What You Need To Know About Franchising Generally

Continuing responsibility to pay fees. You may have to pay royalties and other fees even if you are losing money.

Business model can change. The franchise agreement may allow the franchisor to change its manuals and business model without your consent. These changes may require you to make additional investments in your franchise business or may harm your franchise business.

Supplier restrictions. You may have to buy or lease items from the franchisor or a limited group of suppliers the franchisor designates. These items may be more expensive than similar items you could buy on your own.

Operating restrictions. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business during the term of the franchise. There are usually other restrictions. Some examples may include controlling your location, your access to customers, what you sell, how you market, and your hours of operation.

Competition from franchisor. Even if the franchise agreement grants you a territory, the franchisor may have the right to compete with you in your territory.

Renewal. Your franchise agreement may not permit you to renew. Even if it does, you may have to sign a new agreement with different terms and conditions in order to continue to operate your franchise business.

When your franchise ends. The franchise agreement may prohibit you from operating a similar business after your franchise ends even if you still have obligations to your landlord or other creditors.

Some States Require Registration

Your state may have a franchise law, or other law, that requires franchisors to register before offering or selling franchises in the state. Registration does not mean that the state recommends the franchise or has verified the information in this document. To find out if your state has a registration requirement, or to contact your state, use the agency information in Exhibit A.

Your state also may have laws that require special disclosures or amendments be made to your franchise agreement. If so, you should check the State Specific Addenda. See the Table of Contents for the location of the State Specific Addenda.

Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise

Certain states require that the following risk(s) be highlighted:

1. Out-of-State Dispute Resolution. The franchise agreement requires you to resolve disputes with the franchisor by mediation, arbitration and/or litigation only in Georgia. Out-of-state mediation, arbitration, or litigation may force you to accept a less favorable settlement for disputes. It may also cost more to mediate, arbitrate, or litigate with the franchisor in Georgia than in your own state.
2. Mandatory Minimum Payments. You must make minimum royalty and advertising payments, regardless of your sales levels. Your inability to make the payments may result in termination of your franchise and loss of your investment.

Certain states may require other risks to be highlighted. Check the “State Specific Addenda” (if any) to see whether your state requires other risks to be highlighted.

The method of payment will be one installment by certified funds. See Item 5.

This equipment and supply package will be the minimum necessary with which to commence operations of the Franchised Business, exclusive of normal and customary office supplies.

Note 3 Office Equipment and Supplies. We estimate that your expenses for office equipment and supplies will be $5,000 - $10,000. You must purchase or lease equipment that is compatible with our required operating systems. Based on current operating systems our current requirements are (1) personal computer with a minimum 16GB RAM, 1 TB hard drive, USB ports, Windows 10 or newer operating system; (1) I-Pad Air or I-Pad Pro series with IOS 13 or newer having a minimum 128GB storage and camera (device must include cell service); the I-Pencil (or comparable) and software; and (1) cellphone (device must include cell service). Other recommended office supplies include a scanner and printer, additional monitor(s) with docking station, desk, and miscellaneous typical office supplies. Your franchise may wish to use time tracking software and fleet tracking/management software offered by a third party provider. You may begin your franchised business from a home office so no real estate costs are disclosed.

Note 4 Grand Opening Marketing. We have estimated Grand Opening Marketing expenses to be $1,500 to $3,000. With our assistance, you must develop a local marketing database consisting of 250 - 500 local insurance agents, insurance adjusters, independent adjusters, and commercial property managers. Monies must be spent for e-blasts and direct mailers to all prospects included in your database. These monies must be spent by you within the first sixty (60) days of the opening of the Office. All Grand Opening Marketing materials must be pre-approved by us.

Note 5 Travel for Initial Training. We estimate that your travel expenses to our Kennesaw, Georgia or other designated training location will be $3,000 to $7,000 for two people. We have estimated these expenses at approximately per day and include monies for lodging, meals, car rental or vehicle driving costs and other miscellaneous expenses. Any travel expenses (including airfare) are also your responsibility.

Note 6 Certification Training and Associated Travel. You or your manager must complete the following IICRC courses prior to our training courses: Water Damage Restoration Training (WRT/ASD Combo Course), Mold Remediation (AMRT) Certification Course, Lead Paint Course, OSHA 10 Hour Safety Course for Contractors, and Claims Training Services Course which we estimate a combined cost is of $4,900 - $7,000 plus travel associated expenses. Travel-related expenses will vary depending on the distance to school, whether you drive or fly, etc.

Note 7 Insurance Deposits (3 months). We estimate that your initial insurance deposit will be approximately $4,000.00 to $13,000 depending on whether you pay in installments or in a lump sum payment.

Note 8 Business Licenses. You may be required to obtain business licenses on a yearly basis from the local government agency requiring business or occupational licenses. We have estimated these costs to be $100 to $1,000 depending upon the jurisdiction. It is your responsibility to determine whether a license is required and, if so, to comply with appropriate state and/or local law.

Note 9 Utility Deposits. We have estimated your utility company deposits will range from $200 to $400. These include monies needed to be deposited with the local telephone company since we anticipate that you will operate the initial Office from their personal residence. It is possible that you will not have to deposit any monies if you have good credit and the utility company has a company policy of no deposits for new customers.

Note 10 Legal and Accounting Fees. We estimate that your legal and accounting fees will be approximately $2,000 - $6,000 to start your Franchised Business.

Note 11 Vehicle. You will need a full-size cargo van for your Rytech business which is approved by us. This vehicle should cost between $26,000 and $60,000. The cost of the vehicle will vary depending on the make, model and age of the vehicle. Your van must be large enough to hold the drying equipment and other supplies and equipment, as well as the storage racks installed to hold drying equipment. You must purchase the Rytech Wrap for the van with is currently $1,800 - $3,000 per vehicle.

Note 12 Royalty Fees. You are required to pay a Royalty Fee to us of 8% of all Gross Revenues. See Item 6 for more details regarding the Royalty Fees to be paid us during the term of the Franchise Agreement.

Note 14 Transaction Fees, TPA Fees, Estimating Software Fees and other associated Field Fees. See Addendum 2b to the Franchise Agreement for a breakdown of the current fees required by Rytech and insurance carriers at the time of this disclosure. These fees are subject to change. All software fees and transaction fees are invoiced monthly to your franchised business and paid via RyPay. Although you are not required to provide services to insurance carriers, should you wish to do so, you must purchase insurance carrier required software and/or use third-party administrators to obtain the carrier assignments and pay all associated fees. You are required to use DocuSign for the execution of customer contracts.

Note 15 Additional Funds. We estimate that you may need additional funds of $25,000 to $50,000 and is based on an owner operated business and does not include any allowance for an owner's draw or salary or operations manager's draw or salary if you elect to have one. The estimate is for the first three months of operations. We estimate that in general this amount should be sufficient.

Note 16 Total. We have relied on our years of experience in the water damage restoration business to compile these estimates. You should review these figures carefully with a business advisor before making any decision to purchase the franchise. We do not offer financing to franchisees at this time.

These items currently include equipment, supplies, inventory, tools and other products and materials required for the operation of the Franchised Business. Third Party Administrators. Some of Rytech's carriers engage the services of third party administrators (TPA) to manage their property restoration service providers. Additionally, some TPA's will charge in addition to the percentage a transaction fee. Franchisees are not required to engage the services of carriers that use TPA to manage their property restoration service providers.

IICRC Certifications. As a Rytech franchisee, you are responsible to ensure all of your field technicians obtain proper IICRC certification prior to that employee offering services. Minimum IICRC certifications required for a water mitigation technician are the WRT/ASD certifications; for fire and smoke are the FSRT certifications. You may develop advertising materials for your own use, at your own cost. However, you may not use any advertising materials unless they have been approved, in advance, in writing by us. There is no advertising council composed of franchisees. The company units are required to spend the greater of $1,000 or 4% of Gross Revenues on local advertising. (FA § 8)

You may be required to submit to us, at least 30 days prior to its implementation, a local advertising and marketing plan each fiscal year by which you intend to market your Rytech Office during the next 12-month period. (FA § 8)

National Advertising Fund. We require you to participate in a National Advertising Fund. All franchisee and company stores are required to make monthly contributions to the National Advertising Fund, in the amount of no less than 1%, but no more than 3%, of gross revenues. Our affiliate, Rytech, Inc. administers the National Advertising Fund and directs all programs financed by the fund, including the creative concepts, materials, endorsements, and the geographic market and media placement and allocation thereof. We may use the fund to satisfy the costs of producing video, audio and written advertising materials; administering regional and multi-regional advertising programs; developing and maintaining an Internet website; and supporting public relations, market research and other advertising, promotion and marketing activities. We will not use your fund contributions to defray any of our operating expenses, except for any reasonable salaries, administrative costs, travel expenses and overhead that we may incur in administering the fund and its programs. Upon your written request to us, the National Advertising Fund will be compiled annually and reported, via mail or email, to Franchisees within 120 days of the end of the year. The annual report is not audited. Any monies not spent will be carried over to be used the following year. The maximum monthly contribution is 3% of gross revenues. You will receive a minimum of 90 days written notice of any change in the National Advertising Fund. (FA § 8)

Other than reimbursement for reasonable costs and overhead incurred in activities for the administration or direction of the fund, neither we nor any affiliate will receive any payment for providing products or services to the fund. We may spend in any calendar year more or less than the total contributions to the fund in that year. The fund may borrow from us or other lenders to cover deficits of the fund or cause the fund to invest any surplus for future use by the fund. If we spend more than the contributions accumulated in the fund during any fiscal year, we have the right to receive, on demand, reimbursement in later years to the extent of the excess expenditure.

We are not required to spend any amount from the fund on advertising or promotions in your area. We are not required to make expenditures for you that are equivalent or proportionate to your fund contributions or to ensure that any particular franchisee benefits directly or in proportion to its contributions to the fund. If any contributions to the fund, including any associated earnings, are not spent in the fiscal year in which they accrue, they remain in the fund for use in following years. We reserve the right to terminate the fund at any time, but we will not do so until all monies in the fund have been spent for the purposes described in the franchise agreement or returned to contributors on a prorated basis.

During fiscal year 2024, 12% was spent on production, 34% on media placement, 16% on administrative expenses and 39% on other uses. None of the National Brand Fund was spent on soliciting new franchisees.

No fund monies were spent on the solicitation of prospective franchisees. Except for a portion of the fund that may be spent on website development and maintenance (a portion of which may include soliciting the sale of franchises using our website), we anticipate that the fund will not be used to solicit the sale of franchises, however we reserve the right to use a portion of the fund monies for that purpose in the future.

Franchisee Advertising Council. We currently do not have a franchisee advertising council, but we reserve the right to do so.

Regional Advertising Cooperative. Under the Cooperative Advertising Program, if initiated in your area, membership will be defined by geographic region, as determined by us. You will be required to contribute up to the Local Advertising requirements and the amount you pay will be counted toward your Local Advertising requirements. Our company locations are required to contribute equally. If established, we, or our affiliate will administer the Regional Advertising Cooperative. We may, however, delegate our duties to the Advertising Cooperative and the power to self-administer the advertising used by that Advertising Cooperative. If requested by the Cooperative members, an annual financial statement will be available to review by the franchisee. We have the power to require the Cooperative to be formed, changed, dissolved or merged. You are required to spend up to the Local Advertising requirement; except that the members of the cooperative may vote, by majority vote, to spend over the Local Advertising requirement.

Item 12: TERRITORY

You will not receive an exclusive territory. You may face competition from other franchisees, from outlets that we own, or from other channels of distribution or competitive brands that we control.

We grant protected territories in blocks, each block having a minimum of approximately 400,000 population. Territories are designated by zip code(s). If you are not in good-standing, we may alter your territory. You must only operate a Rytech office within your territory.

We may enter into regional or national account program relationships with insurance companies, third party administrators, property managers and other business channels under which we may assign jobs to franchisees at a negotiated rate. You are required to service these claims. If you refuse assigned claims, we may assign the regional or national account program work in your territory to other franchisees. During catastrophic events, we may send other franchisees or company personnel into your Territory to provide services to the affected area.

In the event we receive an inquiry from any source for services to be provided in your territory, we will forward all inquiry information to you. If you do not participate, are not in good standing, refuse assigned claims or do not qualify for any jobs, we may assign this job in your territory to other franchisees.

Except as provided above, and as long as you remain in good standing, neither we nor our affiliates may operate Rytech Offices or grant franchises within your territory. However, we may operate Rytech Offices or grant franchises for any Locations, within or outside your territory, if they are operated under a different name or if they offer different services. We have no plans now or in the near future to open other locations using alternative channels of distribution. We do not solicit or accept orders inside your territory, and, therefore, do not pay compensation for soliciting or accepting orders inside your territory.

You may only accept and perform work in your territory. You may begin your franchise from a home office for a limited time upon our approval. However, the office must be within your territory. If you wish to relocate your office, it must be in your territory, and you must provide us with a 60 day notice of the relocation.

You cannot solicit or accept orders from customers pursuing other channels of distribution, such as the internet, catalog sales, telemarketing or other direct marketing, to make sales outside your territory. However, if there is no other franchisee bordering your territory you may submit a written request to us to accept and perform work in specified zip codes bordering your territory in the open territory. In the event that we grant your request, we may require you to stop accepting and performing work in the open territory for any reason. You are allowed to market outside of your territory for purposes of creating work within your territory unless the marketing is within another Franchisee's territory. All approved marketing materials and manners of marketing for use in your territory may be used in approved areas outside your territory. Your territorial rights are not dependent upon the achievement of certain sales volumes, market penetration or any other contingency.

Neither the Company nor our affiliate(s) has established other franchises or Company-owned outlets selling or leasing similar products or services under a different trade name or trademark; and neither the Company nor our affiliate(s) has any presently formulated plan or policy to do so. The Company reserves the right to use alternative distribution channels (including the internet) within franchisee's territory, under its trademarks or different trademarks. Franchisor does not have to pay any compensation for soliciting or accepting orders inside the franchisee's territory.

The Agreement does not provide you with any options, rights of first refusal, or similar rights to acquire additional franchises within the Territory or areas contiguous to the Territory.

We may require you to modify or discontinue your use of any of the Marks. If we exercise this right, we will provide advance notice to all franchisees. In the event that we must withdraw its application for registration with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, you may be required to change your trade name and Mark, even after you have opened for business. In this event, you must change, at your expense, all signs, marketing literature, etc. when we notify to you that a new Mark has been registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

We have no actual knowledge of either superior prior rights or infringing uses that could materially affect your use of the Marks in any state.

Item 18: PUBLIC FIGURES

We do not use any public figure. We may use a public figure to promote its franchise in the future, but have not present intent to do so.

Item 19: FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE REPRESENTATIONS

The FTC's Franchise Rule permits a franchisor to provide information about the actual or potential financial performance of its franchised and/or franchisor-owned outlets, if there is a reasonable basis for the information, and if the information is included in the Disclosure Document. Financial performance information that differs from that included in Item 19 may be given only if: (1) a franchisor provides the actual records of an existing outlet you are considering buying; or (2) a franchisor supplements the information provided in this Item 19, for example by providing information about possible performance at a particular location or under particular circumstances.

The following Table includes actual historical information we have accumulated for franchised businesses that were owned and operated by our franchisees in 2020-2024 and were opened for the entire twelve months in each applicable reporting year. Gross Revenues were generated from sales collected through RyPay.

All of the businesses included in the figures below are generally comparable to the Franchise offered by this disclosure document. No adjustments, including adjustments for geographic location, increased business due to catastrophic assistance or open service areas, have been made to these reported sales. Also, because these are Gross Revenues results only, no costs or expenses are taken into account.

Average and Median Gross Revenues

the highest and lowest performing franchisees and how many franchisees exceeded the average broken down by year.

Operating Year	Number of Franchisees*	Average Annual Gross Revenues per Franchisee	Number and percentage of Franchisees Exceeding Average Gross Revenues		Median Annual Gross Revenues per Franchisee	Highest Annual Gross Revenues	Lowest Annual Gross Revenues
2024	80	$731,214	22	28%	$467,724	$4,975,620	$74,010

2020	50	$736,081	15	30%	$532,632	$3,417,505	$95,986

*Franchisees included in this chart where open for the entire twelve-month period. Franchisees open for less than one year, or, franchisees who closed within the twelve-month period, are not included.

“Average” means the aggregate in each category of Operating Years, divided by the total number of Franchisees included in the second column of Table 1.

“Gross Revenue” means the amount of sales for Services or Products sold by You or your Related Parties and all other income of any kind whatsoever derived directly or indirectly in connection with Your operation of Your Franchised Business, the Marks, Your operation under the Marks or any aspect of the System, but excluding taxes actually paid to a governmental authority, and refunds actually made to Customers.

