part of the Major Assets to any purchaser without first offering the same to Franchisor in a written offer that contains the purchase price, payment terms, and all other material terms and conditions of the proposed transaction with the third party including, without limitation, price and payment terms (the “Franchisee’s Offer”). Franchisor will have 30 days after receipt of Franchisee’s Offer to give Franchisee written notice that will either waive Franchisor’s option to purchase (the “Waiver Notice”) or state that Franchisor intends to exercise its rights to purchase or acquire the Major Assets according to the terms contained in Franchisee’s Offer (the “Notice of Intent to Purchase”).

21.2. Due Diligence Review. If Franchisor provides Franchisee with a Notice of Intent to Purchase within 30 days after receipt of Franchisee’s Offer, then Franchisor will have 90 days after the date the Notice of Intent to Purchase is received by Franchisee (the “Notice Date”) to conduct a due diligence review. Franchisee will promptly provide Franchisor with all Financial Information, Financial Records, and other information requested by Franchisor or its representatives to conduct the review. Franchisor will have the absolute and unconditional right to terminate the Notice of Intent to Purchase and any obligation to purchase the Major Assets from Franchisee for any reason and at any time during the 90-day review period by giving Franchisee written notice.

21.3. Good Faith Negotiations. Unless Franchisor terminates its Notice of Intent to Purchase as provided in Section 21.2, Franchisee and Franchisor will act in good faith to agree on the terms and conditions of the definitive agreement or agreements for the purchase of the Major Assets (other than those objective terms and conditions contained in Franchisee’s Offer) and the closing date for the sale of the Major Assets to Franchisor will take place at the offices of Franchisor within 120 days after the Notice Date.

21.4. Sale to Purchaser. Franchisee may complete the transaction for the sale of the Major Assets to a purchaser according to the terms and conditions contained in Franchisee’s Offer to Franchisor if:

- (a) Franchisor delivers a Waiver Notice to Franchisee;
- (b) Franchisor fails to deliver either a Waiver Notice or the Notice of Intent to Purchase to Franchisee within 30 days after receiving Franchisee’s Offer;
- (c) Franchisor terminates its Notice of Intent to Purchase during the due diligence period under the Section 21.2; or
- (d) Franchisee and Franchisor fail to agree on the terms and conditions for the definitive agreement or agreements for the purchase of the Major Assets by Franchisor from Franchisee (other than those objective terms and conditions contained in Franchisee’s Offer) on or before 120 days after the Notice Date.

21.5. Negotiated Changes with Purchaser. If Franchisor does not purchase the Major Assets from Franchisee under the terms and conditions contained in Franchisee’s Offer, then if during any negotiations with the purchaser Franchisee agrees to negotiate, change, delete, or modify any of the terms and conditions contained in Franchisee’s Offer or the terms and conditions contained in the most recent version of the definitive agreement or agreements proposed by Franchisee during negotiations that were not acceptable to Franchisor, Franchisee will re-offer to sell the Major Assets to Franchisor under the new terms and conditions offered to the purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this Section 21. Franchisee’s failure to do so will be a material breach of the Agreement.

21.6. Financing Exception. This Section 21 will not apply to the Transfer of any of the Major Assets (with the exception of the Agreement) by Franchisee to a bank, financial institution, or other lender in connection with Franchisee's financing of:

- (a) The real estate or leasehold improvements for the Franchised Location;
- (b) The FF&E;
- (c) Inventory or supplies for Franchisee's Restaurant; or
- (d) Working capital required by Franchisee's Restaurant.

21.7. Compliance with Agreement. Franchisee's obligations under the Agreement including, without limitation, Franchisee's obligations to pay all Fees and to operate the business as a Restaurant will in no way be affected or changed because of non-acceptance by Franchisor of Franchisee's Offer. The decision by Franchisor not to exercise the option to purchase granted to it under this Section 21 will not in any way be deemed to grant Franchisee the right to terminate the Agreement and will not affect the term of the Agreement. If Franchisor does not exercise the option to purchase granted under Section 21 and Franchisee sells or otherwise disposes of the Major Assets to a third party, both Franchisee and the purchaser will be required to comply in all respects with the terms and conditions of Section 17 of the Agreement. Any Transfer of the Major Assets that does not include a Transfer of the Agreement to the transferee will constitute a wrongful termination of the Agreement by Franchisee.

21.8. Transfer of Ownership Interest. Franchisee and Owners will not Transfer any Ownership Interests owned by them until the Ownership Interests are first offered to Franchisor in writing under the same terms and conditions as those being offered to any other party. Franchisor will have 30 days from receipt of the offer to accept any offer to purchase the Ownership Interest in Franchisee. Any Owner will be required to comply with the provisions of Section 17.4 if Franchisor does not exercise its right to purchase such Owner's Ownership Interest.

21.9. Right of Franchisor to Purchase Major Assets. If: (i) the Agreement expires or is terminated by either Franchisor or Franchisee for any reason whatsoever; (ii) Franchisee wrongfully terminates the Agreement by failing to comply with Section 18; or (iii) Franchisee at any time ceases to do business as a Restaurant at any time, Franchisor will have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase from Franchisee any or all of the Major Assets for an amount equal to the lesser of: (i) fair market value; or (ii) the amount for which Franchisee purchased the Major Assets. If Franchisor and Franchisee are unable to agree upon a fair market value, the fair market value will be ascertained by an independent business appraiser designated by Franchisor which decision will be final and binding and whose costs will be borne equally between the parties. If Franchisor elects to exercise this option, the date of determination of the fair market value will be the effective date of the termination or expiration of the Agreement and Franchisor will give Franchisee notice of its intent within 30 days following termination or expiration. Franchisor will notify Franchisee of the specific Major Assets that it wishes to purchase (the "Acquired Assets"). Franchisor may require that Franchisee assign the Lease to Franchisor at no additional charge. Franchisee will furnish a copy of Franchisee's then-current Financial Statements and Financial Statements for the prior three years (or the shorter period of time that Franchisee's Restaurant has been in operation if less than three years) to the independent business appraiser and any other financial information or other documents that the appraiser requests. The appraiser will take into account all information and factors that they deem relevant, but the appraiser will be instructed that there will be no consideration of goodwill in the determination of fair market value. Once the appraised value has been determined, Franchisor will have at least 60 days to prepare for the closing. Franchisor will be entitled to receive from Franchisee all customary representations and warranties given by Franchisee as the seller of the Acquired Assets and Franchisee will transfer good and clean title to the Acquired Assets subject to any exceptions agreed to by Franchisor. Franchisor may deduct from the appraised value all amounts owed to Franchisor and Affiliates under the Agreement, any promissory note, and any other agreement between Franchisor or Affiliates and Franchisee. Nothing in this Section 10.9 will be construed to prohibit Franchisor from enforcing the post-term obligations and conditions of the Agreement including, without limitation, the covenants not to compete described in Section 23.

21.10. Bankruptcy Issues. If Franchisee or any person or Entity holding any direct or indirect Ownership Interests in Franchisee becomes a debtor in a proceeding under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or any similar law, any Transfer of Franchisee's obligations or rights hereunder, any material assets of Franchisee, or any indirect or direct interest in Franchisee will be subject to all of the provisions of this Section 21.

22. FRANCHISEE'S REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, AND COVENANTS

22.1. Organization. If Franchisee is an Entity, Franchisee and Owners represent, warrant, and covenant that:

(a) Franchisee is duly organized and validly existing under the law of the state or territory where Franchisee is formed;

(b) Franchisee is duly qualified and authorized to do business in the jurisdiction where the Restaurant is located and in each jurisdiction where Franchisee conducts business, maintains offices, owns real estate, or where qualification is otherwise required;

(c) Franchisee's articles of incorporation, by-laws, operating agreement, member control agreement, partnership agreement, or other similar organizational documents (the "Organizational Documents") will provide that Franchisee's business activities will be confined exclusively to the ownership and operation of Franchisee's Restaurant at all times unless otherwise consented to in writing by Franchisor;

(d) The execution of the Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and the Franchise Operations Manual are within the powers granted to Franchisee by the Organizational Documents and have been duly authorized and approved by Franchisee or by the board of directors, board of governors, managing partner, or other governing body of Franchisee;

(e) Copies of all Organizational Documents and any other documents, agreements, or resolutions in Franchisee's possession will be provided to Franchisor upon written request;

(f) Attachment 3 to the Agreement completely and accurately describes all Owners and their interests in Franchisee as of the Effective Date. Franchisee and Owners will execute revised versions of Attachment 3 periodically to reflect any permitted changes in the information;

(g) Franchisee will maintain a current schedule of Owners and their Ownership Interests. Franchisee will immediately provide Franchisor with a copy of the updated schedule whenever there is any change of Ownership. The schedule will contain the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of each Owner and state the percentage of Ownership that each Owner has in Franchisee;

(h) If any person or Entity ceases to be an Owner or if any individual or Entity becomes an Owner, Franchisee will notify Franchisor in writing and within five days Franchisee the new Owner (and the new Owner's spouse, if applicable) will execute all documents required by Franchisor including, without limitation, an Owner's Agreement;

(i) The Organizational Documents and any documents representing Ownership in Franchisee will provide that no Ownership Interest in Franchisee may be assigned or transferred to any person or Entity except in strict compliance with the terms, conditions, and restrictions described in the Agreement;

(j) Franchisee has no accrued, unliquidated, absolute, or contingent material liabilities, adverse claims, commitments, or obligations of any nature as of the Effective Date except as disclosed to Franchisor in writing or set forth in Franchisee's financial statements that have been provided to Franchisor;

(k) Each Owner who owns at least 10% of the issued and outstanding Ownership Interests in Franchisee will execute the Owner's Agreement attached hereto as Attachment 2;

(l) Franchisee will maintain sufficient working capital to operate Franchisee's Restaurant and fulfill its obligations under the Agreement at all times and take steps to ensure availability of capital to fulfill Franchisee's obligations to maintain and Remodel Franchisee's Restaurant as required under the Agreement; and

(m) The representations, warranties, and covenants contained in this Section 22.1 are continuing obligations of Franchisee and Owners. Any failure to comply with such representations, warranties, and covenants will constitute a material breach of the Agreement.

22.2. Compliance with Agreement. Franchisee and Owners represent, warrant, and covenant that they will comply with all requirements and perform all obligations in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

23. FRANCHISEE'S COVENANTS NOT TO COMPETE

23.1. Consideration. Franchisee and Owners acknowledge that Franchisee, the Designated Manager, its Executive Management, and employees will receive specialized training, marketing and advertising plans, business strategies, confidential recipes, cooking and food preparation information, and trade secrets from Franchisor pertaining to the System and the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant. As consideration for this information, Franchisee and Owners will comply in all respects with the provisions of this Section 23. This is a material provision of the Agreement and Franchisor will not sell a Franchise to any person or Entity that owns or intends to own, operate, or be involved in any Competitive Business; provided, however, that Franchisor will exclude existing operational Restaurants owned and operated by Franchisee on the Effective Date from the obligations of Sections 23.2 and 23.3 and Franchisee may continue to own and operate such Restaurants during the term of the Agreement and thereafter subject to Franchisor's written consent. Franchisee warrants and represents that it does not own, operate, or have any involvement with or interest in any Competitive Business except as disclosed to and approved by Franchisor.

