Registration is open to all. Early bird registration is $175 and the deadline for the special rate is February 28, 2014. After that date, rates will increase to $225. The last day to register is Monday, June 23, 2014. Register today! Space is limited.

In addition, three Youth Day Camps will be offered: Bison Games Camp, Explore D.C. Camp, and Youth ASL Camp. The camps are for deaf, hard of hearing, CODA, and hearing children and teens ages 8-15. Participants in Bison Games Camp will compete in athletic competitions including relay races, swimming, basketball, and volleyball. Explore D.C. Camp is for children and teens interested in enjoying the wonderful resources of our nation’s capital. Campers will visit museums, monuments, and historical sites around vibrant Washington, D.C. The Youth ASL Camp is designed for CODA and hearing children and teens who want to learn the basics of American Sign Language, Deaf Culture, and the deaf community. Click here to sign up.

Those attending the Gallaudet Reunion can stay on campus in the residence halls or at nearby hotels. Lodging details are found here.

Sesquicentennial events also include a lecture series, symposium, Charter Day celebration, museum exhibition and much more! To see the full schedule of events, click here.