“Median” is defined as the middle Gross Revenues when arranged in an order.

These figures do not deduct royalties, admin fees and other fees owed by you to us or our affiliates.

The financial performance representation figures do not reflect net income or profit.

Some outlets have earned this amount. Your individual results may differ. There is no assurance you will earn as much.

Written substantiation for the financial performance representation will be made available to the prospective franchisee upon reasonable request.

Other than the preceding financial performance representation, we do not make any financial performance representations. We also do not authorize our employees or representatives to make any such representations either orally or in writing. If you are purchasing an existing outlet, however, we may provide you with the actual records of that outlet. If you receive any other financial performance information or projections of your future income, you should report it to the franchisor's management by contacting Randy Kerlin at 1690 Roberts Blvd., NW, Suite 120, Kennesaw, GA 30144; telephone number (770) 977-8787, the Federal Trade Commission, in the appropriate State Regulatory Agency.

RYTECH may suspend disbursement to you of disputed payments pending investigation of a file.

6.3 Gross Revenue Reports.

If requested by Rytech, no later than the fifth day of each month following the Start Date (or on the next Business Day, if the fifth day is not a Business Day) and continuing throughout the Term, You will transmit to RYTECH a Gross Revenue report, in the form specified by RYTECH in the Manual, itemizing Gross Revenue for the preceding month even if You owe only the Minimum Royalty Fee. The Gross Revenue report may require certain other information that RYTECH deems advisable, such as breakdown of revenue by the type of Services provided. You will transmit Gross Revenue reports via e-mail, fax or such other method of delivery that RYTECH designates in the Manual or otherwise in writing. If You fail to timely transmit the Gross Revenue report to RYTECH, RYTECH may debit from Your designated bank account by EFT on estimated Royalty Fees in an amount equal to 120% of the Royalty Fee collected for the preceding month.

(together with service charges, interest and Late Fees, as applicable). When You file the Gross Revenue report for the applicable period, RYTECH will, if applicable, debit Your designated bank account for any underpayment or credit any overpayment against the next Royalty Fee due. RYTECH will retain any interest on any overage that RYTECH has debited due to Your failure to timely file a Gross Revenue report. RYTECH's debiting of an estimated Royalty Fee will not constitute a waiver of RYTECH's right to collect the full amount of fees due nor of RYTECH's right to declare a default for Your failure to file the Gross Revenue report and/or timely pay Royalty Fees and other amounts due.

6.4 Audit

RYTECH will have the right at all reasonable times to review, inspect, audit and copy Your books and records, including Your tax returns, with respect to Your Franchised Business. If the inspection or audit discloses an underpayment of Royalty Fees or other fees or amounts payable under this Agreement, You will immediately pay these amounts to RYTECH together with accrued interest on the amount underpaid, in accordance with Section 6.6, Interest on Late Payments, of this Agreement. In addition, if the underpayment exceeds 3% of the total Royalty Fees payable for any period covered under the audit, You will reimburse RYTECH or its agents for all expenses actually incurred by RYTECH or its agents in connection with the audit. If You are an Entity for which separate books, records, and/or tax returns are not prepared (that is, You are a subsidiary of an Entity for which only consolidated Financial Statements are required to be prepared), You must make available for audit those books, records, schedules, tax returns, and/or work papers relating to Your assets, liabilities, and operations that RYTECH deems necessary. If you operate a business in affiliations with, connection with or otherwise complimentary to ("Franchisee Affiliated Business") Your Franchised Business, Rytech shall have the right to Audit the books for the Franchisee Affiliated Business. For example, if you operate a general contracting business under a different business entity, then Rytech has the right to Audit the general contracting business's books to the same degree as set forth above.

6.5 Additional Fees

In addition to the fees included in this Section 6, You must pay such other fees and costs as are described elsewhere in this Agreement.

6.6 Interest on Late Payments

Any payment not received by RYTECH within 30 days after payment is due will bear interest at 18% per year or at the highest rate allowed by applicable law on the date when payment is due, whichever is less, commencing the date the payment was due. Interest charges on late payments are intended to partially compensate RYTECH for loss of use of the funds, a cost which would otherwise be difficult to measure precisely. The fact that interest charges are imposed should not be construed as a waiver of RYTECH's right to timely payment or an agreement or commitment by RYTECH to extend credit to or otherwise finance Your operation of Your Franchised Business.

6.7 Late Fees

You will pay the Late Fee in the amount of $50 if any payment-related report and/or any payment You must make to RYTECH is not reported or made to RYTECH within two days after the date the report and/or payment was due. RYTECH may increase the amount of the Late Fee by up to $25 per year upon notice to You. Late Fees are intended to partially compensate RYTECH for administrative costs caused by late reporting and/or payment, which would otherwise be difficult to measure precisely. The fact that such charges are imposed should not be construed as a waiver of RYTECH's right to timely payment.

6.8 EFT Payments

(a) RYTECH may withdraw funds from Your designated bank account by EFT in the amount of the Royalty Fee and/or any other amounts due to RYTECH in accordance with this Agreement. For any other monetary obligation that You do not pay when due, RYTECH may withdraw the amount due and the Late Fee two Business Days after the amount became due in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. RYTECH may withdraw interest on any unpaid amount on a monthly basis or as otherwise provided in this Section 6.8(a).

(b) Upon execution of this Agreement, You will execute a document in the form of Attachment 3 granting to RYTECH the authority to process EFTs from Your designated bank account. From time to time at RYTECH's request, You will execute any additional documents necessary to confirm or update this authority. You will be responsible for any EFT transfer fee or similar charge imposed by Your bank and for any service charges incurred by RYTECH and/or imposed by Your bank should any EFT not be honored by Your bank for any reason.

6.9 Application of Payments; No Right of Set-off

RYTECH has the right to apply any payment it receives from You to any past due amount You owe to RYTECH or any of RYTECH's Related Parties or Affiliates, regardless of how You indicate the payment is to be applied. You may not, on grounds of alleged non-performance by RYTECH of its obligations under this Agreement, withhold payment of royalty fees and/or any other amounts due to RYTECH and/or its Affiliates.

6.10 Non-Compliance Fee.

You agree to pay RYTECH a non-compliance fee of $250 for each day that you fail to comply with any operational terms of this Franchise Agreement or the Operation Manual after a written warning is given. This provision is not a condition precedent to default and termination as set forth below.

6.11 Rytech Training Portal.

You agree to pay RYTECH our then-current Rytech Training Portal fee, currently of $115 per quarter for use the Rytech training portal.

6.12 Software and Technology Fees.

You agree to pay RYTECH, its Affiliates or third-party provider all software and technology fees required by RYTECH or an insurance carrier as set forth in the Operation Manual.

6.13 Rebuild Fees.

You must pay our then current Rebuild Fees for any Rebuild Services, as defined in Section 3.50, arising out of a RYTECH Service. Currently, our Rebuild Fees for Rebuild Services are 4% Royalty, 4% Administration Fee and 1% Marketing Fees. If an audit shows that there has been an underreporting of Rebuild Gross Revenues and/or Gross Receipts from Rebuild Services cannot be validated, all Gross Receipts from Rebuild Services will be subject to the Royalty Fees in Section 6.2.

6.14 Minimum Sales Requirement.

You must achieve a minimum level of sales of Services and Products from Your Franchised Business as follows: (a) $500,000 by the end of the twenty-fourth month after the Effective Date of this Agreement. You must submit to RYTECH, within 10 days after the end of each month, a report showing Your Gross Revenue for that month and the cumulative Gross Revenue for the applicable period. If You fail to meet the minimum sales requirement for any period, RYTECH may, in its sole discretion and in addition to any other remedies available to it under this Agreement or at law or in equity, do any or all of the following: (i) terminate this Agreement upon written notice to You; (ii) reduce the size of Your Territory by excluding any zip codes that RYTECH may designate; or (iii) withdraw or modify any territorial protection granted to You under this Agreement. Any such action by RYTECH will not relieve You of any of Your obligations under this Agreement, including the payment of Royalty Fees and other fees based on Your Gross Revenue.

7. YOUR OBLIGATIONS

7.1 Marks

7.1.1 Ownership and Use of Marks

You acknowledge the validity of the Marks and that they are the sole property of RYTECH. Your right to use the Marks derives solely from this Agreement. You may use the Marks only in the operation of Your Franchised Business and only in the manner and for the purposes permitted or specified by RYTECH in the Manual or otherwise. You may not use any other trade name or marks in connection with Your Franchised Business.

In order to protect the goodwill associated with the Marks, neither You nor any of Your Related Parties or Affiliates may use any portion of the Marks or any other confusingly similar mark, logo, trade name or reference in connection with the operation of a business that is not a Franchised Business.

7.1.2 Changes in Marks

RYTECH has invested substantial time, energy, and money in the promotion and protection of its Marks as they exist on the Effective Date. It has no present intention of altering them. However, RYTECH recognizes that rights in intangible property such as the Marks are often difficult to establish and defend. Changes in the cultural and economic environment within which the System operates or third-party challenges to RYTECH's rights in the Marks may make changes in the Marks desirable or necessary. RYTECH therefore reserves the right to change its Marks and the specifications for each when RYTECH believes that such changes will benefit the System. You will promptly conform, at Your own expense, to any such changes. RYTECH need not reimburse You for any loss of revenue due to any modified or discontinued Mark or for Your expenses in changing to, or promoting, a modified or substitute trademark or service mark.

7.1.3 Notice of Claims Relating to Marks

You must notify RYTECH in writing within five (5) days of any apparent infringement of any Mark, any challenge to Your use of any Mark, and of any claim by any Person to any rights in any Mark. Except as RYTECH otherwise permits in writing, You must not directly or indirectly communicate with any person other than Your attorney (if a claim is brought against You) and RYTECH and its counsel in connection with any such infringement, challenge or claim. RYTECH has the sole right to determine whether any action should be taken. If any action is taken, RYTECH has the right to direct and control that action, including the conduct of an administrative proceeding or litigation or other adjudicative proceeding involving the Marks, as well as any settlement of any such proceeding or litigation. You have no right, independent of RYTECH, to make any demand against any user or challenger or to prosecute any claim of any kind or nature whatsoever relating to the Marks. You must execute any and all instruments and documents, render such assistance, and do all acts that may, in the opinion of RYTECH's counsel, be necessary or advisable to protect and maintain the interests of RYTECH and/or its Affiliates in any such litigation or administrative proceedings, or to otherwise protect and maintain the interest of RYTECH and/or its Affiliates in the Marks.

7.1.4 Goodwill: Notice of Negative Publicity

Any and all goodwill, including Carrier Information, arising from or in connection with Your use of the Marks under this Agreement and the System belongs to and inures solely to the benefit of RYTECH. To permit RYTECH to take steps to protect the goodwill associated with its Marks, You will promptly notify RYTECH in writing of any publicity (in any medium) relating to You, Your Franchised Business, any of Your Related Parties, or any other Person, that is negative or reasonably likely to damage the goodwill associated with the Marks as provided in the Manual. You, Your Related Parties, and Your employees will cooperate with RYTECH in its handling of the publicity related to the matter.

7.2 Quality Control

7.2.1 Training

An individual with ownership in You, as well as Your Designated Manager, if any, must complete RYTECH's initial training, to RYTECH's satisfaction, within 60 days after execution of this Agreement pursuant to Section 5.1, Training.

You must pay any costs associated to third party certification or similar entities for each individual You send to the full initial training program or to the portions of that program that include certification courses.

You, as the owner of a Rytech Franchised Business, and any technician(s) employed by you must be certified by the most current IICRC training courses and adhere to the following prior to attending our Initial Training Program: ANSI /IICRC S500, Standard and Reference Guide for Professional Water Damage Restoration when performing Applied Structural Drying; ANSI/IICRC S520, Standard and Reference Guide for Professional Mold Remediation, R520 when performing Mold Remediation projects. In addition, you must adhere to the following: IICRC S100, Standard and Reference Guide for Professional Carpet Cleaning, when performing carpet cleaning; RIA Guidelines for Fire & Smoke Damage Repair; CRI (Carpet and Rug Institute) Carpet Installation Standard, when Carpet is re-installed and cushion replaced. We reserve the right to require additional certifications in the future. At Your expense, You and/or, as RYTECH requires, Your Designated Manager and/or other employees shall also attend such courses, seminars, and other training programs as RYTECH may require from time to time.

For all training other than initial training You will pay the training fee, if any, charged by RYTECH; in addition, RYTECH may also require You to pay reasonable travel expenses for the instructors. You will also pay all expenses incurred by You and/or any other person who attends any training in connection with Your Franchised Business, including the costs of transportation, lodging, meals, and any wages.

7.2.2 Beginning Operations

You must be ready to, and begin offering to, provide the Services and Products by the Start Date. You may not offer or provide Services until all of the following conditions are met:

- (a) You and/or Your Designated Manager have completed initial training (including IICRC training), as required by RYTECH in accordance with Section 7.2.1, Training.
- (b) You have at least one Marketing Representative.
- (c) You have obtained insurance and provided a certificate of insurance to RYTECH, all as required by Section 7.6, Insurance.
- (d) You have complied with all licensure requirements for Your Franchised Business and provided a copy of any required license to RYTECH.
- (e) You and all required personnel successfully complete all certification training that is required.

- (f) Obtain full-size van that properly displays the Identity (i.e., van wrap).
- (g) Any other reasonable requirements set forth by RYTECH.

7.2.3 Office

Your Office must be in Your Territory. You may open Additional Offices within Your Territory but may not open an Additional Office in any Open Territory without our prior written consent. Upon the loss of the Open Territory serviced by you, you must immediately close any office we have previously permitted. You may commence operations with Your Office in Your home if Your home is in Your Territory. You must ensure that RYTECH at all times has the current address and telephone number of Your Office(s); if You relocate Your Office(s), You must advise RYTECH of the planned relocation/closure and, for a relocation, the new address and telephone number, at least five days before You relocate/close. If Your Office is not in Your home, You may not use the premises of Your Office(s) for any purpose other than the operation of Your Franchised Business. The furniture, fixtures, and decor of Your Office(s) must at all times be professional, clean, and in good condition. If RYTECH notifies You that, in its reasonable judgment, the condition or site of Your Office(s) materially damages the goodwill associated with the Marks, You must relocate Your Office(s) within 60 days and provide RYTECH with the new address of Your Office(s). You may not at any time use a post office box or similar mail address service as Your Franchised Business's address to meet the requirement that Your Office be in Your Territory.

7.2.4 Compliance with Manual

You acknowledge and agree that the requirements imposed by this Agreement and by the Manual are necessary to promote high and uniform standards of quality of Services and Products provided by franchisees and to promote and maintain the goodwill associated with the Marks, the System, and the Network. You must operate Your Franchised Business in complete compliance with the Standards. RYTECH may make changes in the Standards when, in RYTECH's sole judgment, change is needed for the continued success and development of the System, including new products, services, and/or new or modified techniques. Those changes may necessitate the purchase of software, equipment, supplies, furnishings, or other goods, completion of additional training by You or Your employees, or other cost to You. RYTECH may advise You of changes to the Manual via any medium, including e-mail, posting on the RYTECH Intranet, or notice in an electronic newsletter. You must promptly conform to the modified Standards at Your own expense. If there is any dispute as to the requirements of the Manual at any point in time, the terms of the master copy of the Manual maintained by RYTECH (regardless of format or medium) will control. RYTECH may determine Your compliance with Standards as provided in Sections 7.2.7. Customer Service Program and/or 7.2.9 Inspections and Quality Assurance or by any other means.

7.2.5 Services and Products Offered

You may offer and provide to Your Carriers and Customers only the Services that RYTECH has authorized You to provide and only under the Marks. You must obtain any required licenses. You must offer and provide all Core Services as defined by RYTECH.

Upon RYTECH's express written authorization and consent, which it may withhold in its sole judgment, as approved in writing by RYTECH and any related documents required by RYTECH, You may also provide those Additional Services described in the Additional Services Addendum. In addition, You may also provide such ancillary services as RYTECH may approve in the Manual. As RYTECH develops and modifies the System, RYTECH may designate in the Manual as Core Services new Services related to the System and/or certain Services that were formerly Additional Services, and You agree that You will offer and provide those Core Services within 90 days following RYTECH's notice of designation of new Core Services, or such longer time period as RYTECH may permit. You may offer and/or provide absolutely no other services in connection with Your Franchised Business. You may not provide Services through an Independent Contractor or any Person other than an employee.

You may offer, sell, and/or lease under the Marks only the Products and Equipment that RYTECH has approved for You to offer, sell, and/or lease.

7.2.6 Sourcing

(a) You acknowledge that RYTECH is, at the time of execution of this Agreement, the designated supplier of the Initial Equipment Package. Unless otherwise approved by RYTECH in writing, You must purchase all of the Initial Equipment Package from RYTECH. RYTECH can designate any third party to provide the Initial Equipment Package to You.