23.2. In-Term Covenant Not to Compete. During the term of the Agreement, Franchisee and Owners will not on their own account or as an employee, principal, agent, franchisee, independent contractor, consultant, affiliate, licensee, partner, officer, director, shareholder, member, manager, governor, or owner of any other person or Entity own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, finance or loan money to, have any interest in, perform services for, or assist any person or Entity engaged in any Competitive Business except with Franchisor's prior written consent.

23.3. Post-Term Covenant Not to Compete. Except as provided to the contrary in Section 23.1, for a period of 24 months after the termination or expiration of the Agreement, Franchisee and Owners will not on their own account or as an employee, principal, agent, franchisee, independent contractor, consultant, affiliate, licensee, partner, officer, director, shareholder, member, manager, governor, or owner of any other person or Entity, own, operate, lease, franchise, conduct, engage in, be connected with, finance or loan money to, have any interest in, or perform services for or assist any person or Entity engaged in any Competitive Business that is located within: (i) ten miles of the Franchised Location; (ii) ten miles of any other Restaurant; or (iii) any protected area or territory granted by Franchisor under an area development agreement or other territorial agreement. Franchisee and Owners expressly acknowledge that the time and geographical limitations set forth in this Section 23.3 are reasonable and necessary to protect Franchisor, Affiliates, Franchisor's franchisees, and developers if the Agreement expires or is terminated by either party for any reason and that this covenant not to compete is necessary to give Franchisor the opportunity to resell or develop a new Restaurant at or in the area near the Franchised Location.

23.4. Ownership of Public Companies. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 23.2 and 23.3, Franchisee and Owners may own up to 5% of any publicly-held company or mutual fund that owns, operates, has an interest in, or controls any Competitive Business provided that such company has a class of securities that is publicly traded on a national exchange or quotation system and is subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

23.5. Injunctive Relief. The provisions of this Section 23 are necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of Franchisor, Affiliates, Franchisor's franchisees, and developers. Franchisee and Owners acknowledge that Damages alone cannot adequately compensate Franchisor if there is a breach of this Section 23 by Franchisee or Owners and that injunctive relief against Franchisee is essential for the protection of Franchisor, Affiliates, Franchisor's franchisees, and developers. If Franchisor alleges that Franchisee or Owners have breached this Section 23, Franchisor may petition a court with jurisdiction in the city where Franchisor's principal place of business is located (currently Westminster, Colorado) or any other competent jurisdiction for injunctive relief against Franchisee and Owners in addition to any other remedies available to Franchisor. Franchisor will not be required to post a bond or other security for any injunctive proceeding. If Franchisor is granted ex parte injunctive relief against Franchisee or Owners, Franchisee or Owners may petition the court for a hearing on the merits at the earliest time convenient to the court.

24. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

24.1. Independent Contractors. Franchisor and Franchisee are each independent contractors and there is no employer-employee or principal-agent relationship between Franchisor and Franchisee. Franchisee may not make any agreements, representations, or warranties in the name of or on behalf of Franchisor or represent that their relationship is other than that of franchisor and franchisee. Neither Franchisor nor Franchisee will be obligated by or have any liability to the other under any agreements or representations made by the other to a third party.

24.2. Operation of Restaurant. Franchisee will be totally and solely responsible for the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant and control, supervise, and manage all employees, agents, and independent contractors who work for or with Franchisee. Only Franchisee will have the right to hire and fire Franchisee's employees. Within seven days of Franchisor's request, Franchisee and each of its employees will sign an employment relationship acknowledgement form stating that Franchisee alone is the employee's employer and that Franchisee alone operates Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee will use its legal name on all documents for use with employees and contractors including, without limitation, employment applications, time cards, pay checks, and employment and independent contractor agreements. Franchisee will not use the Marks on any of these documents. Franchisee will be responsible for the acts of its employees, agents, and independent contractors and take all reasonable business actions necessary to ensure that its employees, agents, and independent contractors comply with all federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations including, without limitation, all discrimination laws, sexual harassment laws, and laws relating to the disabled. Franchisor will not have any right, obligation, or responsibility to control, supervise, or manage Franchisee's employees, agents, or independent contractors and will in no way be involved in the day-to-day operations of Franchisee's Restaurant.

25. INDEMNIFICATION

25.1. Indemnification. Franchisor, Affiliates, and their respective employees, Executive Management, shareholders, members, owners, attorneys, accountants, and agents (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") will not be obligated to any person or Entity for any Damages arising out of, from, in connection with, or as a result of Franchisee's negligence, Franchisee's wrongdoing, or the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant. Except as provided for in Section 16.7, Franchisee will indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties against, and will reimburse the Indemnified Parties for, all Damages that the Indemnified Parties incur in the defense of or as a result of any Claim brought against the Indemnified Parties arising from, in connection with, arising out of, or as a result of Franchisee's negligence, Franchisee's wrongdoing, or the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant. Franchisee will indemnify the Indemnified Parties without limitation for all Damages arising from, out of, in connection with, or as a result of any Claims including, without limitation:

- (a) Any personal injury, property damage, commercial loss, or environmental contamination resulting from any act or omission of Franchisee or its Executive Management, employees, agents, or representatives;
- (b) Any failure on the part of Franchisee to comply with any requirement of any federal or state laws or any rules or regulations of any Governmental Authority;
- (c) Any failure of Franchisee to pay any obligations to any person or Entity;
- (d) Any failure of Franchisee to comply with any requirement or condition of the Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or the other Indemnified Parties;
- (e) Any misfeasance or malfeasance by Franchisee or its Executive Management, employees, agents, or representatives;
- (f) Any tort committed by Franchisee or its Executive Management, employees, agents, or representatives;
- (g) Franchisee's employment or other contractual relationship with its employees, workers, Designated Manager, Managers, or independent contractors including, without limitation, any allegation, claim, finding, or ruling that Franchisor is an employer or joint employer of Franchisee's employees;
- (h) Any fees, costs, or liabilities incurred by Franchisor on Franchisee's behalf including, without limitation, fees and costs incurred by Franchisor to recover amounts due to Franchisee on Franchisee's behalf; or

(i) Any other Claims brought against any of the Indemnified Parties. Franchisee will not be obligated to indemnify the Indemnified Parties for any Damages attributable to, arising out of, from, in connection with, or as a result of any negligence or wrongdoing by the Indemnified Parties. Any of the Indemnified Parties may defend any Claim arising from, as a result of, in connection with, or out of the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant.

25.2. Payment of Costs and Expenses. Franchisee will pay all attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses incurred by the Indemnified Parties to defend any action brought by a third party against any of the Indemnified Parties as set forth in Section 25.1. These indemnification provisions under this Section 25 and the other obligations contained in the Agreement will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

26. LEASE AS SECURITY AND TERMINATION OF LEASE

26.1. Franchisee's Assignment of the Lease. For the purposes of this Section 26, an "Event of Default" will occur if:

- (a) The Agreement is terminated by either Franchisor or Franchisee for any reason whatsoever;
- (b) Franchisee wrongfully terminates the Agreement;
- (c) Franchisee ceases to do business at the Franchised Location as a Restaurant at any time;
- (d) The Agreement expires and Franchisee does not reacquire the Franchise as provided for in Section 2.2;
- (e) The Lease is terminated by either the landlord or Franchisee for any reason whatsoever; or
- (f) The Agreement expires and Franchisee fails to renew the Lease.

If an Event of Default occurs, Franchisor will have the right, but not the obligation, to take and assume the Lease for the remaining term of the Lease under the same terms and conditions as originally contracted for by Franchisee as specified in the Conditional Assignment of Lease referenced in Section 12.1. The right granted by Franchisee to Franchisor to assume Franchisee's position as the tenant under the Lease will be at Franchisor's sole election.

26.2. Perfected Assignment and Notice. This assignment will constitute a perfected, absolute, and present assignment; provided, however, that Franchisor will have no right under this assignment to enforce the provisions of the Lease until an Event of Default has occurred. After an Event of Default has occurred, Franchisor will have the right, but not the obligation, to enforce the provisions of this assignment and to take possession of the Franchised Location by giving Franchisee and the landlord written notice that it has affirmatively exercised its rights under this assignment. The written notice will state:

- (a) That Franchisor is taking and assuming the Lease from Franchisee;
- (b) The date that Franchisor will take physical possession of the Franchised Location; and
- (c) That Franchisor will be bound by the terms and conditions of the Lease being assumed for the remaining term of the Lease.

Franchisor will execute the appropriate documents at the time it gives written notice to Franchisee and the landlord of its assumption of the Lease.

26.3. No Prior Assignment; Estoppel. Franchisee represents and warrants that:

- (a) There has been no prior assignment of the Lease to a third party;
- (b) Franchisee has the right to assign the Lease to Franchisor;
- (c) The Lease is a valid and enforceable agreement;
- (d) Neither the landlord nor Franchisee is in default to the other under the Lease; and
- (e) All covenants, conditions, and agreements have been performed as required by the Lease.

No change in the terms of the Lease will be valid without Franchisor's written approval. Franchisee will not assign the Lease to a third party or encumber its interest in the Lease as long as this assignment is in effect. During the term of the Agreement, Franchisee will not lease or sublease any part of the Franchised Location without Franchisor's prior written consent.

26.4. Enforcement of Franchisee's Rights. Franchisee irrevocably constitutes and appoints Franchisor as its attorney-in-fact to demand, receive, and enforce Franchisee's rights with respect to the Lease, make payments under the Lease, and give appropriate receipts, releases, and satisfactions for and on behalf of and in the name of Franchisee or in the name of Franchisor at Franchisor's option with the same force and effect as Franchisee could if the assignment had not been made. This appointment is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

26.5. Franchisor's Rights and Remedies. If Franchisor elects not to take physical possession of the Franchised Location following termination or expiration of the Agreement, Franchisor may enter upon the premises to ensure that the alterations required under Section 20.2 are made.

26.6. Proration of Rents and Expenses. When Franchisor takes physical possession of the Franchised Location, all charges, real estate taxes, utilities, and rentals will be prorated between Franchisor and Franchisee.

26.7. Possession and Obligations of Franchisor and Franchisee. Franchisor will hold Franchisee harmless from any obligations to the landlord including, without limitation, rental payments arising out of the use of the Franchised Location from the date that Franchisor takes physical possession of the Franchised Location. Franchisee will pay all amounts due to the landlord and other parties under the Lease including, without limitation, rentals, insurance, rental overrides, real estate taxes, repairs, and maintenance up to and including the date that Franchisor takes physical possession of the Franchised Location. With the specific and limited exception of rental payments and other obligations to the landlord arising from Franchisor's use of the Franchised Location after taking physical possession of the premises, Franchisee will indemnify and hold Franchisor harmless from and against any Claims and Damages to which Franchisor may become exposed or which Franchisor may incur by exercising any of its rights under this assignment.

26.8. Assignment by Franchisor. Franchisor may assign its right, title, and interest in the Lease to any persons or Entities upon written notice to Franchisee and the landlord without any consent whatsoever from Franchisee or the landlord. Any such assignment to any person or Entity will be valid and binding upon Franchisee and the landlord as fully as if each had expressly approved the same. Subject to the limitation on further assignment by Franchisee contained in Section 26.3, this assignment will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, legal representatives, assigns, and successors in interest of Franchisee, Franchisor, and the landlord.

