

THE 16TH VISUALIZATION CHALLENGE

The National Science Foundation's Vizzies Challenge is back!

Returning for its 16th cycle, The Vizzies is continuing the long history and tradition of scientific visualizations by asking for your best science or engineering visualization!

Vizzies Challenge winners will be featured on NSF.gov and on PopSci.com! This year winners may be chosen from any category/media type and may win:

- Experts' Choice winning entries (up to 5) each receive $2000
- Peoples' Choice winning entries (up to 5) each receive $500

ENTRY DEADLINE: APRIL 15, 2018, 11:59 PST

Visit nsf.gov/Vizzies to learn more and submit your visualization today! Questions? Please contact us at vizzies@nsf.gov.

All entrants must be at least 18 years of age. Team leads must be U.S. citizens, nationals, or permanent residents. Monetary prizes will be distributed to team leads. NSF previously co-sponsored this competition with the AAAS journal Science.