(b) RYTECH may limit the number of approved suppliers, designate sole sources that You must use for some or all items or services, and/or refuse to give You permission to use other suppliers if RYTECH believes that this action is in the best interests of the Network. RYTECH has the unlimited right to approve or disapprove the suppliers that may be permitted to sell products or services to You and may at any time withdraw its designation or approval of a supplier. RYTECH and/or its Affiliates may be approved or designated suppliers to You and they may, and have the right to, realize a profit on any items or services they supply to You. If RYTECH designates any approved or sole suppliers, You must use those suppliers.

(c) Aside from Initial Equipment Package (which must be purchased from RYTECH or, if it permits, its designated supplier), if You would like to use in Your Franchised Business any item (regardless of whether it would bear the Marks) or any service that You desire to purchase from a supplier not previously approved by RYTECH, You must obtain RYTECH's prior written consent and, upon RYTECH's request, give RYTECH the supplier's contact information. Within a reasonable time (not to exceed 30 days), RYTECH will communicate to You and, as it deems appropriate, the supplier, either RYTECH's approval or its reasons for withholding its approval. RYTECH's silence may not be construed as consent. As a condition of approving a supplier of any product that bears the Marks, RYTECH may require that the supplier execute RYTECH's license agreement for those purposes.

(d) RYTECH has the right to appoint a single manufacturer, distributor, reseller, and/or other vendor for any particular item or service, including RYTECH and its Affiliates. In particular, and without limiting the foregoing, RYTECH may, at its sole option, establish one or more strategic alliances or preferred vendor programs with one or more national or regional suppliers for some or all of the items and/or services that RYTECH requires or recommends for use by, or in connection with operations of, Franchised Businesses. RYTECH makes no representation or warranty that these alliances or programs will provide any specific Franchised Business with the lowest cost items or services available to that Franchised Business or that any individual Franchised Business will benefit proportionately from any such alliance or arrangements.

(e) If RYTECH identifies specifications for items or services in connection with Your Franchised Business, You must purchase only items or services that meet those specifications.

(f) RYTECH has the right to collect Allowances offered by suppliers to RYTECH based on Your purchases of products and other goods and services but RYTECH must either, at its option, apply the Allowances to reducing costs of goods and services to all franchisees as a group or contribute the Allowances to the National Ad Fund. The following types of Allowances are not subject to the requirement of the preceding sentence and may be retained or used by RYTECH in its sole judgment: (i) meals or other events sponsored by suppliers at meetings of franchisees; and (ii) complimentary or upgraded rooms and similar concessions provided by a meeting facility for RYTECH staff at meetings of Franchisees.

(g) RYTECH EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTIES OR REPRESENTATIONS AS TO THE CONDITION OF THE GOODS OR SERVICES SOLD BY THE SUPPLIERS, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES AS TO MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR ANY INTENDED PURPOSE. YOU AGREE TO LOOK SOLELY TO THE MANUFACTURER OF GOODS OR THE SUPPLIER OF SERVICES FOR THE REMEDY FOR ANY DEFECT IN THE GOODS OR SERVICES.

7.2.7 Customer Satisfaction Program

All of Your Franchised Business's dealings with Carriers and Customers should adhere to the highest standards of honesty, integrity, fair dealing, and ethical conduct. Your Franchised Business must at all times give prompt and courteous service to Carrier representatives, Customers and Rytech administrative service employees and shall respond timely to inquiries and requests for service from prospective Carriers and Customers as required by the Standards. RYTECH may at any time contact and/or survey Your past and present Carrier representative, claims adjustors and Customers to assess Your Franchised Business's performance. If Your Franchised Business's scores from the surveys or contacts do not meet the then-effective Standards, as described in the Manual, RYTECH may suggest ways in which You can improve the scores. You must take immediate, effective steps to bring Your Franchised Business's operation up to the Standards. You must obtain customer service reviews on all of you completed jobs in the manner and timeframe set forth in the Operations Manual.

7.2.8 Required Computer and Technology Systems

You must purchase or lease and maintain computer and technology hardware and software systems (including data collection software and other online data collection tools, web-based programs, and software technology platforms, including the hardware necessary for their proper functioning) according to specifications and/or from approved or designated suppliers (including RYTECH and/or its Affiliates), as provided in the Manual or otherwise in writing. The required systems may include, among other things, the use of remote servers and/or web-based programs, off-site electronic information storage, and DSL or other high-speed internet connections, and may include the capability for remote access and information retrieval by RYTECH. RYTECH may also require You to maintain a dedicated high-speed internet service or connection or other communication means for remote access and information retrieval by RYTECH, as RYTECH may specify from time to time in the Manual or otherwise in writing. You must acquire, install, and use the computer and technology hardware and software systems prescribed by RYTECH, including any required upgrades of software and/or hardware, and must execute any licensing agreements with developers or manufacturers of computer and technology hardware and/or software required by RYTECH. You must maintain the hardware and software at Your own expense.

Although RYTECH cannot estimate the future costs of any computer and/or technology systems or required service or support, and although these costs may not be fully amortizable over this Agreement's remaining term, You agree, within the time period RYTECH specifies, to incur the costs to acquire and install all hardware, software, and peripherals (including all upgrades that RYTECH may require), install all communication facilities, contract for all required support and maintenance, and meet all other requirements RYTECH may specify. If RYTECH implements a software technology platform of any kind, then You must acquire, install, and implement it within the time period RYTECH specifies.

RYTECH, its Affiliates and/or Related Parties may condition any license of proprietary software to You, or Your use of technology that RYTECH, its Affiliates and/or Related Parties develop or maintain, on Your signing a software license agreement or similar document, or otherwise agreeing to the terms (for example, by acknowledging Your consent to, and accepting, the terms of a click-through or a shrink-wrapped license agreement) that RYTECH, its Affiliates and/or Related Parties prescribe to regulate Your use of, and RYTECH's, its Affiliates', and/or Related Parties' and Your respective rights and responsibilities with respect to, the software or technology. If RYTECH implements one or more proprietary software technology and/or data warehousing technology platforms that we support. We have the right to require You to pay RYTECH a reasonable monthly amount we establish each year per platform for the cost of providing technical support and of developing, maintaining, and supporting the technology platforms.

Despite Your agreement to buy, use, and maintain required software, hardware, and/or technology platforms according to RYTECH's direction You will have sole and complete responsibility for, at Your expense: (1) acquiring, operating, maintaining, and upgrading the hardware/software/technology platform; (2) assuring that the specified software, hardware, and/or technology platform interfaces at RYTECH's required levels of connection speed with RYTECH's and/or any designated third party's computer or technology system; and (3) any and all consequences to Your Franchised Business if You do not properly operate, maintain, upgrade, and/or replace any specified software, hardware, and/or technology platform.

RYTECH may have access to information about Your Franchised Business and its operations (including Carrier and Customer Information) through software (including technology platforms and/or web-based programs) and hardware RYTECH may require You to use. RYTECH may access and download this information as often as it deems appropriate (including daily), access your estimating programs, by way of example Xactimate, and any other technology platform RYTECH deems necessary. You agree to deliver to RYTECH such information upon demand, including alternative accessing should the technology platform become unavailable.

If any equipment, software, or computer system You use provides for electronic, online or similar remote monitoring capability, You shall, at RYTECH's request, permit RYTECH to monitor and download all information/data the equipment provides and to use the information for any lawful purposes RYTECH deems advisable. RYTECH may access information on any web-based programs it specifies that You use (including those relating to Technology Services and Equipment) and RYTECH may use that information for any lawful purpose. RYTECH may compile and share with other franchisees and/or prospective franchisees information You provide or RYTECH accesses. You acknowledge that federal law requires that RYTECH provide substantiating data for any financial performance representation it may make in connection with sales of franchises and that identifying information about Your Franchised Business may be provided to prospective franchisees. Nothing in this paragraph prevents RYTECH from using or transferring Carrier or Customer Information (which belongs to RYTECH) in any way it deems advisable, subject to applicable law.

7.2.9 Inspections and Quality Assurance

RYTECH will conduct periodic quality control inspections of Your Franchised Business during normal business hours. Quality control inspections may be made with or without prior notice and may be made by third parties. You and Your employees will also cooperate fully with RYTECH if it wishes to inspect Your employees' performance to determine if Service performance meets the Standards. In addition, RYTECH may use such other means as it deems advisable to assure itself that You are operating Your Franchised Business in accordance with the Standards. You must promptly correct any deficiencies in Your operation of which RYTECH advises You. You must take immediate, effective steps to bring Your operation up to the Standards.

7.2.10 Data Transmission

You must sign up and maintain to the data transmission service set forth in the Manual. RYTECH currently uses Mobile Information Collaboration Application (MICA) by BuildFusion to transmit data real time from the job site to Rytech Administration Center. You agree to pay all fees We assess for the use of the data transmission service. The Company reserves the right to move to another platform, or add an additional platform, which may result in an increase in the upload fees. Company will give 30 days' written notice of any changes.

Some third-party vendors require the use of the industry software, Xactimate. If You wish to service these vendors, You will need to purchase the required software, which is currently $125 per month, including all upgrades.

7.3 Management

You or Your Designated Manager, if You have one, must devote all of Your or his or her productive time and effort required and necessary for the productive and successful management and operation of Your Franchised Business and to the promotion of Services within Your Territory unless You first obtain our prior written approval. Your Franchised Business must be supervised by an individual who has completed the initial training program to RYTECH's reasonable satisfaction. For each Office that You operate, You must employ a separate Designated Manager; however, overall supervision of each Franchised Business must be provided by You (if You are an individual) or a Related Party who holds more than a 10% Beneficial Ownership interest in You.

You must keep RYTECH informed as to the identity of Your Designated Manager. Upon the termination of employment of a Designated Manager required by this Agreement, You must appoint a successor within 60 days. Any successor Designated Manager must successfully complete the initial training program conducted by RYTECH no later than six months after being hired.

7.4 Employees

You must maintain at all times a staff of trained employees sufficient to operate Your Franchised Business in compliance with the Standards, as provided in the Manual. You are solely responsible for, and You shall make clear to Your employees that You (and not RYTECH) are responsible for, all decisions relating to Your employees, including hiring, firing, retention, promotion, wages, and benefits. You must conduct background checks and drug tests as specified in the Manual, on each person working for Your Franchised Business.

After six months of operation, You must maintain at all times a Marketing Representative. The Marketing Representative must meet the requirements as set forth in the Manual.

7.5 Financial, Operational and Other Information

7.5.1 Financial Records

You must maintain the financial books and records of Your Franchised Business in the manner RYTECH directs and retain these records, and all Customer Agreements, for at least seven years. You must retain Customer records as required by applicable law, and You must maintain other records, including caregiver and employment records, as required by applicable law.

7.5.2 Financial Reports

- (a) You must prepare and submit all reports and Financial Statements in the form and at the times specified in this Agreement or in the Manual.
- (b) You must submit to RYTECH, within 30 days after filing, copies of each of Your federal and state income tax returns or, if You are an individual franchisee, the business portion of Your federal income tax returns. RYTECH will use this data to, among other things, confirm that You are complying with Your obligations under this Agreement and to formulate earnings, revenue and expense information to disclose to current and prospective franchisees.
- (c) Within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year during the Term, You will provide RYTECH a complete set of Your Financial Statements as of the end of the fiscal year and for the year then ended. These Financial Statements need not be audited, although any Financial Statements must be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied, and certified as true, complete and correct by You or Your Chief Financial Officer.
- (d) You will submit to RYTECH, within 20 days after the end of each Fiscal Quarter during the Term, Your profit and loss statement for the preceding Fiscal Quarter. Each such statement must be in the form prescribed by RYTECH and may be unaudited, but must be certified as true, complete and correct by You or Your Chief Financial Officer.
- (e) You will submit to RYTECH the Gross Revenue report in a form required by RYTECH.
- (f) If You are an Entity for which separate Financial Statements and/or tax returns are not required to be prepared (for example, You are a subsidiary of an Entity for which only consolidated Financial Statements must be prepared or tax returns must be filed), You shall provide to RYTECH those books, records, separate tax schedules and/or work papers relating to Your assets, liabilities, and operations as RYTECH may reasonably request.
- (g) If You operate another business that is collateral to the RYTECH franchised business, you must provide RYTECH with a copy of your Financial Statements and Tax Returns upon written request by RYTECH. For example, if you operate a general contracting business, you must provide RYTECH with a copy of your Financial Statements and Tax Returns for the general contracting business upon request.

7.5.3 Operational Reports and Information

You must send RYTECH duplicate copies of operational reports and other information as set in the Operations Manual. Upon reasonable notice from RYTECH, You will submit to, or make available for inspection by, RYTECH such other information and reports relating to operations of Your Franchised Business as RYTECH may require in order to assure Your compliance with Standards and the terms of this Agreement, including information related to referral sources, marketing and advertising, and Customer Information. Within five days after You receive them, You will provide RYTECH with a copy of any survey of Your operations conducted by any governmental licensing or oversight agency and/or industry group.

7.5.4 Other Reports and Information

Upon reasonable notice from RYTECH, You will submit to, or make available for inspection by, RYTECH such other information and reports as RYTECH may reasonably request. You will inform RYTECH in writing of any changes to Beneficial Ownership in You or in the Franchised Business as they occur. RYTECH may increase the amounts of coverage required under those insurance policies and require different or additional kinds of insurance at any time, to reflect inflation, additional types of risks identified, or other changes in circumstance, by including the new requirements in the Manual. Each insurance policy required under this Agreement must contain a provision that the policy cannot be canceled without at least ten days written notice to RYTECH. consideration for the training and access to Confidential Information, You and Your Related Parties covenant as follows:

- (a) Except as otherwise approved in writing by RYTECH, You will not (during the Term), and each of the Related Parties will not (during the portion of the Term that each satisfies the definition of a Related Party), either directly or indirectly, for Yourself and/or any of the Related Parties, or through, on behalf of, or in conjunction with any Person:
 - (i) Divert, or attempt to divert, any business, Carrier and/or Customer to any competitor of any Franchised Business, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Marks and the System;
 - (ii) Employ, or seek to employ, any Carrier representative; or
 - (iii) Own, maintain, operate, engage in, or have any financial or beneficial interest in any Competitive Business that is located, or that offers and/or provides services, in any country, province, state, or geographic area in which RYTECH has used, sought registration of, or registered the Marks, and/or RYTECH operates or licenses others to operate a business under the Marks (including the state where Your Franchised Business is located).
- (b) For a continuous uninterrupted period of two years beginning with the Commencement Date, neither You nor any of Your Related Parties will, either directly or indirectly, for Yourself and/or for any of the Related Parties, or through, on behalf of or in conjunction with any Person:
 - (i) Divert, or attempt to divert, any business, Carrier and/or Customer to any competitor of any Franchised Business, by direct or indirect inducement or otherwise, or do or perform, directly or indirectly, any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with the Marks and the System;

- (c) You and Your Related Parties acknowledge that, during the Term, You will have operated under the Marks and that Carriers and Customers will have sought Services and Products from Your Franchised Business as a result of their recognition of, and the goodwill associated with, the Marks. You also acknowledge that any and all Carrier Information and Customer Information and other carrier-related or customer-related information belong to RYTECH as a result of their having been developed under the Marks and as part of the goodwill associated with the Marks. Accordingly, for a continuous uninterrupted period of two years beginning with the Commencement Date, neither You nor any of Your Related Parties will, either directly or indirectly, for Yourselves or through, on behalf of or in conjunction with any Person, contact or solicit (i) any former Carrier, Carrier representative or Insurance Adjuster for the purpose of providing or offering to provide any service identical or similar to any Core Services or Additional Services provided by any Franchised Business and/or to sell or lease any personal care technology equipment, and/or (ii) any referral source with which You and/or a Related Party had contact during the Term, for the purpose of obtaining a referral for the provision of any service identical or similar to any Core Services or Additional Services provided by Your Franchised Business and/or to sell or lease any Equipment.
- (d) Sections 7.11(a)(iii) and (b) do not apply to ownership of five percent (5%) or less of stock in a publicly-held corporation, as that term is defined by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, or to ownership by You and/or Your Related Parties of another Franchised Business.
- (e) The lengths of time in Sections 7.11(b) and Sections 7.11(c) will be tolled for any period during which You, or the applicable Person against whom enforcement of those provisions is sought, are in breach of the covenants or any other period during which RYTECH seeks to enforce this Agreement.
- (f) You and Your Related Parties acknowledge and agree that each of the covenants contained in this Section 7.11 is a reasonable limitation as to time, geographical area, and scope of activity to be restrained and does not impose a greater restraint than is necessary to protect the goodwill or other business interests of RYTECH. You and Your Related Parties also agree that each possesses skills and abilities of a general nature and has other opportunities to exploit those skills, and that enforcement of the covenants in this Section 7.11 will not deprive him or her of the ability to earn a living. Each of the above covenants will be construed as independent of any other covenant or provision of this Agreement. If any portion of a covenant in this Section 7.11 is held unreasonable or unenforceable by a court or agency having valid jurisdiction in a non-appealable decision to which RYTECH is a party, You and Your Related Parties expressly agree to be bound by any lesser covenant subsumed within the terms of the covenant that imposes the maximum duty permitted by law, as if the resulting covenant were separately stated in and made a part of this Section 7.11.