26.9. Lease Not Yet Executed. If Franchisee has not yet entered into the Lease for the Franchised Location when the Agreement is executed, the provisions of Section 26 of the Agreement will take effect immediately upon the execution of the Lease. The representations of Franchisee contained in Section 26.3 will be true and complete as of and deemed to have been made when the Lease is executed. Franchisee will execute all additional documents required by Franchisor's attorneys to perfect the assignment of the Lease.

27. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND ENFORCEMENT

27.1. Mediation. Except as provided in Section 27.8, all claims or disputes between Franchisee and Franchisor or Affiliates arising out of or in any way relating to the Agreement or any other agreement between Franchisee and Franchisor or Affiliates, or any of the parties' respective rights and obligations arising from such agreement (each, a "Dispute") will be submitted first to mediation at Franchisor's option to take place in Westminster, Colorado at a location of Franchisor's choice under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association (the "AAA") in accordance with AAA's Commercial Mediation Rules then in effect. Before commencing any legal action against Franchisor or Affiliates with respect to any Dispute, Franchisee will submit a notice to Franchisor that specifies in detail the precise nature and grounds of such Dispute. Franchisor will have a period of 30 days following receipt of such notice to notify Franchisee as to whether Franchisor or Affiliates elects to exercise its option to submit such Dispute to mediation. Franchisee may not commence any action against Franchisor or Affiliates with respect to any such Dispute in any court unless Franchisor fails to exercise its option to submit such Dispute to mediation or mediation proceedings have been terminated as the result of a written declaration by: (i) the mediator that further mediation efforts are not worthwhile; or (ii) by Franchisor. Franchisor's rights to mediation as set forth herein may be specifically enforced by Franchisor. Each party will bear its own costs of mediation and share any mediator's fees equally. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties will not be required to first attempt to mediate a Dispute through mediation as set forth in this Section 27.1 if such Dispute concerns an allegation that a party has violated (or threatens to violate, or poses an imminent risk of violating): (i) any federally protected intellectual property rights in the Marks, the System, trade secrets, Confidential Information, or specialized or proprietary software, training, or other materials; (ii) any of the restrictive covenants contained in the Agreement; and (iii) any of Franchisee's payment obligations.

27.2. Litigation. Franchisor and Franchisee expressly consent to personal jurisdiction in Colorado. Any actions arising out of or related to the Agreement will be initiated and litigated exclusively in the state court of general jurisdiction over the city of Westminster, Colorado, or the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, Denver Division. Franchisee acknowledges that the Agreement is entered into in Colorado and Franchisee will receive valuable and continuing services from Franchisor's headquarters in Westminster, Colorado including, without limitation, training, assistance, support, and development of the System. In recognition of such services and their origin, Franchisee irrevocably consents to the personal jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts of Colorado as set forth in this Section 27 and waives any objections it would otherwise have concerning such matters.

27.3. Fees and Costs. If Franchisee breaches any term of the Agreement or any other agreement with Franchisor or Affiliates, Franchisee will reimburse Franchisor for all reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses Franchisor incurs relating to such breach regardless of whether the breach is cured prior to the commencement of any dispute resolution proceedings. Except for any claim brought by Franchisor as the result of a breach of the Agreement by Franchisee, if Franchisor or Franchisee enforces the Agreement in a judicial proceeding, each party will bear its own costs, expenses, and fees associated with such judicial proceeding including, without limitation, fees for accountants, attorneys, and expert witnesses, costs of investigations and proof of facts, court costs, travel and living expenses, and any other dispute-related expenses. If either party commences any legal action or proceeding in any court in contravention of the terms of the Agreement, that party will pay all costs and expense that the other party incurs in the action or proceeding including, without limitation, costs and attorneys' fees.

27.4. Binding on Third Parties. The provisions of this Section 27 are intended to benefit and bind certain third party non-signatories and will continue in full force and effect subsequent to and notwithstanding the expiration or termination of the Agreement. All applicable statutes of limitation and defenses based on the passage of time are tolled while the dispute resolution procedures described in this Section 27 are pending. The parties will take any action required to effectuate such tolling. Each party will continue to perform its obligations under the Agreement pending final resolution of any Dispute under this Section 27 unless to do so would be impossible or impracticable under the circumstances.

27.5. Governing Law and Jury Trial Waiver. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other applicable law, the Agreement will be interpreted under the laws of Colorado and any Disputes will be governed by and determined in accordance with the substantive laws of Colorado which laws will prevail in the event of any conflict of law. FRANCHISOR, AFFILIATES, FRANCHISEE, AND FRANCHISEE'S AFFILIATES EACH WAIVE THEIR RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

27.6. Limitation on Action. Except for payments owed by one party to the other, any legal action brought or instituted for any Dispute arising from or related to the Agreement will be brought or instituted within a period of two years from the date of discovery of the conduct or event that forms the basis of the legal action. Any legal action brought or instituted after such two-year period will be barred subject to applicable law.

27.7. No Bar to Termination. The provisions of this Section 27 will not bar, override, delay, or in any way restrict Franchisor's right to terminate the Agreement under Section 18 or Section 19 or obtain any legal relief for a breach of the Agreement by Franchisee including, without limitation, obtaining a temporary or permanent injunction.

27.8. Claims Not Subject to Mediation. Notwithstanding Section 27.1, any action for equitable relief including, without limitation, seeking preliminary or permanent injunctive relief, specific performance, or other relief in the nature of equity concerning an allegation by Franchisor that Franchisee: (i) has violated or threatens to violate Franchisee's obligations regarding the use of the Marks or the System by Franchisee; (ii) has violated or threatens to violate Franchisee's obligations upon termination or expiration of the Agreement; (iii) has violated or threatens to violate any provisions of the Agreement by Franchisee relating to Confidential Information and the provisions of Section 23 relating to the interpretation, construction, or enforcement of the restrictive covenants thereunder; (iv) has not met Franchisee's payment obligations under the Agreement; (v) has harmed or threatens any harm to Franchisor's tangible or intangible property; or (vi) is subject to any action in ejectment or for possession of any interest in real or personal property will not be subject to mediation at Franchisor's option. Such actions may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction at any time including, without limitation, during the pendency of any mediation proceedings.

27.9. Payments to Franchisor. Franchisee will not withhold the payment of any Fees due to Franchisor for alleged nonperformance by Franchisor of any of its obligations under the Agreement or any other contract between Franchisor and Franchisee or for any other reason. Franchisee will not offset or withhold any liquidated or unliquidated amounts, Damages, or other funds allegedly due to Franchisee by Franchisor against any Fees due to Franchisor by Franchisee. Franchisor may deduct any Fees or other payments owed to Franchisor, Affiliates, or a third party from amounts payable to Franchisee by Franchisor or Affiliates. Franchisor may apply payments made to Franchisor by Franchisee in any order as Franchisor determines. With respect to Franchisee and Affiliates, Franchisor may:

- (a) Apply any payments received to any past due, current, future, or other indebtedness of any kind regardless of any payment designation by Franchisee, except that Brand Fund Contributions may only be credited to the Brand Fund;
- (b) Set off any amount owed to Franchisor, the Brand Fund, or any other fund or account with any amounts allegedly owed by Franchisor to Franchisee; and
- (c) Retain any amounts received for Franchisee's account or that of any affiliate of Franchisee) as a payment against any amount owed to Franchisor.

Franchisor may exercise any of the foregoing rights in connection with amounts owed to or from Franchisor or Affiliates. Unless expressly provided otherwise, all payments made by Franchisee to Franchisor under the Agreement are non-refundable under any circumstances.

27.10. Effect of Wrongful Termination. If either Franchisor or Franchisee takes any action to terminate the Agreement or Franchisee takes any action to convert Franchisee's Restaurant to another business without first complying with the terms and conditions of the Agreement including, without limitation, Sections 18 or 19, then:

- (a) Such actions will not relieve either party of or release either party from any of its obligations under the Agreement;
- (b) The terms and conditions of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect; and
- (c) The parties will be obligated to fully perform all terms and conditions of the Agreement until such time as the Agreement expires or is terminated in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement and applicable law.

28. MISCELLANEOUS

28.1. Severability. All provisions of the Agreement are severable and the Agreement will be interpreted and enforced as if all completely invalid or unenforceable provisions were not contained herein and partially valid and enforceable provisions will be enforced to the extent valid and enforceable. If any applicable law or rule of any jurisdiction requires a greater prior notice of the termination of the Agreement than is required hereunder or the taking of some other action not required hereunder, or if under any applicable law or rule of any jurisdiction, any provision of the Agreement or any specification, standard, or operating procedure prescribed by Franchisor is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, then the prior notice or other action required by such law or rule will be substituted for the notice requirements hereof, or such invalid or unenforceable provision, specification, standard, or operating procedure will be modified to the extent required to be valid and enforceable. Such modifications to the Agreement will be effective only in the applicable jurisdiction.

28.2. Waiver. By written instrument signed by Franchisor and Franchisee, the parties may waive any obligation of or restriction upon the parties under the Agreement. Acceptance by Franchisor of any payment by Franchisee or Franchisee's failure, refusal, or neglect to exercise any right under the Agreement or insist upon full compliance by Franchisee of its obligations hereunder will not constitute an ongoing waiver by Franchisor of any provision of the Agreement. Franchisor will have the absolute right to waive obligations or restrictions for other franchisees and developers without waiving those obligations or restrictions for Franchisee and Franchisor may negotiate terms and conditions, grant concessions, or waive obligations for other franchisees and developers without granting those same rights to Franchisee or incurring any liability to Franchisee whatsoever subject to applicable law.

28.3. No Oral Modification. No modification, change, addition, rescission, release, amendment, or waiver of the Agreement and no approval, consent, or authorization required by any provision of the Agreement may be made by any person except by a written agreement signed by a duly authorized officer or partner of Franchisee and Franchisor's Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer.

28.4. Entire Agreement. The Agreement supersedes and terminates all prior oral or written agreements between the parties involving the franchise relationship. Any representations, inducements, promises, or agreements alleged by either Franchisor or Franchisee that are not contained in the Agreement will not be enforceable. The Introduction is part of the Agreement and there are no other oral or written understandings or agreements between Franchisor and Franchisee relating to the subject matter of the Agreement. The Agreement will not supersede any written agreements or contracts that are signed concurrently with the Agreement. Any area development agreements or other franchise agreements between the parties will remain in full force and effect in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof and not be superseded by the Agreement. The parties acknowledge that this provision will not act as a disclaimer of any representations made by Franchisor in the Franchise Disclosure Document provided to Franchisee prior to Franchisee's execution of the Agreement.

28.5. Headings and Terms. The headings of the Sections are for convenience only and do not in any way define, limit, or construe the contents of such Sections. The term "Franchisee" as used herein is applicable to one or more individuals or an Entity, as the case may be, and the singular usage includes the plural, the masculine usage includes the neuter and the feminine, and the neuter usage includes the masculine and the feminine. References to "Franchisee," "assignee," and "transferee" that are applicable to an individual or individuals means owners of the equity or operating control of Franchisee or any such assignee or transferee if Franchisee or such assignee or transferee is an Entity.

28.6. Miscellaneous. The rights of Franchisor hereunder are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by Franchisor of any right or remedy hereunder will preclude the exercise or enforcement by Franchisor of any other right or remedy hereunder or which Franchisor is entitled by law to enforce. The Agreement is binding upon the parties hereto and their executors, administrators, heirs, assigns, and successors in interest. If Franchisee consists of more than one person or Entity, their liability under the Agreement will be joint and several.

