UPF and its global network of Ambassadors for Peace affirm and apply universal, spiritual values to the task of resolving conflict and reconciling the divided human family.

CORE VALUES

- We are one human family created by God.
- The highest achievements of men and women are rooted in spiritual and moral development.
- The family is the “school of love and peace.”
- Peace comes through dialogue, cooperation, and principled action.
- Service to others is the foundation of a good society.

21ST CENTURY PEACEBUILDING

International Leadership Conferences, symposia, and peace councils offer opportunities for capacity-building among leaders from all sectors. Peace and security considerations are complemented by “track two” diplomacy and grassroots programs that build support for a culture of peace.
International Summit Council for Peace

ISCP is an international network of current and former heads of state and government, who, through dialogue and collaboration, explore solutions and offer recommendations to address the world’s critical problems, including climate change and environmental issues, conflicts, poverty, war, corruption and family breakdown.

International Media Association for Peace

IMAP is an association of media professionals. The IMAP is a global network of media who work together for the achievement of a world of lasting and sustainable peace.

World Summit Series

INTERDEPENDENCE, MUTUAL PROSPERITY AND UNIVERSAL VALUES

UPF’s World Summit series convenes experts and leaders from all sectors to address critical problems such as climate change, conflict, displaced populations, corruption and crime, working collaboratively for the sake of peace and human development, interdependence, and mutual prosperity.

LEADERSHIP AND GOOD GOVERNANCE AWARDS

Leaders in government and religion who exemplify the highest ideals of good governance—accountability, respect for human dignity, honesty, and service—are honored with UPF’s Leadership and Good Governance Award.
In IAPP parliamentarians from around the world offer their insight on the value of increased cooperation and collaboration in the search for innovative solutions to some of the critical issues that we face on the local, national, regional and global levels, from climate change to the rise of extremist ideologies to humanitarian disasters and conflict.

Business leaders have the opportunity and responsibility to work in collaboration with other sectors of society to make the world a better place, addressing its most significant challenges, and promoting world peace, long-term mutual prosperity and truly sustainable development. IAED believes we are all truly connected and that a prosperous, peaceful world must be based upon a moral core of universal values.

In IAPD, due to their moral authority and emphasis on human rights based on the principle that we are one family created by God, religious leaders can help rebuild divided societies and assist in humanitarian services for the alleviation of hunger, disease and trauma due to natural and man-made disasters.

IAAP represents a new global interdisciplinary academic initiative aimed at contributing to the realization of a world of lasting peace by building a professional network for academicians to foster a world of peace based on the ideals of interdependence, mutual prosperity and universal values.
SUNHAK PEACE PRIZE FOUNDATION
UPF established the Sunhak Peace Prize Foundation to promote the vision of the Sunhak Peace Prize, which honors distinguished individuals and organizations that have dedicated themselves to living for the sake of others and for the sake of future generations.

OFFICE OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY
Marriage, parenting, and the family are the foundations of sustainable human development and the building blocks of society. Educational programs present the personal and social benefits of marriage, promote a marriage-friendly culture, teach relationship skills, and encourage spiritual growth through relationships.

PEACE ROAD
UPF partners with the World Peace Road Foundation on a global level to promote the vision for a “peace road” that brings the world together through a global system of highways, railways, bridges, and tunnels, helping create an interdependent, interconnected, and harmonious world.

ILC SERIES
Since its inception, UPF has sponsored a series of International Leadership Conferences aimed at addressing the critical challenges of our time. Participants of all national, religious, cultural, and ethnic backgrounds have participated and benefited from this series over the years.