- (g) You and Your Related Parties acknowledge that RYTECH will have the right, at its sole option, to reduce the scope of any covenant set forth in this Section 7.11, without Your or their consent, effective immediately upon notice to You. You and Your Related Parties agree that You and they will immediately comply with any covenant as so modified, which will be fully enforceable notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement.
- (h) You and Your Related Parties expressly agree that the existence of any claims You and/or they may have against RYTECH, whether or not arising from this Agreement, will not constitute a defense to the enforcement by RYTECH of the covenants in this Section 7.11. You and Your Related Parties agree to pay all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) incurred by RYTECH in connection with the enforcement of this Section 7.11.
- (i) You and Your Related Parties acknowledge that a violation of this Section 7.11 would result in irreparable injury to RYTECH for which no adequate remedy at law may be available, and You and Your Related Parties accordingly consent to the issuance of an injunction prohibiting any conduct by You and/or Your Related Parties in violation of the terms of this Section 7.11. You and Your Related Parties agree to pay all court costs and reasonable legal fees incurred by RYTECH in obtaining specific performance, injunctive relief, or any other remedy available to RYTECH for any violation of the requirements of this Section 7.11.
- (j) You agree that should you circumvent the restrictive covenants and obligations of this Section 7.11 or Section 7.9 by disclosing Confidential Information or in a Competitive Business to an Immediate Family Member that RYTECH, and the Franchise System, will be irreparably harmed. You agree that if you or, one of your Owners, discloses Confidential Information to an immediate family member and, the immediate family member or an Owner, uses the Confidential Information to engage in activities that constitutes a Competitive Business activity, that RYTECH and the Franchise System will be irreparably harmed. You agree that as between you and us, that you and your Owners are in a better position to know if you permitted and/or provided an immediate family member with access to the Confidential Information and that, therefore, you agree that you will be presumed to have violated the terms of this Agreement and, in particular, the restrictive covenants and obligations set forth in this Section 7.11 or Section 7.9 if any Immediate Family of you or an owner: (a) engages in any competitive activities during any period of time during which you are prohibited from engaging in the competitive activities; and/or (b) uses or discloses the Confidential Information and/or Know-How. You may rebut the foregoing presumption by providing evidence conclusively demonstrating that neither you nor your Owners disclosed the Confidential Information and, did not permit disclosure of the Confidential Information to an Immediate Family member of you or your owners.

7.12 Other Obligations

You agree to fulfill all other obligations required under this Agreement, the Manual and the other documents and agreements set forth by RYTECH from time to time.

You will make the monthly contribution to the National Ad Fund via RyPay or by EFT, as the case may be. For any Company-owned Units, RYTECH will contribute to the National Ad Fund on the same basis as Franchised Businesses, including any reduction in the contribution percentage for Franchised Businesses.

(c) RYTECH will determine the content and the format of all brand enhancement activities by the National Ad Fund, the creative concepts, materials, content, and endorsements used in these activities, and the geographic, market, and media placement and allocation of all brand enhancement activities of the National Ad Fund. RYTECH may use any form of media for any brand enhancement activities it authorizes. RYTECH may use any part of the National Ad Fund to pay for anything whose sole purpose is the marketing of franchises. You acknowledge that National Ad Fund may pay for media, materials and programs, including one or more consumer-oriented System Websites that may contain information about and/or support franchising opportunities and sales. RYTECH may use the National Ad Fund (including any interest that may accrue on National Ad Fund contributions) to fund or pay:

(i) The costs of designing, conducting, and administering local, regional, and/or national public relations projects and events intended to enhance the goodwill and public image of the System, Network, and Marks, including participation in and/or joint public relations projects with RYTECH Affiliates and/or others;

(ix) The costs of establishing, designing, maintaining, updating, and upgrading one or more consumer-oriented System Websites, including hosting, maintenance, web-optimization, search engines, and similar costs;

(x) The costs of collection for delinquent National Ad Fund contributions, including the costs of collection agencies and legal costs (including attorney fees) to pursue collection;

(xi) Such reasonable salary costs of RYTECH's employees, and such administrative and overhead costs as RYTECH may incur, in activities reasonably related to the administration of the National Ad Fund and its brand enhancement programs and activities (including agency fees, legal fees, travel expenses, preparing or procuring market studies, preparing brand enhancement materials, and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Fund, and preparing for and assisting in an independent audit of the Advertising Fund annually);

(d) RYTECH may use collection agents and bring legal proceedings at the National Ad Fund's expense to collect National Ad Fund contributions. RYTECH may forgive, waive, settle, and compromise all claims by or against the National Ad Fund, including, in its sole judgment, claims involving individual Franchised Businesses. RYTECH assumes no other direct or indirect liability or obligation to You for collecting amounts due to, maintaining, directing, or administering the National Ad Fund.

(e) RYTECH may administer the National Ad Fund as a segregated fund or it may cause the National Ad Fund to be incorporated or operated through an entity separate from RYTECH when RYTECH deems it appropriate. Any such successor entity will have all of RYTECH's rights and duties. You agree that, regardless of the legal form the National Ad Fund takes, the National Ad Fund will not be deemed a trust and that RYTECH has no fiduciary obligation to You with respect to the National Ad Fund. Within ninety (90) days after the close of RYTECH's fiscal year, RYTECH will prepare an unaudited statement of contributions to and expenditures by the National Ad Fund during that fiscal year. RYTECH will furnish that annual statement to You upon Your written request; RYTECH will not prepare interim reports.

(f) RYTECH will attempt to spend National Ad Fund contributions so as to provide benefits the RYTECH brand, but RYTECH has no obligation to ensure that expenditures by the National Ad Fund in or affecting any geographic area are proportionate or equivalent to the contributions to the National Ad Fund by Franchised Businesses operating in that area or that any Franchised Business, including Yours, will benefit in any manner directly or in proportion to its contribution to the National Ad Fund. You acknowledge that Your failure to derive any proportionate, direct, or quantifiable benefit from National Ad Fund activities and expenditures will not serve as a basis for a claim against RYTECH or the National Ad Fund or a reduction or elimination of Your obligation to contribute to the National Ad Fund.

(g) RYTECH may spend in any fiscal year an amount greater or less than the aggregate contribution of all Franchised Businesses to the National Ad Fund in that year. RYTECH may advance monies to the National Ad Fund, charge the National Ad Fund interest on those advances at one percent above the prime rate then designated by any major bank RYTECH selects, and authorize repayment of the advances from the National Ad Fund. RYTECH will retain in the National Ad Fund for future use any amounts that are not disbursed in a given fiscal year.

(h) RYTECH may terminate the National Ad Fund at any time. If RYTECH does so, it will first either, at its option, expend all monies in the National Ad Fund for brand enhancement purposes or return contributions to Franchised Businesses on a pro-rata basis based on their contributions.

8.2 Alliances and Other Marketing Programs

RYTECH may initiate, establish, and/or coordinate cooperative marketing, alliances, marketing and sales programs, provider relationships (for example, for member groups or employee groups), and other similar programs or activities as RYTECH deems appropriate. These programs or activities may be on a local, regional or national basis or based on the market orientation of the Franchised Businesses, and they may include participation by facilities other than RYTECH. RYTECH believes that participation in alliances and other such programs can be critical to Your Franchised Business's success and RYTECH may require You to participate in these programs and activities. Participation in these programs and activities may require You to incur program-related expenses and/or to accept a uniform fee schedule (which may set fees at a discount to the fees You normally charge). In addition, we may charge You a reasonable fee for participation.

8.3 Cooperative Advertising Program

Although not obligated to do so, RYTECH may create a Cooperative Advertising Program for the benefit of the System in Your Territory. Under the Cooperative Advertising Program, the Franchised Businesses located within a particular geographic area or region, as determined by RYTECH, will be part of an Advertising Cooperative. RYTECH has the right, in its sole judgment, to (i) determine the area covered by any Advertising Cooperative; (ii) designate which Franchisees will be members of a particular Advertising Cooperative; (iii) instruct members of an Advertising Cooperative to allocate all or any portion of their local advertising budgets to the Advertising Cooperative; and (iv) make a contribution to any Advertising Cooperative without any obligation to make an equal, or any, contribution to all Advertising Cooperatives. RYTECH has the right to determine the composition of all geographic territories and market areas for the implementation of each Advertising Cooperative and to require that You participate in an Advertising Cooperative when established within an area including Your Territory. If an Advertising Cooperative is implemented on behalf of a particular area or region, RYTECH reserves the right to delegate to the Advertising Cooperative the power to self-administer the advertising used by that Advertising Cooperative. You agree to participate in any Advertising Cooperative according to the then-current rules and procedures under the Cooperative Advertising Program and to abide by the decisions made by RYTECH under the Cooperative Advertising Program and, if applicable, the decisions made by an Advertising Cooperative of which You are a member. Any amounts You pay in connection with Your participation in an Advertising Cooperative will count toward the amount You must spend on local advertising each month under Section 8.4.

The Cooperative may be required to fund or pay:

- (v) The costs of purchasing promotional items;
- (vi) The costs of dues for membership and participation in industry-related trade associations;
- (vii) The costs of designing and administering brand enhancement programs and activities, including purchasing media advertising;

(viii) The costs of obtaining sponsorships and endorsements, and developing alliances, marketing and sales promotions, provider relationships, lobbying efforts, carrier meetings, conferences, account management, carrier management, and any activities or programs that enhances the RYTECH brand within the Cooperative Territory;

(ix) The costs of collection for delinquent Cooperative contributions, including the costs of collection agencies and legal costs (including attorney fees) to pursue collection;

(xi) Such reasonable salary costs of RYTECH's employees, and such administrative and overhead costs as RYTECH may incur, in activities reasonably related to the administration of the Cooperative and its brand enhancement programs and activities (including agency fees, legal fees, travel expenses, preparing or procuring market studies, preparing brand enhancement materials, and collecting and accounting for contributions to the Cooperative, and preparing for and assisting in an independent audit of the Cooperative contributions and expenditures annually);

(xii) Carrier Sales and Marketing, Sales Personnel, Conferences, Sponsorships, Booth space, banners, print and digital media and other similar programs; and (xiii) Such other brand enhancement activities as RYTECH deems advisable.

8.4 Local Advertising

Each month during the Term You must spend the greater of $1,000 or four percent (4%) of Gross Revenue on local advertising that RYTECH has approved in the Manual or otherwise in writing and that conforms to Standards. "Local advertising" includes advertising, marketing, promotional events, public relations, and other brand development activities and materials that enhance the brand but are targeted primarily to promoting Your Franchised Business. RYTECH may increase to a maximum of six percent (6%) during the term of Agreement. Upon RYTECH's request, You must submit copies of invoices for local advertising expenditures showing compliance with this Section 8.4. Advertising expenditures in excess of the required minimum in any month may be used to offset shortfalls in any later month if the total advertising expenditures at the end of each calendar quarter, on a cumulative basis, equal or exceed the required minimum for that calendar quarter.

All advertising and promotions by You in any medium will be conducted in a dignified manner and will conform to the Standards and requirements, as set forth in the Manual. As provided in Section 8.5, You will obtain RYTECH's approval of all advertising campaigns, promotions and related materials before their use. RYTECH will endeavor to approve or disapprove of the campaigns, promotions and materials within 10 days after RYTECH receives them. You will not use unapproved campaigns, promotions or materials and will promptly discontinue use of any advertising campaigns, promotions or materials, whether or not previously approved, upon notice from RYTECH.

You may not direct advertising outside of Your Territory unless we give our written consent in the Manual or otherwise.

8.5 Advertising Materials

You will submit to RYTECH copies of all advertising materials not provided by RYTECH that You propose to use at least three weeks before the first time they are broadcast or published. RYTECH will review the materials and will notify You within 14 days whether it approves or rejects them. RYTECH may not withhold its approval unreasonably. For purposes of this paragraph, advertising materials that differ in text from previously approved materials only in such variables as date or price will be considered to be previously approved but they must continue to meet Standards for quality. Even if RYTECH has approved specified materials, it may later withdraw its approval if it reasonably believes it necessary to make the advertising conform to changes in the System (including changes to brand and advertising Standards) or to correct unacceptable features of the advertising, including any misuse of the Marks or misrepresentation in the advertising material, and You must immediately cease to use the disapproved materials. RYTECH may require You to submit to it a tear sheet of any advertisement You run.

Copyrights to all advertising and promotional materials that contain any of the Marks will belong solely to RYTECH, regardless of the party that created the materials. Further, RYTECH's Website and all material on RYTECH's Website, including all text, photographs, graphics, artwork, sound, video and other materials, as well as all derivative works, will be considered advertising and promotional materials and will therefore be owned solely by RYTECH. You will execute all documents required by RYTECH to confirm this ownership.

RYTECH may require that any third party You choose to assist You with advertising efforts sign a license agreement governing the third party's use of the Marks on Your behalf.

RYTECH shall have the right to access any marketing and promotional campaigns, including but not limited to Google Ads, online review sites, digital campaigns, social media posts, podcasts, Twitter, YouTube and other such vehicles for marketing and promotional advertising.

8.6 RYTECH Intranet

RYTECH may establish, and at its option may maintain, the RYTECH Intranet, through which RYTECH, its franchisees, and other authorized Persons may communicate with each other and through which RYTECH may disseminate updates to the Manual and other Confidential Information. RYTECH will have no obligation to maintain the RYTECH Intranet indefinitely but may discontinue it at any time without liability to You.

RYTECH will establish Standards for the Intranet's use. These Standards will be set forth in the Operations Manual. You agree to comply with these Standards. You acknowledge that, as administrator of the RYTECH Intranet, RYTECH can and may access and view any communication that any Person posts on the RYTECH Intranet. You further acknowledge that the RYTECH Intranet facility and all communications that are posted to it will become RYTECH's property, free of any claims of privacy or privilege that You or any other Person may assert. If You are not in Good Standing or if You fail to comply with any Standards governing the RYTECH

Intranet, RYTECH may suspend Your access to all or any aspect of the RYTECH Intranet until You fully cure the breach.

RYTECH will establish Standards for Social Media. These Standards will be set forth in the Operations Manual. You agree to comply with these Standards.

You agree to contribute a reasonable amount established by RYTECH toward the cost of the RYTECH Intranet's support, maintenance and further development. RYTECH will set the contribution amount annually and will collect the payments from You by EFT on the seventh day of each month. We may, in the future, establish a technology fee to offset Rytech's Intranet support, maintenance and further development.

8.7 Websites and Electronic Media

(a) RYTECH has established, and at its option may maintain, the RYTECH Website, through which RYTECH advertises and promotes Franchised Businesses, Core Services, Additional Services, and Equipment. RYTECH will have sole control over the RYTECH Website's design and contents, except that RYTECH will configure the site to accommodate the pages that Sections 8.7(b) and (c) describe. RYTECH will have no obligation to maintain the RYTECH Website indefinitely, but may discontinue it at any time without liability to You.

(b) RYTECH will establish a Franchised Business locator page on the RYTECH Website and will post the address, telephone number and e-mail address of each Franchised Business on the locator page.

(c) At Your request, RYTECH will include at the RYTECH Website one or a series of interior pages devoted to information about You and Your Franchised Business. You must develop the page(s), at Your expense, in accordance with specifications that RYTECH provides in the Manual or otherwise in writing and subject to RYTECH's approval prior to posting as to form, content and programming quality; RYTECH may also require you to use a designated or approved supplier of website services to design your interior page(s). You will not have the capability to modify Your page(s) except in coordination with RYTECH's Webmaster (unless RYTECH permits otherwise in the Manual) and in compliance with the Standards. RYTECH may assign a sub-domain name to the interior page for Your Franchised Business; RYTECH will own and control the sub-domain name and any other URLs incorporating any of the Marks (or the letters "RYTECH") that it may permit You to use and may change the sub-domain name and/or those URLs at any time.