28.7 Operation if Absence or Disability Occurs and Step-In Rights. To prevent any interruption of Franchisee's Restaurant's operations that would cause harm to the Franchise and lessen the value thereof, Franchisor has the right, but not the obligation, to step-in and designate an individual of Franchisor's choosing (an "Interim Manager") for so long as Franchisor deems necessary and practical to temporarily manage Franchisee's Restaurant: (i) if Franchisee fails to comply with any provision of the Agreement and does not cure the failure within the time period specified by the Agreement or by Franchisor; (ii) if Franchisor determines in its sole judgment that the operation of Franchisor's Restaurant is in jeopardy; (iii) if Franchisor determines in Franchisor's sole discretion that operational problems require Franchisor to operate Franchisee's Restaurant; (iv) if Franchisee abandons or fails to actively operate Franchisee's Restaurant; (v) upon Franchisee or the Designated Manager's absence, termination, illness, death, incapacity, or disability; or (vi) if Franchisor deems Franchisee or the Designated Manager incapable of operating Franchisee's Restaurant (collectively, "Step-in Rights"). If Franchisor exercises the Step-In Rights:

(a) Franchisee will pay Franchisor $400 per day that the Interim Manager manages Franchisee's Restaurant, the Interim Manager's direct out-of-pocket costs and expenses, and all other amounts due under the Agreement;

(b) All monies from the operation of Franchisee's Restaurant during such period of operation by Franchisor will be kept in a separate account and the expenses of Franchisee's Restaurant including, without limitation, fees paid to the Interim Manager will be charged to said account;

(c) Franchisee acknowledges that the Interim Manager will have a duty to utilize only reasonable efforts and not be liable to Franchisee or Owners for any debts, losses, or obligations Franchisee's Restaurant incurs, or to any of Franchisee's creditors for any supplies, products, or other assets or services Franchisee's Restaurant purchases while the Interim Manager manages it;

(d) The Interim Manager will have no liability to Franchisee except to the extent directly caused by the Interim Manager's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Franchisor will have no liability to Franchisee for the activities of the Interim Manager unless Franchisor is grossly negligent in appointing the Interim Manager. Franchisee will indemnify and hold harmless Franchisor, the Interim Manager, and any representative of Franchisor who may act hereunder for any of acts or omissions with respect to the interests of Franchisee or third parties; and

(e) Franchisee will pay all of Franchisor's reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred from Franchisor's exercise of the Step-In Rights.

Nothing contained herein will prevent Franchisor from exercising any other right that it may have under the Agreement including, without limitation, termination.

OWNER'S AGREEMENT

As a condition to the execution by Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC (“we” or “us”) of a Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC Franchise Agreement dated _____, 20____ (the “Franchise Agreement”), with _____ (“Franchisee”), the undersigned and their respective spouses (each, an “Owner”) who constitute all of the owners of a direct or indirect beneficial interest in Franchisee covenant and agree to be bound by this Owner’s Agreement (the “Owner’s Agreement”).

1. Acknowledgments.

1.1. Definitions. Capitalized words not defined in the Owner’s Agreement will have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Franchise Agreement.

1.2. Role of Owners. Owners are the beneficial owners or spouses of the beneficial owners of all of the equity interests, membership interests, or other equity controlling interests in Franchisee and acknowledge there are benefits received and to be jointly and severally received by each Owner and their heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns. Franchisee’s obligations under the Franchise Agreement including, without limitation, confidentiality and non-compete obligations are of little value to us if Owners are not bound by the same requirements. Under the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, Owners are required to enter into the Owner’s Agreement as a condition to our entering into the Franchise Agreement. Owners will be jointly and severally liable for any breach of the Owner’s Agreement.

2. Non-Disclosure and Protection of Confidential Information.

2.1. Confidentiality. Under the Franchise Agreement, we will provide Franchisee with specialized training, proprietary trade secrets, and other Confidential Information relating to the establishment and operation of Franchisee’s Restaurant. The provisions of the Franchise Agreement governing Franchisee’s non-disclosure obligations relating to our Confidential Information are hereby incorporated into the Owner’s Agreement by reference and Owners will comply with each obligation as though fully set forth in the Owner’s Agreement as a direct and primary obligation of Owners. We may seek the same remedies against Owners under the Owner’s Agreement as we may seek against Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement. Any information, knowledge, know-how, techniques, and other data that we designate as confidential will be deemed Confidential Information for purposes of the Owner’s Agreement.

2.2. Immediate Family Members. Owners acknowledge that they could circumvent the purpose of Section 2.1 by disclosing Confidential Information to an immediate family member (such as a spouse, parent, sibling, child, or grandchild). Owners acknowledge that it will be difficult for us to prove whether Owners disclosed the Confidential Information to family members. Each Owner agrees that he or she will be presumed to have violated the terms of Section 2.1 if any member of his or her immediate family uses or discloses the Confidential Information or engages in any activities that would constitute a violation of the covenants listed in Section 3 if performed by Owners. Owners may rebut this presumption by furnishing evidence conclusively showing that Owners did not disclose the Confidential Information to the family member.

3. Covenant Not to Compete.

3.1. Non-Competition During and After the Term of the Franchise Agreement. Owners acknowledge that as a participant in our system, they will receive proprietary and confidential information and materials, trade secrets, and unique methods, procedures, and techniques that we have developed. The provisions of the Franchise Agreement governing Franchisee's restrictions on competition both during the term of the Franchise Agreement and following the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement are incorporated into the Owner's Agreement by reference. Owners will comply with and perform each such covenant as though fully set forth in the Owner's Agreement as a direct and primary obligation of Owners. We may seek the same remedies against Owners under the Owner's Agreement that we may seek against Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement.

3.2. Construction of Covenants. Each such covenant related to non-competition will be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of the Owner's Agreement. If any portion of a covenant referenced in this Section 3 is found unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in a final decision to which we are a party, Owners will be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of such covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of the Owner's Agreement.

3.3. Our Right to Reduce Scope of Covenants. We may unilaterally reduce the scope of any part of any covenant referenced in the Owner's Agreement without Owners' consent in our sole discretion effective when we give Owners written notice of this reduction. Owners will comply with any covenant as so modified.

4. Guarantee.

4.1. Payment. Owners will pay us or Affiliates all monies payable by Franchisee under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement on the required dates in the required manner.

4.2. Performance. Owners unconditionally guarantee full performance and discharge by Franchisee of all of Franchisee's obligations under the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement on the required dates in the required manner.

4.3. Indemnification. Owners will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless us, Affiliates, and our and their respective shareholders, directors, partners, employees, and agents against and from all losses, damages, costs, and expenses that we or they may sustain, incur, or become liable for by reason of: (i) Franchisee's failure to pay the monies payable to us or Affiliates under the Franchise Agreement or to do and perform any other act, matter, or thing required by the Franchise Agreement; or (ii) any action by us or Affiliates to obtain performance by Franchisee of any act, matter, or thing required by the Franchise Agreement.

4.4. No Exhaustion of Remedies. We will not be obligated to proceed against Franchisee, exhaust any security from Franchisee, or pursue or exhaust any remedy including, without limitation, any legal or equitable relief against Franchisee before proceeding to enforce the obligations of Owners as guarantors under the Owner's Agreement. The enforcement of such obligations may take place before, after, or contemporaneously with enforcement of any of Franchisee's debts or obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

4.5. Waiver of Notice. Without affecting Owners' obligations under the Owner's Agreement, we can extend, modify, or release any of Franchisee's indebtedness or obligation, or settle, adjust, or compromise any claims against Franchisee without notice to Owners. Owners waive notice of amendment of the Franchise Agreement and notice of demand for payment or performance by Franchisee.

4.6. Effect of Owner's Death. Upon the death of an Owner, the estate of such Owner will be bound by the obligations in the Owner's Agreement only for defaults and obligations hereunder existing at the time of death. The obligations of any other Owner will continue in full force and effect.

5. Transfers.

Owners acknowledge that we have granted the Franchise Agreement to Franchisee in reliance upon Owners' business experience, skill, financial resources, and personal character. Owners will not sell, encumber, assign, transfer, convey, pledge, merge, or give away any direct or indirect interest in Franchisee unless Owners first comply with the sections in the Franchise Agreement regarding transfers and assignment. Any attempt to do so will be a material breach of the Owner's Agreement and the Franchise Agreement.

6. Notices.

6.1. Method of Notice. Any notices given under the Owner's Agreement will be in writing and delivered in accordance with the provisions of the Franchise Agreement.

6.2. Notice Addresses. Our current address for all communications under the Owner's Agreement is:

Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC
11031 Sheridan Boulevard
Suite One
Westminster, Colorado 80020
Attention: Andrew Pudalov

The current address of each Owner for all communications under the Owner's Agreement is designated on the signature page of the Owner's Agreement. Any party may designate a new address for notices by giving written notice to the other parties of the new address using the method set forth in the Franchise Agreement.

7. Enforcement of the Owner's Agreement.

7.1. Dispute Resolution. Any claim or dispute arising out of or relating to the Owner's Agreement will be subject to the dispute resolution provisions of the Franchise Agreement. The agreement to engage in such dispute resolution process will survive the termination or expiration of the Owner's Agreement.

7.2. Choice of Law, Jurisdiction, and Venue. The Owner's Agreement and any claim or controversy arising out of or relating to any rights or obligations under the Owner's Agreement and any other claim or controversy between the parties will be governed by the choice of law, jurisdiction, and venue provisions of the Franchise Agreement.

7.3. Provisional Remedies. We may seek any provisional remedies from a court of competent jurisdiction including, without limitation, temporary restraining orders or preliminary injunctions to enforce Owners' obligations under the Owner's Agreement. Owners acknowledge that there is no adequate remedy at law for Owners' failure to fully comply with the requirements of the Owner's Agreement. Owners acknowledge that if any noncompliance occurs, we will be entitled to temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctions and all other equitable relief that any court of competent jurisdiction deems appropriate. If injunctive relief is granted, Owners' sole remedy will be dissolution of any injunctive relief. If injunctive relief is wrongfully issued, Owners expressly waive all claims for damages incurred from the wrongful issuance.

8. Miscellaneous.

8.1. No Other Agreements. The Owner's Agreement constitutes the entire, full, and complete agreement between the parties and supersedes any earlier or contemporaneous negotiations, discussions, understandings, or agreements. There are no oral or written representations, inducements, promises, agreements, arrangements, or undertakings between the parties relating to the subject matter of the Owner's Agreement other than those in the Owner's Agreement. No other obligations, restrictions, or duties that contradict or are inconsistent with the express terms of the Owner's Agreement may be imputed to the Owner's Agreement. Except for our unilateral reduction of the scope of the covenants permitted in Section 3.3 or otherwise by the Owner's Agreement, no amendment, change, or variance from the Owner's Agreement will be binding on either party unless mutually agreed to by the parties and executed in writing. Time is of the essence.

8.2. Severability. Each provision of the Owner's Agreement, and any portions thereof, will be considered severable. If any provision of the Owner's Agreement or the application of any provision to any person, property or circumstances is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the Owner's Agreement will be unaffected and will still remain in full force and effect. The parties agree that the provision found to be invalid or unenforceable will be modified to the extent necessary to make it valid and enforceable, consistent as much as possible with the original intent of the parties (i.e. to provide maximum protection for us and to effectuate the Owners' obligations under the Franchise Agreement), and the parties agree to be bound by the modified provisions.

