Subject: Sesquicentennial Lecture Series

I am pleased to announce the Sesquicentennial Lecture Series (SLS), which will take place during the 2013-2014 academic year in honor of the 150th anniversary of Gallaudet University. We hope to bring distinguished guests and alumni to campus to share their significant expertise and instrumental contributions to the global community.

The Sesquicentennial Lecture Series Committee consists of Dr. Brian Greenwald, chair; Dr. Teresa Blankmeyer Burke; Dr. Caroline Solomon, and Dr. Gaurav Mathur. They wish to solicit your recommendations for presenters whom you believe have demonstrated visionary leadership or have made substantial contributions in fields including, but not limited to, the arts, sciences, humanities, law, medicine, and business.

To submit your recommendation, please click on one of the following links and fill in the relevant information on the suggested presenter. (You must be logged into your Gallaudet University Google Apps account; i.e., your email account.) You may submit more than one recommendation, but please fill out one form at a time for each recommendation. All recommendations will be anonymous. The submission deadline is Saturday, December 1.

In addition, there will be an open forum on Wednesday, November 28 from 12 noon to 1 p.m. in the Jordan Student Academic Center, “G” Area. This will be your opportunity to submit feedback and suggestions in person.

If you wish to send other types of suggestions, you may email them to 150lectures@gmail.com.

Thank you.