(d) You have no authority to and may not establish any Websites, blogs, social networking sites, or Social Media sites, or register any domain names (including any that have the letters "RYTECH"), that use or create any association with the Marks and System without express written consent of RYTECH or except as otherwise provided in the Manual. You may not post any advertisements, material, or content of any kind on the Internet or Worldwide Web that depict or display the Marks or create an association with the System and/or Network without the express written consent of RYTECH or except as otherwise provided in the Manual. RYTECH may, in its sole judgment and on such terms as it may establish in the Manual or otherwise in writing, permit You to own domain names or URLs for Websites or social media sites that have content related to, or creating an association with, the System and/or the Network, but RYTECH need not do so.

(e) If You are not in Good Standing or You fail to comply with the Terms of Use governing the RYTECH Website, RYTECH may remove Your interior pages from the RYTECH Website and/or remove Your Franchised Business from the Franchised Business locator page until You fully cure the breach.

8.8 Electronic Communication

(a) You agree to establish and continually maintain electronic connection with the RYTECH Intranet via a computer system, a technology platform as described in Section 7.2.8, Required Computer and Technology, and/or by such other means as RYTECH may specify in the Manual or otherwise in writing. Your obligation to maintain connection with the RYTECH Intranet will continue until this Agreement's Termination (or, if earlier, until RYTECH dismantles the RYTECH Intranet).

(b) You acknowledge that electronic communication is a rapidly developing field and that, to maintain the competitive position of the System, RYTECH may modify the way franchisees throughout the world use the Internet and may communicate these modifications through amendments to the Manual. These modifications will be legally binding on You and You will comply with them.

(c) You may not use any of the Marks on or in connection with the Internet, except as permitted by Section 8.7(c). You may not use any part of the Marks (including the initials "RYTECH") in an e-mail address.

(d) You must identify Your RYTECH business by the e-mail address which RYTECH may designate from time to time. You must not use directly or indirectly any other e-mail address, any Website or any similar electronic address or location to identify or communicate on behalf of Your Franchised Business without RYTECH's prior written consent. RYTECH may at any time change the e-mail address it has assigned to Your Franchised Business. You and RYTECH will use that e-mail address, and no other, to communicate via e-mail. RYTECH owns all e-mail addresses it assigns to franchisees.

9. RELATIONSHIP OF PARTIES

9.1 Interest in Marks and System

You may not at any time do or cause to be done anything contesting or impairing RYTECH's interest in its Marks and/or System. You acquire no rights in any part of the System or in any of the Marks except for Your right to use them in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement. RYTECH retains the right to grant other Franchises or licenses to use the Marks and System upon any terms that RYTECH wishes.

9.2 Improvements

All Improvements that You, any of Your Related Parties, and/or any of Your employees or agents makes or suggests will become the sole and exclusive property of RYTECH, regardless of Your or their participation in developing the Improvement. All Improvements will be deemed works-made-for-hire for RYTECH, will be deemed assigned to RYTECH, and will, at RYTECH's option, become part of the System. You will, and You will cause Your employees and Related Parties to, execute any instruments and documents RYTECH requests and give RYTECH assistance to perfect or protect all of its intellectual property rights in any Improvement, without compensation for the use or licensing of any Improvement.

9.3 Independent Status

You are an independent legal entity and must make this fact clear in Your dealings with suppliers, lessors, government agencies, employees, Customers and others. You acknowledge and agree that You will rely on Your own knowledge and judgment in making business decisions, subject only to the requirements of this Agreement and the Manual. You may not use the Marks, or any portions thereof (including the letters "RYTECH"), as part of Your corporate, partnership or limited liability company name.

You represent, warrant and covenant (i) that You will not expressly or implicitly hold Yourself out as an employee, partner, shareholder, joint venturer or representative of RYTECH, (ii) that You will not expressly or implicitly state or suggest that You have the right or power to bind RYTECH or to incur any liability on RYTECH's behalf, (iii) that You will at all times provide the highest quality service to each of Your Carriers and Customers in connection with this Agreement, (iv) that You are solely responsible for the provision and implementation of Services and Products to all Carriers and Customers and that RYTECH will not, and has no ability to, oversee or supervise any aspect of Your provision of Services and/or Products to Carriers and/or Customers.

9.4 Display of Disclaimers

You shall identify Yourself as the Franchisee for the Franchised Business in conjunction with any use of the Marks, including on business cards, payroll records, bank accounts, invoices, order forms, stationery, receipts, contracts, and other business forms, as well as at such conspicuous locations in Your Office as RYTECH designates in writing. The identification shall be in the form that specifies Your name, followed by the phrase "DBA Rytech of ____" or such other identification that RYTECH approves.

9.5 Indemnification

(a) You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold the Indemnified Parties harmless from and against, and to reimburse the Indemnified Parties for, any and all Losses and Expenses that the Indemnified Parties may sustain or incur in connection with any claim, expense, cost, demand, investigation, litigation, dispute resolution or inquiry or any settlement of any of the foregoing that arises directly or indirectly from, as a result of, or in connection with (a) any act or failure to act of You, any of Your Related Parties, or any of Your employees, or any person controlled by You or under contract with You; (b) the operation of Your Franchised Business; (c) any breach of this Agreement or any agreement, document or instrument executed pursuant to this Agreement, in connection with this Agreement, or concurrently with it; (d) any breach of any of Your representations and warranties or those of any of Your Related Parties; (e) any death or personal injury or property damage occurring at or related to the operation of Your Franchised Business; and/or (f) any violation of any law, rule, regulation or ordinance relating to the Franchised Business by You, any of Your Related Parties, and/or any of Your employees. Each of the foregoing is an "Event." Your obligation to indemnify applies regardless of whether any claim resulted from any strict or vicarious liability imposed by law on any of the Indemnified Parties.

(b) You must immediately undertake the defense of any legal action against or involving any of the Indemnified Parties and must retain reputable, competent and experienced counsel to represent the interests of the Indemnified Parties. You must notify RYTECH of the identity of counsel not less than forty-eight (48) hours before retaining counsel and RYTECH will have the right within the specified time period to approve or disapprove counsel. You may not settle any legal action without the specific prior written consent of each Indemnified Party named in the action and of RYTECH. At Your expense and risk, RYTECH may elect to assume (but under no circumstance is RYTECH obligated to undertake) the defense and/or settlement of the Event, provided that RYTECH will seek Your advice and counsel. Any such assumption by RYTECH will not modify Your indemnification obligation. RYTECH may, in its sole judgment, take such actions as RYTECH deems necessary and appropriate to investigate, defend, or settle any event or take other remedial or corrective actions with respect to the Event as may be, in RYTECH's sole judgment, necessary for the protection of the Indemnified Parties, the System, and/or the Network. In addition, any of the Indemnified Parties will have the right to retain independent counsel and to participate in the defense, compromise, or settlement of the action. Neither RYTECH nor any other Indemnified Party will be required to seek recovery from third parties or otherwise mitigate their Losses and Expenses to recover the full amount of their respective indemnified Losses and Expenses from You.

(c) If You have timely notified RYTECH of a claim involving the Marks as required by Section 7.1.3 of this Agreement and if You comply with the other requirements of Section 7.1.3, RYTECH will indemnify and hold You harmless from all expenses and liabilities arising from or connected to a claim that Your operation of Your Franchised Business in strict accordance with this Agreement infringed or infringes the trademark or service mark rights of any third party claimant. If You are made a party to a legal proceeding in connection with any such alleged infringement, RYTECH will defend You at its expense, provided You have complied with the requirements of Section 7.1.3 and subject to RYTECH's right to settle or pursue any such action upon such terms as it, in its sole judgment, believes prudent.

10. TRANSFER

10.1 Conditions for Approval of Transfer

RYTECH's grant of this Franchise is made in reliance upon Your integrity, ability, experience and financial resources, if You are an Individual, and/or those of Your Related Parties, if You are an Entity. No Transfer may be made unless You have first obtained RYTECH's written consent. To ensure that no Transfer jeopardizes the Marks, the Network, or RYTECH's interest in the successful operation of Your Franchised Business, RYTECH will consent to a Transfer only if RYTECH has met with the prospective transferee, received and accepted the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer, and You and/or the transferor, as required by RYTECH, have complied with the provisions of this Franchise Agreement.

10.2 Notice of Proposed Transfer

For any proposed Transfer, You must submit to RYTECH: a) the form of prospective franchisee application then in use by RYTECH, including any required attachments, completed by the prospective transferee; b) a written notice, describing all the terms and conditions of the proposed Transfer; and c) any other information RYTECH may request in order to evaluate the proposed Transfer and the proposed transferee.

10.3 Consent by RYTECH

RYTECH will respond in writing to Your written notice (a) within 30 days after receiving it, or, (b) if RYTECH requests additional information, within 30 days after receipt of such additional information. RYTECH may either consent to the Transfer, tell You the reason for refusing to consent, or exercise its right of first refusal as set forth in Section 10.7. Silence may not be construed as consent. If RYTECH consents to the Transfer, then, upon payment of the Transfer Fee and execution of documents evidencing the Transfer as RYTECH may require, You may transfer the interest described in the notice only to the named transferee and only upon the terms and conditions stated in the notice. Consent by RYTECH to a particular Transfer will not constitute consent to any other or subsequent Transfer, and its consent shall not constitute a waiver of any claims it may have against the transferring party or a waiver of RYTECH's right to demand full compliance by the transferee with any of the terms of this Agreement.

10.4 Conditions for Consent to Transfer

The consent of RYTECH is subject to certain conditions, including but not limited to:

- (a) Satisfaction of RYTECH that the proposed transferee meets all of the criteria of character, business experience, financial responsibility, net worth and other standards that RYTECH customarily applies to new franchisees at the time of Transfer and that the proposed transferee and its affiliates are not competitors of franchisees and/or of RYTECH;
- (b) Payment of all Your outstanding debts to RYTECH and to Your trade creditors;

(c) Cure of all defaults under this Agreement and any other agreement(s) between RYTECH or its Affiliates or Related Parties and You and/or Your Related Parties and, if RYTECH deems it advisable, Your submission to a desk audit to assure that You have met all of Your financial and other obligations to RYTECH;

(d) At RYTECH's option, signing by the transferee of (i) the then-current form of Franchise Agreement (which may include different terms, including higher fees and other amounts payable under the Franchise Agreement), appropriately amended in light of the fact that the business is already operational, and such other agreements as RYTECH may require (including, for example, an Agreement and Guaranty and Confidentiality Agreement and Covenants Not to Compete in the forms then required by RYTECH) or (ii) an agreement assuming all liabilities and benefits of the existing Franchise Agreement in a form prescribed by RYTECH, together with an Agreement and Guaranty and Confidentiality Agreement and Covenants Not to Compete in the forms then required by RYTECH, and such ancillary agreements as RYTECH may require;

(e) The transferor's payment of a Transfer Fee in connection with each Transfer in the amount of fifteen percent (15%) of the then-current Initial Franchise Fee;

(f) Completion by the transferee of the RYTECH initial training program to RYTECH's satisfaction; and

(g) Your signing, and Your Related Parties' signing, of a general release of claims in favor of RYTECH and its Related Parties and Affiliates

10.5 Changes of Ownership Considered Not To Be Transfers

As used in this Agreement, an assignment to an Entity will not be considered a Transfer if (a) the Beneficial Ownership of the Entity immediately following the assignment is the same and in the same proportions as the Beneficial Ownership in the Franchised Business immediately before the assignment; (b) at least ten business days before the assignment You submit to RYTECH information it requires on the identity of the shareholders or other interest holders and officers of the Entity, the percentage of Beneficial Ownership, other organizational documents requested by RYTECH, and the address where Entity records are maintained; and (c) You execute a document, in the form required by RYTECH, evidencing the assignment and the Entity's assumption of this Agreement. No such assignment will relieve You or any other assigning Persons of any of their respective obligations under this Agreement or any related agreements.

10.6 Transfer Upon Death or Disability

If You or any of Your Related Parties that holds any Beneficial Ownership interest in You dies or becomes Permanently Disabled within the Term, the heirs, beneficiaries or other personal representatives, as applicable, of You or the Related Party, as applicable, will have 60 days within which to demonstrate to RYTECH's satisfaction that he or she meets all of the criteria of character, business experience, financial responsibility, net worth and other standards that RYTECH requires of new franchisees at that time. If RYTECH approves such heirs, beneficiaries or other personal representatives as transferees of the Franchise, RYTECH will waive any Transfer Fee in connection with the Transfer; however, all other Transfer requirements will apply to the Transfer. If RYTECH advises such heirs, beneficiaries or other personal representatives in writing that RYTECH will not approve them as transferees of the Franchise, or if RYTECH fails to approve or disapprove the Transfer within 60 days following death or Permanent Disability of You or any Related Party, the heirs, beneficiaries or other personal representatives will have 120 additional days from the date of disapproval of the Transfer or the end of the 60-day period, whichever is first, within which to find a qualified transferee and notify RYTECH of a proposed Transfer to that transferee as required by under the Transfer provisions of this Agreement. If the heirs, beneficiaries or other personal representatives do not advise RYTECH of a proposed Transfer to a qualified transferee within the specified period, this Agreement will automatically terminate at the end of the period unless RYTECH grants a written extension of time. If the parties disagree as to whether a person is "Permanently Disabled," the determination will be made by a licensed practicing physician, selected by RYTECH, upon examination of the person; or, if the person refuses to submit to an examination, then for purposes of this Section, the person automatically will be considered permanently disabled as of the date of refusal.

10.7 Right of First Refusal

In connection with any proposed bona fide Transfer of a controlling interest in You, in this Agreement, and/or in the Franchised Business, RYTECH has the right and option to purchase that interest on the same terms and conditions contained in the bona fide offer. RYTECH shall notify the seller within 15 days of receiving all required information. If the consideration, terms, and/or conditions contained in the bona fide offer are such that RYTECH may not reasonably be required to furnish the same consideration, terms, and/or conditions, then RYTECH may purchase, for the reasonable equivalent in cash, the interest that is proposed to be transferred. If the parties cannot agree within a reasonable time on the reasonable equivalent in case of the consideration, terms, and/or conditions contained in the bona fide offer, the parties shall agree upon an independent appraiser and that appraiser's determination shall be binding. If RYTECH declines to exercise the option afforded by this Section 10.7, then the seller may sell its interest only if RYTECH consents to the Transfer as set forth in this Section 10 and the seller complies with all of the Transfer provisions of this Agreement as determined by RYTECH in its sole judgment. Failure by the seller to effect the proposed Transfer and/or any material change in the terms of any offer prior to closing shall constitute a new offer subject to the same right of first refusal by RYTECH as in the case of an initial offer. Failure by RYTECH to exercise the option afforded by this Section 10.7 does not constitute a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, including all of the requirements of Section 10 with respect to a proposed Transfer.

10.8 Public and Private Offerings

You and/or anyone holding Beneficial Ownership interest in You may make a public or private offering of securities, partnership, or other ownership or financial interests in You only with RYTECH's prior written consent. Before using them in an exempt offering or filing them with any federal or state authority, You shall submit to RYTECH in writing for review and written approval all materials proposed for use in any registration statement, prospectus, or similar offering circular or memorandum. You shall not imply (by use of the Marks or otherwise) that RYTECH or any of its Affiliates or Related Parties is participating in an underwriting, issuance, or offering of Your securities or of RYTECH securities, and You shall include any disclaimer to that effect that RYTECH may require. RYTECH's review of the materials and/or any offering shall be limited solely to the subject of the relationship between You and RYTECH, and its consent under this Section 10.8, if granted, does not imply or constitute its approval of the fact or method of financing, the offering literature submitted to RYTECH, or any other aspect of the offering. You and the other participants in the offering must fully indemnify RYTECH in connection with the offering. For each proposed offering, You must reimburse RYTECH for its reasonable costs and expenses associated with reviewing the proposed offering, including legal and accounting fees. You shall give RYTECH written notice at least 30 days before the date of commencement of any offering or other transaction covered by this Section 10.8.

10.9 Assignment by RYTECH

RYTECH may assign its interest in this Agreement, any rights or obligations created by it, any or all ownership interests in RYTECH, and/or all or substantially all of the assets of RYTECH at any time without Your consent. RYTECH will require the assignee of this Agreement to undertake to assume RYTECH's obligations to You under this Agreement.

10.10 Security Interests

You shall grant no security interest in any of Your assets unless You have RYTECH's prior written permission and unless the secured party agrees that, in the event of any default by You under any documents related to the security interest, RYTECH will have the right to purchase the rights of the secured party upon payment of all sums then due to the secured party.

10.11 Lead Fee.

You agree to pay RYTECH a Lead Fee equal to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) if Rytech refers or locates the Transferee to you or your owners. This fee must be paid to Rytech in full prior to the closing of the transfer.

If You are in full compliance with this Agreement, You may terminate this Agreement if RYTECH fails to take reasonable steps to attempt to cure (regardless of whether such attempts have been successful) a material breach of this Agreement within 60 days' written notice of the default. Termination will be valid only if the conditions of Section 11.3, Rights and Obligations Upon Termination, are met in full within the specified time periods.