8.3. No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in the Owner's Agreement is intended to confer upon any person or entity other than the parties and their heirs, successors, and assigns any rights or remedies under or by reason of the Owner's Agreement.

8.4. Construction. The language of the Owner's Agreement will be construed according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against either party. All words in the Owner's Agreement refer to whatever number or gender the context requires. If more than one party or person is referred to as "you," their obligations and liabilities will be joint and several. Headings are for reference purposes and do not control interpretation.

8.5. Binding Effect. The Owner's Agreement may be executed in counterparts and each copy so executed and delivered will be deemed an original. The Owner's Agreement is binding on the parties and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors, and permitted assigns.

8.6. Non-Waiver. Our failure to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of the Owner's Agreement will not be a waiver of our ongoing right to do so. Delay or omission by us respecting any breach or default will not affect our rights respecting any subsequent breaches or defaults. All rights and remedies granted in the Owner's Agreement will be cumulative.

8.7. No Personal Liability. Fulfillment of any of our obligations under the Franchise Agreement or the Owner's Agreement, or based on any oral communications which may be ruled to be binding in a court of competent jurisdiction will be our sole responsibility and none of our owners, officers, agents, representatives, or any individuals associated with us will be personally liable to Owners for any reason.

8.8. Owner's Agreement Controls. If any discrepancy between the Owner's Agreement and the Franchise Agreement arises, the Owner's Agreement will control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have entered into the Owner's Agreement as of the Effective Date.

RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

This RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made, entered into, and effective as of the date set forth in Attachment 1 to the Agreement (the “Effective Date”) by and between RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC, a Colorado limited liability company (“Rush Bowls”), and the area developer set forth in Attachment 1 to the Agreement (“Area Developer”). If more than one person or entity is listed as Area Developer, each such person or entity will be jointly and severally liable for all rights, duties, restrictions, and obligations under the Agreement.

INTRODUCTION

A. Rush Bowls has developed a distinctive business system (the “System”) using proprietary methodology and intellectual property for operating and franchising restaurants (each, a “Rush Bowls Franchise”) identified by the mark “Rush Bowls®” that offer wholesome, all-natural high-quality bowls and smoothies made from acai, fruit, organic granola, and other ingredients. Rush Bowls holds the exclusive franchise rights relating to Rush Bowls Franchises.

B. Rush Bowls may license the use of the trademark “Rush Bowls” and other trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos, commercial symbols, phrases, slogans, and taglines designated by Rush Bowls in writing now owned, licensed to, or developed by Rush Bowls (collectively, the “Marks”) for use in connection with the System to selected persons, businesses, or entities that comply with Rush Bowls’s uniform requirements and quality standards.

C. Rush Bowls and Area Developer are contemporaneously entering into a Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC Franchise Agreement (the “Initial Franchise Agreement”) for the right to establish and operate a single Rush Bowls Franchise (the “Initial Business”).

D. Area Developer desires to purchase an option to establish and operate Rush Bowls Franchises within the territory described in Attachment 1 (the “Development Territory”) under the development schedule described in Attachment 2 (the “Development Schedule”) pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

Pursuant to this Introduction and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants set forth in the Agreement, Rush Bowls and Area Developer agree and contract as follows:

1. GRANT OF DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS

1.1. Grant. Rush Bowls grants to Area Developer the personal right to establish and operate the number of Rush Bowls Franchises indicated in Section 1 of Attachment 2 within the Development Territory. Each Rush Bowls Franchise will be operated according to the terms of a separate individual franchise agreement (each, a “Franchise Agreement”). Rush Bowls may: (i) own, franchise, or operate Rush Bowls Franchises and Rush Bowls restaurants at any location outside of the Development Territory regardless of the proximity to any Rush Bowls Franchise developed or in development by Area Developer; (ii) sell any products or services using the Rush Bowls trademarks through any alternate channels of distribution within or outside of the Development Territory; (iii) own, acquire, establish, or operate and license others to establish and operate businesses under other proprietary marks or other systems at any location even if these businesses are in competition with Area Developer; (iv) purchase, be purchased by, merge, or be merged with any business at any location including a business that is in competition with Area Developer; (v) acquire and convert to the System any businesses offering services and products similar to those offered by Rush Bowls Franchises including, without limitation, businesses operated by competitors or otherwise operated independently or as part of or in association with any other system or chain at any location within or outside of the Development Territory; provided, however, that in such situations the newly acquired businesses will not operate under the Marks in the Development Territory; and (vi) directly or indirectly sell or distribute at retail, wholesale, or otherwise, or license others to sell or distribute any food products including, without limitation, proprietary food products under the Marks or any other marks through grocery stores, convenience stores, hotel shops, kiosks, theaters, malls, airports, gas stations, college campuses, military facilities, sports venues, theme or entertainment parks, casinos, or other similar retail locations within or outside of the Development Territory.

1.2. Development Territory Protection. If Area Developer is developing Rush Bowls Franchises in compliance with the terms of the Agreement, the Development Schedule, and each individual Franchise Agreement, Rush Bowls will not franchise or license others to, nor will itself directly or indirectly develop, own, lease, construct, or operate in any manner any Rush Bowls Franchises in the Development Territory during the term of the Agreement. Rush Bowls reserves all other rights including, without limitation, the right to otherwise act in the manner permitted in any Franchise Agreement. The Agreement is not a franchise agreement and Area Developer will have no right to use the Marks or System in any manner under the Agreement. Each Rush Bowls Franchise will be governed by the individual Franchise Agreement signed by Rush Bowls and Area Developer for each Rush Bowls Franchise.

1.3. Ownership. Area Developer will own at least a 51% equity interest in the franchisee for each Rush Bowls Franchise developed under the Agreement. Area Developer will ensure that the day-to-day operations of each Rush Bowls Franchise are managed by either the franchisee (or if the franchisee is an entity, an Operating Principal (defined below)) or a manager who has been approved by Rush Bowls (a “Designated Manager”). If any franchisee is not an individual, the franchisee will designate an individual (an “Operating Principal”) acceptable to Rush Bowls who will be principally responsible for communicating with Rush Bowls about the Rush Bowls Franchise. Rush Bowls may require that the Designated Manager have an ownership interest in the franchisee. Area Developer will identify all equity owners of Area Developer by completing the Statement of Ownership attached to the Agreement as Attachment 3. Area Developer will provide Rush Bowls with an updated form of Attachment 3 within ten business days of any change in the equity ownership of Area Developer. The failure of Area Developer to provide Rush Bowls with an updated Attachment 3 within the ten-day period will constitute a material default of the Agreement.

2. TERM

Unless sooner terminated pursuant to the provisions of Section 7, the term of the Agreement will expire upon the earlier of: (i) the date listed on Section 2 of Attachment 2 (the “Termination Date”); or (ii) completion of the obligations of the Development Schedule. The only territorial protections that Area Developer will receive upon expiration or termination of the Agreement will be those under each individual Franchise Agreement. Upon the expiration or termination of the Agreement: (i) Area Developer will have no further right to construct, equip, own, open, or operate additional Rush Bowls Franchises that are not the subject of a then-existing Franchise Agreement or similar agreement between Area Developer or an affiliate of Area Developer and Rush Bowls at the time of such termination or expiration which is then in full force and effect; and (ii) Rush Bowls or its affiliates may thereafter construct, equip, open, own, or operate, license others to, or grant development rights to others to construct, equip, open, own, or operate Rush Bowls Franchises or Rush Bowls restaurants at any location without any restriction.

3. DEVELOPMENT FEE

Area Developer may elect to develop up to three Rush Bowls Franchises (the “Multi-3”) or up to five Rush Bowls Franchises (the “Multi-5”) in the Development Territory upon execution of the Agreement. Area Developer will pay a fee for this development right (the “Development Fee”) in the amount set forth in Attachment 1 depending the number of Rush Bowls Franchises Area Developer elects to develop. No initial franchise fee will be due upon the execution of each Franchise Agreement to be developed under the Agreement, but all other fees will apply. All amounts collected will be fully earned immediately upon receipt and non-refundable regardless of whether Area Developer opens any of the Rush Bowls Franchises it is obligated to open.

4. DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULE AND EXERCISE OF DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS

4.1. Franchise Agreements. Area Developer will exercise the development rights granted under the Agreement only by entering into a separate Franchise Agreement with Rush Bowls for each Rush Bowls Franchise for which a development right is granted. The Initial Franchise Agreement will be executed and delivered concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Agreement. All subsequent Rush Bowls Franchises developed under the Agreement will be established and operated pursuant to Rush Bowls’s then-current form of Franchise Agreement. Area Developer acknowledges that the then-current form of Franchise Agreement may differ from the Initial Franchise Agreement except that each will have the same royalty rate as the Initial Franchise Agreement.

4.2. Development Schedule.

(a) Area Developer acknowledges that time is of the essence and Area Developer will exercise its development rights strictly in accordance with Section 4.1 and the Development Schedule. The Development Schedule designates the number of Rush Bowls Franchises that must be developed before the end of each of the designated development periods (each, a “Development Period”).

(b) During any Development Period, Area Developer may develop more than the number of Rush Bowls Franchises that Area Developer is required to develop during that Development Period by executing multiple Franchise Agreements during the Development Period with Rush Bowls’s prior written consent. Any Franchise Agreements executed during a Development Period in excess of the minimum number to be executed upon expiration of that Development Period will be applied to satisfy Area Developer’s future development obligations. Area Developer will not execute more than the cumulative total number of Franchise Agreements that Area Developer is obligated to execute under the Agreement as set forth in the Development Schedule.

(c) Area Developer will open each Rush Bowls Franchise in accordance with the terms of the applicable Franchise Agreement and execute the Franchise Agreements in accordance with the Development Schedule unless Area Developer obtains an extension of the Development Period from Rush Bowls to sign a particular Franchise Agreement in Rush Bowls’s sole discretion. Each extension will be for an additional 90-day period commencing upon the expiration of the applicable Development Period including any previous extensions thereof (the “Extension Date”). No more than two extensions of any Development Period will be permitted. No extension of any Development Period will affect the duration of any other Development Period or any of Area Developer’s other obligations. If an extension is requested in the final Development Period, the term of the Agreement will be extended to the Extension Date. Each extension may be conditioned upon payment of a $2,000 extension fee (the “Extension Fee”) per extension.

(d) Any failure by Area Developer to strictly adhere to the Development Schedule will constitute a material event of default under the Agreement for which Rush Bowls may immediately exercise its rights under Section 7.1.

(e) If Rush Bowls is not legally able to deliver a Franchise Disclosure Document to Area Developer by reason of any lapse or expiration of its franchise registration, because Rush Bowls is in the process of amending any such registration, or for any reason beyond Rush Bowls's reasonable control, Rush Bowls may delay acceptance of the site for Area Developer's proposed Rush Bowls Franchise or delivery of a Franchise Disclosure Document until such time as Rush Bowls is legally able to deliver a Franchise Disclosure Document.

5. LOCATION OF RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISES

The location of each Rush Bowls Franchise will be within the Development Territory and selected by Area Developer in accordance with the terms of each Franchise Agreement.

6. FRANCHISE AGREEMENTS

Area Developer will not commence construction of or open any Rush Bowls Franchise until the Franchise Agreement for that Rush Bowls Franchise has executed by both Area Developer and Rush Bowls.

7. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

7.1. Default. Area Developer will be in default of the Agreement if Area Developer or its affiliates fail to comply with the Development Schedule or otherwise fail to perform any obligations under the Agreement or any Franchise Agreement including, without limitation, failing to comply with applicable transfer provisions. Upon Area Developer's failure to adhere to the Development Schedule or any other default, Rush Bowls may do any of the following in Rush Bowls's sole discretion:

- (a) Terminate the Agreement;
- (b) Terminate the territorial exclusivity granted to Area Developer;
- (c) Reduce the size of the Development Territory;
- (d) Permit Area Developer to extend the Development Schedule; or
- (e) Pursue any other remedy Rush Bowls may have at law or in equity including, without limitation, a suit for non-performance.

7.2. Death or Disability. Upon the prompt written request to Rush Bowls following the death or permanent disability of Area Developer or any controlling principal of Area Developer (a "Controlling Principal") who owns all or a part of the controlling interest in Area Developer (a "Controlling Interest"), Rush Bowls will allow a period of up to nine months after such death or legal incapacity for the Controlling Principal's heirs, personal representatives, or conservators (the "Heirs") to obtain Rush Bowls's consent to the assignment of the Controlling Principal's rights and interests in the Agreement to the Heirs or another person acceptable to Rush Bowls. If the Heirs fail to receive Rush Bowls's consent or effect the assignment within said nine-month period, the Agreement will immediately terminate in Rush Bowls's sole discretion.

7.3. Franchise Agreement Termination. If any Franchise Agreement or similar agreement issued to Area Developer, an approved affiliate of Area Developer, or any corporation, partnership, or joint venture or their affiliates in which Area Developer or any stockholder, partner, or joint venturer of Area Developer has any direct or indirect ownership or participation interest is terminated for any reason, Rush Bowls may terminate the Agreement upon immediate written notice to Area Developer in Rush Bowls's sole discretion. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement, the Agreement will be of no further effect and Rush Bowls will have the right to open or license others to open Rush Bowls Franchises or Rush Bowls restaurants within the Development Territory.

7.4. Default Costs and Expenses. If a default by Area Developer occurs, all of Rush Bowls's costs and expenses arising from such default including, without limitation, reasonable accountant's fees, attorney's fees, and hourly charges of administrative employees will be paid to Rush Bowls by Area Developer within five days after cure or upon demand by Rush Bowls if such default is not cured.

8. ASSIGNMENT

8.1. Assignment by Rush Bowls. Rush Bowls may transfer or assign all or any part of its rights or obligations hereunder to any person or legal entity which assumes its obligation under the Agreement. Rush Bowls will be released from any further liability to Area Developer following Rush Bowls's assignment.

8.2. Assignment by Area Developer. Area Developer may not assign the Agreement or any rights to the Development Territory. The provisions of this Section 8.2 will not restrict Area Developer from transferring an open and operating Rush Bowls Franchise in compliance with the assignment provisions contained in such Rush Bowls Franchise's Franchise Agreement.

9. FORCE MAJEURE

The term "Force Majeure" will mean any act of God, strike, lock-out or other industrial disturbance, war (declared or undeclared), terrorist event, riot, epidemic, fire, or other catastrophe, act of any government, and any other similar cause that is beyond a party's control and cannot be overcome by use of normal commercial measures. If Area Developer is unable to comply with the Development Schedule due to a Force Majeure event, the Development Schedule and the term of the Agreement will be extended for a corresponding period not exceeding 90 days upon Area Developer's written notice to Rush Bowls. Force Majeure will be construed narrowly and will not include general economic, market, or societal conditions, or any changes thereto including those that are the direct or indirect result of a Force Majeure event.

10. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the development of the Development Territory and will not be modified except by a written agreement signed by the parties. Nothing in the Agreement or any related agreement is intended to disclaim Rush Bowls's representations made in the Franchise Disclosure Document. Where the Agreement and any Franchise Agreement between the parties conflict with respect to the payment terms of initial franchise fees or equity interests held by Area Developer or its owners, the terms of the Agreement will govern; otherwise, the terms of each Franchise Agreement will govern with respect to the applicable Rush Bowls Franchise. Under no circumstances will the Agreement grant Area Developer any rights to grant sub-franchises in the Development Territory.

11. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR AND INDEMNIFICATION

11.1. Independent Contractor Status. Area Developer and Rush Bowls are independent contractors and nothing contained in the Agreement will be construed as constituting Area Developer as the agent, partner, or legal representative of Rush Bowls for any purpose whatsoever. Area Developer will enter into contracts for the development of the Development Territory contemplated by the Agreement at Area Developer's sole risk and expense. Area Developer will be solely responsible for the direction, control, and management of its agents and employees. Area Developer will not have the authority to incur any obligations, responsibilities, or liabilities on Rush Bowls's behalf or bind Rush Bowls through any representations or warranties. Rush Bowls will not to hold itself out as having any such authority.

11.2. Indemnification. Area Developer will protect, defend, indemnify, and hold Rush Bowls harmless from and against any direct or indirect claims, actions, proceedings, damages, costs, expenses, and other losses and liabilities (each, a "Claim") incurred as a result of, arising from, out of, or in connection with Area Developer's obligations under the Agreement. Area Developer will reimburse Rush Bowls within 30 days of Rush Bowls's invoice to Area Developer for all costs of defending any Claim including, without limitation, any attorney's fees incurred by Rush Bowls whether or not Area Developer's insurer assumes defense of Rush Bowls. Rush Bowls has the right to approve any resolution or course of action including, without limitation, the selection of an attorney for the defense of a Claim that could directly or indirectly have any adverse effect on Rush Bowls, the Marks, or the System or serve as a precedent for other matters. Area Developer will also indemnify Rush Bowls for any fees, costs, or liabilities incurred by Rush Bowls on Area Developer's behalf including, without limitation, fees and costs incurred by Rush Bowls to recover amounts due to Area Developer on Area Developer's behalf.

12. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

The Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each of the parties hereto and their heirs, successors, permitted assigns, and personal representatives.

13. APPLICABLE LAW, JURY TRIAL WAIVER, AND RUSH BOWLS'S DISCRETION

13.1. Applicable Law. Except to the extent governed by the United States Trademark Act of 1946 (Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1051 et seq.) or other applicable law, the Agreement will be interpreted under the laws of Colorado and any disputes will be governed by and determined in accordance with the substantive laws of Colorado which laws will prevail in the event of any conflict of law. The parties expressly consent to personal jurisdiction in Colorado. Except as set forth in Section 15, the state and federal courts located in the jurisdiction where Rush Bowls has its principal place of business (currently Westminster, Colorado) will have exclusive jurisdiction and be the mandatory venue for dispute resolution.

13.2. Jury Trial Waiver. RUSH BOWLS, AREA DEVELOPER, AND THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES EACH WAIVE THEIR RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY.

13.3. Rush Bowls's Discretion. STATE ADDENDA
AND AGREEMENT RIDERS

STATE ADDENDA AND AGREEMENT RIDERS

ADDENDA TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT, AND SUPPLEMENTAL AGREEMENTS FOR CERTAIN STATES FOR RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISING, LLC

The following modifications are made to the Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC (“Franchisor,” “us,” “we,” or “our”) Franchise Disclosure Document (the “FDD”) given to a franchisee (“Franchisee,” “you,” or “your”) and may supersede, to the extent then required by valid applicable state law, certain portions of the Franchise Agreement between you and us dated _____, 20____ (the “Franchise Agreement”). When the term “Franchisor’s Choice of Law State” is used, it means Colorado. When the term “Supplemental Agreements” is used, it means an Area Development Agreement.

Certain states have laws governing the franchise relationship and franchise documents. Certain states require modifications to the FDD, Franchise Agreement and other documents related to the sale of a franchise. This State Specific Addendum (the “State Addendum”) will modify these agreements to comply with the state’s laws. The terms of this State Addendum will only apply if you meet the requirements of the applicable state independently of your signing of this State Addendum. The terms of this State Addendum will override any inconsistent provision of the FDD, Franchise Agreement, or any Supplemental Documents. This State Addendum only applies to the following states: California, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin.

If your state requires these modifications, you will sign this State Addendum along with the Franchise Agreement and any Supplemental Agreements.

CALIFORNIA

The California Franchise Investment Law requires a copy of all proposed agreements relating to the sale of the Franchise be delivered together with the FDD.

California Corporations Code Section 31125 requires us to give to you an FDD approved by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation before we ask you to consider a material modification of your Franchise Agreement.

The Franchise Agreement contains, and if applicable, the Supplemental Agreements may contain, provisions requiring litigation with the costs being awarded to the prevailing party. The arbitration will occur in Colorado. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Agreements restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California. The Franchise Agreement may contain a mediation provision. If so, the parties will each bear their own costs of mediation and will share equally the filing fee and the mediator’s fees.

The Franchise Agreement and Supplemental Agreements require the application of the law of Colorado. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.

Neither Franchisor nor any other person listed in Item 2 of the FDD is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a et seq., suspending or expelling such persons from membership in such association or exchange.

California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 20043 provide rights to you concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Agreements contain a provision that is inconsistent with the California Franchise Investment Law, the California Franchise Investment Law will control.

The Franchise Agreement and Supplemental Agreements may provide for termination upon bankruptcy. Any such provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. SEC. 101 et seq.).

The Franchise Agreement contains, and if applicable, the Supplemental Agreements may contain, a covenant not to compete provision which extends beyond the termination of the Franchise. Such provisions may not be enforceable under California law.

Under California Civil Code Section 1671, certain liquidated damages clauses are unenforceable. Any such provisions contained in the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Agreements may not be enforceable.

You must sign a general release of claims if you renew or transfer your Franchise. California Corporations Code Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Sections 31000 through 31516).

Our website has not been reviewed or approved by the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation. Any complaints concerning the content of this website may be directed to the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation at www.dfp.ca.gov.

Item 6 of the FDD is amended to state the highest interest rate allowed by law in California is 10% annually.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

ILLINOIS

Sections 4 and 41 and Rule 608 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act states that court litigation must take place before Illinois federal or state courts and all dispute resolution arising from the terms of this Agreement or the relationship of the parties and conducted through arbitration or litigation will be subject to Illinois law. The FDD, Franchise Agreement, and Supplemental Agreements are amended accordingly.

The governing law or choice of law clause described in the FDD and contained in the Franchise Agreement and Supplemental Agreements is not enforceable under Illinois law. This governing law clause will not be construed to negate the application of Illinois law in all situations to which it is applicable.

Section 41 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act states that “any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of this Act or any other law of this State is void.” The Franchise Agreement is amended accordingly. To the extent that the Franchise Agreement would otherwise violate Illinois law, such Agreement is amended by providing that all litigation by or between you and us, arising directly or indirectly from the Franchise relationship, will be commenced and maintained in the state courts of Illinois or, at our election, the United States District Court for Illinois, with the specific venue in either court system determined by appropriate jurisdiction and venue requirements, and Illinois law will pertain to any claims arising under the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

Item 17.v, Choice of Forum, of the FDD is revised to include the following: “provided, however, that the foregoing will not be considered a waiver of any right granted upon you by Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.”

Item 17.w, Choice of Law, of the FDD is revised to include the following: “provided, however, that the foregoing will not be considered a waiver of any right granted upon you by Section 4 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.”

The termination and non-renewal provisions in the Franchise Agreement and the FDD may not be enforceable under Sections 19 and 20 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act.