11.3 Rights and Obligations Upon Termination

Upon Termination of this Agreement for any reason, the parties will have the following rights and obligations:

(a) In order to assure continuity of Services for Carriers and Customers, You must work with RYTECH to arrange for the orderly transition to other franchisees, or, if there are no other franchisees in Your market area, to providers identified to and approved by RYTECH. RYTECH's approval will be based solely on its determination that the proposed transition is not an attempt to circumvent the transfer and/or non-competition covenants of this Agreement.

(b) You must immediately and permanently stop using the System, the Marks or any confusingly similar marks, and any advertising, signs, stationery or forms that bear identifying marks or colors that might give others the impression that You are operating a Franchised Business or that You have ever been affiliated with RYTECH. If this Agreement is terminated because of Your default, the rights of RYTECH described above or elsewhere in this Agreement may not necessarily be RYTECH's exclusive remedies but will instead supplement any other equitable or legal remedies available to RYTECH, including the right to withhold performance as provided in Section 5.10, Withholding of Performance, of this Agreement.

11.4 Liquidated Damages.

You shall pay to RYTECH in addition to any amounts found to be due and owing, all expenses incurred by RYTECH as a result of any such default, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Such termination, however, shall not affect the obligation of You hereunder to take action or abstain from taking action after the termination hereof.

(b) If You or your Related Parties directly or indirectly open or participate in the ownership or operation of a business in violation of the covenant not to compete, then, in addition to any other remedies available to RYTECH at law or in equity, RYTECH shall be entitled to receive throughout the term of the covenant, and You agrees to pay, a weekly fee equal to 10% of the competing operation's revenues, measured in accordance with the definition of Gross Revenues in this Agreement. You shall pay to RYTECH in addition to any amounts found to be due and owing, all expenses incurred by RYTECH as a result of any such default, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Such termination, however, shall not affect the obligation of You hereunder to take action or abstain from taking action after the termination hereof.

(c) If You close your Franchised Business for any reason, without the written consent of RYTECH, You shall promptly pay all sums owing to RYTECH and its subsidiaries and affiliates. You shall pay damages for the right to receive the royalty fees for each year or portion thereof remaining in the original term of this agreement, together with any other damages suffered by RYTECH as a result of such default, and You shall have no further claim hereunder. The damages for royalties due during the remainder of the original term of this agreement shall be calculated by averaging the last 24 months (or actual average, if the Franchised Business is open less than 24 months) of all fees paid by You times the number of years remaining in the term, as calculated from the effective date of this agreement, and discounted to present value. You shall pay to RYTECH in addition to any amounts found to be due and owing, all expenses incurred by RYTECH as a result of any such default, including reasonable attorneys' fees. Such termination, however, shall not affect the obligation of You hereunder to take action or abstain from taking action after the termination hereof.

12. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12.1 Construction of Contract

Section headings in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and will not in any way modify the statements contained in any section of this Agreement. Each word in this Agreement may be considered to include any number or gender that the context requires. If there is any conflict between this Agreement and the Manual, this Agreement will control. The word "include" (and its derivatives, such as "includes" and "including") is always used in its non-restrictive sense (i.e., as if followed by the words "but [is] not limited to"); "includes" is not used as a synonym for "means." Similarly, any time examples are given, the examples are always non-exclusive. The auxiliary verb "may" is intended to be permissive, and its negative ("may not") is intended to deny permission.

Whenever this Agreement gives RYTECH discretion to take an action or make a decision, RYTECH will be allowed to take or make (or refrain from taking or making) that action or decision based on its business judgment. Even if RYTECH has numerous motives for a particular action or decision and/or there are other reasonable and/or arguably preferable alternatives to a particular action or decision, so long as at least one motive is a reasonable business justification, the action or decision will not be subject to challenge for abuse of discretion. IF THE EXERCISE OF RYTECH'S DISCRETION AS TO ANY MATTER IS CHALLENGED, THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY DIRECT THE TRIER OF FACT THAT RYTECH'S RELIANCE ON A BUSINESS REASON IN THE EXERCISE OF ITS DISCRETION IS TO BE VIEWED AS A REASONABLE AND PROPER EXERCISE OF RYTECH'S DISCRETION, WITHOUT REGARD TO WHETHER OTHER REASONS FOR ITS DECISION MAY EXIST AND WITHOUT REGARD TO WHETHER THE TRIER OF FACT WOULD INDEPENDENTLY ACCORD THE SAME WEIGHT TO THE BUSINESS REASON.

12.2 Governing Law

This Agreement is made in the State of Georgia, or, if RYTECH relocates, then the state that the RYTECH is then located, and its provisions shall be governed by and enforced and interpreted exclusively under the laws of that state, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law (without regard to, and without giving effect to, the application of the choice-of-law rules of that state); provided, however, that if any provision of this Agreement, including the covenants in Section 7.11, Covenants Against Competition, of this Agreement, would not be enforceable under the laws of the State of Georgia and Your Franchised Business is located outside of the State of Georgia, then that provision shall be interpreted and construed under the laws of the state in which Your Franchised Business is located. Nothing in this Section 12.2 is intended by the parties to subject this Agreement to any franchise or similar law, rule, or regulation to which this Agreement would not otherwise be subject.

12.3 Notices

Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, the parties to this Agreement shall direct any notices to the other party at the address provided for such party below or at another address if advised in writing that the address has been changed. Notice may be delivered by (i) overnight nationally-recognized courier service or US Express Mail, (ii) US Priority, (iii) email or (iv) US regular mail. Notice by courier or Express mail, within one day after delivery to the courier; and by Priority mail or US regular mail three days after posting. Notice by e-mail may be given by sending an e-mail message at the e-mail address maintained by RYTECH for You, and notice will be deemed delivered and received the same day as the e-mail message is sent by RYTECH; and may be given by sending an e-mail message to rkerlin@rytechinc.com and notice will be deemed delivered and received the same day as the e-mail message is sent by You.

RYTECH:
President
Rytech Franchising, Inc.
1690 Roberts Blvd. NW, Suite 120
Kennesaw, GA 30144

FRANCHISEE:
Business Address as set forth on the first page.

12.4 Amendments

Except for changes to the Manual, and except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, no amendment, change, or variance from this Agreement will be binding on either party unless set forth in a writing signed by all of the parties to this Agreement or by their authorized officers or agents.

12.5 Waiver

Either of the parties to this Agreement may, by written instrument, unilaterally waive any obligations of or restriction upon the other under this Agreement. No acceptance by RYTECH of any payment by You and no refusal, neglect, or failure of RYTECH to exercise any right under this Agreement or to insist upon full compliance by You with Your obligations under it or with any Standards will constitute a waiver of any provision of this Agreement or of any subsequent breach of this Agreement.

12.6 Integration

This Agreement, the Franchise Disclosure Document, any other agreements executed pursuant to it or concurrently with it, the Attachments to this Agreement, and the Manual (as it may be revised from time to time), constitute the complete Agreement between You and RYTECH concerning the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior understandings and agreements, whether written or oral. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to disclaim the representations RYTECH made solely in the franchise disclosure document it furnished to You.

12.7 Dispute Resolution

12.7.1 Dispute Resolution Process

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, in the case of any Dispute, the parties must attempt to resolve the Dispute by following the ADR Process in this Section 12.7

before, and as a condition to either parties, initiating a legal action. All aspects of the ADR Process must be treated as confidential, must not be disclosed to others, and may not be offered or admissible in any other proceeding or legal action whatsoever. The ADR Process under this Section 12.7 is not intended to alter or suspend the rights or obligations of the parties under this Agreement but is intended to furnish the parties an opportunity to resolve disputes amicably, expeditiously and in a cost-effective manner on mutually acceptable terms.

(b) The Complainant will initiate the ADR Process by sending a certified or registered letter to the Respondent setting forth the particulars of the Dispute, the term(s) of the Agreement (if any) that are involved, a proposed resolution of the Dispute, and identifying one or more Authorized Representatives with authority to settle the Dispute for the Complainant. The Respondent has 14 days (beginning with the date notice is received) within which to designate by written notice to the Complainant one or more Authorized Representatives with authority to settle the Dispute on the Respondent's behalf.

(c) As a mandatory condition precedent prior to your taking any legal or other action against us, whether for damages, injunctive, equitable or other relief (including, but not limited to, rescission), based upon any alleged act or omission of ours, you shall first give us 60 days prior written notice and opportunity to cure such alleged act or omission, or to resolve such matter.

12.7.2 Direct Negotiations

The Authorized Representatives of the Respondent may investigate the Dispute as they consider appropriate but agree to meet in person at a place determined by RYTECH, by prearranged teleconference, or by videoconference, with the Authorized Representatives of the Complainant within 30 days from the date of the Complainant's written notice to discuss resolution of the Dispute. The Authorized Representatives may meet at any times and places and as often as they agree, subject to the time limits set forth in this Section 12.7.

12.7.3 Mediation

(a) If the Dispute has not been resolved within 60 days after the initial meeting of the Authorized Representatives, the Dispute must be submitted to non-binding mediation by a third-party mediator. The parties shall attempt to agree upon a mediator within one hundred and twenty (120) days of receipt of the initial letter or within sixty (60) days of any extended period as may be agreed upon by the parties in writing. If the parties are unable to mutually agree upon a mediator within this time period, the Complainant may seek the appointment of a mediator through JAMS, Inc. (and if JAMS, Inc. is no longer operational, a comparable mediator service) and the procedures for selecting the mediator shall be those of JAMS, Inc. (or, if applicable, of the comparable mediation service) in effect at the time. The parties agree that in the event of the initiation of individual mediations involving the same or similar issues at or about the same time, RYTECH has the option to determine that no Designated Mediator may be a mediator in more than one of those mediations. The mediation must take place in the city where RYTECH's principal place of business is then located.

(b) Non-binding mediation under the ADR Process must be concluded within 60 days of the date the Designated Mediator is agreed upon in writing (or selected through JAMS, Inc. or the comparable mediation service) or such longer period as may be agreed upon by the parties in writing. The Complainant and the Respondent shall each bear their own costs of mediation, and each shall bear one-half the cost of the mediator, including any mediation service fees.

12.7.4 Arbitration

If the Dispute is not resolved through mediation, then, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Dispute (including the enforceability of this arbitration provision and the arbitrability of any Dispute) must be settled by binding arbitration through JAMS, Inc. (and if JAMS, Inc. is no longer operational, a comparable arbitration service) and the procedures for selecting the arbitrator shall be those of JAMS, Inc. (or, if applicable, of the comparable arbitration service) in effect at the time. The arbitration must be brought in the city where RYTECH's principal place of business is then located. Only disputes brought by the parties to this Agreement may be resolved in the arbitration and no claims brought by a class or claims by Persons other than the parties to this Agreement will be heard. The parties will jointly select one arbitrator from the panel of arbitrators maintained by JAMS, Inc. (or, if applicable, the comparable arbitration service). The arbitrator must (a) be a senior lawyer or a retired judge, (b) have at least 5 years' experience in franchising or franchise law, and (c) have no prior social, business, or professional relationship with any party. If the parties are not able to agree on the sole arbitrator within 30 days after notice of arbitration has been provided by either party, unless such time is extended by the parties, then the parties must apply to JAMS, Inc. (or, if applicable, the comparable arbitration service) to designate and appoint the sole arbitrator. Discovery under the arbitration will be limited to the following for each side: a) six depositions totaling 12 hours; b) six interrogatories each consisting of no more than 12 questions (with no subparts); and c) six document requests. The discovery may also be limited in any other manner as specified by the arbitrator, who will limit discovery to the greatest extent possible consistent with basic fairness. If proper notice of any hearing has been given, the arbitrator will have full power to proceed to take evidence or to perform any other acts necessary to arbitrate the matter in the absence of any party who fails to appear and the arbitrator may render a decision. The arbitrator will have no power to 1) stay the effectiveness of any pending Termination of this Franchise Agreement; 2) assess punitive damages against either party; or 3) make any award that extends, modifies or suspends any lawful provision of this Agreement or any of the standards of business conduct, performance, or operations established by RYTECH. All expenses of arbitration must be paid by the party against which the arbitrator renders a decision; if each party prevails on one or more claims, the arbitrator shall apportion the expenses of arbitration. The decision in writing of the arbitrator will be (a) in the English language, (b) final and binding, and (c) reasonably detailed and will include the arbitrator's findings. Either party may apply to any court having jurisdiction for an order confirming, or to enforce, the award. A notice of arbitration will not operate to stay, postpone or rescind the effectiveness of any demand for performance or notice of termination under this Agreement.

12.8 Exceptions to ADR Process Requirement

(a) The ADR Process provision in Section 12.7, Arbitration, does not bar the right of RYTECH to seek and obtain temporary injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with applicable law against threatened conduct that may cause loss or damage.

(b) RYTECH is not required to follow the ADR Process with respect to (a) any claim or Dispute involving actual or threatened disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information or any other intellectual property of RYTECH, (b) any claim or Dispute involving the ownership, validity, or use of the Marks, (c) any claim or Dispute related to monies You owe to RYTECH or to the National Ad Fund; (d) any claim or Dispute involving the insurance or indemnification provisions of this Agreement, (e) any action to enforce the covenants set forth in Section 7.11, Covenant Against Competition, of this Agreement, and/or (f) any claim or Dispute involving a proposed or actual transfer not complying with the requirements of Article 10, Transfer.

12.9 Non-Exclusive Remedy

No right or remedy conferred upon or reserved to You or to RYTECH by this Agreement is intended to be, nor shall be deemed, exclusive of any other right or remedy provided in this Agreement or permitted by law or by equity, but each shall be cumulative of every other right or remedy.

12.9 Venue and Waiver of Jury Trial

You and we each consent and irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts of competent jurisdiction for Cobb County, Georgia, and waive any objection to the jurisdiction and venue of such courts. This exclusive choice of jurisdiction and venue provision does not restrict the ability of the parties to confirm or enforce judgments or awards in any appropriate jurisdiction.

YOU AND WE HEREBY UNCONDITIONALLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL IN ANY ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE RELATIONSHIP CREATED BY THIS AGREEMENT, OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND US AND/OR YOUR AND OUR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES.

12.10 Limitation of Actions

ANY AND ALL CLAIMS BY YOU ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN YOU AND US MUST BE MADE BY WRITTEN NOTICE TO US WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR FROM THE OCCURRENCE OF THE ACT OR EVENT GIVING RISE TO SUCH CLAIM OR ONE (1) YEAR FROM THE DATE ON WHICH YOU KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN, IN THE EXERCISE OF

REASONABLE DILIGENCE, OF THE FACTS GIVING RISE TO SUCH CLAIMS, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST.

12.11 Attorney Fees and Costs

You must pay to RYTECH all damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) that RYTECH incurs in the enforcement of any provision of this Agreement.

12.12 Severability and Resulting Covenants

(a) Each provision of this Agreement will be considered severable. If, for any reason, any provision of it is determined to be invalid or in conflict with any existing or future law or regulation, that provision will not impair the operation of the remaining provisions of this Agreement. The invalid provisions will be considered not to be a part of this Agreement. However, if RYTECH determines that the finding of illegality adversely affects the basic consideration for its performance under this Agreement, RYTECH may, at its option, terminate this Agreement.

(b) You expressly agree to be bound by any promise or covenant imposing the maximum duty permitted by law that is contained within the terms of any provision of this Agreement, as though it were separately stated in and made a part of this Agreement, that may result from striking from any of the provisions of this Agreement any portion or portions that a court holds to be unreasonable and unenforceable in a final decision to which RYTECH is a party, or from reducing the scope of any promise or covenant to the extent required to comply with such a court order.

12.13 Individual Dispute Resolution

Any proceeding to resolve a Dispute (whether part of the ADR Process or a legal action) between the parties to this Agreement and/or any of their Related Parties will be conducted solely on an individual basis and not as part of a consolidated, common, representative, group, or class action.

12.14 Approval and Guaranties

All Persons, including all of Your Related Parties (without regard to the percentage of Beneficial Ownership interests noted in the definition of Related Parties), having at least a ten percent (10%) or greater interest in You must approve this Agreement, permit You to furnish the financial information required by RYTECH, and agree to the restrictions placed on them, including restrictions on the transferability of their interests in the Franchised Business and in You and limitations on their rights to compete. Each of those Persons must execute separately the Agreement and Guaranty in the form of Attachment 5 to this Agreement or in the form required by RYTECH at the time the Person acquires the 10% or greater interest. See Attachment 5.

12.15 Acceptance by RYTECH

This Agreement will not be binding on RYTECH unless and until it has been signed by an authorized officer of RYTECH.

12.16 DISCLAIMER OF REPRESENTATIONS

YOU UNDERSTAND THAT RYTECH IS NOT A FIDUCIARY AND HAS NO SPECIAL RESPONSIBILITIES BEYOND THE NORMAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF A SELLER IN A BUSINESS TRANSACTION.

Each of you waive: (a) acceptance and notice of acceptance by us of your obligations under this Guaranty; (b) notice of demand for payment of any indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations guaranteed by you; (c) protest and notice of default to any party with respect to the indebtedness or nonperformance of any obligations guaranteed by you; (d) any right you may have to require that an action be brought against the Business Entity or any other person as a condition of your liability; (e) all rights to payments and claims for reimbursement or subrogation which you may have against the Business Entity arising as a result of your execution of and performance under this Guaranty; and (f) all other notices and legal or equitable defenses to which you may be entitled in your capacity as guarantors.

Consents and Agreements. Each of you consent and agree that: (a) your direct and immediate liability under this Guaranty are joint and several; (b) you must render any payment or performance required under the Franchise Agreement upon demand if the Business Entity fails or refuses punctually to do so; (c) your liability will not be contingent or conditioned upon our pursuit of any remedies against the Business Entity or any other person; (d) your liability will not be diminished, relieved or otherwise affected by any extension of time, credit or other indulgence which we may from time to time grant to Business Entity or to any other person, including, without limitation, the acceptance of any partial payment or performance or the compromise or release of any claims and no such indulgence will in any way modify or amend this Guaranty; and (e) this Guaranty will continue and is irrevocable during the term of the Franchise Agreement and, for obligations surviving the termination or expiration of the Franchise Agreement, after its termination or expiration; and (f) this Guaranty will continue in full force and effect for (and as to) any extension or modification of the Franchise Agreement and despite the transfer of any interest in the Franchise Agreement or Franchisee, and each of the undersigned waives notice of any and all renewals, extensions, modifications, amendments, or transfers of the underlying Franchise Agreement or other related agreement.

Governing Law. This Guaranty shall be deemed to have been made in and governed by the laws of the State of Georgia, which laws shall prevail in the event of any conflict of law.

Internal Dispute Resolution. You must first bring any claim or dispute arising out of or relating to the Franchise Agreement or this Guaranty to our President. You agree to exhaust this internal dispute resolution procedure before bringing any dispute before a third party. This agreement to engage in internal dispute resolution first shall survive the termination or expiration of this Guaranty.

Dispute Resolution. At our option, all claims or disputes between you and us arising out of, or in any way relating to, this Guaranty or the Franchise Agreement or any other agreement by and between you and user, or any of the parties' respective rights and obligations arising from such agreements must be submitted first to mediation and then arbitration as set forth in the Franchise Agreement. This agreement to mediate and arbitrate at our option shall survive the termination or expiration of this Guaranty.

Third Party Beneficiaries. Our officers, directors, owners, members, agents, representatives, affiliates, the Cooperative and/or employees are express third party beneficiaries of the Franchise Agreement and this Guaranty, and the mediation and arbitration provisions incorporated by reference herein, each having authority to specifically enforce the right to mediate and arbitrate claims asserted against such person(s) by you.

Injunctive Relief. Nothing contained in this Guaranty shall prevent us from applying to or obtaining from any court having jurisdiction, without bond, a writ of attachment, temporary injunction, preliminary injunction and/or other emergency relief available to safeguard and protect our interest prior to the filing of any mediation proceeding or pending the arbitration or handing down of a decision or award pursuant to any mediation or arbitration conducted hereunder.

Jury Trial Waiver. THE PARTIES HEREBY AGREE TO WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM, WHETHER AT LAW OR EQUITY, REGARDLESS OF WHICH PARTY BRINGS SUIT. Waiver of Punitive Damages. You waive to the fullest extent permitted by law, any right to or claim for any punitive or exemplary damages, and agree that in the event of a dispute, your recovery shall be limited to actual damages. If any other term of this Guaranty is found or determined to be unconscionable or unenforceable, for any reason, the foregoing provisions shall continue in full force and effect, including, without limitation, the waiver of any right to claim any consequential damages.

Waiver of Class Actions. Each of the parties hereby irrevocably waives the right to litigate on a class action basis, in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim, whether at law or in equity, brought by any party.

(a) Divert, solicit, interfere with, misappropriate, take away or attempt to divert or take away any source of business or revenue or any customer, broker, insurer, supplier, trade or patronage with whom Franchisee, Rytech, any affiliate of Rytech or any other franchisee does business or whom I know Franchisee, Rytech, any affiliate of Rytech or any other franchisee has contacted or solicited for business relationships; or

(b) Within the Non-Compete Area (defined below), participate in the development of, or engage in, or market, sell, distribute, render, provide, perform or sell (including through licensing or franchising) products, goods, or services the same or similar to the products, goods, or services offered by the Franchisee or Rytech, or contribute my knowledge or have any financial interest in any work or activity that relates to or involves or is in any way engaged in the licensing, franchising, developing or operation of a business that provides the Core Services (as defined in the franchise agreement) or any related services or products; or

(d) Induce or attempt to induce, or solicit any of Franchisee’s, Rytech or other Rytech affiliates’ or franchisees’, strategic partners, customers, brokers or other independent contractors to accept employment or a business affiliation of any kind with you; or

(e) Perform or contribute to any other act injurious or prejudicial to the goodwill associated with Rytech Franchising, Inc. or its trademarks, trade names or other intellectual property.

In addition to the above, I agree to at all times during and after this Agreement, treat as confidential all manuals and materials designated for use with by Rytech for the Franchisee’s business and in the Rytech franchise system (the “System”) (including without limitation the Operations Manual), and such other information as Rytech or the Franchisee may designate from time to time for confidential use with the System (as well as all trade secrets and confidential information, knowledge and know-how concerning the operation of the Franchise that may be imparted to, or acquired by, me from time to time in connection with my relationship with Rytech and the Franchisee), and shall use all reasonable efforts to keep such information confidential. I acknowledge that the unauthorized use or disclosure of such confidential information (and trade secrets, if any) will cause incalculable and irreparable injury to Rytech and the Franchisee. I accordingly agree that I shall not, at any time, without Rytech’s and the Franchisee’s prior written consent, disclose, use or permit the use (except as may be required by applicable law or authorized by this Agreement) of such information, in whole or part, or otherwise make the same available to any unauthorized person or source. Any and all information, knowledge and know-how not generally known about Rytech Standards and such other information or material as Rytech or the Franchisee may designate as confidential, shall be deemed confidential for purposes of this Agreement.

The “Non-Compete Area” means: (1) in Franchisee’s Territory as granted by Rytech to Franchisee under their Franchise Agreement and within ten (10) miles of such Franchisee’s Territory, (2) within any other Rytech Franchisee territory or other business which is franchised, owned, operated or managed by Rytech, (3) via the Internet or other form of e-commerce, wherever located; or (4) within ten (10) miles of any territory of any franchisee in existence or under development during the term of the Franchise Agreement between Rytech and Franchisee.

In the event that a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that the scope of any part of this Agreement shall be discerned as overly broad and unenforceable as written, the parties agree that such provision shall be amended by such court so as to be enforceable so that such provision shall not be stricken from this Agreement.

Because of my significant responsibilities and access to proprietary information of the Rytech and the Franchisee, I acknowledge that each of my obligations in this Agreement are reasonable and necessary to protect the Franchisee’s, Rytech’s and its franchisees’ legitimate business interests. I understand that breaking any of my promises or obligations will irreparably and continually damage Franchisee, Rytech, and Rytech Franchisees for which money damages may not be adequate.

Rytech is a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement and may enforce it, solely and/or jointly with the Franchisee. I am aware that my violation of this Agreement will cause Rytech and Franchisee irreparable harm; therefore, I acknowledge and agree that Franchisee and/or Rytech may apply for the issuance of an injunction preventing me from violating this Agreement, and I agree to pay Franchisee and Rytech all the costs it/they incur(s), including, without limitation, legal fees and expenses, if this Agreement is enforced against me. EXHIBIT D: STATE ADDENDUM

CALIFORNIA ADDENDUM
TO
FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

THE CALIFORNIA FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW REQUIRES THAT A COPY OF ALL PROPOSED AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE SALE OF THE FRANCHISE BE DELIVERED TOGETHER WITH THE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT.

The following provisions supersede any inconsistent provisions in the disclosure document and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of California:

1. Neither we nor any person identified in Item 2 of this disclosure document are subject to any currently effective order of any national securities association or national securities exchange, as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C.A. 78a, et seq., suspending or expelling these persons from membership in the association or exchange.
2. California Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 through 200043 provide rights to the franchisee concerning termination, transfer, or non-renewal of a franchise. If the Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the law, the law will control.
3. The Franchise Agreement provide for termination upon bankruptcy. This provision may not be enforceable under federal bankruptcy law (11 U.S.C.A. § 101, et seq.).
4. The Franchise Agreement contains a covenant not to compete which extends beyond the termination of the franchise. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
5. The Franchise Agreement requires mediation, arbitration and litigation in the city where we then have our principal place of business (currently Cobb County, Georgia), with the costs being borne by the non-prevailing party. Prospective franchisees are encouraged to consult private legal counsel to determine the applicability of California and federal laws (such as Business and Professions Code Section 20040.5, Code of Civil Procedure Section 1281, and the Federal Arbitration Act) to any provisions of a franchise agreement restricting venue to a forum outside the State of California.
6. The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of the State of Georgia. This provision may not be enforceable under California law.
7. Any condition, stipulation or provision in the Franchise Agreement or Development Agreement which would result in your waiver of compliance with any provision of California Franchise Relations Act is void to the extent that the provision violates this law.
8. To the extent that Sections 12 of the Franchise Agreement would otherwise violate California law, these sections are amended by providing that all litigation by or between you and us, involving a franchised business operating in the State of California, which arises directly or indirectly from the Franchise Agreement will be commenced and maintained in the state courts of California or the United States District Court for California, with the specific venue in either court system determined by appropriate jurisdiction and venue requirements.

9. The Franchise Agreement requires a franchisee to sign a general release of claims upon renewal or transfer of the Franchise Agreement. California Corporation Code Section 31512 provides that any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring any franchise to waive compliance with any provision of that law or any rule or order thereunder is void. Section 31512 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Investment Law (California Corporations Code Section 31000 – 31516). Business and Professions Code Section 20010 voids a waiver of your rights under the Franchise Relations Act (Business and Professions Code Sections 20000 – 20043).

10. California Corporations Code, Section 31125 requires the franchisor to give the franchisee a disclosure document, approved by the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation prior to a solicitation of a proposed material modification of an existing franchise.

11. Section 11.3 of the Franchise Agreement contains a lost profit clause. Under Civil Code, Section 1671 certain liquidated damage clauses are unenforceable.

12. The URL address of our web site is www.rytechinc.com. OUR WEB SITE HAS NOT BEEN REVIEWED OR APPROVED BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION. ANY COMPLAINTS CONCERNING THE CONTENT OF THIS WEB SITE MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS FINANCIAL PROTECTION AND INNOVATION AT www.dfpi.ca.gov.

13. Franchisees must obtain the necessary licenses from the California Contractors License Board.

14. The highest interest rate permitted by law in California is 10% annually.

15. Each owner of the franchise is required to execute a personal guaranty. Doing so could jeopardize the marital assets of non-owner spouses domiciled in community property states such as California.

16. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.

17. Registration of this franchise does not constitute approval, recommendation, or endorsement by the Commissioner.

FRANCHISE RIDER - CALIFORNIA

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the Agreement, the following provisions will supersede and apply to all franchises offered and sold in the State of California:

1. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
2. To the extent that Sections 15.2 or 15.5 of the Agreement would otherwise violate California law, these sections are amended by providing that all litigation by or between you and us, involving a Unit in the State of California, which arises directly or indirectly from the Agreement will be commenced and maintained in the state courts of California or the United States District Court for California, with the specific venue in either court system determined by appropriate jurisdiction and venue requirements.
3. Franchisees must obtain the necessary licenses from the California Contractors License Board.

INDIANA ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

The Franchise Agreement requires binding arbitration. The arbitration will occur in a state other than Indiana, with costs being borne by the non-prevailing party. To the extent Indiana law applies, the provision concerning the place where arbitration will occur is deleted from the Indiana Franchise Agreement.

The Franchise Agreement requires application of the laws of another state. To the extent Indiana law applies, this provision is deleted from the Indiana Franchise Agreement.

In Item 17 of the disclosure document, the Summary columns of Sections (u), (v) and (w) are amended to omit any reference to selection of an out-of-Indiana forum or choice of law.

The Franchise Agreement requires you to sign a general release of claims as a condition of renewing or transferring the franchise. Under the law of Indiana any provision that purports to bind a person acquiring a franchisee to waive compliance with the franchise laws of Indiana is void. In Item 17 of the disclosure document, the Summary columns of Sections (c) and (m) are amended to omit the requirement that an Indiana Franchisee sign a general release of claims as a condition of renewal or transfer. This will not prevent us from requiring you to sign a general release of claims as part of a settlement of a dispute or from requiring you, upon renewal or transfer of the Franchise Agreement, to sign a release of claims other than those under the franchise laws of Indiana.

FRANCHISE AGREEMENT RIDER - INDIANA

For purposes of complying with the requirements of the Indiana Franchises Act, Ind. Code Ann. §§ 1 – 51 (1994) and the Indiana Deceptive Franchise Practices Act, Ind. Code Ann. § 23-2-2.7 (1985) (the “DFPA”), Rytech Franchising, Inc. (“Rytech”) and _____ (“Franchisee”) hereby amend the Franchise Agreement between them dated _____ (the “Agreement”) as follows:

1. The DFPA provides rights to franchisees concerning nonrenewal and termination of a franchise. To the extent the Agreement contains a provision that is inconsistent with the DFPA, the DFPA will control.

2. Section 1 of the DFPA forbids that a franchise agreement between a franchisor and a franchisee who is either a resident of Indiana or a nonresident who will be operating a franchise in Indiana contain certain provisions. To the extent that any provision in the Franchise Agreement contains such a provision, the Agreement is amended to the extent necessary to conform to the DFPA.

3. Each provision of this Amendment will be effective only to the extent that the jurisdictional requirements of Indiana law applicable to the provisions are met independent of this Amendment. This Amendment will have no force or effect if such jurisdictional requirements are not met.

4. Rytech reserves the right to challenge the enforceability of any state law described in this Amendment that declares void or unenforceable any provision contained in the Agreement.

5. All other provisions of the Agreement are hereby ratified and confirmed.

THE FOLLOWING APPLIES ONLY TO TRANSACTIONS GOVERNED BY THE MICHIGAN FRANCHISE INVESTMENT LAW

The State of Michigan prohibits certain unfair provisions that are sometimes in franchise documents. If any of the following provisions are in these franchise documents, the provisions are void and cannot be enforced against you.

- (a) A prohibition on the right of a franchisee to join an association of franchisees.
- (b) A requirement that a franchisee assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which deprives a franchisee of rights and protections provided in this act. This shall not preclude a franchisee, after entering into a franchise agreement, from settling any and all claims.
- (c) A provision that permits a franchisor to terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include the failure of the franchisee to comply with any lawful provision of the franchise agreement and to cure such failure after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than 30 days, to cure such failure.
- (d) A provision that permits a franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee by repurchase or other means for the fair market value at the time of expiration of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings. Personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor and inventory, supplies, equipment, fixtures, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business are not subject to compensation. This subsection applies only if: (i) The term of the franchise is less than 5 years and (ii) the franchisee is prohibited by the franchise or other agreement from continuing to conduct substantially the same business under another trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol in the same area subsequent to the expiration of the franchise or the franchisee does not receive at least 6 months advance notice of franchisor's intent not to renew the franchise.
- (e) A provision that permits the franchisor to refuse to renew a franchise on terms generally available to other franchisees of the same class or type under similar circumstances. This section does not require a renewal provision.
- (f) A provision requiring that arbitration or litigation be conducted outside this state. This shall not preclude the franchisee from entering into an agreement, at the time of arbitration, to conduct arbitration at a location outside this state.
- (g) A provision which permits a franchisor to refuse to permit a transfer of ownership of a franchise, except for good cause. This subdivision does not prevent a franchisor from exercising a right of first refusal to purchase the franchise. Good cause shall include, but is not limited to:

- (i) The failure of the proposed transferee to meet the franchisors then current reasonable qualifications or standards.
- (ii) The fact that the proposed transferee is a competitor of the franchisor or subfranchisor.
- (iii) The unwillingness of the proposed transferee to agree in writing to comply with all lawful obligations.
- (iv) The failure of the franchisee or proposed transferee to pay any sums owing to the franchisor or to cure any default in the franchise agreement existing at the time of the proposed transfer.
- (h) A provision that requires the franchisee to resell to the franchisor items that are not uniquely identified with the franchisor. - (i) A provision which permits the franchisor to directly or indirectly convey, assign, or otherwise transfer its obligations to fulfill contractual obligations to the franchisee unless provision has been made for providing the required contractual services.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM TO FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT

1. The following legend is added to the Risk Factors on the Risk Factors Page:

MINN. STAT. §80C.21 AND MINN. RULE 2860.4400(J) PROHIBITS THE FRANCHISOR FROM REQUIRING LITIGATION TO BE CONDUCTED OUTSIDE MINNESOTA, THE WAIVER OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER MINNESOTA LAW, FRANCHISE OWNER'S WAIVER OF A JURY TRIAL, THE FRANCHISOR OBTAINING INJUNCTIVE RELIEF (BUT THE FRANCHISOR MAY SEEK INJUNCTIVE RELIEF) OR REQUIRING THE FRANCHISE OWNER TO CONSENT TO LIQUIDATED DAMAGES, TERMINATIONS, PENALTIES, OR JUDGMENT NOTES. IN ADDITION, NOTHING IN THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT OR AGREEMENT(S) CAN ABROGATE OR REDUCE ANY OF FRANCHISE OWNER'S RIGHTS AS PROVIDED FOR IN MINNESOTA STATUTES, CHAPTER 80C, OR FRANCHISE OWNER'S RIGHTS TO ANY PROCEDURE, FORUM, OR REMEDIES PROVIDED FOR BY THE LAWS OF THE JURISDICTION. ONLY A COURT MAY DETERMINE IF A BOND IS REQUIRED.