Under Section 705/27 of the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, no action for liability under the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act can be maintained unless brought before the expiration of three years after the act or transaction constituting the violation upon which it is based, the expiration of one year after you become aware of facts or circumstances reasonably indicating that you may have a claim for relief in respect to conduct governed by the Act, or 90 days after delivery to you of a written notice disclosing the violation, whichever will first expire. To the extent that the Franchise Agreement is inconsistent with the Illinois Franchise Disclosure Act, Illinois law will control and supersede any inconsistent provisions.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

INDIANA

Item 8 of the FDD is amended to add the following:

Under Indiana Code Section 23-2-2.7-1(4), we will not accept any rebates from any person with whom you do business or associate in relation to transactions between you and the other person, other than for compensation for services rendered by us, unless the rebate is properly accounted for and submitted to you.

Item 17 of the FDD is amended to add the following:

Indiana Code 23-2-2.7-1(7) makes it unlawful for us to unilaterally terminate your Franchise Agreement unless there is a material violation of the Franchise Agreement and termination is not in bad faith.

Indiana Code 23-2-2.7-1(5) prohibits us to require you to agree to a prospective general release of claims subject to the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act.

The “Summary” column in Item 17.r. of the FDD is deleted and the following is inserted in its place:

No competing business for two (2) years within the Protected Territory.

The “Summary” column in Item 17.t. of the FDD is deleted and the following is inserted in its place:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this provision, you do not waive any right under the Indiana Statutes with regard to prior representations made by us.

The “Summary” column in Item 17.v. of the FDD is deleted and the following is inserted in its place:

Litigation regarding Franchise Agreement in Indiana; other litigation in Franchisor's Choice of Law State. This language has been included in this Franchise Disclosure Document as a condition to registration. The Franchisor and the Franchisee do not agree with the above language and believe that each of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, including all venue provisions, is fully enforceable. The Franchisor and the Franchisee intend to fully enforce all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and all other documents signed by them including, without limitation, all venue, choice-of-law, arbitration provisions, and other dispute avoidance and resolution provisions and to rely on federal preemption under the Federal Arbitration Act.

The “Summary” column in Item 17.w. of the FDD is deleted and the following is inserted in its place:

Indiana law applies to disputes covered by Indiana franchise laws; otherwise Franchisor's Choice of Law State law applies.

Despite anything to the contrary in the Franchise Agreement, the following provisions will supersede and apply to all Franchises offered and sold in the State of Indiana:

1. The laws of the State of Indiana supersede any provisions of the FDD, the Franchise Agreement, or Franchisor's Choice of Law State law, if such provisions are in conflict with Indiana law.

2. The prohibition by Indiana Code 23-2-2.7-1(7) against unilateral termination of the Franchise without good cause or in bad faith, good cause being defined under law as including any material breach of the Franchise Agreement, will supersede the provisions of the Franchise Agreement relating to termination for cause, to the extent those provisions may be inconsistent with such prohibition.
3. Any provision in the Franchise Agreement that would require you to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability imposed by the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Law is void to the extent that such provision violates such law.
4. The covenant not to compete that applies after the expiration or termination of the Franchise Agreement for any reason is hereby modified to the extent necessary to comply with Indiana Code 23-2-2.7-1(9).
5. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
6. The following provision will be added to the Franchise Agreement:

No Limitation on Litigation. Despite the foregoing provisions of this Agreement, any provision in the Agreement which limits in any manner whatsoever litigation brought for breach of the Agreement will be void to the extent that any such contractual provision violates the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Law.

MARYLAND

AMENDMENTS TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, FRANCHISE AGREEMENTS, AND AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS

Item 17 of the FDD and the Franchise Agreement are amended to state: "The general release required as a condition of renewal, sale, and/or assignment/transfer will not apply to any liability under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law."

Item 17 of the FDD and sections of the Franchise Agreement and Area Development Agreement are amended to state: "A franchisee may bring a lawsuit in Maryland for claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law. Any claims arising under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law must be brought within three years after the grant of the Franchise."

The Franchise Agreement, Area Development Agreement and Franchise Disclosure Questionnaire are amended to state: "All representations requiring prospective franchisees to assent to a release, estoppel, or waiver of liability are not intended to, nor will they act as, a release, estoppel, or waiver of any liability incurred under the Maryland Franchise Registration and Disclosure Law."

The Franchise Agreement provides for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under Federal Bankruptcy Law (11 U.S.C.A Sec. 101 et seq.).

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

MINNESOTA

Despite anything to the contrary in the Franchise Agreement, the following provisions will supersede and apply to all Franchises offered and sold in the State of Minnesota:

1. Any provision in the Franchise Agreement which would require you to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver that would relieve any person from liability imposed by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 80C.01 to 80C.22 will be void to the extent that such contractual provision violates such law.
2. Minnesota Statute Section 80C.21 and Minnesota Rule 2860.4400J prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside of Minnesota. In addition, nothing in the FDD or Franchise Agreement can abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C, or your rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of Minnesota.
3. Minn. Rule Part 2860.4400J prohibits a franchisee from waiving his rights to a jury trial or waiving his rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction, or consenting to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. Any provision in the Franchise Agreement which would require you to waive your rights to any procedure, forum or remedies provided for by the laws of the State of Minnesota is deleted from any agreement relating to Franchises offered and sold in the State of Minnesota; provided, however, that this paragraph will not affect the obligation in the Franchise Agreement relating to arbitration.
4. With respect to Franchises governed by Minnesota law, we will comply with Minnesota Statute Section 80C.14, Subds. 3, 4, and 5, which require, except in certain specified cases, that you be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the Franchise Agreement; and that consent to the transfer of the Franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.
5. Item 13 of the FDD is hereby amended to state that we will protect your rights under the Franchise Agreement to use the Marks, or indemnify you from any loss, costs, or expenses arising out of any third party claim, suit or demand regarding your use of the Marks, if your use of the Marks is in compliance with the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and our System standards.
6. Minnesota Rule 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release. As a result, the FDD and the Franchise Agreement, which require you to sign a general release prior to renewing or transferring your Franchise, are hereby deleted from the Franchise Agreement to the extent required by Minnesota law.

7. The following language will appear as a new paragraph of the Franchise Agreement:

No Abrogation. Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.21, nothing in the dispute resolution section of this Agreement will in any way abrogate or reduce any of your rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80.C.

8. Minnesota Statute Section 80C.17 states that no action for a violation of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 80C.01 to 80C.22 may be commenced more than three years after the cause of action accrues. To the extent that the Franchise Agreement conflicts with Minnesota law, Minnesota law will prevail.
9. Item 6 of the FDD and Section 6.2 of the Franchise Agreement are hereby amended to limit the Non-Sufficient Funds Charge to $30 per occurrence pursuant to Minnesota Statute 604.113.
10. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

NEW YORK

1. The following information is added to the cover page of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

THE FRANCHISOR MAY, IF IT CHOOSES, NEGOTIATE WITH YOU ABOUT ITEMS COVERED IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT. HOWEVER, THE FRANCHISOR CANNOT USE THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS TO PREVAIL UPON A PROSPECTIVE FRANCHISEE TO ACCEPT TERMS WHICH ARE LESS FAVORABLE THAN THOSE SET FORTH IN THIS FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

2. The following is added at the end of Item 3:

Except as provided above, with regard to Franchisor, its predecessor, a person identified in Item 2, or an affiliate offering franchises under the franchisor's principal trademark:

A. No such party has an administrative, criminal, or civil action pending against that person alleging: a felony, a violation of a franchise, antitrust, or securities law, fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, misappropriation of property, unfair or deceptive practices or comparable civil or misdemeanor allegations.

B. No such party has pending actions, other than routine litigation incidental to the business, which are significant in the context of the number of franchisees and the size, nature or financial condition of the Franchise System or its business operations.

C. No such party has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge, or within the 10-year period immediately preceding the application for registration, has been convicted of or pleaded nolo contendere to a misdemeanor charge or has been the subject of a civil action alleging: violation of a franchise, antifraud, or securities law; fraud; embezzlement; fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of property; or unfair or deceptive practices or comparable allegations.

D. No such party is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order or decree relating to the franchise, or under a Federal, State or Canadian franchise, securities, antitrust, trade regulation or trade practice law, resulting from a concluded or pending action or proceeding brought by a public agency; or is subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, suspending or expelling such person from membership in such association or exchange; or is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order relating to any other business activity as a result of an action brought by a public agency or department, including without limitation, actions affecting a license as a real estate broker or sales agent.

3. The following is added to the end of the "Summary" sections of Item 17(c), titled "Requirements for Franchisee to renew or extend," and Item 17(m), entitled "Conditions for Franchisor approval of transfer:"

However, to the extent required by applicable law, all rights you enjoy and any causes of action arising in your favor from the provisions of Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York and the regulations issued thereunder will remain in force; it being the intent of this proviso that the non-waiver provisions of General Business Law Sections 687.4 and 687.5 be satisfied.

4. The following language replaces the "Summary" section of Item 17(d), titled "Termination by Franchisee:"

You may terminate the agreement on any grounds available by law.

5. The following is added to the end of the "Summary" sections of Item 17(v), titled "Choice of Forum," and Item 17(w), titled "Choice of Law:"

The foregoing choice of law should not be considered a waiver of any right conferred upon the Franchisor or upon the Franchisee by Article 33 of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

6. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

NORTH DAKOTA

Sections of the FDD, the Franchise Agreement, and the Supplemental Agreements requiring that you sign a general release, estoppel or waiver as a condition of renewal and/or assignment may not be enforceable as they relate to releases of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law.

Sections of the FDD, the Franchise Agreement, and the Supplemental Agreements requiring resolution of disputes to be outside North Dakota may not be enforceable under Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, and are amended accordingly to the extent required by law.

Sections of the FDD, the Franchise Agreement, and the Supplemental Agreements relating to choice of law may not be enforceable under Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, and are amended accordingly to the extent required by law.

Any sections of the FDD, the Franchise Agreement, and the Supplemental Agreements requiring you to consent to liquidated damages and/or termination penalties may not be enforceable under Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, and are amended accordingly to the extent required by law.

Any sections of the FDD, the Franchise Agreement, and the Supplemental Agreements requiring you to consent to a waiver of trial by jury may not be enforceable under Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, and are amended accordingly to the extent required by law.

Any sections of the FDD, the Franchise Agreement, and the Supplemental Agreements requiring you to consent to a waiver of exemplary and punitive damages may not be enforceable under Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law, and are amended accordingly to the extent required by law.

Item 17(r) of the FDD and Section 23 of the Franchise Agreement disclose the existence of certain covenants restricting competition to which Franchisee must agree. The Commissioner has held that covenants restricting competition contrary to Section 9-08-06 of the North Dakota Century Code, without further disclosing that such covenants may be subject to this statute, are unfair, unjust, or inequitable within the intent of Section 51-19-09 of the North Dakota Franchise Investment Law. The FDD and the Franchise Agreement are amended accordingly to the extent required by law.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

RHODE ISLAND

Section 19-28.1-14 of the Rhode Island Franchise Investment Act provides that “A provision in a franchise agreement restricting jurisdiction or venue to a forum outside this state or requiring the application of the laws of another state is void with respect to a claim otherwise enforceable under this Act.” The FDD, the Franchise Agreement, and the Supplemental Agreements are amended accordingly to the extent required by law.