2. The following is added to Item 13:

The Company will protect your right to use its Marks. The Minnesota Department of Commerce required Franchisors to indemnify Franchiser against liability to third parties resulting from claims by third parties that the Franchiser's use of the Company's marks infringes upon the trademark rights of the third party. Any provision to the contrary is void.

3. The following statement is added at the end of Item 17(c) and 17(m):

(Any release signed in connection with this Agreement will not apply to any claims that may arise under the Minnesota Franchise Act.)

4. The following statement is added at the end of Item 17:

Minnesota law provides a Franchise Owner with certain termination and nonrenewal rights. Minn. Stat. Sec. 80C.14 Subd. 3, 4, and 5 require, except in certain specified cases, that a Franchise Owner be given 90 day's notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 day's notice for nonrenewal of the applicable agreement.

5. The Limitations of Claims section must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C. 17, Subd. 5; i.e., No action may be commenced under this Section more than three years after the cause of action accrues.

6. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including, fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchise.

MINNESOTA ADDENDUM
TO FRANCHISE AGREEMENT

Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.2 1 and Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(J) prohibit the franchisor from requiring litigation to be conducted outside Minnesota, requiring waiver of a jury trial, or requiring the franchisee to consent to liquidated damages, termination penalties or judgment notes. In addition, nothing in the Franchise Disclosure Document or agreement(s) can abrogate or reduce (1) any of the franchisee's rights as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 80C or (2) franchisee's rights to any procedure, forum, or remedies provided for by the laws of the jurisdiction.

With respect to franchises governed by Minnesota law, the franchisor will comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C. 14, Subd. 3-5, which require (except in certain specified cases) (1) that a franchisee be given 90 days' notice of termination (with 60 days to cure) and 180 days' notice for non-renewal of the franchise agreement and (2) that consent to the transfer of the franchise will not be unreasonably withheld.

The franchisor will protect the franchisee's rights to use the trademarks, service marks, trade names, logotypes or other commercial symbols or indemnify the franchisee from any loss, costs or expenses arising out of any claim, suit or demand regarding the use of the name.

Minnesota considers it unfair to not protect the franchisee's right to use the trademarks. Refer to Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C.12, Subd. 1(g).

Minnesota Rules 2860.4400(D) prohibits a franchisor from requiring a franchisee to assent to a general release.

The franchisee cannot consent to the franchisor obtaining injunctive relief. The franchisor may seek injunctive relief. See Minn. Rules 2860.4400J.

Also, a court will determine if a bond is required.

The Limitations of Claims section must comply with Minnesota Statutes, Section 80C. 17, Subd. 5. No action may be commenced under this Section more than three years after the cause of action accrues.

No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgement signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including, fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed with the franchise.

Pertinent sections of the Franchise Agreement are amended to comply with the above referenced requirements of the Minnesota Franchise Act.

VIRGINIA ADDENDUM
TO

The following information is added to “Special Risks to Consider About This Franchise” of the Franchise Disclosure Document:

FRANCHISE AGREEMENT RIDER – VIRGINIA

The following terms and conditions control the Rytech Franchising, Inc. Franchise Agreement to which this Rider is attached:

Under Section 13.1-564 of the Virginia Retail Franchising Act, is it unlawful for a franchisor to cancel a franchise without reasonable cause. If any ground for default or termination stated in the Franchise Agreement does not constitute “reasonable cause,” as that term any be defined in the Virginia Retail Franchising Act or the laws of Virginia, that provision may not be enforceable.

WASHINGTON ADDENDUM TO THE FRANCHISE DISCLOSURE DOCUMENT, THE FRANCHISE AGREEMENT, AND ALL RELATED AGREEMENTS

The provisions of this Addendum form an integral part of, are incorporated into, and modify the Franchise Disclosure Document, the franchise agreement, and all related agreements regardless of anything to the contrary contained therein. This Addendum applies if: (a) the offer to sell a franchise is accepted in Washington; (b) the purchaser of the franchise is a resident of Washington; and/or (c) the franchised business that is the subject of the sale is to be located or operated, wholly or partly, in Washington.

1. Conflict of Laws. In the event of a conflict of laws, the provisions of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, chapter 19.100 RCW will prevail.
2. Franchisee Bill of Rights. RCW 19.100.180 may supersede provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor, including in the areas of termination and renewal of your franchise. There may also be court decisions that supersede the franchise agreement or related agreements concerning your relationship with the franchisor. Franchise agreement provisions, including those summarized in Item 17 of the Franchise Disclosure Document, are subject to state law.
3. Site of Arbitration, Mediation, and/or Litigation. In any arbitration or mediation involving a franchise purchased in Washington, the arbitration or mediation site will be either in the state of Washington, or in a place mutually agreed upon at the time of the arbitration or mediation, or as determined by the arbitrator or mediator at the time of arbitration or mediation. In addition, if litigation is not precluded by the franchise agreement, a franchisee may bring an action or proceeding arising out of or in connection with the sale of franchises, or a violation of the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, in Washington.
4. General Release. A release or waiver of rights in the franchise agreement or related agreements purporting to bind the franchisee to waive compliance with any provision under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act or any rules or orders thereunder is void except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2). In addition, any such release or waiver executed in connection with a renewal or transfer of a franchise is likewise void except as provided for in RCW 19.100.220(2).
5. Statute of Limitations and Waiver of Jury Trial. Provisions contained in the franchise agreement or related agreements that unreasonably restrict or limit the statute of limitations period for claims under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, or rights or remedies under the Act such as a right to a jury trial, may not be enforceable.

6. Transfer Fees. Transfer fees are collectable only to the extent that they reflect the franchisor's reasonable estimated or actual costs in effecting a transfer.
7. Termination by Franchisee. The franchisee may terminate the franchise agreement under any grounds permitted under state law.
8. Certain Buy-Back Provisions. Provisions in franchise agreements or related agreements that permit the franchisor to repurchase the franchisee's business for any reason during the term of the franchise agreement without the franchisee's consent are unlawful pursuant to RCW 19.100.180(2)(j), unless the franchise is terminated for good cause.
9. Fair and Reasonable Pricing. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that requires the franchisee to purchase or rent any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(d).
10. Waiver of Exemplary & Punitive Damages. RCW 19.100.190 permits franchisees to seek treble damages under certain circumstances. Accordingly, provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere requiring franchisees to waive exemplary, punitive, or similar damages are void, except when executed pursuant to a negotiated settlement after the agreement is in effect and where the parties are represented by independent counsel, in accordance with RCW 19.100.220(2).
11. Franchisor's Business Judgement. Provisions in the franchise agreement or related agreements stating that the franchisor may exercise its discretion on the basis of its reasonable business judgment may be limited or superseded by RCW 19.100.180(1), which requires the parties to deal with each other in good faith.
12. Indemnification. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements requiring the franchisee to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or other parties is hereby modified such that the franchisee has no obligation to indemnify, reimburse, defend, or hold harmless the franchisor or any other indemnified party for losses or liabilities to the extent that they are caused by the indemnified party's negligence, willful misconduct, strict liability, or fraud.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If the franchise agreement or related agreements require a franchisee to reimburse the franchisor for court costs or expenses, including attorneys' fees, such provision applies only if the franchisor is the prevailing party in any judicial or arbitration proceeding.
14. Noncompetition Covenants. Pursuant to RCW 49.62.020, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an employee, including an employee of a franchisee, unless the employee's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $100,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). In addition, a noncompetition covenant is void and unenforceable against an independent contractor of a franchisee under RCW 49.62.030 unless the independent contractor's earnings from the party seeking enforcement, when annualized, exceed $250,000 per year (an amount that will be adjusted annually for inflation). As a result, any provision contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere that conflicts with these limitations is void and unenforceable in Washington.

15. Nonsolicitation Agreements. RCW 49.62.060 prohibits a franchisor from restricting, restraining, or prohibiting a franchisee from (i) soliciting or hiring any employee of a franchisee of the same franchisor or (ii) soliciting or hiring any employee of the franchisor. As a result, any such provisions contained in the franchise agreement or elsewhere are void and unenforceable in Washington.
16. Questionnaires and Acknowledgments. No statement, questionnaire, or acknowledgment signed or agreed to by a franchisee in connection with the commencement of the franchise relationship shall have the effect of (i) waiving any claims under any applicable state franchise law, including fraud in the inducement, or (ii) disclaiming reliance on any statement made by any franchisor, franchise seller, or other person acting on behalf of the franchisor. This provision supersedes any other term of any document executed in connection with the franchise.
17. Prohibitions on Communicating with Regulators. Any provision in the franchise agreement or related agreements that prohibits the franchisee from communicating with or complaining to regulators is inconsistent with the express instructions in the Franchise Disclosure Document and is unlawful under RCW 19.100.180(2)(h).
18. Advisory Regarding Franchise Brokers. Under the Washington Franchise Investment Protection Act, a "franchise broker" is defined as a person that engages in the business of the offer or sale of franchises. A franchise broker represents the franchisor and is paid a fee for referring prospects to the franchisor and/or selling the franchise. If a franchisee is working with a franchise broker, franchisees are advised to carefully evaluate any information provided by the franchise broker about a franchise.

The undersigned parties do hereby acknowledge receipt of this Addendum.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholder of Rytech Franchising, Inc.
(a wholly-owned Subsidiary of Rybrands, Inc.)

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Rytech Franchising, Inc. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Rybrands, Inc.), which comprise the balance sheets as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the related statements of operations and retained earnings, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Rytech Franchising, Inc. as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Rytech Franchising, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Rytech Franchising, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Rytech Franchising, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Rytech Franchising, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022

1. Business Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business Organization

Rytech Franchising, Inc. (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Rybrands, Inc.) (the “Company”) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Georgia on November 25, 1996. The Company is a franchisor of service establishments that provide water damage restoration and moisture control services.

Use of Management Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Initial Franchise Fee and Royalty Fee

The Company requires a nonrefundable initial franchise fee of $60,000 upon execution of a franchise agreement. The franchise agreement has a term of 10 years and provides a franchisee with certain renewal options and rights to terminate the franchise agreement before the term of the agreement.

Franchisees are required to pay monthly royalty fees based on a percentage of gross receipts.

Under the terms of the agreement, the Company is obligated to provide the franchisee with an initial training program for the franchisee's personnel. In addition, the Company will furnish a representative for the purpose of facilitating the opening of the franchise owner's Rytech office.

Administrative Support Services

Each franchisee must use certain administrative support services provided by Rytech Admin Services, a company related through common ownership. These services include, but are not limited to, receiving new jobs and dispatching assignments, creating job estimates, invoicing and billing, maintaining accounts receivable, and other administrative services.

Franchisees are required to pay monthly administrative fees to Rytech Admin Services based on a percentage of gross receipts.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenues consist of royalty fees from franchisees based on a percentage of gross receipts and initial franchise fees from new franchised locations.

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASU 2014-09 Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. This standard provides that revenues are to be recognized when control of promised goods or services is transferred to a customer in an amount that reflects the consideration expected to be received for those goods or services. This standard does not impact the Company's recognition of royalties from franchisees, which are based on a percent of gross receipts and is recognized at the time the underlying transaction occurs. The standard does, however, change the timing in which the Company recognized initial fees from franchisees for new franchise locations and new franchise terms. Initial franchise fees are being recognized as the Company satisfies the performance obligation over the franchise term, which is generally 10 years.

Rytech Franchising, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be “cash equivalents.”

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk consist principally of temporary cash investments and trade receivables. The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which at times may exceed federally insured limits. To limit the amount of credit exposure, the Company places its temporary cash investments with quality financial institutions.

Advertising and Marketing

The Company expenses advertising and marketing costs as they are incurred. For the year ended December 31st, these costs totaled $430,852 (2024), $201,701 (2023), and $151,307 (2022). Costs incurred by the National Advertising Fund totaled $616,156 (2024), $494,654 (2023), and $451,922 (2022) (See Note 3). Costs incurred by the Florida Cooperative Advertising Fund totaled $157,463 (2024), $188,039 (2023) and $197,564 (2022) (See Note 4).

Method for Determining Allowance for Credit Losses

The Company extends credit to customers in the normal course of business, generally without collateral or other security to support amounts due. Collections from customers are continuously monitored and an allowance for credit losses is maintained based on historical experience adjusted for current conditions and reasonable forecasts taking into account geographical and industry-specific economic factors. The Company also considers any specific customer collection issues. Since the company’s trade receivables are largely similar, the Company evaluates its allowance for credit losses as one portfolio segment. At origination, the Company evaluates credit risk based on a variety of credit quality factors including prior payment experience, customer financial information, credit ratings, probabilities of default, industry trends, and other internal metrics. On a continuing basis, data for each major customer is regularly reviewed based on past-due status to evaluate the adequacy of the allowance for credit losses; actual write-offs are charged against the allowance. At December 31st, the Company’s allowance for credit losses totaled $180,000 (2024 and 2023) and $170,000 (2022) and has been included net of accounts receivable on the balance sheet, respectively. The Company had credit loss expense of $100,570 during 2022. There was no credit loss expense for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Evaluation of Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events from the balance sheet date through February 27, 2025, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has determined there are no subsequent events requiring disclosure.

Fair Value Measurement

The carrying amounts of the Company’s current assets and liabilities approximate their respective fair market value because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

Rytech Franchising, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022

Income Taxes

The Company is wholly owned by Rybrands, Inc. and is treated as a disregarded entity for income tax purposes. Therefore, all income and expenses will be reported on the tax return of Rybrands, Inc.

Rybrands, Inc. has elected to be taxed under the provisions of subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code. Under such provisions, the Company does not pay corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, the stockholders are liable for individual income taxes on the Company's taxable income. Accordingly, these financial statements contain no provision for income taxes.

The Company accounts for income taxes with respect to uncertain tax positions under ASC 740-10. This standard requires the use of a two-step approach for recognizing and measuring tax benefits taken or expected to be taken in a tax return and disclosures regarding uncertainties in income tax positions. Only tax positions that meet the more likely than not recognition threshold are disclosed in accordance with ASC 740.

Management does not believe that the Company has any material uncertain tax positions at December 31, 2024; however, the Company's tax returns for the year ended December 31, 2021 and forward remain subject to examination by relevant taxing authorities.

2. Master Development Agreement

The Company may grant to persons who own a Rytech franchise, the right to operate as a Master Developer. A Master Developer assists in rendering services to franchisees. There is currently one Master Developer.

The Company requires a nonrefundable license fee of $100,000 upon execution of a Master Development Agreement. The Master Development Agreement has a term of 5 years and provides for certain renewal options. A Master Developer is entitled to 50% of the initial franchise fee and continuing royalty fees paid by each franchise located in a designated territory.

Franchise fees paid to the Master Developer for his portion of fees collected were $410,174 (2024), $479,077 (2023), and $240,159 (2022).

3. National Advertising Fund

The Company has an established National Advertising Fund to promote the goodwill and public image of the Rytech network and to develop brand enhancement programs and materials it deems appropriate. All contributions to the National Advertising Fund are to be used exclusively for these purposes. Franchisees are required to contribute 1% of their gross sales to this fund.