The above language has been included in this FDD as a condition to registration. The Franchisor and the Franchisee do not agree with the above language and believe that each of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement and the Supplemental Agreements, including all choice of law provisions, are fully enforceable. The Franchisor and the Franchisee intend to fully enforce all of the provisions of the Franchise Agreement, the Supplemental Agreements, and all other documents signed by them including, without limitation, all venue, choice-of-law, arbitration provisions and other dispute avoidance and resolution provisions and to rely on federal pre-emption under the Federal Arbitration Act.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

VIRGINIA

In recognition of the restrictions contained in Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, the FDD for Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC for use in the Commonwealth of Virginia will be amended as follows:

Item 17(h). The following is added to Item 17(h):

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to use undue influence to induce a franchisee to surrender any right given to him under the franchise. If any provision of the Franchise Agreement or Supplemental Agreements involve the use of undue influence by the Franchisor to induce a franchisee to surrender any rights given to franchisee under the Franchise, that provision may not be enforceable.

The following statement is added to Item 5 and Item 7:

The Virginia State Corporation Commission's Division of Securities and Retail Franchising requires us to defer payment of the initial franchise fee and other initial payments owed by franchisees to the franchisor until the franchisor has completed its pre-opening obligations under the Franchise Agreement.

The following statement is added to Item 8 and Item 17.h:

Pursuant to Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, it is unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any grounds for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute "reasonable cause," as that term may be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

The following statement is added to Item 17:

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

WASHINGTON

AMENDMENTS TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND AREA DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, Chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.

RCW 19.100.180 may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions which may supersede the franchise agreement in your relationship with the franchisor including the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise.

In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.

A release or waiver of rights executed by a franchisee may not include rights under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rule or order thereunder except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel. Provisions such as those which unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

Transfer fees are collectable to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.

Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflict with these limitations are void and unenforceable in Washington.

RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.

Exhibit H-1 to the Franchise Disclosure Document (General Release) is amended by the addition of the following sentence: "The General Release does not apply with respect to claims arising under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and the rules adopted thereunder."

Exhibit I to the Franchise Agreement (Franchisee Disclosure Questionnaire) is amended by the addition of the following sentence: "The Questionnaire does not waive any liability the franchisor may have under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, RCW 19.100, and the rules adopted thereunder."

Section 16.4 of the Area Development Agreement is amended by the deletion of the following sentence: "Area Developer has not relied on any express or implied warranty or representation regarding the potential success or projected income of the business venture contemplated by the Agreement."

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship will have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

APPLICABLE ADDENDA

If any one of the preceding Addenda for specific states (the “Addenda”) is checked as an “Applicable Addenda” below, then that Addendum will be incorporated into the Franchise Disclosure Document, Franchise Agreement and any other specified agreements entered into by us and the undersigned Franchisee. To the extent any terms of an Applicable Addenda conflict with the terms of the Franchise Disclosure Document, Franchise Agreement, Area Development Agreement, or other specified agreements, the terms of the Applicable Addenda will supersede the terms of the Franchise Disclosure Document, Franchise Agreement, Area Development Agreement, or other specified agreements.

RUSH BOWLS FRANCHISE
SAMPLE SYSTEM PROTECTION AGREEMENT

This System Protection Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into by the undersigned (“you” or “your”) in favor of Rush Bowls Franchising, LLC, a Colorado limited liability company, and its successors and assigns (“us,” “we,” or “our”), upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

1. Definitions. For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms have the meanings given to them below:

“Competitive Business” means any business that (i) sells or offers to sell products the same as or similar to the type of products sold by you in and/or from your Protected Area including, without limitation, the products we authorize, or (ii) provides or offers to provide services the same as or similar to the type of services sold by you in or from the Protected Area including, without limitation, the services we authorize, but excludes a Rush Bowls Restaurant operating pursuant to a franchise agreement with us.

“Copyrights” means all works and materials for which we or our affiliate have secured common law or registered copyright protection and that we allow franchisees to use, sell, or display in connection with the marketing and/or operation of a Rush Bowls Restaurant or the solicitation or offer of a Rush Bowls franchise, whether now in existence or created in the future.

“Franchisee” means the Rush Bowls franchisee for which you are an officer.

“Franchisee Territory” means the territory granted to you pursuant to a franchise agreement with us.

“Intellectual Property” means, collectively or individually, our Marks, Copyrights, Know-how, and System.

“Know-how” means all of our trade secrets and other proprietary information relating to the development, construction, marketing, and/or operation of a Rush Bowls Restaurant, including, without limitation, to methods, techniques, specifications, proprietary practices and procedures, policies, marketing strategies, and information comprising the System and the Manual.

“Manual” means our confidential operations manual for the operation of a Rush Bowls Restaurant, which may be periodically modified by us.

“Marks” means the logotypes, service marks, and trademarks now or hereafter involved in the operation of a Rush Bowls Restaurant, including “RUSH BOWLS,” and any other trademarks, service marks, or trade names that we designate for use by a Rush Bowls Restaurant. The term “Marks” also includes any distinctive trade dress used to identify a Rush Bowls Restaurant, whether now in existence or hereafter created.

“Prohibited Activities” means any or all of the following: (i) owning, operating, or having any other interest (as an owner, partner, director, officer, employee, manager, consultant, shareholder, creditor, representative, agent, or in any similar capacity) in a Competitive Business (other than owning an interest of 5% or less in a publicly-traded company that is a Competitive Business), and/or (ii) diverting or attempting to divert any business from us (or one of our affiliates or franchisees).

“Restricted Period” means the 2-year period after you cease to be an officer of Franchisee’s Rush Bowls Restaurant; provided, however, that if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that this period of time is too long to be enforceable, then the “Restricted Period” means the 1-year period after you cease to be an officer of Franchisee’s Rush Bowls Restaurant.

“Restricted Territory” means the geographic area within (i) a 25-mile radius from Franchisee’s Rush Bowls Restaurant (and including the premises of the approved location of Franchisee); and (ii) a 25-mile radius from all other Rush Bowls Restaurants that are operating or under construction as of the beginning of the Restricted Period; provided, however, that if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the foregoing Restricted Territory is too broad to be enforceable, then the “Restricted Territory” means the geographic area within a 12.5-mile radius from Franchisee’s Rush Bowls Restaurant (and including the premises of the approved location of Franchisee).

“System” means our system for the establishment, development, operation, and management of a Rush Bowls Restaurant, including Know-how, proprietary programs and products, Manual, and operating system.

2. Background. You are a manager or officer of Franchisee. As a result of this relationship, you may gain knowledge of our System. You understand that protecting the Intellectual Property and our System are vital to our success and that of our franchisees and that you could seriously jeopardize our entire System if you were to unfairly compete with us. In order to avoid such damage, you agree to comply with the terms of this Agreement.

3. Know-How and Intellectual Property. You agree that you will (i) not use the Know-how in any business or capacity other than the Rush Bowls Restaurant operated by Franchisee, (ii) maintain the confidentiality of the Know-how at all times, (iii) not make unauthorized copies of documents containing any Know-how, (iv) take such reasonable steps as we may ask of you from time to time to prevent unauthorized use or disclosure of the Know-how, and (v) stop using the Know-how immediately if you are no longer a manager or officer of Franchisee’s Rush Bowls Restaurant. You further agree that you will not use all or part of the Intellectual Property or all or part of the System for any purpose other than the performance of your duties for Franchisee and within the scope of your employment or other engagement with Franchisee. These restrictions on Know-how, Intellectual Property and the System will not apply to any information which is information publicly known or becomes lawfully known in the public domain other than through a breach of this Agreement or is required or compelled by law to be disclosed, provided that you will give reasonable notice to us to allow us to seek protective or other court orders.

4. Unfair Competition During Relationship. You agree not to unfairly compete with us at any time while you are a manager or officer of Franchisee’s Rush Bowls Restaurant by engaging in any Prohibited Activities.

5. Unfair Competition After Relationship. You agree not to unfairly compete with us during the Restricted Period by engaging in any Prohibited Activities; provided, however, that the Prohibited Activity relating to having an interest in a Competitive Business will only apply with respect to a Competitive Business that is located within or provides competitive goods or services to customers who are located within the Restricted Territory. If you engage in any Prohibited Activities during the Restricted Period, then you agree that your Restricted Period will be extended by the period of time during which you were engaging in the Prohibited Activity.

6. Immediate Family Members. You acknowledge that you could circumvent the purpose of this Agreement by disclosing Know-how to an immediate family member (i.e., spouse, parent, sibling, child, grandparent, or grandchild). You also acknowledge that it would be difficult for us to prove whether you disclosed the Know-how to family members. Therefore, you agree that you will be presumed to have violated the terms of this Agreement if any member of your immediate family (i) engages in any Prohibited Activities during any period of time during which you are prohibited from engaging in the Prohibited Activities, or (ii) uses or discloses the Know-how. However, you may rebut this presumption by furnishing evidence conclusively showing that you did not disclose the Know-how to the family member.

7. Covenants Reasonable. You acknowledge and agree that (i) the terms of this Agreement are reasonable both in time and in scope of geographic area, and (ii) you have sufficient resources and business experience and opportunities to earn an adequate living while complying with the terms of this Agreement. YOU HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO CHALLENGE THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT AS BEING OVERLY BROAD, UNREASONABLE, OR OTHERWISE UNENFORCEABLE.

8. Breach. You agree that failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement will cause substantial and irreparable damage to us and/or other Rush Bowls franchisees for which there is no adequate remedy at law. Therefore, you agree that any violation of the terms of this Agreement will entitle us to injunctive relief. You agree that we may apply for such injunctive relief without bond, but upon due notice, in addition to such further and other relief as may be available at equity or law, and the sole remedy of yours in the event of the entry of such injunction will be the dissolution of such injunction, if warranted, upon hearing duly held (all claims for damages by reason of the wrongful issuance of any such injunction being expressly waived hereby). If a court requires the filing of a bond notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the parties agree that the amount of the bond will not exceed $1,000. None of the remedies available to us under this Agreement are exclusive of any other, but may be combined with others under this Agreement, or at law or in equity, including injunctive relief, specific performance, and recovery of monetary damages. Any claim, defense, or cause of action that you may have against us, our owners, or our affiliates, or against Franchisee, regardless of cause or origin, cannot be used as a defense against our enforcement of this Agreement.

9. Miscellaneous.

a. If we pursue legal remedies against you because you have breached this Agreement and prevail against you, you agree to pay our reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in doing so.

b. This Agreement will be governed by, construed, and enforced under the laws of Colorado, and the courts in that state will have jurisdiction over any legal proceedings arising out of this Agreement.

c. Each section of this Agreement, including each subsection and portion thereof, is severable. If any section, subsection, or portion of this Agreement is unenforceable, it will not affect the enforceability of any other section, subsection, or portion; and each party to this Agreement agrees that the court may impose such limitations on the terms of this Agreement as it deems in its discretion necessary to make such terms reasonable in scope, duration, and geographic area.

d. You and we both believe that the covenants in this Agreement are reasonable in terms of scope, duration, and geographic area. However, we may at any time unilaterally modify the terms of this Agreement upon written notice to you by limiting the scope of the Prohibited Activities, narrowing the definition of a Competitive Business, shortening the duration of the Restricted Period, reducing the geographic scope of the Restricted Territory, and/or reducing the scope of any other covenant imposed upon you under this Agreement to ensure that the terms and covenants in this Agreement are enforceable under applicable law.

This SYSTEM PROTECTION AGREEMENT is executed and effective as of the date below.
